Siemens Launches 7-Year Convertible Bond

Siemens AG (Berlin and Munich) is launching a convertible bond issue of approximately 2.5 billion today convertible into approximately 45 million shares of Siemens AG. The convertible bond has a maturity of 7 years and cannot be called for the first four years of the life of the security, callable thereafter subject to a 130 per cent provisional call. The convertible bond is offered with a coupon of 0.875% to 1.375% and a conversion premium of 45% to 50%. The coupon and conversion premium will be set at final pricing, which is expected to occur today. The convertible bond will be issued by Siemens Finance B.V., a Dutch Siemens subsidiary, and guaranteed by Siemens AG. Siemens intends to list the convertible bond on the Luxembourg stock exchange.

The bond will be placed with institutional investors outside the US in reliance on Regulation S.

Siemens is issuing the convertible bond to benefit from the attractive financing opportunity available in the current convertible market given the low interest rate and high volatility environment. The proceeds of the issue will be used for general corporate purposes and are to support the financial flexibility of Siemens AG.
