PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

The management of Cogdell Spencer Inc. (the Company) has determined that the Company is unable to file within the prescribed time period, without unreasonable effort or expense, its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the period ended December 31, 2011 (the 2011 Form 10-K), because management needs additional time to consider its compliance with the financial covenants contained in its credit agreements if the Merger (defined below) does not close by the end of the second quarter 2012. Furthermore, the Company requires additional time to finalize its financial statements and related disclosures while it simultaneously pursues various options to address the short-term liquidity issues facing the Company, as summarized below.

As previously disclosed, on March 9, 2012, the stockholders of the Company approved the merger (the Merger) of the Company with TH Merger Corp, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of healthcare real estate investment trust Ventas, Inc. The Merger is anticipated to be completed early in the second quarter of 2012. The Company is currently in compliance with the financial covenants contained in the credit agreements for its revolving credit facility and its term loan facility. However, if the Merger is not completed when it is currently expected to or at all, the Company may not be able to comply with at least one of its financial covenants at some point during the next 12 months.

Should the Merger not close before the end of the second quarter 2012, the Company would seek to improve the Company's financial position in the event that the Merger is not completed, including the waiver or amendment of certain financial covenants to which the Company is subject. To this end, the Company intends to seek waivers, amendments or other relief from its creditors to the extent possible. Although we cannot assure you that any such waiver or amendment would be achieved, we believe that because any such potential default would be a non-monetary default, it would be attainable. The votes of lenders holding a majority of the loans would be required to obtain such a waiver or amendment.

At this time, the Company is in the process of determining the impact on its consolidated financial statements from the potential waivers, amendments or other relief from its creditors.

There can be no assurance that the Company's independent registered public accounting firm will not include in their audit report an explanatory paragraph indicating substantial doubt as to the Company's ability to continue as a going concern.

CAUTION REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

We have made forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act), in this filing. The words believes, anticipates, plans, expects, intends, estimates, seeks, may and similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that could cause our actual results, performance and achievements, to differ materially from any future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Certain factors that could cause actual events not to occur as expressed in the forward-looking statement include among others: the occurrence of any event, change or other circumstances that could give rise to the termination of the merger agreement with Ventas, Inc. or the stock purchase agreement with Madison

Edgar Filing: Cogdell Spencer Inc. - Form NT 10-K

DB Acquisition, LLC; the outcome of any legal proceedings that have been, or will be, instituted against the Company related to the merger agreement or the stock purchase agreement; the inability to complete the merger due to the failure to satisfy any conditions to completion of the merger or stock purchase; the inability to obtain waivers or amendments of certain financial covenants to which the Company is subject under its credit agreements or find alternative sources of financing; the effects of local and national economic, credit and capital market conditions on the economy in general, and other risks and uncertainties described herein, as well as those risks and uncertainties discussed from time to time in our other reports and other public filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC).

Although we presently believe that the plans, expectations and results expressed in or suggested by the forward-looking statements are reasonable, all forward-looking statements are inherently subjective, uncertain and subject to change, as they involve substantial risks and uncertainties beyond our control. New factors emerge from time to time, and it is not possible for us to predict the nature, or assess the potential impact, of each new factor on our business. Given these uncertainties, we caution you not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements. We undertake no obligation to update or revise any of our forward-looking statements for events or circumstances that arise after the statement is made, except as otherwise may be required by law. This list of risks and uncertainties, however, is only a summary of some of the most important factors and is not intended to be exhaustive. Additional information regarding risk factors that may affect us is included under the caption Risk Factors in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2010.
