Item 5.04 Temporary Suspension of Trading Under Registrant's Employee Benefit Plans

On December 22, 2016, MFA Financial, Inc. (the Company) sent a notice to participants informing them that, in order to implement a transition to a new trustee and record keeper for the MFA Financial, Inc. 401(k) Savings Plan (the Plan), Plan participants and beneficiaries will be unable to direct or diversify the investments in their Plan accounts (including shares of the Company's common stock or other Company securities) or obtain a loan or distribution from the Plan during the period beginning January 26, 2017 and ending on or before March 1, 2017 (the Blackout Period). This Blackout Period will be in addition to other blackout periods imposed by the Company.

On December 22, 2016, the Company sent a notice of Blackout Period (the D&O Blackout Period Notice) to the members of its board of directors and executive officers pursuant to Section 306 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and Section 104 of Regulation BTR adopted under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, informing them that they would be prohibited during the Blackout Period from purchasing or selling shares of the Company's common stock and preferred stock and senior notes (including derivative securities pertaining to such securities) that they acquire or have previously acquired in connection with their service or employment as a director or executive officer of the Company.

A copy of the D&O Blackout Period Notice is attached as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated by reference. During the Blackout Period and for a period of two years after the ending date of the Blackout Period, security holders or other interested persons may obtain, without charge, information about the actual beginning and ending dates of the Blackout Period and other information regarding the Blackout Period by contacting the Investor Relations department of the Company by telephone at 212-207-6488, or in writing, at 350 Park Avenue, 20th Floor, New York, New York 10022.
