If it became evident ICE would win [CBOT], ICE stock would fall substantially.

~Mike Vinciguerra, BMO Capital Markets (6/15/07)

Takeout speculation has been fueling the stock of late, but we do not believe a takeout is likely near-term. And while fundamentals have been decent, we are not sure they are strong enough to support the stock at current levels.

~Chris Allen, Bank of America (6/14/07)

"We believe that ICE's stock has traded higher [...] in expectation that ICE would not succeed in its bid attempt and would itself become a takeover target".

~ Niamh

Alexander, CIBC World Markets (6/13/07)

ICE's recent stock price performance has been driven by takeover speculation
