LETTER FROM THE BOARD

In respect of the provision of all types of other financial services, such as the provision of trust loans, financial guarantees, credit references and broker services for future products (e.g. crude oil, foreign exchange and national debt), the fees and charges payable by the relevant member(s) of the Group to the respective Eastern Air Finance Entity and CES Finance Entity shall be determined by reference to the applicable standard fees and charges, which are publicly available information, as specified by regulatory authorities such as the People's Bank of China from time to time, and if no such standard fees and/or charges have been specified by any regulatory authorities such as the People's Bank of China for the particular services, such services shall be provided by the respective Eastern Air Finance Entity and CES Finance Entity on terms no less favourable than terms available from independent third-party commercial banks or broker companies in the PRC, such as Industrial and Commercial Bank of China and China Construction Bank. The fees and charges payable shall be negotiated on arm's length basis and determined by market principles and by reference to the fees and charges set by independent third-party financial institutions. The fees and charges, together with other details in respect of each specific transaction for the particular services, will then be recorded in separate implementation agreement(s) between the relevant member(s) of the Group and the respective Eastern Air Finance Entity and CES Finance Entity in the performance of the Financial Services Renewal Agreement;

The maximum balance of the Group's deposits in the Eastern Air Finance Entities shall not be more than the (d) maximum outstanding balance of loans (including other financial crediting services) provided by the Eastern Air Finance Entities to the Group; and

The average daily balance of the Group's deposits in the Eastern Air Finance Entities in each financial year shall not (e) be more than the average daily outstanding balance of loans (including other financial crediting services) provided by the Eastern Air Finance Entities to the Group in that particular financial year.

The service charges pursuant to the Financial Services Renewal Agreement are payable by the Group in accordance with the particular circumstances of the utilisation of each service.

In respect of the deposit services and loan and financing services, when assessing compliance with the pricing policy as set out in the Financial Services Renewal Agreement, the "maximum deposits balance" refers to the upper threshold limit in respect of the Group's deposits in the Eastern Air Finance Entities for each financial year; and the "maximum outstanding loans balance" refers to the upper threshold limit in respect of the loan services received by the Group for each financial year. In practice, the actual outstanding balance of the Group's deposits in the Eastern Air Finance Entities may exceed the actual outstanding loan balance provided by the Eastern Air Finance Entities. The Company will from time to time monitor the actual balance amount in respect of the deposit and loan services to ensure that such amounts will not exceed the corresponding upper threshold limit (being the "maximum deposits balance" and the "maximum outstanding loans balance") as set out in the Financial Services Renewal Agreement.

In respect of deposit services and loan and financing services, the interests on deposits and the expenses on loans are payable on a quarterly basis. In respect of other financial services, the service fees and charges are payable based on the actual amount incurred of each transaction as specified in the implementation agreement(s) between the relevant member(s) of the Group and the respective Eastern Air Finance Entity and CES Finance Entity. LETTER FROM THE BOARD

With regard to the deposit services, Eastern Air Finance Entity will inform the Company's finance department the relevant rates set by the People's Bank of China for similar services and provide the Company with the cap value of the interest rate stipulated by the government when the Group's deposits are being placed in the Eastern Air Finance Entities, which rates shall be independently verified by the Company. In addition, the Company will consider the quality of services provided by the Eastern Air Finance Entities and other third-party banks or financial institutions in making its choice of service provider. With regard to the deposit services and loan and financing services, the Company's finance department will check the relevant rates set by the People's Bank of China for similar services and compare with the rates provided by at least two other independent third-party commercial banks or financial institutions when deposit services and loans and financing services are needed by the Group.

To further safeguard the Group's fund security, the Company's finance department shall obtain and review the latest audited annual report of Eastern Air Finance Company to assess the risk before the deposits are actually made by the Company. During the period the deposits are placed with the Eastern Air Finance Entity, the Company's finance department shall have access to and review the financial reports of Eastern Air Finance Company regularly to assess the risk of the Group's deposits in the Eastern Air Finance Entities. In addition, Eastern Air Finance Company will inform the Company's finance department the balance of the Group's deposits in the Eastern Air Finance Entities and the balance of loans provided by the Eastern Air Finance Entities to the Group on a monthly basis. The finance department of the Company will designate a person who is specifically responsible to monitor the relevant rates set by the People's Bank of China for similar deposits and loan and financing services and the policy promulgated by the People's Bank of China to ensure that each transaction is conducted in accordance with the pricing policy above under the Financial Services Renewal Agreement.

In respect of other financial services, the Company's finance department will check the standard fees and charges as specified by PRC regulatory authorities and, if necessary, the fees and charges provided by independent third-party commercial banks or broker companies in the PRC and compare with the fees and charges provided by Eastern Air Finance Entity and CES Finance Entity in accordance with the implementation agreement(s) between the relevant member(s) of the Group and the respective Eastern Air Finance Entity and CES Finance Entity to ensure the service fees and charges will be no less favourable to the Company than terms available from other commercial banks and broker companies. Moving forward, the Company expects to obtain at least two or more offers before deciding to choose the Eastern Air Finance Entity, the CES Finance Entity or other commercial bank or financial institution as service provider.

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

2.3 Reasons for and benefits of the transaction

Through the long-term cooperation between the Group and Eastern Air Finance Entities in respect of deposit services and loan and financing services, the transactions under the Financial Services Renewal Agreement will satisfy the business needs of the Company, strengthen the centralized management and effectiveness in the utilisation of the Company's funds and ensure effective development of the Company's business. Under the Financial Services Renewal Agreement, (i) the Group will receive interest on its monies deposited with the respective Eastern Air Finance Entity at rates which are no less favourable than the relevant rates set by the People's Bank of China, resulting in an increase in the Company's capital gain; (ii) the Group will be able to obtain loans and financing from the respective Eastern Air Finance Entity with priority at interest rates not higher than the relevant rates set by the People's Bank of China, the Company can obtain funds promptly and effectively and the financial expenses will be reduced. The loan extension cycle of CES Finance Entities is short, therefore loans can be extended in one day; and (iii) Eastern Air Finance Company, which provides the services of fund clearing platform to the Company, helps to strengthen the centralized management of funds and reduce the transit time of funds.

Further, the Company may withdraw the whole or part of its deposits placed with Eastern Air Finance Company at any time to ascertain the safety and liquidity of such deposits. The ownership of such deposits remains with the Group and does not pass to the Eastern Air Finance Entities. In addition, the rules and regulations promulgated by China Banking Regulatory Commission to regulate the activities of non-bank finance companies, including Eastern Air Finance Company, and the internal policies of the Company further monitor and safeguard the Group's deposits in the Eastern Air Finance Entities. The Company is not restricted under the Financial Services Renewal Agreement to approach, and in fact may choose, any bank or financial institution to satisfy its financial service needs. Its criteria in making the choice could be made on costs and quality of services. Therefore, the Group may, but is not obliged to, continue to use the Eastern Air Finance Entities' services if the service quality provided is competitive. Having such flexibility afforded under the Financial Services Renewal Agreement, the Group is able to better manage its current capital and cash flow position. In addition, it is also expected that the Eastern Air Finance Entities will provide more efficient settlement service to the Group, as compared to independent third-party financial institutions.

Accordingly,

With regard to the transactions relating to the provision of loan and financing services and "other financial services" under the Financial Services Renewal Agreement, the Directors (including the independent non-executive Directors) believe that the relevant transactions are conducted on normal commercial terms or on terms no less favourable to the Company than those available from independent third parties, and are entered into in the ordinary course of business of the Company, and are fair and reasonable and in the interests of the Company and its shareholders as a whole.

(b) With regard to the transactions relating to the provision of deposit services under the Financial Services Renewal Agreement, the Directors (excluding, at present, the independent non-executive Directors) believe that the relevant transactions are conducted on normal commercial terms or on terms no less favourable to the Company than those available from independent third parties, and are entered into in the ordinary course of business of the Company, and are fair and reasonable and in the interests of the Company and its shareholders as a whole. As such transactions will be subject to Independent Shareholders' approval at the EGM, the independent non-executive Directors have established the Independent Board Committee to advise the Independent Shareholders in respect of such transactions.

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

2.4 Historical figures

The historical maximum daily outstanding balance of the deposit services provided by the Eastern Air Finance Entities to the Group in respect of the Existing Financial Services Agreement for each of the two financial years ended 31 December 2014 and 2015 are approximately RMB5,151,900,000 and RMB3,869,390,000 respectively. The historical maximum daily outstanding balance of the loan and financing services provided by the Eastern Air Finance Entities to the Group in respect of the Existing Financial Services Agreement for each of the two financial years ended 31 December 2014 and 2015 are approximately RMB700,000,000 and RMB1,000,000,000 respectively. In respect of the provision of the “other financial services” under the Existing Financial Services Agreement, the fees and charges paid for such transactions for each of the two financial years ended 31 December 2014 and 2015 are minimal. Accordingly, pursuant to Rule 14A.76, such transactions are exempt from all reporting, announcement, annual review and Independent Shareholders’ approval requirements.

2.5 Annual caps

The annual cap for deposit services pursuant to the Existing Financial Services Agreement for the financial year ending 31 December 2016 is RMB7,000,000,000. This cap has not been exceeded as at the Latest Practicable Date and is not expected to be exceeded before 31 December 2016.

The proposed Annual Caps for deposit services pursuant to the Financial Services Renewal Agreement are mainly based on the fact that: (i) the Group’s cash flow and cash needs are expected to continue increasing as a result of the anticipated growth and expansion of the fleet size of the Group; (ii) considering the Group’s increased use of financing instruments, such as super short-term commercial paper, medium-term notes and bonds, it is expected that following the continuous expansion of scale of financing of the Group in the following three years, there will be an increase in cash flow and thus an increase in the demand for deposits in the short-term and (iii) in order to improve capital efficiency, the Group has further strengthened the centralized management of its funds, which results in an increase in cash flow of the Group. With the growing business scale of the Company, continuous enhancement of its capital management capability and further strengthening of its efforts in centralized capital management, the demand for deposits will increase.

The Group intends to centralise capital management through the Eastern Air Finance Entities in order to improve the Group’s capital efficiency.

The PRC economy and the domestic and overseas air transportation market are anticipated to continue to grow in the near future. Accordingly, it is expected that the volume of the Group's cash flow and cash needs will increase.

Having considered the historical figures and taking account of the circumstances mentioned above, the maximum daily outstanding balance of deposits as contemplated under the Financial Services Renewal Agreement are not expected to exceed RMB10,000,000,000, RMB11,500,000,000 and RMB13,000,000,000 for each of the three financial years ending 31 December 2017, 2018 and 2019, taking into account the anticipated gradual and organic growth of the Group's business over these years.

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

The Directors believe that these proposed annual caps will be able to provide the Group with sufficient flexibility for its expected financial arrangements with the Eastern Air Finance Entities in the future.

2.6 Listing Rules implications

Since CEA Holding is the controlling shareholder of the Company, each member of the CEA Holding Group (including Eastern Air Finance Company and CES Finance) is therefore a connected person of the Company.

In respect of the provision of deposit services under the Financial Services Renewal Agreement, the relevant percentage ratios applicable to such transactions for the purpose of Chapter 14A of the Listing Rules is expected to exceed 5% on an annual basis in the on-going performance of the agreement. Such transactions together with the Annual Caps therefore are subject to the reporting, announcement, annual review and Independent Shareholders' approval requirements under the Listing Rules. Furthermore, as the relevant applicable percentage ratios set out in the Listing Rules in respect of such transactions are expected to exceed 5% but be less than 25%, they also constitute discloseable transactions pursuant to the Listing Rules and are accordingly subject to the notification and announcement requirements under Chapter 14 of the Listing Rules.

In respect of the provision of loan and financing services under the Financial Services Renewal Agreement, since the services are being provided by the Eastern Air Finance Entities to the Group at interest rates not higher than the relevant rates set by the People's Bank of China and negotiated on arm's length basis and determined by market principles and by reference to the interest rates set by independent third-party financial institutions, the transaction involves provision of financial assistance by the Eastern Air Finance Entities for the benefit of the Group on normal commercial terms (or better to the Group) where no security over the assets of the Group is granted in respect of the financial assistance. This part of the transaction is therefore exempt from the reporting, announcement, annual review and Independent Shareholders' approval requirements, by virtue of Rule 14A.90 of the Listing Rules.

However, with respect to the provision of loan and financing services, pursuant to the relevant provisions of the Shanghai Listing Rules, such transactions will be subject to Independent Shareholders' approval at the EGM.

In respect of the provision of the "other financial services" under the Financial Services Renewal Agreement, the relevant services provided by the Eastern Air Finance Entities and the CES Finance Entities for each of the two financial years ended 31 December 2014 and 2015 are minimal and any future transactions that may take place between the Group (on the one hand) and the Eastern Air Finance Entities or the CES Finance Entities (on the other hand) in respect of such services is expected to be minimal. Accordingly, pursuant to Rule 14A.76, such transactions are exempt from all reporting, announcement, annual review and Independent Shareholders' approval requirements. Should the actual transaction amount exceeds the de minimis threshold in future, the Company will comply with the applicable connected transaction regulatory requirements under Chapter 14A of the Listing Rules.

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

Please refer to the paragraphs headed “Catering Services Renewal Agreement” on pages 14 to 16 of the Company’s announcement dated 30 August 2013 and the Company’s circular dated 25 September 2013 for the background and history of the Existing Catering Services Agreement.

On 30 August 2016, the Company entered into an agreement relating to the renewal of the Existing Catering Services Agreement with Eastern Air Catering Company, pursuant to which Eastern Air Catering Company and its subsidiaries (each an “Eastern Air Catering Entity” and collectively the “Eastern Air Catering Entities”) will from time to time provide the Group with catering services (including the supply of meals and beverages, cutlery and tableware) and related storage and complementary services required in the day-to-day airline and ground operation of the Group. The Eastern Air Catering Entities provide their services in accordance with the specifications and schedules as from time to time specified by the relevant member(s) of the Group to accommodate its operation needs (the “Catering Services Renewal Agreement”).

3.1 Term

The Catering Services Renewal Agreement will be effective for a term of 3 years, commencing from 1 January 2017 to 31 December 2019.

With effect from 1 January 2017, the Existing Catering Services Agreement will be terminated.

3.2 Pricing

Under the Catering Services Renewal Agreement, the service fees payable by the Company for the services provided shall be based on prevailing market rates available from independent third-party service providers under comparable conditions. Such service fees shall be determined based on arm's length negotiations after considering factors such as costs of raw materials and labour, and shall be no less favourable than those offered by the respective Eastern Air Catering Entity to independent third parties. Such service fees are payable monthly in arrears in accordance with the particular circumstances of utilisation of the services, within 90 days of the receipt of invoices issued by the respective Eastern Air Catering Entity. The Company will designate departments or officials to be responsible for checking the price and terms offered by independent third parties for the same type of in-flight catering services (in general, through emails, fax or telephone consultation with at least two independent third parties providing the relevant services).

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

3.3 Reasons for and benefits of the transaction

Each Eastern Air Catering Entity is a company specialised in the provision of catering and related services for airline companies, and has local operating centres at various airports located in Yunnan, Shaanxi, Shandong, Jiangsu, Hubei, Zhejiang, Jiangxi, Anhui, Gansu, Hebei and Shanghai, covering the focal operating areas of the Group's airlines and aviation business. The Eastern Air Catering Entities have been providing catering services to the Group and have a good understanding of the Group's culture and operation. The Eastern Air Catering Entities, through their operating centres, will therefore be able to provide fast and high-quality catering services in response to requirements, normal or special, as may be specified from time to time by the relevant member(s) of the Group to accommodate its day-to-day airline and ground operation needs, and to, for example, cater for its different flight schedules (including regular, chartered and temporary flights). Further, the various operating centres of the Eastern Air Catering Entities are equipped with advanced facilities and required infrastructure for the provision of catering and related services, and are believed to be able to provide reliable and efficient services.

Accordingly, the Directors (including the independent non-executive Directors) believe that the transactions under the Catering Services Renewal Agreement are conducted on normal commercial terms or on terms no less favourable to the Company than those available from independent third parties, and are entered into in the ordinary course of business of the Company, and are fair and reasonable and in the interests of the Company and its shareholders as a whole.

3.4 Historical figures

The historical figures of the total service fees paid by the Group in respect of the Existing Catering Services Agreement for each of the two financial years ended 31 December 2014 and 2015 are approximately RMB851,140,000 and RMB1,127,190,000 respectively.

3.5 Annual caps

Based on factors such as the historical figures, the expected expansion and development of the Group's business and fleet structure, increase in flights, travellers and demand for in-flight catering services, increase in the number of ground VIP lounges and increase in the quality of in-flight and ground catering services, the total amounts of service fees payable by the Company to the Eastern Air Catering Entities under the Catering Services Renewal Agreement for the three financial years ending 31 December 2017, 2018 and 2019 are not expected to exceed RMB1,450,000,000, RMB1,650,000,000 and RMB1,900,000,000 respectively, taking into account the anticipated gradual and organic growth of the Group's business over these years.

3.6 Listing Rules implications

Since CEA Holding is the controlling shareholder of the Company, each member of the CEA Holding Group (including Eastern Air Catering Company) is therefore a connected person of the Company.

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

As the relevant applicable percentage ratios set out in the Listing Rules in respect of the transactions under the Catering Services Renewal Agreement are expected to be more than 0.1% but less than 5% on an annual basis, such transactions are subject to the reporting, announcement and annual review requirements only and are exempt from Independent Shareholders' approval under the Listing Rules.

However, pursuant to the relevant provisions of the Shanghai Listing Rules, such transactions will be subject to Independent Shareholders' approval at the EGM.

4. GENERAL

As CEA Holding is the controlling shareholder of the Company holding directly and indirectly approximately 56.38% of the Company's issued share capital as at the Latest Practicable Date, each member of the CEA Holding Group (including Eastern Air Finance Company, CES Finance and Eastern Air Catering Company) is therefore a connected person of the Company. Octal Capital Limited

21 September 2016

To the Independent Board Committee and the Independent Shareholders

Dear Sirs,

CONTINUING CONNECTED TRANSACTIONS

INTRODUCTION

We refer to our appointment as the independent financial adviser of the Company to advise the Independent Board Committee and the Independent Shareholders on the fairness and reasonableness of the terms of the Non-Exempt Continuing Connected Transactions (as defined below in this letter) contemplated under the Financial Services Renewal Agreement and the respective annual caps thereof, and whether such Non-Exempt Continuing Connected Transactions are in the interests of the Company and the Shareholders as a whole. Details of the Non-Exempt Continuing Connected Transactions are set out in the letter from the Board (the “Letter from the Board”) in the circular of the Company dated 21 September 2016 to the Shareholders (the “Circular”), of which this letter forms part. Capitalized terms used in this letter shall have the same meaning as those defined in the Circular unless the context otherwise requires.

As disclosed in the Company’s circular dated 25 September 2013, the Existing Financial Services Agreement entered into between the Company and Eastern Air Finance Company shall expire on 31 December 2016. In order to better manage the Existing Continuing Connected Transactions and to regulate the continuing business relationships between the Group and the CEA Holding Group, the Company entered into, the Financial Services Renewal Agreement with Eastern Air Finance Company and CES Finance, respectively on 30 August 2016. Subject to approval being obtained from the Independent Shareholders at the EGM in respect of the provision of deposit services under the Financial Services Renewal Agreement, the Financial Services Renewal Agreement will be effective for a term of 3 years commencing from 1 January 2017 to 31 December 2019.

Pursuant to the Financial Services Renewal Agreement, the Eastern Air Finance Entities and the CES Finance Entities will from time to time provide the Group with a range of financial services including:

(i) deposit services by the Eastern Air Finance Entities;

(ii) loan and financing services by the Eastern Air Finance Entities; and other financial services such as: (a) the provision of trust loans, financial guarantees and credit references by the Eastern Air Finance Entities; and (b) broker services for future products (e.g. crude oil, foreign exchange and national debt) by the CES Finance Entities (the scope of “other financial services” is not limited and different services may be provided to the Group as and when they are needed).

As stated in the Letter from the Board, Eastern Air Finance Company is directly interested as to approximately 56.38% respectively by, and is thus associate of, CEA Holding, whilst CES Finance is a wholly-owned subsidiary of CEA Holding. Since CEA Holding is the controlling shareholder of the Company directly or indirectly holding approximately 56.38% of its issued share capital as at the Latest Practicable Date, each of Eastern Air Finance Company, CES Finance is a connected person of the Company.

In respect of the provision of deposit services under the Financial Services Renewal Agreement set out above, as the relevant applicable percentage ratio(s) set out in the Listing Rules in respect of such transactions is/are expected to exceed 5% on an annual basis in the on-going performance of the agreement. Such transactions constitute non-exempt continuing connected transactions of the Company under the Listing Rules (collectively the “Non-Exempt Continuing Connected Transactions”) which together with the respective associated annual caps will be subject to approval by the Independent Shareholders at the EGM. Furthermore, as the relevant applicable percentage ratios set out in the Listing Rules in respect of such transactions are expected to exceed 5% but be less than 25%, they also constitute discloseable transactions pursuant to the Listing Rules and are accordingly subject to the notification and announcement requirements under Chapter 14 of the Listing Rules. CEA Holding and its associate(s), if any, will at the EGM abstain from voting on the ordinary resolutions approving the transactions relating to the provision of deposit services contemplated under the Financial Services Renewal Agreement and the associated annual caps.

The Independent Board Committee comprising all the independent non-executive Directors, namely Mr. Li Ruoshan, Mr. Ma Weihua, Mr. Shao Ruiqing and Mr. Cai Hong Ping has been established to advise the Independent Shareholders in respect of the Non-Exempt Continuing Connected Transactions and their respective associated annual caps.

We, Octal Capital Limited, have been appointed as the independent financial adviser to advise the Independent Board Committee and the Independent Shareholders on the Non-exempt Continuing Connected Transactions in this regard. We are not connected with the directors, chief executive and substantial shareholders of the Company or Eastern Air Finance Company or CES Finance or CEA Holding or any of their respective subsidiaries or their respective associates and do not have any shareholding, directly or indirectly, in any member of the Group or any right (whether legally enforceable or not) to subscribe for or to nominate persons to subscribe for securities in any member of the Group as at the Latest Practicable Date and therefore is considered suitable to give independent advice to the Independent Shareholders. During the last two years, we were engaged by the Company as the independent financial adviser in respect of a continuing connected transaction in relation to aircraft finance lease (details can be referred to the circular of the Company dated 20 May 2016) and a major and connected transaction in relation to aircraft finance lease (details can be referred to the circular of the Company dated 26 May 2015). Under such appointments, we were required to express our opinion on and give recommendations to the Independent Board Committee and the Shareholders in respect of the two transactions. Apart from normal professional fees payable to us in connection with this and the previous appointment, no arrangement exists whereby we will receive any fees or benefits from the Group or the directors, chief executive and substantial shareholders of the Company or Eastern Air Finance Company or CES Finance or CEA Holding or any of its subsidiaries or their respective associates.

In formulating our opinion, we have relied on the accuracy of the information and representations contained in the Circular and have assumed that all information and representations made or referred to in the Circular as provided by the management of the Company were true at the time they were made and continue to be true as at the date of the Circular. We have also relied on our discussion with the management of the Company regarding the Non-exempt Continuing Connected Transactions including the information and representations contained in the Circular. We have also assumed that all statements of belief, opinion and intention made by the management of the Company respectively in the Circular were reasonably made after due enquiry. We consider that we have reviewed sufficient information to reach an informed view, to justify our reliance on the accuracy of the information contained in the Circular and to provide a reasonable basis for our advice. We have no reason to suspect that any material facts have been omitted or withheld from the information contained or opinions expressed in the Circular nor to doubt the truth, accuracy and completeness of the information and representations provided to us by the management of the Company. We have not, however, conducted an independent in-depth investigation into the business and affairs of the Company or Eastern Air Finance Company or CES Finance or CEA Holding or any of its subsidiaries or associates or future prospects of the Group, nor have we carried out any independent verification of the information supplied to us.

THE CONTINUING CONNECTED TRANSACTIONS

Principal factors and reasons considered

In arriving at our opinion on the fairness and reasonableness of the terms of the Non-Exempt Continuing Connected Transactions and the respective proposed annual caps thereof, and whether such Non-Exempt Continuing Connected Transactions are in the interests of the Company and the Shareholders as a whole, we have taken the following factors and reasons into consideration:

(1) The principal business of the Group

The Company is principally engaged in the business of civil aviation. The Group's operations of civil aviation include the provision of passenger, cargo, mail delivery, tour operations and other extended transportation services.

LETTER FROM OCTAL CAPITAL

(2) Deposit services contemplated under the Financial Services Renewal Agreement

(i) Principal business of Eastern Air Finance Company

As disclosed in the Letter from the Board, Eastern Air Finance Company is a non-bank finance company approved and regulated by the relevant PRC regulatory authorities including the People's Bank of China ("PBOC") and the China Banking Regulatory Commission ("CBRC").

(ii) Reasons for and benefits of the transactions

We note that the deposit services to be provided by the Eastern Air Finance Entities under the Financial Services Renewal Agreement will be subject to substantially the same terms as those under the Existing Financial Services Agreement. Under the Financial Services Renewal Agreement, the Group will receive interest on its moneys deposited with the respective Eastern Air Finance Entities at rates not lower, and thus no less favourable, than the relevant rates set by the PBOC for similar deposits. Furthermore, as disclosed in the Letter from the Board, the Company is not restricted under the Financial Services Renewal Agreement to approach and may choose any bank or financial institution to satisfy its financial service needs. Its criteria in making the choice could be made on costs and quality of services. Therefore, the Group may, but is not obliged to, continue to use the Eastern Air Finance Entities' services if the service quality provided is competitive. As set out in the Letter from the Board, having such flexibility afforded under the Financial Services Renewal Agreement, the Group is able to better manage its current capital and cash flow position. It is also expected by the Group that the Eastern Air Finance Entities will provide more efficient settlement service to the Group, as compared to independent third-party banks. Accordingly, the Directors believe that entering into the transactions relating to the provision of deposit services under the Financial Services Renewal Agreement is in the interests of the Shareholders.

We understand from the Company that Eastern Air Finance Company has been providing services to the Group since the establishment of Eastern Air Finance Company in 1995. As advised by the Company, due to the long term business relationship between the Group and Eastern Air Finance Company, Eastern Air Finance Company has a good understanding of the Group's settlement procedures and has established convenient communication channels, which would facilitate Eastern Air Finance Company's provision of more efficient settlement services to the Group as compared to independent third-party banks.

We understand from the Company that its criteria in making the choice between the Eastern Air Finance Entities and other third-party banks or financial institutions for deposit services would normally include the interest rates offered. As stated in the Letter from the Board, the relevant Eastern Air Finance Entity will inform the Company's finance department the relevant rates set by the PBOC for similar services and provide the Company with the cap value of the interest rate stipulated by the government when the Group's deposits are being placed in the Eastern Air Finance Entity, which rates shall be independently verified by the Company. In addition, the Company will consider the quality of services provided by the Eastern Air Finance Entities and other third party banks or financial institutions in making its choice of service providers. Based on the above, we consider that the mechanism of the Company in choosing between Eastern Air Finance Company and other third party banks or financial institutions for deposit services to be acceptable. In view of the long term business relationship between the Group and Eastern Air Finance Company, the more efficient settlement services that may be offered by the Eastern Air Finance Entities and the Group's right to choose appropriate banks or financial institutions for the deposit services at its discretion, we consider that the entering into of the Financial Services Renewal Agreement would provide the Group with the flexibility to continue to obtain deposit services from the Eastern Air Finance Entities in the Group's ordinary and usual course of business, and is in the interests of the Company and the Shareholders as a whole.

LETTER FROM OCTAL CAPITAL

(iii) Risk management control measures on the deposits placed with the Eastern Air Finance Entities

We were advised by the management of the Company that the Company has continued to adopt

“Risk Control Measures governing the Connected Transactions between China Eastern Airlines Corporation Limited and Eastern Air Group Finance Company Limited*, the “Risk Control Measures”) since 30 October 2012 in order to strengthen the Company’s risk management of the connected transactions between the Company and Eastern Air Finance Company, of which the deposit services form part. Pursuant to the Risk Control Measures (details of which were set out in the Company’s announcement dated 30 October 2012), the Company will, among others, (i) obtain the financial reports of Eastern Air Finance Company on a regular basis to assess the risks of the Company’s deposits placed with Eastern Air Finance Company; and (ii) obtain an understanding of the operational and financial conditions of the Eastern Air Finance Company regularly to monitor whether Eastern Air Finance Company is in breach of the requirements under the “Finance Companies Administration Measures”) issued by the CBRC on 27 July 2004 and amended on 28 December 2006. In the event that the asset-liability ratio of Eastern Air Finance Company falls below the threshold stipulated by the Finance Companies Administration Measures, no deposits can be placed by the Group with Eastern Air Finance Company.

Under the Risk Control Measures, the Company may withdraw the whole or part of its deposits placed with Eastern Air Finance Company at any time to ascertain the safety and liquidity of such deposits.

We note that Eastern Air Finance Company is a non-bank finance company regulated by the CBRC and the PBOC, and a regulatory framework is in place to monitor the operations of Eastern Air Finance Company. Moreover, the Company has adopted the Risk Control Measures in safeguarding its deposit with Eastern Air Finance Company. As advised by the Company, no irregularity has been identified by the Group during the implementation of the Risk Control Measures. We have discussed with the Company the steps taken to implement the Risk Control Measures. We understand from the Company that a person of its finance department has been designated to review the financial reports of Eastern Air Finance Company and assess the operational and financial conditions of Eastern Air Finance Company. As part of the Risk Control Measures, the Company has obtained the audited financial statements of Eastern Air Finance Company for the year ended 31 December 2015 for review and has confirmed to us that no irregularity would lead us to cast doubt on the proper implementation of the Risk Control Measures by the Company. In view of the above, we consider that there are measures in place to monitor the Group’s deposits maintained with the Eastern Air Finance Entities.

LETTER FROM OCTAL CAPITAL

(iv) Pricing and payment terms of the deposit services

Pursuant to the Financial Services Renewal Agreement:

(a) the respective Eastern Air Finance Entities shall accept deposits from the Group at interest rates not lower, and thus no less favourable, than the relevant rates set by the People's Bank of China which are available on the website of the People's Bank of China. The interest rates shall be negotiated on arm's length basis and determined by market principles and by reference to the interest rates set by independent third-party financial institutions;

(b) The maximum balance of the Group's deposits in the Eastern Air Finance Entities shall not be more than the maximum outstanding balance of loans (including other financial crediting services) provided by the Eastern Air Finance Entities to the Group; and

(c) The average daily balance of the Group's deposits in the Eastern Air Finance Entities in each financial year shall not be more than the average daily outstanding balance of loans (including other financial crediting services) provided by the Eastern Air Finance Entities to the Group in that particular financial year.

We have reviewed the quotation of the interest rates obtained by the Company from 15 third party banks and we noted that the interest rates offered by the relevant Eastern Air Finance Entities are comparable to the relevant rates set by the PBOC for similar deposits at the relevant time throughout the two years ended 31 December 2014, 2015 and the six months ended 30 June 2016, which are publicly available on the website of the PBOC. Based on the information published on the respective websites of 15 third-party banks, we noted that the interest rates offered by the relevant Eastern Air Finance Entities as mentioned above are no less favourable than the relevant interest rates of these 15 third-party banks for similar deposits. Moreover, as stated in the Letter from the Board, the interests on deposits with the Eastern Air Finance Entities are payable on a quarterly basis and the payment terms are in line with market practice. We note that, according to “ 2015; 27665; 37504; 34892; 38364; 26044; 2015; 27665; 24163; 23384; 36024; 27454; (Notice in relation to determination of interests on loans and deposits denominated in RMB by the PBOC*) published by the PBOC on 27 May 2005, accrued interest on deposits denominated in RMB are to be settled on a quarterly basis by banks. Based on the above, we are of the view that the pricing and payment terms of the deposits services provided by the Eastern Air Finance Entities are on normal commercial terms and are fair and reasonable.

LETTER FROM OCTAL CAPITAL

We note that the finance department of the Company will designate a person who is specifically responsible to monitor the relevant rates set by the PBOC for similar deposits and the policy promulgated by the PBOC to ensure that each deposit transaction is conducted in accordance with the pricing policy above under the Financial Services Renewal Agreement.

In respect of the pricing policies relating to the outstanding deposit and loan balances as set out above, when assessing the compliance with the pricing policy pursuant to the Financial Services Renewal Agreement, the “maximum deposits balance” refers to the upper threshold limit in respect of the Group’s deposits in the Eastern Air Finance Entities for each financial year; and the “maximum outstanding loans balance” refers to the upper threshold limit in respect of the loan services received by the Group for each financial year. As advised by the management of the Company that, in practice, the actual outstanding balance of the Group’s deposits in the Eastern Air Finance Entities may exceed the actual outstanding loan balance provided by the Eastern Air Finance Entities. In order to ensure that such amounts will not exceed the corresponding upper threshold limit (being the “maximum deposits balance” and the “maximum outstanding loans balance”) as set out in the Financial Services Renewal Agreement, we noted that the finance department of the Company will from time to time monitor the actual balance amount in respect of the deposit and loan services.

Taking into account the above measures taken by the Company and our review of the interest rates offered by the relevant Eastern Air Finance Entities to the Group, which are no less favourable than the relevant rates set by the PBOC for similar deposits, as described above, we have not identified any major factor which would lead us to cast doubt on the effectiveness of the Company’s measures to ensure that each deposit transaction is conducted in accordance with the pricing policy under the Financial Services Renewal Agreement and on normal commercial terms.

(v) Proposed annual caps

As set out in the Letter from the Board, the historical maximum daily outstanding balance of the deposit services provided to the Group in respect of the Existing Financial Services Agreement for each of the two years ended 31 December 2014 and 2015 were approximately RMB5,151,900,000 and RMB3,869,390,000 respectively, representing approximately 85.87% and 59.53% of the approved annual caps for deposits of RMB6,000,000,000 and RMB6,500,000,000 under the Existing Financial Services Agreement for each of the two years ended 31 December 2014 and 2015. The percentage is relatively lower for 2015 due to aircrafts purchasing activities involving 80 new aircrafts disclosed in the annual report for the year ended 31 December 2015. The aircrafts purchasing activities cause an increase of investing cash outflow of RMB4.7 billion from RMB20 billion to RMB24.7 billion while the cash inflow from financing activities remains the same at RMB11.08 billion according to the annual report for the year ended 31 December 2015. The approved annual cap for deposits pursuant to the Existing Financial Services Agreement for the financial year ending 31 December 2016 is RMB7,000,000,000. As stated in the Letter from the Board, this cap has not been exceeded as at the Latest Practicable Date and is not expected to be exceeded before 31 December 2016.

LETTER FROM OCTAL CAPITAL

The maximum daily outstanding balance of deposits as contemplated under the Financial Services Renewal Agreement is not expected by the Company to exceed RMB10,000,000,000, RMB11,500,000,000 and RMB13,000,000,000 for each of the three years ending 31 December 2017, 2018 and 2019 respectively. As set out in the Letter from the Board, the proposed annual caps for deposits pursuant to the Financial Services Renewal Agreement are mainly based on the facts that: (a) the Group's cash flow and cash needs are expected to increase as a result of the anticipated business growth and expansion such as aircrafts purchasing of the Group due to the continuous development of the domestic economy and the air transportation market; (b) in order to improve capital efficiency, the Group has further strengthened the centralised management of its funds and have done a series of fund raising activities to manage the cash shortfall due to business operation, which results in an increase in cash flow during peak seasons and thus an increase in the demand for deposits; and (c) the balance from foreign exchange management and settlement of the Group through the Eastern Air Finance Entities may gradually increase as a result of the Eastern Air Finance Entities becoming the pilot platform for State Administration Foreign Exchange ("SAFE") to operate centralised foreign exchange for headquarters of multi-national companies.

We understand from the Company that the significant increase in the proposed maximum daily outstanding balance of deposits in 2017 of 42.86% as compared to the approved annual cap for deposits of RMB7,000,000,000 in 2016 is mainly attributable to the Group's intention to centralise capital management in order to improve the overall capital efficiency of the Group. Specifically, the Company anticipated that the deposit balance of accounts maintained with the Eastern Air Finance Entities by a number of the Company's subsidiaries may increase in 2017 onwards. The Company further advised that several of its subsidiaries plan to open and maintain new accounts with the Eastern Air Finance Entities due to their respective business and operational needs, resulting in a potential increase in the Group's maximum deposit balances with the Eastern Air Finance Entities in the three years ending 31 December 2019. In addition, we note that during the financial year ending 31 December 2016, the Group issued (i) super-short-term commercial papers in the range of RMB15 billion to RMB50 billion; (ii) medium term notes due 2019 in the principal amount of RMB45 billion and (iii) medium term note due 2021 in the principal amount of RMB40 billion, which will result in an increase in cash inflow of the Group and as advised by the management of the Company, it is expected that the Company will continue to expand its financing scale in the coming years. Based on the above, we consider that the proposed maximum daily outstanding balance of deposits in 2017 of RMB10,000,000,000 as compared to the approved annual cap for deposits in 2016 of RMB7,000,000,000, representing an increase of RMB3,000,000,000 is reasonable.

We have been also advised by the Company that as a result of Eastern Air Finance Company becoming the pilot platform for SAFE to operate centralised foreign exchange for headquarters of multi-national companies, the Company expects the balance from foreign exchange management and settlement may gradually increase since more foreign currency transactions in respect of the Group's business operations are expected to be carried out via the Eastern Air Finance Entities. Accordingly, it is expected that there may be an increase in the daily outstanding balance of deposits placed with the Eastern Air Finance Entities during the three years ending 31 December 2016. Furthermore, as advised by the Company, it is anticipated that the business growth of the Group brought by the continuous growth in economy and the development of air transportation in the PRC may result in an increase in the volume of the Group's cash flows, and hence the demand for deposit services may increase. According to the National Bureau of Statistics of the PRC, the gross domestic product ("GDP") of the PRC grew at a rate of 7.4% and 6.9% for the year 2014 and 2015 respectively. Meanwhile, the official GDP growth target for 2016 is set at 7% according to "2016 Work Report of the State Council of the PRC*" presented at the Fourth Session of the Twelfth National People's Congress on 5 March 2016. Moreover, according to "Twelve Five Year Plan for the Development of the Civil Aviation in China*" published by Civil Aviation Administration of China in April 2011, the annualized growth targets for passenger transportation and freight transportation are set at 11% and 10% respectively from year 2010 to 2015. Furthermore, according to "China's 13th Five Year Plan", as China's economy will keep the medium-fast pace sustainable growth, the demand of aircraft services will keep increasing, which will result in a rapid growth for the industry. According to the annual report for the year ended December 31 2014 and 2015, the Company's passenger traffic volume were 127,750 million and 146,342 million passenger-kilometres, representing a year-on-year increase of 6.1% and 14.55%. The Company's passengers revenues for the year ended December 31 2014 and 2015 were RMB75,261 million and RMB78,585 million, representing a year-on-year increase of 3.2% and 4.4%. We note that the proposed annual cap amounts for deposits under the Financial Services Renewal Agreement for the two years ending 31 December 2019 will increase by approximately 15% and 13% respectively over that of the previous year. Taking into account the anticipated growth of the PRC economy and the air transportation market as described above, we consider that such growth rates in the proposed cap amounts are reasonable.

Based on the above, we are of the view that the basis adopted to determine the proposed maximum daily outstanding balance in respect of the deposit services contemplated under the Financial Services Renewal Agreement for the three years ending 31 December 2017, 2018 and 2019 is fair and reasonable.
