Item 8.01 Other Events

China Mobility Solutions, Inc. (the “Company”) disclosed in a Current Report on Form 8-K for August 31, 2006, that it had not repaid $3,350,000 of Senior Convertible Debentures due August 15, 2006 (the “Debentures”). The Company stated that it had sufficient cash on hand and had applied to the government authority (State Administration of Foreign Exchange (“SAFE”)) in the People's Republic of China to approve converting its subsidiaries' funds into U.S. dollars and repay the Debentures.

The Company's operating subsidiary in China has advised the Company that its application to SAFE to convert the funds to repay the Company's Debentures from the Company's Chinese subsidiary has been denied. On October 25, 2006, the Company retained the law firm of Wyatt & Wang in Beijing to assist it comply with the Beijing Rule of Liquidation of companies with foreign investment (the “Rule of Liquidation”). The Company has been advised that the Rule of Liquidation is the sole means of assuring repayment of the Debentures. The Company does not believe it will affect its subsidiaries' business operations as reorganized. The Company has begun the process to submit an application for such liquidation to the Bureau of Ministry of Commerce (“BOMOC”). The liquidation will take between 180 to 270 days. Part of the reason for the delay is the requirement of the liquidator to appoint an auditor to do the appraisal of an evaluation of the assets of the Company and to submit such appraisal to the BOMOC for its approval.
