OVERVIEW

MedCom USA, Inc. (the "Company") a Delaware corporation was formed in August 1991 with the name Sims Communications, Inc. The Company's primary business was providing telecommunications services. In 1996 the Company introduced four programs to broaden the Company's product and service mix: (a) cellular telephone activation, (b) sale of prepaid calling cards, (c) sale of long distance telephone service and (d) rental of cellular telephones using an overnight courier service. With the exception of the sale of prepaid calling cards, these four programs were discontinued in December 1997. During the fiscal year of 1998, the Company diversified its operations and moved into the area of medical information processing.

Edgar Filing: MEDCOM USA INC - Form 10KSB

The Company changed its name to MedCom USA, Inc. in October 1999. During the fiscal years of 1999 and continuing through 2003, the Company directed its efforts in medical information processing. As of June 30, 2004, the Company currently operates the MedCard System (MedCard) that is deployed through a point-of-sale terminal or personal computer offering electronic transaction processing, as well as insurance eligibility verification. The Company has aggressively focused on its primary operations in electronic data interchange and core business in electronic medical transaction processing.

MEDCARD SYSTEM

The Company provides innovative technology-based solutions for the healthcare industry that enable users to efficiently collect, use, analyze and disseminate data from payers, health care providers and patients. The MedCard System currently operates through a point-of-sale terminal or a personal computer. The point-of-sale terminals are purchased from Hypercom Corporation (Hypercom). The MedCard System also operates in a PC version and an on-line version. The Company is in the process of assessing the feasibility of offering a service bundled package that would have the capability of processing unlimited claims and eligibility verification for monthly service fees.

FINANCIAL SERVICES

The Company's credit card center and check services, provides the healthcare industry a combination of services designed to improve collection and approvals of credit/debit card payments along with the added benefit and convenience of personal check guarantee from financial institutions.

Flex-pay is an accounts receivable management program that allows a provider to swipe a patient's credit card and store the patient's signature in the terminals, and bill the patient's card at a later date when it is determined what services rendered were not covered by the patient's insurance. Also, an easy-pay option is offered which allows patient's the added benefit and convenience of a one-time payment option or a recurring installment payments that will be processed on a specified date determined by the provider and patient. These options insure providers that payments are timely processed with the features of electronic accounts receivable management. These services are all deployed thorough point-of-sale terminals or a personal computer. Using the MedCard system, medical providers are relieved of many of the problems associated with billings and account management, and results in lower administrative documentation and costs.

PATIENT ELIGIBILITY

The MedCard System is also an electronic processing system that consolidates insurance eligibility verification, processes medical claims, and monitors referrals. The MedCard System allows a patient's primary care physician to request approval from the patient's insurance carrier or managed care plan for a referral to a secondary physician or specialist. The secondary physician or specialist can use the MedCard system to verify referrals are approved by the patient's insurance carrier. The MedCard system's referral capabilities reduce documentation and administrative costs which results in increased productivity and greater patient information for the specialist, as well as a written record of the referral authorization.

The MedCard System can record and track encounters between patients and health care providers for performance evaluation and maintenance of records. After examining a patient the physician enters a patient's name, procedure code and diagnostic code at a nearby terminal. This information is then uploaded to MedCom's computer network, processed and transmitted back to the provider formatted in both summary and/or detailed reports, and as a result healthcare providers' reimbursements are accelerated and account receivables are reduced. The average time it takes the healthcare providers to collect payments from insurance carriers and plans decreases from an average of 89 days to 7-21 days. Health care providers will benefit from a 100% paperless claim processing system.

As of June 30, 2004 the MedCard system was able to retrieve on-line eligibility and authorization information from approximately 150 medical insurance companies and electronically process and submit billings for its healthcare providers to over 1,700 companies. These insurance providers include CIGNA, Prudential, Oxford Health Plan, United Health Plans, Blue Cross, Medicaid, Aetna, Blue Cross/Blue Shield, and Prudential.

COMPETITION

Competing health insurance claims processing and/or benefit verification systems include WebMD(HLTH), NDCHealth(NDC), Per-se Technologies(PSTI). There are similar companies that compete with the Company with respect to its financial transaction processing services performed by the MedCard system. These companies compete with the Company directly or to some degree. Many of these competitors are better capitalized than the Company, and maintain a significant market share in their respective industries.

REGULATORY COMPLIANCE

With the passage of the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) of 1996, the United States Congress has mandated the establishment of standards for the privacy of individually identifiable health information. Specifically, the regulation entitled, Standards for Privacy of Individually Identifiable Health Information ("the Privacy Rule") promulgated by the Department of Health and Human Services (HHS), provides for a comprehensive federal protection for the privacy of health information. The Rule applies only to health plans, health care clearinghouses, and certain health care providers, which must comply with the new requirements. The Company's core operating business is not subject to the Privacy Rule, which defines the Company as a "business associate". A business associate is an entity that provides certain functions, activities, or services for or to a covered entity. These covered entities typically obtain contractual assurances that the business associate will use the information only for the purposes for which they were contracted and not for independent use by the business.

LICENSING AGREEMENTS

In May 2000 the license agreement with Dream Technologies, LLC, was amended whereby the Company acquired direct ownership of the MedCard System including all software programs, intellectual property, trade names and existing contracts. The amendment effectively terminated the original license agreement, except for the royalty provisions of the original license agreement. Subsequently, on January 14, 2002, the Company changed the terms of the royalties included in the original agreement with Dream Technologies, and as a result past royalties were waived in good faith, for the exception of $30,000, which was agreed and payable in equal monthly installments. In connection with the past royalties, Dream Technologies, LLC was issued a certificate representing one-million unregistered shares of common stock with a par value of $.001.

The Company is required to pay royalties to Dream equal to twenty percent of the first $1,000,000 of net monthly revenue and ten percent of net monthly revenue in excess of $1,000,000. The term net revenues is defined as gross revenues received from the use of the MedCard software less (a) terminal lease costs (b) commissions payable to agents that place terminals with end users (c) network costs that include: i) claim fees payable to data vendors, ii) charges for verification of insurance coverage iii) similar telecommunications charges related to obtaining claims processing and/or benefits verification information; and (d) cost of the terminal and shipping/handling.

SERVICE AGREEMENTS

Edgar Filing: MEDCOM USA INC - Form 10KSB

The services provided are complimentary to the Company's core business, and accomplishes transaction processing services that allows healthcare providers and payers to process medical transactions quickly and accurately, and results in reduced administrative costs with the benefit of accelerated reimbursements to healthcare providers.

During January 2002, the Company has entered into a service agreement with MedUnite. This alliance will encompass the utilization of proprietary technologies and will enhance the existing network of healthcare constituents. Strategically both companies share the same vision of transforming the healthcare transactions systems affecting how healthcare providers, health plans, and other groups transacting business with one another by significantly reducing claim and payment processing time, and reducing healthcare administrative costs.

During February 2003, the Company has entered into a service agreement with HD Brous & Company. The Company has pledged in collateral in connection with the lease agreements one-million restricted common shares of stock. These common stock shares would be surrendered upon the default of such leasing agreements. This pledge and granting of security interest was executed on January 3, 2002.

The Company has arranged its terms with this credit facility as an equipment lessor whereby the Company sells terminals to the lessor when it has obtained a service contract with a provider. Under these agreements, the Company is leasing back the processing terminals from the lessor and in turn leases them to the purchaser for a period of 48-60 months however; the customer may terminate the agreement after 12 months. The Company is accounting for the transactions as sale-leasebacks. The leases with the customers are inclusive with the monthly service contracts and are effectively accounted for as operating leases. Gains on terminal sales under sale-leaseback transactions are deferred and are being amortized to income in proportion to amortization of the assets, generally over the term of the lease with the credit facility generally for a period of 48-60 months. At June 30, 2004, the remaining deferred equipment gain of $3,295,610 is shown as "Deferred Revenues" in the Company's Balance Sheet.

YEAR ENDED JUNE 30, 2004

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

FISCAL YEAR END JUNE 30, 2004, COMPARED TO FISCAL YEAR END JUNE 30, 2003.

Revenues for Fiscal 2004 increased to $3,029,875 from $2,199,823 during Fiscal 2003. This increase in revenue is directly the result of changes in the Company's strategic direction in core operations. This included discontinuing declining or unprofitable business sectors and officer and management changes. The Company continues to aggressively pursue and devote its resources and focus its direction in electronic transaction processing. The Company's agreement with its credit facility in connection with the sale-leaseback transactions therewith, the Company must defer revenue gains on the sale of the terminals. Those gains are generally recognized over a period of 48-60 months.

Selling expenses for Fiscal 2004 decreased to $1,043,634 from $1,135,364 during Fiscal 2003. This decrease is primarily the result of marketing efforts and includes commissions paid to internal sales personnel to market the Company's products and services. The Company is currently assessing if it will continue with its outside independent sales organizations.

General and administrative expenses for Fiscal 2004 increased to $3,488,632 from $2,623,642 during Fiscal 2003. This increase is attributed to the Company's hiring of additional employees as growth has occurred in the area of providing technical support for our products and services in relation to the increases in sales.

Professional and consulting expenses for Fiscal 2004 increased to $745,348 from $253,155 during Fiscal 2003. These expenses primarily are the result of the recognition of stock/warrants granted for various services to the Company. The expense recognized is determined from the bid and ask price of the common stock at the date of the transaction.

Interest expense for Fiscal 2004 increased to $887,921 from $438,099 for Fiscal 2003. This increase is a result of increased sales volume and sales-leaseback transactions with the Company's credit facility. Also, expenses were incurred and paid on notes the Company has outstanding.

TRADE VENDOR OBLIGATIONS

The Company had in the past incurred obligations in many business segments that had been sold or divested several years ago. The Company has accruals of approximately $1,065,000 since those business units were divested. These obligations were due to trade vendors and property management companies. Management believes that the statute of limitations for collecting on these obligations has expired. Subsequently, the Company has removed approximately $870,000 of these obligations during the year ended June 30, 2004. The Company will maintain approximately $195,000 in accruals for these vendor obligations. Although the Company believes that the possibility is remote, vendors associated with these written-off obligations may make a claim against the Company.

The loss for Fiscal 2004 was ($4,609,291) from ($3,724,137) for Fiscal 2003. Sales and marketing expenses along with interest expenses have increased for Fiscal 2003. The Company has incurred these marketing and sales expenses in relation to increased demand for the Company's products and services.

As of June 30, 2004, MedCom had a federal net operating loss carry forward of $51,189,000 expiring 2011 to 2023. MedCom had a state net operating loss carry forward of $29,603,000 expiring from 2005 to 2008.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

The Company's operating requirements have been funded primarily on its capital sale- leaseback transactions, and sales of the Company's common stock. During the year ended June 30, 2004, the Company's net proceeds from the capital sales leaseback transactions was approximately $609,000 and proceeds from the sale of common stock were approximately $5,877,000. The Company believes that the cash flows from its monthly service and transaction fees are adequate to repay the capital sale-leaseback operations.

Cash used in operating activities for Fiscal 2004 was ($5,088,511) compared to ($3,303,080) for Fiscal 2003. The Company's focus on core operations will result in lower accounts receivable and inventory levels. The Company receives payments from customers automatically through electronic fund transfers. Collection cycles are generally less than thirty days.

Cash used in investing activities was ($1,662,735) for Fiscal 2004, compared to cash used in investing activities of ($754,489) for Fiscal 2003. Streamlining operations and capital budget curtailment practices promoted a reduction in equipment purchases for the Company.

Cash provided by financing activities was $6,783,407 in Fiscal 2004, compared to $2,575,623 for Fiscal 2003. Financing activities primarily consisted of proceeds from the sale-leaseback transactions during the fiscal period.

The Company has advanced funds to an affiliated entity that is controlled by the Company's chairman and chief executive officer. As of June 30, 2004 the Company maintains an account receivable from this entity for the amount of $1,420,229 including accrued interest.

The Company is delinquent on operating lease obligations; as well as obligations to other creditors as of June 30, 2004. The Company is attempting to settle or make counter claims for these creditors. There can be no assurances that the Company will be successful in negotiating settlements and preventing creditors from filing claims.

OTHER CONSIDERATIONS

There are numerous factors that affect the business and the results of its operations. Sources of these factors include general economic and business conditions, federal and state regulation of business activities, the level of demand for product services, the level and intensity of competition in the healthcare electronic transaction processing industry, and the ability to develop new services based on new or evolving technology and the market's acceptance of those new services, the Company's ability to timely and effectively manage periodic product transitions, the services, customer and geographic sales mix of any particular period, and our ability to continue to improve our infrastructure including personnel and systems to keep pace with the Company's anticipated rapid growth.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Stockholders and Board of Directors of MedCom USA, Inc.:

We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheet of MedCom USA, Inc. as of June 30, 2004 and the related statements of operations, stockholders' equity and cash flows for the each of the two years in the period then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Standards Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of MedCom USA, Inc. as of June 30, 2004, and the results of its operations and cash flows for each of the two years in the period ended June 30, 2004, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared assuming that the Company will continue as a going concern. The Company continues to incur significant operating losses. The Company has begun to generate revenue from its electronic transaction business but has continued to incur material obligations under sale-leaseback transactions. These factors raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. Management's plans with regard to these matters are discussed in Note 1. The financial statements do not include any adjustments relating to the recoverability and classification of asset carrying amounts or the amount and classification of liabilities that might result should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern.

MEDCOM USA, INC.
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
FOR THE YEAR ENDED JUNE 30, 2004

1. ORGANIZATION AND BASIS OF PRESENTATION

MedCom USA, Inc. (the "Company"), formally Sims Communications, Inc., provides point-of-sale transaction terminals and personal computer based software to perform medical insurance eligibility verification, claims processing, and credit card/ATM charges and payments. The Company's customers are health care providers, primarily physicians' offices throughout the United States.

The accompanying financial statements represent the consolidated financial position and results of operations of the Company and includes the accounts and results of operations of the Company and its wholly owned subsidiaries. The accompanying financial statements include only the active entity of MedCom USA, Inc., The Company has several inactive subsidiaries.

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared assuming that the Company will continue as a going concern. The Company continues to incur material operating losses and has failed to generate positive cash flow from operations. The Company has a working capital deficit of $1,981,465 at June 30, 2004. The Company has generated cash flow through sale-leaseback financing transactions to fund its operations. Management believes that the Company has begun to generate a level of volume in the sales and service contracts of its processing terminals that will allow the Company to meet operating cash flow requirements. The Company has recently changed some of its operations that may allow the Company to better manage cash flows.

The Company has begun to experience increased sales of its MedCard System and has generated cash through the use of sale-leaseback transactions connected to the sales of the terminals for the MedCard System. Management is attempting to attain a sustaining level of operating cash flow from the Company's MedCard operations. The Company has raised additional equity capital in the year ended June 30, 2004 and may attempt to raise additional capital to grow the MedCard operations and to fund inventory and receivable growth.

Cash reserves and working capital at June 30, 2004 were insufficient to fund currently due obligations. As discussed above, the Company is generating cash flow from sales activities and sale-leaseback transactions. Such cash flow is only recently provided some evidence that it is sufficient to cover current operating expenses. However, this level of cash flow does not permit the Company to retire many older debts or expand its operations. The Company believes that it needs additional cash, either from outside financing or expanded sales activities, in order to retire past due debts and significantly expand the Company's operations. If the Company is unable to produce sales as planned and/or raise additional investment capital to fully implement its business plan, it may jeopardize the ability of the Company to continue as a going concern.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Cash includes all short-term highly liquid investments that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and have original maturities of three months or less. Net bank overdrafts are recorded as current liabilities.

Principles of Consolidation: The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its wholly owned subsidiaries. All significant intercompany accounts and transactions are eliminated.

Inventories consist primarily point-of sale ("POS") terminals and spare parts that are held for sale. Inventories are recorded at the lower of cost or market on a first-in, first-out basis. POS terminals that are returned by customers and are held for resale are recorded at the carrying value of the terminal, which is the capitalized cost of the underlying sale-leaseback transaction, net of accumulated amortization.
-----

Property and Equipment and Terminals is stated at cost less accumulated depreciation. Depreciation is recorded on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful lives of the assets ranging from 3 to 5 years. Terminals are recorded at the capitalized cost of the underlying sale-leaseback transactions. Depreciation expense for the years ended June 30, 2004 and 2003 was $1,450,731 and $969,463, respectively.

Revenue Recognition - The Company's revenue is generated by the sale of POS
terminals and transaction fees generated through those terminals. Revenue from the sale of POS terminals is recognized when delivered to the customer and installed. Customers also may rent terminals without purchasing them directly. Rental income is recorded monthly as customers utilize the terminals. Transactions fees are recognized upon completion of the transaction processing. Sales commissions are determined on the basis of the total contract value and are payable and expensed when the terminal is installed.

Gains are deferred on sale-leaseback transactions of terminals and are amortized in proportion to the amortization of the leased terminals, generally over the term of the related capital leases.

Customers may return terminals under certain terms outlined in the rental agreements. Generally, customer returns do not affect previously recognized revenue in that rental/service and transaction fee income is recognized as the customer utilizes the terminal. When a customer terminates service, the billing process ceases and the terminals are returned and placed into inventory.

Income Taxes - The Company provides for income taxes based on the provisions of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 109, Accounting for Income Taxes, which, among other things, requires that recognition of deferred income taxes be measured by the provisions of enacted tax laws in effect at the date of financial statements.
-----

Financial Instruments - Financial instruments consist primarily of accounts receivable, and obligations under accounts payable, accrued expenses, capital lease obligations and notes payable. The carrying amounts of accounts receivable, accounts payable, accrued expenses and notes payable approximate fair value because of the short maturity of those instruments. The carrying value of the Company's capital lease arrangements approximates fair value because the instruments were valued at the retail cost of the equipment at the time the Company entered into the arrangements.

The Company has applied certain assumptions in estimating these fair values. The use of different assumptions or methodologies may have a material effect on the estimates of fair values.

Net Loss Per Share is calculated using the weighted average number of ----- shares of common stock outstanding during the year. The Company has adopted the provisions of SFAS No. 128 Earnings Per Share.

Use of Estimates- The preparation of financial statements in conformity ----- with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Stock-Based Compensation - Statements of Financial Accounting Standards No. -----
123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation, ("SFAS 123") established accounting and disclosure requirements using a fair-value based method of accounting for stock-based employee compensation. In accordance with SFAS 123, the Company has elected to continue accounting for stock based compensation using the intrinsic value method prescribed by Accounting Principles Board Opinion No. 25, "Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees."

From time to time, the Company issues stock options to executives, key employees and members of the Board of Directors. Generally, when the Company grants stock options to employees, there is no intrinsic value of those options on the date of grant. Accordingly, no compensation cost has been recognized for stock options granted to employees. There were no options granted in the year ended June 30, 2004 and 400,000 options were granted in the year ended June 30, 2003. There was no additional vesting of options previously granted.

The fair values of the options granted in the year end June 30, 2003, were estimated at the date of grant using the Black-Scholes option-pricing model with the following assumptions:

|-------------------------|---------|
| Dividend yield          | None    |
| Volatility              | 1.56    |
| Risk free interest rate | 4.18%   |
| Expected asset life     | 5 years |

Had compensation cost for the Company's stock options been determined based on the fair value at the grant date for awards in 2003, consistent with the provisions of SFAS No. 123, the Company's net loss and loss per share would have been increased to the pro forma amounts indicated below:

The Company accounts for stock awards issued to nonemployees in accordance with the provisions of SFAS 123 and Emerging Issues Task Force ("EITF") Issue No. 96-18 Accounting for Equity Instruments that are Issued to Other Than Employees for Acquiring, or in Conjunction with Selling Goods or Services. Under SFAS 123 and EITF 96-18, stock awards to nonemployees are accounted for at their fair value as determined under Black-Scholes option pricing model.

Intangible Assets at June 30, 2004 consist of goodwill associated with the Company's acquisition of MedCard for the difference between the purchase price of the acquired business and the fair value of the identifiable net assets. Medcard is the only remaining operating subsidiary. The Company adopted Statement of Financial Accounting Standard ("SFAS") No. 142, Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets, effective July 1, 2002. As a result, the Company discontinued amortization of goodwill, and instead annually evaluates the carrying value of goodwill for impairment, in accordance with the provisions of SFAS No. 142. The Company believes that there has been no impairment of the carrying value of goodwill of $436,423 as of June 30, 2004.

Goodwill had been amortized over 5 years. Had the Company amortized goodwill in the year ended June 30, 2004, the related amortization expense would have been $151,800.

Research and Development costs are expensed as incurred.

whenever there is an indication that the carrying amount of the asset may not be recoverable. Recoverability of these assets is determined by comparing the forecasted undiscounted cash flows generated by those assets to the assets' net carrying value. The amount of impairment loss, if any, is measured as the difference between the net book value of the assets and the estimated fair value of the related assets.

Recently Issued Accounting Pronouncements: In December 2002, the FASB issued SFAS No. 148, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation - Transaction and Disclosure, which provides alternative methods of transition for a voluntary change to fair value based method of accounting for stock-based employee compensation as prescribed in SFAS 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation. Additionally, SFAS No. 148 requires more prominent and more frequent disclosures in financial statements about the effects of stock-based compensation. The provisions of this statement are effective for fiscal years ending after December 15, 2002, with early application permitted in certain circumstances. The Company presently does not intend to adopt the fair value based method of accounting for its stock based compensation.

In June 2003 the FASB issued Statement No. 150, "Accounting for Certain Financial Instruments with Characteristics of both Liabilities and Equity" SFAS No. 150 requires certain instruments, including mandatorily redeemable shares, to be classified as liabilities, not as part of shareholders' equity or redeemable equity. For instruments that are entered into or modified after May 31, 2003, SFAS No. 150 is effective immediately upon entering the transaction or modifying the terms. For other instruments covered by Statement 150 that were entered into before June 1, 2003, Statement 150 is effective for the first interim period beginning after June 15, 2003. The Company has evaluated the provisions of SFAS No. 150 and implementation of such was not material.

In November 2002, the FASB issued Interpretation No. 45 ("FIN 45"), Guarantor's Accounting and Disclosure Requirements for Guarantees, including Indirect Guarantees of Indebtedness of Others. FIN 45 requires a company, at the time it issues a guarantee, to recognize an initial liability for the fair value of obligations assumed under the guarantees and elaborates on existing disclosure requirements related to guarantees and warranties. The initial recognition requirements are effective for the Company during the third quarter ending March 31, 2003. The adoption of FIN 45 did not have an impact on the Company's financial position or results of operations.

In January 2003, the FASB issued FASB Interpretation No. 46 ("FIN 46"), Consolidation of Variable Interest Entities, an Interpretation of ARB No. 51. FIN 46 requires certain variable interest entities to be consolidated by the primary beneficiary of the entity if the equity investors in the entity do not have the characteristics of a controlling financial interest or do not have sufficient equity at risk for the entity to finance its activities without additional subordinated financial support from other parties. FIN 46 is effective for all new variable interest entities created or acquired after January 31, 2003. For variable interest entities created or acquired prior to February 1, 2003, the provisions of FIN 46 must be applied for the first interim or annual period beginning after June 15, 2003. The adoption of FIN 46 did not have an impact on the Company's financial position or results of operations.

4. GAIN ON WRITE-OFF OF OLD TRADE VENDOR OBLIGATIONS

The Company had incurred material unpaid obligations in many business segments that had been sold or abandoned several years ago. The Company has retained accruals of approximately $1,065,000 since those business units were divested. The Company attempted to pay numerous of these obligations. Most of the obligations were due to trade vendors and landlords. Many of these creditors ceased collection efforts several years ago and the Company has not had communications with these creditors since then. Upon being advised by legal counsel, management believes that the statute of limitations for collecting on these obligations has expired. On that premise, the Company removed approximately $870,000 of these obligations during the year ended June 30, 2004. The $870,000 gain is included in other income in the accompanying statement of operations for the year ended June 30, 2004.

5. PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENT

The Company capitalizes the value of the point of sale terminals that are sold under capital sale-leaseback transactions (Note 8). The terminals are purchased from third party vendors and are recorded as inventory at that time. The Company enters into sale and service agreements with its customers at which time the terminal is programmed with the Company's proprietary software and installed with the customer. Many of those terminals are the basis for the sale-leaseback transactions discussed in Note 8. The terminals are capitalized at the value determined by the lessor on the basis of the cash flow under the terms of the sale and service agreements with the customers.

Note payable to landlord. Collateralized by leasehold improvements. Original principal balance of $95,000. The note bears interest at 9% per annum and requires monthly principal and interest payments of $1,999. The Company has defaulted on the note, and the landlord has obtained a judgment which is being appealed. 84,437

Both of the notes payable are in default as of June 30, 2004. A former landlord has obtained a court ordered judgment against the Company for the past due note, unpaid rent and legal fees. The Company is attempting to renegotiate and settle this obligation.

8. CAPITAL LEASE OBLIGATIONS AND SALE-LEASEBACK TRANSACTIONS

The Company leases many of its MedCard terminals under capital lease agreements.

The Company has entered into an arrangement with a third party lessor whereby the Company sells its terminals that are placed with customers to the lessor. The lessor in turn leases back the terminals. These transactions are recorded as sale-leaseback transactions. The leases between the Company and the lessor are accounted for as capital leases. The Company generates revenue from the terminals through monthly service and rental fees and transaction fees. The value of the sale transaction between the Company and lessor is determined by Company's agreement with the customer relative to the number of terminals, length of the customer contract and monthly service fee due from the customer. The Company acquires terminals from its suppliers, programs the terminals with its software and sells the terminals to the lessor when it enters into an agreement with a customer for those specific terminals. Any gain on the sale transaction with the lessor is deferred and amortized proportionately with the capitalized asset. That period is generally four or five years, the typical length of the lease agreement. At June 30, 2004, the amount of deferred gain on sale-leaseback transactions was $3,295,610.

Generally, the terms of repayment for the capital lease obligations approximates the monthly rental charged the customer by the Company. These leases are collateralized by the underlying equipment, contract with the customer and, in addition, 1,000,000 shares of the Company's common stock. The projected cash flow from the customer contract is generally greater than the payments required under the capital lease arrangement with the customer. There have been occurrences when customers terminate a contract and the terminals are returned to the Company. The Company will have the opportunity to resell that unit under a new contract. The Company may also obtain a new capital lease through a sale leaseback transaction with the lessor. Therefore, there may be more than a single capital lease obligation to repay although there is only a single customer contract. The Company believes that it generates sufficient cash flows from direct sales and service revenue to cover such variances in capital lease obligations to customer contracts.

The following presents future minimum lease payments under the capital leases by year and the present value of minimum lease payments as of June 30, 2004:

12. COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

Employment Agreements

The Company has entered into numerous employment agreements with officers and key employees. Generally, the employment agreements are for three-year periods and include, as potential additional compensation, incentive bonuses computed based upon Company's operations and other benefits, including such items as an automobile allowance, health and life insurance, vacation and sick pay benefits. In June 2000, the Company entered into employment agreements with several officers. These agreements were renegotiated in the year ended June 30, 2002. Total aggregate annual compensation under these agreements is $208,000. These individuals may be entitled to receive incentive bonuses and other benefits including health insurance, disability coverage, vacation and sick pay. These individuals received options to purchase a total of 25,000 shares of the Company's common stock at $3.00 per share with vesting on an annual basis over two years. The agreements terminated on June 19, 2003.

Royalty Agreement

In connection with the original licensing and subsequent acquisition of MedCard, the Company entered into a royalty agreement with the original Licensor. The royalty provisions of the license agreement remained in effect after the purchase. This agreement was amended in the year ended June 30, 2002. The Company will pay the Licensor 20% of the first $1,000,000 of qualified monthly revenues, less direct costs, generated by the licensed software and 10% of net monthly revenue in excess of $1,000,000.

Consulting Agreements

The Company has entered into various consulting agreements with outside consultants. These agreements entitle the consultant to issuances of common stock and options as well as cash compensation in exchange for consulting services relating to such things as raising additional debt and equity capital, software development, sales development, investor and public relations and general strategic business consulting. Most of these agreements were prepaid through the issuance of common stock or warrants. However, certain of these agreements included additional compensation on the basis of performance. The Company has cancelled all of these agreements and wrote-off all of the associated prepaid expense balances at June 30, 2001. The Company does not believe that it has any further obligation under these agreements. However, there have been certain claims made. During the year ended June 30, 2003, the Company settled such claim resulting in the utilization of a $98,000 accrual made as of June 30, 2002. This agreement included the return of 186,000 shares of the Company's common stock held by the consultant. These shares were returned as of June 30, 2003, and were recorded as treasury stock during the year ended June 30, 2004.

During February 2004, the Company has entered into a consulting agreement whereby the consultant will act as investor relations advisor on the Company's behalf. Upon the execution of the contract the Company granted the consultant fifty thousand shares of restricted stock and $50,000.

During February 2003, the Company has entered into a service agreement with a consultant whereby the consultant will act as financial advisor and investment banking representative on the Company's behalf. Upon the execution of the contract the Company granted the consultant warrants to purchase up to 400,000 shares of the Company's common stock at an exercise price of $0.50 per common share. The warrants expire five years from date of issuance.

Litigation

Subsequent to June 30, 2001, several former employees filed complaints against the Company alleging unpaid payroll and breach of employment agreements. The total known claims being sought by the former employees at June 30, 2001 was approximately $175,000. The Company believes that it has settled all former employee claims in amounts aggregating to an amount approximating the accrued amount of $104,000. A former officer has a claim remaining with the Company. The Company is attempting to settle this claim. At June 30, 2004, there was $164,000 accrued relating to this matter.

Several landlords are seeking damages from the Company due to the Company defaulting on several lease agreements. Certain landlords have obtained legal judgments against the Company. The total amount of such claims was $634,000. The Company and its legal counsel believe that ultimate settlement will result in a much lower payout. The Company has accrued $208,000 associated with these claims at June 30, 2004. This amount was estimated on the basis of advice from legal counsel whom has settled several similar suits. However, the ultimate result of any settlement could vary significantly from this estimate.

The Company had obligated shares of the Company's common stock and warrants exercisable into common stock under numerous consulting and fund raising agreements. Some such agreements obligated shares in cases of the occurrence of substantial dilution or price drop in the trading value of the Company's common stock. Management believes that it has fulfilled all such obligations. The Company settled one such claim in the year ended June 30, 2004. Management believes that there is a possibility that additional claims may arise.

The Company may be subject other unasserted claims associated with the abandonment of its operations. The Company is also involved in various claims and legal actions arising in the ordinary course of business. In the opinion of management, except as discussed above, the ultimate disposition of these matters will not have a material adverse effect on the Company's financial position, results of operations, or liquidity.

At June 30, 2004, there was approximately $372,000 estimated and accrued for claims related to the litigation matters described above.

Customer Contracts

Customers may arrange to have the purchase of the Company's point-of-sale terminals financed through the financial institution that provides the sale-leaseback financing to the Company. The Company has agreements with this financial institution to guarantee varying amounts associated with the financial institution's arrangements with the customers. Generally, the Company may be required to remit to the financial institution, one to six months of scheduled customer payments if the customer defaults on its financing arrangement with the financial institution. Subsequent to June 30, 2004, the Company entered into a new master contract with the financial institution that limits the recourse to the Company to the first payment under the customer's contract. The amount of such payment would not exceed $100. The Company has not experienced material obligations to-date under the recourse agreements and believes that the new agreement substantially limits potential obligations in the future to an immaterial amount.
