Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

On September 25, 2008, Jack B. Dunn IV, a member of the board of directors of NexCen Brands, Inc. (the “Company”), resigned from his position as a director and as a member of the Company’s compensation committee and nominating and corporate governance committee.

In connection with Mr. Dunn’s resignation, the board of directors by resolution reduced the size of the board from seven members to six and appointed Paul Caine as a member of the Company’s nominating and corporate governance committee to fill one of the vacancies left by Mr. Dunn. The board further concluded that, in light of the Company’s announced restructuring plans and intentions to sell the Waverly and Bill Blass businesses, and the fact that the intended business relationship between Marvin Traub and the Company did not materialize as anticipated, Mr. Traub should be considered an independent director. As disclosed previously in the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K/A filed on April 29, 2008, Mr. Traub was eligible to be considered independent under Nasdaq’s independence standards. After the conclusion of such determination, the board appointed Mr. Traub as a member of the Company’s compensation committee to fill the remaining vacancy left by Mr. Dunn.

A copy of the press release announcing Mr. Dunn’s resignation is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.
