re: RoboGroup T.E.K. Ltd - Immediate Disclosure

Following the announcements from RoboGroup T.E.K. Ltd. (the "Company" or "RoboGroup") dated December 14, 2003, and December 16, 2003, regarding the suit filled by the Company and its subsidiary, Robotec Technologies Ltd. ("Robotec") against Furier Systems (1989) Ltd. ("Furier"), the Company hereby announces that the district court in Tel-Aviv issued two injunctions against Furier on Thursday, March 11, 2004. The court determined that certain information, including commercial secrets of RoboGroup and Robotec, were found in Furier's offices and computers, and that Furier had breached the Israeli Commercial Torts Law, 1999. The court also determined that Furier was acting in bad faith by trying to annul its exclusive distribution agreement in Israel with Robotec.

The court ordered Furier to avoid using the information that came from the Company and/or Robotec. The court also ordered Furier to fulfill its obligation under its agreement to supply products to Robotec according to the original price list agreed to by the two companies.

The injunctions will remain in force until the law suit filed by the Company and Robotec is determined. The order to supply products will remain in effect until March 12, 2005, the end of the agreement term.

Very truly yours
