include market indices, stocks, commodities and foreign currency pairs. In addition, ParagonEX undertook to provide Giona services and support in connection with the Software. The License is non-exclusive, and the Software would be used on Giona's web-sites. In principal, the proceeds to Giona, after payment of consideration to ParagonEX, will be at least 88% of the net proceeds Giona receives from end users. The consideration ParagonEX will receive from Giona for entry into the Agreement is a monthly fee starting at 12% from the first dollar Giona generates going down to as little as %5-%7 from its revenues. Notwithstanding the above, after four months from the date of launching the Giona website that uses the Software (but not earlier than January 15, 2010 and not later than February 15, 2010), the fee shall be no less than $10,000 per month. In addition, Giona has agreed to implement an 8 months marketing budget of not less than $500,000 to be spent on marketing the services provided by Giona using the Software. This obligation will commence on the date in which Giona launches its website that uses the Software. If Giona fails to perform this undertaking, it will indemnify ParagonEX with a fixed fee of $50,000. Each party to the Agreement may terminate it for convenience upon providing a 90 days prior notice, but not before the 20th anniversary of the date in which Giona launches its website that uses the Software.

A copy of the Agreement is attached hereto, and incorporated by reference into this Current Report on Form 8-K as Exhibit 10.1.
