Item 8.01. Other Events.

The Company is filing as Exhibit 99.1 (which is incorporated by reference herein) a description of the material federal income tax considerations relating to the taxation of the Company as a real estate investment trust for federal income tax purposes and the purchase, ownership and disposition of the Company's common stock, preferred stock, debt securities and depositary shares. This description contained in Exhibit 99.1 replaces and supersedes prior descriptions of the material federal income tax treatment of the Company and its stockholders to the extent that they are inconsistent with the description contained in this Current Report on Form 8-K.

Certain statements in the description of material federal income tax considerations may constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Such forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors which may cause the actual results of the Company to differ materially from historical results or from any results expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements, including without limitation: national and local economic, business, real estate and other market conditions; the competitive environment in which the Company operates; financing risks; possible future downgrades in our credit ratings; property ownership and management risks; the level and volatility of interest rates and changes in the capitalization rates with respect to the acquisition and disposition of properties; financial stability of tenants; the Company's ability to maintain its status as a REIT for federal income tax purposes; acquisition, disposition, development and joint venture risks, including risks that developments and redevelopments are not completed on time or on budget and strategies, actions and performance of affiliates that the Company may not control; governmental approvals, actions and initiatives; potential environmental and other liabilities; and other factors affecting the real estate industry generally. The Company refers you to the documents filed by the Company from time to time with the Securities and Exchange Commission, specifically the section titled Risk Factors in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006, which discuss these and other factors that could adversely affect the Company's results.
