The Company expects to report net income available to common shareholders of $276,061, or $0.07 per diluted share, for the three months ended June 30, 2010, compared to net loss available to common shareholders of $(1,905,081), or $(0.45) per diluted share, for the same period in 2009. Net income available to common shareholders for the six months ended June 30, 2010 is anticipated to be $582,199, or $0.14 per diluted share, compared to $(1,980,218), or $(0.47) per diluted share, for the same period in 2009. The increase for the three- and six-month periods resulted predominantly from an increased net interest margin, lower loan loss provisions and higher noninterest income, partially offset by increased noninterest expense, particularly salaries and benefits.
