ITEM 4. CHANGES IN REGISTRANT'S CERTIFYING ACCOUNTANT

By letter dated January 10, 2003, Clancy and Co., P.L.L.C, the independent accountant that was previously engaged as the principal accountant to audit the registrant's financial statements, resigned. As of April 15, 2003, a new independent accountant has not been engaged by the board of directors to audit the registrant's financial statements. However, the board of directors is engaged in discussions/negotiations with a new independent account concerning the terms of the arrangement, but no agreement or understanding has been reached.

The former principal accountant's report on the financial statements for each of the last two fiscal years did not contain an adverse opinion or a disclaimer of opinion and was not modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles.

There were no disagreements with the former principal accountant on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure or auditing scope or procedure. The registrant has authorized the former principal accountant to respond fully to any inquiries of the successor principal accountant. The registrant did not consult with the successor principal accountant regarding any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure or auditing scope or procedure prior to its engagement.

The former principal accountant has reviewed the disclosures made in response to Item 304 of Regulation S-K, included herein, and has furnished the registrant with a letter addressed to the SEC stating whether it agrees with the statements made by the registrant and, if not, stating the respects in which it does not agree.

The registrant has filed the letter furnished by the former principal accountant as an exhibit to this report, as amended.
