Item 8.01. Other Events

On February 15, 2011 we made this announcement on our website: Lamperd Less Lethal is pleased to announce that we have reached an agreement with the large, European Corporation, Technopol International. This agreement will be to jointly manufacture a long range 30 mm less lethal sniper launcher. We will be modifying the very reliable RAG-30, which is currently used in Europe, with our light weight material used in our tried and true Defender. This modified less lethal launcher will be a semi-automatic, light weight version, firing our patented Wasp material at much greater distances than the 40 mm or 12 ga. launchers. There is nothing like this offered by other manufacturers. This news can be found at: www.lamperdleslethal.com.
