PART III - NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 10-Q, N-SAR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

The Registrant recorded its first revenues from oil and gas production during the year ended August 31, 2001. As a result, the Registrant engaged an independent petroleum engineer which prepared the Registrant's initial reserve report. Because of the demands placed on the Registrant and its staff in connection with incorporating the results of the reserve report into the Registrant's Annual Report on Form 10-K regarding the year ended August 31, 2001, the Form 10-K could not be timely filed without unreasonable effort or expense.

PART IV - OTHER INFORMATION

If answer is no, identity report(s)

Yes  No

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

Yes  No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

The Registrant expects to report a loss from operations for the fiscal year ended August 31, 2001 in the approximate amount of $13.1 million as compared to a loss from operations of ($982,547) for the fiscal year ended August 31, 2000. The loss results primarily from a $13.3 million non-cash accounting charge to reduce the carrying value of its oil and gas properties. The Registrant's financial results regarding the year ended August 31, 2001 are more fully described in the Registrant's Current Report on Form 8-K, which was filed with the Commission on November 29, 2001.
