Other Events.

On May 29, 2018, Intercontinental Exchange, Inc. (“ICE”) issued a press release announcing that it had entered into a Limited Liability Company Interest Purchase Agreement (the “TMC Purchase Agreement”) with TheDebtCenter, L.L.C. (“Holdco”) and its current members (the “Sellers”) pursuant to which ICE has agreed to acquire TMC Bonds LLC (“TMC”) through the purchase of all of the issued and outstanding limited liability company membership interests in Holdco, the direct parent company of TMC.

The purchase price payable by ICE for TMC at the closing of the transaction is $685,000,000 in cash subject to a customary adjustment for working capital of TMC. The consummation of the transaction is subject to the satisfaction of customary closing conditions and receipt of certain regulatory clearances, including from the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc. and the expiration or termination of the applicable waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended. The TMC Purchase Agreement contains customary representations, warranties, covenants and closing conditions.

The TMC Purchase Agreement provides each of ICE and the Sellers with certain termination rights, including if the transaction has not been consummated prior to the “outside date”, which is extendable by ICE in certain circumstances to the date that is 14 months after the execution of the TMC Purchase Agreement. ICE is obligated to pay the Sellers a termination fee if the TMC Purchase Agreement is terminated in certain circumstances where antitrust approval has not yet been obtained. Depending on the timing and circumstances of the termination, the termination fee may range in amount from $27,400,000 to $102,750,000.

The transaction is expected to close in the second half of 2018, subject to obtaining the required regulatory approvals.

A copy of the press release is attached as Exhibit 99.1 and incorporated herein by reference.
