Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On January 4, 2006, the operating partnership of the Registrant, Berkshire Income Realty OP, L.P., through its subsidiaries JV Marina Mile, LLC, and BIR I, LLC, (the Seller), entered into a purchase and sale agreement (the Agreement) to sell The Berkshires at Marina Mile Apartments (Marina Mile), a 306 unit multifamily apartment community located in Ft Lauderdale, Florida, to Metro Real Estate Group, Inc (the Buyer). The sales price of the property is $46,955,000, and is subject to normal operating prorations and adjustments as provided for in the Agreement. The Buyer is an unaffiliated third party.

The Registrant has structured the transaction as a Section 1031 tax deferred exchange under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and intends to reinvest its share of the proceeds from the sale of Marina Mile in the purchase of a qualified replacement property.

The Agreement provides for an inspection period, during which the Buyer may enter the property to perform due diligence activities. The inspection period ends February 1, 2006. The Agreement also contains a right of termination, which provides the Buyer the option to terminate the Agreement in its sole discretion. The termination right expires contemporaneously with the expiration of the inspection period.

The Agreement calls for a closing on the sale of the property to take place on or before March 2, 2006, and provides for a one-time right for the Buyer to extend the closing date to no later than April 4, 2006, subject to payment to the Registrant of an additional deposit of $250,000. The agreement requires the Buyer to indemnify the Registrant from any and all liabilities, claims, costs and expenses arising out of the Buyer's entry onto the property upon exercise of its right of inspection during the inspection period. Such indemnification shall survive the closing on the property or the termination of the Agreement.
