QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER

Q: What am I being asked to approve?

A: You are being asked to approve the Agreement and Plan of Reorganization by and between Eagle and United, pursuant to which Eagle will be merged with and into United's wholly-owned Georgia bank subsidiary UCB Georgia. Approval of the merger requires the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of Eagle common stock. The Eagle board of directors has unanimously approved and adopted the Agreement and Plan of Reorganization and recommends voting FOR approval of this merger agreement.

Q: What will I receive in the merger?

A: You will receive (a) 0.8636 shares of United common stock for each share of Eagle common stock; or (b) $20.32 in cash, without interest, for each share of Eagle common stock you own on the effective date of the merger; or (c) any combination of 0.8636 shares of United common stock and $20.32 in cash, without interest, for each share of Eagle common stock (provided that no more than 480,000 shares may be exchanged for stock and no more than 120,000 shares may be exchanged for cash). United will not issue fractional shares in the merger. Instead, you will receive a cash payment, without interest, for the value of any fraction of a share of United common stock that you would otherwise be entitled to receive based on $23.53 a share of United common stock. For example: If you own 100 shares of Eagle common stock and elect to receive all stock in the merger, you will be entitled to receive 0.8636 shares of United for each Eagle share, rounded down to the nearest whole share, or 86 shares of United common stock. In addition, you will be entitled to receive $23.53 in cash for your .36 fractional share of United (.36 × $23.53) for a total cash payment of $8.47.

Q: What should I do now?

A: Indicate on the enclosed proxy card how you want to vote with respect to the proposed merger, and sign and mail the proxy card in the enclosed envelope as soon as possible so that your shares will be represented at the meeting. If you sign and send in a proxy card but do not indicate how you want to vote, your proxy will be voted in favor of the proposal to approve and adopt the merger. A special shareholders meeting will take place at 4:00 p.m. on October 20, 2004 at Eagle National Bank, 850 Eagles Landing Parkway, Stockbridge, Georgia, to vote on the merger proposal.

You may attend the special meeting and elect to vote your shares in person, rather than voting by proxy. In addition, you may withdraw your proxy up to and including the day of the special meeting by notifying Allette B. Cheaves, Secretary, prior to the meeting, in writing, or by submitting an executed, later-dated proxy to: Allette B. Cheaves, Secretary, Eagle National Bank, 850 Eagle Landing Parkway, Stockbridge, Georgia 30281.

Q: How can I elect stock, cash or both?

A: You may indicate a preference to receive United common stock, cash or a combination of both in the merger by completing the form of election/letter of transmittal that will be sent to you promptly after the close of the merger. If holders elect to receive stock for more than 480,000 shares or cash for more than 120,000 shares of Eagle common stock, each holder so electing will receive stock or cash for a reduced number of shares so that the total number of shares exchanged for stock or cash does not exceed 480,000 or 120,000, respectively, based on the ratio of shares elected to be exchanged for stock or cash by all Eagle shareholders. If you do not make an election by the deadline provided on the form, you will be treated as though you elected to receive cash unless cash has been fully subscribed by the electing Eagle shareholders, in which event you will be treated as if you elected stock. If one form of consideration has been oversubscribed and you do not make an election by that date, you will be treated as having elected to receive the form of consideration that was not oversubscribed. Although Eagle's directors intend on electing to receive all stock in the merger, Eagle's board of directors makes no recommendation as to whether you should chose United common stock or cash or a combination of both for your shares of Eagle National Bank common stock. You should consult with your own financial advisor on this decision.

Q: What information should I consider?

A: We encourage you to read this entire document carefully. You should also review the factors considered by each company's board of directors discussed in "Details of the Proposed Merger Background of and Reasons for the Merger" beginning on page 13.

Q: When is the merger expected to be completed?

A: We plan to complete the merger during the fourth quarter of 2004.

Q: What are the tax consequences of the merger to me?

A: We expect that the exchange of shares of Eagle common stock for United common stock by Eagle shareholders generally will be tax-free to Eagle shareholders for federal income tax purposes. However, Eagle shareholders will have to pay taxes at either capital gains or ordinary income rates, depending upon individual circumstances, on cash received in exchange for their shares of Eagle common stock, or cash received in lieu of fractional shares. To review the tax consequences to Eagle shareholders in greater detail, see "Details of the Proposed Merger Material Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger and Opinion of Tax Counsel" beginning on page 24.

Your tax consequences will depend on your personal situation. You should consult your tax adviser for a full understanding of the tax consequences of the merger to you.

Q: If my shares are held in "street name" by my broker, will my broker vote my shares for me?

A: Your broker will vote your shares of common stock only if you provide instructions on how to do so. Following the directions your broker provides, you should instruct your broker how to vote your shares. If you do not provide instructions to your broker, your shares will not be voted, which will have the effect of a vote against the merger.

Q: Should I send in my stock certificates now?

A: No. After the merger is completed, you will receive written instructions from United for exchanging your Eagle common stock certificates for United common stock certificates and cash.

Q: Who should I call with questions?

A: You should call Allette B. Cheaves, Secretary, of Eagle, at (770) 507-5855.

SUMMARY

This summary highlights selected information from this proxy statement/prospectus regarding the proposed merger. For a more complete description of the terms of the proposed merger, you should carefully read the entire proxy statement/prospectus, and the related documents to which it refers. The Agreement and Plan of Reorganization, which is the legal document that governs the proposed merger, is included as Appendix A.

In addition, the sections entitled "Where You Can Find More Information," on page 53, and "Incorporation of Certain Documents By Reference," on page 54, contain references to additional sources of information about United and Eagle.

The Companies (see pages 28 and 33)

United Community Banks, Inc.
63 Highway 515
Blairsville, Georgia 30512
(706) 745-2151

United is the third-largest bank holding company headquartered in Georgia. Substantially all of United's activities are conducted through its three wholly-owned subsidiaries, United Community Bank, a Georgia bank, United Community Bank, a North Carolina bank and United Community Bank Tennessee, a Tennessee bank. United's subsidiaries operate 21 community banks with 78 locations throughout north Georgia, metro Atlanta, coastal Georgia, western North Carolina and eastern Tennessee. United's banks provide customary types of banking services, such as checking accounts, savings accounts, and time deposits. They also engage in commercial and consumer lending, make secured and unsecured loans, and provide other financial services.

United also operates United Community Mortgage Services, a full-service retail mortgage lending operation approved as a seller/servicer for Fannie Mae and the Federal Home Mortgage Corporation, as a division of its Georgia bank subsidiary, and Brintech, Inc., a New Smyrna Beach, Florida based consulting firm for the financial services industry. Brintech provides consulting, advisory and implementation services in the areas of strategic planning, profitability improvement, technology, efficiency, network, networking, Internet banking, website development, marketing, core processing, and telecommunications. Additionally, United provides retail brokerage services through a third party broker/dealer.

At June 30, 2004, United had total consolidated assets of approximately $4.5 billion, total consolidated loans of approximately $3.3 billion, total consolidated deposits of approximately $3.3 billion, and total consolidated stockholders' equity of approximately $330.5 million.

Eagle National Bank
850 Eagles Landing Parkway
Stockbridge, Georgia 30281
(770) 507-5855

Eagle is a bank chartered under the laws of the United States. Eagle operates in two locations in Stockbridge and McDonough, both in Henry County, Georgia. Eagle provides customary types of banking services such as checking accounts, savings accounts, and time deposits. It also engages in commercial and consumer lending, makes secured and unsecured loans, and provides other financial services.

At June 30, 2004, Eagle had total assets of approximately $64.1 million, total loans of approximately $48.6 million, total deposits of approximately $58.1 million, and total shareholders' equity of approximately $5.8 million.

The Terms of the Merger (see page 15)

If the merger is approved, Eagle will be merged with and into UCB Georgia, with UCB Georgia being the surviving company. As a result of the merger, you may elect to receive shares of United common stock or cash or a combination of both in exchange for your shares of Eagle common stock on the following basis:

0.8636 shares of United common stock; or

$20.32 in cash, without interest;

provided that no more than 480,000 shares may be exchanged for stock and no more than 120,000 shares may be exchanged for cash.

You will receive a cash payment for any United fractional shares to which you would otherwise be entitled in an amount equal to the fraction multiplied by $23.53.

The Reasons Management of Both Companies Support the Merger (see page 13)

The boards of directors of Eagle and United support the merger and believe that it is in the best interests of both companies, and their respective shareholders. The board of directors of Eagle believes that the merger presents Eagle with the chance to better service its market. The board of directors of Eagle also feels that the merger will enhance Eagle's size in the market, thereby eliminating one of the factors that has restricted Eagle's market competitiveness and providing an opportunity for Eagle to realize its market ambitions. The Eagle board of directors believes that the merger will permit Eagle shareholders to have an equity interest in a resulting financial institution that has greater financial resources and a larger shareholder base, which will increase liquidity and marketability of the equity investment of Eagle shareholders. The board of directors of United believes that Eagle provides United with an expansion opportunity into an attractive market area. Both boards of directors also believe that the terms of the merger are fair and equitable. In addition, both boards of directors believe that following the merger, the size of the combined organization is sufficiently large to take advantage over time of significant economies of scale, but is still small enough to maintain many of the competitive advantages of community-oriented banks.

Shareholders' Meeting

The special meeting of shareholders of Eagle will be held on October 20, 2004 at 4:00 p.m., at Eagle National Bank, 850 Eagles Landing Parkway, Stockbridge, Georgia for the purpose of voting on approval of the merger.

Record Date

You are entitled to vote at the shareholders' meeting if you owned shares of Eagle common stock on September 20, 2004.

Vote Required (see page 17)

Approval by holders of at least two-thirds of the Eagle common stock outstanding on September 20, 2004, is required to approve the merger. As of September 20, 2004, 600,000 shares of Eagle common stock were issued and outstanding, each of which is entitled to one vote per share. All of the directors and executive officers of Eagle have agreed to vote their shares in favor of the merger. There are 203,150 shares, or 33.9%, of Eagle common stock beneficially owned (excluding options) by its directors and executive officers, all of which are entitled to vote on this merger.

Conditions, Termination, and Effective Date (see page 14)

The merger will not occur unless certain conditions are met, and United or Eagle can terminate the merger agreement if specified events occur or fail to occur. The merger must be approved by the Eagle shareholders, the FDIC, and the Department of Banking and Finance of the State of Georgia. Notice of the merger will be provided to the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System and the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency.

The closing of the merger will occur after the merger is approved by Eagle shareholders and the foregoing regulators and after the articles of merger are filed as required under Georgia law.

Rights of Dissenting Shareholders (see page 23)

You are entitled to dissent from the merger and to receive a cash payment for your Eagle common stock if you follow certain statutory provisions regarding the rights of dissenting shareholders under Section 215a of Title 12 of the United States Code.

Federal Income Tax Consequences (see page 24)

Eagle has received an opinion from Kilpatrick Stockton LLP stating that, assuming the merger is completed as currently anticipated, Eagle will not recognize any gain or loss for federal income tax purposes, and shareholders of Eagle to the extent they receive United stock will not recognize any gain or loss for federal income tax purposes. All cash you receive as a result of the merger, including any cash you receive in lieu of fractional shares or as payment for exercising your right to dissent, will be treated as amounts distributed in redemption of your Eagle common stock, and that amount will be taxable under the Internal Revenue Code as either ordinary income or capital gain or loss, depending upon your particular circumstances. Neither United nor Eagle has requested a ruling to this effect from the Internal Revenue Service.

Accounting Treatment (see page 22)

The merger will be accounted for as a purchase for financial reporting and accounting purposes.

Opinion of Financial Advisor (see page 25)

Stevens & Company has rendered an opinion to Eagle that based on and subject to the procedures, matters, and limitations described in its opinion and other matters it considered relevant, as of the date of its opinion, the merger consideration is fair from a financial point of view to the shareholders of Eagle. A summary of Stevens & Company's opinion begins on page 25 and the full opinion is attached as Appendix C to this proxy statement/prospectus.

stock as quoted on Nasdaq since the third quarter of 2002. Amounts have been restated to reflect the proforma effect of United's three-for-two split effective April 28, 2004:

Fiscal Year	Quarterly Period	High	Low
2004	Second Quarter	$ 25.36	$ 21.89
	First Quarter	$ 24.62	$ 21.37
2003	Fourth Quarter	$ 23.93	$ 18.51
	Third Quarter	$ 20.02	$ 16.34
	Second Quarter	$ 18.00	$ 15.37
2002	First Quarter	$ 18.00	$ 14.67
	Fourth Quarter	$ 18.00	$ 14.49
	Third Quarter	$ 19.70	$ 15.43
	Second Quarter	$ 20.00	$ 15.97

On August 2, 2004, immediately prior to the public announcement of the merger, the high and low sales prices per share of United common stock were $23.57 and $22.61, respectively.

There has been no public trading market for Eagle common stock. Eagle believes the last sales of Eagle common stock among shareholders in private transactions in the last two years have been for an aggregate of approximately 78,000 shares at prices ranging from $12.25 to $14.50 per share, based on unofficial information that Eagle management believes is reliable. Eagle's management believes 70,000 of such shares were traded in one transaction at a price per share of $12.25.

There were 244 shareholders of record of Eagle common stock as of September 20, 2004.

Dividends (see page 21)

United has declared cash dividends of $.18 per share in 2004 (through the third quarter) and declared aggregate cash dividends of $.20 per share in 2003 and $.167 per share in 2002. United intends to continue paying cash dividends, but the amount and frequency of cash dividends, if any, will be determined by United's board of directors after consideration of earnings, capital requirements, and the financial condition of United, and will depend on cash dividends paid to it by its subsidiary banks. The ability of United subsidiaries to pay dividends to it is restricted by certain regulatory requirements.

Eagle has never declared any dividends on its common stock. Eagle is prohibited under the merger agreement from paying cash dividends prior to the closing of the transaction without the prior written consent of United.

There are Some Differences in Shareholders' Rights Between Eagle and United (see page 19)

Following the merger you will no longer be a Eagle shareholder and, if you receive shares of United following the merger, your rights as a shareholder will no longer be governed by Eagle's articles of incorporation and bylaws. You will be a United shareholder and your rights as a United shareholder will be governed by United's articles of incorporation and bylaws. Your former rights as an Eagle shareholder and your new rights as a United shareholder are different in certain ways, including the following:

Eagle's bylaws provide for a board of directors consisting of between five and 25 members, while United's bylaws provide for a board of directors consisting of between eight and 14 members.

The bylaws of Eagle set forth different requirements for removal of directors than do the articles of incorporation and bylaws of United.

The articles of incorporation of United permit its board of directors to consider the interests of constituencies other than just its shareholders when considering any actions affecting United and its shareholders. Eagle's articles of incorporation and bylaws do not.

The articles of incorporation of United require a supermajority vote to amend its articles of incorporation and bylaws. Eagle's articles of incorporation and bylaws do not.

The articles of incorporation of United require a two-tiered supermajority vote to approve certain business combinations. Eagle's articles of incorporation and bylaws do not.

United's articles of incorporation provide that United is organized under the Georgia Business Corporation Code. Eagle is organized pursuant to the National Bank Act.

The National Bank Act requires Eagle to keep at all times a full and correct shareholder list that is subject to inspection by shareholders during business hours. The Georgia Business Corporation Code does not impose the same requirements on United.

The National Bank Act allows the Eagle shareholders to exercise cumulative voting rights in the election of directors. The Georgia Business Corporation Code does not.

United is subject to filing requirements imposed by the Securities and Exchange Commission. Eagle is not subject to such requirements.

Interests of Directors and Officers of Eagle in the Merger (see page 19)

Some of the directors and officers of Eagle have interests in the merger in addition to their interests as shareholders generally, including the following:

As a condition to closing the merger and as required by his employment agreement, Samuel K. Parrish, President and Chief Executive Officer of Eagle, will terminate his employment agreement with Eagle for payment of approximately three times his current base salary.

In connection with the closing of the merger, Major William Loftin, Jr. will continue as Senior Credit Officer of the community bank made up of the former Eagle branches, receive 5,000 options to purchase common stock of United and agree to a one-year noncompetition agreement for a payment of $50,000.

United will pay directors fees of $500 per meeting to the directors of Eagle who will be asked to serve as advisory board members for UCB Georgia. This amount is an increase over the amount paid by Eagle to the Eagle board members.

Edgar Filing: UNITED COMMUNITY BANKS INC - Form 424B3

In connection with the merger, United has agreed to provide to officers and employees of Eagle who continue employment with United or its subsidiaries employee benefits under employee benefit plans, on terms and conditions substantially similar to those currently provided to similarly situated United officers and employees.

Also in connection with the merger, United has agreed to purchase all of the outstanding options to purchase Eagle stock held by its officers and directors for cash of $6.75 per option outstanding pursuant to the stock option agreements.

Recent Developments

On August 24, 2004, United entered into an agreement to acquire Liberty Bancshares, Inc., Conyers, Georgia for $36.1 million in shares of United and cash. The transaction is expected to close in the fourth quarter of 2004. United plans to grow organically and with the selective opening of de novo offices. Other than its pending acquisitions of Liberty and Eagle, United has no other acquisitions pending or specifically under consideration. However, reviewing acquisition opportunities will continue to be a focus of United's growth strategy to extend its reach into new or existing markets.

COMPARATIVE SHARE DATA FOR UNITED AND EAGLE

We have summarized below the per share results information for United and Eagle on a historical, pro forma combined and equivalent basis. You should read this information in conjunction with the historical financial statements (and related notes) of United in the annual and quarterly reports and other documents it has filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, certain of which are incorporated by reference, and the historical financial statements (and related notes) of Eagle contained in this proxy statement/prospectus.

The pro forma combined information gives effect to the merger accounted for as a purchase, assuming all transactions contemplated in this proxy statement/prospectus had been effective for the periods indicated. Pro forma equivalent of one Eagle common share amounts are calculated by multiplying the pro forma combined basic and diluted earnings per share, United historical per share dividend and the pro forma combined book value by the exchange ratio of 0.8636 shares of United common stock so that the per share amounts equate to the respective values for one share of Eagle's common stock. The pro forma information shown below gives no effect to the cash payment of $20.32 per share that Eagle shareholders may elect to receive as part of the transaction. Please note that the maximum number of shares of Eagle that may be exchanged for United common stock is 480,000.

You should not rely on the pro forma information as being indicative of the historical results that we would have had if we had been combined or of the future results that we will experience after the merger.

DETAILS OF THE PROPOSED MERGER

Background of and Reasons for the Merger

In early 2004 the board of directors of Eagle determined that it would be in the best interest of the bank to raise additional capital. In May 2004, the bank began the process of preparing to sell 300,000 additional shares of the bank and engaged Stevens & Company of LaGrange, Georgia to evaluate the stock of the bank for the purpose of pricing the offering. The proposed offering was communicated to shareholders in the cover letter transmitting the notice of the annual meeting of shareholders on May 18, 2004.

On June 1, 2004, Eagle's management received a conditional unsolicited expression of interest in a merger for cash consideration ranging from $19.50 to $23.50 per share, or $11.7 million to $13.1 million, subject to a final determination of price after completion of the offeror's due diligence. The board of directors discussed the offer and determined that the offeror would not be able to pay the cash purchase price without raising additional capital and that an all cash offer was undesirable because it would be taxable and not permit Eagle's shareholders to participate in future growth opportunities in its market. The board also determined that a stock exchange, if offered by such offeror, would be undesirable because of the lack of liquidity in the offeror's stock and the offeror's limited prospects. Based on these determinations, the board of directors decided that the proposal did not warrant further evaluation, and the board of directors rejected the offer and elected remain its planned offering of additional stock and to remain independent.

On June 23, 2004, a second letter was received from the offeror proposing to purchase the bank for $20 per share in cash, or $12 million, and stating that up to 35% of the consideration might be received in stock of the offeror. Based on this expression of interest and the slow growth of Eagle, including its difficulty in participating, because of its relative size, in future growth in its market area, the board of directors of Eagle decided that it would be in the best interest of the bank and the shareholders to determine what type of merger arrangement might be available for the bank as an alternative to raising additional capital, and Stevens & Company was engaged as a consultant to assist with the evaluation of the bank's strategic alternatives, including selling the bank or remaining independent.

During June and July 2004, Stevens & Company contacted 9 potential partners to determine if any were interested in making a proposal to acquire the bank. Information about Eagle was sent to 4 potential partners that expressed an interest in making a proposal. On June 29, 2004, shareholders of Eagle were notified that the offering of 300,000 shares was temporarily put on hold. During the early part of July discussions were held with numerous potentially interested merger partners.

On July 20, 2004, a written offer was received from United to acquire Eagle at a purchase price of $12.5 million payable 80% in stock and 20% in cash. The offer included provisions for payment of $6.75 for each outstanding option to purchase shares of Eagle and for contractual payment obligations of Eagle triggered by the merger to be paid out of the bank and not dilute the shareholders' consideration. United and Eagle conducted a due diligence investigation. Around the same time, Eagle confirmed that the other offer of $12 million would be total consideration and that the options held by employees and the obligations of the bank would reduce the consideration to shareholders to under $11 million, or approximately $18 per share.

On July 20, 2004, a financial consultant contacted Stevens & Company and indicated that he had a client considering making an offer and the consultant's calculations indicated the client could bid $20 to $22 per share in cash. He later indicated that he felt the client may offer as much as $22 to $24 per share in cash. No offer was received and the consultant requested the consideration of offers be delayed for several weeks until he could obtain a proposal and due diligence performed.

Edgar Filing: UNITED COMMUNITY BANKS INC - Form 424B3

At a July 29, 2004 meeting of the Board of Directors of Eagle, the board decided not to delay their consideration of outstanding offers. The board determined that it was in the best interest of the shareholders to accept an offer primarily for stock to allow the Eagle shareholders to continue to participate in the Bank's market consistent with their original investment goal and to provide a liquid market for the shareholder's shares. Also, the board determined that the outstanding options, contractual payment obligations of the bank due on merger and the taxes incurred by the shareholders in an all cash transaction would reduce the shareholders' net consideration in the proposed offer so that even the $24 per share offer mentioned as a possibility would be approximately the same or lower than the United offer. The board of directors voted to accept the United offer in principle, subject to the terms of the definitive merger agreement being satisfactorily negotiated, including an election by the shareholders to receive cash or stock.

On August 2, 2004, the board of directors of Eagle met and considered the proposed definitive merger agreement between Eagle and United. United agreed to allow Eagle shareholders to elect to receive either cash, stock or any combination of both subject to the total purchase price being paid 80% in stock and 20% in cash. The board then unanimously approved a resolution authorizing the transaction with United and the execution of the definitive merger agreement, and it was signed by Eagle and United.

Without assigning any relative or specific weights, the board of directors of Eagle considered the following material factors in approving the merger:

the value of the consideration to be received by Eagle shareholders relative to the book value and earnings per share of Eagle common stock;

information concerning the financial condition, results of operations and business prospects of United;

the alternatives to the merger, including remaining an independent institution;

the competition and regulatory environment for financial institutions generally;

the fact that the merger will provide Eagle with access to greater financial resources and a larger shareholder base, which may increase liquidity and marketability of the equity investment of Eagle shareholders;

the fact that the merger will enhance Eagle's size in the market and present the opportunity for Eagle to realize its market ambitions;

the fact that the merger will enable Eagle shareholders to exchange all or a significant portion of their shares of Eagle common stock, in a tax-free transaction, for shares of common stock of a larger company, the stock of which is more widely held and more liquid than that of Eagle; and the opinion of Stevens & Company that the consideration to be received by the shareholders as a result of the merger is fair from a financial point of view.

The Merger Agreement

The material features of the merger agreement are summarized below:

Effective Date

The merger agreement provides that the merger will be effective upon the approval of the Agreement and Plan of Merger by the shareholders and the filing of the articles of merger. The merger also is subject to approval by the FDIC and the Department of Banking and Finance of the State of Georgia. Notice of the merger will be provided to the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve.

Edgar Filing: UNITED COMMUNITY BANKS INC - Form 424B3

Management of United and Eagle anticipate that the merger will become effective during the fourth quarter of 2004.

Terms of the Merger

As a holder of shares of Eagle common stock, you may elect to receive shares of United common stock or cash or a combination of both in exchange for your shares of Eagle common stock owned on the effective date of the merger on the following basis:

0.8636 shares of United common stock; or

$20.32 in cash, without interest;

provided that in the aggregate 480,000 shares will be exchanged for stock and 120,000 shares will be exchanged for cash.

United will not issue fractional shares of United common stock in connection with the merger. In lieu of issuing any fractional share of United common stock to which a Eagle shareholder would otherwise be entitled, United will pay in cash an amount equal to that fraction multiplied by $23.53 per share.

United shareholders will continue to hold their existing shares of United common stock. If, prior to the merger closing, the outstanding shares of United common stock or Eagle common stock are increased through a stock dividend, stock split, subdivision, recapitalization, or reclassification of shares, or are combined into a lesser number of shares by reclassification, reverse stock split, recapitalization, reduction of capital or other transaction, the number of shares of United common stock and cash to be delivered pursuant to the merger in exchange for a share of Eagle common stock will be proportionately adjusted.

If the merger is completed, Eagle will be merged with and into UCB Georgia. Following the merger, the articles of incorporation, bylaws, corporate identity, and existence of UCB Georgia will not be changed, and Eagle will cease to exist as a separate entity.

Registration of United Common Stock

As a condition to the merger, United agreed to register with the Securities and Exchange Commission the shares of United common stock to be exchanged for shares of Eagle common stock and to maintain the effectiveness of such registration through the issuance of such shares in connection with the closing of the merger. However, such registration will not cover resales of United common stock by any former holders of Eagle common stock and United is under no obligation to maintain the effectiveness of such registration statement, or to prepare and file any post-effective amendments to such registration statement, after the issuance of such shares in connection with the closing of the merger.

Termination and Conditions of Closing

The merger agreement may be terminated at any time either before or after approval of the merger agreement by the shareholders of Eagle, but not later than the effective date of the merger:

by either party, if a material adverse change in the financial condition or business of the other party has occurred, which change would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the market price of such party's common stock; or if material loss or damage to the other party's properties or assets has occurred, which change, loss or damage materially affects or impairs such party's ability to conduct its business;

by either party, if the other party has not substantially complied with, or substantially performed, the terms, covenants or conditions of the merger agreement, and such non-compliance has not otherwise been waived;

by either party, if the terminating party learns of any facts or conditions not disclosed by the other party in the merger agreement or financial statements, or by United if it learns of any facts or conditions not disclosed by Eagle in its disclosure memorandum, which facts or conditions were required to be disclosed, and which materially and adversely affect the non-terminating party;

by either party, if any action, suit or proceeding is instituted or threatened against either party seeking to restrain, prohibit or obtain substantial damages in respect of the merger agreement or the consummation of the merger, which, in the good faith opinion of the terminating party makes consummation of the merger inadvisable;

by either party, if the merger has not occurred on or before December 31, 2004;

by United, if the holders of more than 10% of the outstanding shares of Eagle common stock elect to exercise statutory dissenters' rights;

by either party, if the Eagle shareholders do not approve the merger agreement; or by United, if it learns of any potential liability arising from noncompliance with any federal, state or local environmental law by Eagle, or any potential liability of Eagle arising from any environmental condition of the properties or assets of Eagle, including any properties or assets in which Eagle holds a security interest.

Eagle must pay to United a termination fee of $500,000, if either party terminates the agreement because the Eagle shareholders did not approve the merger, or if Eagle terminates the merger agreement, or otherwise causes the merger to not occur, while a competing offer is outstanding or after such an offer has been accepted.

The following are some of the required conditions of closing:

the accuracy of the representations and warranties of all parties contained in the merger agreement and related documents as of the date when made and the effective date;

the performance of all agreements and conditions required by the merger agreement;

the delivery of officers' certificates, secretary's certificates, and legal opinions to Eagle and United;

approval of the merger by at least two-thirds of the shares held by Eagle shareholders;

approvals of governmental authorities, and the expiration of any regulatory waiting periods;

effectiveness of the registration statement of United relating to the shares of United common stock to be issued to Eagle shareholders in the merger, of which this document forms a part;

the receipt by United of a letter from Porter Keadle Moore, LLP with respect to Eagle's unaudited financial statements for 2004;

Edgar Filing: UNITED COMMUNITY BANKS INC - Form 424B3

the receipt by Eagle of the opinion of Kilpatrick Stockton, LLP as to certain federal income tax consequences of the merger to Eagle and Eagle's shareholders;

the execution of a settlement of the employment agreement by and between Eagle and Samuel K. Parrish;

the execution of noncompetition agreements by and between United and Samuel K. Parrish and Major William Loftin, Jr.;
and

the issuance of certificate of merger by the Secretary of State of the State of Georgia.

Surrender of Certificates and Election of Consideration

After the effective date of the merger, each holder of Eagle common stock (as of that date) will be required to deliver the certificates representing such holder's shares of Eagle common stock to United's exchange agent, SunTrust Bank, in order to receive payment of the consideration from United in connection with the merger. Upon delivery of his, her or its shares, each holder must indicate on the form of election/letter of transmittal that will be sent to the Eagle shareholders promptly after the closing of the merger his, her or its preference as to the proportion of United common stock and/or cash he, she or it wishes to receive by the deadline provided on the form. If holders elect to receive stock for more than 480,000 shares or cash for more than 120,000 shares of Eagle common stock, each holder so electing will receive stock or cash for a reduced number of shares so that the total number of shares exchanged for stock or cash does not exceed 480,000 or 120,000, respectively, based on the ratio of shares elected to be exchanged for stock or cash by that shareholder to the total number of shares elected to be exchanged for stock or cash by all Eagle shareholders. If a holder does not make an election by the deadline provided on the form of election/letter of transmittal, the holder will be treated as though it elected to receive cash unless cash has been fully subscribed by the electing Eagle shareholders, in which event you will be treated as if you elected stock. If one form of consideration has been oversubscribed, such a holder will be treated as having elected to receive the form of consideration that was not oversubscribed.

After delivering his, her, or its shares of Eagle common stock, the holder will receive a stock certificate for 0.8636 shares of United common stock, a cash payment of $20.32, without interest, or any combination of 0.8636 shares of United common stock and $20.32 in cash per share of Eagle common stock that such holder owned on the effective date of the merger (provided that no more than 480,000 shares may be exchanged for stock and no more than 120,000 shares may be exchanged for cash). In lieu of a fractional share, a cash payment, without interest, will be paid for any fractional interest in United common stock.

Until a holder delivers his, her or its shares of Eagle common stock to United, he or she will not receive payment of any dividends or other distributions on shares of United common stock into which his, her, or its shares of Eagle common stock have been converted, if any, and will not receive any notices sent by United to its shareholders with respect to, or to vote, those shares. After delivering the shares to United, the holder will then be entitled to receive any dividends or other distributions, without interest, which become payable after the merger and prior to the holder's delivery of the certificates to United.

Required Shareholder Approval

The holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of Eagle common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting must approve the merger agreement for the merger to be completed. Abstentions from voting and broker non-votes will be included in determining whether a quorum is present and will have the effect of a vote against the merger agreement.

As of September 20, 2004, the record date for determining the shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the special meeting, the outstanding voting securities of Eagle consisted of 600,000 shares of Eagle common stock, with each registered holder of Eagle common stock being entitled to one vote per share. All of the directors and executive officers of Eagle and Eagle's largest non-management shareholder have entered into agreements with United to vote their shares of Eagle common stock in favor of the merger. There are 203,150 shares of Eagle common stock beneficially owned (excluding options) by Eagle's directors and executive officers, which is approximately 33.9% of the outstanding shares of Eagle common stock.

Expenses

All expenses incurred by United in connection with the merger, including all fees and expenses of its agents, representatives, counsel and accountants and the fees and expenses related to filing this proxy statement/prospectus and all regulatory applications with state and federal authorities shall be paid by United. All expenses incurred by Eagle in connection with the merger agreement, including all fees and expenses of its agents, representatives, counsel and accountants for Eagle shall be paid by Eagle. The cost of reproducing and mailing this proxy statement/prospectus has been shared by the parties, with each party paying fifty percent (50%).

Conduct of Business of Eagle Pending Closing

The merger agreement provides that, pending consummation of the merger, Eagle will, except with the written consent of United:

operate its business in the ordinary course, without the creation of any indebtedness for borrowed money other than ordinary and customary accounts and credit arrangements;

maintain its properties and assets in good operating condition, ordinary wear and tear excepted;

maintain and keep in full force and effect all required insurance; preserve its capital structure and make no change in its authorized or issued capital stock or other securities, and grant no right or option to purchase or otherwise acquire any of its capital stock or securities;

not declare or make any dividend, distribution or payment in respect of its common stock;

make no amendment to its articles of incorporation or bylaws, and preserve its corporate existence and powers;

acquire no business, corporation, partnership, association or other entity or division thereof, and no assets which are material, in the aggregate, to it;

not sell, mortgage, lease, buy or otherwise acquire or dispose of any real property or interest therein, or any tangible or intangible asset (other than in the ordinary course of business);

make no change in its banking and safe deposit arrangements;

not enter into or renew any material contracts;

maintain all books and records in the usual, regular and ordinary course;

file all reports required to be filed with any regulatory or governmental agencies, and deliver copies of such reports to United promptly after they are filed; and adopt no new severance plan and grant no severance or termination payments to any officer, director or employee, other than in accordance with existing agreements or the agreements that are conditions to the closing of the merger.

In addition, the merger agreement provides that Eagle will promptly advise United, orally and in writing, of any change or event having, or which the Eagle management believes could have, a material adverse effect on the assets, liabilities, business, operations or financial condition of Eagle.

Interest of Directors and Officers of Eagle in the Merger

As a condition to closing the merger and as provided in his employment agreement, Samuel K. Parrish, President and Chief Executive Officer of Eagle, will terminate his employment agreement with Eagle for a payment of approximately three times his current base salary.

In connection with the closing of the merger, Major William Loftin, Jr. will continue as Senior Credit Officer of the community bank made up of the former Eagle branches, receive 5,000 options to purchase common stock of United and agree to a one-year noncompetition agreement for a payment of $50,000.

United will pay directors fees of $500 per meeting to the directors of Eagle who will be asked to serve as advisory board members for UCB Georgia. This amount is an increase over the amount paid by Eagle to the Eagle board members.

Except as set forth below, no director or officer of Eagle, or any of their associates, has any direct or indirect material interest in the merger, except that those persons may own shares of Eagle common stock which will be converted in the merger into United common stock and cash. United and Eagle do not anticipate that the merger will result in any material change in compensation to employees of Eagle other than as set forth below.

In connection with the merger, United has agreed to provide generally to officers and employees of Eagle who continue employment with United or its subsidiaries employee benefits under employee benefit plans, on terms and conditions substantially similar to those currently provided to similarly situated United officers and employees.

Also in connection with the merger, United has agreed to purchase all of the outstanding options to purchase Eagle stock held by its officers and directors for cash of $6.75 per option outstanding pursuant to the stock option agreements.

There are 203,150 shares, or 33.9%, of Eagle common stock beneficially owned (excluding options) by its directors and executive officers, all of which are entitled to vote on this merger. All of the directors and executive officers of Eagle have agreed to vote their shares in favor of the merger.

Comparison of the Rights of Eagle and United Shareholders

Following the merger you will no longer be an Eagle shareholder and, if you receive shares of United following the merger, your rights as a shareholder will no longer be governed by Eagle's articles of incorporation and bylaws. You will be a United shareholder and your rights as a United shareholder will be governed by United's articles of incorporation and bylaws. Your former rights as a Eagle shareholder and your new rights as a United shareholder are different in certain ways, including the following:

Composition of Board of Directors

The bylaws of Eagle provide that its board of directors will consist of no fewer than five and no more than 25 members. The bylaws of United provide that its board of directors will consist of eight to 14 members.

Removal of Directors

The articles of incorporation of Eagle provide that a director may be removed if the director fails to fulfill a qualification requirement, for cause, or, by shareholders, at a meeting called for that purpose unless the number of votes that would be sufficient to elect him are voted against his removal.

The articles of incorporation of United provide that directors may be removed only for cause and only upon the affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds of the issued and outstanding shares entitled to vote on the removal.

Shareholders' Meetings

The bylaws of Eagle provide that a special meeting of shareholders may be called upon the written notice of any one or more holders of shares representing at least 25% of the outstanding stock. The bylaws of United provide that a special meeting of shareholders may be called upon the written request of the holders of shares representing at least 25% of the votes that would be entitled to be cast on each issue proposed to be considered at the special meeting.

Ability to Consider Other Constituencies

United's articles of incorporation permit its board of directors, in determining what is believed to be in the best interest of United and its shareholders, to consider the interests of its employees, customers, suppliers and creditors, the communities in which its offices and establishments are located and all other factors that they consider pertinent, in addition to considering the effects of any actions on United and its shareholders. This provision permits United's board of directors to consider numerous judgmental or subjective factors affecting a proposal, including some non-financial matters, and on the basis of these considerations may oppose a business combination or some other transaction which, viewed exclusively from a financial perspective, might be attractive to some, or even a majority, of its shareholders.

Neither the articles of incorporation nor bylaws of Eagle allows the board of directors to consider other constituencies when determining what is in the best interests of shareholders in connection with an action affecting Eagle or its shareholders.

Amendments to Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws

The articles of incorporation of Eagle may be amended by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the stock. The bylaws of Eagle may be amended by the affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the board of directors or a majority of the votes cast by the holders of a majority of the shares issued and outstanding.

The articles of incorporation of United provide that its articles of incorporation, or the bylaws of United, may be amended only by the affirmative vote of holders of two-thirds of the shares of United capital stock then issued and outstanding and entitled to vote. An increase in the number of authorized shares only requires a majority vote.

Approval of Business Combinations

The articles of incorporation of United provide that a two-tiered approval, consisting of the affirmative vote of not less than 75% of the holders of the outstanding common stock and the affirmative vote of not less than 75% of the holders of the outstanding common stock excluding those shares that are beneficially owned, is required for those business combinations with interested shareholders.

Neither the articles of incorporation nor the bylaws of Eagle contain such a provision regarding the approval of certain business combinations.

Governing Law

United is a business corporation organized under the Georgia Business Corporation Code. Eagle is a national bank chartered under the National Bank Act.

Access to Shareholder List

The National Bank Act requires that Eagle keep, at all times, a full and correct list of the names and addresses of all of the shareholders of Eagle, together with the number of shares held by each. The shareholder list is subject to inspection by all Eagle shareholders during business hours of each business day.

The Georgia Business Corporation Code requires that United prepare and make available a list of all shareholders of United entitled to notice of a shareholders' meeting, including the address and number of shares of each shareholder. This shareholder list is subject to inspection by any shareholder at the time and place of the shareholder meeting.

Cumulative Voting

The National Bank Act allows shareholders of Eagle to exercise cumulative voting rights in the election of directors. The right to cumulate votes in an election entitles shareholders to multiply the number of votes that they are entitled to cast by the number of directors for whom they are allowed to vote and cast those votes for one candidate or spread those votes among the candidates as desired.

The Georgia Business Corporation Code does not grant shareholders of United the right to cumulate their votes in the election of directors. Directors are elected by a plurality of votes; shareholders may vote no more than their total number of shares for each candidate.

Securities and Exchange Act Reporting

United is subject to filing requirements imposed by the Securities and Exchange Commission. These filing requirements are both periodic and transaction-based obligations whereby United discloses certain information to the Securities and Exchange Commission, and this information is subsequently made available to the public.

Eagle is not subject to any of the filing requirements imposed by the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Dividends

United has declared cash dividends of $.18 per share in 2004 (through the third quarter) and declared aggregate cash dividends of $.20 per share in 2003 and $.167 per share in 2002. United intends to continue paying cash dividends but the amount and frequency of cash dividends, if any, will be determined by United's board of directors after consideration of earnings, capital requirements, and the financial condition of United, and will depend on cash dividends paid to it by its subsidiary banks.

The ability of its subsidiaries to pay dividends to United is restricted by certain regulatory requirements, as is more fully discussed in the "Business Supervision & Regulation" section of United's 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2003, which is incorporated by reference.

Eagle has never declared any dividends on its commons stock. Eagle is prohibited under the merger agreement from paying cash dividends prior to the closing of the transaction without the prior written consent of United.

Whether the Eagle shareholders approve the merger agreement, and regardless of whether the merger is completed, the future dividend policies of United and Eagle will depend upon each company's respective earnings, financial condition, applicable legal restrictions, and other factors relevant at the time the respective boards of directors consider whether to declare dividends.

Accounting Treatment

The merger will be accounted for as a purchase for financial reporting and accounting purposes. After the merger, the results of operations of Eagle will be included in the consolidated financial statements of United. The purchase price will be allocated based on the fair values of the assets acquired and the liabilities assumed. Any excess of cost over fair value of the net tangible and identified intangible assets of Eagle acquired will be recorded as goodwill. Any identified intangible asset may be amortized by charges to operations under generally accepted accounting principles.

Resales of United Common Stock by Directors, Executive Officers and Shareholders of Eagle

Although United, through this proxy statement/prospectus, will register the United common stock to be issued in the merger under the Securities Act of 1933, the former directors, executive officers, and 5% or greater shareholders of Eagle and certain other affiliates of United (as defined in Rule 405 of the Securities Act) may not resell the United common stock received by them unless those sales are made pursuant to an effective registration statement under the Securities Act of 1933, or under Rules 144 and 145 of the Securities Act, or another exemption from registration under the Securities Act. Rules 144 and 145 limit the amount of United common stock or other equity securities of United that those persons may sell during any three-month period, and require that certain current public information with respect to United be available and that the United common stock be sold in a broker's transaction or directly to a market maker in United common stock.

Regulatory Approvals

The FDIC will be required to approve the merger. In determining whether to grant that approval, the FDIC will consider the effect of the merger on the financial and managerial resources and future prospects of the companies and banks concerned and the convenience and needs of the communities to be served.

The Georgia Department of Banking and Finance must also approve the merger. The Department of Banking and Finance's review of the application will not include an evaluation of the proposed transaction from the financial perspective of the individual shareholders of Eagle. Further, no shareholder should construe an approval of the application by the Department of Banking and Finance to be a recommendation that the shareholders vote to approve the proposal. Each shareholder entitled to vote should evaluate the proposal to determine the personal financial impact of the completion of the proposed transaction. Shareholders not fully knowledgeable in such matters are advised to obtain the assistance of competent professionals in evaluating all aspects of the proposal including any determination that the completion of the proposed transaction is in the best financial interest of the shareholder.

Notice of the merger will be provided to the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System and the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency.

Rights of Dissenting Shareholders

Eagle is a bank chartered under the laws of the United States. Federal law confers rights upon shareholders of national banking associations to, in certain circumstances, receive payment for the "fair value" of all or a portion of their shares, and it establishes procedures for the exercise of those rights. These shareholder rights are referred to within this document as "dissenters' rights".

In general, if the merger is completed, under Section 215a of the National Bank Act in Title 12 of the United States Code, an Eagle shareholder who votes against the merger or dissents from the merger, and who otherwise complies with the provisions of Section 215a, is entitled to request and receive payment in cash of an amount equal to the appraisal value of such holder's shares of Eagle common stock held at the time of the approval of the merger by the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency.

A dissenting shareholder must dissent as to all of the shares of Eagle common stock owned by that shareholder. An Eagle shareholder who chooses to vote against or dissent from the merger and to receive payment of the value of his, her or its shares of Eagle common stock in accordance with the requirements of Section 215a must:

not vote the shares registered in his or her name in favor of the merger, or deliver to Eagle, prior to or at the meeting at which the shareholder vote on the merger agreement is taken, a written notice of his or her dissent from the merger; and deliver to Eagle, at any time prior to thirty (30) days after the consummation of the merger, a written request for the payment of the value of his or her shares, accompanied by the surrender of his, her or its stock certificates.

Any filing of a written notice of intent to dissent with respect to the merger and any written payment request should be sent to: Allette B. Cheaves, Secretary, Eagle National Bank, 850 Eagles Landing Parkway, Stockbridge, Georgia 30281. A vote against the merger agreement alone will not satisfy the requirements for compliance with Section 215a of the National Bank Act. A shareholder who wishes to dissent from the merger must, as an initial matter, separately comply with all of applicable conditions listed above.

Eagle will provide to each shareholder who timely submitted a written notice of intent to dissent, and who voted against the merger at the special meeting, a dissenters' notice that states the date of the consummation of the merger.

For the purpose of determining the amount to be received in connection with the exercise of statutory dissenters' rights under the Section 215a, the law provides that the value of a dissenting Eagle shareholder's common stock shall be determined as of the effective date of the merger by an appraisal made by a committee of three persons. One appraiser on the committee is selected by the vote of a majority of the dissenting shareholders seeking payment and a second individual is selected by the directors of UCB Georgia. These two persons select the third member of the appraisal committee. The valuation agreed upon by two of the three appraisers shall govern. If the appraised value presented by the committee of appraisers is not satisfactory to any dissenting shareholder who has requested payment, that shareholder may appeal the appraisal to the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency within five (5) days after notification of the appraised value. The Office of the Comptroller of the Currency shall conduct a reappraisal, and that reappraisal shall be final and binding as to that shareholder.

If within 90 days after the consummation of the merger, one or more of the appraisers are not selected or the appraisers fail to determine the value of the shares, the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency shall, upon the written request of any interested party, cause an appraisal to be made which shall be the final appraisal and binding on all parties.

The expenses of the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency in conducting an appraisal shall be paid by UCB Georgia. The value of the shares, as determined, shall be paid promptly by United to the dissenting shareholders. The shares of United stock that would have been delivered to the dissenting shareholder shall be sold. If the shares are sold for a price greater than the amount paid to the dissenting shareholders, the excess of such sale price shall be paid to the dissenting shareholders.

Eagle urges its shareholders to read all of the dissenter's rights provisions found in Section 215a of the National Bank Act and reproduced in full in Appendix B to this proxy statement/prospectus and which are incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. In addition, Eagle urges its shareholders to review Appendix D, which is a table showing the results of appraisals conducted by the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency. Although these appraisals are not binding on any appraisals that could be conducted in connection with this transaction, they are illustrative of the results of similar appraisals.

Material Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger and Opinion of Tax Counsel

Eagle has received an opinion from Kilpatrick Stockton LLP to the effect that, assuming the merger is completed in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement:

the merger and the issuance of shares of United common stock in connection therewith, as described in the merger agreement, will constitute a tax-free reorganization under Section 368(a)(2)(D) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended;

no gain or loss will be recognized by holders of Eagle common stock upon the exchange of such stock for United common stock as a result of the merger; gain or loss will be recognized pursuant to Section 302 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, by holders of Eagle common stock upon their receipt of cash for their shares of Eagle common stock, including cash (1) in lieu of fractional shares of United common stock, and (2) upon their exercise of dissenters' rights;

no gain or loss will be recognized by Eagle as a result of the merger;

the aggregate tax basis of United common stock received by shareholders of Eagle pursuant to the merger will be the same as the tax basis of the shares of Eagle common stock exchanged therefor, (1) decreased by any portion of such tax basis allocated to fractional shares of United common stock that are treated as redeemed by United, (2) decreased by the amount of cash received by a shareholder in the merger (other than cash received with respect to fractional shares), and (3) increased by the amount of gain recognized by a shareholder in the merger (other than gain recognized with respect to fractional shares); and the holding period of the shares of United common stock received by the shareholders of Eagle will include the holding period of the shares of Eagle common stock exchanged therefor, provided that the common stock of Eagle is held as a capital asset on the date of the consummation of the merger.

No ruling will be requested from the Internal Revenue Service with respect to any Federal income tax consequences of the merger.

The foregoing tax opinion and the preceding discussion relate to the material federal income tax consequences of the merger to Eagle shareholders. Eagle shareholders are advised to consult their own tax advisors as to any state, local, or other tax consequences of the merger.

Opinion of Eagle's Financial Advisor

Eagle interviewed several consultants to assist in determining the best strategic alternatives following an unsolicited offer to acquire the bank. Stevens & Company, a LaGrange, Georgia based firm was selected due to their prior experience in the merger and acquisition business in the Southeast in general and with Georgia-based banks in particular. The Eagle board was aware that Stevens had been involved with 47 bank mergers, including another de novo bank in Henry County that had been acquired by Wachovia Corporation.

On August 2, 2004, Stevens & Company delivered the written opinion that as of that date and based upon and subject to factors and assumptions set forth in its opinion, the proposed merger with United was fair from a financial point of view to the shareholders of Eagle, a copy of which is attached as Appendix C. The Stevens opinion is directed to the board of directors of Eagle and addresses only the fairness of the transaction from a financial point of view. Valuing the transaction at $12,536,000, Stevens noted that United would purchase the 51,000 outstanding stock options of Eagle for an intrinsic value of $6.75 to total $344,250. The common shareholders would receive the remainder of $12,191,750 or $20.32 per share. Eighty percent of the proceeds, or $9,753,844 would be in the form of United stock based on the prior twenty day trading average or an exchange ratio of 0.8636. The remaining proceeds would be paid in cash to total $2,438,400.

In arriving at its opinion, Stevens, among other things:

reviewed the merger agreement;

reviewed certain financial information on both Eagle and United and the markets in which they operate;

compared financial and operating performances of Eagle and United as well as operating performances of other financial services businesses in the area;

reviewed the alternatives of Eagle remaining as an small independent financial institution and the prospects of management growing the bank prior to a sale; and performed other analysis, including the support that management may have with their existing shareholder base should a merger not be identified as in the best interest of Eagle.

Stevens held discussions with certain members of the management of Eagle and United with respect to a number of aspects of the merger as well as past and future business models of Eagle assuming a merger with United. Stevens relied upon, without independent verification, the accuracy of all information provided, both audited and unaudited.

The Stevens opinion is based on economic, market, and other conditions as of the date of the opinion. The opinion does not reflect any developments that may occur after the date of the completion of the merger.

Stevens employed several valuation models that are widely used in the financial services industry including, but not limited to, present value discount models, to determine the value of Eagle as an independent, comparison of other bank sales both in terms of book value and earnings multiples, and concluded by modeling a performance break even analysis for United assuming a purchase price of $12,536,000.

Present Value Discount Models

In a present value discount model, Stevens' objective was to determine the highest value of Eagle assuming it remained independent. The model included a 5-year projection of income that would increase return on assets from .05 in year one to 1.5 in the fifth year. Assets would grow at 7.5%, with all earnings in excess of the required 8.5% capital asset ratio being paid to the shareholders in the form of dividends. The fifth year earnings multiple was then discounted at 12% to present value as were all dividends. Adding the present value of dividends and the present value earnings multiple, the model reflected a value of $10,422,615. Accordingly, a price in excess of this number would be in the best interest of the shareholders of Eagle.

Comparison of Other Bank Sales

In reviewing comparative sales of other banks, Stevens presented a detailed list of the last 25 bank sales in Georgia with assets under $1 billion. The list disclosed the target bank, the acquirer, date of the sale, and the purchase price as a multiple of book and a multiple of earnings. Stevens noted that the list of 25 bank sales was a true and correct list of the last 25 bank sales in Georgia with the list being generated by an independent agency, SNL Securities of Charlottesville, Virginia.

Book Value Analysis

The average and median prices to book multiples are as follows on the 25 bank sales:

Average Book Multiple	1.96 times
Median	1.75 times
Eagle's Price to Book Multiple:	2.13 times

Stevens further noted that United's $12,536,000 offer was net to the shareholders. In addition to the stated purchase price, United was assuming certain other obligations of Eagle including management contracts, data processing fees, and merger related expenses. In considering the after tax implications, the price to book would then exceed 2.36 times book.

Price to Earnings

Eagle reported an earnings loss of $31,728 for the year ended December 31, 2003. Management attributed this to the opening of a new branch banking office. Assuming that Eagle attributed a $150,000 loss to the branch opening, 2003 earnings would have been $118,272.

The average and median price to earning multiple on the 25 bank sales were:

Average Earnings Multiple	23.8 times
Median	22.2 times
Eagle's Earnings Multiple Assuming $118,272 in 2003	106.0 times

A Dilution Analysis

Stevens noted that United would be required to issue 414,528 shares of common stock pursuant to the stated exchange ratio. Assuming estimates of $1.44 earnings per share for 2005, Eagle would have to earn $599,999 on those shares plus an additional $75,000 on the cost of capital required for the $2 million cash portion of the offer, or a total of $695,000, for the transaction to be non-dilutive. Based on the past performance, Stevens determined that Eagle shareholders would be in a much more favorable position with the leverage afforded by United.

The foregoing summary material and analyses are not intended to be a complete description of the analyses or data presented by Stevens. Fairness opinions are derived from a complex process and are necessarily susceptible to partial analysis of summary data, included but not limited to the make-up of the existing shareholder base and their desire to be long-term investors. Accordingly, no single analysis was used in concluding overall fairness, rather the totality of factors is reflected in the opinion. Analyses based upon future results are uncertain and are subject to factors and events beyond the control of the parties and their advisors.

Eagle selected Stevens to advise it and deliver a fairness opinion with respect to the merger on the basis of experience and familiarity with Eagle and an ability to perform necessary tests on United. In connection with the engagement, Stevens will receive a fee equal to 1% of the transaction value upon closing. Eagle will indemnify Stevens against certain liabilities, including liabilities arising under the federal securities law.

The full text of the written opinion of Stevens dated August 2, 2004, appears in Appendix C.

INFORMATION ABOUT UNITED COMMUNITY BANKS, INC.

General

Financial and other information about United is set forth on United's Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2003, which is incorporated herein by reference.

Securities

The authorized capital stock of United currently consists of 100,000,000 shares of common stock, $1.00 par value per share and 10,000,000 shares of preferred stock, $1.00 par value per share. As of September 21, 2004, 36,254,642 shares of common stock were issued and outstanding, exclusive of 366,112 shares held as treasury shares, 372,000 shares reserved for issuance upon the conversion of subordinated debt and 2,170,898 shares of common stock reserved for issuance upon the exercise of outstanding options. At that date, United had 44,800 shares of Series A Non-Cumulative Preferred Stock issued and outstanding.

Common Stock

All voting rights are vested in the holders of the common stock. Each holder of common stock is entitled to one vote per share on any issue requiring a vote at any meeting. The shares do not have cumulative voting rights. Subject to the right of holders of United's Series A Non-Cumulative Preferred Stock to receive dividends, all shares of United common stock are entitled to share equally in any dividends that United's board of directors may declare on United common stock from sources legally available for distribution. The determination and declaration of dividends is within the discretion of United's board of directors. Upon liquidation, holders of United common stock are entitled to receive on a pro rata basis, after payment or provision for payment of all debts and liabilities of United, and after all distributions payments are made to holders of United's Series A Non-Cumulative Preferred Stock, all assets of United available for distribution, in cash or in kind.

The outstanding shares of United common stock are, and the shares of United common stock to be issued by United in connection with the merger will be, duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid, and nonassessable.

Preferred Stock

United is authorized to issue 10,000,000 shares of preferred stock, issuable in specified series and having specified voting, dividend, conversion, liquidation, and other rights and preferences as United's board of directors may determine. The preferred stock may be issued for any lawful corporate purpose without further action by United shareholders. The issuance of any preferred stock that has conversion rights might have the effect of diluting the interests of United's other shareholders. In addition, shares of preferred stock could be issued with certain rights, privileges, and preferences which would deter a tender or exchange offer or discourage the acquisition of control of United.

United's board of directors designated 287,411 of the 10,000,000 authorized shares of preferred stock as "Series A Non-Cumulative Preferred Stock", of which 44,800 shares remain outstanding. The Series A stock has a stated value of $10.00 per share, and holders of Series A stock are entitled to a preferential annual dividend of 6%, payable quarterly on each January 1, April 1, July 1 and October 1. The declaration of dividends with respect to the Series A stock is within the discretion of United's board of directors.

In addition, holders of the Series A stock are entitled to receive, on a pro rata basis, distributions upon liquidation prior to any payment by United to the holders of its common stock, in an amount equal to the stated value per share of the Series A stock, plus any accrued but unpaid dividends. The Series A stock has no voting rights, except as required under the Georgia Business Corporation Code, and is not convertible into shares of common stock or other securities of United. United may, at its option, redeem all or part of the Series A stock outstanding by paying cash for such shares in an amount equal to the stated value per share, plus any accrued but unpaid dividends.

United has outstanding $31.5 million aggregate principal amount of 6.75% Subordinated Notes, due 2012. Interest is payable semi-annually in arrears in cash on June 15 and December 15 of each year. The notes may not be redeemed prior to their maturity. No sinking fund is provided for the notes. The notes are general unsecured obligations of United, subordinated to all existing and future secured and senior indebtedness, and payment of principal of the notes may be accelerated only in the case of bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership, conservatorship or reorganization of United or one of United's bank subsidiaries.

Subordinated Step-up Notes due 2015

United has outstanding $35 million aggregate principal amount of Subordinated Step-up Notes due 2015. The notes bear interest at a fixed rate of 6.25% through September 30, 2010, and at a fixed rate of 7.5% thereafter until maturity or earlier redemption. Interest is payable semi-annually in arrears in cash on March 31 and September 30 of each year. The notes are callable at par on September 30, 2010, and September 30 of each year thereafter with maturity until September 30, 2015. The notes are general unsecured obligations of United, subordinated to all existing and future secured and senior indebtedness, and payment of principal of the notes may be accelerated only in the case of bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership, conservatorship or reorganization of United or one of United's bank subsidiaries.

Convertible Subordinated Debentures

Debentures in the principal amount of $3.1 million that are due on December 31, 2006, were outstanding as of June 30, 2004. These debentures bear interest at the rate of one quarter of one percentage point over the prime rate per annum as quoted in The Wall Street Journal, payable on April 1, July 1, October 1, and January 1 of each year to holders of record at the close of business on the 15th day of the month immediately preceding the interest payment date. Interest is computed on the basis of the actual number of days elapsed in a year of 365 or 366 days, as applicable. Interest on the debentures is payable, at the option of the board of directors of United, in cash or in additional debentures with the same terms as the outstanding debentures.

The debentures may be redeemed, in whole or in part, from time to time on or after January 1, 1999, at the option of United upon at least 20 days and not more than 60 days notice, at a redemption price equal to 100% of the principal amount of the debentures to be redeemed plus interest accrued and unpaid as of the date of redemption. The holder of any debentures not called for redemption will have the right, exercisable at any time up to December 31, 2006, to convert those debentures at the principal amount thereof into shares of United common stock at the conversion price of $8.33 per share, subject to adjustment for stock splits and stock dividends. The debentures are unsecured obligations of United and are subordinate in right of payment to all obligations of United to its other creditors, except obligations ranking on a parity with or junior to the debentures. The debentures were not issued pursuant to an indenture, and no trustee acts on behalf of debenture holders.

Trust Preferred Securities

United has four wholly owned statutory trusts, which issued guaranteed preferred interests in junior subordinated deferrable interest debentures. The debentures represent the sole asset of the trusts. These debentures qualify as Tier I capital under Federal Reserve Board guidelines. All of the common securities of the trusts are owned by United. United has entered into contractual arrangements which, taken collectively, fully and unconditionally, guarantee payment of: (1) accrued and unpaid distributions required to be paid on the securities; (2) the redemption price with respect to any securities called for redemption by the respective trust; and (3) payments due upon a voluntary or involuntary dissolution, winding up or liquidation of the respective trust. The following is a description of each trust preferred security.

10.60% Trust Preferred Securities

In September 2000, United formed a wholly owned Connecticut statutory business trust, United Community Statutory Trust I ("United Statutory Trust"), which issued $5 million of guaranteed preferred beneficial interests in United's junior subordinated deferrable interest debentures. The proceeds from the issuance of the securities were used by United Statutory Trust to purchase $5.2 million of junior subordinated debentures of United, which carry a fixed interest rate of 10.60%. The securities accrue and pay distributions semiannually at a fixed rate of 10.60% per annum of the stated liquidation value of $1,000 per capital security and are mandatorily redeemable upon maturity of the debentures on September 7, 2030, or upon earlier redemption as provided in the indenture. United has the right to redeem the debentures purchased by United Statutory Trust in whole or in part, on or after September 7, 2010. As specified in the indenture, if the debentures are redeemed prior to maturity, the redemption price will be the principal amount, any accrued but unpaid interest, plus a premium ranging from 5.3% in 2010 to .53% beginning in 2019.

11.295% Trust Preferred Securities

In July 2000, United formed a wholly owned Delaware statutory business trust, United Community Capital Trust II ("United Trust II"), which issued $10 million of guaranteed preferred beneficial interests in United's junior subordinated deferrable interest debentures. The proceeds from the issuance of the securities were used by United Trust II to purchase $10.3 million of junior subordinated debentures of United, which carry a fixed rate of 11.295%. The securities accrue and pay distributions at a fixed rate of 11.295% per annum of the stated liquidation value of $1,000 per capital security. The securities are mandatorily redeemable upon maturity of the debentures on July 19, 2030, or upon earlier redemption as provided in the indenture. United has the right to redeem the debentures purchased by United Trust II in whole or in part, on or after July 19, 2010. As specified in the indenture, if the debentures are redeemed prior to maturity, the redemption price will be the principal amount, any accrued but unpaid interest, plus a premium ranging from 2.824% in 2010 to .565% beginning in 2019.

8.125% Trust Preferred Securities

In July 1998, United formed a wholly owned Delaware statutory business trust, United Community Capital Trust ("United Trust"), which issued $21 million of guaranteed preferred beneficial interests in United's junior subordinated deferrable interest debentures. The proceeds from the issuance of the securities were used by United Trust to purchase $21.7 million of junior subordinated debentures of United that carry a fixed interest rate of 8.125%. The securities accrue and pay distributions semiannually at a fixed rate of 8.125% per annum of the stated liquidation value of $1,000 per capital security. The securities are mandatorily redeemable upon maturity of the debentures on July 15, 2028, or upon earlier redemption as provided in the indenture. United has the right to redeem the debentures purchased by United Trust: (1) in whole or in part, on or after July 15, 2008, and (2) in whole (but not in part) at any time within 90 days following the occurrence and during the continuation of a tax event, investment company event or capital treatment time (as defined in the indenture). As specified in the indenture, if the debentures are redeemed prior to maturity, the redemption price will be the principal amount, any accrued but unpaid interest, plus a premium ranging from 4.06% in 2008 to .41% in 2017.

Floating Rate Trust Preferred Securities

In June 2004, United acquired Fairbanco Holding Company, Inc. and its wholly owned Delaware statutory business trust, Fairbanco Capital Trust I ("Fairbanco Trust"), which issued $5 million of guaranteed preferred beneficial interests in Fairbanco's junior subordinated deferrable interest debentures. The proceeds from the issuance of the securities were used by Fairbanco Trust to purchase $5.2 million of junior subordinated debentures of Fairbanco that bear interest at the rate of 3.65% per annum over the three-day London Interbank Offered Rate, as calculated quarterly pursuant to the indenture. The securities accrue and pay distributions quarterly at the then applicable interest rate. The securities mature on July 30, 2032 unless the maturity date is accelerated pursuant to the indenture. United has the right to redeem the debentures purchased by Fairbanco Trust: (1) in whole or in part, on or after June 30, 2007 at par, and (2) in whole (but not in part) at any time before June 30, 2007 within 60 days following the occurrence and during the continuation of a tax event, investment company event or capital treatment time (as defined in the indenture) at a premium of 3.00%. As specified in the indenture, if the debentures are redeemed prior to maturity, the redemption price will include any accrued but unpaid interest.

Transfer Agent and Registrar

The Transfer Agent and Registrar for United's common stock and the debentures is SunTrust Bank, P.O. Box 4625, Suite 225-A, 58 Edgewood Avenue, Atlanta, Georgia 30302.

Certain Provisions of United's Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws Regarding Change of Control

Ability to Consider Other Constituencies

United's articles of incorporation permit its board of directors, in determining what is believed to be in the best interest of United and its shareholders, to consider the interests of its employees, customers, suppliers and creditors, the communities in which its offices and establishments are located and all other factors that they consider pertinent, in addition to considering the effects of any actions on United and its shareholders. This provision permits United's board of directors to consider numerous judgmental or subjective factors affecting a proposal, including some non-financial matters, and on the basis of these considerations may oppose a business combination or some other transaction which, viewed exclusively from a financial perspective, might be attractive to some, or even a majority, of its shareholders.

Amendments to Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws

United's articles of incorporation specifically provide that neither the articles of incorporation nor the bylaws of United may be amended without the affirmative vote the holders of two-thirds of the shares issued and outstanding and entitled to vote thereon, except for provisions relating to increasing the number of authorized shares of common and preferred stock of United. This provision could allow the holders of 33.4% of the outstanding capital stock of United to exercise an effective veto over a proposed amendment to the articles or bylaws, despite the fact that the holders of 66.6% of the shares favor the proposal. This provision protects, among other things, the defensive measures included in United's articles of incorporation and bylaws by making more difficult future amendments to the articles of incorporation and bylaws that could result in the deletion or revision of such defensive measures.

Supermajority Approval of Interested Business Combinations

United's articles of incorporation provide that if a proposed business combination between United and any interested shareholder is not approved by three-fourths of all directors of United then in office, the business combination must be approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 75% of the outstanding shares of United's common stock, including the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 75% of the outstanding shares of common stock held by shareholders other than the interested shareholder. This provision may discourage attempts by other corporations or groups to acquire control of United, without negotiation with management, through the acquisition of a substantial number of shares of United's stock followed by a forced merger. This provision may also enable a minority of the shareholders of United to prevent a transaction favored by a majority of the shareholders, and may discourage tender offers or other non-open market acquisitions of United's common stock because of the potentially higher vote requirements for shareholder approval of any subsequent business combination. Additionally, in some circumstances, United's board of directors could, by withholding its consent to such a transaction, cause the 75%/75% shareholder vote to be required to approve a business combination, thereby enabling management to retain control over the affairs of United and their present positions with United.

Removal of Directors

United's articles of incorporation provide that a member of United's board of directors may only be removed for cause, and only upon the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the outstanding shares of capital stock of United entitled to vote thereon. This provision may prevent a significant shareholder from avoiding board scrutiny of a proposed business combination by merely removing directors with conflicting views, and may encourage individuals or groups who desire to propose takeover bids or similar transactions to negotiate with the board of directors. However, outside of the context of an acquisition attempt, it may serve as an impediment to a more legitimate need to remove a director.

Recent Developments

On August 24, 2004, United entered into an agreement to acquire Liberty Bancshares, Inc., Conyers, Georgia for $36.1 million in shares of United and cash. The transaction is expected to close in the fourth quarter of 2004. United plans to grow organically and with the selective opening of de novo offices. Other than its pending acquisitions of Liberty and Eagle, United has no other acquisitions pending or specifically under consideration. However, reviewing acquisition opportunities will continue to be a focus of United's growth strategy to extend its reach into new or existing markets.

Eagle offers a full range of depository accounts and services to both consumers and businesses. At June 30, 2004, its deposits consisted of the following accounts:

	Amount	Percentage
Noninterest bearing	$ 8,578,000	15%

Savings	550,000	1%
Money Market Deposits	15,243,000	26%
Certificates of Deposits, $100,000 or less	22,237,000	39%

	$ 58,140,000	100%
Total Deposits	$ 58,140,000	100%

Eagle management is of the opinion that its time deposits of $100,000 or more are customer relationship-oriented and represent a reasonably stable source of funds. Eagle is a member of The Federal Home Loan Bank of Atlanta, which provides another source of funding to support its lending and investment activities.

Loans

Eagle makes both secured and unsecured loans to individuals, firms and corporations, and both consumer and commercial lending operations include various types of credit for customers. Secured loans include first and second real estate mortgage loans. Eagle also makes direct installment loans to consumers on both a secured and unsecured basis. At June 30, 2004, consumer, real estate (including residential and commercial mortgage and construction loans) and commercial non-mortgage loans represented approximately 2%, 92%, and 6%, respectively, of its total loan portfolio.

Lending Policy

Eagle's current lending strategy is to make loans primarily to persons who reside, work or own property in its market area. Unsecured loans normally are made only to persons who maintain depository relationships with Eagle. Secured loans are made to persons who are well established and have net worth, collateral and cash flow to support the loan.

Eagle provides each lending officer with written guidelines for lending activities. Lending authority is delegated by Eagle's Board of Directors to loan officers, each of whom is limited in the amount of secured and unsecured loans which he or she can make to a single borrower or related group of borrowers.

Loan Review and Non-performing Assets

An outside service reviews Eagle's loan portfolio to determine deficiencies and corrective action to be taken. The results of the review by the outside service are presented to Eagle's President and the loan committee of the Board of Directors. Past due loans are reviewed at least weekly by Eagle's lending officers and a summary report is reviewed monthly by the loan committee of the Board of Directors. The loan committee of the Board of Directors reviews all new, renewed, and past due loans.

Asset/Liability Management

Eagle's President and Chief Financial Officer manage its assets and liabilities. These officers attempt to manage asset growth, liquidity and capital in order to maximize income and reduce interest rate risk and direct Eagle's overall acquisition and allocation of funds. At monthly meetings, the Asset and Liability Committee (ALCO Committee) reviews and discusses the monthly asset and liability funds budget in relation to the actual flow of funds, as well as peer group comparisons; the ratio of the amount of rate sensitive assets to the amount of rate sensitive liabilities; the ratio of allowance for loan losses to outstanding and non-performing loans; and other variables, such as expected loan demand, investment opportunities, core deposit growth within specified categories, regulatory changes, monetary policy adjustments and the overall state of the economy.

Investment Policy

Eagle's investment portfolio policy is to maximize income consistent with liquidity, asset quality and regulatory constraints. The policy is reviewed from time to time by the Board of Directors. Portfolio composition and performance are reviewed and approved monthly by the Board of Directors. Its President and Chief Financial Officer implement the policy and report information to the full Board of Directors on a monthly basis concerning sales, purchases, maturities and calls, resultant gains or losses, average maturity, federal taxable equivalent yields and appreciation or depreciation by investment categories.

Competition

The banking business is highly competitive. Eagle competes with several banking institutions in Henry County, most of which are larger and have greater resources than it does. Eagle also competes with other financial service organizations, including savings and loan associations, finance companies, credit unions, and certain governmental agencies located throughout the United States.

Location

Eagle's main office is located in a 9,000 square foot building at 850 Eagles Landing Parkway, Stockbridge, Georgia with three drive-through windows. Eagle has a branch office located at 865 Highway 20/81, McDonough, Georgia. Eagle owns both buildings, and they are not subject to any encumbrances. Eagle's management believes that both facilities are adequately covered by insurance.

Employees

As of September 3, 2004, Eagle had 24 full-time employees and three part-time employees. Eagle is not a party to any collective bargaining agreement and believes that its employee relations are good.

Legal Proceedings

Eagle is not aware of any pending or threatened legal proceeding against it.

Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

This discussion and analysis is intended to assist you in understanding the financial condition and results of operations of Eagle. You should read this commentary in conjunction with the financial statements and the related notes and the other statistical information included elsewhere in this report.

Overview

The organizers of Eagle National Bank filed applications on March 8, 1996, to charter the bank with the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency and the FDIC on August 16, 1996. Preliminary approvals were received from the OCC and the FDIC by February 18, 1997, and the bank opened to the public December 2, 1997, in Stockbridge, Georgia. Transactions of the organizational entity from inception to the date the bank opened to the public related primarily to expenditures for incorporating and organizing the bank, including raising capital and securing banking facilities. These expenditures were funded by line of credit borrowings and organizer advances, which were in turn repaid with proceeds from the sale of Eagle's common stock, with 600,000 shares issued on December 12, 1997 at $10 per share.

From its inception through 1999, Eagle's profitability was negatively affected, to a large extent, by increasing operating expenses. With Eagle's continued growth during that period, as evidenced by the consecutive increases in net interest income, more employees were hired to accommodate the growth. From 2000 through 2002, Eagle's interest earning assets provided interest and dividend income resulting in net earnings during those periods. In 2003, however, profitability was negatively affected by an increase in Eagle's operating expenses and a decrease in interest rates on its loans. The increase in operating expenses was primarily due to the opening of a new branch in McDonough, Georgia on April 28, 2003. The branch was introduced to stimulate loan and deposit generation, as Eagle has experienced a slight decrease in loan income resulting from new banks in the Henry County area in the past two years.

In addition, between 2002 and 2003, earnings were negatively impacted by the expense and amount of time spent away from Eagle's core business due to extraordinary regulatory compliance issues. Eagle signed a Memorandum of Understanding in May 2002 with the OCC to address several concerns that arose as a result of Eagle's September 2001 examination, primarily related to management, credit quality, asset/liability management and risk management. The Memorandum was terminated in February 2004. Eagle does not expect a future impact on earnings as a result of extraordinary regulatory compliance.

Eagle's performance in 2002 and 2003 was also impacted by management turnover. Of Eagle's original six directors, only four remain. Eagle has also lost key executives. During the last three quarters, though, Eagle has added two additional directors and hired several new key executives.

Critical Accounting Policy

The accounting principles Eagle follows and its methods of applying these principles conform with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America and with general practices within the banking industry. In connection with the application of those principles, Eagle has made judgments and estimates that, in the case of the establishment of its allowance for loan losses, have been critical to the determination of its financial position, results of operations and cash flows.

The allowance for loan losses is established through a provision for loan losses charged to expense. Loans are charged against the allowance for loan losses when management believes that the collection of the principal is unlikely. The allowance represents an amount, which in management's judgment, will be adequate to absorb probable losses on existing loans that may become uncollectible.

Eagle management's judgment in determining the adequacy of the allowance is based on evaluations of the probability of collection of loans. These evaluations take into consideration such factors as changes in the nature and volume of the loan portfolio, current economic conditions that may affect the borrower's ability to pay, overall portfolio quality, and review of specific loan problems. Eagle uses an external independent loan reviewer to challenge and corroborate its loan grading system and provide additional analysis in determining the adequacy of its allowance for loan losses.

Eagle management believes the allowance for loan losses is adequate. In addition, regulatory agencies, as part of their examination process, periodically review the allowance for loan losses. Such regulators may require additions to the allowance based on their judgment of information available to them at the time of such examination.

Offering Related Charges

During the second quarter of 2004, Eagle's management determined that additional equity capital was required to continue to support forecasted asset growth, to further develop product and service offerings and for other general corporate purposes. Accordingly, an offering circular was compiled which provided for the sale of 300,000 shares of common stock at an offering price of $14.50 per share. Prior to the culmination of an offering to the public, discussions were initiated which resulted in the signing of a definitive agreement with United as more completely described herein. Certain expenses were incurred in the formulation of the offering circular, including legal, accounting and consulting fees which totaled $51,390. In accordance with generally accepted accounting principals, these fees have been expensed effective June 30, 2004.

Results of Operations

Net income was $20,500 for the three months ended June 30, 2004, an increase of $45,900 from the net loss of $25,400 experienced during the same period of 2003. For the six months ended June 30, 2004, net income of $1,000 was reflected, up from a loss of $200 for the six months ended June 30, 2003. The majority of this change is a result of increased net interest income coupled with the recognition of a gain of $99,000 on sale of an SBA loan, offset by increases in occupancy and related expenses associated with our new McDonough branch together with the impact of the offering expenses mentioned above.

Total revenues, which are comprised of net interest income and non-interest income, for the three months ended June 30, 2004 were $751,500 as compared to $597,900 for the second quarter of 2003, an increase of $153,600 or 25.7%. For the six months ended June 30, 2004 total revenue was $1,380,000, compared to total revenues for the six months ended June 30, 2003 of $1,201,000, an increase of $179,000 or 14.9%. The increase in both periods is directly related to increases in net interest income as more completely described below and the recognition of a gain on the sale of an SBA loan of $99,000 during the second quarter of 2004 offset by marginal changes in mortgage loan and related fees.

Net Interest Income and Net Interest Expense. Net interest income is the single largest contributor to earnings. Net interest income is the interest earned on loans and investments, reduced by the interest paid on deposit accounts. Net interest income was negatively impacted during 2003 by the general decline in interest rates. While Eagle initially benefited from the declining rate environment in terms of acquiring new loan business, as rates continued to decline it became increasingly difficult to grow net interest income at a pace consistent with our asset growth. As loans with higher interest rates are paid off, the newly established loans are earning interest at a lower rate, thus reducing our interest income from loans. This is the primary reason for the decrease in net interest income from loans despite a 13% increase in average loans as of June 30, 2004 as compared to June 30, 2003.

The banking industry uses two key ratios to measure relative profitability of net interest income: net interest rate spread and net interest margin. The net interest rate spread measures the difference between the average yield on earning assets and the average rate paid on interest-bearing liabilities. The interest rate spread eliminates the impact of noninterest bearing deposits and gives a direct perspective on the effect of market interest rate movements. The net interest margin is defined as net interest income as a percent of average total earning assets and takes into account the positive impact of investing noninterest-bearing deposits and capital, to the extent not invested in non-earning assets.

Eagle's net interest spread for the second quarter of 2004 increased 2 basis points to 3.62% when compared to the second quarter of 2003, while the net interest margin decreased from 3.97% to 3.88% during the same period. For the first six months of 2004, the net interest spread was 3.75%, and the net interest margin was 4.02% compared to the same period in 2003, when the net interest spread was 3.58%, and the net interest margin on average earning assets was 3.97%. The results for the year to date indicate, when compared to the first six months of 2003, Eagle is beginning to experience some benefits of the lower rate environment, as the impact from the repricing of its deposit portfolio to lower rates is offsetting a corresponding drop in yields on earning assets, most significantly the loan portfolio. The average yield on the loan portfolio decreased 79 basis points, offset by a 60 basis point decrease in deposit costs. The effect of loan fees and non-interest bearing funds has declined significantly during the first six months of 2004, contributing only 68 basis points to the net interest margin, compared to a 100 basis point impact in 2003. As of June 2004, Eagle's cost of interest bearing liabilities, in the form of the average rate paid on interest bearing liabilities, is declining at a faster pace than our average rate of interest income from its interest bearing assets.

The following table shows the relative impact on net interest income of changes in the average outstanding balances (volume) of interest earning assets and interest bearing liabilities and the rates earned and paid by Eagle on such assets and liabilities for the three and six month periods ended June 30, 2004 compared to June 30, 2003. Variances resulting from a combination of changes in rate and volume are allocated in proportion to the absolute dollar amounts of the change in each category.

Noninterest income. Noninterest income consists primarily of service charges on deposit accounts, mortgage origination fees and other miscellaneous revenues and fees. Because fees from the origination of mortgage loans, as well as various other components of noninterest income, often reflects market conditions, Eagle's noninterest income may tend to have more fluctuations on a quarter to quarter basis than does net interest income.

For the quarter ended June 30, 2004, non-interest income increased $98,000 or 125% to $176,000 when compared to the same period in 2003. The majority of this increase was attributed to the recognition of a gain on the sale of the guaranteed portion of an SBA loan of $99,000 during the second quarter. Management continues to seek such sources of revenue, although it is anticipated that it is not a frequently recurring one, and there are no immediate plans to realize such gains in the near term future. Mortgage loan and related fee revenues increased slightly to $44,000, up $7,000 or 18% from the same period in 2003 as a result of increased activity in this source of revenue. Service charge and fees also increased slightly, up $2,000 or 8.8%, reflecting slight increases in NSF and related service charge income.

For the six months ended June 30, 2004, our noninterest income was $228,000, which was an increase of $76,000 or 50.1%, when compared to the six months ended June 30, 2003. Noninterest income comprised 16.5% of our total revenues (net interest income plus noninterest income) for the first six months of 2004. The primary reason for the increase in noninterest income for the first six months of 2004 as compared to the same period for 2003 is due to significant fee income on an SBA loan. Service charges increased slightly during the first six months of 2004 while the majority of the recurring income decreased with the $22,000 reduction in mortgage loan and related income as the increase in interest rates has resulted in decreased fee income. During 2004, an SBA loan was sold resulting in a gain of approximately $99,000. It is anticipated that this source of revenue is not a recurring one, and there are no immediate plans to realize gains such as this in the near term future.

Noninterest Expense. Noninterest expense consists of salaries and employee benefits, occupancy expenses, and other operating expenses, increased $82,000 or 12.9% for the second quarter of 2004 as compared to the same period of 2003. For the six months ended June 30, 2004, Eagle incurred approximately $1,378,000 in noninterest expenses compared to $1,201,000 for the six months ended June 30, 2003, an increase of $177,000 or 14.7%. The primary component of the increase in noninterest expense is salaries and employee benefits, up $32,000 or 9% and $82,000 or 12% for the three-month and six-month periods of 2004 versus 2003, respectively, the majority of which is attributable to the opening of the new branch office in McDonough in April 2003.

Eagle reported a net loss for the year ended December 31, 2003 of approximately $32,000, compared to net earnings of approximately $290,000 for the year ended December 31, 2002. Net interest income was $2.2 million in 2003 compared to $2.4 million in 2002. Other income was $268,000 for the year ended December 31, 2003 as compared to $150,000 in 2002. Other expenses for the year ended 2003 totaled $2.5 million, compared to $1.9 million in 2002.

Interest Income and Interest Expense. In 2003, average interest earning assets increased to $54 million, but decreased to 90.5% of average total assets compared to 91.8% of total average assets at December 31, 2002. The increase in interest earning assets was primarily due to the increase in investment securities and federal funds sold. Average loans outstanding for 2003 decreased to $42.6 million when compared to $45.1 million in 2002. Average interest-bearing liabilities for 2003 increased to $46.4 million from $44.4 million at December 31, 2002, and average interest rates paid on these liabilities decreased to 2.37% from 2.94% in 2002.

Eagle's net interest spread for the period ended December 31, 2003 and 2002 was 3.77% and 4.09% respectively, while its net interest margin was 4.11% and 4.56%, respectively for those same periods. Eagle's net interest margin decreased in 2003 both because of the precipitous decline in interest rates with interest earning assets repricing more quickly than interest bearing liabilities, as discussed above, and because average loan balances, which is Eagle's highest interest earning asset, decreased in 2003 as a percentage of total earning assets.

The following table shows the relative impact on net interest income of changes in the average outstanding balances (volume) of interest earning assets and interest bearing liabilities and the rates earned and paid by Eagle on such assets and liabilities for the period ended December 31, 2003 compared to December 31, 2002. Variances resulting from a combination of changes in rate and volume are allocated in proportion to the absolute dollar amounts of the change in each category.

Noninterest income and Noninterest expense. Other operating income, representing service charges on deposit accounts, mortgage origination income, and other miscellaneous income for the year ended December 31, 2003 totaled $268,000, which was an increase of approximately $118,000 over the amount for December 31, 2002. This increase is primarily attributable to the growth of $109,000 in mortgage origination income, precipitated by the increase in the volume of loan activity associated with the general decline in mortgage interest rates.

Changes in Financial Condition

Total assets at June 30, 2004 were $64.1 million, representing a $3 million, or 5%, increase from the December 31, 2003 balance of $61.0 million. Deposits at June 30, 2004 increased $3.1 million, or 5.6% to $58 million, from the December 31, 2003 total of $55.0 million. The balance of net loans at June 30, 2004 showed an increase of $3 million, to $47.9 million from $44.7 million at December 31, 2003. The allowance for loan losses at June 30, 2004 totaled $732,000, representing 1.51% of total loans compared to the December 31, 2003 total of $552,000, which represented 1.2% of total loans. Cash and cash equivalents increased $981,000 from December 31, 2003.

Loan Portfolio

Because loans typically provide higher interest yields than do other types of earning assets, Eagle's intent is to channel a substantial percentage of earning assets into loans. Total net loans outstanding at June 30, 2004, December 31, 2003 and 2002 were $47.9 million, $44.7 million and $42.0 million, respectively.

Major classifications of loans (in thousands) as of June 30, 2004, December 31, 2003 and December 31, 2002 are summarized as follows:

	June 30, 2004		December 31, 2003		December 31, 2002
	Amount	% of Total	Amount	% of Total	Amount	% of Total
Commercial, financial and agricultural	$ 2,953	6%	$ 3,616	8%	$ 5,569	13%

Total net loans	$ 47,901		$ 44,650		$ 42,059

The largest component of Eagle's loan portfolio was real estate loans, which represented 92%, 90% and 81% of the loan portfolio as of June 30, 2004, December 31, 2003 and December 31, 2002, respectively. Real estate loans are further classified into those collateralized by commercial properties and those secured by residential real estate.

Eagle classifies loans as non-accrual generally when they are past due in principal or interest payments for more than 90 days or it is otherwise not reasonable to expect collection of principal and interest under the original terms. Exceptions are allowed for 90-day past-due loans when such loans are well secured and in process of collection. Generally, payments received on non-accrual loans are applied directly to principal. Eagle has adopted the principles of Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") SFAS No. 114 and No. 118 relating to accounting for impaired loans. A loan is considered impaired when, based on current information and events, it is probable that all amounts due according to the contractual terms of the loan will not be collected. Impaired loans are measured based on the present value of expected collateral if the loan is collateral dependent. As of June 30, 2004 and December 31, 2003, Eagle had no non-accrual loans or loans past due greater than 90 days.

Provision and Allowance for Loan Losses

Additions to the allowance for loan losses are made in an effort to maintain the allowance at an appropriate level based on management's analysis of the potential risk in the loan portfolio and other factors, including practices of other banking organizations. The judgments and estimates associated with Eagle's determination of the allowance for loan losses are described under "Critical Accounting Policy" above.

As of June 30, 2004, the allowance for loan losses was $732,000, or 1.51% of outstanding loans, as compared to $552,000, or 1.22% of outstanding loans at December 31, 2003, and $778,000, or 1.82% of outstanding loans as of December 31, 2002. Eagle management uses an external independent loan reviewer to challenge and corroborate management's loan gradings and provide additional analysis, including peer group comparisons, in determining the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses and necessary provisions to the allowance.

There was no provision added to the allowance for loan losses for the periods ended June 30, 2004 or December 31, 2003. For the year ended December 31, 2002 there was a provision of $150,000 for loan losses.

Investment Portfolio

The investment securities portfolio outstanding as of June 30, 2004 and December 31, 2003 was $6.6 million and $7.8 million, respectively. All investment securities were classified as available for sale. The decrease in the investment portfolio was due to paydowns of mortgage backed securities. Eagle believes the investment portfolio provides a balance to interest rate and credit risk of other categories of the balance sheet while providing a vehicle for the investment of available funds.

The amortized cost and estimated fair value of investment securities available for sale at June 30, 2004 and December 31, 2003, by contractual maturity, are shown below (in thousands). Expected maturities may differ from contractual maturities because borrowers may have the right to call or prepay obligations without call or prepayment penalties. Mortgage backed securities amortize in accordance with the terms of the underlying mortgages, including prepayments as a result of refinancing and other early payouts.

As of June 30, 2004 and December 31, 2003 and 2002, Eagle had short-term investments in federal funds sold of $2.4 million, $1.6 million and $9.4 million, respectively. The federal funds are sold on an overnight basis to other banks.

Deposits

Core deposits, which exclude time deposits of $100,000, provide a relatively stable funding source for its loan portfolio and other earning assets. Eagle's core deposits were $49.7 million as of June 30, 2004, $47.6 million as of December 31, 2003 and $46.7 million as of December 31, 2002.

The average balance of Eagle's deposits and the average rates paid on such deposits as of June 30, 2004, December 31, 2003, and December 31, 2002 were as follows (in thousands):

The maturity distribution of Eagle's time deposits of $100,000 or more as of June 30, 2004, December 31, 2003 and December 31, 2002 is as follows (in thousands):

	June 30, 2004	December 31, 2003	December 31, 2002

Liquidity

Eagle must maintain, on a daily basis, sufficient funds to cover the withdrawals from depositors' accounts and to supply new borrowers with funds. To meet these obligations, Eagle keeps cash on hand, maintains account balances with correspondent banks, and purchases and sells federal funds and other short-term investments. Asset and liability maturities are monitored in an attempt to match these maturities to meet liquidity needs. It is Eagle's policy to monitor its liquidity to meet regulatory requirements and local funding requirements. Eagle believes its current level of liquidity is adequate to meet its needs.

Eagle's primary source of liquidity is a stable base of deposits. Eagle raises deposits by providing deposit services in its market. Scheduled repayments on loans, and interest and maturities of Eagle's investments also provide liquidity. All of Eagle's securities are classified as available-for-sale. If necessary, Eagle has the ability to sell a portion of its investment securities to manage our interest sensitivity gap or provide further liquidity. Eagle may also utilize cash due from banks and federal funds sold to meet liquidity needs.

At June 30, 2004, Eagle had arrangements with two commercial banks for short term unsecured advances up to $2 million and $1.4 million. As of June 30, 2004, Eagle had no outstanding balances under these arrangements.

Eagle's cash flows are composed of three classifications: cash flows from operating activities, cash flows from investing activities, and cash flows from financing activities.

For the six months ended June 30, 2004, cash and cash equivalents increased by $981,800 to $4.9 million. This increase was primarily due to an increase in deposits of $3.1 million which was offset by an increase in loans outstanding of $3.3 million. The remaining portion of the increase was due to standard recurring operating activities and other investing activities, including proceeds from matured investments.

Cash and cash equivalents at December 31, 2003, were $3.9 million, which is a decrease of $8.1 million from the December 31, 2002 balance of $12.0 million. The decrease in 2003 resulted from $7.1 million in purchases of securities and an increase in loan activity of $2.6 million. These investing activity increases were partially offset by $3.4 million in proceeds related to sales, calls, maturities and paydowns of other investments. The decrease in cash and cash equivalents was further impacted by a $1.1 million dollar decrease in deposits.

Interest Rate Sensitivity

Asset/liability management is the process by which Eagle monitors and controls the mix and maturities of its assets and liabilities. The essential purposes of asset/liability management are to ensure adequate liquidity and to maintain an appropriate balance between interest sensitive assets and interest sensitive liabilities to minimize potentially adverse impacts on earnings from changes in market interest rates. Interest rate sensitivity can be managed by repricing assets or liabilities, selling securities available-for-sale, replacing an asset or liability at maturity, or adjusting the interest rate during the life of an asset or liability. Managing the amount of assets and liabilities repricing in the same time interval helps to minimize interest rate risk and manage net interest income in changing interest rate environments.

Eagle uses income simulation modeling as its primary tool to measure interest rate risk and to manage its interest rate sensitivity. Simulation modeling considers not only the impact of changing market rates of interest on future net interest income, due to its effect on Eagle's interest-earning assets and interest-bearing liabilities, but also other potential causes of variability such as changes in earning asset levels, mix, yield, and general market conditions by simulating various increasing and decreasing interest rates. In managing interest rate sensitivity, Eagle's simulation modeling allows it to focus on the maturity of assets and liabilities and their repricing characteristics during periods of changing interest rates. This process allows Eagle to manage both its assets and liabilities to respond quickly to changes in interest rates, thereby minimizing the effects of interest rate movements on its net interest income. This analysis indicates that Eagle faces risk primarily from rising interest rates. If interest rates were to increase, the cost of interest bearing liabilities would increase faster than the yield on earning assets, leading to a decline in the margin. The extent of this decline would depend on the degree to which retail deposit rates change relative to market rates.

Another monitoring technique that Eagle employs is the measurement of its interest sensitivity "gap", which is the positive or negative dollar difference between assets and liabilities that are subject to interest rate repricing within a given period of time. Eagle's net interest income generally would benefit from rising interest rates when it has an asset-sensitive gap position. Conversely, Eagle's net interest income generally would benefit from decreasing interest rates of interest when Eagle has a liability-sensitive gap position.

Edgar Filing: UNITED COMMUNITY BANKS INC - Form 424B3

To measure its interest sensitivity gap, Eagle continually evaluates the asset mix of its balance sheet in terms of several variables: yield, credit quality, appropriate funding sources and liquidity. To effectively manage the liability mix of the balance sheet, Eagle focuses on expanding the various funding sources. The interest rate sensitivity position as of June 30, 2004 is presented in the following table (dollars in thousands). The difference between rate sensitive assets and rate sensitive liabilities, or the interest rate sensitivity gap, is shown at the bottom of the table. Since all interest rates and yields do not adjust at the same velocity, the gap is only a general indicator of rate sensitivity. The table may not be indicative of Eagle's rate sensitivity position at other points in time.

	One year or less	After one but within five years	After five years	Total
Rate sensitive assets:
Investment portfolio	$	$ 2,003	$ 4,587	$ 6,590
Short term investments fed funds	2,391			2,391
Loans	25,873	22,586	193	48,652
Total rate sensitive assets	28,264	24,589	4,780	57,633
Rate sensitive liabilities Interest bearing deposits
	46,684	2,878		49,562
Interest sensitive gap	(18,420)	21,711	4,780	8,071
Cumulative interest sensitivity gap	(18,420)	3,291	8,071
Ratio of cumulative interest sensitivity gap to total earning assets	(33.5)%	6.00%	14.70%

At June 30, 2004, the difference between Eagle's liabilities and assets repricing or maturing within one year was $18.4 million. This indicates that due to an excess of liabilities repricing or maturing within one year, a rise in interest rates would cause Eagle's net interest income to decline.

Gap analysis, however, is not a precise indicator of Eagle's interest rate sensitivity position. The analysis presents only a static view of the timing of maturities and repricing opportunities, without taking into consideration that changes in interest rates do not affect all assets and liabilities equally. Varying interest rate environments can create unexpected changes in the prepayment of assets and liabilities that are not reflected in the gap interest rate sensitivity analysis. For this reason, Eagle places greater emphasis on the simulation modeling analysis than the gap analysis.

Capital Adequacy

Eagle is subject to various regulatory capital requirements administered by the federal banking agencies. As of June 30, 2004, Eagle maintained capital ratios in the "well capitalized" classification.

Edgar Filing: UNITED COMMUNITY BANKS INC - Form 424B3

The following tables present Eagle's regulatory capital position at December 31, 2003 and June 30, 2004:

Risk-Based Capital Ratios	June 30, 2004	December 31, 2003
Tier 1 Tangible Capital, actual	11.10%	11.31%

Impact of Inflation and Changing Prices

The effect of relative purchasing power over time due to inflation has not been taken into effect in Eagle's financial statements. Rather, the statements have been prepared on an historical cost basis in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States.

Because most of the assets and liabilities of a financial institution are monetary in nature, the effect of changes in interest rates will have a more significant impact on Eagle's performance than will the effect of changing prices and inflation in general. Interest rates may generally increase as the rate of inflation increases, although not necessarily in the same magnitude.

Notes to Financial Statements
(Unaudited)

(1) Organization

Nature of Operations

Eagle National Bank (the "Bank") is a community oriented commercial bank that opened to the public on December 2, 1997. The main emphasis of the Bank is on retail banking and it offers such customary banking services as consumer and commercial checking accounts, savings accounts, certificates of deposit, commercial and consumer loans, money transfers and a variety of other banking services. The Bank's main office is in Stockbridge (Henry County), Georgia, and operates one branch facility located in McDonough (Henry County), Georgia conducting banking activities primarily in Henry and surrounding counties.

(2) Basis of Presentation

The auditing standards and accounting principles followed by the Bank and the methods of applying these standards and principles conform with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP") and with general practices within the banking industry. In preparing financial statements in conformity with GAAP, management is required to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts in the financial statements. Actual results could differ significantly from those estimates. Material estimates common to the banking industry that are particularly susceptible to significant change in the near term include, but are not limited to, the determination of the allowance for loan losses, the valuation of real estate acquired in connection with or in lieu of foreclosure on loans, and valuation allowances associated with deferred tax assets, the recognition of which are based on future taxable income.

The interim financial statements included in this report are unaudited but reflect all adjustments which, in the opinion of management, are necessary for a fair presentation of the financial position and results of operations for the interim periods presented. All such adjustments are of a normal recurring nature. The results of operations for the periods ended June 30, 2004 are not necessarily indicative of the results of a full year's operations.

(3) Proposed Merger

On August 2, 2004, the Board of Directors approved an agreement to merge with United Community Banks, Inc. ("United") a Blairsville, Georgia-based bank holding company. The agreement calls for each share of Bank stock to be exchanged for $20.32 in cash or .8636 shares of United common stock or a combination of cash and United common stock with a limit of 120,000 Bank shares in cash. The merger is subject to shareholder and regulatory approval.

[PORTER KEADLE MOORE, LLP LETTERHEAD]

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

The Board of Directors and Stockholders
Eagle National Bank
Stockbridge, Georgia

We have audited the accompanying balance sheets of Eagle National Bank as of December 31, 2003 and 2002, and the related statements of operations, comprehensive income, changes in stockholders' equity and cash flows for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Eagle National Bank as of December 31, 2003 and 2002, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

EAGLE NATIONAL BANK

Notes to Financial Statements

(1) SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Nature of Operations

Eagle National Bank (the "Bank") is a community oriented commercial bank that opened to the public on December 2, 1997. The main emphasis of the Bank is on retail banking and it offers such customary banking services as consumer and commercial checking accounts, savings accounts, certificates of deposit, commercial and consumer loans, money transfers and a variety of other banking services. The Bank's main office is in Stockbridge (Henry County), Georgia, and operates one branch facility located in McDonough (Henry County), Georgia conducting banking activities primarily in Henry and surrounding counties.

Basis of Presentation

The auditing standards and accounting principles followed by the Bank and the methods of applying these standards and principles conform with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP") and with general practices within the banking industry. In preparing financial statements in conformity with GAAP, management is required to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts in the financial statements. Actual results could differ significantly from those estimates. Material estimates common to the banking industry that are particularly susceptible to significant change in the near term include, but are not limited to, the determination of the allowance for loan losses, the valuation of real estate acquired in connection with or in lieu of foreclosure on loans, and valuation allowances associated with deferred tax assets, the recognition of which are based on future taxable income.

Certain 2002 amounts have been reclassified to conform with the presentation used for 2003.

Investment Securities

The Bank classifies its investment securities in one of three categories: trading, available for sale, or held to maturity. Trading securities are bought and held principally for the purpose of selling them in the near term. Held to maturity securities are those securities for which the Bank has the ability and intent to hold the security until maturity. All other securities not included in trading or held to maturity are classified as available for sale. At December 31, 2003 and 2002, all securities were classified as available for sale.

Available for sale securities are recorded at fair value. Held to maturity securities are recorded at cost, adjusted for the amortization or accretion of premiums or discounts. Unrealized holding gains and losses, net of the related tax effect, on securities available for sale are excluded from earnings and are reported as a separate component of stockholders' equity until realized. Transfers of securities between categories are recorded at fair value at the date of transfer. Unrealized holding gains or losses associated with transfers of securities from held to maturity to available for sale are recorded as a separate component of stockholders' equity. The unrealized holding gains or losses included in the separate component of stockholders' equity for securities transferred from available for sale to held to maturity are maintained and amortized into earnings over the remaining life of the security as an adjustment to yield in a manner consistent with the amortization or accretion of premium or discount on the associated security.

A decline in the market value of any available for sale or held to maturity investment below cost that is deemed other than temporary is charged to earnings and establishes a new cost basis for the security.

Premiums and discounts are amortized or accreted over the life of the related security as an adjustment to the yield. Realized gains and losses for securities classified as available for sale and held to maturity are included in earnings and are derived using the specific identification method for determining the cost of securities sold.

Other Investments

Other investments include equity securities (Federal Reserve Bank Stock, Federal Home Loan Bank stock and The Bankers Bank stock) with no readily determined fair value. These investments are carried at cost.

Loans, Loan Fees and Interest Income on Loans

Loans are stated at the principal amount outstanding, net of the allowance for loan losses. Interest on loans is calculated by using the simple interest method on daily balances of the principal amount outstanding.

Accrual of interest is discontinued on a loan when management believes, after considering economic and business conditions and collection efforts that the borrower's financial condition is such that collection of interest is doubtful. When a loan is placed on nonaccrual status, previously accrued and uncollected interest is charged to interest income on loans. Generally, payments on nonaccrual loans are applied to principal.

Loan fees greater than $1,000, net of certain origination costs, are deferred and amortized over the lives of the respective loans. All other loan fees are recognized when the loan closes.

Allowance for Loan Losses

The allowance for loan losses is established through a provision for loan losses charged to expense. Loans are charged against the allowance for loan losses when management believes that the collection of the principal is unlikely. The allowance represents an amount, which in management's judgment, will be adequate to absorb probable losses on existing loans that may become uncollectible.

Management's judgment in determining the adequacy of the allowance is based on evaluations of the probability of collection of loans. These evaluations take into consideration such factors as changes in the nature and volume of the loan portfolio, current economic conditions that may affect the borrower's ability to pay, overall portfolio quality, and review of specific problem loans. Management uses an external independent loan reviewer to challenge and corroborate its loan gradings and provide additional analysis, including peer group comparisons, in determining the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses and necessary provisions to the allowance.

Management believes the allowance for loan losses is adequate. While management uses available information to recognize losses on loans, future additions to the allowance may be necessary based on changes in economic conditions. In addition, regulatory agencies, as an integral part of their examination process, periodically review the allowance for loan losses. Such regulators may require additions to the allowance based on their judgments of information available to them at the time of their examination.

Premises and Equipment

Premises and equipment are carried at cost less accumulated depreciation. Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the related assets. When assets are retired or otherwise disposed of, the cost and related accumulated depreciation are removed from the accounts, and any resulting gain or loss is reflected in income for the period. The cost of maintenance and repairs that do not improve or extend the useful life of the respective asset is charged to income as incurred, whereas significant renewals and improvements are capitalized. The range of estimated useful lives for premises and equipment are:

Equipment and furniture	3 - 10 years
Buildings	40 years

Income Taxes

The Bank uses the liability method of accounting for income taxes, which requires the recognition of deferred tax assets and liabilities for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax basis. Additionally, this method requires the recognition of future tax benefits, such as net operating loss carryforwards, to the extent that realization of such benefits is more likely than not. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which the assets and liabilities are expected to be recovered or settled. The effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in income tax expense in the period that includes the enactment date.

In the event the future tax consequences of differences between the financial reporting bases and the tax bases of the Bank's assets and liabilities results in deferred tax assets, an evaluation of the probability of being able to realize the future benefits indicated by such asset is required. A valuation allowance is provided for the portion of the deferred tax asset when it is more likely than not that some portion or all of the deferred tax asset will not be realized. In assessing the realization of the deferred tax assets, management considers the scheduled reversals of deferred tax liabilities, projected future taxable income, and tax planning strategies.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include cash and due from banks and federal funds sold.

Net Earnings (Loss) Per Common Share

Basic earnings (loss) per common share are based on the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the period while the effects of potential common shares outstanding such as options, convertible securities and warrants are included in diluted earnings per share. At December 31, 2003 and 2002, the inclusion of any potential common shares (54,000 shares) related to stock options had no effect on earnings (loss) per share. Earnings (loss) per share are calculated based on weighted average shares outstanding of 600,000 for the years ended December 31, 2003 and 2002.

Stock Based Compensation

Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 123, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation," encourages, but does not require, entities to compute the fair value of options at the date of grant and to recognize such costs as compensation expense immediately if there is no vesting period or ratably over the vesting period of the options. The Bank has chosen not to adopt the cost recognition principles of this statement and accounts for stock options under Accounting Principles Board Opinion No. 25 and its related interpretations. Had compensation costs been determined based upon the fair value of the options at the grant dates consistent with the method of SFAS No. 123, the Bank's net earnings and earnings per share for 2002 would have reflected the proforma amounts below:

	2002
Net earnings, as reported	$ 289,780
Proforma stock-based compensation cost adjustments associated with new grants, previous grants vesting or cancellation, net of tax	94,934
Proforma net earnings	$ 384,714
Net earnings per share, as reported	$.48
Proforma stock-based compensation cost adjustments associated with new grants, previous grants vesting or cancellation, net of tax, per share	.16
Proforma net earnings, per share	$.64

The weighted average grant-date fair value of options in 2002 was $4.02. The fair value of each option is estimated on the date of grant using the minimum value option-pricing model, with the following weighted average assumptions used for grants:

	2002
Dividend yield	0%
Risk free interest rate	4%
Expected life	10 years

See note 7 for additional information regarding the stock option plan.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

Accounting standards that have been issued or proposed by the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) and other standard setting entities that do not require adoption until a future date are either not directly applicable at the present time or are not expected to have a material impact on the Bank's financial statements upon adoption.

In the normal course of business, the Bank sells loan participations to other financial institutions. Loan participations are typically sold to comply with legal lending limits to one borrower imposed by regulatory authorities. The participations are sold without recourse and the Bank imposes no transfer or ownership restrictions on the purchaser. (7) EMPLOYEE BENEFIT AND STOCK OPTION PLANS

The Bank has a defined contribution plan, intended to comply with the requirements of section 401(k) of the Internal Revenue Code, covering substantially all employees subject to certain minimum age and service requirements. Contributions to the plan are determined annually by the Board of Directors. The Bank matched 50% of each participant's contributions up to 6% of the participant's eligible compensation, which totaled $29,000 and $21,000, in 2003 and 2002, respectively.

The Bank has a stock option plan, adopted in 2001, for the benefit of directors, key officers and employees. This plan reserves 120,000 shares to be issued at fair value at the date of the grant in the case of incentive stock options and at prices determined at the Board's discretion in the case of non-qualified options. The options vest over periods of time as specified in the option agreements and expire after 10 years.

(8) DIVIDEND RESTRICTIONS

Banking regulations restrict the amount of dividends that the Bank may pay without obtaining prior approval. Capital adequacy considerations could further limit the availability of dividends from the Bank. At December 31, 2003, the Bank could not impair capital by the payment of dividends.

(9) REGULATORY MATTERS

The Bank is subject to various regulatory capital requirements administered by the federal banking agencies. Failure to meet minimum capital requirements can initiate certain mandatory and possibly additional discretionary actions by regulators that, if undertaken, could have a direct material effect on the Bank's financial statements. Under capital adequacy guidelines and the regulatory framework for prompt corrective action, the Bank must meet specific capital guidelines that involve quantitative measures of the Bank's assets, liabilities, and certain off-balance-sheet items as calculated under regulatory accounting practices. The Bank's capital amounts and classifications are also subject to qualitative judgments by the regulators about components, risk weightings, and other factors.

Quantitative measures established by regulation to ensure capital adequacy require the Bank to maintain minimum amounts and ratios (set forth in the table below) of total and Tier I capital (as defined in the regulations) to risk-weighted assets (as defined), and of Tier I capital (as defined) to average assets (as defined). Management believes, as of December 31, 2003 and 2002, that the Bank meets all capital adequacy requirements to which it is subject.

As of December 31, 2003 and 2002, the most recent notification from the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency categorized the Bank as well capitalized under the regulatory framework for prompt corrective action. To be categorized as well capitalized the Bank must maintain minimum total risk-based, Tier I risk-based, and Tier I leverage ratios as set forth in the table. There are no conditions or events since that notification that management believes have changed the Bank's category.

Edgar Filing: UNITED COMMUNITY BANKS INC - Form 424B3

The Bank's actual capital amounts and ratios are presented in the table (amounts presented in thousands).

(10) RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The Bank conducts transactions with its directors and executive officers, including companies in which they have beneficial interest, in the normal course of business. It is the policy of the Bank that loan transactions with directors and executive officers be made on substantially the same terms as those prevailing at the time for comparable loans to other persons. The following is a summary of activity for related party loans for 2003:

Beginning balance	$ 1,288,830
Loans advanced	911,886
Repayments	(621,167)
Ending balance	$ 1,579,549

The aggregate amount of deposits from directors and executive officers and their affiliates amounted to approximately $3,582,000 and $4,705,000 at December 31, 2003 and 2002, respectively.

(11) COMMITMENTS

On May 21, 2002, the Bank entered into an agreement to implement a program of corrective action of certain conditions. Corrective actions include, but are not limited to; the appointment of certain officer positions, the evaluation of Board of Director committees and duties thereof, the review and evaluation of management and Board of Directors supervision, the design and implementation of a strategic three-year plan, financial budget and capital plan, and the development and enhancement of certain Bank policies, procedures and internal reports. The corrective actions have varying time frame completion dates and regularly scheduled reporting to the regulatory authorities. On February 17, 2004, the Bank received notification from the bank regulators that all corrective actions required by the agreement had been satisfied and the agreement was terminated.

The Bank is a party to financial instruments with off-balance-sheet risk in the normal course of business to meet the financing needs of its customers. These financial instruments could include commitments to extend credit, standby letters of credit and financial guarantees. Those instruments involve, to varying degrees, elements of credit risk in excess of the amount recognized in the balance sheet. The contract amounts of those instruments reflect the extent of involvement the Bank has in particular classes of financial instruments.

The exposure to credit loss in the event of nonperformance by the other party to the financial instrument for commitments to extend credit and standby letters of credit and financial guarantees written is represented by the contractual amount of those instruments. The Bank uses the same credit policies in making commitments and conditional obligations as it does for on-balance-sheet instruments.

In most cases, the Bank requires collateral or other security to support financial instruments with credit risk.

	Approximate Contract Amount
	2003	2002
Financial instruments whose contract amounts represent credit risk:
Commitments to extend credit	$ 4,624,000	5,535,000
Standby letters of credit	$ 344,000	225,000

Commitments to extend credit are agreements to lend to a customer, as long as there is no violation of any condition established in the contract. Commitments generally have fixed expiration dates or other termination clauses and may require payment of a fee. Since many of the commitments may expire without being drawn upon, the total commitment amounts do not necessarily represent future cash requirements. The Bank evaluates each customer's creditworthiness on a case-by-case basis. The amount of collateral obtained, if deemed necessary by the Bank, upon extension of credit is based on management's credit evaluation. Collateral held varies but may include unimproved and improved real estate, certificates of deposit, or personal property.

Standby letters of credit and financial guarantees written are conditional commitments issued by the Bank to guarantee the performance of a customer to a third party. Those guarantees are primarily issued to local businesses. The credit risk involved in issuing letters of credit is essentially the same as that involved in extending loan facilities to customers. Letters of credit at December 31, 2003, were approximately 100% collateralized.

(12) PROPOSED OFFERING OF COMMON STOCK

In the second quarter of 2004, the Bank intends to commence a private placement of up to 300,000 shares of its $5 par value common stock. The shares are to be offered for sale pursuant to an exemption from the registration requirements of Federal and State securities laws. Proceeds from the offering, net of offering costs, will be used to support future asset growth of the Bank.

For purposes of eligibility to participate and any vesting determinations (but not benefit accruals) in connection with the provision of any such employee benefits by United to the former officers and employees of Eagle who continue employment with United, service with Eagle prior to the Effective Date shall be counted. (d) Except as set forth in the Eagle Disclosure Memorandum, no rent has been paid in advance and no security deposit has been paid by, nor is any brokerage commission payable by or to, Eagle with respect to any Lease pursuant to which it is lessor or lessee.

(e) Eagle is not aware of any proposed or pending change in the zoning of, or of any proposed or pending condemnation proceeding with respect to, any of the Eagle Realty or the Eagle Leased Real Properties which may adversely affect the Eagle Realty or the Eagle Leased Real Properties or the current or currently contemplated use thereof.

(f) The buildings and structures owned, leased or used by Eagle are, taken as a whole, in good operating order (except for ordinary wear and tear), usable in the ordinary course of business, and are sufficient and adequate to carry on the business and affairs of Eagle.

4.5 Employees and Benefits.

4.5.1 Directors or Officers of Other Corporations. Except as set forth in the Eagle Disclosure Memorandum, no director, officer, or employee of Eagle serves, or in the past five years has served, as a director or officer of any other corporation on behalf of or as a designee of Eagle.

4.5.2 Employee Benefits. (a) Except as set forth in the Eagle Disclosure Memorandum, Eagle does not provide and is not obligated to provide, directly or indirectly, any benefits for employees, including, without limitation, any pension, profit sharing, stock option, retirement bonus, hospitalization, medical, insurance, vacation or other employee benefits under any practice, agreement or understanding.

(b) The Eagle Disclosure Memorandum lists separately any employee benefit plan within the meaning of Section 3(3) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended ("ERISA") sponsored by Eagle (collectively, "ERISA Plans"). True, correct and complete copies of all ERISA Plans and, to the extent applicable, all related trust agreements, insurance contracts, summary plan descriptions, Internal Revenue Service determination letters and filings, the past three years of actuarial reports and valuations, annual reports and Form 5500 filings (including attachments), and any other related documents requested by United or its counsel have been, or prior to the Closing Date will be, made available to United.

(c) Eagle is not currently and has never been in the past required to contribute to a multiemployer plan as defined in Section 3(37)(A) of ERISA. Eagle does not maintain or contribute to, nor within the past six years has it maintained or contributed to, an employee pension benefit plan as defined in Section 3(2) of ERISA that is or was subject to Title IV of ERISA.

(d) Each ERISA Plan has been operated and administered in all material respects in accordance with, and has been amended to comply with (unless such amendment is not yet required), all applicable laws, rules and regulations, including, without limitation, ERISA, the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), and the regulations issued under ERISA and the Code. With respect to each ERISA Plan, other than routine claims for benefits submitted in the ordinary course of the benefits process, no litigation or administrative or other proceeding is pending or, to the knowledge of Eagle, threatened involving such ERISA Plan or any of its fiduciaries. With respect to each ERISA Plan, neither Eagle nor any of its directors, officers, employees or agents, nor any "party in interest" or "disqualified person" (as such terms are defined in Section 3(14) of ERISA and Section 4975 of the Code) has been engaged in or been a party to any transaction relating to the ERISA Plan which would constitute a breach of fiduciary duty under ERISA or a "prohibited transaction" (as such term is defined in Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code), unless such transaction is specifically permitted under Sections 407 or 408 of ERISA, Section 4975 of the Code or a class or administrative exemption issued by the Department of Labor. Each ERISA Plan that is a group health plan within the meaning of Section 607(l) of ERISA and Section 4980B of the Code is in material compliance with the continuation coverage requirements of Section 501 of ERISA and Section 4980B of the Code.

(e) Of the ERISA Plans, the "employee pension benefit plans" within the meaning of Section 3(2) of ERISA (collectively, the "Employee Pension Benefit Plans") are separately identified on the Eagle Disclosure Memorandum. With respect to each Employee Pension Benefit Plan, except as set forth on the Eagle Disclosure Memorandum: (i) such Employee Pension Benefit Plan constitutes a qualified plan within the meaning of Section 401(a) of the Code and the trust is exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(a) of the Code; (ii) all contributions required by such plan have been made or will be made on a timely basis; and (iii) no termination, partial termination or discontinuance of contributions has occurred without a determination by the IRS that such action does not affect the tax-qualified status of such plan.

(f) As of the Closing Date, with respect to each ERISA Plan, Eagle will have provided adequate reserves, or insurance or qualified trust funds, to provide for all payments and contributions required, or reasonably expected to be required, to be made under the provisions of such ERISA Plan or required to be made under applicable laws, rules and regulations, with respect to any period prior to the Closing Date to the extent reserves are required under generally accepted accounting principles, based on an actuarial valuation satisfactory to the actuaries of Eagle representing a projection of claims expected to be incurred under such ERISA Plan.

(g) Except as disclosed on the Eagle Disclosure Memorandum, Eagle does not provide and has no obligation to provide benefits, including, without limitation, death, health or medical benefits (whether or not insured) with respect to current or former employees of Eagle beyond their retirement or other termination of service with Eagle other than: (i) coverage mandated by applicable Law; (ii) benefits under the Employee Pension Benefit Plans; or (iii) benefits the full cost of which is borne by the current or former employee or his beneficiary.

(h) Except as set forth in the Eagle Disclosure Memorandum, neither this Agreement nor any transaction contemplated hereby will: (i) entitle any current or former employee, officer or director of Eagle to severance pay, unemployment compensation or any similar or other payment or (ii) accelerate the time of payment or vesting of, or increase the amount of compensation or benefits due any such employee, officer or director.

4.5.3 Labor-Related Matters. Except as described in the Eagle Disclosure Memorandum, Eagle is not, and has not been, a party to any collective bargaining agreement or agreement of any kind with any union or labor organization or to any agreement with any of its employees which is not terminable at will or upon ninety (90) days notice at the election of, and without cost or penalty to, Eagle. Eagle has not received at any time in the past five (5) years, any demand for recognition from any union, and no attempt has been made, or will have been made as of the Closing Date, to organize any of its employees. Eagle has complied in all material respects with all obligations under the National Labor Relations Act, as amended, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, as amended, and all other federal, state and local labor laws and regulations applicable to employees. Except as described in the Eagle Disclosure Memorandum, there are no unfair labor practice charges pending or threatened against Eagle, and there are, and in the past three (3) years there have been, no charges, complaints, claims or proceedings, no slowdowns or strikes pending or threatened against, or involving, as the case may be, Eagle with respect to any alleged violation of any legal duty (including but not limited to any wage and hour claims, employment discrimination claims or claims arising out of any employment relationship) by Eagle as to any of its employees or as to any person seeking employment therefrom, and no such violations exist.

4.5.4 Related Party Transactions. Except for: (a) loans and extensions of credit made on substantially the same terms, including interest rates and collateral, as those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions by Eagle with other persons who are not affiliated with Eagle, and which do not involve more than the normal risk of repayment or present other unfavorable features; (b) deposits, all of which are on terms and conditions identical to those made available to all customers of Eagle at the time such deposits were entered into; and (c) transactions specifically described in the Eagle Disclosure Memorandum, there are no contracts with or commitments to present or former five percent (5%) or greater shareholders, directors, officers, or employees involving the expenditure of more than $60,000 as to any one individual, including with respect to any business directly or indirectly controlled by any such person, or $100,000 for all such contracts or commitments in the aggregate for all such individuals (other than contracts or commitments relating to services to be performed by any officer, director or employee as a currently-employed employee of Eagle).

4.6 Other Matters.

4.6.1 Regulatory Reports. Eagle will make available to United for review and inspection all applications, reports or other documents filed by it for each of its past three (3) full fiscal years with any regulatory or governmental agencies. All of such applications, reports and other documents have been prepared in accordance with applicable rules and regulations of the regulatory agencies with which they were filed.

4.6.2 Approvals, Consents and Filings. Except for the approval of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (the "Federal Reserve"), the FDIC, the Department of Banking and Finance of the State of Georgia (the "Georgia Department"), the notice filing to be made with the OCC or as set forth in the Eagle Disclosure Memorandum, neither the execution and delivery of this Agreement nor the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby will: (a) require any consent, approval, authorization or permit of, or filing with or notification to, any governmental or regulatory authority; or (b) violate any order, writ, injunction, decree, statute, rule or regulation applicable to Eagle, or any of Eagle's assets.

4.6.3 Default. (a) Except for those consents described in or set forth pursuant to Section 4.6.2 above and as described in the Eagle Disclosure Memorandum, neither the execution of this Agreement nor consummation of the transactions contemplated herein:

(i) constitutes a breach of or default under any contract or commitment to which Eagle is a party or by which Eagle or its properties or assets are bound;

(ii) does or will result in the creation or imposition of any security interest, lien, encumbrance, charge, equity or restriction of any nature whatsoever in favor of any third party upon any assets of Eagle; or

(iii) constitutes an event permitting termination of any agreement or the acceleration of any indebtedness of Eagle.

(b) Eagle is not in default under its charter documents or bylaws or under any term or provision of any security deed, mortgage, indenture or security agreement, or of any other contract or instrument to which Eagle is a party or by which it or any of its property is bound.

4.6.4 Representations and Warranties. No representation or warranty contained in this Article IV or in any written statement delivered by or at the direction of Eagle pursuant hereto or in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby contains or will contain any untrue statement, nor will such representations and warranties taken as a whole omit any statement necessary in order to make any statement not misleading. (a) read the unaudited balance sheets, statements of income, statements of comprehensive income, statements of changes in shareholder's equity and statements of cash flow, of Eagle from December 31, 2003 through the date of the most recent monthly financial statements available in the ordinary course of business;

AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER

(Merger Agreement)

THIS AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER (the "Agreement") is made and entered into as of this 2nd day of August 2004, by and between UNITED COMMUNITY BANK, a Georgia bank ("UCB Georgia") and wholly-owned subsidiary of UNITED COMMUNITY BANKS, INC., a Georgia corporation ("United"), and EAGLE NATIONAL BANK, a bank chartered under the laws of the United States ("Eagle", and together with UCB Georgia, the "Constituent Banks").

WHEREAS, the authorized capital stock of United consists of 100,000,000 shares of Common Stock, $1.00 par value per share (the "United Stock"), of which 36,253,892 shares are issued and outstanding as of the date hereof and 10,000,000 shares of preferred stock, par value $1.00 per share (the "Preferred Stock"), of which 48,300 shares are issued and outstanding; and

WHEREAS, the authorized capital stock of Eagle consists of 10,000,000 shares of common stock, par value $5.00 per share (the "Eagle Stock"), of which 600,000 shares are issued and outstanding as of the date hereof, exclusive of 51,000 shares reserved for issuance upon exercise of outstanding options (the "Eagle Stock Options"); and

WHEREAS, the authorized capital stock of UCB Georgia consists of 100,000 shares of common stock, $10.00 par value per share (the "UCB Georgia Stock"), of which 85,000 shares are issued and outstanding as of the date hereof; and

WHEREAS, the respective Boards of Directors of Eagle and UCB Georgia deem it advisable and in the best interests of each party and its shareholders that Eagle merge with UCB Georgia, with UCB Georgia being the surviving bank; and

WHEREAS, the respective Boards of Directors of Eagle and UCB Georgia, by resolutions duly adopted, have unanimously approved and adopted this Agreement and directed that it be submitted to the shareholders of each of Eagle and UCB Georgia for their approval; and

WHEREAS, United has agreed to issue shares of United Stock and/or cash which shareholders of Eagle will be entitled to receive, according to the terms and conditions contained herein, on or after the Effective Date (as defined herein) of the merger provided for herein;

NOW, THEREFORE, for and in consideration of the premises and the mutual agreements herein contained, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and adequacy of which as legally sufficient consideration are hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto have agreed and do hereby agree, as follows:

1. Merger.

Pursuant to and with the effects provided in the applicable provisions of Article 2 of the Financial Institution Code of Georgia, Chapter 1 of Title 7 of the Official Code of Georgia (the "Code"), Eagle (hereinafter sometimes referred to as the "Merged Bank") shall be merged with and into UCB Georgia (the "Merger"). UCB Georgia shall be the surviving bank (the "Surviving Bank") and shall continue under the name "United Community Bank". On the Effective Date (as defined herein) of the Merger, the individual existence of the Merged Bank shall cease and terminate.

2. Actions to be Taken.

The acts and things required to be done by the Code in order to make this Agreement effective, including the submission of this Agreement to the shareholders of the Constituent Banks and the filing of the articles of merger relating hereto in the manner provided in said Code, shall be attended to and done by the proper officers of the Constituent Banks with the assistance of counsel as soon as practicable.

3. Effective Date.

The Merger shall be effective upon the approval of this Agreement by the shareholders of the Merged Bank and the filing of the articles of merger relating hereto in the manner provided in the Code (the "Effective Date").

4. Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of the Surviving Bank.

(a) The Articles of Incorporation of UCB Georgia, as heretofore amended, as in effect on the Effective Date shall be the Articles of Incorporation of the Surviving Bank.

(b) Until altered, amended or repealed, as therein provided, the Bylaws of UCB Georgia as in effect on the Effective Date shall be the Bylaws of the Surviving Bank.

5. Directors.

Upon the Merger contemplated herein becoming effective, the directors of the Surviving Bank shall be the individuals set forth on Attachment 1 hereto. Said persons shall hold office until the next annual meeting of the shareholder of the Surviving Bank and until their successors are elected in accordance with the Bylaws of the Surviving Bank. If on the Effective Date any vacancy shall exist on the Board of Directors of the Surviving Bank, such vacancy shall be filled in the manner specified in the Bylaws of the Surviving Bank.

6. Manner and Basis of Converting Shares of Capital Stock; Capital Structure of the Surviving Bank.

The manner and basis of converting the shares of capital stock of each of the Constituent Banks into shares of United shall be as follows:

(a) Upon the Effective Date, each share of the Surviving Bank issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Date shall remain outstanding.

(b) In the Merger, the holders of Eagle Stock shall be entitled to elect to receive, in exchange for their shares of Eagle Stock, shares of United Stock, cash or a combination thereof, in the amounts specified by such holders in accordance with the provisions of Section 6(c) below, and each share of Eagle Stock outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Date shall, by virtue of the Merger, be converted on the Effective Date into fully paid and nonassessable shares of United Stock and/or cash as follows, subject to any adjustments occurring after the date hereof as contemplated by Section 6(e) below:

- (1) 0.8636 shares of United Stock for each outstanding share of Eagle Stock;
- (2) $20.32 in cash, without interest, per share of Eagle Stock; or
- (3) any combination of Section 6(b)(1) and 6(b)(2) above;

provided, however, that no more than 120,000 shares of Eagle Stock may be exchanged for cash (the "Maximum Cash Election") and no more than 480,000 shares of Eagle Stock may be exchanged for United Stock (the "Maximum Stock Election") and any shares of Eagle Stock elected to be exchanged for cash above the Maximum Cash Election or Maximum Stock Election shall be subject to proration as provided in Section 6(c) below

(c) At the same time that the notice of special meeting of Eagle shareholders is first mailed to Eagle shareholders, a form of election shall also be mailed to each Eagle shareholder (the date of such form of election being referred to herein as the "Mailing Date"). Each Eagle shareholder shall indicate thereon, his, her or its preference as to the proportion of United Stock and/or cash which he, she or it desires to receive in exchange for his, her or its Eagle Stock, and shall return the form to the Secretary of Eagle within 20 days of the Mailing Date. If holders of Eagle Stock elect to receive cash for a number of shares of Eagle Stock in excess of the Maximum Cash Election or elect to receive United Stock for a number of shares of Eagle Stock in excess of the Maximum Stock Election, then the number of shares exchanged for cash or United Stock, respectively, by each shareholder so electing will be reduced such that the amount of shares exchanged for cash equals the Maximum Cash Election and the amount of shares exchanged for stock equals the Maximum Stock Election, based on the ratio that the number of shares elected to be exchanged by such shareholder bears to the total number of shares elected to be exchanged for cash or stock by all Eagle shareholders. To the extent an Eagle shareholder does not receive 0.8636 shares of United Stock for each share of Eagle Stock such shareholder elected to be exchanged for United Stock or $20.32 in cash for each share of Eagle Stock such shareholder elected to be exchanged for cash due to the proration provided in this Section 6(c), such shareholder shall be entitled to receive $20.32 in cash for each remaining share of Eagle Stock not exchanged for United Stock or 0.8636 for each remaining share of Eagle Stock not exchanged for cash, respectively.

(d) Upon the Effective Date, all rights with respect to Eagle Stock pursuant to stock options (the "Eagle Stock Options") granted by Eagle which are outstanding at the Effective Date, whether or not exercisable, shall be converted on the Effective Date, subject to any adjustments occurring after the date hereof as contemplated by Section 6(e) below, into $6.75 in cash, without interest, for each share that would be issued upon exercise of the Eagle Stock Options.

(e) If either party should change the number of its outstanding shares as a result of a stock split, stock dividend, or similar recapitalization with respect to such shares prior to the Effective Date then the shares to be issued hereunder to holders of Eagle Stock shall be proportionately adjusted.

(f) No scrip or fractional share certificates of United Stock shall be issued in connection with the Merger and an outstanding fractional share interest will not entitle the owner thereof to vote, to receive dividends or to have any of the rights of a shareholder with respect to such fractional interest. In lieu of any fractional interest, there shall be paid in cash, without interest, an amount (computed to the nearest cent) equal to such fraction multiplied by $20.32.

(g) As soon as practicable after the Effective Date, each holder as of the Effective Date of any of the shares of Eagle Stock to be converted as elected by such holder as above provided, upon presentation and surrender of the certificates representing such shares to United, shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor a certificate representing the number of shares of United Stock, and cash, to which such shareholder shall be entitled according to the terms of this Agreement. Until such surrender, each such outstanding certificate which prior to the Effective Date represented Eagle Stock shall be deemed for all corporate purposes to evidence ownership of the number of shares of United Stock into which the same shall have been converted as elected by such holder as above provided, the right to receive cash by such holder as above provided, and the right to receive payment for fractional shares.

(h) Upon the Effective Date, each share of United Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Date shall continue unchanged and shall continue to evidence a share of common stock of the Surviving Bank.

7. Termination of Separate Existence.

Upon the Effective Date, the separate existence of the Merged Bank shall cease and the Surviving Bank shall possess all of the rights, privileges, immunities, powers and franchises, as well of a public nature as of a private nature, of each of the Constituent Banks; and all property, real, personal and mixed, and all debts due on whatever account, and all other choses in action, and all and every other interest of or belonging to or due to each of the Constituent Banks shall be taken and deemed to be transferred to and vested in the Surviving Bank without further act or deed, and the title to any real estate or any interest therein, vested in either of the Constituent Banks shall not revert or be in any way impaired by reason of the Merger. The Surviving Bank shall thenceforth be responsible and liable for all the liabilities, obligations and penalties of each of the Constituent Banks; and any claim existing or action or proceeding, civil or criminal, pending by or against either of said Constituent Banks may be prosecuted as if the Merger had not taken place, or the Surviving Bank may be substituted in its place, and any judgment rendered against either of the Constituent Banks may thenceforth be enforced against the Surviving Bank; and neither the rights of creditors nor any liens upon the property of either of the Constituent Banks shall be impaired by the Merger.

8. Further Assignments.

If at any time the Surviving Bank shall consider or be advised that any further assignments or assurances in law or any other things are necessary or desirable to vest in said bank, according to the terms hereof, the title to any property or rights of the Merged Bank, the proper officers and directors of the Merged Bank shall and will execute and make all such proper assignments and assurances and do all things necessary and proper to vest title in such property or rights in the Surviving Bank, and otherwise to carry out the purposes of this Agreement.

9. Condition Precedent to Consummation of the Merger.

This Agreement is subject to, and consummation of the Merger is conditioned upon, the fulfillment as of the Effective Date of each of the following conditions:

(a) Approval of this Agreement by the affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds of the outstanding voting shares of Eagle; and

(b) All the terms, covenants, agreements, obligations, and conditions of the Agreement and Plan of Reorganization (the "Acquisition Agreement") of even date herewith, by and between Eagle and United, to be complied with, satisfied and performed on or prior to the Closing Date (as defined therein), shall have been complied with, satisfied and performed in all material respects unless accomplishment of such covenants, agreements, obligations and conditions has been waived by the party benefited thereby.

10. Termination.

This Agreement may be terminated and the Merger abandoned in accordance with the terms of the Acquisition Agreement, at any time before or after adoption of this Agreement by the directors of either of the Constituent Banks, notwithstanding favorable action on the Merger by the shareholders of the Merged Bank, but not later than the issuance of the certificate of merger by the Secretary of State of the State of Georgia with respect to the Merger in accordance with the provisions of the Code.

11. Counterparts; Title; Headings.

This Agreement may be executed simultaneously in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which shall constitute one and the same instrument. The title of this Agreement and the headings herein set out are for the convenience of reference only and shall not be deemed a part of this Agreement.

12. Amendments; Additional Agreements.

At any time before or after approval and adoption by the shareholders of Eagle, this Agreement may be modified, amended or supplemented by additional agreements, articles or certificates as may be determined in the judgment of the respective Boards of Directors of the Constituent Banks to be necessary, desirable or expedient to further the purposes of this Agreement, to clarify the intention of the parties, to add to or modify the covenants, terms or conditions contained herein or to effectuate or facilitate any governmental approval of the Merger or this Agreement, or otherwise to effectuate or facilitate the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby; provided, however, that no such modification, amendment or supplement shall reduce to any extent the consideration into which shares of Eagle Stock shall be converted in the Merger pursuant to Section 6 hereof.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Constituent Banks have each caused this Agreement to be executed on their respective behalfs and their respective bank seals to be affixed hereto as of the day and year first above written.

(c) The value of the shares of any dissenting shareholder shall be ascertained, as of the effective date of the merger, by an appraisal made by a committee of three persons, composed of (1) one selected by the vote of the holders of the majority of the stock, the owners of which are entitled to payment in cash; (2) one selected by the directors of the receiving association; and (3) one selected by the two so selected. The valuation agreed upon by any two of the three appraisers shall govern. If the value so fixed shall not be satisfactory to any dissenting shareholder who has requested payment, that shareholder may, within five days after being notified of the appraised value of his shares, appeal to the Comptroller, who shall cause a reappraisal to be made which shall be final and binding as to the value of the shares of the appellants.

Application to Shareholders of Merging Associations;
Appraisal by Comptroller; Expense of Receiving Association;
Sale And Resale of Shares; State Approval and Merger Law

(d) If, within ninety days from the date of consummation of the merger, for any reason one or more of the appraisers is not selected as herein provided, or the appraisers fail to determine the value of such shares, the Comptroller shall upon written request of any interested party cause an appraisal to be made which shall be final and binding on all parties. The expenses of the Comptroller in making the reappraisal or the appraisal, as the case may be, shall be paid by the receiving association. The value of the shares ascertained shall be promptly paid to the dissenting shareholders by the receiving association. The shares of stock of the receiving association which would have been delivered to such dissenting shareholders had they not requested payment shall be sold by the receiving association at an advertised public auction, and the receiving association shall have the right to purchase any of such shares at such public auction, if it is the highest bidder therefor, for the purpose of reselling such shares within thirty days thereafter to such person or persons and at such price not less than par as its board of directors by resolution may determine. If the shares are sold at public auction at a price greater than the amount paid to the dissenting shareholders, the excess in such sale price shall be paid to such dissenting shareholders. The appraisal of such shares of stock in any State bank shall be determined in the manner prescribed by the law of the State in such cases, rather than as provided in this section, if such provision is made in the State law; and no such merger shall be in contravention of the law of the State under which such bank is incorporated. The provisions of this subsection shall apply only to shareholders of (and stock owned by them in) a bank or association being merged into the receiving association.

Status of Receiving Association;
Property Rights and Interests Vested and Held as Fiduciary

(e) The corporate existence of each of the merging banks or banking associations participating in such merger shall be merged into and continued in the receiving association and such receiving association shall be deemed to be the same corporation as each bank or banking association participating in the merger. All rights, franchises, and interests of the individual merging banks or banking associations in and to every type of property (real, personal, and mixed) and chosen in action shall be transferred to and vested in the receiving association by virtue of such merger without any deed or other transfer. The receiving association, upon the merger and without any order or other action on the part of any court or otherwise, shall hold and enjoy all rights of property, franchises, and interests, including appointments, designations, and nominations, and all other rights and interests as trustee, executor, administrator, registrar of stocks and bonds, guardian of estates, assignee, receiver, and committee of estates of lunatics, and in every other fiduciary capacity, in the same manner and to the same extent as such rights, franchises, and interests were held or enjoyed by any one of the merging banks or banking associations at the time of the merger, subject to the conditions hereinafter provided.

Removal as Fiduciary; Discrimination

(f) Where any merging bank or banking association, at the time of the merger, was acting under appointment of any court as trustee, executor, administrator, registrar of stocks and bonds, guardian of estates, assignee, receiver, or committee of estates of lunatics, or in any other fiduciary capacity, the receiving association shall be subject to removal by a court of competent jurisdiction in the same manner and to the same extent as was such merging bank or banking association prior to the merger. Nothing contained in this section shall be considered to impair in any manner the right of any court to remove the receiving association and to appoint in lieu thereof a substitute trustee, executor, or other fiduciary, except that such right shall not be exercised in such a manner as to discriminate against national banking associations, nor shall any receiving association be removed solely because of the fact that it is a national banking association.

Issuance of Stock by Receiving Association; Preemptive Rights

(g) Stock of the receiving association may be issued as provided by the terms of the merger agreement, free from any preemptive rights of the shareholders of the respective merging banks.

Eagle National Bank Board of Directors
850 Eagle's Landing Parkway
Stockbridge, GA 30281

Ladies and Gentlemen:

You have requested an opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the pending merger of Eagle National Bank with United Community Banks ("United"). Under the terms of the merger, which we value at $12,536,494 United will purchase the 51,000 shares under option for cash at an intrinsic value of $6.75 each to total $344,250.00. The 600,000 shares of common stock will then be acquired for $12,191,750 or $20.32 per share. United will pay 80% of the purchase price in the form of their common stock valued at $23.53 representing the twenty day trading average of prior to signing the definitive agreement. The exchange ratio will be 0.8636 shares of United for each share of Eagle National. The remaining 20% will be paid in the form of cash, or $2,438,400.

In arriving at our opinion, we have reviewed the Agreement, publicly financial information concerning both Eagle National and United, compared the terms of this transaction with other bank sales in Georgia including historical relations to book value and earnings multiples, and have had direct contact with management of both parties to view the affects of the post merger combination. In addition, we performed other studies that we felt were appropriate to this merger discussion including the shareholder make up of Eagle National and their desire to remain as long term investors.

Additionally, we have had discussions with United with respect to their plans to engage the existing employees in future operations as well as benefits that are afforded in the combination that we believe were appropriate and were part of the objectives you identified in terms of a merger partner.

Our opinion relies upon and assumed without independent verification the accuracy of all information provided to us by both Eagle National and United and we have not assumed responsibility thereof. We have also assumed that all regulatory and shareholder approvals will be obtained without any adverse effect on either Eagle National Bank or United.

The opinion is based on economic, market, and financial facts at the time of the expressed as of the date first shown above. The opinion is based on a financial point of view and we are expressing no view as to the price of United's currency in the future. We have acted as financial advisor to Eagle and will disclose that we own stock in either Eagle National Bank or United at the time of the agreement. We will, however, receive a fee from Eagle National Bank for our services.

This letter is to the Board of Directors of Eagle National Bank in conjunction with and for purposes of evaluating the merger with United and does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder of Eagle National as to how each shareholder should vote on the proposed merger or any other matter.

Subject to the foregoing, it is the opinion of STEVENS & COMPANY that as of the date shown above that the proposed merger with United for $12,536, is fair from a financial point of view and will afford the shareholders of Eagle National Bank an enhanced premium on their stock.

Sincerely yours,

STEVENS & COMPANY

The chart below lists the results of appraisals the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency performed between January 1, 1985, and September 30, 1991. The OCC provides statistical data on book value and price/earnings ratios for comparable purposes, but does not necessarily rely on such data in determining the value of the banks' shares. Dissenting shareholders should not view these statistics as determination for future appraisals.

THE OCC DID NOT RELY ON ALL THE INFORMATION SET FORTH IN THE CHART IN PERFORMING EACH APPRAISAL. THE OCC'S PAST APPRAISALS ARE NOT NECESSARILY DETERMINATIVE OF ITS FUTURE APPRAISALS OF A PARTICULAR BANK'S SHARES.
