Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On July 25, 2012, Navidea Biopharmaceuticals, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the “Company”), entered into a Loan Agreement (the “Loan Agreement”) with Platinum-Montaur Life Sciences LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (“Montaur”), pursuant to which Montaur agreed to make a non-revolving draw credit facility available to the Company in an initial aggregate principal amount of $15,000,000 (the “Draw Credit Maximum Amount”). Contemporaneously with the execution of the Loan Agreement the Company delivered a Promissory Note, dated July 25, 2012, to Montaur (the “Note”). Pursuant to the terms of the Loan Agreement and the Note, the Company may make an aggregate principal amount of draws which do not exceed the Draw Credit Maximum Amount. The Company may not re-borrow the amount of any repaid draw. The Draw Credit Maximum Amount available pursuant to the Loan Agreement will increase from $15,000,000 to $35,000,000, without further action or approval by Montaur, upon the approval by the United States Food and Drug Administration (the “FDA”) of the Company’s new drug application for Lymphoseek®, the Company’s novel radiopharmaceutical imaging agent intended for use by surgeons in lymphatic mapping procedures associated with solid tumor cancers. At any time following the approval of the new drug application for Lymphoseek by the FDA, Montaur may, in its sole discretion, increase the Draw Credit Maximum Amount to a maximum of $50,000,000, subject to (1) the execution by the Company of an additional promissory note in form satisfactory to Montaur and (2) to the Company’s grant of collateral satisfactory to Montaur to secure the Company’s obligations under the Loan Agreement. The principal balance of each draw made under the Loan Agreement will bear interest from the applicable draw date at a rate equal to the greater of: (1) the United States prime rate as reported in The Wall Street Journal (the “Prime Rate”) plus 6.75%; (2) 10.0%; and (3) the highest rate of interest then payable by the Borrower pursuant to the Loan and Security Agreement, dated as of December 29, 2011, by and between the Company and Hercules Technology II L.P., and the “Loan Documents” referred to therein, plus 0.125%. Interest payable by the Company will compound monthly.

The Company will make interest-only payments on the principal amount due in connection with each draw on the first business day of each month until the maturity date for such draw. With respect to each draw, the maturity date will occur on the earlier of (1) the day that is two years following the day such draw was funded by Montaur and (2) June 30, 2016. The Company has the right to permanently prepay any draw, in whole or in part. Montaur may accelerate the payment terms of all outstanding draws upon the occurrence of certain events of default set forth and described in the Loan Agreement.

The foregoing description of the terms of the Loan Agreement and the Note is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of each of the Loan Agreement and the Note, copies of which are attached hereto as Exhibits 10.1 and 10.2, respectively, and each of which is incorporated herein in its entirety by reference.

The contents of Item 1.01 are incorporated by reference into this item.

Item 8.01. Other Events.

On July 26, 2012, the Company issued a press release announcing that Montaur will provide the Company a credit facility of up to $50,000,000.
