PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

As previously announced, the Company is in the process of evaluating the accounting implications of its December 2005 vesting acceleration of certain outstanding employee stock options and the tender offer for the exchange of certain employee stock options completed in May 2006. The Company currently estimates that it will be required to record approximately $3.5 million of additional non-cash stock compensation expense during 2006 and future periods. The Company is currently determining the portion which will be recorded in its results for the six months ended June 30, 2006. Until the evaluation is complete, the Company will be unable to finalize and file its Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2006. The Company intends to file the Form 10-Q as soon as practicable after the completion of the evaluation.

- (2) Have all other periodic reports required under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or Section 30 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 during the preceding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such report(s) been filed? If answer is no, identify report(s).  Yes  No

- (3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?  Yes  No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

The Company previously announced its preliminary results of operations for the quarter ended June 30, 2006, with comparisons to the corresponding period in 2005, and furnished the press release as an exhibit to its Form 8-K dated August 3, 2006. Any amount of additional non-cash stock compensation expense which is recorded in the quarter ended June 30, 2006 resulting from the evaluation of the accounting for vesting acceleration and the tender offer for exchange of options referred to in Part III above would result in a decrease in the net income for such quarter previously reported in the press release attached to our Form 8-K.
