Item 1.01 Entry Into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On April 3, 2007, XTENT, Inc. ( XTENT ) and Fortimedix B.V., a corporation organized under the laws of the Netherlands ( Fortimedix ) entered into a written Supply Agreement (the Supply Agreement ). Pursuant to the terms of the Supply Agreement, Fortimedix agrees to manufacture and deliver stents designed by XTENT for use in its Custom NX DES system, a customizable drug eluting stent system for the treatment of coronary artery disease. The Supply Agreement requires XTENT to purchase certain minimum volumes of the stents and also requires Fortimedix to build and maintain the production capacity for certain monthly volumes of the stents.

The initial term of the Supply Agreement ends on March 18, 2010 and will be automatically extended for successive one (1) year periods unless either party terminates the Supply Agreement by giving notice at least six (6) months prior to the expiration of the initial term or any extension period. In addition, either party may terminate the Supply Agreement if (i) the other party fails to cure a material default within ninety (90) days of written notice of such default; (ii) the other party becomes subject to bankruptcy or liquidation; or (iii) the other party is dissolved. In addition, XTENT may terminate the Supply Agreement if products delivered by Fortimedix fail to meet certain specifications, and Fortimedix does not cure such failure within fourteen (14) days of written notice. Fortimedix may terminate the Supply Agreement if the parties fail to reach agreement by January 31, 2008 regarding a minimum volume of stents to be purchased by XTENT during the year 2009.

XTENT estimates that its total obligation under the Supply Agreement will be at least $5.3 million over the first two years of the Supply Agreement. After the second year of the Supply Agreement, XTENT has no further obligation to purchase stents from Fortimedix unless the parties otherwise agree in writing on or before January 31, 2008.
