Prudential plc Appoints New Non-Executive Directors

Prudential plc ("Prudential") today announces the appointment of Lord Turner of Ecchinswell and David Law as non-executive directors. Lord Turner and Mr Law will join the Board with immediate effect.

Lord Turner has been appointed a member of the Risk Committee and Mr Law has been appointed a member of the Audit Committee.

Lord Turner has extensive high-level experience of international regulation and financial services. He has served as the Chairman of the UK's Financial Services Authority, as a member of the international Financial Stability Board, as a non-executive director of the Bank of England and as the Director-General of the Confederation of British Industry. He is currently Chairman of the Institute for New Economic Thinking and a non-executive director of OakNorth Bank.

Mr Law has a detailed understanding of the audit processes of global insurance groups. He was the Global Leader of PwC's insurance practice, a Partner in PwC's UK firm and worked as the Lead Audit Partner for multinational insurance companies until his retirement on 30 June 2015. He has also been responsible for PwC's insurance and investment management assurance practice in London and the firm's Scottish assurance division. He is currently a Director of L&F Holdings Limited and Chief Executive of L&F Indemnity Limited, the professional indemnity captive insurance group that serves the PricewaterhouseCoopers network.

Commenting on the appointments, Paul Manduca, Chairman of Prudential, said: "I am delighted that Lord Turner and David Law are joining the Board. Lord Turner's distinguished career has given him considerable expertise in global financial services, particularly in regulation and risk management. David Law is highly respected in the international insurance community and brings with him a wealth of experience of the audit processes of global insurance groups."

Shareholding

Lord Turner and Mr Law hold no interest in any shares of Prudential under the meaning of Part XV of the Hong Kong Securities and Futures Ordinance.

Length of service

Non-executive directors are usually appointed for an initial three-year term, commencing with their election by shareholders at the first Annual General Meeting following their appointment. They are typically expected to serve for two three-year terms from their initial election by shareholders, although the Board may invite them to serve for an additional period.

Remuneration

Non-executive directors are not eligible to participate in annual bonus plans, long-term incentive plans or pension arrangements. Their fees are determined by the Board and reflect their individual responsibilities, including committee membership as appropriate.

Lord Turner's annual fee at appointment will be £121,500, consisting of a basic fee of £94,000 plus an additional fee of £27,500 for his committee role. Mr Law's annual fee at appointment will be £121,500, consisting of a basic fee of £94,000 plus an additional fee of £27,500 for his committee role.

Regulatory disclosures

Lord Turner is considered to be independent from appointment for the purposes of the UK Corporate Governance Code and under the Hong Kong Listing Rules. Mr Law is considered to be independent from appointment for the purposes of the UK Corporate Governance Code (and, in relation to his membership of the Audit Committee, US governance requirements). For Hong Kong Listing Rule purposes, the Company will only consider Mr Law independent, except in the event of any relevant changes, from 1 July 2016, the date one year after his retirement from PwC.

Save as disclosed above, there is no further information required to be disclosed pursuant to Listing Rule 9.6.13 (1) - (6) of the Listing Rules of the Financial Conduct Authority and Rule 13.51(2) of the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited.
