On July 12, 2011, Focus Gold Corporation, a Nevada corporation (the "Company") entered into a Demand Promissory Note (the "Demand Note") with a private investor as the lender with the principal amount of $200,000. The Demand Note is payable on demand by the lender after August 30, 2011 and accrues interest at the rate of 2% per month calculated and compounded monthly until maturity. A commitment, arrangement and placement fee of $59,000 is payable at maturity. The Demand Note has a provision that if the Demand Loan is not repaid upon demand within 3 days, the lender may elect to receive as full repayment for the loan in restricted common stock of the Company at the rate of five times the principal divided by the 10 day average closing price of the Company's common stock prior to the date of demand.

On September 19, 2011 the Company issued a Promissory Note (the "Note") to Leif Wimmer. ("L Wimmer") in the amount of Seventy thousand US dollars ($70,000), to evidence funds lent by L. Wimmer to the Company on September 19, 2011. The Note is due upon demand after November 19, 2011 and immediately, upon demand, where the Company is in default or non-compliance under the respective note or default or non-compliance with other parties customarily including but not limited to, insolvency, bankruptcy or judgments against the Company. The Note bears interest at the rate of 2% per month calculated and compounded monthly and have commitment arrangement and placement fees of $17,500 per month (less interest).

On September 14, 2011 the Company issued a Promissory Note (the " Promissory Note ") to Per Wimmer. ("P. Wimmer") in the amount of two hundred thousand US dollars ($200,000), to evidence fund's lent by P.Wimmer to the Company on September 14, 2011. The Promissory Note is due upon demand after November 14, 2011 ($200,000) and immediately, upon demand, where the Company is in default or non-compliance under the respective note or default or non-compliance with other parties customarily including but not limited to, insolvency, bankruptcy or judgments against the Company. The Promissory Note bears interest at the rate of 2% per month calculated and compounded monthly and have commitment arrangement and placement fees of $50,000 per month (less interest).

On October 21, 2011 the Company issued a 6% Redeemable Convertible Note (the "Note") to GEL Properties LLC. ("GEL") in the amount of one hundred thousand US dollars ($100,000), to evidence funds lent by GEL to the Company on The 6% Note is due and payable October 25, 2012 and accrues interest on the outstanding principal balance at the rate of 6% per annum. The 6% Note is convertible at any time after April 25, 2012, into shares of the Company's common stock at a conversion price that is equal to 70% of the lowest closing bid price of the Company's common stock as reported on the National Quotations Bureau Pink Sheets on which the Company's shares are traded, for any of the five trading days including the day upon which a Notice of Conversion is received by the Company. At any time, the Company has the option to redeem the 6% Note and pay to the note holder 150% of the unpaid principal amount of the 6% Note, in full. As part of the loan, the Company issued to the note holder 666,666 transferable warrants to purchase one common share per warrant at $0.15 per share for a period of three years.

On February 17, 2012 Focus Gold Corporation, a Nevada corporation and through its subsidiary Focus Celtic Gold Corp. (the "FCGC") issued Convertible Debenture (the "Debenture") to HJG Partnership. ("HJG" or the "lender") in the amount of three hundred thousand Canadian dollars ($300,000), to evidence funds lent by HJG to the FCGC on February 17, 2012. The Debenture earns compound interest accruing at annually at ten percent (10%) per annum and is due August 17, 2012. The Debenture is secured against the accounts of Celtic, including its accounts, chattel paper, books and records, equipment, instruments, intangibles, inventory, money, proceeds, securities and undertakings and is guaranteed by Celtic and its subsidiaries.
