ITEM 5. OTHER EVENTS

On February 13, 2002, we entered into a common stock purchase agreement which, under certain circumstances, may allow us to sell to Acqua Wellington North American Equities Fund, Ltd. up to $19,000,000 of our common stock over the next 14 months. We view this purchase agreement as an auxiliary financing tool with the potential to provide us with an efficient and flexible mechanism to raise cash to fund our working capital needs, depending upon the market price of our common stock and certain other conditions set forth in the purchase agreement.

The purchase agreement provides that any stock we sell pursuant to the purchase agreement will be sold at a discount to the market price at the time of the sale of between 3% to 5.4%, unless we agree otherwise with Acqua Wellington. The amount and timing of each sale of common stock under the purchase agreement will be at our discretion. The shares of common stock which we may sell pursuant to the purchase agreement are registered under the Securities Act of 1933 pursuant to an effective Registration Statement on Form S-3 (File No. 333-53152).

We intend to use the net proceeds from any sales of our common stock under the purchase agreement for general corporate purposes, which may include funding research, development, sales and marketing, increasing our working capital, reducing indebtedness and capital expenditures. Pending the application of the net proceeds, we expect to invest the proceeds in investment-grade, interest-bearing securities.

The foregoing description is qualified in its entirety by reference to the terms of the common stock purchase agreement, dated as of February 13, 2002, by and between TiVo Inc. and Acqua Wellington North American Equities Fund, Ltd., which is incorporated herein by reference. The common stock purchase agreement is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this current report on Form 8-K.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This current report on Form 8-K contains forward-looking statements, including forward-looking statements related to the expected use of proceeds from sales of our common stock under the purchase agreement. You can identify forward-looking statements by use of forward-looking terminology such as "believes," "anticipates," "expects," "plans," "may," "will," "intends" or the negative of these words and phrases or similar words or phrases. You can also identify forward-looking statements by discussions of strategy, plans or intentions. Such forward-looking statements have known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that may cause our actual results, performance or achievements to be materially different from any results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Actual results could differ materially from those set forth in such forward-looking statements. Factors that may cause actual results to differ materially include the "Factors That May Affect Future Operating Results" and other risks detailed in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the period ended December 31, 2000, our Transition Report on Form 10-K for the period ended January 31, 2001, our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the period ended April 30, 2001, our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the period ended July 31, 2001 and our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the period ended October 31, 2001, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. We caution you not to place undue reliance on forward-looking statements, which reflect an analysis only and speak only as of the date of this Current Report.
