NOTICE OF SPECIAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

DECEMBER 29, 2004

Dear Stockholder,

You are cordially invited to a special meeting of stockholders of Contango Oil & Gas Company, which will be held at 3700 Buffalo Speedway, Suite 960, Houston, Texas 77098, on Wednesday, December 29, 2004 at 9:00 a.m., Central Time.

We have agreed to sell substantially all of our interests in natural gas and oil properties in south Texas to Edge Petroleum Exploration Company, if our stockholders authorize the proposed sale. Edge's parent, Edge Petroleum Corporation, is a publicly-held independent natural gas and oil company engaged in the exploration, development, acquisition, and production of natural gas and oil properties in the United States. In exchange for the interests, Edge has agreed to pay us a total of $50 million, subject to specific adjustments. The proposed sale of assets to Edge would take place under an asset purchase agreement, dated as of October 7, 2004. The full text of the asset purchase agreement is included as Annex A to the proxy statement that accompanies this letter. The sale of a portion of these assets is subject to rights of first refusal held by the lessors of these interests under various leases. In the event such lessors exercise any of their first refusal rights, the interests subject thereto would be sold to such lessors on substantially the same terms as set forth in the asset purchase agreement between us and Edge.

It is not clear under Delaware law whether the proposed sale of assets to Edge requires the authorization of our stockholders. To avoid uncertainty, we are seeking the authorization of our stockholders. The sale will not be completed unless and until it is authorized by the holders of a majority of our outstanding shares of common stock voting together as a single class with holders of our Series C preferred stock, who will vote as if their shares were converted into shares of common stock. We have scheduled a special meeting of our stockholders for this vote on December 29, 2004. YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT.

OUR BOARD OF DIRECTORS HAS UNANIMOUSLY DETERMINED THAT THE PROPOSED SALE OF ASSETS IS IN THE BEST INTERESTS OF US AND OUR STOCKHOLDERS. THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY APPROVED THE PROPOSED SALE AND THE ASSET PURCHASE AGREEMENT AND RECOMMENDS THAT YOU VOTE FOR THE PROPOSED SALE.

Holders of our common stock and holders of our Series C convertible preferred stock at the close of business on November 16, 2004 are entitled to attend and vote at the meeting. You have two options in submitting your vote prior to the special meeting date:

(1) You may sign and return the enclosed proxy card in the accompanying envelope; or

(2) If your shares are held in street name, you can vote over the Internet at the address shown on your proxy card.

Whether or not you plan to attend the special meeting in person, please date, sign, and return the enclosed proxy card promptly or vote over the Internet. A postage-paid return envelope is enclosed for your convenience. If you decide to attend the special meeting, you can, if you wish, revoke your proxy and vote in person. If you have any questions, please contact us through our website at www.contango.com, send us an e-mail at contango@contango.com or write us at 3700 Buffalo Speedway, Suite 960, Houston, Texas 77098.

The purpose of the special meeting is to:

1. Consider and vote upon a proposal to sell substantially all of our interests in natural gas and oil properties in south Texas to (a) Edge Petroleum Exploration Company pursuant to the terms of an asset purchase agreement, dated as of October 7, 2004 and/or (b) the lessors of a portion of these interests on substantially the same terms as set forth in such asset purchase agreement, in the event and to the extent such lessors exercise their rights of first refusal covering the sale of any of these interests. We anticipate that we will obtain waivers from these lessors of their rights of first refusal. A copy of the asset purchase agreement is attached as Annex A to the accompanying proxy statement.

2. Transact such other business as may properly come before the special meeting and any adjournment thereof. The Board of Directors is not aware of any other business that will be presented for consideration at the special meeting.

OUR BOARD OF DIRECTORS HAS UNANIMOUSLY DETERMINED THAT THE TERMS OF THE PROPOSED SALE ARE IN THE BEST INTERESTS OF US AND OUR STOCKHOLDERS AND RECOMMENDS THAT YOU VOTE FOR THE PROPOSED SALE.

Only holders of our common stock and holders of our Series C preferred stock as of the close of business on November 16, 2004 are entitled to notice of and to vote at the special meeting.

We are mailing this proxy statement to you on or about December 9, 2004, together with the accompanying proxy card.

We cordially invite you to attend the special meeting. Whether or not you plan to attend, please complete, date, and sign the proxy card and return it promptly in the return envelope provided. Table of ContentsSUMMARY TERM SHEET

This summary term sheet highlights selected information regarding the proposed sale and may not contain all of the information that is important to you. All references in this proxy statement to we, us, or our are to Contango Oil & Gas Company and its subsidiaries. To understand the proposed sale more fully and for a complete description of the legal terms of the proposed sale, you should carefully read this entire document and the documents we refer you to. Also see Where You Can Find More Information on page 27. We have included page references parenthetically to direct you to the page of this document where you can find a more complete discussion of the topic.

THE ASSETS (SEE PAGE 8). Through a wholly-owned subsidiary, we own interests in natural gas and oil producing properties in south Texas. The interests are in various natural gas and oil leases, wells, equipment, contracts, and seismic rights. Throughout this proxy statement, we will refer to these assets collectively as our south Texas natural gas and oil interests. We drilled our first successful exploratory well on these properties in June 2000. We subsequently drilled 51 wells, of which 38 were successful. In addition in 2002 and 2003, we increased our working and net revenue interests in our south Texas properties through a series of acquisitions that resulted in the purchase of 14.0 Bcfe. As of June 30, 2004, we held an average 68% net working interest and a 52% net revenue interest in our south Texas natural gas and oil interests and owned approximately 16.0 Bcfe of total proved reserves, all of which were classified as proved developed producing. The pre-tax net present value of these proved reserves using a 10% discount rate as of June 30, 2004 was $54.3 million. The sale of these assets to Edge is subject to approval by a majority of our stockholders, rights of first refusal held by lessors of a portion of these interests, and rights to prohibit assignment held by lessors of a portion of these interests. Other than as described below, all of the lessors have waived their rights of first refusal with respect to the sale to Edge and consented to the assignment of the interests to Edge, to the extent they hold such rights. Six lessors of interests having an aggregate allocated value of approximately $25 million hold rights to prohibit assignment of such interests and have not yet consented to assignment of the interests to Edge. Two lessors of interests having an aggregate allocated value of approximately $900,000 hold rights of first refusal and rights to prohibit assignment of such interests and have not yet consented to the sale and assignment of such interests of Edge. We have notified these eight lessors of the pending sale, and we anticipate that we will obtain waivers and consents from these lessors. In the event one of these lessors exercises its right of first refusal, we would sell the applicable interest to the lessor on substantially the same terms as set forth in the asset purchase agreement with Edge. Subject to the conditions of Edge's obligations under its asset purchase agreement, described below, including that we have obtained consents to assign interest in wells that have an aggregate allocated value equal to at least 80% of the purchase price, Edge would be obligated to purchase the remainder of the interests. In the event one of these lessors prohibits the assignment of an interest to Edge, Edge would not purchase the applicable interest.

THE PROPOSED SALE OF THE ASSETS (SEE PAGE 8). We have agreed to sell our south Texas natural gas and oil interests to Edge Petroleum Exploration Company. Specifically, we will sell all of the interests to Edge for $50 million, subject to adjustment to reflect, among other items, title defects, environmental remediation costs, and the net proceeds we derive from the interests between July 1, 2004 and the date on which the proposed sale is completed. Assuming the sale is completed on December 31, 2004, we estimate we will have received approximately $7 million in net revenues for production during the four months of July, August, September, and October. We thus would anticipate receiving approximately $43 million in pre-tax proceeds, with estimated taxes owed as a result of this sale of approximately $9 million. We anticipate net proceeds after tax and before debt repayment of approximately $34 million. We currently anticipate closing this transaction by December 31, 2004. The transaction does not require the parties to obtain any regulatory approval or comply with any federal or state regulatory requirement.

USE OF PROCEEDS (SEE PAGE 12). Assuming the sale is completed on December 31, 2004, we will have net after tax and after debt repayment proceeds of approximately $34 million. Initially, we expect to invest these proceeds in short-term U.S. government securities. These funds will provide working capital for ongoing operations and allow us to continue investing in our existing onshore exploration programs and to maintain our 10% limited partnership interest in the Freeport LNG plant, including a possible expansion in the plant's capacity. As a result of our increased liquidity from this sale, we will consider acquiring direct working interests, on a prospect by prospect basis, of between 5% and 20% in offshore Gulf of Mexico prospects being pursued by our two partially owned subsidiaries. While we intend to use the proceeds to fund our offshore and onshore exploration prospects and develop the LNG terminal, we do not yet know the precise prospects and actual expenditures. We will determine the precise prospects and actual expenditures as opportunities arise and we assess the risks and rewards related to each opportunity. We intend to remain an independent natural gas and oil company engaged in the exploration, production, and acquisition of natural gas and oil.

OUR REASONS FOR THE PROPOSED SALE (SEE PAGE 10). Our core belief and strategy is that the value creation event in the natural gas and oil exploration industry is the drilling and discovery of natural gas and oil reserves. We, thus, routinely review our assets with the objective of maximizing the exploration opportunities and returns available to us. In Contango's five year history, we have attempted to be opportunistic and have previously both purchased and sold reserves. For instance, in fiscal years 2002 and 2003, we purchased 14.0 Bcfe of our south Texas proved reserves for $26 million. In fiscal year 2003, we offered our south Texas properties for sale but did not receive any acceptable offers and decided not to pursue the sale. In fiscal year 2004, we sold natural gas and oil assets for approximately $11 million and used the proceeds to reduce debt and invest in our onshore and offshore exploration programs and in our Freeport LNG plant. We believe Edge has offered us a fair and attractive price from a financial perspective for our properties. We believe our increased liquidity as a result of this sale will enable us to expand our offshore exploration opportunities.

OUR BOARD OF DIRECTORS' RECOMMENDATION (SEE PAGE 12). Our Board of Directors believes that the proposed sale is in the best interests of us and our stockholders and unanimously recommends that you vote in favor of the proposed sale.

THE ASSET PURCHASE AGREEMENT (SEE PAGE 13). The asset purchase agreement, dated as of October 7, 2004, is attached as Annex A to this proxy statement. We encourage you to read the agreement as it is the legal document that governs the proposed sale.

CONDITIONS TO THE ASSET PURCHASE AGREEMENT (SEE PAGE 17). The completion of the proposed sale depends upon meeting a number of conditions, including the following:

Lessor's failure to exercise its right of first refusal with respect to the assets,

Consent of the lessor to assignment of the assets,

Authorization by a majority vote of our stockholders,

There being no material adverse change in the value of the assets, and

The transactions contemplated by the asset purchase agreement not having been abandoned, as described below.

ABANDONMENT OF THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED BY THE ASSET PURCHASE AGREEMENT (SEE PAGE 17). If net adjustments to the purchase price with respect to title defects and environmental matters exceed $5 million, either we or Edge may abandon the transactions contemplated by the asset purchase agreement at any time prior to the completion of the sale. In addition, either party may abandon the transactions contemplated by the asset purchase agreement if (1) a court or other governmental authority prohibits the proposed sale, or (2) the closing conditions have not been met and the proposed sale has not been completed on or before the earlier of February 28, 2005 and the date that follows December 31, 2004 by the number of days equal to the number of days between the date the SEC notified us that it would review our proxy statement, which was October 18, 2004, and the date the SEC's review process is completed. This date when either party may abandon the transactions if the closing conditions have not been met is the last permitted closing date.

BREAK-UP FEES (SEE PAGE 17). If the closing conditions set forth in the asset purchase agreement are satisfied and Edge fails to fulfill its obligations necessary to purchase our assets pursuant to the agreement by the last permitted closing date, then we may terminate the agreement, and Edge will owe us $2 million. If the closing conditions set forth in the asset purchase agreement are satisfied and we fail to fulfill our obligations necessary to sell our assets pursuant to the agreement by the last permitted closing date or our Board of Directors amends its recommendation of Edge's offer and recommends a superior proposal, then either we or Edge may terminate the agreement, and we will owe Edge $2 million. If our stockholders fail to approve the proposed sale, we will owe Edge $1 million.

ACCOUNTING TREATMENT (SEE PAGE 13). Under accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, upon stockholder approval of the proposed transaction, we expect to reflect the results of operations of the south Texas natural gas and oil interests sold as discontinued operations, including the related gain on the sale, net of any applicable taxes commencing with the quarter during which the proposed sale closes. For further information, see the pro forma financial information.

UNITED STATES FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES. The proposed sale of our south Texas natural gas and oil interests will not result in any United States federal income tax consequences to you. If completed, the proposed sale will, however, be a taxable event to us for United States federal income tax purposes.

NO APPRAISAL RIGHTS. Under Delaware law, our stockholders are not entitled to appraisal rights in connection with the proposed sale.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE PROPOSED SALE

Q: WHY ARE WE SELLING OUR NATURAL GAS AND OIL INTERESTS IN THE SOUTH TEXAS PROPERTIES?

A: Throughout Contango's five year history, we have attempted to be both an opportunistic purchaser and seller of reserves. Natural gas and crude oil prices are currently near their historic highs, and we think this is an opportune time to sell. Edge recently submitted an unsolicited offer to purchase substantially all of our south Texas natural gas and oil interests, and we have accepted Edge's offer, subject to conditions contained in the asset purchase agreement, including the approval of our stockholders. Our Board of Directors believes that the price Edge will pay for the interests is both fair and attractive from a financial point of view.

Q: WHAT ARE THE EXPECTED PROCEEDS FROM THE SALE?

A: The effective time of the sale will be July 1, 2004. Assuming the sale is completed on December 31, 2004, we estimate will have received approximately $7 million in net revenues for production during the four months of July, August, September, and October. We thus would anticipate receiving approximately $43 million in pre-tax proceeds, with estimated taxes owed as a result of this sale of approximately $9 million. We anticipate net proceeds after tax and before debt repayment of approximately $34 million.

Q: WHAT ARE WE PLANNING TO DO WITH THE NET PROCEEDS FROM THE SALE?

A: Initially, we expect to invest the proceeds from the sale in short-term U.S. government securities. These funds will provide working capital for ongoing operations and allow us to continue investing in our existing onshore exploration programs and to maintain our 10% limited partnership interest in the Freeport LNG plant, including any expansion in the plant's capacity.

The additional liquidity will give us the ability to consider taking a 5% to 20% working interest position in the offshore Gulf of Mexico exploration opportunities being developed by our two partially owned subsidiaries, Republic Exploration, LLC and Contango Offshore Exploration, LLC. Our offshore Gulf of Mexico prospects are focused on the deep shelf portion of the Gulf of Mexico. The deep shelf refers to the depth of the prospect, which is greater than 15,000 feet, not the depth of the water. Deep shelf prospects are expensive, with dry hole costs in the range of $10 to $20 million, and costs can be considerably greater if adverse weather conditions or down hole problems develop. Deep shelf prospects are risky, as 3-D seismic data are not as effective an exploration tool as depth increases below 15,000 feet. Deep shelf discoveries, however, are typically considerably larger than onshore discoveries. We can offer no assurances that any deep shelf prospects in which we invest will be successful.

While we intend to use the proceeds to fund our offshore and onshore exploration prospects and develop the LNG terminal, we do not yet know the precise prospects and actual expenditures. We will determine the precise uses and actual expenditures as opportunities arise and we assess the risks and rewards related to each opportunity. We intend to remain an independent natural gas and oil company engaged in the exploration, production, and acquisition of natural gas and oil.

Q: WHEN DO YOU EXPECT THE PROPOSED SALE TO BE COMPLETED?

A: We are working to complete the proposed sale as quickly as practicable. If all necessary approvals, including stockholder approval and third party consents, have been obtained, we hope to complete the sale shortly after the special meeting scheduled for December 29, 2004.

Q: WHY ARE WE ASKING FOR A STOCKHOLDER VOTE? WHAT VOTE IS REQUIRED?

A: The proposed sale may constitute the sale of substantially all of our assets under Delaware corporate law. If so, the proposed sale requires authorization by the holders of a majority of our outstanding common stock voting together as a class with holders of our Series C preferred stock, who will vote as if their shares had been converted into shares of common stock. Because it is not clear whether the proposed sale requires stockholder authorization, we are making the sale subject to a stockholder vote to avoid any uncertainty, and we will not complete the sale unless and until it is authorized by the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of our common stock and Series C preferred stock voting as a single class as described below.

Q: WHO IS ENTITLED TO VOTE?

A: Record holders of our capital stock as of November 16, 2004 are entitled to vote at the special meeting.

Q: HOW MANY SHARES MAY VOTE AT THE SPECIAL MEETING?

A: Holders of common stock and holders of Series C preferred stock will vote as one class at the special meeting. Each record holder of common stock is entitled to one vote per share of common stock. Each record holder of Series C preferred stock is entitled to one vote for each share of common stock into which each share of Series C preferred stock is convertible. Currently, each holder of Series C preferred stock on the record date is entitled to 833 votes per share of Series C preferred stock owned. As of the record date of November 16, 2004, we had outstanding 13,004,950 shares of common stock and 1,400 shares of Series C preferred stock, which were convertible into 1,166,662 shares of common stock. The total number of shares eligible to vote is thus 14,171,612. The affirmative vote of a majority of these shares is required for approval.

Q: WHAT WILL HAPPEN IF THE PROPOSED ASSET SALE IS NOT APPROVED?

A: If our stockholders fail to approve the proposed sale, then either we or Edge may terminate the agreement, and we will owe Edge $1 million as liquidated damages.

We would continue to invest in our onshore exploration programs and invest as necessary to maintain our 10% limited partnership interest in our Freeport LNG plant. We would have to increase our debt or sell equity to have the liquidity needed to invest in as many or take as large a working interest in Republic Exploration's and Contango Offshore Exploration's prospects if this sale were not to occur.

Q: WHAT DO I NEED TO DO NOW?

A: Just complete, sign, and mail your signed proxy card in the enclosed return envelope as soon as possible so that your shares may be represented at the special meeting. The meeting will take place on December 29, 2004. Our Board of Directors unanimously recommends that you vote in favor of the proposed sale.

Q: CAN I CHANGE MY VOTE AFTER I HAVE MAILED IN MY SIGNED PROXY CARD?

A: Yes. You can change your vote at any time before we vote your proxy at the special meeting. You can do so in one of three ways. First, you can send a written notice stating that you would like to revoke your proxy to our Secretary at the address given below. Second, you can request a new proxy card and complete and send it to our Secretary at the address given below. Third, you can attend the special meeting and vote in person.

You should send any written notice or request for a new proxy card to the attention of the Secretary, Contango Oil & Gas Company, 3700 Buffalo Speedway, Suite 960, Houston, Texas 77098.

Q: IF MY SHARES ARE HELD IN STREET NAME BY MY BROKER, WILL MY BROKER VOTE MY SHARES FOR ME?

A: Your broker will vote your shares only if you provide instructions on how to vote. Following the directions provided by your broker, you should instruct your broker to vote your shares. Without your instructions, your shares will not be voted, which will have the same effect as a vote against the proposed sale.

Q: WHAT IS THE EFFECT OF AN ABSTENTION OR A BROKER NON-VOTE?

A: Abstentions and broker non-votes are counted for purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum for the transaction of business. A broker non-vote occurs when a nominee holding shares of our common stock for a beneficial owner does not vote on a particular proposal because the nominee does not have discretionary voting power with respect to that item and has not received instructions from the beneficial owner. Abstentions are counted in tabulations of the votes cast on proposals presented to stockholders as a vote against, whereas broker non-votes are not counted for purposes of determining whether a proposal has been approved.

Q: HOW WILL WE SOLICIT PROXIES?

A: Proxies may be solicited in person, by telephone, facsimile, mail or e-mail by our directors, officers and employees without additional compensation. Brokers, nominees, fiduciaries, and other custodians have been requested to forward soliciting material to the beneficial owners of shares of our common stock held of record by them, and we will reimburse such custodians for their reasonable expenses.

Q: WHO CAN ANSWER FURTHER QUESTIONS?

RISK FACTORS

In considering whether to authorize the proposed sale, you should consider, in addition to the other information contained in this document, the following risks:

The sale of the natural gas and oil interests will reduce revenue and income from operations by approximately 80%.

The south Texas natural gas and oil interests we are selling constitute 80% of our estimated revenues and 80% of estimated income for our July, August, September and October operations. Following the sale, we will have remaining production of approximately 3.0 MMcfe per day. Based on current prices and production rates, this level of production will result in monthly net production revenues prior to interest, income taxes, depreciation, depletion and amortization, impairment, expenses, exploration expenses, including gains (losses) from hedging activities and sales of assets of $400,000 to $500,000 per month, a level believed to be sufficient to pay our on-going cash general and administrative expenses of $175,000 to $200,000 per month. Our stockholders will be exposed to the reinvestment risk of the sales proceeds. To the extent we are unsuccessful in our onshore and offshore exploration programs or our Freeport LNG receiving terminal is not successfully developed, your investment in us will suffer.

There is no plan to distribute any of the proceeds of the asset sale to our stockholders, and exploration drilling involves significant risks.

We do not intend to distribute any portion of the proceeds from the asset sale to our stockholders. Our intention is to use the net proceeds of the sale to attempt to maximize shareholder value. Initially, the net proceeds will be invested in short-term U.S. government securities. We intend to continue to pursue natural gas and oil exploration, both onshore and offshore. These opportunities involve significant risks. Our future investments may be illiquid and could result in a total loss to us and our stockholders if our exploration efforts prove unsuccessful.

You should also consider the risk factors set forth in our Form 10-K for the year ended June 30, 2004 that relate to our intended use of proceeds, particularly those regarding the risks involved in natural gas and oil exploration.

THE PROPOSED SALE

General

Pursuant to the terms of the asset purchase agreement, we propose to sell to Edge all of our south Texas natural gas and oil interests located in south Texas. The purchase price is $50 million, subject to adjustment as described below.

Description of the Assets to be Sold

We are selling our working and net revenue interests in natural gas and oil leases, wells, equipment, contracts, and seismic rights related to properties located in south Texas. Current net production from the south Texas properties is approximately 11 million cubic feet of natural gas per day and 150 barrels of condensate per day. Total proved producing reserves attributable to the properties as of June 30, 2004 totaled approximately 14.4 Bcf of natural gas and 266,000 barrels of oil. Based on relevant spot prices at June 30, 2004 of $5.90 per MMBtu for natural gas at the Houston Ship Channel (which equates to a NYMEX price of $6.16 per MMBtu) and to a NYMEX oil price of $37.05 per barrel, in each case before adjusting for basis, transportation, and BTU content, the proved producing reserves had a present value of approximately $54.3 million, assuming a 10% discount rate. The south Texas natural gas and oil interests represent 93% of our proved onshore reserves and 80% of our current estimated production. The interests are held by a limited partnership. Two of our wholly-owned subsidiaries are the sole general partner and sole limited partner of the limited partnership.

On a consolidated basis, revenues attributable to the south Texas natural gas and oil interests equaled 95% of our total revenues and 100% of our operating income as of June 30, 2004. The south Texas natural gas and oil interests constituted approximately 55% of our assets as of June 30, 2004.

Historical financial information is set forth in our consolidated financial statements, which are included in our annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended June 30, 2004.

Background of the Proposed Sale

On an ongoing basis our management reviews various alternatives to enhance stockholder value. As part of this process, in late 2002, we began to look at the feasibility of selling our south Texas natural gas and oil interests. We believed that we would receive a better return on our capital by engaging in a more active prospect generation and exploration effort.

In October 2002, we engaged Randall & Dewey Inc. to assist us in conducting a possible sale. Randall & Dewey contacted numerous potential buyers regarding their possible interest in acquiring those interests. In December of 2002, prior to receiving any indications of interest from prospective buyers, we determined that it was in the best interests of our stockholders not to proceed with a proposed sale at that time, and we ended our efforts to sell the south Texas natural gas and oil interests. We anticipated that we would negotiate a purchase price with potential purchasers and did not seek a particular purchase price. Our relationship with Randall & Dewey Inc. ended in 2002, and Randall & Dewey Inc.

has had no involvement with our proposed asset sale to Edge.

In August of 2004, Michael Long, Edge's Chief Financial Officer, and C.W. MacLeod, Edge's Senior Vice President of Business Development and Planning, requested a meeting on August 26, 2004 with Kenneth R. Peak, our Chairman and Chief Financial Officer. Messrs. Long and MacLeod did not state a purpose for the meeting. Mr. Peak knew that Edge was a company engaged in the energy industry and agreed to meet with Edge's officers. At the August 26, 2004 meeting, Messrs. Long and MacLeod indicated Edge's interest in our natural gas and oil properties in south Texas. Mr. Peak stated that Contango was continually reviewing its assets and would be interested in selling its south Texas properties at a price of $50 million. Mr. Peak arrived at the $50 million price due to his familiarity as our Chairman and Chief Executive Officer with the daily production from our properties, the market for reserves, and the extent of our proved reserves. After the initial meeting, Edge indicated that it would be interested in performing due diligence with respect to our south Texas natural gas and oil interests.

On September 1, 2004 through September 3, 2004, our Board of Directors held its annual retreat. The Board of Directors was not previously aware of Edge's indication of interest in potentially purchasing our south Texas natural gas and oil interests. At the annual retreat, Mr. Peak advised the Board of Directors of his meeting with Edge's officers. The Board of Directors directed Mr. Peak to pursue the potential asset sale, but did not authorize a sale or approve a purchase price. On September 21, 2004, after receiving additional confirmation of Edge's interest, Mr. Peak advised our Board of Directors of Edge's continued interest, and after further discussing the possible consequences of the asset sale, our Board of Directors recommended that Mr. Peak continue to pursue the potential asset sale. Again, the Board of Directors did not authorize a sale or approve a purchase price.

On September 8, 2004, we entered into a confidentiality agreement with Edge. On September 9, 2004 and again on September 14, 2004, senior executives of Edge visited our offices to perform due diligence. On September 23, 2004, Edge's Chief Financial Officer and Senior Vice President advised Mr. Peak that Edge was prepared to offer $50 million for all of our south Texas natural gas and oil interests, subject to negotiation of definitive documentation and receipt of required third party consents and approvals. Mr. Peak discussed the proposal with each other member of our Board of Directors, and each member encouraged Mr. Peak to negotiate the terms of an asset purchase agreement on our behalf.

Over the course of the next two weeks, we negotiated the terms and conditions of the asset purchase agreement with Edge, including terms relating to purchase price adjustments, representations and warranties, indemnification for breaches of the agreement and related indemnification threshold and liquidated damage amounts. Our Board of Directors unanimously approved the proposed sale on October 6, 2004 and directed our officers to conclude the negotiation of, and execute, a definitive version of the asset purchase agreement. Contango, Edge, and Contango STEP, L.P., our limited partnership that directly owns the assets, executed the definitive asset purchase agreement on October 7, 2004.

The Board of Directors relied in part on a reserve report prepared by independent third-party reservoir engineers. The reserve report was prepared to enable us to present the estimated value of our reserves to our stockholders in our annual report. The report was not prepared in anticipation of the proposed sale. A summary of the reserve report is set forth on pages 11 and 12 of this proxy statement. The engineers prepared the report during August of 2004 and delivered the report to us on September 10, 2004. The engineers were aware that we had considered selling our south Texas natural gas and oil interests in 2002 but were not aware that we were considering the sale of the interests in 2004.

Reasons for the Proposed Sale

In reaching its decision to recommend and approve the proposed sale and the asset purchase agreement, our Board of Directors considered the following material factors:

Our strategy for maximizing stockholder value is based on our core belief that the value creation event in our industry is the drilling of successful exploration wells. The increased liquidity and financial flexibility provided by this sale will allow us to drill more exploration wells.

Natural gas and crude oil prices are currently near their historic highs, and we think this is an opportune time to sell.

In the last several years, we have invested approximately $20 million in offshore Gulf of Mexico 3-D seismic data, a sophisticated 3-D seismic reprocessing center, and 42 offshore leases through our two partially owned subsidiaries, Republic Exploration, LLC and Contango Offshore Exploration, LLC. Through Republic Exploration and Contango Offshore Exploration, we now own 3-D seismic data in over 4,000 blocks and 42 leases. Our strategy to date has been to farm-out our prospects to others and keep an overriding royalty interest or carried back-in working interest. As a result of our increased liquidity, we intend to consider investing, on a prospect by prospect basis, a 5% to 20% working interest position in our deep shelf offshore prospects. Deep shelf prospects are risky and expensive, but typically have potential for greater reserves and production than the onshore prospects available to us.

Based on a reserve report prepared by our independent third-party reservoir engineers, as summarized immediately below, our south Texas natural gas and oil interests, using relevant spot prices at June 30, 2004 of $5.90 per MMBtu for natural gas at the Houston Ship Channel (which equates to a NYMEX price of $6.16 per MMBtu) and to a NYMEX oil price of $37.05 per barrel, in each case before adjusting for basis, transportation, and BTU content, the proved producing reserves had a present value of approximately $54.3 million, assuming a 10% discount rate. Our reserves are 90% natural gas. Natural gas prices are both cyclical and volatile, and we believe this is an attractive price.

The consideration to be paid by Edge consists entirely of cash.

The asset purchase agreement does not contain a financing condition and, accordingly, we are not assuming the risk that Edge will be unable to obtain financing.

Other terms of the asset purchase agreement, which is the product of extensive arm's-length negotiations are believed to be reasonable and commercially attractive.

Its determination that the consideration to be received for the south Texas natural gas and oil interests is fair based on an assessment of our business and financial results.

The risk and uncertainty associated with our south Texas natural gas and oil interests being concentrated in one area.

Our south Texas properties included in the proposed sale constitute the bulk of the collateral used to secure our existing bank line, which recently was reviewed and approved at $21 million. The amount of borrowings under the existing line is limited to a hydrocarbon borrowing base. The revolving line of credit currently available to us declines at approximately $600,000 per month and at December 1, 2004 is projected to be $19.8 million. After completion of the proposed transaction, we will have sold almost all of our hydrocarbon assets used to collateralize our bank revolver, and our remaining bank credit line, if any, will be less than $2 million.

We will pay federal income taxes as a result of this sale. The increased liquidity provided by this sale, however, gives us the ability to acquire 5% to 20% working interests in available Gulf of Mexico prospects. Drilling these prospects can provide us with significant intangible drilling costs (IDC), which are immediately deductible for income tax purposes.

Our Board of Directors did not find it practical to and did not quantify or attempt to attach relative weight to any of the specific factors considered by it. Our Board of Directors, however, did find that the positive factors listed above outweighed the potential risks of the proposed sale and found the opportunity to generate increased stockholder value through completion of the proposed sale compelling from a financial perspective. Notwithstanding expectations of our management regarding the benefits to be realized from the proposed sale, no assurance can be given that we will be able to realize such benefits.

Summary of Reserve Report

Edgar Filing: CONTANGO OIL & GAS CO - Form DEFM14A

In recommending the proposed sale, our Board of Directors considered a report prepared by the engineering firm W.D. Von Gonten & Co. The report assesses our proved reserves and future net revenue as of July 1, 2004. The report was prepared as an independent assessment to enable us to present the estimated value of our reserves to our stockholders in our annual report for the year ended June 30, 2004. The report was not prepared in anticipation of the sale of our south Texas natural gas and oil interests and does not assess the fairness of the consideration we may receive for the interests in the proposed asset sale. W.D. Von Gonten & Co. has prepared annual and quarterly reports for us regarding our proved reserves and future net revenue since 2000, and the reserve report our Board of Directors considered was the most recent reserve report available.

W.D. Von Gonten & Co. is composed of experienced engineers familiar with reserves located in south Texas. We selected W.D. Von Gonten & Co. to prepare our reserve reports because of its expertise and our satisfaction with its prior services. From time to time, we have also engaged the firm to prepare evaluations of selected properties that we have considered purchasing. During the past two years, we have paid approximately $103,000 to the firm as consideration for annual and quarterly reserve reports. During the past two years, we have paid approximately $37,000 to the firm for evaluations of certain properties included in other unrelated projects. We intend to obtain future reports and evaluations from W.D. Von Gonten & Co.

In preparing the reserve report our Board of Directors considered, W.D. Von Gonten & Co. projected production rates and timing of development expenditures and analyzed available geological, geophysical, production and engineering data. Estimates of natural gas and oil reserves are inherently imprecise. The process requires various assumptions, including natural gas and oil prices, drilling and operating expenses, capital expenditures, taxes, and availability of funds. Actual future production, natural gas and oil prices, revenues, taxes, development expenditures, operating expenses and quantities of recoverable natural gas and oil reserves most likely will vary from estimates. Any significant variance could materially affect the estimated quantities and net present value of reserves. Because the reserve estimate was not based on a lengthy production history and was calculated using volumetric analysis, estimates are less reliable than estimates based on a lengthy production history. As we have each quarter for the past four years, we instructed W.D. Von Gonten & Co. to generate a report of our reserves to enable us to present the estimated value of our reserves. We did not limit the scope of or vary our instructions for the report our Board of Directors used to evaluate the proposed sale.

The W.D. Von Gonten & Co. reserve report concluded that our estimated net proved natural gas and oil reserves and the pre-tax net present value of our reserves at June 30, 2004, was as set forth in the following table. The pre-tax present value is not intended to represent the current market value of the estimated natural gas and oil reserves we own. The pre-tax net present value of future cash flows attributable to our proved reserves prepared in accordance with SEC guidelines as of June 30, 2004 was based on $5.90 per MMBtu for natural gas at the Houston Ship Channel (which equated to a NYMEX price of $6.16 per MMBtu) and to a NYMEX oil price of $37.05 per barrel of oil, in each case before adjusting for basis, transportation costs and Btu content. For further information concerning the present value of future net cash flows from these proved reserves, see the discussion titled "Supplemental Oil and Gas Disclosures" in our Form 10-K for the year ended June 30, 2004.

Recommendation of Our Board of Directors

At a special meeting held on October 6, 2004 to consider the asset purchase agreement, our Board of Directors unanimously approved the proposed sale as being in the best interests of us and our stockholders. FOR THE REASONS DISCUSSED ABOVE, OUR BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS THAT OUR STOCKHOLDERS VOTE FOR THE PROPOSED SALE.

Use of Proceeds

Edgar Filing: CONTANGO OIL & GAS CO - Form DEFM14A

Background. Natural gas and oil prices have been exceptionally strong over the past year. While oil prices are expected to continue to remain strong, they will also likely remain volatile, with large swings due to supply tightness stemming from strong world demand combined with political unrest in major crude producing regions. Natural gas prices will likely be subject to wide swings due to weather, growing demand and the industry's overall difficulty in replacing and growing reserves and production. In the current macro-industry environment, we believe this is an excellent time to harvest our existing cash flow and direct the proceeds into drilling an increased number of wells in which we have exposure in the offshore Gulf of Mexico. While we have ample borrowing capacity under our bank line, we do not think it is prudent to drill deep shelf exploration wells with increased debt. The price we expect to receive for substantially all of our interests in natural gas and oil properties in south Texas is considered fair from a financial perspective.

Assuming our sale is completed on December 31, 2004, we anticipate net after tax and before debt repayment proceeds of approximately $34 million. Initially, we expect to invest these proceeds in short-term U.S. government securities. These funds will provide working capital for ongoing operations and allow us to continue investing in our existing onshore exploration programs and to maintain our 10% limited partnership interest in the Freeport LNG plant, including any possible expansion in the plant's capacity. As a result of our increased liquidity from this sale, we will consider acquiring direct working interests, on a prospect by prospect basis, of between 5% and 20% in Republic Exploration's and Contango Offshore Exploration's Gulf of Mexico prospects. While we intend to use the proceeds to fund our offshore and onshore exploration prospects and develop the LNG terminal, we do not yet know the precise prospects and actual expenditures. We will determine the precise uses and actual expenditures as opportunities arise and we assess the risks and rewards related to each opportunity. We intend to remain an independent natural gas and oil company engaged in the exploration, production, and acquisition of natural gas and oil.

Onshore Exploration Efforts. We expect to use the proceeds from the proposed sale of our south Texas natural gas and oil interests to continue to fund our onshore exploration efforts. Our onshore exploration efforts are primarily conducted through our three onshore alliance partners. We and one of our partners completed a 3-D seismic shoot covering approximately 40 square miles in southern Duval County, Texas. The shoot identified two prospects, both of which commenced production in September of 2004. We expect to drill two additional shallow prospects in December of 2004 at the latest. We recently participated in an unsuccessful exploratory Queen City well in Jim Hogg County, Texas. Our 45% share of the dry hole cost is estimated at $400,000. In addition, we have agreed to participate in an exploratory well in Bandera County, Texas. We expect to drill this prospect by July of 2005. Our 50% share of the dry hole cost is estimated at $600,000. In February of 2004, we agreed to explore prospects with another alliance partner. The alliance partner identified eight prospect areas, and has successfully drilled an 11,400-foot Wilcox test in one prospect area in Zapata County, Texas. We have a 14% net revenue interest in this well. Another Wilcox test is planned for a second prospect area in Zapata County next year. Our 18.8% share of the dry hole cost is estimated at approximately $800,000. In September of 2004, we entered into an agreement with another alliance partner to generate prospects in Jim Hogg County using available 3-D seismic data. We have agreed to reimburse the partner $100,000 for geological and geophysical costs. If drillable prospects are identified, we will pay all of the prospect leasehold costs and carry the partner on a portion of the drilling costs on a specified number of wells.

Offshore Exploration Efforts. We conduct our exploration activities in the Gulf of Mexico directly and through affiliated companies. We and our affiliates have interests in 42 offshore leases. We own interests in two limited liability companies formed to generate exploration opportunities in the Gulf of Mexico. These companies have collectively licensed approximately 4,000 blocks of this 3-D seismic data and have focused on using 3-D seismic data reprocessed in our reprocessing center to identify prospects, acquire leases at federal and state lease sales, and then sell the prospects to third parties, subject to timed drilling obligations plus retained reversionary interests in our favor. Our increased liquidity will give us the financial flexibility on a prospect by prospect basis to consider acquiring a direct 5% to 20% working interest under the same arms-length terms available to industry partners.

Development of an LNG terminal. One potential use of proceeds is to maintain our 10% limited partnership interest in the limited partnership formed to develop a 1.5 billion cubic feet per day LNG receiving terminal in Freeport, Texas. We invested $2.3 million to acquire our 10% limited partnership interest, and we expect the LNG terminal to commence commercial operations as early as 2007. Dow Chemical Company has entered into agreements providing for Dow's potential long-term use of the LNG terminal and Dow's firm commitment for the use of 500 million cubic feet per day of regasification capacity. In June of 2004, the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission issued an order authorizing the limited partnership to site, construct, and operate the

LNG terminal, and in September of 2004, FERC extended the time the limited partnership has to place the LNG terminal into service until 2009. In July of 2004, ConocoPhillips entered into agreements providing for the construction and use of the LNG receiving terminal. ConocoPhillips acquired 1.0 billion cubic feet per day of regasification capacity, purchased a 50% interest in the general partner of the limited partnership, and agreed to provide substantial construction funding. The limited partnership and ConocoPhillips are negotiating the engineering, procurement, and construction contract for the LNG terminal. The current management of Freeport LNG will remain in place and will oversee the commercial activities of the partnership, while ConocoPhillips will manage the construction of the facility and oversee its operations. Although we believe that ConocoPhillips will provide a majority of the construction financing, we anticipate that we will, from time-to-time, be required to provide funds to the project. Moreover, if the plant's capacity were to be expanded beyond its current anticipated 1.5 Bcf per day, we would likely be required to provide our pro rata 10% equity participation to help secure the funds required for expanding the plant's capacity. We intend to use, as necessary to satisfy our potential capital contribution obligations as a limited partner, a portion of the proceeds from the sale of the south Texas natural gas and oil interests to provide funds for developing the Freeport LNG plant and any potential expansion of its capacity.

Accounting Treatment for the Proposed Sale

Under accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, upon stockholder approval of the proposed sale, we expect to reflect the results of operations of the south Texas natural gas and oil interests sold as discontinued operations, including the related gain on the sale, net of any applicable taxes commencing with the quarter during which the proposed sale closes. For further information, see the pro forma financial information.

TERMS OF THE ASSET PURCHASE AGREEMENT

The following discussion of the terms and conditions of the asset purchase agreement, while materially complete, is qualified in its entirety by reference to the provisions of the asset purchase agreement, which is attached to this proxy statement as Annex A and incorporated by reference in this proxy statement.

Purchase Price and Adjustments

The base purchase price for our south Texas natural gas and oil interests is $50 million in cash, subject to adjustment. The base purchase price will be adjusted to account for revenue attribution, title defects, third-party consents, and environmental matters. The adjustments to the purchase price are not limited by a collar or any other limitation.

Adjustments due to revenue attribution. Although the asset purchase agreement is dated as of October 7, 2004, the effective time of the sale is July 1, 2004. Accordingly, the purchase price will be increased by certain taxes, assessments, and expenses, if any, related to the purchased assets that we pay but are attributable to the period subsequent to July 1, 2004. Similarly, the purchase price will be decreased by certain unpaid taxes, assessments, and expenses related to the purchased assets that are attributable to the period prior to July 1, 2004. Purchase price adjustments with respect to revenues may occur in two stages. We and Edge will jointly prepare an initial closing statement reflecting any net revenue produced from the assets we received after July 1, 2004 and up to a date as close as reasonably practicable to the anticipated closing date. Both parties will then have 30 days to agree to the initial closing statement. If we and Edge fail to agree, both parties will seek to agree pending a final closing statement. Depending on the agreement, the purchase price may be increased or decreased. Within 90 days after the closing, we and Edge will jointly prepare a final closing statement. The final closing statement will reflect any net revenue produced after the date of the initial closing statement from the assets Edge receives that is attributable to the operation of the assets after the date of the initial closing statement. Both parties will then have 30 days to agree to the final closing statement. If we and Edge fail to agree, both parties will submit to binding arbitration. Depending on the agreement or the outcome of the arbitration, the purchase price may be adjusted again.

Adjustments due to title defects. Our title to the south Texas natural gas and oil interests we sell to Edge is presumed to be defensible. If Edge notifies us that our title is defective prior to the closing of the asset sale, we may be required to reduce the purchase price, indemnify Edge against the title defect, or retain the applicable well or lease. Defensible title means that our title in and to each lease and well, subject to permitted encumbrances (1) entitles us to receive not less than the net revenue interest for the hydrocarbons and proceeds thereof produced from each well, (2) obligates us to bear costs and expenses relating to the maintenance, development, operation and production of hydrocarbons from each well, in an amount not greater than the working interest for each well, and (3) is free and clear of encumbrances, liens and defects that materially impair the use of or constitute a loss of interest in the well and the lease. Our title is presumed defensible unless Edge submits a title defect notice. A title defect notice would state that our interest is subject to a lien, encumbrance (other than a permitted encumbrance), or objection that would constitute a material loss of interest in the respective property. The asset purchase agreement attached hereto defines permitted encumbrances and excludes certain defects from constituting title defects. Together with Edge, we have allocated values to each well included in the purchased assets, and together with Edge, we will determine the value of each title defect. Once we receive timely notice of a title defect from Edge prior to the closing, we will have several options. We may cure the title defect prior to closing, indemnify Edge for all liabilities and obligations associated with the title defect until cured, or contest the title defect or the value of the title defect. We may also sell the respective interest to Edge but reduce the purchase price by the agreed-upon value of the title defect and no longer be liable for the title defect; however, we will not be required to adjust the purchase price unless the aggregate value of all title defects equals or exceeds $1 million, and our liabilities will be the sum of the aggregate value of all title defects in excess of $500,000. Or, if the value of the title defect exceeds 10% of the respective well's allocated value, we also have the option not to sell the interest in the well to Buyer, which would reduce the purchase price by the allocated value of the interest in the well. In this case, we may elect to cure the title defect and convey the interest to Edge before the date of the final closing statement and increase the purchase price, or we may elect to convey the well with the title defect before the date of the final closing statement and indemnify Edge for the title defect.

Adjustments due to third-party consents. A portion of our natural gas and oil interests are subject to transfer restrictions. Third-parties have rights to prohibit the assignment of our interests unless we obtain their consent. Other parties may have preferential rights to purchase our interests that would supersede Edge's rights pursuant to the asset purchase agreement. We have agreed to use our reasonable efforts to obtain third-party consents and provide required notices with respect to preferential purchase rights before and after closing. If Edge identifies a contractually-required third-party consent that has not been obtained prior to closing, Edge may either (1) purchase the applicable interest and require us to indemnify Edge against any loss due to the failure to obtain the required consent, or (2) exclude the interest affected by the required consent from the assets to be purchased at closing and reduce the purchase price accordingly. If we obtain the required consent by the date of the final closing statement, we will convey the interest affected by the required consent to Edge and increase the purchase price accordingly. If a third-party exercises its right to purchase one of the interests to be transferred to Edge or such a right remains exercisable at the closing, then the affected interest will be excluded from the assets to be purchased and the purchase price will be reduced accordingly. If (1) the third-party exercises its preferential right to purchase but fails to consummate the transaction before the date of the final closing statement, (2) the holder's option to exercise a preferential right expires after closing but before the date of the final closing statement, or (3) the holder has waived the preferential right after the closing but before the date of the final closing statement, we will convey that portion of the affected interest to Edge, and Edge will, on the date of the final closing statement, pay us the amount by which the purchase price was previously reduced with respect to the affected interest. If any other preferential right to purchase that is identified after closing is subsequently exercised, Edge has agreed to convey the affected interest to the third-party and will receive all consideration related thereto.

Other than as described below, all of the lessors have waived their rights of first refusal with respect to the sale to Edge and consented to the assignment of the interests to Edge, to the extent they hold such rights. Six lessors of interests having an aggregate allocated value of approximately $25 million hold rights to prohibit assignment of such interests and have not yet consented to assignment of the interests to Edge. Two lessors of interests having an aggregate allocated value of approximately $900,000 hold rights of first refusal and rights to prohibit assignment of such interests and have not yet consented to the sale and assignment of such interests of Edge. We have notified these eight lessors of the pending sale, and we anticipate that we will obtain waivers and consents from these lessors. In the event one of these lessors exercises its right of first refusal, we would sell the applicable interest to the lessor on substantially the same terms as set forth in the asset purchase agreement with Edge. Subject to the conditions of Edge's obligations under its asset purchase agreement, described below, including that we have obtained consents to assign interest in wells that have an aggregate allocated value equal to at least 80% of the purchase price, Edge would be obligated to purchase the remainder of the interests. In the event one of these lessors prohibited the assignment of an interest to Edge, Edge would not purchase the applicable interest.

Adjustments due to environmental matters. We have agreed with Edge to apportion environmental liabilities related to the assets. Upon closing, Edge will indemnify us against liabilities relating to environmental liabilities, except for liabilities relating to the remediation of environmental defects Edge has notified us of prior to closing. We will indemnify Edge for such remediation obligations, except for claims relating to the remediation obligations arising out of events occurring after July 1, 2004 that are within Edge's control or that are attributable to the acts of Edge or its contractors. We have agreed to use our reasonable efforts to obtain consents from third parties to allow Edge to conduct initial environmental assessments on the south Texas properties. If Edge notifies us no later than 10 days prior to the closing of the asset sale that (1) a condition exists that causes a well or the lands covered by a lease or upon which a well is situated to be in violation of an environmental law and (2) the condition existed prior to July 1, 2004, then we may be required to reduce the purchase price, remediate the environmental condition, or retain the applicable well or lease. If Edge provides us with valid notice of an environmental condition, we may elect to remediate the environmental condition at our expense within 90 days after the closing, in which case we will no longer be required to indemnify Edge for costs related to the environmental condition. Alternatively, we may contest the existence of the environmental condition or the allocated value Edge estimates as the cost of remediating the environmental condition. We may also reduce the purchase price by the value Edge estimates as the costs of remediating the environmental condition; however, we will not be required to adjust the purchase price unless the aggregate value of all estimated remediation costs equals or exceeds $1 million, and our liabilities will be the sum of the aggregate value of all estimated remediation costs in excess of $500,000. Or, if the cost of remediating the environmental condition exceeds 10% of the respective interest's allocated value, we also have the option to not sell the interest in the well to Edge, which would reduce the purchase price by the allocated value of the interest in the well.

The Closing

The terms of the asset purchase agreement provide that the sale and purchase of the assets will occur on a date agreeable to both us and Edge on or prior to the earlier of February 28, 2005 and the date that follows December 31, 2004 by the number of days equal to the number of days between the date the SEC notified us that it would review our proxy statement, which was October 18, 2004, and the date the SEC's review process is completed.

Representations and Warranties

The asset purchase agreement contains various representations and warranties by us, Edge, and Edge's parent corporation. These include representations and warranties by us as to (1) our organization and good standing, (2) proper authority, (3) title to the assets, (4) requisite approvals, (5) no conflicts or violations, (6) material litigation, (7) brokers, finders and fees, (8) contracts and leases, (9) environmental matters, (10) compliance with laws, (11) oil and gas agreements, (12) gas balances and related contracts, (13) payout balances, (14) transactions with related parties, and (15) our status as a non-operator with respect to the assets.

The asset purchase agreement also contains representations and warranties of Edge and Edge's parent corporation, including representations and warranties as to: (1) their organization and good standing, (2) proper corporate authority, (3) no conflicts or violations, (4) requisite approvals, (5) brokers, finders and fees, and (6) knowledge of the natural gas and oil business and investment intent.

For a description of the survivability of the representations and warranties and related indemnification, see Indemnification; Survival of Indemnification Obligations beginning on page 17.

Covenants

The asset purchase agreement contains various covenants. During the period from the date of the asset purchase agreement to the closing date, we agree to maintain the assets, pay costs and expenses related to the operation of the assets, notify Edge of certain actions we take and expenses we incur with respect to the assets, and generally conduct our business and operations with respect to the assets in the ordinary course. We also agree to (1) not alter existing marketing contracts or enter into certain types of new marketing contracts, (2) provide financial statements and reserve information to Edge, and (3) request comfort letters from our accountants and independent reserve engineers to Edge in connection with filings Edge may make with the SEC, and (4) allow Edge and its representatives to perform additional due diligence with respect to the assets. We also agree to convene the special meeting of stockholders described in this proxy statement for the purpose of obtaining stockholder authorization of the proposed sale.

No Solicitation

In the asset purchase agreement, we and our affiliates agree not to pursue, solicit, or enter into any sale, trade, exchange, joint venture, lease, farmout, or similar transaction prior to closing, involving the assets that are subject to the asset purchase agreement, including any sale, merger, or business combination involving the partnership interests of our wholly-owned limited partnership that directly owns the assets. Our Board of Directors, however, may consider an unsolicited proposal involving such assets and/or the partnership interests of our wholly-owned limited partnership owning such assets. Our Board of Directors may determine that the new proposal is superior to Edge's and, after providing notice to Edge, change its recommendation regarding Edge's proposal and instead recommend the unsolicited proposal. Our Board of Directors may only do so if, in its good faith opinion and after consultation with legal counsel and analysis of any counteroffer by Edge, our Board of Directors concludes that its failure to do so could be reasonably likely to be inconsistent with its fiduciary obligations to you.

Closing Conditions

The respective obligations of each party to effect the purchase and sale of the assets are subject to the satisfaction or waiver at or prior to the closing date of various conditions, including the following: (1) we have obtained waivers from third-parties regarding preferential rights to purchase interests in wells that have an aggregate allocated value equal to 80% of the purchase price, or such parties have failed to exercise their preferential purchase rights, (2) we have obtained consents to assign interests in wells that have an aggregate allocated value equal to 80% of the purchase price, or such consents are not applicable, (3) we have performed our covenants and obligations and our representations and warranties are true and correct, (4) no material adverse change has occurred that causes the value of our interests in a well or group of wells to be reduced by more than $500,000 and we are unable or unwilling to compensate Edge for such reduction, (5) Edge has performed its covenants and obligations and its representations and warranties are true and correct, and (6) our stockholders have authorized the proposed sale.

Abandonment

By providing notice to the other party no later than three business days prior to the closing date, either we or Edge may abandon the transactions contemplated by the asset purchase agreement at any time prior to the completion of the sale, if net adjustments to the purchase price with respect to title defects and environmental matters exceed $5 million. In addition, either party may abandon the transactions contemplated by the asset purchase agreement if (1) a court or other governmental authority prohibits the proposed sale, or (2) the closing conditions have not been met and the proposed sale has not been completed on or before the earlier of February 28, 2005 and the date that follows December 31, 2004 by the number of days equal to the number of days between October 18, 2004 and the date we file a definitive proxy statement. This date when either party may abandon the transactions if the closing conditions have not been met is the last permitted closing date.

Break-Up Fees

If the closing conditions set forth in the asset purchase agreement are met or waived and Edge fails to fulfill its obligations necessary to purchase our assets pursuant to the agreement by the last permitted closing date, then we may terminate the agreement, and Edge will owe us $2 million. If the closing conditions set forth in the asset purchase agreement are met or waived and we fail to fulfill our obligations necessary to sell our assets pursuant to the agreement by the last permitted closing date, or our Board of Directors amends its recommendation of Edge's offer or we enter into an agreement to consummate a transaction we consider superior to the proposed asset sale to Edge, then either we or Edge may terminate the agreement, and we will owe Edge $2 million. If our stockholders fail to approve the proposed sale, we will owe Edge $1 million. The payments would be due within five business days of termination and would constitute liquidated damages.

Indemnification; Survival Of Indemnification Obligations

After closing the proposed sale, we have agreed to indemnify, defend and save Edge and its affiliates harmless from and against losses and liabilities incurred by Edge and its affiliates arising out of any misrepresentation or breach of representations and warranties by us; our failure to perform any of our covenants or obligations; certain liabilities and obligations related to the purchased assets attributable to events occurring prior to July 1, 2004; and certain obligations related to title defects, failure to obtain third-party consents, and environmental remediation matters. Except with respect to losses relating to title defects, failure to obtain third-party consents, and environmental remediation matters, we will not have to reimburse Edge for losses unless the aggregate amount of such losses exceeds $500,000 and, in that event, our total aggregate reimbursement is limited to $25 million.

Edge and Edge's parent corporation have agreed to indemnify, defend and save us and our affiliates harmless from and against losses we incur because of any misrepresentation or breach of representations and warranties by Edge or its parent, any failure by Edge or its parent to perform their covenants and obligations, liabilities and obligations related to the purchased assets and attributable to events occurring subsequent to July 1, 2004.

Our indemnification obligations will survive for twelve months after the closing date except that our indemnification obligations relating to losses in connection with title defects, failure to obtain third-party consents, and environmental remediation matters will survive indefinitely. The parties agree that no claims or causes of action may be brought against either party based upon, directly or indirectly, any of the representations, warranties or agreements contained in the asset purchase agreement after the applicable survival period or, except as otherwise provided in the agreement.

Fees And Expenses

Whether or not the proposed sale is completed, all costs and expenses incurred in connection with the asset purchase agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the agreement will be paid by the party incurring those expenses, except as specifically provided in the asset purchase agreement.

- (1) We commenced natural gas and oil operations in July 1999.
- (2) EBITDAX represents earnings before interest, income taxes, depreciation, depletion and amortization, impairment expenses, exploration expenses, including gain (loss) from hedging activities, and sale of assets and other. We have reported EBITDAX because we believe EBITDAX is a measure commonly reported and widely used by investors as an indicator of a company's operating performance and ability to incur and service debt. We believe EBITDAX assists investors in comparing a company's performance on a consistent basis without regard to depreciation, depletion and amortization, impairment of natural gas and oil properties and exploration expenses, which can vary significantly depending upon accounting methods. EBITDAX is not a calculation based on U.S. generally accepted accounting principles and should not be considered an alternative to net income (loss) in measuring our performance or used as an exclusive measure of cash flow because it does not consider the impact of working capital growth, capital expenditures, debt principal reductions and other sources and uses of cash, which are disclosed in our statements of cash flows. Investors should carefully consider the specific items included in our computation of EBITDAX. While we have disclosed our EBITDAX to permit a more complete comparative analysis of our operating performance and debt servicing ability relative to other companies, investors should be cautioned that EBITDAX as reported by us may not be comparable in all instances to EBITDAX as reported by other companies. EBITDAX amounts may not be fully available for management's discretionary use, due to requirements to conserve funds for capital expenditures, debt service, preferred stock dividends and other commitments.

CERTAIN COVENANTS AND AGREEMENTS OF SELLER AND PARENT

Seller covenants and agrees with Buyer as follows:

Section 4.1 Operations Prior to Closing. Except as otherwise consented to in writing by Buyer or provided for in this Agreement, from the Execution Date to the Closing Date, Seller shall

(b) notify Buyer of any capital expenditures and authorizations for expenditure (AFE) in excess of One Hundred Thousand and No/100 Dollars ($100,000.00) per activity net to Seller's interest conducted on the Assets and not agree to participate in any such activity without Buyer's prior written consent;

Edgar Filing: CONTANGO OIL & GAS CO - Form DEFM14A

(c) notify Buyer of any request for capital expenditures and AFEs for the drilling of any new Well on the lands covered by the Leases or pooled therewith and not agree to participate in such new Well without Buyer's prior written consent;

(e) not convey or dispose of any of the Assets (other than dispositions and replacement of equipment undertaken by the Operator in the normal course of business or sales of oil, gas and other liquid products produced from the Assets in the ordinary course of business) affecting the Assets if the net expense to Seller's interest will be in excess of Fifty Thousand and No/100 Dollars ($50,000.00) or enter into any farm-out, farm-in or other similar contract;

(h) not materially modify or terminate any of the operating agreements or other significant contracts governing or pertaining to the Assets or any other relevant material agreements.

If Buyer fails to respond within a period of time reasonably requested by Seller (taking into account any time limitations imposed on Seller) following delivery by Seller of a request for approval or consent with respect to any such proposed action or expenditure, then Buyer shall be deemed to have agreed with Seller's election or other determination with respect thereto. Buyer shall not unreasonably withhold its approval or consent with respect to any such proposed action or expenditure.

Section 4.2 Marketing. Unless Seller obtains the prior written consent of Buyer to act otherwise, prior to Closing Seller will not alter any existing marketing contracts or any Contracts currently in existence, or enter into any new marketing contracts or agreements providing for the sale of hydrocarbons from the Wells for a term in excess of thirty (30) days or which obligate Seller to deliver hydrocarbons after the Effective Time without then or within sixty (60) days thereafter receiving the contract price applicable to deliveries at the time of such sales, or any other sales of hydrocarbons which are not in the ordinary course of business. Seller will not enter into any call, option to purchase or similar right to obtain production from the Wells and Leases other than rights contained in existing production sales contracts or rights exercisable at prices at or near the fair market price in the general area involved at the time sales occur.

Section 4.3 Meetings of Stockholders.

(a) Parent shall undertake reasonable efforts to convene a meeting of its stockholders as promptly as practicable to consider and vote upon the adoption of this Agreement.

(b) Prior to Closing, neither Parent, Seller nor any Affiliate of Seller shall pursue, solicit or seek to enter into any offer or opportunity, directly or indirectly, for the sale, trade, exchange, joint venture, lease, farmout or similar transaction of the Assets to any Person, including without limitation, any sale, merger or business combination involving the stock of Seller (collectively, a Takeover Proposal). Parent, through its board of directors, shall recommend approval of this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby and use reasonable efforts to solicit approval by its stockholders in favor thereof (including, without limitation, the solicitation of proxies and the taking of all other action necessary or advisable to secure the vote of its stockholders required by applicable laws and the American Stock Exchange to obtain such approvals); provided, however, and notwithstanding the foregoing or any other provision of this Agreement to the contrary, that the Parent, Seller or any Affiliate of Seller may at any time prior to the date the condition set forth in Section 6.3(b) is satisfied (the Cut-Off Date), (a) in response to an unsolicited Takeover Proposal (i) furnish information with respect to the Assets and/or Seller and Parent to any Person pursuant to an executed, customary confidentiality and standstill agreement and (ii) participate in discussion or negotiations with any Person regarding such Takeover Proposal and (b) upon two (2) Business Days prior written notice to Buyer (i) withdraw, modify or change any recommendation and declaration regarding such matters or (ii) recommend and declare advisable any proposal that is superior to the transaction contemplated by this Agreement (a Seller Superior Proposal) if Parent's board of directors determines in good faith, after consultation with its outside legal counsel, the failure to so withdraw, modify or change its recommendation and declaration or to so recommend and declare advisable any Seller Superior Proposal could be reasonably likely to be inconsistent with its fiduciary obligations under applicable law and (iii) in the event of a withdrawal, modification or change in recommendation or the determination to do so, discontinue the reasonable efforts referred to in this sentence. In the event of a recommendation and declaration pursuant to clause (ii) in the preceding sentence, Parent and Seller must have fully complied with the terms of this Agreement and have provided Buyer with at least three (3) Business Days prior written notice of its intention to enter into such agreement, the identity of the other party thereto and the material terms and conditions of the agreement to be entered into with such person and during such period of three (3) Business Days, considered and caused its financial and legal advisors to consider, any written counteroffer from Buyer, and Parent's board of directors, must have determined in the good faith of its members and after consultation with its financial and legal advisors that the terms and conditions of such counteroffer are not at least as favorable to the stockholders of Parent from a financial point of view, as that proposal. Any withdrawal, modification or change in the recommendation or the determination to do so or discontinuance of reasonable efforts of any party in accordance with this Section 4.3 shall not constitute a breach of such party's representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained in this Agreement. For purposes hereof, the Cut-Off Date means the date the condition set forth in Section 6.3(b) is satisfied.

Section 4.4 Delivery of Financial Statements and Reserve Information.

(a) To the extent requested by Buyer, Parent shall provide to Buyer as promptly as reasonably practical any financial statements, schedules or information (including without limitation access to the work papers of Parent's accountants related to the financial statements described in this Section 4.4) relating to the Assets that are required to be included in any registration statement filed or to be filed by Buyer or any of its affiliates under the Securities Act of 1933 and any additional financial or operating data relating to any of the financial statements, schedules or information referred to in this Section 4.4 or relating to any of the Assets.

(b) Seller shall use reasonable efforts to cause to be delivered to Buyer comfort letters of Parent's accountants and Parent's independent reserve engineers dated as of the Effective Time and the closing dates and addressed to the underwriters in any offering of securities for which such comfort letters are required by underwriters with regard to certain financial information regarding the Assets or the reserves relating to the Assets as the case may be, in form reasonably satisfactory to Buyer and customary in scope and substance for comfort letters delivered by independent public accountants and reserve engineers in connection with registration statements similar to Edge's registration statement and to use reasonable efforts to cause Parent's accountant and Parent's reserve engineer to consent to inclusion of the information described in this Section 4.4 and to be named in Edge's filings with the SEC as is customary for such consents.

(c) Seller shall use reasonable efforts to provide any relevant historical accounting or financial information in Seller's possession, custody or control related to the Assets that Buyer may reasonably request.

(d) Buyer shall bear all out-of-pocket costs paid to any third party for preparation of any of the items described in Section 4.4(a), Section 4.4(b) and Section 4.4(c) above.

Section 4.5 Inspection. From the Execution Date until the Closing Date, each of Seller and Parent shall (and, in the case of access to the premises of the Leases, use reasonable efforts to cause Operator to) allow, at Buyer's sole risk, all designated officers, attorneys, accountants and other representatives of Buyer reasonable access, at all reasonable times during normal business hours, upon reasonable notice, to Seller's records and files relating to contracts and titles pertaining to the Assets (including without limitation any correspondence and joint venture audits related to the Assets) and to the premises of the Leases for inspection of the condition of the Assets; provided that no due diligence review pursuant to this Section 4.5 shall affect any representation or warranty, or disclaimer or limitation thereof, given by any Party hereunder, and provided further that notwithstanding the provisions of information or due diligence review by any Party, no Party shall be deemed to make any representation or warranty except as expressly set forth in this Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no Party shall be required to provide any information which it reasonably believes it may not provide to the other Party by reason of applicable law, rules or regulations, which constitutes information protected by attorney/client privilege, or which it is required to keep confidential by reason of contract or agreement with third parties. The parties hereto shall make reasonable and appropriate substitute disclosure arrangements under circumstances in which the restrictions of the preceding sentence apply. Buyer agrees that it shall not, and shall cause its respective representatives not to, use any information obtained pursuant to this Section 4.5 for any purpose unrelated to the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. All non-public information obtained pursuant to this Section 4.5 shall be governed by the Confidentiality Agreement between Buyer and Seller as defined in Section 9.10 below. All such information is made available to Buyer subject to the disclaimer set forth in Section 9.18.

Section 5.1 Indemnification by Seller and Parent. If the Closing occurs, each of Seller and Parent hereby agrees to indemnify, defend and save Buyer and its officers, directors, employees, agents and Affiliates (all or each, a Buyer Indemnified Party) harmless from and against any and all liabilities (whether contingent, fixed or unfixed, liquidated or unliquidated, or otherwise), obligations, deficiencies, demands, claims, suits, actions, or causes of action, assessments, losses, costs, expenses, interest, fines, penalties, and damages (including reasonable fees and expenses of attorneys, accountants and other experts) (individually and collectively, the Losses), other than Assumed Liabilities, suffered, sustained or incurred by any Buyer Indemnified Party relating to, resulting from, arising out of or otherwise by virtue of:

- (a) any misrepresentation or breach of the representations or warranties of Seller and Parent contained in this Agreement or in any exhibit or schedule hereto;
- (b) the failure of Seller or Parent to perform any of its covenants or obligations contained in this Agreement or in any schedule or exhibit hereto;
- (c) the liabilities and obligations relating to or arising out of the ownership of the Assets and attributable to any act, omission, occurrence or event occurring prior to the Effective Time;
- (d) any Title Defects for which Seller retains liability pursuant to Section 7.12(b) or Section 7.15(b);
- (e) any consents to assign for which Seller retains liability pursuant to Section 7.17(b)(i); and
- (f) any and all Losses arising directly or indirectly out of the Retained Remediation Obligations (as defined in Section 8.2).

Section 5.2 Indemnification by Buyer. If the Closing occurs, each of Buyer and Edge agrees to indemnify, defend and save Seller and its Affiliates, and their respective officers, directors, employees and agents (each, a Seller Indemnified Party) forever harmless from and against any and all Losses suffered, sustained or incurred by any Seller Indemnified Party relating to, resulting from, arising out of or otherwise by virtue of:

Edgar Filing: CONTANGO OIL & GAS CO - Form DEFM14A

(a) any misrepresentation in or breach of the representations and warranties of Buyer and Edge contained in this Agreement or in any schedule or exhibit hereto;

(b) the failure of Buyer or Edge to perform any of its covenants or obligations contained in this Agreement or in any exhibit or schedule hereto;

(c) the liabilities and obligations relating to or arising out of ownership of the Assets and attributable to any act, omission, occurrence or event occurring after the Effective Time; and

Section 5.3 Indemnification Procedure. Any Person entitled to seek indemnification pursuant to this Article V shall promptly provide written notice of any claim to the Person from which it seeks indemnification within a reasonable period of time. The indemnifying Person, if such Person so elects, shall assume and control the defense thereof (and shall consult with the indemnified Person with respect thereto), including the employment of counsel reasonably satisfactory to the indemnified Person within ten (10) Business Days after receipt of the notice with respect thereto, and the payment of all necessary expenses; provided that as a condition precedent to the indemnifying Person's right to assume control of such defense, it must first enter into an agreement with the indemnified Person (in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the indemnified Person) pursuant to which the indemnifying Person agrees to be fully responsible for all losses relating to such claim and unconditionally guarantees the payment and performance of any liability or obligation which may arise with respect to such claim or the facts giving rise to such claim for indemnification; provided further that the indemnifying Person shall not have the right to assume control of such defense if the claim which the indemnifying Person seeks to assume control of (a) seeks non-monetary relief or (b) involves criminal or quasi-criminal allegations; and provided further that (i) the indemnifying Person shall not consent to the imposition of any injunction against the indemnified Person without the written consent of the indemnified Person, (ii) the indemnifying Person shall permit the indemnified Person to participate in such conduct or settlement through counsel chosen by the indemnified Person, but the fees and expenses of such counsel shall be borne by the indemnified Person (except as provided below), and (c) upon a final determination of such action, suit or proceeding, the indemnifying Person shall promptly reimburse to the full extent required under this Article V the indemnified Person for the full amount of any Loss resulting from such action, suit or proceeding and all reasonable and related expenses incurred by the indemnified Person, other than fees and expenses of counsel for the indemnified Person incurred after the assumption of the conduct and control of such action, suit or proceeding by the indemnifying Person (except as provided below). If the indemnifying Person is permitted to assume and control the defense and elects to do so, the indemnified Person shall have the right to employ counsel separate from counsel employed by the indemnifying Person in any such action and to participate in the defense thereof, but the fees and expenses of such counsel employed by the indemnified Person shall be at the expense of the indemnified Person unless (1) the employment thereof has been specifically authorized by the indemnifying Person in writing, (2) the indemnifying Person has been advised by counsel that a reasonable likelihood exists of a conflict of interest between the indemnifying Person and the indemnified Person, (3) the indemnifying Person has failed to assume the defense and employ counsel; or (4) the indemnified Person has reasonably determined that an adverse outcome could have a material adverse effect on its business reputation or could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse precedential effect; in which case the fees and expenses of the indemnified Person's counsel shall be paid by the indemnifying Person. In the event the indemnifying Person fails to elect to defend such claim in accordance with the foregoing, then the indemnified Person may elect, but shall not be required, to defend against or settle such claim as it sees fit, provided that any settlement of such claim shall require the consent of the indemnifying Person, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

Section 5.4 Amount Limitations. Seller and Parent shall have no liability for indemnification with respect to any Losses under Section 5.1(a), Section 5.1(b) and Section 5.1(c) until the total of such Losses exceeds Five Hundred Thousand and No/100 Dollars ($500,000.00) and, notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, the maximum aggregate liability of Seller and Parent for any such Losses shall not exceed Twenty-Five Million and No/100 Dollars ($25,000,000.00). The foregoing threshold and limitation shall not apply to any indemnification provided by Seller and Parent with respect to any claim under Section 5.1(d), Section 5.1(e) and Section 5.1(f).

Section 5.5 Time Limitation. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, Seller and Parent shall have no liability for indemnification with respect to any Losses under Section 5.1(a), Section 5.1(b) and Section 5.1(c) unless on or before the date that is twelve (12) months after the Closing Date, Buyer notifies Seller and Parent of a claim specifying the factual basis of the applicable claim in reasonable detail to the extent then known by Buyer. The foregoing time limitation shall not apply to any indemnification provided by Seller and Parent with respect to any claim under Section 5.1(d), Section 5.1(e) and Section 5.1(f).

Section 5.6 Sole and Exclusive Remedy. After Closing, the indemnities provided in this Article V shall constitute the sole and exclusive remedies of the Parties for all Losses in connection with the types of matters covered by such indemnities.

Section 5.7 Disclaimer. ALL OF THE INDEMNITIES UNDER THIS ARTICLE V SHALL APPLY REGARDLESS OF WHETHER CAUSED BY, ARISING OUT OF OR ATTRIBUTABLE TO, IN WHOLE OR IN PART, THE SOLE OR CONCURRENT NEGLIGENCE, FAULT OR STRICT LIABILITY OF THE INDEMNIFIED PERSON OR PERSONS.

Section 6.8 Liquidated Damages. BUYER AND SELLER AGREE THAT IT IS DIFFICULT TO DETERMINE, WITH ANY DEGREE OF CERTAINTY, THE LOSS SELLER OR BUYER WILL INCUR IF CLOSING DOES NOT OCCUR BY REASON OF SELLER S OR BUYER S FAILURE TO FULFILL, AS THE CASE MAY BE, ANY OF ITS OBLIGATIONS UNDER THIS AGREEMENT. ACCORDINGLY, BUYER AND SELLER AGREE THAT THE FOLLOWING REPRESENTS A REASONABLE ESTIMATE OF SUCH LOSS AND IS INTENDED AS A LIQUIDATED DAMAGES PROVISION:

(a) if the conditions precedent set forth in Section 6.3 are met or, as applicable, waived, and Buyer fails to fulfill any of its obligations under this Agreement (other than any obligation that is not fulfilled as a result of Seller s or Parent s failure to perform in any material respect its obligations under this Agreement) necessary for the Closing to occur on or before the last date permitted to be the Closing Date pursuant to Section 6.1, then Seller may terminate this Agreement and Buyer shall pay to Seller within five (5) Business Days of such termination liquidated damages in the amount of Two Million and No/100 Dollars ($2,000,000.00); and

(b) if (i) the conditions precedent set forth in Section 6.3 are met or, as applicable, waived, and Seller or Parent fails to fulfill any of its obligations under this Agreement (other than any obligation that is not fulfilled as a result of Buyer s or Edge s failure to perform in any material respect its obligations under this Agreement) necessary for the Closing to occur on or before the last date permitted to be the Closing Date pursuant to Section 6.1, or (ii) if Seller fails to obtain the consent and approval of its stockholders as required in Section 6.3(b) or if the Board of Directors of Parent withdraws or amends the recommendation described in Section 4.3(b), or if Parent or Seller enters into an agreement contemplated by the first sentence of Section 4.3(b), then, in the case of (i), Buyer may terminate this Agreement and in the case of (ii) Buyer or Seller may terminate this Agreement and in any such event, Seller shall pay to Buyer within five (5) Business Days of such termination liquidated damages in the amount of Two Million and No/100 Dollars ($2,000,000.00); provided, however, that, notwithstanding the foregoing, in the case of failure to obtain the consent and approval of Parent s stockholders, as required in Section 6.3(b), the amount shall instead be One Million and No/100 Dollars ($1,000,000.00).

Section 6.9 Failure to Close. If the Closing does not occur on or before the last date permitted to be the Closing Date pursuant to Section 6.1, for any reason other than those identified in Section 6.8, any Party may terminate this Agreement by giving written notice to the other Parties. Thereafter, no Party shall have any further obligations to any other Party hereunder, other than any obligations and liabilities arising prior to such termination and those obligations that by their terms survive the termination of this Agreement.

ARTICLE VII

TITLE MATTERS

Section 7.1 Title Information. Seller shall make all information in Seller's possession regarding title to the Assets available to Buyer in Seller's offices at reasonable times during Seller's normal business hours. Seller makes no representations and warranties, express or implied, as to the accuracy or completeness of any information furnished to Buyer, all as more particularly provided in Section 9.18.

Table of Contents

Section 7.2 Defensible Title. Defensible Title means the title of Seller in and to each Lease and Well that, subject to and except for the Permitted Encumbrances (as defined in Section 7.6):

(a) Entitles Seller to receive not less than the net revenue interest (NRI) for the hydrocarbons and proceeds thereof produced from each Well set forth in Exhibit B,

(b) Obligates Seller to bear costs and expenses relating to the maintenance, development, operation and production of hydrocarbons from each Well, in an amount not greater than the working interest (WI) for Well set forth in Exhibit B, and

(c) Is free and clear of encumbrances, liens and defects that materially impair the use and enjoyment of or that constitute a loss of interest in the Well and the Lease.

Section 7.3 Defensible Title: Development Acreage. Seller's title to any non-producing acreage (Development Acreage) included in the Assets and listed as a Well shall be presumed to be Defensible Title unless Buyer can show through actual evidence submitted with a Title Defect Notice (as defined in Section 7.9) that Seller's title to such Development Acreage has failed or that the Development Acreage is subject to a Title Defect, lien or encumbrance (except for Permitted Encumbrances) that would constitute a material loss of interest in such Development Acreage. Unless otherwise shown as a Well, non-producing intervals within producing units shall not be considered Development Acreage.

Section 7.4 Title to Non-Well Assets. Exhibit B does not provide the NRI and WI for any non-producing interval or formation that is not specifically identified in Exhibit B or for any leasehold interest or acreage. Buyer waives the right to assert Title Defects as to Seller's interest, if any, in any Asset or portion thereof not listed as a Well.

Section 7.5 Allocated Value. If an Allocated Value has not been given for an Asset or if the Allocated Value for any Well is zero, Seller shall be conclusively presumed to have Defensible Title to such Asset or Well.

Section 7.6 Permitted Encumbrances. Permitted Encumbrances shall include the following (but only to the extent they exist of record and constitute a burden on the Assets as of the Effective Time):

(a) any royalties, overriding royalties, net profits interests, production payments, reversionary interests and similar burdens if the net cumulative effect of such burdens does not reduce the NRI for a Well;

(b) third-party consents to assign and preferential rights to purchase, as covered exclusively by Section 7.17;

(c) liens for taxes or assessments not yet delinquent, or, if delinquent, being contested in good faith;

(d) rights to consent by, notices to, filings with or actions by federal, state, local or tribal authorities in connection with the conveyance of the Assets if customarily obtained after a conveyance is made;

(e) obligations to reassign upon the surrender or expiration of any Lease;

(f) easements, rights of way, servitudes, permits, surface leases and other rights with respect to the surface or any restrictions on access to the surface or subsurface that do not materially interfere with the operation of the Asset;

(g) Title Defects waived by Buyer;

(h) division orders, transfer orders, letters in lieu of transfer orders and pooling or unitization orders, declarations or agreements;

(i) materialmen's, mechanics', repairmen's, contractors', or other similar liens or charges (1) if the amount owed is not yet due and payable, (2) if such lien or charge has not been filed pursuant to law and the time for filing has expired, (3) if filed, such lien or charge has not yet become due and payable or payment is being withheld as provided by law, or (4) if the validity of such lien or charge is being contested in good faith;

(j) rights reserved to or vested in any governmental authority to control or regulate any of the Assets in any manner and all applicable laws, rules, regulations and orders of general applicability in the area;

(k) liens arising under operating agreements, unitization and pooling agreements and production sales contracts securing amounts not yet due and payable or, if due, being contested in good faith; and

(l) calls on or preferential rights to purchase production held by third parties to purchase production for a price at or above market price.

Section 7.7 Title Defect. Title Defect means any material encumbrance, defect in or objection to real property title, excluding Permitted Encumbrances, that renders Seller's title less than Defensible Title. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the following shall not constitute Title Defects:

(a) defects based on lack of information in Seller's files;

(b) defects based on title irregularities or defects found in the Assets that are typically accepted as a normal business risk in the area of the applicable Asset and have not had and are reasonably expected not to have, an adverse effect on the right to receive revenue from production from the applicable Asset;

(c) defects in the chain of title consisting of the failure to recite marital status or omissions of successors or heirship proceedings, unless Buyer provides affirmative evidence that such failure or omission has resulted in a third party's actual and superior claim of title to the Asset, which claim, if asserted, is likely to prevail;

(d) defects arising out of the lack of a survey;

(e) defects based on the failure to record leases issued by the United States or any state, local or tribal authority or any assignments of record title or operating rights in the real property or other county records;

(f) defects asserting a change in NRI or WI based on (1) a change in drilling and spacing units or tract allocation or changes in participating areas, or (2) an after-payout decrease in NRI or increase in WI pursuant to a farm-in, farm-out or other Contract, if the effect of such change is reflected in the NRI and WI set forth in Exhibit B;

(g) defects related to suspension of revenues due and owing to Seller, if such suspension is not supported by facts and circumstances that would otherwise be a Title Defect; and

(h) defects that have been cured or that are not material in light of the entire chain of title or subsequent agreements.

Section 7.8 Title Defect Value. Title Defect Value means the value of the Title Defect as determined by Buyer in good faith, taking into account all relevant factors, including but not limited to the following:

(a) the Allocated Value of the Well;

(b) the reduction in the NRI of the Well, or the increase in the WI of the Well to the extent such increase is not accompanied by a corresponding increase in the NRI;

(c) if the Title Defect represents only a possibility of title failure, the probability that such failure will occur;

(d) the legal and practical effect of the Title Defect; and

(e) if the Title Defect is a lien or encumbrance other than a Permitted Encumbrance, the cost of removing the lien or encumbrance.

Only that portion of the Well or the Lease that is materially and adversely affected by a Title Defect shall be considered for purposes of determining the Title Defect Value.

Table of Contents

Section 7.9 Title Defect Notice. Buyer shall give Seller notice (Title Defect Notice) as soon as possible but no later than ten (10) Business Days prior to the Closing Date (such date being referred to herein as the Objection Date). The Title Defect Notice must include all of the following:

- (a) a description of the Title Defect;

- (b) a description of the reasonable basis for the Title Defect;

- (c) Reasonable Documentation supporting the basis for the Title Defect;

- (d) evidence supporting Buyer's belief that the Title Defect has not been released or cured and is still enforceable;

- (e) the identity and the Allocated Value of the Well; and

- (f) the Title Defect Value and the computations upon which Buyer's belief is based.

Section 7.10 Assumed Title Liabilities. Any notice that is not timely and properly given or that does not satisfy all of the foregoing shall not be a valid Title Defect Notice, and any Title Defects not included in a valid Title Defect Notice shall be deemed to be Assumed Title Liabilities and to have been waived or assumed by Buyer. Except as to any Title Defects subject to Section 7.12(b) or Section 7.15(b) or consents to assign subject to Section 7.17(b), after Closing, Seller's only warranty of title to the Assets shall be that special warranty provided in Section 2 of that Assignment and Bill of Sale in the form set forth in Exhibit D.

Section 7.11 Reasonable Documentation. Reasonable Documentation means a copy of any available title opinion describing the Title Defect and

- (a) a copy of the relevant document, if the basis is a document;

- (b) the deed preceding and following a gap in the chain of title or a title opinion describing the gap in reasonable detail, if the basis is a gap in Seller's chain of title;

- (c) a copy of the document creating the lien or encumbrance, if the basis is a lien or encumbrance, together with evidence supporting Buyer's determination that the lien or encumbrance has not been released and is still enforceable; or

(d) any other reasonable documentation or explanation supporting the Title Defect.

Section 7.12 Seller's Options. Seller shall have the right to cure any Title Defect but shall have no obligation to do so. If Buyer gives a Title Defect Notice, Seller shall have the option of:

(a) curing the Title Defect before Closing, and, if such Title Defect is not cured before Closing, Seller shall further elect (b), (c), (d) or (e);

(b) indemnifying Buyer for all liabilities and obligations associated with the Title Defect, which indemnity shall terminate if Seller later cures the Title Defect;

(c) contesting the existence of a Title Defect or the Title Defect Value, as set forth in Section 7.13;

(d) reducing the Purchase Price by the Title Defect Value, subject to the Title Defect Threshold and Title Defect Deductible described in Section 7.14, in which event Seller shall be released from and of all further liability or obligation to Buyer with respect to the Title Defect, and the Title Defect shall be a Permitted Encumbrance; or

(e) if the Title Defect Value exceeds ten percent (10%) of the Allocated Value of the Well, excluding the Well from the Assets conveyed to Buyer at the Closing, subject to Section 7.15, in which event the Purchase Price shall be reduced by the Allocated Value of the Well.

Section 7.13 Contested Title Defects. If Seller contests the existence of a Title Defect or the Title Defect Value pursuant to Section 7.12(c), Seller shall notify Buyer within three (3) Business Days after Seller's receipt of the Title Defect Notice. The notice shall state the basis for Seller's contest of the Title Defect or the Title Defect Value. Within two (2) Business Days after Buyer's receipt of the notice, representatives of Seller and Buyer, knowledgeable in title matters, shall meet and either (a) agree to reject the Title Defect, in which case Buyer shall waive the Title Defect, or (b) agree on the validity of the Title Defect and the Title Defect Value, in which case Seller shall have the options provided in Section 7.12 (except for the right to contest under Section 7.12(c)). If Seller and Buyer cannot agree on either option (a) or (b) in the preceding sentence, the dispute concerning the Title Defect or the Title Defect Value subject to the notice shall be resolved in accordance with Section 9.16.

Section 7.14 Adjustment to Purchase Price; Title Defect Threshold and Deductible. At Closing, the Purchase Price shall be adjusted for the Title Defect Values as provided in Section 7.12(d); provided, however, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, there shall be no cure, remedy, deletion or adjustment to the Purchase Price whatsoever in respect of any Title Defects unless the aggregate value of all Title Defects equals or exceeds One Million and No/100 Dollars ($1,000,000.00) (the Title Defect Threshold Amount). Once the Title Defect Threshold has been reached, the amount of reduction in Purchase Price for Title Defects shall be the sum of Title Defect Values in excess of Five Hundred Thousand and No/100 ($500,000.00) (the Title Defect Deductible Amount).

Section 7.15 Exclusions of Wells. Pursuant to Section 7.12(e), if the Title Defect Value exceeds ten percent (10%) of the Allocated Value of the Well, Seller shall have the option to exclude the Well from the Assets conveyed to Buyer at the Closing by notifying Buyer on or before the Closing, in which event the Purchase Price shall be reduced by the Allocated Value of the Well. If the Title Defect Value exceeds ten percent (10%) of the Allocated Value of the Well and the Well is excluded from the Assets conveyed to Buyer at the Closing, Seller may elect either of the following:

(a) if Seller cures the Title Defect to Buyer's reasonable satisfaction before the Final Post-Closing Date, Seller may convey the Well affected by the Title Defect to Buyer on the Final Post-Closing Date, subject to all of the terms and conditions of this Agreement, and Buyer shall pay to Seller the amount by which the Purchase Price was reduced with respect to the Well; or

(b) if Seller does not cure the Title Defect to Buyer's reasonable satisfaction before the Final Post-Closing Date and agrees to indemnify Buyer from all liabilities and obligations arising out of the Title Defect, Seller may convey the Well affected by the Title Defect to Buyer on the Final Post-Closing Date, subject to all of the terms and conditions of this Agreement, in which event Buyer shall pay to Seller the amount by which the Purchase Price was reduced with respect to the Well, and Seller shall be released from all further liability or obligation to Buyer with respect to the Title Defect, and, subject to the indemnity provided above in this paragraph, the Title Defect shall be a Permitted Encumbrance.

Section 7.16 Additional Interests. As soon as possible and no later than on or before five (5) Business Days before Closing, Buyer shall in good faith notify Seller of any interest that would be an Asset but that is not specifically listed, including but not limited to additional Wells, or any increase in any NRI or decrease in any WI for a Well. The value of the additional interest shall be determined by the Parties in good faith, taking into account all relevant factors (and determining, wherever appropriate, a value that is based on the Allocated Value for the Well and in proportion to the increase in the NRI of the Well), and the Purchase Price shall be increased by such amount.

Section 7.17 Preferential Rights to Purchase and Consents to Assign.

(a) Seller shall use reasonable efforts to obtain consents to assign that Seller identifies before the Closing as contractually required to be obtained before the Closing and to give notices required in connection with those preferential rights to purchase that Seller identifies before the Closing and that are identified in Schedule 2.4. If Buyer discovers additional such consents to assign or preferential rights to purchase before the Closing, Buyer shall immediately notify Seller, and Seller shall use reasonable efforts to obtain the required consent to assign or to give notice required in connection with the preferential right to purchase before the Closing. Before and after the Closing, Buyer shall cooperate with Seller in with any required consent to assign and preferential right to purchase, including providing assurances of financial condition, but neither Seller nor Buyer shall be required to expend funds or make any other type of financial commitment in connection with such consent to assign or preferential right to purchase.

(b) If a necessary consent to assign that is contractually required to be obtained before the Closing is identified before the Closing and has not been obtained by the Closing, at Seller's election, either (i) the entire Asset, including but not limited to that portion of the Asset affected by the consent to assign, shall be assigned to Buyer at the Closing, and Seller shall defend and indemnify Buyer against any loss arising out of the failure to obtain the consent to assign, or (ii) that portion of the Asset affected by the consent to assign shall be excluded from the Assets conveyed to Buyer at the Closing, and the Purchase Price shall be reduced by the Allocated Value of the Well corresponding to that portion of the Assets.

(c) If Seller is able to obtain the consent to assign referred to in Section 7.17(b)(ii) by the Final Post-Closing Date, Seller shall on the Final Post-Closing Date convey to Buyer that portion of the Asset affected by the consent to assign, subject to all of the terms of this Agreement, and Buyer shall pay to Seller the amount by which the Purchase Price was previously reduced with respect to that portion of the Asset.

(d) If a preferential right to purchase an Asset (i) is exercised before the Closing, or (ii) provides for a period of time to exercise the preferential right that has not expired by the Closing and the third party has not waived and is not deemed to have waived the preferential right, that portion of the Asset affected by the preferential right shall be excluded from the Assets conveyed to Buyer at the Closing, and the Purchase Price shall be reduced by the Allocated Value of the Well corresponding to that portion of the Asset.

(e) If (i) the holder of any preferential right to purchase exercises such preferential right to purchase described in Section 7.17(d) before or after the Closing but fails to consummate the transaction before the Final Post-Closing Date, (ii) the period of time to exercise a preferential right expires after the Closing but before the Final Post-Closing Date, or (iii) the holder of a preferential right has waived or is deemed to have waived the preferential right after the Closing but before the Final Post-Closing Date, Seller shall convey that portion of the Asset affected by the preferential right to Buyer, subject to all of the terms of this Agreement, and Buyer shall on the Final Post-Closing Date pay to Seller the amount by which the Purchase Price previously was reduced with respect to that portion of the Asset.

(f) If any other preferential right to purchase identified after the Closing is subsequently exercised, Buyer shall convey the affected Asset to the holder of the preferential right to purchase and shall receive all amounts paid by the holder of the preferential right to purchase.

(g) The remedies provided in this Section 7.17 are the exclusive remedies with respect to consents to assign and preferential rights to purchase that affect the Assets.

ARTICLE VIII

ENVIRONMENTAL MATTERS

Section 8.1 Inspection of the Assets. From the Execution Date until the Objection Date, Seller and Parent shall (and shall use reasonable efforts to cause Operator to) provide Buyer access to the Lease premises, at reasonable times during normal business hours with reasonable notice, so that Buyer, at its sole cost and expense, may conduct a Phase I environmental assessment, excluding any sampling or testing, and, together with Buyer's agents and contractors, may conduct the Independent Phase I Environmental Review (as defined in Section 8.2). Buyer and Edge shall defend and indemnify Seller and Parent against all claims, demands, liabilities, judgments, penalties, causes of action, losses, damages, costs and expenses (including attorneys' fees, expert fees and court costs) of every kind or character arising out of the conduct of such assessment or the entry upon the Assets, EVEN THOUGH CAUSED BY, ARISING OUT OF OR ATTRIBUTABLE TO, IN WHOLE OR IN PART, THE SOLE OR CONCURRENT NEGLIGENCE, FAULT OR STRICT LIABILITY OF SELLER. If there is a conflict between the foregoing sentence and any other provision of this Agreement, the foregoing sentence shall control. Buyer shall give Seller adequate prior notice of all inspections, and Seller shall have the right to participate in all inspections.

Section 8.2 Definitions. The following terms shall have the following meanings:

Assumed Environmental Liabilities means all liabilities and obligations for environmental matters related to the Assets, whether located on the Assets or offsite, before and after the Effective Time, except for the Retained Remediation Obligations.

Environmental Defect Notice means a notice of an Environmental Defect with respect to a Well that is given by Buyer to Seller in accordance with the provisions of Section 8.5. An Environmental Defect Notice must be based on the condition of the Well as confirmed by the Independent Environmental Review or a notice of violation of an Environmental Law received from a governmental authority.

Environmental Defect means a condition on the Assets that exists before the Effective Time and that causes a Well or the lands covered by the Leases or upon which the Well or Wells are situated to be in violation of an Environmental Law.

Environmental Defect Value means Buyer's good-faith estimate of the costs and expenses associated with the remediation of an Environmental Defect with respect to an individual Well, less Site Costs.

Environmental Law means any statute, rule, regulation, code or order of any federal, state or local governmental authority relating to pollution or protection of the environment, to the extent in effect and consistently enforced before the Effective Time, including, without limitation, the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act of 1980 (CERCLA), 42 U.S.C. § 9601-9657, as amended by the Superfund Amendments and Reauthorization Act of 1986 (SARA), the Hazardous Materials Transportation Act, 49 U.S.C. § 6951, et seq., the Federal Water Pollution Control Act, 33 U.S.C. § 1251, et seq., the Clean Air Act, 42 U.S.C. § 741, et seq., the Clean Water Act, 33 U.S.C. § 7401, the Toxic Substances Control Act, 15 U.S.C. § 2601-2629, the Safe Drinking Water Act, 42 U.S.C. §§ 300F-300J, and all similar federal, state and local environmental statutes, ordinances and the rules, regulations, orders and decrees now or hereafter promulgated thereunder.

Incident means a spill, release, discharge or emission of a substance that occurred or reoccurred in the same area on account of a single cause or course of conduct.

Independent Phase I Environmental Review means the Phase I environmental assessment, excluding any sampling or testing, performed by a qualified independent third party environmental consultant on behalf of Buyer.

Retained Remediation Obligations means only the obligation to remediate certain Environmental Defects identified in an Environmental Defect Notice, except for Site Costs, which obligation to remediate is retained by Seller pursuant to Section 8.6(a).

Site Costs shall mean all costs of plugging and abandoning the Wells, disposing of equipment in connection with the Wells and restoring the surface land in connection with the Wells (with the exception of any Retained Remediation Obligations) in compliance with any and all applicable laws, statutes, ordinances, rules, regulations, orders or determinations of any governmental authority and in compliance with all applicable leases and all other applicable agreements.

Section 8.3 Acknowledgments by Buyer: Representation and Warranty by Seller. Buyer acknowledges and agrees that Seller does not operate any of the Assets and, as non-operator, has no knowledge or only limited knowledge of the environmental condition of the Assets. Buyer acknowledges and agrees that Seller has made no effort to investigate, does not have the right without obtaining applicable consents to investigate and does not have the right without obtaining applicable consents to permit Buyer to investigate the environmental condition of or on the Assets, and, except as expressly provided in the following paragraph, makes no representations or warranties as to the condition of the Assets. Seller represents and warrants to Buyer that, to Seller's Knowledge, Seller has not received any written or verbal notice, from any federal, state or local governmental authority that

(a) the Assets do not have a permit required under Environmental Law, (b) Seller is in violation or potential violation of an Environmental Law, or (c) Seller is liable or potentially liable for response costs or other remedial costs under the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act, 42 U.S.C. §§ 9601, et seq. with respect to the Assets.

Section 8.4 Apportionment of Environmental Liabilities and Obligations.

(a) Buyer's and Edge's Assumed Environmental Liabilities. Upon Closing, and except for Retained Remediation Obligations, Buyer and Edge shall assume and pay, perform, fulfill and discharge, and release Seller and Parent from and defend and indemnify Seller against, any and all claims, costs, expenses, liabilities and obligations relating to (a) the Assumed Environmental Liabilities, including but not limited to those arising out of events occurring after the Effective Time that are within the control of Buyer or that are attributable to the acts of Buyer or its contractors or subcontractors, and (b) the Site Costs.

(b) Seller's and Parent's Retained Remediation Obligations. Upon Closing, Seller and Parent agree to retain and pay, perform, fulfill and discharge, and indemnify Buyer and Edge against all claims relating to the Retained Remediation Obligations, except for those claims relating to the Retained Remediation Obligations arising out of events occurring after the Effective Time that are within the control of Buyer or that are attributable to the acts of Buyer or its contractors or subcontractors.

(c) ALL OF THE INDEMNITIES UNDER THIS SECTION 8.4 SHALL APPLY REGARDLESS OF WHETHER CAUSED BY, ARISING OUT OF OR ATTRIBUTABLE TO, IN WHOLE OR IN PART, THE SOLE OR CONCURRENT NEGLIGENCE, FAULT OR STRICT LIABILITY OF THE INDEMNIFIED PERSON OR PERSONS.

Section 8.5 Environmental Defect Notice. An Environmental Defect Notice must be given to Seller no later than the Objection Date and must include all of the following:

(a) the name of the affected Well;

(b) a detailed description of the condition on the Well that causes the Well to be in violation of an Environmental Law;

(c) a copy of the Independent Environmental Review which addresses the violation of an Environmental Law or a copy of the notice of violation of an Environmental Law received from a governmental authority; and

(d) the Environmental Defect Value associated with each Well.

Any notice that is not timely and properly given or that does not satisfy all of the foregoing shall not be a valid Environmental Defect Notice. If Seller does not receive an Environmental Defect Notice as to any Well, Buyer shall be deemed to have accepted the Well as is, where is, with all faults and waived Buyer's rights to assert an Environmental Defect with respect to that Well. No Environmental Defect Notice may be given by Buyer on any Well that is being operated or that has been operated by Buyer, and Buyer shall accept all such Wells as is, where is, with all faults and shall be deemed to have waived Buyer's rights to assert an Environmental Defect with respect to such Wells.

Section 8.6 Seller's Options. If Buyer gives a valid Environmental Defect Notice, Seller shall have the option of

(a) remediating the Environmental Defect, as set forth in Section 8.7; if not remediated before Closing, such Environmental Defect shall become, after Closing, a Retained Remediation Obligation but, if remediated within ninety (90) days after Closing in accordance with Section 8.7, shall cease to be a Retained Remediation Obligation;

(b) contesting the existence of an Environmental Defect or the Environmental Defect Value, as set forth in Section 8.8;

Table of Contents

(c) reducing the Purchase Price by the Environmental Defect Value, subject to the Environmental Defect Threshold and Environmental Defect Deductible described in Section 8.9, in which event Seller shall be released from and of all further liability or obligation to Buyer with respect to the Environmental Defect and the Environmental Defect shall be an Assumed Environmental Liability; or

(d) if the Environmental Defect Value exceeds ten percent (10%) of the Allocated Value of the Well, excluding the Well from the Assets conveyed to Buyer at the Closing, in which event the Purchase Price shall be reduced by the Allocated Value of the Well.

Section 8.7 Implementing Remediation. If Seller elects to remediate an Environmental Defect pursuant to Section 8.6(a), Seller shall select the means and methods of effecting the remediation in accordance with applicable Environmental Law and any applicable agreement, but Seller shall not be required to perform any activities if the cost thereof would be Site Costs, including without limitation plugging and abandoning any wells. Seller's responsibilities for remediation under this Section 8.7 shall be limited to a standard appropriate for the use of an asset for oil and gas activities and shall be subject to Buyer's reasonable approval and satisfaction.

Section 8.8 Contested Environmental Defects. If Seller contests the existence of an Environmental Defect or the Environmental Defect Value pursuant to Section 8.6(b), Seller shall notify Buyer within three (3) Business Days after Seller's receipt of the Environmental Defect Notice. The notice shall state the basis for Seller's contest of the Environmental Defect or the Environmental Defect Value. Within two (2) Business Days after Buyer's receipt of the notice, representatives of Seller and Buyer, knowledgeable in environmental matters, shall meet and either (a) agree to reject the Environmental Defect, in which case Buyer shall waive the Environmental Defect, or (b) agree on the validity of the Environmental Defect and the Environmental Defect Value, in which case Seller shall have the options provided in Section 8.6 (except for the right to contest under Section 8.6(b)). If Seller and Buyer cannot agree on either option (a) or (b) in the preceding sentence, the dispute concerning the Environmental Defect or the Environmental Defect Value subject to the notice shall be resolved in accordance with Section 9.16.

Section 8.9 Adjustment to Purchase Price; Environmental Defect Threshold and Deductible. At Closing, the Purchase Price shall be adjusted for the Environmental Defect Values as provided in Section 8.6(c); provided, however, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, there shall be no cure, remedy, deletion or adjustment to the Purchase Price whatsoever in respect of any Environmental Defects unless the aggregate value of all Environmental Defects equals or exceeds One Million and No/100 Dollars ($1,000,000.00) (the Environmental Defect Threshold Amount). Once the Environmental Defect Threshold has been reached, the amount of reduction in Purchase Price for Environmental Defects shall be the sum of Environmental Defect Values in excess of Five Hundred Thousand and No/100 ($500,000.00) (the Environmental Defect Deductible Amount).

Section 8.10 Exclusive Remedies. The rights and remedies granted to Buyer and Edge in this Article VIII are the exclusive rights and remedies relating to any environmental condition on the Assets, and Seller and Parent shall have no other liability or obligations with respect to environmental conditions on the Assets.

Section 9.16 Binding Arbitration.

Edgar Filing: CONTANGO OIL & GAS CO - Form DEFM14A

(1) any dispute regarding the construction, interpretation, performance, validity or enforceability of any provision of this Agreement or whether any Party is in compliance with, or breach of, any provisions of this Agreement; and

(2) the applicability of this Section 9.16 to a particular dispute (a Dispute). The provisions of this Section 9.16 shall be the exclusive method of resolving Disputes.

Table of Contents

(b) Negotiation to Resolve Disputes. If a Dispute arises, the Parties shall attempt to resolve such Dispute through the following procedure:

(1) appropriate representatives of each Party shall promptly meet (whether by phone or in person) in a good-faith attempt to resolve the Dispute; and

(2) if the Dispute is unresolved after ten (10) days following the commencement of the negotiations described in clause (1) above, then either Party may submit such Dispute to binding arbitration under this Section 9.16 by notifying the other Party (an Arbitration Notice).

(c) Selection of Arbitrators. Any arbitration conducted under this Article shall be heard by a panel (the Arbitral Panel) of three arbitrators (each an Arbitrator) selected in accordance with the following provisions.

(1) The Party that submits a Dispute to arbitration shall designate an Arbitrator in its Arbitration Notice. The other Party, by notice to the first Party, shall designate an Arbitrator on or before the twentieth (20th) day following receipt of the Arbitration Notice.

(2) The two Arbitrators so designated shall promptly meet and attempt to agree upon a third Arbitrator (the Neutral Arbitrator). If they are unable to do so within twenty (20) days following their first attempt to do so, the two Arbitrators shall request the American Arbitration Association (or, if such Association has ceased to exist, the principal successor thereto) (the AAA) to designate the Neutral Arbitrator.

(3) If any Arbitrator designated by a Party shall die, resign or otherwise fail or becomes unable to serve as Arbitrator, such Party shall promptly designate a replacement Arbitrator. If the Neutral Arbitrator shall die, resign or otherwise fail or becomes unable to serve as the Neutral Arbitrator, the two Arbitrators designated by the Parties shall promptly meet and attempt to agree upon a replacement Neutral Arbitrator. If they are unable to do so within ten (10) days following their first attempt to do so, the two Arbitrators shall request the AAA to designate the replacement Neutral Arbitrator.

(d) Conduct of Arbitration. The Arbitral Panel shall expeditiously (and, if reasonably possible, within ninety (90) days after the Neutral Arbitrator's selection) hear and decide all matters concerning the Dispute. Any arbitration hearing shall be held in Houston, Texas. The arbitration shall be conducted in accordance with the then-current Commercial Arbitration Rules of the AAA (excluding rules governing the payment of arbitration, administrative or other fees or expenses to the Arbitrator or the AAA) (the Rules), to the extent that such Rules do not conflict with the terms of this Agreement. Except as expressly provided to the contrary in this Agreement, the Arbitral Panel shall have the power

(1) to establish rules and procedures for the discovery and production of such materials, information, testimony and evidence as it deems relevant to the Dispute before it (and each Party will provide the materials, information, testimony and evidence requested in accordance with such rules and procedures and relevant to such Dispute, except that neither Party shall be required to provide any information so requested that is

(i) proprietary, unless the Arbitral Panel enters a protective order that limits the use of such information to the arbitral proceedings;

(ii) subject to a third party confidentiality restriction; or

(iii) subject to an attorney-client or other privilege);

(2) to grant injunctive relief, specific performance or any other remedy that would otherwise be available at law or in equity.

Any dispute as to the relevancy of any requested information shall be determined by the Arbitral Panel. If it deems necessary, the Arbitral Panel may propose to the Parties that one or more other experts be retained to assist it in resolving the Dispute. The retention of such other experts shall require the consent of both Parties, which shall not be unreasonably withheld.

Table of Contents

(e) Decision. All decisions of the Arbitral Panel shall be made by a majority vote of the Arbitrators. The Arbitral Panel's decision (which shall be rendered in writing) shall be final, non-appealable and binding upon the Parties and may be enforced in any court of competent jurisdiction; provided that the Parties agree that the Arbitral Panel and any court enforcing the award of the Arbitral Panel shall not have the right or authority to award to any Party exemplary, punitive, consequential, special, incidental, indirect or other similar damages, including lost profits, business interruption or loss of opportunity, whether such damages are claimed under breach of contract, breach of warranty, tort or any other theory or cause of action at law or in equity, except to the extent that another Party is required to pay any such damages to a third party in connection with a claim for which such other Party is indemnified hereunder. No Party may challenge the decision of the Arbitral Panel on the basis of any evident partiality on the part of the two Arbitrators appointed by the Parties. The responsibility for paying the costs and expenses of the arbitration, including compensation to the Arbitral Panel and any experts retained by the Arbitral Panel, shall be allocated to one Party or both Parties in a manner determined by the Arbitral Panel to be fair and reasonable under the circumstances. Each Party shall be responsible for the fees and expenses of its respective counsel, consultants and witnesses, unless the Arbitral Panel determines that compelling reasons exist for allocating all or a portion of such costs and expenses to one or more other Parties.
