Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

Item 502(d) Election of New Directors

On September 20, 2007, FuelCell Energy, Inc. (the “Company”), appointed two (2) new directors to the Board of Directors (the “Board”), Glenn H. Epstein and Richard A. Bromley. Mr. Epstein, age 49, was previously Chairman and CEO of Intermagnetics General Corporation (“Intermagnetics”), and Mr. Bromley, age 72, recently retired as Vice President - Law and Government Affairs of AT&T.

Mr. Epstein began his career as an engineer at General Electric before moving to the United Kingdom to take on progressive management roles with Oxford Instruments plc. He was recruited to Intermagnetics in 1997 as President and Chief Operating Officer, took over as CEO in 1999 and was elected Chairman in 2002. Mr. Epstein led Intermagnetics through multiple years of high growth and expansion until negotiating the sale of Intermagnetics to Royal Philips for $1.3 billion last year. He recently left Royal Philips after leading a successful integration of the two (2) companies’ MR imaging businesses.

Mr. Bromley began his career at the law firm of Riddell, Riddell & Williams in Seattle, Washington, before joining AT&T as counsel in 1965. During his 38-year career at AT&T, he served as an attorney for Pacific Northwest Bell, Western Electric, Bell Labs, and as a general attorney in AT&T's New York headquarters. As Vice President -Law and Government Affairs, Mr. Bromley was responsible for all of AT&T's legal, regulatory and governmental matters west of the Mississippi. He is a member of the bar in California, New York, Washington, and Oregon, as well as the United States Supreme Court.

The Company issued a press release on September 25, 2007 announcing Mr. Epstein and Mr. Bromley’s appointment to the Board. A copy of the Company’s press release is attached to this report as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.
