Item 5. OTHER EVENTS

In February 2001, the Company determined that between May 21, 1999 and April 7, 2000 stock certificates representing 1,107,951 shares (the "Discrepant Shares") were illegally authenticated by the Company's prior transfer agent or others acting on its behalf. The Discrepant Shares were not recorded in the stock ledger records kept by the former transfer agent. Following the discovery of potential criminal activity, the Company contacted law enforcement officials, Nasdaq and the Securities and Exchange Commission and has assisted law enforcement in the investigation of this matter. On February 5, 2001, Nasdaq halted trading of MindArrow's common stock on the Nasdaq SmallCap Market. The Company has been and continues to provide information to Nasdaq in an effort to permit trading on Nasdaq to resume. We cannot assure you when, or if, trading in our common stock on the Nasdaq SmallCap Market will resume.

In order to offset the impact of recognizing additional shares that may be in the hands of innocent purchasers, the Company's co-chairmen have entered into an agreement with the Company pursuant to which they have agreed to contribute for cancellation by the Company 1,107,951 shares owned by them. This contribution of shares will be made concurrent with the exchange of new shares for the wrongly authenticated certificates. The agreement provides that in the event that any of the Discrepant Shares are recovered by the Company, an equivalent number of shares shall be issued to the Company's co-chairmen. In the event that the Company recovers cash or property other than the Discrepant Shares, then the Company shall issue shares of its common stock to the Company's co-chairmen at a rate of one share of common stock for every $4.50 in property or cash recovered. In no event shall the Company be obligated to issue more than 1,107,951 shares pursuant to the agreement.

On March 30, 2001, the Company issued new shares in exchange for the Discrepant Shares and the 1,107,951 shares agreed to be contributed by the co-chairmen were contributed to the Company and cancelled. No gain or loss will be recognized by the Company as a result of the share contribution.

The Discrepant Shares entered the public float over a period of approximately eleven months. In connection with the exchange, the Company determined that under generally accepted accounting principles it should record a non-recurring, non-cash charge of $18,682,398 at the time the exchange of new shares for the Discrepant Shares occurs. Accordingly, this non-cash charge will be reflected in the Company's Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2001. This amount represents the estimated market value of the Discrepant Shares at the time they entered the public float. The charge has no impact on total stockholders' equity, as the Company will concurrently record an $18,682,398 increase to additional paid-in capital. Any amounts recovered by the Company from the perpetrators of the fraud will be recorded as non-operating income at the time of the recovery. It is not known whether the Company will achieve any recovery.

The following is a schedule of as reported and pro forma net loss and loss per share, illustrating the impact the Discrepant Shares would have had if the loss of $18,682,398 associated with the Discrepant Shares had been recorded in the periods in which the Discrepant Shares entered the public float:

Period from inception (March 26, 1999) to June 30, 1999	326,742	$ (3,880,061)	$ (799,762)	$ (4,679,823)	$
