Item 4.01 Changes in Registrant's Certifying Accountant.

On August 21, 2006, we engaged Michael T. Studer, C.P.A., P.C., an independent registered firm of Certified Public Accountants, as our principal independent accountant with the approval of our company's board of directors. Accordingly, we dismissed Moen and Company ("Moen"), Chartered Accountants as our independent registered public accounting firm. Moen advised us they ceased doing business.

The reports of Moen on the consolidated financial statements of the Company as of and for the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2005 did not contain an adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion, nor were they qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope, or accounting principles.

During the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2005 through the date of dismiss, there were no disagreements with Moen on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements, if not resolved to the satisfaction of Moen, would have caused Moen to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreement in its reports on the Company's consolidated financial statements for such periods.

The Company has requested that Moen furnish it with a letter addressed to the Securities and Exchange Commission stating whether or not it agrees with the above statements. A copy of such letter is filed herewith as Exhibit 16.

Item 9.01. Financial Statements and Exhibits

16.1 Letter from Moen & Company, LLP to the Securities and Exchange Commission
