This prospectus relates to the securities of Sequential Brands Group, Inc., a Delaware corporation, formerly named Singer Madeline Holdings, Inc. On December 4, 2015, we completed certain transactions described in this prospectus as a result of which our predecessor companies, SQBG, Inc. (formerly known as Sequential Brands Group, Inc.) (“Old Sequential”) and Martha Stewart Living Omnimedia, Inc. (“MSLO”), became wholly-owned subsidiaries of ours and ceased to be publicly-traded companies. As a result of these transactions, among other things, the prior stockholders of MSLO received cash and shares of our common stock and the prior stockholders of Old Sequential received shares of our common stock.

This prospectus relates to the resale of up to (i) 20,252,375 shares of our common stock, issued by us concurrently with the closing of the mergers, to certain of our stockholders in unregistered transactions; (ii) up to 1,375,000 shares to be delivered on February 15, 2016 in connection with our acquisition of Galaxy Brand Holdings, Inc.; (iii) warrants to purchase up to 3,000,000 shares of our common stock, at an exercise price of $11.20 per share; and (iv) the shares of our common stock issuable upon exercise of the warrants. In each case, the number of shares is subject to adjustment for stock splits, stock dividends or similar transactions.

The common stock and warrants covered by this prospectus may be offered for sale from time to time by the selling stockholders named in this prospectus or in a prospectus supplement. Such shares of common stock and warrants offered by the selling stockholders in this prospectus are being registered to permit the selling stockholders to sell such shares of common stock and warrants from time to time. The selling stockholders may offer and sell such shares of common stock and warrants at fixed prices, prevailing market price, at the time of sale prices related to the prevailing market prices, varying prices determined at the times of sale or negotiated prices. Such shares of our common stock and warrants may be offered by the selling stockholders directly to investors or to or through underwriters, dealers or other agents. We do not know when or in what amounts the selling stockholders may offer such shares of common stock or warrants for sale. The selling stockholders may sell all, some or none of the shares of common stock or warrants offered by this prospectus. Please see the section titled “Plan of Distribution” for a more complete description of how the common stock and warrants offered by this prospectus may be sold.

In the event of a stock split, stock dividend or similar transaction involving our common stock, in order to prevent dilution, the number of shares of our common stock registered by this registration statement shall be increased automatically to cover additional shares. The warrants, but not the shares of common stock issuable upon the exercise of the warrants, are subject to transfer restrictions other than to the limited persons specified therein. Please see the section titled “Description of Warrants” for a more complete description of the terms of the warrants.

We will not receive any of the proceeds from the shares of our common stock or warrants sold by the selling stockholders.

Our common stock (the “common stock”) is currently listed on the Nasdaq Stock Market (the “Nasdaq”), under the symbol “SQBG.” On December 3, 2015, the last reported sale price of our common stock on the Nasdaq was $9.00.

PROSPECTUS SUMMARY

The following summary highlights information contained elsewhere in this prospectus. It does not contain all the information that may be important to you in making an investment decision. Our Business

We own a portfolio of consumer brands in the fashion, active and lifestyle categories. We promote, market and license these brands and intend to pursue acquisitions of additional brands or rights to brands. We have licensed and intend to license our brands in a variety of categories to retailers, wholesalers and distributors in the United States and in certain international territories. As of September 30, 2015, we had more than 100 licensees, almost all of which are wholesale licensees. In a wholesale license, a wholesale supplier is granted rights (typically on an exclusive basis) to a single or small group of related product categories for sale to multiple accounts within an approved channel of distribution and territory. Also, as part of our business strategy, we have previously entered into (and expect in the future to enter into) direct-to-retail licenses. In a direct-to-retail license, a single retailer is granted the right (typically on an exclusive basis) to sell branded products in a broad range of product categories through its brick and mortar stores and e-commerce sites. Our objective is to build a diversified portfolio of consumer brands in various categories by growing our existing portfolio and by acquiring new brands.

Old Sequential was incorporated under the laws of the State of Delaware in 1982 and Holdings was incorporated under the laws of the State of Delaware in 2015. Following consummation of the mergers, Holdings changed its name to Sequential Brands Group, Inc. and assumed Old Sequential’s listing on the Nasdaq Stock Market (the “Nasdaq”), under the symbol “SQBG,” while Old Sequential and MSLO will cease to be publicly traded companies and will instead be our wholly-owned subsidiaries.

Our principal offices are located at 5 Bryant Park, 30th Floor, New York, NY 10018 and our telephone number is (646) 564-2577. Our corporate website address is www.sequentialbrandsgroup.com. On December 4, 2015, we consummated the acquisition of MSLO, as contemplated by the Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “MSLO Merger Agreement”), dated as of June 22, 2015, among us, certain of our wholly-owned subsidiaries, and Old Sequential and MSLO. As a result of the mergers, all outstanding equity interests held by MSLO stockholders and optionholders were converted into the right to receive a pro rata portion of the transaction consideration, consisting in the aggregate of (i) $176,681,757.15 in cash and (ii) 20,017,575 shares of common stock, subject to rounding. Subject to the terms and conditions of the MSLO Merger Agreement (i) Madeline Merger Sub, a Delaware corporation that was newly formed as a wholly-owned subsidiary of Holdings, was merged with and into MSLO, with MSLO surviving as our wholly-owned subsidiary and (ii) Singer Merger Sub, a Delaware corporation that was newly formed as a wholly-owned subsidiary of Holdings, was merged with and into Old Sequential, with Old Sequential surviving the merger as our wholly-owned subsidiary. As a result of the mergers, among other things, (a) we became the ultimate parent of each of MSLO and Old Sequential and their respective subsidiaries and (b) MSLO stockholders received, for each share of MSLO common stock they owned as of immediately prior to the mergers, shares of our common stock or cash and Old Sequential stockholders received shares of our common stock, each in accordance with the terms of the MSLO Merger Agreement. The terms and conditions of the MSLO Merger Agreement are described in greater detail in Old Sequential’s Current Report on Form 8-K, filed with the SEC on June 23, 2015, which is incorporated by reference into this prospectus.

Joe’s Jeans Acquisition

On September 11, 2015, we completed the acquisition of certain intellectual property assets from Joe’s Jeans Inc. (we refer to such assets as the “Joe’s Jeans business”). The assets used or held for use in Joe’s Jeans’ business operated under the brand names “Joe’s Jeans,” “Joe’s,” “Joe’s JD” and “else.” The terms and conditions of the transaction (the “Joe’s Jeans acquisition”) are more fully described in Old Sequential’s Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the SEC on September 14, 2015, as amended, which is incorporated by reference into this prospectus.

With You Acquisition

On April 8, 2015, we completed the acquisition of With You, Inc. and Corny Dog, Inc. (together, the “With You” businesses). In the transaction (the “With You acquisition”), we acquired a majority interest in the intellectual property rights associated with the With You businesses and other rights. Founded in 2005, the With You businesses comprise a signature lifestyle concept inspired by and designed in collaboration with Jessica Simpson offering 34 product categories including footwear, apparel, fragrance, fashion accessories, maternity apparel, girl’s clothing and a home line. The With You businesses are supported by over 20 best-in-class licensees and has strong department store distribution through Dillard’s, Macy’s, Belk, Lord & Taylor and Nordstrom, among other independent retailers. The terms and conditions of the transaction are more fully described in Old Sequential’s Current Reports on Form 8-K filed with the SEC on April 7, 2015 and April 14, 2015, as amended, which are incorporated by reference into this prospectus.

Galaxy Acquisition

On August 15, 2014, we consummated the acquisition of Galaxy Brand Holdings, Inc. (“Galaxy”), as contemplated by the Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Galaxy Merger Agreement”), dated as of June 24, 2014, among Old Sequential, certain of its wholly-owned subsidiaries, Galaxy, Carlyle Equity Opportunity GP, L.P. as the representative of the Galaxy stockholders and optionholders (the “Stockholder Representative”) and, for the limited purposes specified therein, Carlyle Galaxy Holdings, L.P. As a result of the acquisition of Galaxy, all outstanding equity interests held by Galaxy stockholders and optionholders were converted into the right to receive a pro rata portion of the transaction consideration, consisting in the aggregate of (i) $100,000,000 in cash, subject to certain adjustments, (ii) 13,750,000 shares of common stock, and (iii) warrants to purchase up to an additional 3,000,000 shares of common stock, subject to adjustment for stock splits, stock dividends or similar transactions. Pursuant to the terms of the Galaxy Merger Agreement, of the 13,750,000 shares of common stock issuable as part of the transaction consideration, 1,375,000 shares will not be delivered prior to February 15, 2016, as described in greater detail in the section titled “Selling Stockholders” beginning on page 12 of this prospectus. In addition, the 3,000,000 warrant shares are subject to certain vesting criteria based on the performance of the Linens’n Things® brand during the 2016 and 2017 calendar years, as set forth in the form of warrant, which is attached as an exhibit to the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part. SUMMARY UNAUDITED PRO FORMA CONDENSED COMBINED FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The following table shows summary unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information, referred to as the summary pro forma financial information, about our financial condition and results of operations, after giving effect to the mergers and our acquisitions of MSLO, Galaxy, the With You businesses and the Joe's Jeans business, in each case prepared using the acquisition method of accounting with Sequential considered the accounting acquirer.

The summary unaudited pro forma condensed combined balance sheet data, referred to as the summary pro forma balance sheet, combines the unaudited historical condensed consolidated financial position of Old Sequential and MSLO as of September 30, 2015, giving effect to the mergers and our acquisitions of MSLO as if it had been consummated on September 30, 2015.

The summary unaudited pro forma condensed combined statements of operations data for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2014 and for the nine months ended September 30, 2015 assumes that the mergers and our acquisitions of MSLO, Galaxy, the With You businesses and the Joe's Jeans business each took place on January 1, 2014, the beginning of our most recently completed fiscal year. Old Sequential's audited historical condensed consolidated operating results have been combined with MSLO's and the With You businesses' audited historical condensed combined operating results for the year ended December 31, 2014, the Joe's Jeans business' audited historical condensed combined operating results for the year ended November 30, 2014 and Galaxy's unaudited consolidated operating results for the period from January 1, 2014 through August 15, 2014. Old Sequential's unaudited historical condensed consolidated operating results have been combined with MSLO's unaudited historical condensed consolidated operating results for the nine months ended September 30, 2015, the With You businesses' unaudited historical condensed consolidated operating results for the period from January 1, 2015 through April 8, 2015 and the Joe's Jeans business' unaudited historical condensed consolidated operating results for the nine months ended August 31, 2015. The summary unaudited pro forma condensed combined statement of operations data for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2014 and the summary unaudited pro forma condensed combined statement of operations data for the nine months ended September 30, 2015 are collectively referred to as the summary pro forma statements of operations.

The summary pro forma information does not reflect the impact of possible revenue or earnings enhancements or cost savings from operating efficiencies or synergies from the mergers. Also, the summary pro forma information does not reflect possible adjustments related to restructuring or integration activities that have yet to be determined or transaction or other costs following the mergers that are not expected to have a continuing impact on the business of the combined company. Further, one-time transaction-related expenses anticipated to be incurred prior to, or concurrent with, the closing of the mergers are not included in the summary pro forma statements of operations. However, the impact of such transaction expenses is reflected in the summary pro forma balance sheet as a decrease to retained earnings and as a decrease to cash or increase to debt. In addition, the summary pro forma information does not purport to project the future financial position or operating results of the combined company. Further, results may vary significantly from the results reflected because of various factors, including those discussed under the heading “Risk Factors” beginning on page 9.

The summary pro forma information is presented for illustrative purposes only and are not necessarily indicative of the operating results or financial position that would have occurred if the mergers had been completed as of the beginning of the periods presented, nor are they necessarily indicative of the future operating results or financial position of the combined company following the mergers. In addition, the summary pro forma information includes adjustments which are preliminary and may be revised. There can be no assurance that such revisions will not result in material changes to the information presented.

The summary pro forma information has been derived from and should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and the related notes of Old Sequential and MSLO and the financial statements of Galaxy, the With You businesses and the Joe’s Jeans business, each incorporated herein by reference, and the more detailed unaudited pro forma condensed combined consolidated financial information, including the notes thereto, appearing elsewhere in this prospectus. See “Where You Can Find More Information” beginning on page 20 of this prospectus.

RISK FACTORS

An investment in our common stock involves a high degree of risk. Before making an investment in our common stock, you should carefully consider, with your respective legal counsel, tax and financial advisors and/or accountants, the following risk factors, the risk factors in the Annual Reports on Form 10-K of Old Sequential and MSLO for their years ended December 31, 2014, the subsequent Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q filed by Old Sequential and MSLO, and the other reports we and they file with the SEC, all of which are incorporated by reference herein, as well as the other information contained in this prospectus. If any of the following risks actually occur, our business, financial condition and/or results of operations could be materially and adversely affected. In such an event, the trading price of our common stock could decline, and you could lose part or all of your investment.

Risks Relating to Ownership of Our Warrants

The adjustment to the exercise price for the warrants and the number of shares of common stock underlying each warrant in connection with an anti-dilutive adjustment event may not adequately compensate you for any lost value of your warrants as a result of such transaction.

If a specified corporate event or transaction constituting a dilutive event occurs, under certain circumstances we will adjust the exercise price for warrants and the number of shares of common stock underlying each warrant. The adjustment to the exercise price for warrants and the number of shares of common stock underlying each warrant will be determined based on the date on which the dilutive event occurs or becomes effective. The adjustment to the exercise price for warrants and the number of shares of common stock underlying each warrant in connection with a dilutive event may not adequately compensate you for any lost value of your warrants as a result of such dilutive event.

Under certain circumstances, holders may have to pay U.S. federal income tax as a result of a deemed distribution with respect to our common stock or warrants—even if holders do not receive a corresponding distribution of cash—such as, if we adjust, or fail to adjust, the exercise price of the warrants in certain circumstances.

Holders of our common stock or warrants may be treated as having received a constructive distribution in certain circumstances, for example if we make certain adjustments to (or fail to make adjustments to) the exercise price of the warrants and such adjustment (or failure to make an adjustment) has the effect of increasing the proportionate interest of certain holders in our earnings and profits or assets. Such a distribution could be treated as a taxable dividend or capital gain for U.S. federal income tax purposes even though holders do not receive any cash with respect to such constructive distribution. In addition, you may be subject to U.S. federal withholding tax on any such constructive distribution on our common stock or warrants. You are advised to consult your independent tax advisor regarding the possibility and tax treatment of any deemed distributions for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

Until the exercise of our warrants, holders of the warrants do not have identical rights as holders of our common stock, but they will be subject to all changes made with respect to our common stock.

Holders of warrants are not entitled to any rights with respect to our common stock (including, without limitation, voting rights and rights to receive any dividends or other distributions on our common stock), but they will be subject to all changes affecting our common stock. Holders of our warrants will have rights with respect to our common stock only if they receive our common stock upon exercise of the warrants and only as of the date when such holder becomes a record owner of the shares of our common stock upon such exercise. For example, with respect to warrants, if an amendment is proposed to our certificate of incorporation or bylaws requiring stockholder approval and the record date for determining the stockholders of record entitled to vote on the amendment occurs prior to the date a warrant holder is deemed to be the owner of the shares of our common stock due upon exercise of the warrants, the exercising warrant holder will not be entitled to vote on the amendment, although such holder will nevertheless be subject to any changes in the powers, preferences or special rights of our common stock.

The warrants only become exercisable upon the achievement of certain performance-based metrics relating to the Linens 'n Things® brand and may not vest in full or at all. To the extent that the warrants do vest, the market price of our common stock may or may not exceed the exercise price of the warrants at the time the warrants are exercisable.

The warrants only become exercisable upon the achievement in the 2016 and 2017 calendar years of certain performance-based metrics relating to the Linens 'n Things® brand. We cannot provide you with any assurance that such performance-based metrics will be achieved. To the extent that such performance-based metrics are not achieved, the warrants may not vest in full or at all, and the value of the warrants may be diminished or the warrants may become worthless.

Moreover, the warrants expire on December 31, 2019. We cannot assure you that now, or in prior to the expiration date, the market price of our common stock will exceed the exercise price of the warrants. Any vested warrants not exercised by their date of expiration will expire worthless, and we will be under no further obligation to the warrant holder.

Since the warrants are executory contracts, they may have no value in a bankruptcy or reorganization proceeding.

In the event a bankruptcy or reorganization proceeding is commenced by or against us, a bankruptcy court may hold that any unexercised warrants are executory contracts that are subject to rejection by us with the approval of the bankruptcy court. As a result, holders of the warrants may, even if we have sufficient funds, not be entitled to receive any consideration for their warrants or may receive an amount less than they would be entitled to if they had exercised their warrants prior to the commencement of any such bankruptcy or reorganization proceeding.

The liquidity of the warrants will be significantly limited as a result of the transfer restrictions specified therein.

The warrants, but not the shares of common stock issuable upon the exercise of the warrants, are subject to restrictions that prohibit transfers other than to the limited persons specified therein. The permitted transferees of the warrants include (in the case of individuals) spouses and certain other individuals and entities for estate planning purposes and (in the case of corporate entities) certain direct owners and affiliates. As a result, we do not expect an active trading market to develop for the warrants, and the liquidity of the warrants will be significantly limited.

The value of our warrants will be directly affected by the market price of our common stock, which may be volatile.

The value of our warrants will be significantly affected by the market price of our common stock. We cannot predict how the shares of our common stock will trade in the future. This may result in greater volatility in the value of our warrants than would be expected for non-exercisable securities.

If an effective registration is not in place and a current prospectus is not available when an investor desires to exercise warrants or sell the shares of common stock underlying the warrants, or if such transactions are not otherwise exempt from the requirements of the Securities Act and similar state securities laws, then such investor may be unable to exercise his, her or its warrants, causing such warrants to expire worthless, or to sell the shares of common stock underlying the warrants for value.

Holders of warrants will be able to exercise the warrants and sell the shares of common stock underlying the warrants only if a registration statement relating to such securities is then in effect, or if such transactions are exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act, and such securities are qualified for sale or exempt from qualification under the applicable securities laws of the states in which the purchaser of such securities resides. We intend to use our reasonable best efforts to keep a registration statement in effect covering warrant shares and to maintain a current prospectus relating to warrant shares until the expiration of the warrants. We cannot assure you that we will be able to do so, and if we do not maintain a current prospectus related to the warrant shares, holders may be unable to sell their warrant shares. If the prospectus relating to the warrant shares is not current, the warrants may have no value, we will have no obligation to settle the warrants for cash, the market for such warrants may be limited, and such warrants may expire worthless.

USE OF PROCEEDS

We will receive the proceeds from the exercise of any warrants by the selling stockholders, in an amount equal to the exercise price per share, except to the extent that any selling stockholder elects to exercise his, her or its warrants pursuant to the “net exercise” provision thereof. We will not receive any proceeds from the resale by the selling stockholders of our warrants or common stock, including common stock issued upon the exercise of the warrants, pursuant to this prospectus.

We intend to use any proceeds received from the exercise of the warrants primarily for general corporate purposes and other lawful purposes, including working capital, sales and marketing activities, general and administrative matters, repayment of indebtedness, and capital expenditures. We may also use a portion of the proceeds to acquire or invest in new brands or businesses.

We will pay estimated transaction expenses of approximately $177,347.41 in connection with this offering.

SELLING STOCKHOLDERS

Concurrently with the consummation of the mergers, we issued an aggregate of (i) 20,252,375 shares of common stock in a private placement transaction to certain of our stockholders and (ii) warrants to purchase up to 3,000,000 additional shares of common stock, $0.01 par value, subject to adjustment for stock splits, stock dividends or similar transactions, at an exercise price of $11.20 per share; and up to 3,000,000 shares of common stock, $0.01 par value, subject to adjustment for stock splits, stock dividends or similar transactions, issuable upon exercise of the warrants. In addition, in August 2014, as part of the consideration for our acquisition of Galaxy, we issued 13,750,000 shares of our common stock, of which an aggregate of 1,375,000 shares, subject to rounding, are not deliverable prior to February 15, 2016, and are only then deliverable to the extent that they were not used to offset certain indemnification obligations of the selling shareholders pursuant to the Galaxy Merger Agreement. For the purposes of the information presented below with respect to ownership of the selling stockholders, we have assumed that all such shares not deliverable prior to February 15, 2016, “holdback” shares, were fully issued and outstanding as of the date of the below calculations.

In connection with our acquisition of Galaxy, we entered into the Galaxy Registration Rights Agreement. Pursuant to the Galaxy Merger Agreement and the Galaxy Registration Rights Agreement, we agreed to register for resale the shares of common stock and warrants issued in the acquisition of Galaxy, as more fully described in the section titled “Prospectus Summary.”

This prospectus covers the public resale of the foregoing shares of common stock and warrants. The selling stockholders may offer the common stock and warrants for resale from time to time and may elect to sell some, all or none of the shares set forth under this prospectus. However, the selling stockholders are under no obligation to sell any of the common stock or warrants offered pursuant to this prospectus.

The table on the following page sets forth information regarding the selling stockholders and the shares of common stock and warrants (expressed as shares of underlying common stock) that they may sell or otherwise dispose of from time to time under this prospectus.

All information with respect to ownership of the selling stockholders has been furnished by or on behalf of the selling stockholders and is as of December 3, 2015. We believe, based on information supplied by the selling stockholders, that except as may otherwise be indicated in the footnotes to the table below, the selling stockholders have sole voting and dispositive power with respect to the common stock reported as beneficially owned by them. Because the selling stockholders may sell all, part or none of the common stock they hold, no estimates can be given as to the number of shares of common stock that the selling stockholders will hold upon termination of any offering made hereby. In addition, the selling stockholders may have sold, transferred or otherwise disposed of, or may sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of, at any time and from time to time, the common stock they hold in transactions exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act after the date on which they provided the information set forth on the table below. For purposes of the table below, however, we have assumed that after termination of this offering, none of the shares of common stock offered by this prospectus will be held by the selling stockholders.

Except as provided in the footnotes to the table on the following page, the selling stockholders have not had any position within, held any office of or had any other material relationship with us or our affiliates during the past three years.

Beneficial ownership for the purposes of this table is determined in accordance with the rules and regulations of the SEC. These rules generally provide that a person is the beneficial owner of securities if such person has or shares the power to vote or direct the voting thereof, or to dispose or direct the disposition thereof or has the right to acquire such powers within 60 days. Common stock subject to options or issuable upon exercise of warrants that are currently exercisable or exercisable within 60 days of December 3, 2015, is deemed to be outstanding and beneficially owned by the person holding the options or warrants. These shares, however, are not deemed outstanding for the purposes of computing the percentage ownership of any other person.

Percentage of beneficial ownership assumes that shares of our common stock are outstanding based on (i) an aggregate of 40,436,798 shares of our common stock issued to the Old Sequential stockholders in the mergers, (ii) an aggregate of 1,374,992 holdback shares not deliverable prior to February 15, 2016, pursuant to the terms of the Galaxy Merger Agreement, as described above, and (iii) an estimated aggregate of 20,017,575 shares of common stock issued to the MSLO stockholders in the mergers.

DESCRIPTION OF WARRANTS

The following summary of the terms of the warrants may not contain all of the information that is important to you and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the form of warrant and the provisions of applicable law. A copy of the form of warrant is included as Exhibit 4.1 to the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part and is incorporated herein by reference.

The warrants are for the purchase of an aggregate of up to 3,000,000 additional shares of our common stock, which are referred to as the “warrant shares.” The warrant shares will be issued at an exercise price of $11.20 per share, which price was established based upon the average closing price of our common stock for the 10 trading day period preceding the execution of the Galaxy Merger Agreement.

The warrants will vest based upon the performance in the 2016 and 2017 calendar years of the Linens ‘n Things® brand acquired from Galaxy, as follows:

- 500,000 warrant shares will vest if net royalties in 2016 are equal to or exceed $10,000,000;
- an additional 1,000,000 warrant shares will vest if net royalties in 2016 are equal to or exceed $15,000,000;
- 500,000 warrant shares will vest if net royalties in 2017 are equal to or exceed $10,000,000; and
- an additional 1,000,000 warrant shares will vest if net royalties in 2017 are equal to or exceed $15,000,000.

For purposes of the foregoing, net royalties is calculated as the gross aggregate royalties and other similar revenue earned by us during the applicable calendar year and received within 90 days after the date that such royalties have become due and payable, less the commissions and other amounts payable pursuant to a services agreement with Earthbound LLC or another broker relating to licensing of Linens ‘n Things® brand during the applicable calendar year. The vesting amounts for each year will be determined by us and a representative of Galaxy’s selling shareholders, which we refer to the Stockholder Representative, based upon a statement delivered by us to the Stockholder Representative on or before April 30 (or June 30, in certain circumstances) of the year following the applicable calendar year, and in accordance with the agreed procedures to resolve any disagreement with respect to the amounts set forth on such statement. We have agreed to take certain actions with respect to the operations of the Linens ‘n Things® brand during the 2016 and 2017 calendar years, including with respect to the collection of royalties.

In the event of a change of control of us before April 30, 2017, any unvested warrant shares will immediately vest, and the warrants shall become exercisable for such vested warrant shares. If we sell the Linens 'n Things® brand for in excess of $50,000,000 before the end of calendar year 2017, any unvested warrant shares will immediately vest, and the warrants will become exercisable for such vested warrant shares. In the event of a sale of the brand for less than $50,000,000, the warrant shares will vest proportionally, based upon the value of the sale as a percentage of $50,000,000.

The warrants, but not the warrant shares, are subject to certain transfer restrictions specified in the form of warrant agreement that prohibit transfers other than (in the case of individuals) to spouses and certain other individuals and entities for estate planning purposes or (in the case of corporate entities) to certain direct owners and affiliates.

The warrants may be exercised pursuant to certain “net exercise” provisions specified in the form of warrant agreement. Pursuant to such provisions, in lieu of purchasing vested warrant shares for cash, the holder of a warrant may elect to pay no cash, in which case the number of shares of our common stock to be received upon exercise of the warrant will be reduced by the quotient of the aggregate exercise price of the underlying warrant shares and the current market price of our common stock, as specified in the form of warrant agreement.

The numbers and exercise price of warrant shares for which the warrant is exercisable are subject to adjustment for stock splits, stock dividends or similar transactions, as specified in the form of warrant agreement, including adjustment upon any (i) subdivision, combination or other change relating to our common stock, (ii) reclassification, reorganization, consolidation or merger of us with or into another entity, and (iii) dividends or other distributions of our assets (or rights to acquire our assets) to holders of shares of our common stock. In the case of (i) and (ii) above, the numbers and exercise price of the warrant shares in effect immediately prior to such event shall be proportionately adjusted, so that the holder of each warrant shall thereafter be entitled to receive, upon payment of the same aggregate exercise price as if the warrants had been exercised immediately prior to such event, the same aggregate number of warrant shares that such holder would have owned upon such exercise and been entitled to receive by virtue of such event. In the case of (iii) above, then the holder of each warrant shall be entitled to participate in such distribution, upon exercise of the warrants, to the same extent as if the warrants had been exercised immediately prior to the record date for such distribution.

No fractional shares of our common stock will be issued in connection with the exercise of the warrant, and we will pay cash in lieu of any such fractional interests. The warrant shares are subject to withholding upon issuance to the extent required by applicable law. No holder of warrants, as such, will be entitled to vote, receive dividends or be deemed to be a stockholder for any purpose, until the issuance of warrant shares pursuant to the terms of the warrant.

The warrants expire on December 31, 2019.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

The selling stockholders, which as used herein includes donees, pledgees, transferees or other successors-in-interest selling shares of common stock or warrants, or interests in shares of common stock or warrants, received after the date of this prospectus from a selling stockholder as a gift, pledge, partnership distribution or other transfer, may, from time to time, sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of any or all of their shares of common stock or warrants, or interests in shares of common stock or warrants, on any stock exchange, market or trading facility on which the shares or warrants are traded or in private transactions. These dispositions may be at fixed prices, at prevailing market prices at the time of sale, at prices related to the prevailing market price, at varying prices determined at the time of sale, or at negotiated prices.

The selling stockholders may use any one or more of the following methods when disposing of shares of common stock or warrants, or any interests therein:

- ordinary brokerage transactions and transactions in which the broker-dealer solicits purchasers;
- block trades in which the broker-dealer will attempt to sell the shares or warrants as agent, but may position and resell a portion of the block as principal to facilitate the transaction;
- purchases by a broker-dealer as principal and resale by the broker-dealer for its account;
- an exchange distribution in accordance with the rules of the applicable exchange;
- privately negotiated transactions;
- short sales effected after the date the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part is declared effective by the SEC;
- through the writing or settlement of options or other hedging transactions, whether through an options exchange or otherwise;
- broker-dealers may agree with the selling stockholders to sell a specified number of such shares or warrants at a stipulated price per share;

- a combination of any such methods of sale; and
- any other method permitted by applicable law.

The selling stockholders may, from time to time, pledge or grant a security interest in some or all of the shares of common stock or warrants owned by them and, if they default in the performance of their secured obligations, the pledgees or secured parties may offer and sell the shares of common stock or warrants, from time to time, under this prospectus, or under an amendment to this prospectus under Rule 424(b)(3) or other applicable provision of the Securities Act amending the list of selling stockholders to include the pledgee, transferee or other successors in interest as selling stockholders under this prospectus. The selling stockholders also may transfer the shares of common stock or warrants in other circumstances, in which case the transferees, pledgees or other successors in interest will be the selling beneficial owners for purposes of this prospectus.

In connection with the sale of our common stock or warrants, or interests therein, the selling stockholders may enter into hedging transactions with broker-dealers or other financial institutions, which may in turn engage in short sales of the common stock or warrants in the course of hedging the positions they assume. The selling stockholders may also sell shares of our common stock or warrants short and deliver these securities to close out their short positions, or loan or pledge the common stock or warrants to broker-dealers that in turn may sell these securities. The selling stockholders may also enter into option or other transactions with broker-dealers or other financial institutions or the creation of one or more derivative securities which require the delivery to such broker-dealer or other financial institution of shares of common stock or warrants offered by this prospectus, which shares or warrants such broker-dealer or other financial institution may resell pursuant to this prospectus (as supplemented or amended to reflect such transaction).

The aggregate proceeds to the selling stockholders from the sale of the common stock or warrants offered by them will be the purchase price of the common stock or warrants less discounts or commissions, if any. Each of the selling stockholders reserves the right to accept and, together with their agents from time to time, to reject, in whole or in part, any proposed purchase of common stock or warrants to be made directly or through agents. We will not receive any of the proceeds from this offering.

The selling stockholders also may resell all or a portion of the shares of common stock or warrants in open market transactions in reliance upon Rule 144 under the Securities Act; provided, that they meet the criteria and conform to the requirements of that rule.

The selling stockholders and any underwriters, broker-dealers or agents that participate in the sale of the common stock or warrants, or interests therein, may be “underwriters” within the meaning of Section 2(11) of the Securities Act. Any discounts, commissions, concessions or profit they earn on any resale of the shares of common stock or warrants may be underwriting discounts and commissions under the Securities Act. Selling stockholders who are “underwriters” within the meaning of Section 2(11) of the Securities Act will be subject to the prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act.

To the extent required, the shares of common stock or warrants to be sold, the names of the selling stockholders, the respective purchase prices and public offering prices, the names of any agents, dealer or underwriter, any applicable commissions or discounts with respect to a particular offer will be set forth in an accompanying prospectus supplement or, if appropriate, a post-effective amendment to the registration statement that includes this prospectus.

In order to comply with the securities laws of some states, if applicable, the common stock and warrants may be sold in these jurisdictions only through registered or licensed brokers or dealers. In addition, in some states the common stock and warrants may not be sold unless they have been registered or qualified for sale or an exemption from registration or qualification requirements is available and is complied with.

We have advised the selling stockholders that the anti-manipulation rules of Regulation M under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”) may apply to sales of shares of common stock or warrants in the market and to the activities of the selling stockholders and their affiliates. In addition, to the extent applicable, we will make copies of this prospectus (as it may be supplemented or amended from time to time) available to the selling stockholders for the purpose of satisfying the prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act. The selling stockholders may indemnify any broker-dealer that participates in transactions involving the sale of the shares of common stock or warrants against certain liabilities, including liabilities arising under the Securities Act.

Pursuant to the Galaxy Registration Rights Agreement, we agreed to indemnify certain of the selling stockholders who are former Galaxy shareholders and optionholders against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act and state securities laws, relating to the registration of the shares of common stock and warrants offered by this prospectus. Sequential has further agreed with such selling stockholders to use reasonable best efforts to maintain the effectiveness of the registration statement of which this prospectus constitutes a part for the period of time specified therein.
