ITEM 9. Regulation FD Disclosure.

This information, furnished under Item 9. Regulation FD Disclosure, is also intended to be furnished under Item 12. Results of Operations and Financial Condition, in accordance with SEC Release No. 33-8216.

On April 15, 2003, Washington Mutual, Inc. issued a press release reporting its results of operations for the first quarter ended March 31, 2003.

Washington Mutual Announces Record Earnings;
Company Delivers $1 Billion Quarter
*Board of Directors Increases Cash Dividend

SEATTLE Washington Mutual, Inc. (NYSE: WM) today announced record earnings of $1 billion, or $1.07 per diluted share, for the quarter ended March 31, 2003, up 8 percent on a per share basis from $956 million, or 99 cents per diluted share for the same period a year ago.

Highlights of the recently completed quarter included:

Loan volume of $106.62 billion, up 62 percent from the first quarter of 2002;

Depositor and other retail banking fees of $420 million, up 16 percent from the same period a year ago;

Continued growth in checking accounts, one of the company's key relationship-building products, which increased by more than 200,000 during the quarter;

The opening of 33 new financial center stores and three new home loan stores throughout the country. The company is on schedule to open approximately 250 financial center stores and 70 home loans stores in 2003 as the company continues to expand its national franchise;

The company recorded a strong 19.44 percent return on average common equity;

The repurchase of 10.2 million shares of the company's common stock in the quarter at an average price of $34.41, reflecting the company's strategy to effectively manage its capital; and

The 31st consecutive quarter of an increased cash dividend.

"Washington Mutual entered 2003 in an excellent position and we're poised to continue the momentum as the year progresses," said Kerry Killinger, the company's chairman, president and CEO. "Our record-breaking first quarter results reflect the strength of our underlying strategy of serving the broad middle market by providing the combination of great value and efficient, friendly service. We are extremely proud of the first quarter results that our talented employees produced."

BOARD OF DIRECTORS INCREASES DIVIDEND FOR 31st CONSECUTIVE QUARTER

Based on the company's continued strong operating fundamentals and financial performance, Washington Mutual's Board of Directors declared a cash dividend of 30 cents per share on the company's common stock, up from 29 cents per share in the previous quarter. Dividends on the common stock are payable May 15, 2003 to shareholders of record as of April 30, 2003.

FIRST QUARTER RESULTS

Net Interest Income

For the first quarter of 2003, net interest income was $2.02 billion, an increase of $91 million, or 5 percent, from the fourth quarter of 2002. Most of this increase was due to the expansion of the net interest margin, which increased by 7 basis points to 3.32 percent during the first quarter, largely because of lower rates paid on interest-bearing deposits.

As compared with the first quarter of 2002, net interest income for the first quarter of 2003 declined by $379 million, or 16 percent. Most of this decrease resulted from contraction of the margin, which declined by 42 basis points as yields on loans and debt securities continued to reprice downward from the higher interest rate levels in effect during the early part of 2002.

WM

The net interest spread for the quarter was 3.04 percent, compared with 3.58 percent for the same period last year.

Noninterest Income

As the company experienced exceptional quarterly loan volumes, the gain from mortgage loans was $587 million, an increase of $195 million versus the fourth quarter of 2002 and $336 million from the first quarter of 2002.

In addition, consumers continued to choose Washington Mutual to serve their financial needs, leading to an increase of more than 200,000 net retail checking accounts during the first quarter. Strong growth in net retail checking accounts, which increased by more than 900,000 since the end of first quarter 2002, contributed to the increase of $59 million in depositor and other retail banking fees to $420 million, up 16 percent from $361 million a year earlier.

The company's expansion into the New York/New Jersey retail banking market continues to produce strong results. From May 2002, when the company's retail banking unit began doing business under the Washington Mutual name in New York, through the end of the first quarter of 2003, the number of checking accounts increased 37 percent at an annualized rate in the branches acquired from Dime Bancorp.

Lending

Boosted by the continued low interest rate environment and the demand for refinancing of home loan mortgages, Washington Mutual produced loan volume of $106.62 billion for the quarter, up 62 percent from $65.69 billion in the first quarter of 2002. Of the total loan volume in the first quarter, home loan volume totaled $97.47 billion, versus $58.97 billion in the same period a year ago. Home equity loans and lines of credit and multi-family loans increased by $6.73 billion from the first quarter of 2002 to $38.72 billion at March 31, 2003, up 21 percent.

Efficiency Ratio

For the quarter, noninterest expense totaled $1.71 billion, which was up from $1.52 billion during the first quarter of 2002. The increase was primarily due to investment in the expansion of the company's store network and increased loan expenses resulting from significantly higher lending volumes. The efficiency ratio was 49.91 percent during the quarter compared with 49.94 percent in the fourth quarter of 2002 and 47.48 percent in the first quarter of 2002.

Risk Management

Credit performance, a key focus for Washington Mutual, remained well in line with the company's expectations. Consistent with the fourth quarter of 2002, the company continued to actively manage its portfolio of nonperforming assets (NPAs) during the quarter.

Total NPAs decreased $93 million during the quarter to $2.50 billion at March 31, 2003. At the end of the quarter, NPAs as a percentage of total assets were 0.90 percent versus 0.97 percent at the end of the fourth quarter.

The provision for loan and lease losses was $125 million, as compared with $125 million in the fourth quarter of 2002 and $175 million for the same period of the previous year. Net loan charge-offs for the first quarter were $95 million, compared with $108 million for the fourth quarter of 2002. The allowance for loan and lease losses was $1.68 billion at March 31, 2003. The net MSR asset was $5.21 billion at March 31, 2003, as compared with $5.34 billion at December 31, 2002.

Balance Sheet and Capital Management

Consolidated assets at March 31, 2003 were $276.97 billion, compared with $268.30 billion at December 31, 2002. The growth in assets during the quarter was the result of an increase in loans held for sale and loans held in portfolio. The company continues to expect asset growth of 5% to 10% in 2003.

Edgar Filing: WASHINGTON MUTUAL INC - Form 8-K

At March 31, 2003, balances of transaction deposits, including checking, savings and money market deposits, represented 80 percent of total deposits, compared with 78 percent at the end of 2002. Total deposits were $159.87 billion at the end of the first quarter, up from $155.52 billion at December 31, 2002, reflecting the company's organic growth in retail deposits and in custodial/escrow deposits related to loan servicing activities.

Washington Mutual continues to manage its capital position by repurchasing its common stock. During the first quarter, the company repurchased 10.2 million shares of its common stock at an average price of $34.41. The company's tangible common equity was 5.29 percent of total tangible assets at March 31, 2003.

In addition, the capital ratios of the company's banking subsidiaries continued to exceed federal regulatory requirements for classification as "well-capitalized" institutions, the highest regulatory standard.

Outlook

"Despite the current challenges both domestically and internationally, our management team fully expects 2003 will be another record year for Washington Mutual," Killinger said. "Our business fundamentals remain strong and credit quality continues to perform in line with management's expectations."

"Our primary focus for the foreseeable future will be successfully executing our key business strategies, which are focused on internal growth and increased productivity, and continuing to make progress toward our long-term goal of building the nation's leading retailer of financial services to the broad middle market."

Company Updates

Business Week magazine rated Washington Mutual No. 13 among all S&P 500 companies based on its one- and three-year shareholder returns, sales growth and profit growth, and the company's net margin and return on equity, including a weighting for sales volume and long-term debt-to-capital ratio. The company was the No. 1-rated performer in the banking category.

Washington Mutual was also named "One of the Best Companies to Work For" by Fortune magazine, making it part of an exclusive group to be recognized by the magazine in three areas: "Best to Work For," "Best for Minorities" and "Most Admired."

WaMu Capital Corp., a fixed-income institutional broker-dealer and subsidiary of Washington Mutual, Inc., announced plans to expand its existing sales office in New York to include trading, compliance and support functions. WaMu Capital Corp., headquartered in Seattle, is focused on building additional relationships with asset managers, banks and other institutional investors nationwide.

The company and Fannie Mae announced an affordable lending alliance designed to increase lending by $85 billion over five years to low- and moderate-income borrowers, minorities, immigrant families, residents of low- to moderate-income underserved areas and first-time homebuyers.

WM Group of Funds, the company's mutual fund complex, was ranked by Barron's magazine as the No. 1 fund family for five-year performance.

The company's ongoing effort to further broaden its corporate finance team resulted in the hiring of two new members. Steve Lobo, a former American Express and U.S. Bancorp executive, joined the company as Senior Vice President and Treasurer. On April 4, the company announced 20-year General Electric veteran David Beck as its Chief Investment Officer, a newly created position that will play an important role in continuing to broaden the company's asset portfolio management.

Forward Looking Statement

"This press release contains forward-looking statements, which are not historical facts and pertain to future operating results. These forward-looking statements are within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, statements about our plans, objectives, expectations and intentions and other statements contained in this document that are not historical facts. When used in this presentation, the words "expects," "anticipates," "intends," "plans," "believes," "seeks," "estimates," or words of similar meaning, or future or conditional verbs, such as "will," "would," "should," "could," or "may" are generally intended to identify forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements are inherently subject to significant business, economic and competitive uncertainties and contingencies, many of which are beyond our control. In addition, these forward-looking statements are subject to assumptions with respect to future business strategies and decisions that are subject to change. Actual results may differ materially from the results discussed in these forward-looking statements for the reasons, among others, discussed under the heading "Factors That May Affect Future Results" in Washington Mutual's 2002 Annual Report on Form 10-K which include: general business and economic conditions may significantly affect our earnings; if we are unable to effectively manage the volatility of our mortgage banking business, our earnings could be adversely affected; a failure to effectively implement our business operations technology solutions could adversely affect our earnings and financial condition; the financial services industry is highly competitive; changes in the regulation of financial services companies could adversely affect our business."
