FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q and any exhibits to this Report may contain "forward-looking statements" as defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. The words "anticipate," "believe," "estimate," "expect," "intend," "will," "should" and similar expressions, as they relate to us, are intended to identify forward-looking statements. These statements reflect management's current beliefs, assumptions and expectations and are subject to a number of factors that may cause actual results to differ materially. These factors include but are not limited to: changes in economic conditions, political conditions, trade protection measures, licensing requirements and tax matters in the United States and in the foreign countries in which we do business; changes in foreign currency exchange rates; actions of competitors; our ability to obtain adequate pricing for our products and services and to maintain and improve cost efficiency of operations, including savings from restructuring actions; the risk that unexpected costs will be incurred; the risk that subcontractors, software vendors and utility and network providers will not perform in a timely, quality manner; our ability to recover capital investments; the risk that multi-year contracts with governmental entities could be terminated prior to the end of the contract term; the risk that our Services business could be adversely affected if we are unsuccessful in managing the ramp-up of new contracts; development of new products and services; our ability to protect our intellectual property rights; our ability to expand equipment placements; the risk that individually identifiable information of customers, clients and employees could be inadvertently disclosed or disclosed as a result of a breach of our security; interest rates, cost of borrowing and access to credit markets; reliance on third parties for manufacturing of products and provision of services; our ability to drive the expanded use of color in printing and copying; the outcome of litigation and regulatory proceedings to which we may be a party; and other factors that are set forth in the "Risk Factors" section, the "Legal Proceedings" section, the "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" section and other sections of this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q, our Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the quarters ended March 31, 2013 and June 30, 2013 and our 2012 Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Company assumes no obligation to update any forward-looking statements as a result of new information or future events or developments, except as required by law.

XEROX CORPORATION
NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
(in millions, except per-share data and where otherwise noted)

Note 1 – Basis of Presentation

References herein to “we,” “us,” “our,” the “Company” and “Xerox” refer to Xerox Corporation and its consolidated subsidiaries unless the context specifically requires otherwise.

We have prepared the accompanying unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements in accordance with the accounting policies described in our 2012 Annual Report to Shareholders, which is incorporated by reference in our 2012 Annual Report on Form 10-K (2012 Annual Report), and the interim reporting requirements of Form 10-Q. Accordingly, certain information and note disclosures normally included in our annual financial statements prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America have been condensed or omitted. You should read these Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements in conjunction with the Consolidated Financial Statements included in our 2012 Annual Report.

In our opinion, all adjustments which are necessary for a fair statement of financial position, operating results and cash flows for the interim periods presented have been made. These adjustments consist of normal recurring items. Interim results of operations are not necessarily indicative of the results of the full year.

For convenience and ease of reference, we refer to the financial statement caption “Income before Income Taxes and Equity Income” as “pre-tax income.”

In the second quarter 2013 we completed the sale of our North American paper business and entered into an agreement to sell our European paper business, which is expected to be completed in the fourth quarter of 2013. Results from these paper-related businesses are reported as discontinued operations and all prior period results have been reclassified to reflect this change. Refer to Note 5 - Divestitures for additional information regarding discontinued operations.

Note 2 – Recent Accounting Pronouncements

Presentation of Comprehensive Income: In February 2013, the FASB issued ASU 2013-02, Comprehensive Income (Topic 220) - Reporting of Amounts Reclassified Out of Accumulated Other Comprehensive Income, which requires an entity to provide additional information about the amounts reclassified out of Accumulated Other Comprehensive Income by component. This update was effective for us beginning January 1, 2013 and the additional information required by this ASU is included in Note 16 - Other Comprehensive Income.

Balance Sheet Offsetting: In December 2011, the FASB issued ASU 2011-11, Balance Sheet (Topic 210), Disclosures about Offsetting Assets and Liabilities. ASU 2011-11 requires entities to disclose both gross information and net information about both instruments and transactions eligible for offset in the Balance Sheet and instruments and transactions subject to an agreement similar to a master netting arrangement to enable users of their financial statements to understand the effects of offsetting and related arrangements on their financial position. In January 2013, the FASB issued ASU 2013-01, which limited the scope of this guidance to derivatives, repurchase type agreements and securities borrowing and lending transactions. The guidance from these updates was effective for our fiscal year beginning January 1, 2013. We currently report our derivative assets and liabilities on a gross basis in the Balance Sheet and none of our derivative instruments are subject to a master netting agreement. Accordingly, no additional disclosures were required upon adoption of these ASU's.

Cumulative Translation Adjustments: In March 2013, the FASB issued ASU 2013-05, Parent's Accounting for the Cumulative Translation Adjustment upon Derecognition of Certain Subsidiaries or Groups of Assets within a Foreign Entity or of an Investment in a Foreign Entity. The objective of ASU 2013-05 is to resolve the diversity in practice regarding the release into net income of the cumulative translation adjustment upon derecognition of a subsidiary or group of assets within a foreign entity. The guidance from this update is effective prospectively for our fiscal year beginning January 1, 2014. We do not anticipate that the adoption of this standard will have a material impact on our financial condition or results of operations.

Xerox 2013 Form 10-Q

Hedge Accounting: In July 2013, the FASB issued ASU 2013-10, Inclusion of the Fed Funds Effective Swap Rate (or Overnight Index Swap Rate) as a Benchmark Interest Rate for Hedge Accounting Purposes. The update permits the Fed Funds Effective Swap Rate to be used as a U.S. benchmark interest rate for hedge accounting purposes under FASB ASC Topic 815, in addition to the interest rates on direct Treasury obligations of the U.S. government (UST) and the London Interbank Offered Rate (LIBOR). The update also removes the restriction on using different benchmark rates for similar hedges. ASU 2013-10 was effective prospectively for qualifying new or redesignated hedging relationships entered into on or after July 17, 2013. The adoption of this standard did not have a material impact on our financial condition or results of operations.

Income Taxes: In July 2013, the FASB issued ASU 2013-11, Presentation of Unrecognized Tax Benefit When a Net Operating Loss Carryforward, a Similar Tax Loss, or a Tax Credit Carryforward Exists. This update provides that under certain circumstances, unrecognized tax benefits should be presented in the financial statements as a reduction to a deferred tax asset for a net operating loss carryforward, a similar tax loss, or a tax credit carryforward. The guidance from this update is effective prospectively for our fiscal year beginning January 1, 2014. Retrospective application is permitted. We are currently assessing the impact, if any, from this update; the principal impact is expected to be related to the presentation and annual disclosures of our Unrecognized Tax Benefits.

Note 3 – Segment Reporting

Our reportable segments are aligned with how we manage the business and view the markets we serve. We report our financial performance based on the following two primary reportable segments – Services and Document Technology. Our Services segment operations involve delivery of a broad range of services, including business process, document and IT outsourcing. Our Document Technology segment includes the sale and support of a broad range of document systems from entry level to high-end.

The Services segment is comprised of three outsourcing service offerings:

• Business Process Outsourcing (BPO)

• Document Outsourcing (which includes Managed Print Services) (DO)

• Information Technology Outsourcing (ITO)

Business process outsourcing services include service arrangements where we manage a customer's business activity or process. Document outsourcing services include service arrangements that allow customers to streamline, simplify and digitize document-intensive business processes through automation and deployment of software applications and tools and the management of their printing needs. Document outsourcing services also include revenues from our partner print services offerings. Information technology outsourcing services include service arrangements where we manage a customer's IT-related activities, such as application management and application development, data center operations or testing and quality assurance.

Our Document Technology segment includes the sale of products that share common technology, manufacturing and product platforms. Our products groupings range from:

• “Entry,” which includes A4 devices and desktop printers; to

• “Mid-range,” which includes A3 devices that generally serve workgroup environments in midsize to large enterprises and includes products that fall into the following market categories: Color 41+ ppm priced at less than $100K and Light Production 91+ ppm priced at less than $100K; to

• “High-end,” which includes production printing and publishing systems that generally serve the graphic communications marketplace and large enterprises.

Customers range from small and mid-sized businesses to large enterprises. Customers also include graphic communication enterprises as well as channel partners including distributors and resellers. Segment revenues reflect the sale of document systems and supplies, technical services and product financing.

The segment classified as Other includes several units, none of which meet the thresholds for separate segment reporting. This group includes paper sales in our developing market countries, Wide Format Systems, licensing revenues, GIS network integration solutions and electronic presentation systems and non-allocated corporate items including non-financing interest, as well as other items included in Other expenses, net.

As discussed in Note 5 - Divestitures, during the second quarter 2013, we completed the sale of our North American Paper business and entered into an agreement to sell our European Paper business. As a result of these transactions, in the second quarter 2013 we began to report these paper-related operations as Discontinued Operations and reclassified their results from the Other segment to Discontinued Operations. All prior periods have been reclassified to conform to this presentation.

Operating segment revenues and profitability were as follows:

Note 4 – Acquisitions

In April 2013, we acquired Florida-based Zeno Office Solutions, Inc. (Zeno), one of the Southeast's largest and fastest growing providers of print and IT solutions to small and mid-sized businesses, for approximately $59 in cash. This acquisition furthers our coverage in Florida, building on our strategy of expanding our network of locally-based companies focused on customers' requirements to improve their performance through efficiencies.

In February 2013, we acquired Impika, a leader in the design, manufacture and sale of production inkjet printing solutions used for industrial, commercial, security, label and package printing, for approximately $53 in cash. Impika, which is based in Aubagne, France, offers a portfolio of aqueous (water-based) inkjet presses based on proprietary technology. Through the addition of Impika's aqueous technology to our offerings, we expect to go to market with the industry's broadest range of digital presses, strengthening our leadership in digital color production printing.

Zeno and Impika are included in our Document Technology segment. Additionally, our Document Technology segment acquired one business for approximately $11 in cash and our Services segment acquired three businesses for a total of $31 in cash during the nine months ended September 30, 2013.

The operating results of these acquisitions are not material to our financial statements and are included within our results from the respective acquisition dates. The purchase prices were allocated primarily to intangible assets and goodwill based on third-party valuations and management's estimates.

Note 5 – Divestitures

During the second quarter 2013, in connection with our decision to exit from the Paper distribution business, we completed the sale of our North American (N.A.) Paper business and entered into an agreement to sell our European Paper business. The decision to exit from the Paper distribution business was largely the result of management's objective to focus more on Services and innovative Document Technology. Net proceeds from the sale of the N.A. Paper business were approximately $10 and are reported as cash flows from investing activities in the Condensed Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows.

As a result of these transactions, we reported these paper-related operations as Discontinued Operations and reclassified their results from the Other segment to Discontinued Operations. All prior periods have accordingly been reclassified to conform to this presentation. The sale of the European Paper business is expected to be completed in the fourth quarter of 2013. The net assets sold or expected to be sold in connection with these transactions are primarily related to working capital (accounts receivables and inventory) utilized in the business. As of September 30, 2013, total net assets held for sale were approximately $47 and are included in Other current assets in the Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheets.

In the second quarter of 2013 we recorded a net pre-tax loss of $23 for the disposition of our N.A. and European Paper businesses. The loss is primarily related to exit and disposal costs associated with these businesses. The disposals are expected to result in a reduction in headcount of approximately 300 employees, primarily in Europe.

Note 6 – Accounts Receivable, Net

Accounts receivable, net were as follows:

	September 30, 2013	December 31, 2012
Amounts billed or billable	$2,705	$2,639
Unbilled amounts	395	335
Allowance for doubtful accounts	(111) (108
Accounts Receivable, Net	$2,989	$2,866

Unbilled amounts include amounts associated with percentage-of-completion accounting and other earned revenues not currently billable due to contractual provisions. Amounts to be invoiced in the subsequent month for current services provided are included in amounts billable, and at September 30, 2013 and December 31, 2012 were approximately $1,045 and $1,049, respectively.

We perform ongoing credit evaluations of our customers and adjust credit limits based upon customer payment history and current creditworthiness. The allowance for uncollectible accounts receivables is determined principally on the basis of past collection experience as well as consideration of current economic conditions and changes in our customer collection trends.

Accounts Receivable Sales Arrangements

Accounts receivable sales arrangements are utilized in the normal course of business as part of our cash and liquidity management. We have facilities in the U.S., Canada and several countries in Europe that enable us to sell certain accounts receivable without recourse to third-parties. The accounts receivables sold are generally short-term trade receivables with payment due dates of less than 60 days.

All of our arrangements involve the sale of our entire interest in groups of accounts receivables for cash. In most instances a portion of the sales proceeds are held back by the purchaser and payment is deferred until collection of the related receivables sold. Such holdbacks are not considered legal securities nor are they certificated. We report collections on such receivables as operating cash flows in the Condensed Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows because such receivables are the result of an operating activity and the associated interest rate risk is de minimis due to its short-term nature. Our risk of loss following the sales of accounts receivable is limited to the outstanding deferred purchase price receivable. These receivables are included in the caption "Other current assets" in the accompanying Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheets and were $129 and $116 at September 30, 2013 and December 31, 2012, respectively.

Under most of the arrangements, we continue to service the sold accounts receivable. When applicable, a servicing liability is recorded for the estimated fair value of the servicing. The amounts associated with the servicing liability were not material.

Of the accounts receivable sold and derecognized from our balance sheet, $740 and $766 remained uncollected as of September 30, 2013 and December 31, 2012, respectively. Accounts receivables sales were as follows:

	Three Months Ended September 30,		Nine Months Ended September 30,

Note 7 - Finance Receivables, Net

Sale of Finance Receivables

2013 Sales:

In September 2013, we sold our entire interest in a group of U.S. lease finance receivables with a net carrying value of $419 to a third-party financial institution for cash proceeds of $384 and a beneficial interest from the purchaser of $60. The lease contracts, including associated service and supply elements, were initially sold to a wholly-owned consolidated bankruptcy-remote limited purpose subsidiary, which in turn sold the principal and interest portions of such contracts to the third-party financial institution (the "ultimate purchaser"). As of September 30, 2013, the principal value of the receivables sold and derecognized from our balance sheet was $416 (sale value of approximately $456).

A pre-tax gain of $25 was recognized on this sale and is net of fees and expenses of approximately $3. We will continue to service the sold receivables for which we will receive a 1% servicing fee. We have concluded that the 1% servicing fee (approximately $7 over the expected life of the associated receivables) is adequate compensation and, accordingly, no servicing asset or liability was recorded.

The beneficial interest represents our right to receive future cash flows from the sold receivables, which exceed the servicing fee as well as the ultimate purchaser's initial investment and associated return on that investment. The beneficial interest was initially recognized at an estimate of fair value based on the present value of the expected future cash flows. The present value of the expected future cash flows was calculated using management's best estimate of key assumptions including credit losses, prepayment rate and an appropriate risk adjusted discount rate (all unobservable Level 3 inputs) for which we utilized annualized rates of 2.1%, 9.3% and 10.0%, respectively. These assumptions are supported by both our historical experience and anticipated trends relative to the particular portfolio of receivables sold. However, to assess the sensitivity on the fair value of the beneficial interest, we adjusted the credit loss rate, prepayment rate and discount rate assumptions individually by 10% and 20% while holding the other assumptions constant. Although the effect of multiple assumption changes was not considered in this analysis, a 10% or 20% adverse variation in any one of these three individual assumptions would each decrease the recorded beneficial interest by approximately $3 or less.

2012 Sales:

In 2012, we sold our entire interest in two separate portfolios of U.S. lease finance receivables with a combined net carrying value of $682 to a third-party financial institution for cash proceeds of $630 and beneficial interests from the purchaser of $101. A pre-tax gain of $44 ($23 in the third quarter 2012) was recognized on these sales and is net of additional fees and expenses of approximately $5. As of September 30, 2013, the principal value of the receivables sold and derecognized from our balance sheet was $445 (sales value of approximately $485).

Summary:

The lease portfolios sold were from our Document Technology segment and the gains on these sales are reported in Financing revenues within our Document Technology segment. The ultimate purchaser has no recourse to our other assets for the failure of customers to pay principal and interest when due beyond our beneficial interests of $133, of which $58 and $75 is included in Other current assets and Other long-term assets, respectively, in the accompanying Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheets at September 30, 2013. The beneficial interests are held by a bankruptcy-remote subsidiary and therefore are not available to satisfy any of our creditor obligations. We report collections on the beneficial interests as operating cash flows in the Condensed Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows because such beneficial interests are the result of an operating activity and the associated interest rate risk is de minimis considering it has a weighted average life of less than 2 years. Collections on the beneficial interest were $16 and $43 for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2013, respectively.

The net impact from the sales of finance receivables on operating cash flows is summarized below:

(in millions)	Three Months Ended		Nine Months Ended

Finance Receivables – Allowance for Credit Losses and Credit Quality

Finance receivables include sales-type leases, direct financing leases and installment loans. Our finance receivable portfolios are primarily in the U.S., Canada and Europe. We generally establish customer credit limits and estimate the allowance for credit losses on a country or geographic basis. Our policy and methodology used to establish our allowance for doubtful accounts has been consistently applied over all periods presented.

We evaluate our customers based on the following credit quality indicators:

Investment grade: This rating includes accounts with excellent to good business credit, asset quality and the capacity to meet financial obligations. These customers are less susceptible to adverse effects due to shifts in economic conditions or changes in circumstance. The rating generally equates to a Standard & Poors (S&P) rating of BBB- or better. Loss rates in this category are normally minimal at less than 1%.

Non-investment grade: This rating includes accounts with average credit risk that are more susceptible to loss in the event of adverse business or economic conditions. This rating generally equates to a BB S&P rating. Although we experience higher loss rates associated with this customer class, we believe the risk is somewhat mitigated by the fact that our leases are fairly well dispersed across a large and diverse customer base. In addition, the higher loss rates are largely offset by the higher rates of return we obtain on such leases. Loss rates in this category are generally in the range of 2% to 4%.

Substandard: This rating includes accounts that have marginal credit risk such that the customer's ability to make repayment is impaired or may likely become impaired. We use numerous strategies to mitigate risk including higher rates of interest, prepayments, personal guarantees and etc. Accounts in this category include customers who were downgraded during the term of the lease from investment and non-investment grade status when the lease was originated. Accordingly, there is a distinct possibility for a loss of principal and interest or customer default. The loss rates in this category are around 10%.

Credit quality indicators are updated at least annually and the credit quality of any given customer can change during the life of the portfolio. Details about our finance receivables portfolio based on industry and credit quality indicators are as follows:

Note 10 – Restructuring Programs

During the nine months ended September 30, 2013, we recorded net restructuring and asset impairment charges from continuing operations of $60, which included approximately $78 of severance costs related to headcount reductions of approximately 3,300 employees primarily in North America. These costs were offset by $18 of net reversals, primarily resulting from changes in estimated reserves from prior period initiatives.

Information related to restructuring program activity during the nine months ended September 30, 2013 is outlined below:

Note 12 – Financial Instruments

Interest Rate Risk Management

We may use interest rate swap agreements to manage our interest rate exposure and to achieve a desired proportion of variable and fixed rate debt. These derivatives may be designated as fair value hedges or cash flow hedges depending on the nature of the risk being hedged.

At September 30, 2013 and December 31, 2012, we did not have any interest rate swaps outstanding.

Foreign Exchange Risk Management

We are a global company that is exposed to foreign currency exchange rate fluctuations in the normal course of our business. As a part of our foreign exchange risk management strategy, we use derivative instruments, primarily forward contracts and purchased option contracts, to hedge the following foreign currency exposures, thereby reducing volatility of earnings or protecting fair values of assets and liabilities:

Foreign currency-denominated assets and liabilities

Forecasted purchases and sales in foreign currency

Summary of Foreign Exchange Hedging Positions

At September 30, 2013, we had outstanding forward exchange and purchased option contracts with gross notional values of $2,826, which is reflective of the amounts that are normally outstanding at any point during the year. Approximately 81% of these contracts mature within three months, 10% in three to six months and 9% in six to twelve months.

Foreign Currency Cash Flow Hedges

We designate a portion of our foreign currency derivative contracts as cash flow hedges of our foreign currency-denominated inventory purchases, sales and expenses. No amount of ineffectiveness was recorded in the Condensed Consolidated Statements of Income for these designated cash flow hedges and all components of each derivative's gain or loss was included in the assessment of hedge effectiveness. The net liability fair value of these contracts was $33 and $48 as of September 30, 2013 and December 31, 2012, respectively.

Summary of Derivative Instruments Fair Value

The following table provides a summary of the fair value amounts of our derivative instruments:

Designation of Derivatives	Balance Sheet Location	September 30, 2013	December 31, 2012
Derivatives Designated as Hedging Instruments
Foreign exchange contracts – forwards	Other current assets	$4	$3
	Other current liabilities	(37) (51

	Total Derivative Liabilities	(47) (82
	Net Derivative Liability	$(36) $(71

Summary of Derivative Instruments Gains (Losses)

Derivative gains (losses) affect the income statement based on whether such derivatives are designated as hedges of underlying exposures. The following is a summary of derivative gains (losses).

Designated Derivative Instruments Gains (Losses): The following tables provide a summary of gains (losses) on derivative instruments:

Derivatives in Cash Flow Hedging Relationships	Derivative Gain (Loss) Recognized in OCI (Effective Portion) Three Months Ended September 30,		Location of Derivative Gain (Loss) Reclassified from AOCI into Income (Effective Portion)	Gain (Loss) Reclassified from AOCI to Income (Effective Portion) Three Months Ended September 30,
	2013	2012		2013	2012
	Foreign exchange contracts – forwards	$(13) $8	Cost of sales

Derivatives in Cash Flow Hedging Relationships	Derivative Gain (Loss) Recognized in OCI (Effective Portion) Nine Months Ended September 30,		Location of Derivative Gain (Loss) Reclassified from AOCI into Income (Effective Portion)	Gain (Loss) Reclassified from AOCI to Income (Effective Portion) Nine Months Ended September 30,
	2013	2012		2013	2012
	Foreign exchange contracts – forwards	$(81) $16	Cost of sales

No amount of ineffectiveness was recorded in the Condensed Consolidated Statements of Income for these designated cash flow hedges and all components of each derivative's gain (loss) was included in the assessment of hedge effectiveness. In addition, no amount was recorded for an underlying exposure that did not occur or was not expected to occur.

At September 30, 2013, net after-tax losses of $33 were recorded in accumulated other comprehensive loss associated with our cash flow hedging activity. The entire balance is expected to be reclassified into net income within the next 12 months, providing an offsetting economic impact against the underlying anticipated transactions.

Non-Designated Derivative Instruments Gains (Losses)

Non-designated derivative instruments are primarily instruments used to hedge foreign currency-denominated assets and liabilities. They are not designated as hedges since there is a natural offset for the re-measurement of the underlying foreign currency-denominated asset or liability.

The following table provides a summary of gains (losses) on non-designated derivative instruments:

Derivatives NOT Designated as Hedging Instruments	Location of Derivative Gain (Loss)	Three Months Ended September 30,		Nine Months Ended September 30,
		2013	2012	2013	2012
Foreign exchange contracts – forwards	Other expense – Currency losses, net	$(12)	$(6)	$(45)	$(1)

During the three and nine months ended September 30, 2013, Currency gains, net were $0 and $7, respectively.

During the three and nine months ended September 30, 2012, Currency gains/losses, net were less than $1, respectively. Net Currency gains and losses are included in Other expenses, net and include the mark-to-market adjustments of the derivatives not designated as hedging instruments and the related cost of those derivatives, as well as the re-measurement of foreign currency-denominated assets and liabilities.

Note 13 – Fair Value of Financial Assets and Liabilities

The following table represents assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis. The basis for the measurement at fair value in all cases is Level 2 – Significant Other Observable Inputs.

	September 30, 2013	December 31, 2012
Assets:
Foreign exchange contracts-forwards	$11	$11
Deferred compensation investments in cash surrender life insurance	85	77
Deferred compensation investments in mutual funds	27	23
Total	$123	$111
Liabilities:
Foreign exchange contracts-forwards	$47	$82
Deferred compensation plan liabilities	120	110
Total	$167	$192

We utilize the income approach to measure the fair value for our derivative assets and liabilities. The income approach uses pricing models that rely on market observable inputs such as yield curves, currency exchange rates and forward prices, and therefore are classified as Level 2.

Fair value for our deferred compensation plan investments in Company-owned life insurance is reflected at cash surrender value. Fair value for our deferred compensation plan investments in mutual funds is based on quoted market prices for actively traded investments similar to those held by the plan. Fair value for deferred compensation plan liabilities is based on the fair value of investments corresponding to employees' investment selections, based on quoted prices for similar assets in actively traded markets.

Summary of Other Financial Assets and Liabilities Not Measured at Fair Value on a Recurring Basis

The estimated fair values of our other financial assets and liabilities not measured at fair value on a recurring basis were as follows:

	September 30, 2013		December 31, 2012
	Carrying Amount	Fair Value	Carrying Amount	Fair Value
Cash and cash equivalents	$948	$948	$1,246	$1,246
Accounts receivable, net	2,989	2,989	2,866	2,866
Short-term debt	1,135	1,137	1,042	1,051
Long-term debt	6,406	6,857	7,447	8,040

The fair value amounts for Cash and cash equivalents and Accounts receivable, net, approximate carrying amounts due to the short maturities of these instruments. The fair value of Short- and Long-term debt was estimated based on quoted market prices for publicly-traded securities or on the current rates offered to us for debt of similar maturities. The difference between the fair value and the carrying value represents the theoretical net premium or discount we would pay or receive to retire all debt at such date.

Note 18 – Contingencies and Litigation

Legal Matters

As more fully discussed below, we are involved in a variety of claims, lawsuits, investigations and proceedings concerning securities law, intellectual property law, environmental law, employment law and the Employee Retirement Income Security Act (ERISA). We determine whether an estimated loss from a contingency should be accrued by assessing whether a loss is deemed probable and can be reasonably estimated. We assess our potential liability by analyzing our litigation and regulatory matters using available information. We develop our views on estimated losses in consultation with outside counsel handling our defense in these matters, which involves an analysis of potential results, assuming a combination of litigation and settlement strategies. Should developments in any of these matters cause a change in our determination as to an unfavorable outcome and result in the need to recognize a material accrual, or should any of these matters result in a final adverse judgment or be settled for significant amounts, they could have a material adverse effect on our results of operations, cash flows and financial position in the period or periods in which such change in determination, judgment or settlement occurs.

Brazil Tax and Labor Contingencies

Our Brazilian operations are involved in various litigation matters and have received or been the subject of numerous governmental assessments related to indirect and other taxes, as well as disputes associated with former employees and contract labor. The tax matters, which comprise a significant portion of the total contingencies, principally relate to claims for taxes on the internal transfer of inventory, municipal service taxes on rentals, gross revenue taxes and import taxes and duties. We are disputing these tax matters and intend to vigorously defend our position. Based on the opinion of legal counsel and current reserves for those matters deemed probable of loss, we do not believe that the ultimate resolution of these matters will materially impact our results of operations, financial position or cash flows. The labor matters principally relate to claims made by former employees and contract labor for the equivalent payment of all social security and other related labor benefits, as well as consequential tax claims, as if they were regular employees.

As of September 30, 2013, the total amounts related to the unreserved portion of the tax and labor contingencies, inclusive of any related interest, amounted to approximately $979 with the decrease from December 31, 2012 balance of approximately $1,010, resulting from currency and the adjustments for closed cases offset by a new case and interest. With respect to the unreserved balance of $979, the majority has been assessed by management as being remote as to the likelihood of ultimately resulting in a loss to the company. In connection with the above proceedings, customary local regulations may require us to make escrow cash deposits or post other security of up to half of the total amount in dispute. As of September 30, 2013 we had $179 of escrow cash deposits for matters we are disputing, and there are liens on certain Brazilian assets with a net book value of $8 and additional letters of credit of approximately $238, which include associated indexation. Generally, any escrowed amounts would be refundable and any liens would be removed to the extent the matters are resolved in our favor. We routinely assess all these matters as to probability of ultimately incurring a liability against our Brazilian operations and record our best estimate of the ultimate loss in situations where we assess the likelihood of an ultimate loss as probable.

Litigation Against the Company

In re Xerox Corporation Securities Litigation: A consolidated securities law action (consisting of 17 cases) is pending in the United States District Court for the District of Connecticut. Defendants are the Company, Barry Romeril, Paul Allaire and G. Richard Thoman. The consolidated action is a class action on behalf of all persons and entities who purchased Xerox Corporation common stock during the period October 22, 1998 through October 7, 1999 inclusive (Class Period) and who suffered a loss as a result of misrepresentations or omissions by Defendants as alleged by Plaintiffs (the “Class”). The Class alleges that in violation of Section 10(b) and/or 20(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (1934 Act), and SEC Rule 10b-5 thereunder, each of the defendants is liable as a participant in a fraudulent scheme and course of business that operated as a fraud or deceit on purchasers of the Company’s common stock during the Class Period by disseminating materially false and misleading statements and/or concealing material facts relating to the defendants' alleged failure to disclose the material negative impact that the April 1998 restructuring had on the Company's operations and revenues. The complaint further alleges that the alleged scheme: (i) deceived the investing public regarding the economic capabilities, sales proficiencies, growth, operations and the intrinsic value of the Company's common stock; (ii) allowed several corporate insiders, such as the named individual defendants, to sell shares of privately held common stock of the Company while in possession of materially adverse, non-public information; and (iii) caused the individual plaintiffs and the other members of the purported class to purchase common stock of the Company at inflated prices. The complaint seeks unspecified compensatory damages in favor of the plaintiffs and the other members of the purported class against all defendants, jointly and severally, for all damages sustained as a result of defendants' alleged wrongdoing, including interest thereon, together with reasonable costs and expenses incurred in the action, including counsel fees and expert fees. In 2001, the Court denied the defendants' motion for dismissal of the complaint. The plaintiffs' motion for class certification was denied by the Court in 2006, without prejudice to refile. In February 2007, the Court granted the motion of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers Welfare Fund of Local Union No. 164, Robert W. Roten, Robert Agius (Agius) and Georgia Stanley to appoint them as additional lead plaintiffs. In July 2007, the Court denied plaintiffs' renewed motion for class certification, without prejudice to renew after the Court holds a pre-filing conference to identify factual disputes the Court will be required to resolve in ruling on the motion. After that conference and Agius's withdrawal as lead plaintiff and proposed class representative, in February 2008 plaintiffs filed a second renewed motion for class certification. In April 2008, defendants filed their response and motion to disqualify Milberg LLP as a lead counsel. On September 30, 2008, the Court entered an order certifying the class and denying the appointment of Milberg LLP as class counsel. Subsequently, on April 9, 2009, the Court denied defendants' motion to disqualify Milberg LLP. On November 6, 2008, the defendants filed a motion for summary judgment. On March 29, 2013, the Court granted defendants' motion for summary judgment in its entirety. On April 26, 2013, plaintiffs filed a notice of appeal to the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit. The appeal process is ongoing. The individual defendants and we deny any wrongdoing and are vigorously defending the action. At this time, we do not believe it is reasonably possible that we will incur additional material losses in excess of the amount we have already accrued for this matter. In the course of litigation, we periodically engage in discussions with plaintiffs' counsel for possible resolution of this matter. Should developments cause a change in our determination as to an unfavorable outcome, or result in a final adverse judgment or a settlement for a significant amount, there could be a material adverse effect on our results of operations, cash flows and financial position in the period in which such change in determination, judgment or settlement occurs.

Other Contingencies

We have issued or provided the following guarantees as of September 30, 2013:

• $451 for letters of credit issued to (i) guarantee our performance under certain services contracts; (ii) support certain insurance programs; and (iii) support our obligations related to the Brazil tax and labor contingencies.

• $759 for outstanding surety bonds. Certain contracts, primarily those involving public sector customers, require us to provide a surety bond as a guarantee of our performance of contractual obligations.

In general, we would only be liable for the amount of these guarantees in the event of default in our performance of our obligations under each contract; the probability of which we believe is remote. We believe that our capacity in the surety markets as well as under various credit arrangements (including our Credit Facility) is sufficient to allow us to respond to future requests for proposals that require such credit support.

We have service arrangements where we service third party student loans in the Federal Family Education Loan program (FFEL) on behalf of various financial institutions. We service these loans for investors under outsourcing arrangements and do not acquire any servicing rights that are transferable by us to a third party. At September 30, 2013, we serviced a FFEL portfolio of approximately 3.3 million loans with an outstanding principal balance of approximately $47.2 billion. Some servicing agreements contain provisions that, under certain circumstances, require us to purchase the loans from the investor if the loan guaranty has been permanently terminated as a result of a loan default caused by our servicing error. If defaults caused by us are cured during an initial period, any obligation we may have to purchase these loans expires. Loans that we purchase may be subsequently cured, the guaranty reinstated and the loans repackaged for sale to third parties. We evaluate our exposure under our purchase obligations on defaulted loans and establish a reserve for potential losses, or default liability reserve, through a charge to the provision for loss on defaulted loans purchased. The reserve is evaluated periodically and adjusted based upon management's analysis of the historical performance of the defaulted loans. As of September 30, 2013, other current liabilities include reserves of approximately $3 for losses on defaulted loans purchased.

ITEM 2 — MANAGEMENT’S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The following Management’s Discussion and Analysis (MD&A) is intended to help the reader understand the results of operations and financial condition of Xerox Corporation. MD&A is provided as a supplement to, and should be read in conjunction with, our Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements and the accompanying notes.

Throughout this document, references to “we,” “our,” the “Company,” and “Xerox” refer to Xerox Corporation and its subsidiaries. References to “Xerox Corporation” refer to the stand-alone parent company and do not include its subsidiaries.

To understand the trends in the business, we believe that it is helpful to analyze the impact of changes in the translation of foreign currencies into U.S. dollars on revenue and expenses. We refer to this analysis as “currency impact” or “the impact from currency.” This includes translating the most recent financial results of operations using foreign currency of the earliest period presented. Currencies for our developing market countries (Latin America, Brazil, the Middle East, India, Eurasia and Central-Eastern Europe) are reflected at actual exchange rates for all periods presented, since these countries generally have volatile currency and inflationary environments, and our operations in these countries have historically implemented pricing actions to recover the impact of inflation and devaluation. We do not hedge the translation effect of revenues or expenses denominated in currencies where the local currency is the functional currency.

Overview

Total revenue of $5.3 billion for the three months ended September 30, 2013 was flat from the prior year with a 1% positive impact from currency. Services segment revenues increased 3% reflecting growth in all three of our outsourcing service offerings. Services segment revenues represent 56% of total revenues. Services segment margin of 9.9% increased 0.5-percentage points as compared to the prior year, reflecting cost improvements from restructuring as well as lower compensation-related expenses. During the third quarter, signings decreased 7% as compared to the prior year due to a lower value of renewals, and the renewal rate for our BPO/ITO contracts was 89%, which is at the high-end of our target range of 85% to 90%. Document Technology segment revenues declined by 4% with a 1% positive impact from currency. The decline reflects the continued migration of customers to Xerox managed print services (included in our Services segment) and price declines partially offset by the benefits from the recent refresh of our mid-range products and improving trends on our high-end products. Document Technology segment margin of 12.1% increased by 1.3-percentage points as compared to the prior year, reflecting the benefits from productivity improvements including restructuring savings and favorable currency impacts.

Total revenue of $15.9 billion for the nine months ended September 30, 2013 decreased 1% from the prior year with no impact from currency. Services segment revenues increased 4% reflecting growth in all three of our outsourcing service offerings. Services segment margin of 9.8% was flat as compared to the prior year. Document Technology segment revenues declined by 6% primarily due to the continued migration of customers to Xerox managed print services and price declines. Document Technology segment margin of 10.6% decreased by 0.3-percentage points as compared to the prior year.

Net income from continuing operations attributable to Xerox for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2013 was $288 million and $875 million, respectively, and included $52 million and $154 million, respectively, of after-tax amortization of intangibles. Net income from continuing operations attributable to Xerox for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2012 was $280 million and $850 million, respectively, and included $51 million and $152 million, respectively, of after-tax amortization of intangibles.

Cash flow from operations was $1,407 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2013, as compared to $807 million from the prior year period, reflecting lower cash usage from accounts receivables and accounts payables as well as lower pension contributions. Cash used in investing activities of $402 million reflects capital expenditures of $316 million and acquisitions of $158 million partially offset by $52 million of proceeds primarily from building sales. Cash used in financing activities was $1,299 million reflecting $931 million net payments on debt, $219 million for dividends and $172 million for share repurchases. The debt repayments include the payment of $1 billion of Senior Notes.

In summary, the third quarter 2013 results reflect solid performance for our Services and Document Technology segments. Although year-to-date services signings were strong and the renewal rate for contracts is within our target range, we do expect pressure on segment revenue and margin in the fourth quarter 2013 as compared to the prior year. Our Document Technology segment results benefited from the transition to new products and sales of high-end products; however, segment margin will likewise be pressured in the fourth quarter 2013 as compared to the prior year. We continue to focus on improving our cost infrastructure and aligning our investments and capital consistent with expected market opportunities.

During the second quarter 2013, we completed the sale of our North American paper business to Domtar Corporation and entered into an agreement to sell our European paper business to Antalis. The sale of our European paper business is expected to be completed in the fourth quarter 2013. As a result of these transactions, in the second quarter 2013 we began to report the results from these businesses as discontinued operations. Refer to Note 5 - Divestitures in the Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements for additional information regarding discontinued operations.

Third quarter 2013 Total revenues was flat compared to the third quarter 2012, with a 1-percentage point positive impact from currency, and reflected the following:

• Annuity revenue was flat compared to the third quarter 2012, including a 1-percentage point positive impact from currency. Annuity revenue is comprised of the following:

Outsourcing, maintenance and rentals revenue of $3,757 million includes outsourcing revenue within our Services segment and maintenance revenue (including bundled supplies) and rental revenue, both primarily within our Document Technology segment. An increase of 1% was driven by an increase in outsourcing revenue in our Services segment, partially offset by a decline in maintenance revenue due to moderately lower page volumes.

Supplies, paper and other sales of $561 million includes unbundled supplies and other sales, primarily within our Document Technology segment. A decrease of 4% was driven by a lowering of channel supplies inventories in the U.S. as well as moderately lower supplies demand.

Financing revenue declined by 17% from the third quarter 2012. Approximately $15 million of the decrease in revenue was related to the 2012 sales of finance receivables, with the remainder of the decrease due to lower volume of new finance receivables. The third quarter 2013 included a gain of $25 million from the sale of finance receivables from our Document Technology segment while the third quarter 2012 included a gain of $23 million from a similar sale of finance receivables.

Equipment sales revenue is reported primarily within our Document Technology segment and the document outsourcing business within our Services segment. Equipment sales revenue increased 1% as compared to the third quarter 2012, including a 1-percentage point positive impact from currency. Recent product introductions and a positive mix impact were offset by price declines in the range of 5% to 10%, which were consistent with prior periods.

Total revenues for the nine months ended September 30, 2013 decreased 1% compared to the prior year period, with no impact from currency, and reflected the following:

• Annuity revenue was flat compared to the prior year period and is comprised of the following:

Outsourcing, maintenance and rentals revenue of $11,383 million includes outsourcing revenue within our Services segment and maintenance revenue (including bundled supplies) and rental revenue, both primarily within our Document Technology segment. An increase of 1% from the prior year period was driven by an increase in outsourcing revenue in our Services segment, partially offset by a decline in maintenance revenue, due to moderately lower page volumes and revenue per page.

Supplies, paper and other sales of $1,729 million includes unbundled supplies and other sales, primarily within our Document Technology segment. A decrease of 4% from the prior period was driven by a decrease in supplies sales to OEM partners, a general lowering of channel inventories and moderately lower supplies demand.

Financing revenue declined by 19% from the prior year period. Approximately $40 million of the decrease in revenue was related to the 2012 sales of finance receivables with the remainder of the decrease due to lower volume of new finance receivables. Year-to-date 2013 included a gain of $25 million on the sale of finance receivables while year-to-date 2012 included a gain of $23 million on a similar sale of receivables.

Equipment sales revenue is reported primarily within our Document Technology segment and the document outsourcing business within our Services segment. Equipment sales revenue declined 3% as compared to the prior year period. Declines were driven primarily by the weak macro-economic environment and mix impact in the first half of the year. Year-to-date price declines were in the range of 5% to 10% and are consistent in all quarters.

Additional analysis of the change in revenue for each business segment is included in the "Segment Review" section.

Third quarter 2013 operating margin¹ of 9.4% increased 0.5-percentage points as compared to the third quarter 2012. This increase was driven primarily by a decline in operating expenses as gross margin remained flat.

Operating margin¹ for the nine months ended September 30, 2013 of 8.8% decreased 0.4-percentage points as compared to the prior year period. This decrease was driven primarily by a decline in gross margin partially offset by a decline in operating expenses.

Gross Margins

Total Gross Margin

Total gross margin for the third quarter 2013 of 31.5% was flat as compared to the third quarter 2012. An increase in the Document Technology gross margin was offset by the impact of a higher mix of Services revenue.

Total gross margin for the nine months ended September 30, 2013 of 31.1% decreased 0.8-percentage points as compared to the prior year period. This decrease was driven by revenue mix within the Services segment, contract ramp, as well as the continued increase of Services revenue as a percent of total revenue.

Services Gross Margin

Services segment gross margin for the third quarter 2013 was flat as compared to the third quarter 2012 as productivity improvements and restructuring benefits offset the impact of price declines and lower volumes in some areas of the business.

Services segment gross margin for the nine months ended September 30, 2013 decreased by 0.5-percentage points as compared to the prior year period. The decrease was driven by the revenue mix within the segment and contract ramp within document outsourcing. Productivity improvement and restructuring savings more than offset the impact of price declines.

Document Technology Gross Margin

Document Technology segment gross margin for the third quarter 2013 increased 1.0-percentage points as compared to the third quarter 2012. The increase was driven by cost productivities and the benefit from currency on our Yen based purchases that more than offset price declines.

Document Technology segment gross margin for the nine months ended September 30, 2013 increased 0.2-percentage points as compared to the prior year period. The increase was primarily driven by cost productivities and the benefit from currency on our Yen based purchases which more than offset the impact of price declines.

Research, Development and Engineering Expenses (RD&E)

(in millions)	Three Months Ended September 30,			Nine Months Ended September 30,
	2013	2012	Change	2013	2012	Change
R&D	$115	$133	$(18)	$358	$411	$(53)
Sustaining engineering	30	28	2	90	84	6
Total RD&E Expenses	$145	$161	$(16)	$448	$495	$(47)

Third quarter 2013 RD&E as a percentage of revenue of 2.8% decreased 0.3-percentage points from the third quarter 2012. In addition to lower spending and improved productivity, this decrease was driven by the positive mix impact of the continued growth in Services revenue, which historically has a lower RD&E as a percentage of revenue.

RD&E of $145 million was $16 million lower than the third quarter 2012, reflecting the impact of restructuring and productivity improvements.

RD&E as a percentage of revenue for the nine months ended September 30, 2013 of 2.8% decreased 0.3-percentage points from the prior year period. In addition to lower spending and improved productivity, this decrease was driven by the positive mix impact of the continued growth in Services revenue, which historically has a lower RD&E as a percentage of revenue.

RD&E of $448 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2013 was $47 million lower than the prior year period, reflecting the impact of restructuring and productivity improvements.

Innovation continues to be a core strength and we continue to invest at levels that enhance our innovation, particularly in services, color and software. Xerox R&D is strategically coordinated with Fuji Xerox.

Selling, Administrative and General Expenses (SAG)

SAG as a percentage of revenue of 19.3% decreased 0.3-percentage points from the third quarter 2012. The decrease was driven by spending reductions reflecting benefits from restructuring and productivity improvements, lower compensation-related expenses as well as the positive mix impact from the continued growth in Services revenue, which historically has a lower SAG as a percentage of revenue.

SAG of $1,018 million was $14 million lower than the third quarter 2012 and included a $1 million unfavorable impact from currency for the quarter. SAG expenses reflect the following:

- $19 million decrease in selling expenses, driven primarily by benefits from restructuring and productivity improvements as well as lower compensation-related expenses. These decreases were partially offset by the impact of acquisitions and advertising programs.

- General and administrative expenses were flat as savings from restructuring and productivity improvements were offset by the impact of acquisitions.

- $5 million increase in bad debt expenses to $27 million, driven primarily by increased bad debt levels in Europe. Bad debt expense for the quarter remained at less than one percent of receivables.

SAG as a percentage of revenue for the nine months ended September 30, 2013 of 19.5% decreased 0.2-percentage points from the prior year period. The decrease was driven by spending reductions reflecting benefits from restructuring and productivity improvements, lower compensation related expenses as well as the positive mix impact from the continued growth in Services revenue, which historically has a lower SAG as a percentage of revenue. This was partially offset by lower revenue in our Document Technology segment.

SAG of $3,100 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2013 was $39 million lower than the prior year period and included a $2 million favorable impact from currency. SAG expenses reflect the following:

Edgar Filing: XEROX CORP - Form 10-Q

$60 million decrease in selling expenses, driven primarily by benefits from restructuring and productivity improvements as well as lower compensation-related expenses. These decreases were partially offset by the impact of acquisitions and investments associated with our mid-range product launch.

$12 million increase in general and administrative expenses, as restructuring savings and productivity improvements were more than offset by the impact of acquisitions.

$9 million increase in bad debt expenses to $85 million.

Restructuring and Asset Impairment Charges

During the third quarter 2013, we recorded net restructuring and asset impairment charges of $35 million, which included approximately $38 million of severance costs related to headcount reductions of approximately 2,150 employees primarily in North America. These costs were partially offset by $3 million of net reversals and adjustments in estimated reserves from prior period initiatives.

During the nine months ended September 30, 2013, we recorded net restructuring and asset impairment charges of $60 million, reflecting $78 million of severance costs related to headcount reductions of approximately 3,300 employees primarily in North America. These costs were partially offset by $18 million of net reversals and adjustment in estimated reserves from prior period initiatives.

During the third quarter 2012, we recorded net restructuring and asset impairment charges of $14 million, which included approximately $17 million of severance costs related to headcount reductions of approximately 870 employees primarily in North America. These costs were partially offset by $3 million of net reversals for changes in estimated reserves from prior period initiatives.

During the nine months ended September 30, 2012, we recorded net restructuring and asset impairment charges of $63 million, which included approximately $67 million of severance costs related to headcount reductions of approximately 2,000 employees primarily in North America and $7 million of lease cancellation and asset impairment charges. These costs were partially offset by $11 million of net reversals for changes in estimated reserves from prior period initiatives.

The restructuring reserve balance as of September 30, 2013, for all programs was $87 million, of which approximately $78 million is expected to be spent over the next twelve months.

We expect to incur additional restructuring charges of approximately $0.02 per diluted share in the fourth quarter of 2013 for actions and initiatives which have not yet been finalized.

Refer to Note 10 - Restructuring Programs, in the Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements for additional information regarding our restructuring programs.

Worldwide Employment

Worldwide employment of 141,900 at September 30, 2013 decreased by approximately 5,700 from December 31, 2012, primarily due to restructuring-related actions and normal attrition outpacing hiring and a slower pace of acquisitions.

Non-Financing Interest Expense: Non-financing interest expense for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2013 of $60 million and $183 million, respectively, were $4 million and $11 million higher, respectively, than the prior year comparable periods. However, when non-financing interest expense is combined with financing interest expense (cost of financing), total interest expense declined by $5 million and $17 million, respectively, from the prior year comparable periods, driven by a lower average debt balance.

Gains on Sales of Businesses and Assets: Gains on sales of businesses and assets in the third quarter 2013 was primarily the result of a $23 million gain on the sale of a U.S. facility. Gains on sales of businesses and assets for the nine months ended September 30, 2013 included the gain on the sale of a facility in the U.S. and a surplus facility in Latin America in the second quarter 2013 of approximately $8 million.

Litigation Matters: Litigation matters for the nine months ended September 30, 2013 of $(37) million primarily reflects the benefit resulting from a reserve reduction related to litigation developments in the first quarter 2013.

Loss on Sales of Accounts Receivable: The loss on sales of accounts receivable for the nine months ended September 30, 2013 was $3 million lower than the prior year comparable period primarily due to lower sales of receivables in 2013.

Income Taxes

Third quarter 2013 effective tax rate was 25.4%. On an adjusted basis¹, the third quarter 2013 tax rate was 27.8%, which was lower than the U.S. statutory tax rate primarily due to benefits from foreign tax credits which were partially offset by the discrete impact of $12 million for the U.K. corporate income tax rate reduction and the corresponding adjustment to our deferred tax assets.

The effective tax rate for the nine months ended September 30, 2013 was 21.0%. On an adjusted basis¹, the tax rate for the nine months ended September 30, 2013 was 24.5%. The adjusted tax rate for the year-to-date 2013 period was lower than the U.S. statutory tax rate primarily due to the benefit of foreign tax credits and the retroactive tax benefits from the American Taxpayer Relief Act of 2012 tax law change of approximately $19 million, which were partially offset by the discrete impact of $12 million for the U.K. corporate income tax rate reduction and the corresponding adjustment to our U.K. deferred tax assets. The adjusted tax rate for the year-to-date 2013 period also included a 2-percentage point benefit as a result of the increase in foreign tax credits from certain foreign transactions.

The effective tax rate for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2012 was 19.7% and 20.8%, respectively. On an adjusted basis¹ the tax rate for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2012 was 23.5% and 24.3%, respectively. The adjusted tax rates for the three and nine months were lower than the U.S. statutory tax rate primarily due to foreign tax credits from anticipated dividends and other foreign transactions. In addition, a net tax benefit from adjustments of certain unrecognized tax positions was offset by a similar impact from the 2012 reduction in the U.K. corporate income tax rate.

Xerox operations are widely dispersed. The statutory tax rate in most non-U.S. jurisdictions is lower than the combined U.S. and state tax rate. The amount of income subject to these lower foreign rates relative to the amount of U.S. income will impact our effective tax rate. However, no one country outside of the U.S. is a significant factor to our overall effective tax rate. Certain foreign income is subject to U.S. tax net of any available foreign tax credits. Our full-year effective tax rate includes a benefit of approximately 10 to 12 percentage points from these non-U.S. operations, which is comparable to 2012.

Our effective tax rate is based on nonrecurring events as well as recurring factors, including the taxation of foreign income. In addition, our effective tax rate will change based on discrete or other nonrecurring events that may not be predictable. Excluding the effects of intangibles amortization and other discrete items, we anticipate that our effective tax rate will be approximately 25% to 27% for the fourth quarter of 2013. We estimate that potential discrete items and other future events could result in a reduction of approximately 2 to 3 percentage points in the estimated fourth quarter 2013 rate.

Equity in net income of unconsolidated affiliates primarily reflects our 25% share of Fuji Xerox net income. The increase in equity income reflects higher Fuji Xerox net income.

Net Income from Continuing Operations

Third quarter 2013 net income from continuing operations attributable to Xerox was $288 million, or $0.22 per diluted share. On an adjusted basis¹, net income from continuing operations attributable to Xerox was $340 million, or $0.26 per diluted share and reflects the adjustment for amortization of intangible assets.

Third quarter 2012 net income from continuing operations attributable to Xerox was $280 million, or $0.21 per diluted share. On an adjusted basis¹, net income from continuing operations attributable to Xerox was $331 million, or $0.25 per diluted share and reflected adjustment for the amortization of intangible assets.

Net income from continuing operations attributable to Xerox for the nine months ended September 30, 2013 was $875 million, or $0.68 per diluted share. On an adjusted basis¹, net income from continuing operations attributable to Xerox was $1,029 million, or $0.80 per diluted share and reflects the adjustment for amortization of intangible assets.

Net income from continuing operations attributable to Xerox for the nine months ended September 30, 2012 was $850 million, or $0.62 per diluted share. On an adjusted basis¹, net income from continuing operations attributable to Xerox was $1,002 million, or $0.74 per diluted share and reflected adjustment for the amortization of intangible assets.

(1) Refer to the Net Income and EPS reconciliation table in the Non-GAAP Financial Measures section.

Discontinued Operations

During the second quarter 2013, in connection with our decision to exit from the Paper distribution business, we completed the sale of our North American (N.A.) Paper business and entered into an agreement to sell our European Paper business.

As a result of these transactions, in the second quarter 2013 we began to report these paper-related operations as Discontinued Operations and reclassified their results from the Other segment to Discontinued Operations. All prior periods have accordingly been reclassified to conform to this presentation.

In the second quarter of 2013 we recorded a net pre-tax loss of $23 million for the disposition of our N.A. and European Paper businesses. The loss is primarily related to exit and disposal costs associated with these businesses. The disposals are expected to result in a reduction in headcount of approximately 300 employees, primarily in Europe.

The aggregate net loss from discontinued operations attributable to Xerox for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2013 was $2 million and $22 million, respectively. There was no impact per diluted share for three months and a loss of $0.01 per diluted share for the nine months ended September 30, 2013. The aggregate net income from discontinued operations attributable to Xerox for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2012 was $2 million and $10 million, respectively. There was no impact per diluted share for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2012.

Refer to Note 5 - Divestitures, in the Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements for additional information regarding discontinued operations.

Xerox 2013 Form 10-Q

Net Income

Third quarter 2013 net income attributable to Xerox was $286 million, or $0.22 per diluted share. third quarter 2012 net income attributable to Xerox was $282 million, or $0.21 per diluted share.

Net income attributable to Xerox for the nine months ended September 30, 2013 was $853 million, or $0.67 per diluted share. Net income attributable to Xerox for the nine months ended September 30, 2012 was $860 million, or $0.62 per diluted share.

Other Comprehensive Income

Third quarter 2013 Other comprehensive income attributable to Xerox was $245 million as compared to a $332 million in the third quarter 2012. The decrease of $87 million was primarily due to a lower amount of gains from the translation of our foreign currency denominated net assets in 2013 as compared to 2012. The translation gains are lower in 2013 primarily as a result of a relatively less strengthening of our major foreign currencies against the U.S. Dollar in 2013 as compared to 2012.

Other comprehensive loss attributable to Xerox for the nine months ended September 30, 2013 was $50 million as compared to income of $170 million in the prior year period. The decrease of $220 million was primarily due to losses of $178 million from the translation of our foreign currency denominated net assets in 2013 as compared to translation gains of $181 million in 2012. The translation losses in 2013 are the result of an overall weakening of our major foreign currencies against the U.S. Dollar while the translation gains in 2012 were the result of an overall strengthening of those same foreign currencies in 2012. The increase in translation losses were partially offset by a benefit from the net changes in defined benefit plans. Refer to Note 14 - Employee Benefit Plans, in the Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements for additional information regarding net changes in our defined benefit plans.

Services

Our Services segment comprises three service offerings: Business Process Outsourcing (BPO), Document Outsourcing (DO) and Information Technology Outsourcing (ITO).

Total Services Revenue	$ 2,944	$ 2,847	3	%	$ 8,820	$ 8,474	4	%

Note:

The 2012 Business Process Outsourcing (BPO) and Document Outsourcing (DO) revenues have been restated to reflect the transfer of the Communication & Marketing Services (CMS) business from DO to BPO in 2013. The revenue transfers by quarter were: $108 million for the first quarter; $114 million for the second quarter; $109 million for the third quarter; and $119 million for the fourth quarter.

Third quarter 2013 Services total revenue of $2,944 million increased 3% from the third quarter 2012, with no impact from currency.

BPO revenue increased 1% and represented 59% of total Services revenue. BPO growth was driven by our healthcare and government businesses, partially offset by lower volumes in portions of our commercial BPO business as well as our student loan business.

DO revenue increased 5% and represented 28% of total Services revenue. DO growth was driven primarily by our partner print services offerings as well as higher equipment sales.

ITO revenue increased 8% and represented 13% of total Services revenue. ITO growth was driven by the continued revenue ramp on prior period signings.

Services total revenue for the nine months ended September 30, 2013 of $8,820 million increased 4% from the comparable prior year period, with no impact from currency.

BPO revenue increased 3% and represented 60% of total Services revenue. BPO growth was driven by our government healthcare, healthcare payer and customer care businesses as well as the benefits from recent acquisitions. Growth in these areas was partially offset by the elimination and runoff of our government and commercial student loan businesses.

DO revenue increased 4% and represented 28% of total Services revenue. DO growth was driven primarily by our new partner print services offerings as well as higher equipment sales.

ITO revenue increased 11% and represented 12% of total Services revenue. ITO growth was driven by the continued revenue ramp on prior period signings including several large deals signed in 2011.

Services revenue growth rates are consistent with expectations with DO reflecting stable mid-single digit growth, ITO growth beginning to moderate and BPO growth being pressured from lower acquisition levels and the elimination and runoff of our government and commercial student loan businesses. We expect these growth dynamics to continue and result in relatively flat year-over-year services revenue growth in the fourth quarter 2013. However, we expect services revenue growth to improve in 2014 driven by favorable signings, renewals, a strong pipeline and acquisitions.

Segment Margin

Third quarter 2013 Services segment margin of 9.9% increased 0.5-percentage points as compared to the third quarter 2012, with gross margin unchanged and continued SAG improvements which included benefits from restructuring as well as lower compensation-related expenses. In addition, the third quarter 2012 included a negative impact from the write-off of up-front investments associated with a government contract.

Services segment margin for the nine months ended September 30, 2013 of 9.8% was flat compared to the prior year period, as the decline in gross margin was offset by continued focus on SAG improvements which included benefits from restructuring and lower compensation-related expenses.

Services segment margin is expected to continue to be pressured in the fourth quarter 2013, as we attempt to manage the negative impacts from the run-off of our student loan business as well as a lower level of inorganic growth. In addition, we are incurring higher costs including amortization expense associated with the roll-out of our new healthcare platforms. As a result, we expect Services margin will decline from a relatively strong 11.2% in the fourth quarter 2012 to about 10% in the fourth quarter 2013. Longer term, we expect to continue to take actions to improve our mix to higher value offerings while reducing our overall cost structure.

Metrics

Pipeline

Our total Services sales pipeline grew 5% over the third quarter 2012. This sales pipeline includes the Total Contract Value (TCV) of new business opportunities that potentially could be contracted within the next six months and excludes business opportunities with estimated annual recurring revenue in excess of $100 million.

Signings

Signings are defined as estimated future revenues from contracts signed during the period, including renewals of existing contracts.

Signings were as follows:

(in millions)	Three Months Ended September 30, 2013	Nine Months Ended September 30, 2013
BPO	$1,760	$7,150
DO	860	2,430
ITO	260	680
Total Signings	$2,880	$10,260

Signings decreased 7% as compared to the third quarter 2012 with fewer eligible renewals offsetting increased new business signings. Signings on a trailing twelve month basis increased 9% in relation to the comparable prior year period. The above DO signings amount does not include signings from our partner print services offerings.

Note: TCV is the estimated total revenue for future contracts for the pipeline or signed contracts for signings, as applicable.

Renewal Rate (BPO and ITO)

Renewal rate is defined as the annual recurring revenue (ARR) on contracts that are renewed during the period as a percentage of ARR on all contracts on which a renewal decision was made during the period. The third quarter 2013 contract renewal rate for BPO and ITO contracts was 89%, which is at the high end of our target range of 85% to 90%.

Document Technology

Our Document Technology segment includes the sale of products and supplies, as well as the associated maintenance and financing of those products. Document Technology revenue excludes the impact of growth in the Xerox document outsourcing business.

Revenue

(in millions)	Three Months Ended			Nine Months Ended
	September 30, 2013	2012	Change	September 30, 2013	2012	Change
Equipment sales	$647	$664	(3)%	$1,937	$2,052	(6)%
Annuity revenue	1,512	1,595	(5)%	4,620	4,915	(6)%
Total Revenue	$2,159	$2,259	(4)%	$6,557	$6,967	(6)%

Third quarter 2013 Document Technology revenue of $2,159 million decreased 4% from the third quarter 2012, including a 1-percentage point positive impact from currency. Document Technology revenue excludes the impact of growth in Document Outsourcing. Inclusive of Document Outsourcing, third quarter 2013 aggregate document-related revenue decreased 2% from the third quarter 2012. Document Technology segment revenue results included the following:

Equipment sales revenue decreased by 3% from the third quarter 2012, including a 1-percentage point positive impact from currency. Equipment sales benefited from our recent mid-range product refresh and increased demand for color digital production presses. These benefits were more than offset by the continued migration of customers to our rapidly growing partner print services offering (included in our Services segment) and weakness in developing markets. Price declines were in the historical 5% to 10% range.

Annuity revenue decreased by 5% from the third quarter 2012, including a 1-percentage point positive impact from currency, driven by a modest decline in total pages, the continued migration of customers to our partner print services offering (included in our Services segment), and a continued decline in financing revenue.

Document Technology revenue mix was 21% entry, 58% mid-range and 21% high-end, consistent with recent quarters.

Document Technology revenue for the nine months ended September 30, 2013 of $6,557 million decreased 6% from the prior year period, with no impact from currency. Inclusive of Document Outsourcing, nine months ended September 30, 2013 aggregate document-related revenue decreased 3% from the prior year period. Document Technology segment revenue results included the following:

Equipment sales revenue decreased by 6% from the prior year period. Equipment sales benefited from our recent mid-range product refresh and increased demand for color digital production presses. These benefits were more than offset by the continued migration of customers to our rapidly growing partner print services offerings (included in our Services segment) as well as the weak macro-economic environment. Price declines were in the historical 5% to 10% range.

Annuity revenue decreased by 6% from the prior year period, driven by a modest decline in total pages and revenue per page, the continued migration of customers to our partner print services offering (included in our Services segment), a decrease in supplies sales to our OEM partners and a decline in financing revenue.

Document Technology revenue mix was 21% entry, 58% mid-range and 21% high-end, consistent with recent quarters.

Total revenue declines are expected to remain at the mid-single digit level for the Document Technology segment, reflecting stabilization in the U.S. and continued economic weakness in Europe and some developing market economies. The 2013 expected revenue decline for the Document Technology segment is consistent with the trend we have experienced for this segment over the past two years as we continue to transform the company from a technology-based equipment company to a document outsourcing services-based entity and customers continue to migrate their business to more services-based offerings. These services-based offerings are reported within our Services segment. This business is also heavily impacted by price and page declines. Consistent with this trend, annual revenue declines are expected in future years. However, we expect to manage the impact of those declines through measures to improve productivity and reduce costs and expenses.

Xerox 2013 Form 10-Q

Segment Margin

Third quarter 2013 Document Technology segment margin of 12.1% increased by 1.3-percentage points from the third quarter 2012. The increase was largely driven by a 1.0-percentage point increase in gross margin due to benefits from productivity improvements including restructuring savings and favorable currency impacts, which more than offset pricing declines.

Document Technology segment margin for the nine months ended September 30, 2013 of 10.6% decreased by 0.3-percentage points from the prior year period. The decline was primarily driven by an increase in SAG as a percent of revenue due to lower revenue and the timing of our restructuring actions.

We expect Document Technology margin will decline in the fourth quarter 2013 from a relatively strong 12.3% in the fourth quarter 2012 to the higher end of our target range of 9 to 11%. The decline reflects higher pension settlement losses as well as lower finance receivable sales versus the prior year, the gains of which are included in finance income (See Sales of Finance Receivables in the Capital Resources and Liquidity section).

Total Installs (Technology and Document Outsourcing¹)

Install activity includes installations for document outsourcing and Xerox-branded products shipped to Global Imaging Systems (GIS). Details by product groups is shown below:

Entry

Installs for the third quarter 2013:

41% increase in color multifunction devices driven by demand for the recently introduced WorkCentre[®] 6605 and WorkCentre[®] 6015.

4% decrease in color printers.

21% decrease in black-and-white multifunction devices driven by declines in developing markets.

Installs for the nine months ended September 30, 2013:

35% increase in color multifunction devices driven by demand for the recently introduced WorkCentre[®] 6605, WorkCentre[®] 6015 and ColorQube 8700/8900.

1% increase in color printers driven by demand for the Phaser 6600 family of products as well as an increase in sales to OEM partners.

17% decrease in black-and-white multifunction devices driven by declines in all geographies.

Mid-Range

Installs for the third quarter 2013 :

9% increase in installs of mid-range color devices driven by demand for the ConnectKey products.

3% decrease in installs of mid-range black-and-white devices.

Installs for the nine months ended September 30, 2013:

7% increase in installs of mid-range color devices driven by demand for the ConnectKey products.

4% decrease in installs of mid-range black-and-white devices.

High-End

Installs for the third quarter 2013:

92% increase in installs of high-end color systems driven by growth in the sale of digital front-ends (DFE's) to Fuji Xerox as well as strong customer demand for the Color J75 Press and the iGen as we continue to strengthen our market leadership in the Production Color segment. High-end color installs increased 14%, excluding the DFE sales to Fuji Xerox.

9% decrease in installs of high-end black-and-white systems, reflecting continued declines in the overall market.

Xerox 2013 Form 10-Q
42

Installs for the nine months ended September 30, 2013:

54% increase in installs of high-end color systems driven by growth across several product areas, including sale of digital front-ends (DFE's) to Fuji Xerox, Color J75 Press and iGen, as we continue to strengthen our market leadership in the Production Color segment. High-end color installs increased 20%, excluding the DFE sales to Fuji Xerox.

43% decrease in installs of high-end black-and-white systems, reflecting continued declines in the overall market.

Note: Install activity percentages include installations for Document Outsourcing and the Xerox-branded product shipments to GIS. Descriptions of "Entry", "Mid-range" and "High-end" are defined in Note 3 - Segment Reporting, in the Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements.

(1) Equipment sales associated with Document Outsourcing are reported in our Services segment revenue.

Other

Revenue

Third quarter 2013 Other revenue of $159 million decreased 6% from the third quarter 2012, with a 2-percentage point positive impact from currency. The decline is due primarily to lower revenue in our wide format business in addition to lower paper sales within developing markets.

Other revenue for the nine months ended September 30, 2013 of $489 million decreased 8% from the prior year period, with a 1-percentage point positive impact from currency. The decline is due primarily to lower revenue in our wide format business in addition to lower paper sales within developing markets. After the previously discussed discontinued operations reporting for our North American and European Paper businesses, total paper revenue (all within developing markets) comprised approximately 1/3 of the Other segment revenue.

Segment Margin

Third quarter 2013 Other segment loss of $55 million decreased $11 million from the third quarter 2012, primarily driven by the previously discussed gain on the sale of a U.S. facility.

Other segment loss for the nine months ended September 30, 2013 of $186 million decreased $8 million from the prior year period, primarily driven by the gain on the sale of a facility in the U.S., partially offset by profit declines in our wide format business as well as an increase in non-financing interest expense. All non-financing interest expense is contained within the Other segment.

Discontinued Operations

During the second quarter 2013, in connection with our decision to exit from the Paper distribution business, we completed the sale of our North American Paper business and entered into an agreement to sell our European Paper business.

As a result of these transactions, in the second quarter 2013 we began to report these paper-related operations as Discontinued Operations and reclassified their results from the Other segment to Discontinued Operations. All prior periods have accordingly been reclassified to conform to this presentation.

Xerox 2013 Form 10-Q

Detailed below is the restatement for our Other segment and Total segment results for the first quarter of 2013 and all four quarters and the full year of 2012 related to the reclassification of the North American and European Paper business to Discontinued Operations.

Capital Resources and Liquidity

Our ability to maintain positive liquidity going forward depends on our ability to continue to generate cash from operations and access the financial capital markets, both of which are subject to general economic, financial, competitive, legislative, regulatory and other market factors that are beyond our control.

As of September 30, 2013 and December 31, 2012, total cash and cash equivalents were $948 million and $1,246 million, respectively. There were no borrowings under our Commercial Paper Program or letters of credit under our $2 billion Credit Facility at September 30, 2013 and December 31, 2012.

Operating cash flow for the nine months ended September 30, 2013 was $1,407 million and we continue to expect full-year operating cash flow towards the higher-end of the range from $2.1 billion to $2.4 billion. Cash flows from operations were $2,580 million, $1,961 million and $2,726 million for 2012, 2011 and 2010, respectively (year-to-date 2013 and full year 2012 cash flows from operations included a benefit of approximately $169 million and $580 million, respectively, from the sale of finance receivables).

Cash Flow Analysis

The following table summarizes our cash and cash equivalents:

(in millions)	Nine Months Ended		Change
	September 30, 2013	September 30, 2012
Net cash provided by operating activities	$1,407	$807	$600

Cash and cash equivalents at beginning of period	1,246	902	344
Cash and Cash Equivalents at End of Period	$948	$882	$66

Cash Flows from Operating Activities

Net cash provided by operating activities was $1,407 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2013. The $600 million increase in operating cash from the prior year period was primarily due to the following:

$485 million increase from accounts receivable primarily due to the year over year improved collections and lower revenue as well as the sales of accounts receivable.

$148 million increase due to lower contributions to our defined benefit pension plans. This was in line with expectations.

$107 million increase primarily related to the timing of payments of accounts payable and lower accrued compensation.

Xerox 2013 Form 10-Q

$76 million increase from lower spending for product software and up-front costs for outsourcing service contracts.
 $125 million decrease in finance receivables primarily due to the sale of finance receivables in the prior year.
 $54 million decrease due to higher growth in inventory reflecting lower sales as well as the launch of new products.
 $26 million decrease due to the timing of settlements of our foreign currency derivative contracts. These derivatives primarily relate to our hedges of Yen inventory purchases.

Cash Flows from Investing Activities

Net cash used in investing activities was $402 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2013. The $199 million decrease in the use of cash from the prior year period was primarily due to the following:

$85 million decrease in acquisitions. 2013 acquisitions include Zeno Office Solutions, Inc., for $59 million, Impika for $53 million and four smaller acquisitions totaling $43 million. 2012 acquisitions include Wireless Data Services for $95 million, RK Dixon for $58 million, Martin Whalen Office Solutions for $31 million, Lateral Data for $30 million and two smaller acquisitions totaling $29 million.

$67 million decrease from lower capital expenditures (including internal use software).

- $44 million decrease primarily due to proceeds from the sale of a U.S. facility.

Cash Flows from Financing Activities

Net cash used in financing activities was $1,299 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2013. The $1,077 million increase in the use of cash from the prior year period was primarily due to the following:

$1,673 million increase from net debt activity. 2013 reflects payments of $1 billion of Senior Notes offset by net proceeds of $39 million from the sale and capital leaseback of a building in the U.S. 2012 reflects an increase of $744 million in Commercial Paper.

$24 million increase primarily due to an increase in the quarterly common stock dividend in 2013 partially offset by lower average shares outstanding.

$546 million decrease from lower share repurchases.

$53 million decrease due to higher proceeds from the issuances of common stock under our stock option plans.

$31 million decrease due to lower distributions to noncontrolling interests.

Customer Financing Activities and Debt

The following represents our total finance assets, net associated with our lease and finance operations:

(in millions)	September 30, 2013	December 31, 2012
Total Finance receivables, net ⁽¹⁾	$4,679	$5,313
Equipment on operating leases, net	533	535
Total Finance Assets, net ⁽²⁾	$5,212	$5,848

(1) Includes (i) billed portion of finance receivables, net, (ii) finance receivables, net and (iii) finance receivables due after one year, net as included in our Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheets.

(2) The change from December 31, 2012 includes an increase of $9 million due to currency and a decrease due to the sale of finance receivables discussed further below.

Our lease contracts permit customers to pay for equipment over time rather than at the date of installation; therefore, we maintain a certain level of debt (that we refer to as financing debt) to support our investment in these lease contracts, which are reflected in Total Finance assets, net. For this financing aspect of our business, we maintain an assumed 7:1 leverage ratio of debt to equity as compared to our finance assets. Based on this leverage, the following represents the breakdown of total debt between financing debt and core debt:

(in millions)	September 30, 2013	December 31, 2012
Financing debt ⁽¹⁾	$4,561	$5,117
Core debt	2,980	3,372
Total Debt	$7,541	$8,489

Financing debt includes $4,094 million and $4,649 million as of September 30, 2013 and December 31, 2012, (1) respectively, of debt associated with Total finance receivables, net and is the basis for our calculation of “Equipment financing interest” expense. The remainder of the financing debt is associated with Equipment on operating leases.

Xerox 2013 Form 10-Q

The following summarizes our debt:

(in millions)	September 30, 2013	December 31, 2012
Principal debt balance	$7,490	$8,410
Net unamortized discount	(59) (63
Fair value adjustments ⁽¹⁾	110	142
Total Debt	$7,541	$8,489

Fair value adjustments - during the period from 2004 to 2011, we early terminated several interest rate swaps that (1) were designated as fair value hedges of certain debt instruments. The associated net fair value adjustments to debt are being amortized to interest expense over the remaining term of the related notes.

Sales of Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable sales arrangements are utilized in the normal course of business as part of our cash and liquidity management. We have facilities in the U.S., Canada and several countries in Europe that enable us to sell to third-parties, on an on-going basis, certain accounts receivables without recourse. The accounts receivables sold are generally short-term trade receivables with payment due dates of less than 60 days.

Accounts receivables sales were as follows:

	Three Months Ended		Nine Months Ended
	September 30,		September 30,
(in millions)	2013	2012	2013	2012
Accounts receivable sales	$814	$725	$2,587	$2,816

Loss on sales of accounts receivable	4	4	13	16
Estimated decrease to operating cash flows ⁽¹⁾	(75) (266) (42) (168

Represents the difference between current and prior period receivable sales adjusted for the effects of: (i) the (1) deferred proceeds, (ii) collections prior to the end of the quarter, and (iii) currency. The three months ended September 30, 2012 includes $215 of cash outflows related to our terminated U.S. revolving facility. Refer to Note 6 - Accounts Receivable, Net in the Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements for additional information.

Sales of Finance Receivables

In September 2013, we sold our entire interest in a group of U.S. lease finance receivables from our Document Technology segment with a net carrying value of $419 million to a third-party financial institution for net cash proceeds of $384 million and a beneficial interest from the purchaser of $60 million. A pre-tax gain of $25 million was recognized on this sale and is net of additional fees and expenses of approximately $3 million.

In 2012, we sold our entire interest in two separate portfolios of U.S. finance receivables from our Document Technology segment with a combined net carrying value of $682 million to a third-party financial institution for cash proceeds of $630 million and beneficial interests from the purchaser of $101 million. A pre-tax gain of $44 million ($23 million in the third quarter 2012) was recognized on these sales and is net of additional fees and expenses of approximately $5 million.

The gains on these sales are reported in Finance Income in Document Technology segment revenues. We will continue to service the sold receivables and expect to record servicing fee income over the expected life of the associated receivables. These transactions enable us to lower the cost associated with our financing portfolio.

Xerox 2013 Form 10-Q

46

The net impact of the the sales of finance receivables on operating cash flows is summarized below:

(in millions)	Three Months Ended		Nine Months Ended
	September 30,		September 30,
	2013	2012	2013	2012
Net cash received for sales of finance receivables ⁽¹⁾	$384	$311	$384	$311

Collections on beneficial interest	16	—	43	—
Estimated Increase to Operating Cash Flows	$316	$311	$169	$311

(1) Net of beneficial interest, fees and expenses.

(2) Represents cash that would have been collected if we had not sold finance receivables.

Refer to Note 7 - Finance Receivables, Net in the Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements for additional information.

We expect to do additional sales of finance receivables in the fourth quarter 2013 however the level of sales are expected to be lower than the sale completed in the fourth quarter 2012. In the fourth quarter 2012 we sold finance receivables with a net carrying value of $341 million for net cash proceeds of $314 million.

Liquidity and Financial Flexibility

We manage our worldwide liquidity using internal cash management practices, which are subject to (1) the statutes, regulations and practices of each of the local jurisdictions in which we operate, (2) the legal requirements of the agreements to which we are a party and (3) the policies and cooperation of the financial institutions we utilize to maintain and provide cash management services.

Our principal debt maturities are in line with historical and projected cash flows and are spread over the next ten years as follows (in millions):

Year	Amount

2014	1,111
2015	1,280
2016	971
2017	1,016

Treasury Stock

During the third quarter 2013, we repurchased 16.0 million shares for an aggregate cost of $162 million, including fees. Through October 28, 2013, we repurchased an additional 7.2 million shares at an aggregate cost of $75.1 million, including fees, for a cumulative total of 452.9 million shares at a cost of $4.9 billion, including fees.

Contractual Cash Obligations and Other Commercial Commitments and Contingencies

In June 2013, we entered into an agreement with a third-party service provider for software application development and systems integration services. The third-party is expected to perform services as a subcontractor on our larger outsourcing service arrangements where we provide system development and implementation services. The agreement is for seven years and requires us to purchase at least $100 million in services per year for an aggregate contract value of $700 million.

Financial Risk Management

We are exposed to market risk from changes in foreign currency exchange rates and interest rates, which could affect operating results, financial position and cash flows. We manage our exposure to these market risks through our regular operating and financing activities and, when appropriate, through the use of derivative financial instruments. These derivative financial instruments are utilized to hedge economic exposures, as well as to reduce earnings and cash flow volatility resulting from shifts in market rates. We enter into limited types of derivative contracts, including interest rate swap agreements, foreign currency spot, forward and swap contracts and net purchased foreign currency options to manage interest rate and foreign currency exposures. Our primary foreign currency market exposures include the Yen, Euro and Pound Sterling. The fair market values of all our derivative contracts change with fluctuations in interest rates and/or currency rates and are designed so that any changes in their values are offset by changes in the values of the underlying exposures. Derivative financial instruments are held solely as risk management tools and not for trading or speculative purposes.

We are required to recognize all derivative instruments as either assets or liabilities at fair value in the balance sheet. As permitted, certain of these derivative contracts have been designated for hedge accounting treatment. Certain of our derivatives that do not qualify for hedge accounting are effective as economic hedges. These derivative contracts are likewise required to be recognized each period at fair value and therefore do result in some level of volatility. The level of volatility will vary with the type and amount of derivative hedges outstanding, as well as fluctuations in the currency and interest rate markets during the period. The related cash flow impacts of all of our derivative activities are reflected as cash flows from operating activities.

By their nature, all derivative instruments involve, to varying degrees, elements of market and credit risk. The market risk associated with these instruments resulting from currency exchange and interest rate movements is expected to offset the market risk of the underlying transactions, assets and liabilities being hedged. We do not believe there is significant risk of loss in the event of non-performance by the counterparties associated with these instruments because these transactions are executed with a diversified group of major financial institutions. Further, our policy is to deal with counterparties having a minimum investment grade or better credit rating. Credit risk is managed through the continuous monitoring of exposures to such counterparties.

The current market events have not required us to materially modify or change our financial risk management strategies with respect to our exposures to interest rate and foreign currency risk. Refer to Note 12 – Financial Instruments in the Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements for further discussion and information on our financial risk management strategies.

Non-GAAP Financial Measures

We have reported our financial results in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP). In addition, we have discussed the non-GAAP measures described below. A reconciliation of these non-GAAP financial measures to the most directly comparable financial measures calculated and presented in accordance with GAAP are set forth below.

These non-GAAP financial measures should be viewed in addition to, and not as a substitute for, the Company's reported results prepared in accordance with GAAP.

Adjusted Earnings Measures

To better understand the trends in our business, we believe it is necessary to adjust the following amounts determined in accordance with GAAP to exclude the effects of certain items as well as their related income tax effects.

Net income and Earnings per share (EPS)

Effective tax rate

Our adjustments are limited to the amortization of intangible assets which is driven by our acquisition activity which can vary in size, nature and timing as compared to other companies within our industry and from period to period. Accordingly, due to the incomparability of acquisition activity among companies and from period to period, we believe exclusion of the amortization associated with intangible assets acquired through our acquisitions allows investors to better compare and understand our results. The use of intangible assets contributed to our revenues earned during the periods presented and will contribute to our future period revenues as well. Amortization of intangible assets will recur in future periods.

We also calculate and utilize an operating income and margin earnings measure by adjusting our pre-tax income and margin amounts to exclude certain expenses. In addition to the above excluded item, operating income and margin also exclude Other expenses, net as well as Restructuring and asset impairment charges. Other expenses, net is primarily composed of non-financial interest expense and other non-operating costs and expenses. Restructuring and asset impairment charges consist of costs primarily related to severance and benefits for employees pursuant to formal restructuring and workforce reduction plans. Such charges are expected to yield future benefits and savings with respect to our operational performance. We exclude these amounts in order to evaluate our current and past operating performance and to better understand the expected future trends in our business.

Management believes that these non-GAAP financial measures provide an additional means of analyzing the current periods' results against the corresponding prior periods' results. However, the following non-GAAP financial measures should be viewed in addition to, and not as a substitute for, the Company's reported results prepared in accordance with GAAP. Our non-GAAP financial measures are not meant to be considered in isolation or as a substitute for comparable GAAP measures and should be read only in conjunction with our consolidated financial statements prepared in accordance with GAAP. Our management regularly uses our supplemental non-GAAP financial measures internally to understand, manage and evaluate our business and make operating decisions. These non-GAAP measures are among the primary factors management uses in planning for and forecasting future periods. Compensation of our executives is based in part on the performance of our business based on these non-GAAP measures.

A reconciliation of these non-GAAP financial measures and the most directly comparable measures calculated and presented in accordance with GAAP are set forth on the following tables:

ITEM 3 — QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

The information set forth under the caption “Financial Risk Management” of this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q is hereby incorporated by reference in answer to this Item.

ITEM 4 — CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

(a) Evaluation of Disclosure Controls and Procedures

The Company’s management evaluated, with the participation of our principal executive officer and principal financial officer, or persons performing similar functions, the effectiveness of our disclosure controls and procedures, as defined in Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as of the end of the period covered by this report. Based on this evaluation, our principal executive officer and principal financial officer have concluded that, as of the end of the period covered by this report, our disclosure controls and procedures were effective to ensure that information we are required to disclose in the reports that we file or submit under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the Securities and Exchange Commission’s rules and forms relating to Xerox Corporation, including our consolidated subsidiaries, and was accumulated and communicated to the Company’s management, including the principal executive officer and principal financial officer, or persons performing similar functions, as appropriate to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure.

(b) Changes in Internal Controls

In connection with the evaluation required by paragraph (d) of Rule 13a-15 under the Exchange Act, there was no change identified in our internal control over financial reporting that occurred during the last fiscal quarter that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.
