COMBINATION OF PRUDENTIAL PLC AND AIA GROUP LIMITED TO CREATE A LEADING GLOBAL INSURER

SUMMARY

n Prudential plc ("Prudential") has reached agreement with American International Group Inc. ("AIG"), on terms for the combination of Prudential and AIA Group Limited ("AIA"), a wholly-owned subsidiary of AIG (the "Transaction")

n
This Transaction offers the opportunity to bring together two leading companies, positioning the Combined Group to capture the future growth opportunity in Asia. We believe the Transaction will both amplify and accelerate our stated strategy to deliver value to our shareholders

n AIG has agreed to the terms of the Transaction and has decided not to pursue the initial public offering of AIA on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange

n
The Transaction will be effected through the acquisition of both Prudential (by way of a scheme of arrangement, the "Scheme") and AIA by a new company ("New Prudential"). The new company will assume the name Prudential plc, be headquartered and incorporated in the UK, and traded on the main market of the London Stock Exchange with ADRs traded on the New York Stock Exchange

- In recognition of the importance of Asia to the Combined Group, Prudential intends, in due course after completion of the Transaction, to seek a dual primary-listing on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange
- The existing Board of Prudential will become the Board of New Prudential

n

AIG will receive total consideration of USD 35.5 billion, comprising USD 25.0 billion in cash and USD 10.5 billion in New Prudential Shares and other securities

- The cash component of the consideration will be financed through an underwritten rights issue (the "Rights Issue"), raising USD 20.0 billion (net of fees and expenses) and through issuance of USD 5.0 billion senior debt (net of fees and expenses)

- Credit Suisse, HSBC and J.P. Morgan Cazenove as Global Co-ordinators and Joint Bookrunners have undertaken to Prudential to underwrite the Rights Issue in full and Credit Suisse, HSBC and J.P. Morgan Cazenove have committed to provide the senior debt underwriting

- The terms of the Rights Issue will be set at the time of publication of Prudential and New Prudential prospectuses (the "Prospectuses")

n

The Rights Issue and the Scheme will be subject to shareholder approval at a General Meeting. The Transaction is also subject to certain regulatory and anti-trust approvals including various regulatory approvals required on a change of control of Prudential as a result of the Scheme

n

Prudential also today announces its unaudited 2009 preliminary results, which demonstrate the continued strength of its businesses in delivering very strong financial results across its key performance indicators. A separate announcement for unaudited 2009 preliminary results has been released today

OVERVIEW OF AIA

n

AIA is a leading life insurance organisation in Asia Pacific operating in 15 geographical markets. First established in 1919, AIA has been building a tied agency force that spans the Asia Pacific region from developed urban centres to rural areas

n

It provides individuals and businesses with products and services for their evolving insurance, protection, savings, investments and retirement needs in 15 geographical markets in the region: Hong Kong, Korea, Thailand, Singapore, China, Malaysia, the Philippines, Australia, Indonesia, Vietnam, Taiwan, New Zealand, India, Macau and Brunei. As of 30 November 2009, AIA had more than 320,000 agents and approximately 23,500 employees serving the holders of its more than 23 million in-force policies and its more than 10 million participating members of its clients for group life, medical, credit life coverage and pension products. In the financial year ending 30 November 2009, the AIA Group generated USD 1,438 million of operating profit after tax (unaudited).

COMBINATION CREATES A LEADING ASIAN INSURER

n

Prudential believes that the combination of its Asian operations with AIA will create a unique business with a significant focus on the Asian markets and leading positions in 7 countries with highly complementary products and distribution channels across the region

n

The Combined Group will be the leading life insurer in Hong Kong, Singapore, Malaysia, Indonesia, Vietnam, Thailand and the Philippines, with the leading foreign life insurance business in China and India, a significantly enhanced presence in the high growth South East Asian life markets and strong operations in the US and the UK

n

In recognition of the importance of Asia to the Combined Group, Prudential intends to in due course, after completion of the Transaction, seek a dual primary-listing on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange

ATTRACTIVE VALUATION AND SUBSTANTIAL LONG-TERM VALUE CREATING POTENTIAL

n

The price payable to AIG for the Transaction represents a multiple of 1.69x AIA's Embedded Value as at 30 November 2009 and 25.4x AIA's 30 November 2009 New Business Profit

n

The Transaction is anticipated to generate fully phased annual cost savings of approximately USD 340 million before tax within three years post closing of the transaction. In addition, the combination provides an opportunity to achieve revenue synergies through enhanced agency productivity, leveraging off bancassurance relationships, enhancing customer cross-selling and synergies across asset management activities

Commenting on the Transaction, Tidjane Thiam, Chief Executive Officer of Prudential, said:

"This transaction is hugely exciting and a one-off opportunity to transform the Group. We believe that the combination of Prudential and AIA will create a unique life insurance business with a common set of customer-focused values and heritage. Asia has been very clearly a major driver of value for Prudential for several years and in 2009 it accounted for 44 per cent of new business profit (post-tax). The Combined Group would have 60 per cent. of 2009 new business profit coming from Asia and puts us in a strong leadership position in all the critical growth markets in the region. Aside from this Transaction, it is our intent in due course to seek a dual primary-listing on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange to enable our customers and investor base to share in this value creating opportunity. The headquarters of the Combined Group will remain in London."
