File No. 812-13538

I. INTRODUCTION

ING Investments, LLC (IIL), Directed Services, LLC (DSL), ING Investment Management Co. (IIM), and any investment adviser controlling, controlled by or under common control with IIL, DSL or IIM (each an Adviser and together the Advisers), ING Funds Distributor, LLC (IFD) and ING Investors Trust, ING Partners, Inc., ING Mutual Funds, ING Series Funds, Inc., and ING Strategic Allocation Portfolios, Inc. and certain series thereof (collectively, the Trusts), and each existing or future registered open-end management investment company or series thereof that is part of the same group of investment companies within the meaning of Section 12(d)(1)(G)(ii) of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (1940 Act) as the Trusts and that is advised by an Adviser, (each a Fund, and collectively, the Funds, and together with the Trusts, Advisers, and IFD, the Applicants) hereby apply for an order from the Securities and Exchange Commission (Commission) pursuant to Section 6(c) of the 1940 Act for an exemption from Section 12(d)(1)(G) of the 1940 Act.⁽¹⁾ Applicants request the exemption to the extent necessary to permit any Fund that operates as a fund of funds and which invests in other funds in reliance on Section 12(d)(1)(G) of the 1940 Act and which is also eligible to invest in securities (as defined in Section 2(a)(36) of the 1940 Act) in reliance on Rule 12d1-2 under the 1940 Act, to also invest, to the extent consistent with its investment objective, policies, strategies and

(1) Every existing entity that currently intends to rely on the requested order is named as an applicant. Any existing or future entity that relies on the requested order will do so only in accordance with the terms and conditions in this application.

limitations, in financial instruments that may not be securities within the meaning of Section 2(a)(36) of the 1940 Act (Other Investments).

II. APPLICANTS

A. The Trusts and the Funds

ING Investors Trust is organized as a Massachusetts business trust. ING Mutual Funds is a Delaware statutory trust. Each of ING Partners, Inc., ING Series Funds, Inc. and ING Strategic Allocation Portfolios, Inc., is a Maryland corporation. Each aforementioned entity is registered under the 1940 Act as an open-end management investment company and is organized as a series investment company.(2)

The Trusts offer separate series that may invest in other registered investment companies in reliance on Section 12(d)(1)(G) of the 1940 Act and Rule 12d1-2 under the 1940 Act. These Funds(3) may invest directly in non-investment company securities in

(2) It is intended that the order requested herein apply to any Fund regardless of its form or state of organization, as this factor is not relevant to the relief requested. The Funds reserve the right to, and may, from time to time, reorganize to change their form of organization, under the laws of the same or another jurisdiction, consistent with applicable state and federal law and their Declaration of Trust, Trust Instrument, or By-Laws, as the case may be. Any such reorganization shall be restricted to change of domicile or form of organization or mergers or similar transactions with another Fund. Applicants request that the requested order apply to the Funds' successors in interest that result from such reorganizations and that remain Funds. Except as otherwise noted here, references to Funds and Board of Trustees shall be deemed to apply to any partnership or business trust, or a similar partnership or business trust organized in the future that subsequently reorganizes to another form.

(3) As of the date of this application, the current Funds include: ING Franklin Templeton Founding Strategy Portfolio, ING LifeStyle Aggressive Growth Portfolio, ING LifeStyle Growth Portfolio, ING LifeStyle Moderate Growth Portfolio, ING LifeStyle Moderate Portfolio, ING LifeStyle Conservative, ING American Funds World Allocation Portfolio, and ING Oppenheimer Active Asset Allocation Portfolio each a series of ING Investors Trust; ING Solution 2015 Portfolio, ING Solution 2025 Portfolio, ING Solution 2035 Portfolio, ING Solution 2045 Portfolio, ING Solution Income Portfolio, ING Solution Growth Portfolio, ING Solution Growth and Income Portfolio, ING Index Solution 2015 Portfolio, ING Index Solution 2025 Portfolio, ING Index Solution 2035 Portfolio, ING Index Solution 2045 Portfolio, and ING Index Solution Income Portfolio each a series of ING Partners, Inc.; ING Diversified International Fund, a series of ING Mutual Funds; ING Global Income Builder Fund, ING Strategic Allocation Conservative Fund, ING Strategic Allocation Growth Fund, ING Strategic Allocation Moderate Fund, each a series of ING Series Funds, Inc.; and ING VP Strategic Allocation Conservative Portfolio, ING VP Strategic Allocation Growth Portfolio, and ING VP Strategic Allocation Moderate Portfolio, each a series of ING Strategic Allocation Portfolios, Inc.

reliance on Rule 12d1-2(a)(2) to the extent consistent with their respective investment objectives, policies, strategies and limitations.

B. The Advisers

Each of IIL, DSL and IIM currently serves as an investment adviser or sub-adviser to the appropriate Funds. Each Adviser is an investment adviser registered under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended (Advisers Act). Any future Adviser will be registered under the Advisers Act .

IIL is an Arizona limited liability company organized in December 1994 and serves as investment adviser to approximately 70 registered investment companies and/or their series.

DSL is a Delaware limited liability company organized in 1988 and serves as investment adviser to approximately 65 registered investment companies and/or their series.

IIM is a Connecticut corporation organized in 1972 and serves as an adviser or sub-adviser to approximately 70 registered investment companies and/or their series.

IIL, DSL and IIM are indirect, wholly owned subsidiaries of ING Groep N.V.

C. The Distributor

IFD is a broker-dealer registered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (1934 Act). IFD is a Delaware corporation and an affiliate of the Advisers. IFD is currently the distributor of the Funds.

III. THE PROPOSED TRANSACTIONS

Each Fund invests in certain underlying funds as set forth in its prospectus. Applicants propose that, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this application, the Funds be permitted to invest in Other Investments. The opportunity to invest in Other Investments will allow the Funds greater flexibility to seek to meet their investment objectives than is possible through the more limited kinds of investments expressly permitted by Rule 12d1-2(a)(2) (e.g., stocks, bonds and other securities that are not issued by an investment company). In addition, there may be times when using a derivative may allow a Fund to invest in eligible asset classes with greater efficiency and at a lower cost than is possible through investment in an underlying fund. Each Fund would use Other Investments for a purpose that is consistent with the Fund's investment objectives, policies, strategies and limitations. The Adviser believes that its ability to use the fund of funds structure in combination with direct investments in securities and Other Investments will allow it to create more diversified investment products for a wide variety of mutual fund investors.

Consistent with their fiduciary obligations under the 1940 Act, each Fund's board of trustees or board of directors will review the advisory fees charged by the Fund's adviser to ensure that they are based on services provided that are in addition to, rather than duplicative of, services provided pursuant to the advisory investment agreement of any investment company in which the Fund may invest.

IV. LEGAL ANALYSIS

Section 12(d)(1)(A) of the 1940 Act provides that no registered investment company may acquire securities of another investment company if such securities represent more than 3% of the acquired fund's outstanding voting stock or more than 5% of the acquiring fund's total assets, or if such securities, together with the securities of other investment companies, represent more than 10% of the acquiring fund's total assets.

Section 12(d)(1)(B) of the 1940 Act provides that no registered open-end investment company may sell its securities to another investment company if the sale will cause the acquiring fund to own more than 3% of the acquired fund's voting stock, or cause more than 10% of the acquired fund's voting stock to be owned by the acquiring fund and other investment companies and companies controlled by them.

In 1996 Congress added Section 12(d)(1)(G) to the 1940 Act to permit the operation of funds of funds involving investment companies which are part of the same group of investment companies, which is defined in Section 12(d)(1)(G)(ii) as any two or more registered investment companies that hold themselves out to investors as related companies for purposes of investment and investor services.

Section 12(d)(1)(G)(i) provides, in relevant part, that Section 12(d)(1) will not apply to securities of a registered open-end investment company or registered unit investment trust if:

(I) the acquired company and the acquiring company are part of the same group of investment companies;

(II) the securities of the acquired company, securities of other registered open-end investment companies and registered unit investment trusts that are part of the same group of investment companies, Government securities, and short-term paper are the only investments held by the acquiring company;

(III) with respect to

(aa) securities of the acquired company, the acquiring company does not pay and is not assessed any charges or fees for distribution-related activities, unless the acquiring company does not charge a sales load or other fees or charges for distribution related activities; or

(bb) securities of the acquiring company, any sales loads and other distribution-related fees charged, when aggregated with any sales load and distribution-related fees paid by the acquiring company with respect to securities of the acquired company, are not excessive under rules adopted pursuant to section 22(b) or section 22(c) by a securities association registered under section 15A of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, or the Commission; [and]

(IV) the acquired company has a policy that prohibits it from acquiring any securities of registered open-end investment companies or registered unit investment trusts in reliance on this subparagraph or subparagraph (F).

In 2006 the Commission adopted Rule 12d1-2 under the 1940 Act.⁽⁴⁾ That rule permits a registered open-end investment company or a registered unit investment trust relying on Section 12(d)(1)(G) of the 1940 Act to acquire:

(1) Securities issued by an investment company, other than securities issued by another registered investment company that is in the same group of investment companies, when the acquisition is in reliance on Section 12(d)(1)(A) or 12(d)(1)(F) of the Act;

(2) Securities (other than securities issued by an investment company); and

(3) Securities issued by a money market fund, when the acquisition is in reliance on Rule 12d1-1.

For the purposes of Rule 12d1-2, the term securities means any security as that term is defined in Section 2(a)(36) of the 1940 Act.⁽⁵⁾ The Commission noted in the Adopting Release that permitting an affiliated fund of funds to invest, consistent with the fund's investment policies, directly in stocks, bonds, and other types of securities would allow an acquiring fund greater flexibility in meeting investment objectives that may not be met as well by investments in other funds in the same fund group, while not presenting any additional concerns that Section 12(d)(1)(G) was intended to address. ⁽⁶⁾ The passage of the rule also reflects the Commission's response to Congress' expectation that the Commission will use this authority [set forth in Section 12(d)(1)(J)] to adopt rules and process exemptive applications in the fund of funds area in a progressive way as the fund of funds concept continues to evolve over time. (7)

Section 6(c) of the 1940 Act provides a means for the Commission to respond to developments in the financial markets not specifically contemplated when the 1940 Act was passed or subsequently amended.⁽⁸⁾ It gives the Commission the flexibility to grant exemptions from particular provisions of the 1940 Act or any rule thereunder in cases where, for example, new products face regulatory restrictions, so long as an exemption is necessary or appropriate, is in the public interest, is consistent with the protection of investors, and is consistent with the policy and provisions of the 1940 Act. Section 6(c) provides as follows:

The Commission, by order upon application, may conditionally or unconditionally exempt any person, security, or transaction, or any class or classes of persons, securities, or transactions, from any provision or provisions of [the 1940 Act] or of any rule or regulation thereunder, if and to the extent that such exemption is necessary or appropriate in the public interest and consistent with the protection of investors and the purposes fairly intended by the policy and provisions of [the 1940 Act].

Applicants believe that permitting the Funds to invest in Other Investments would not raise any of the concerns that Section 12(d)(1) of the 1940 Act as originally adopted and as amended in 1970 was intended to address, namely: (1) pyramiding of voting control of the underlying funds; (2) undue influence over portfolio management of underlying funds through the threat of large scale redemptions, (3) unnecessary duplication of costs (such as sales loads, advisory fees and administrative costs); and (4)

(7) See H.R. REP. No. 622, 104th Cong., 2nd Sess., at 43-44 (1996).

(8) See, e.g., Trust Fund Sponsored by The Scholarship Club, Inc., 1940 Act Rel. No. 5524 (Oct. 25, 1968) (The broad exemptive power provided in Section 6(c) was designed to enable [the Commission] to deal equitably with situations which could not be foreseen at the time the legislation was enacted.); Sisto Financial Corp., 1940 Act Rel. No. 923 (July 16, 1946) (Section 6(c) is intended to deal with situations unforeseen at the time of the passage of the Act and unprovided for elsewhere in the Act).

complex pyramidal structures that may be confusing to investors.⁽⁹⁾ Section 12(d)(1)(G) reflects a determination by Congress that certain fund of funds arrangements do not raise the concerns underlying the prohibitions in Sections 12(d)(1)(A) and (B). Section 12(d)(1)(G) addresses these concerns by requiring that the acquiring and the acquired fund be part of the same group of investment companies, limiting charges and fees of the acquiring fund and acquired fund and requiring that the acquired fund not act as a fund of funds itself. The approval of Rule 12d1-2 demonstrates a determination by the Commission that fund of funds investments in stocks, bonds and other types of securities that are not issued by registered investment companies do not raise any of the concerns that Section 12(d)(1)(G) was intended to address.

Likewise, permitting the Funds to invest in Other Investments in furtherance of their investment objectives, policies, strategies and limitations as requested herein will not raise any of the concerns underlying the prohibitions in Sections 12(d)(1)(A) and (B). Instead, this additional flexibility will provide the Funds a broader array of investment options through which to pursue their investment objectives.

V. PRECEDENTS FOR RELIEF

The Commission has previously granted exemptive relief authorizing registered investment companies relying on Section 12(d)(1)(G) and Rule 12d1-2 to invest in Other Investments. See, Wells Fargo Funds Trust, et al., File No. 812-13548, 1940 Act Rel. VI. CONDITION FOR RELIEF

Applicants agree that any order granting the requested relief will be subject to the following condition:

1. Applicants will comply with all provisions of Rule 12d1-2 under the 1940 Act, except for paragraph (a)(2) to the extent that it restricts any Fund from investing in Other Investments as described in the application.

VII. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

All actions necessary to authorize the execution and filing of this Application have been taken, and the persons signing and filing this Application are authorized to do so. Copies of the resolutions authorizing the filing of this Application or other statements of authority as required by Rule 0-2(c)(1) under the Act are attached as Exhibits A-1 through A-5 to the Application.

The verifications required by Rule 0-2(d) under the 1940 Act are attached hereto as Exhibits B-1 through B-5 of this application.

(10) These applicants were granted an exemption from Rule 12d1-2(a) to invest in futures contracts, options on futures contracts, swap agreements, derivatives and other financial instruments that may not be securities within the meaning of section 2(a)(36) of the Act, in addition to underlying funds. See Investment Company Act Rel. No. IC-28482, 2008 SEC LEXIS 2441 (Oct. 31, 2008), at *2-3; Investment Company Act Rel.
