("Taaman" and together the "Parties") for joint control of BGI Investments (1961) Ltd ("BGI"), an indirect controlling shareholder of Willi Food Investments and the Company.

1. The details of the MoU, as provided to the Company, are as follows:

According to the MoU, a new company ("NewCo") will be incorporated for the purpose of holding approximately 71.5% of the shares of BGI and approximately 19% of the shares of BSD Crown Ltd. ("BSD").

Alternatively, if the transfer of the Israel 18 Holdings to NewCo will not be possible upon its incorporation,

1.2 Taaman will directly hold half of the shares that will actually transferred to NewCo. In such event, the Parties will negotiate terms for joint management and control.

NewCo's holdings in the Companies will be held by Adv. Yaakov Amster (the "Trustee") who will act as a trustee

1.3 appointed by both Parties and he will hold the voting rights attached to the Companies in accordance with a joint decision by the Parties.

Up until the point where Israel 18 completes all of its obligations under the MoU, Israel 18 will be entitled to 50%

1.4 of all dividends that will be distributed by NewCo and its subsidiaries, while the remaining 50% will go to Taaman.

1.5 The following will constitute a violation of the MoU:

1.5.1 If Israel 18 does not transfer to the Trustee all of the powers of attorney necessary in order to vote the shares of BSD under its ownership, within the agreed time frame, and will not give the possibility to use these voting rights, will be considered a breach which will give Taaman the right to sell NewCo's entire shareholdings and exercise all securities provided to Taaman under the loan agreement.

1.8 The MoU is subject to the approval of the Israel Antitrust Authority and will not be binding or have any legal status until the approval is given.

To the Company's best knowledge, such approval has not yet been received.

1.9 Both Parties have the right of first refusal, as well as tag-along and bring-along rights.

2. To the Company's best knowledge, the loan agreement and the MoU are independent agreements. One does not replace or cause the other to be void.

In accordance with the loan agreement, Taaman will replace the Shani group, and in the event that Israel 18 does not
3. repay the loan according to the loan agreement, Taaman will be entitled to exercise the pledged shares in order to fully redeem the loan it gave Israel 18. The loan agreement doesn't grant to Naaman voting rights in shares of BGI.
