Item 2. Acquisition or Disposition of Assets.

On May 17, 2002 Volt, Inc. (the "Company") acquired all of the stock of First Washington Financial Corporation, a Nevada corporation ("First Washington") and thereby acquired control of all of the assets of First Washington. First Washington is a mortgage loan originator and direct lender in the home mortgage loan industry and currently concentrates its business in Washington, D.C., Maryland and Virginia. The Company intends to continue with First Washington's business and to expand its operations nationwide. The Company issued two million (2,000,000) restricted shares of its common stock (the "Acquisition Price") to the shareholders of First Washington in exchange for all of the issued and outstanding shares of stock of First Washington. The Acquisition Price was based on the value of First Washington and the market value of the Company's shares on the date of the acquisition taking into consideration the fact that the Company issued unregistered restricted shares in exchange for all of the shares of First Washington. Prior to the acquisition, Denis Tseklenis, the President, chairman of the board of directors and shareholder of the Company owned twenty-five percent (25%) of the stock of First Washington. Prior to the acquisition, none of the other shareholders of First Washington were related to or affiliated with the Company
