Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

(e) On July 19, 2018, the Compensation Committee (the "Committee") of the Board of Directors of NETGEAR, Inc. (the "Company"), in connection with a periodic review of executive compensation and benefits, approved a plan to enter into updated change in control and severance agreements with the Company's Chief Executive Officer ("CEO") and each of the Company's other executive officers. The following is a summary of the terms approved by the Committee, which will be set forth in new change in control and severance agreements that the Company expects to enter into with each executive officer.

Upon a termination without cause or resignation with good reason, executive officers would be entitled to (1) cash severance equal to the executive officer's annual base salary, and, for the CEO, an additional amount equal to his target annual bonus, (2) 12 months of health benefits continuation and (3) accelerated vesting of any unvested equity awards that would have vested during the 12 months following the termination date.

Upon a termination without cause or resignation with good reason that occurs during the one month prior to or 12 months following a change in control of the Company, executive officers would be entitled to (1) cash severance equal to a multiple (2x for the CEO and 1x for all other executive officers) of the sum of the executive officer's annual base salary and target annual bonus, (2) a number of months (24 for the CEO and 12 for other executive officers) of health benefits continuation and (3) accelerated vesting of all outstanding, unvested equity awards. Severance will be conditioned upon the execution and non-revocation of a release of claims. The change in control and severance agreements will not provide for any excise tax gross ups.

The Company will publicly file copies of the final change in control and severance agreements with the appropriate report following execution by the Company and the respective executive officers.
