Item 8.01. Other Events.

On February 25, 2005, U. S. Restaurant Properties, Inc. (the Company) filed a Form 8-K disclosing that it had agreed to the sale of certain Company assets and operations located in the state of Hawaii to Aloha Petroleum, Ltd (the Transaction). The sale was for the Company s gas station business and terminal interest in Hawaii. As of April 28, 2005, the Transaction had not closed.

On April 27, 2005, Trustreet Properties, Inc. (Trustreet), the successor to the Company, received a letter from the State of Hawaii, Department of Attorney General, indicating that the Attorney General and the Federal Trade Commission were conducting a joint anti-trust investigation into the proposed Transaction. The letter requests that Trustreet voluntarily provide certain documentation and information regarding the gas station business and the terminal interest.

To the extent possible, Trustreet intends to comply with the requests made by the Attorney General and the Federal Trade Commission.
