Item 1.02. Termination of a Material Definitive Agreement

On January 22, 2009, Mesa Air Group, Inc. (the "Company") announced, among other things, that it had entered into separate exchange agreements with a limited number of holders of its Senior Convertible Notes Due 2024 (the "2024 Notes") to exchange certain 2024 Notes for consideration consisting of a combination of cash, the Company's common stock, no par value (the "Common Stock"), and the Company's new 8% senior unsecured notes due 2012 (the "2012 Notes"). The issuance of the Common Stock and 2012 Notes in the exchange was originally expected to close on or around February 10, 2009, and is exempt from registration under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, pursuant to Section 3(a)(9) and Section 4(2) thereof.

In response to a recent regulatory inquiry regarding such exchange agreements, the Company has advised each of the parties to these agreements of its intent to rescind the same. As a result, holders of the 2024 Notes who entered into an exchange agreement with the Company will have the right to require the Company to purchase their respective 2024 Notes in accordance with the original terms of the Indenture governing such Notes and related offer to exchange materials, as amended. The Company may not resume discussions with such Note holders until on or after February 11, 2009. No assurances can be given that the Company will be able to enter into agreements with such holders on terms similar to the previously announced exchange agreements or at all, that the such Note holders won't elect to require the Company to purchase their 2024 Notes in accordance with the terms of the Indenture, or that such Note holders won't dispute the Company's right to rescind such agreements.

The full text of the Company's press release announcing the transaction and including certain cautionary information regarding forward-looking statements is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is hereby incorporated by reference into this Form 8-K.
