UCN, INC.

$12,000,000

COMMON STOCK

We may, from time to time in one or more offerings, sell shares of our common stock, par value $0.0001, at a total dollar amount up to $12,000,000.

We will provide the specific terms of any sales of common stock in supplements to this prospectus. The prospectus supplements may also add, update or change information in this prospectus. You should read this prospectus and any prospectus supplement, as well as the documents incorporated by reference or deemed to be incorporated by reference into this prospectus, carefully before you invest.

We may sell securities directly to you, through agents we select, or through underwriters or dealers we select. For additional information, you should refer to the section entitled "Plan of Distribution" beginning on page 6. If we use agents, underwriters, or dealers to sell the securities, we will name them and describe their compensation in a prospectus supplement. Our net proceeds from any such sales also will be set forth in a prospectus supplement.

This prospectus may not be used to offer or sell securities unless accompanied by a prospectus supplement.

Our common stock is not listed on a national securities exchange. Quotations for our common stock are reported on the OTC Bulletin Board under the symbol UCNN. On June 26, 2007, the closing bid price for our common stock was $4.50 per share.

Our principal executive offices are located at 14870 Pony Express Road, Bluffdale, Utah 84065, and our telephone number is (801) 320-3300.

Investing in our securities involves a high degree of risk. See the section entitled "Risk Factors" on page 3, and the section entitled "Item 1A. Risk Factors" in our most recent annual report on Form 10-K and quarterly reports on Form 10-Q for subsequent interim periods, all as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, and all of which are incorporated herein by reference.

Neither the Securities and Exchange Commission nor any state securities commission has approved or disapproved of these securities or passed upon the accuracy or adequacy of this prospectus. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offense.

The date of this prospectus is _____, 2007.

ABOUT THIS PROSPECTUS

This prospectus is part of a registration statement that we have filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, or the SEC, using a shelf registration process. Under this shelf registration process, we may offer from time to time our common shares for a total dollar amount up to $12,000,000. This prospectus provides you with a general description of the securities we may offer. Each time we offer securities, we will provide you with a prospectus supplement that describes the specific amounts, prices and terms on which we may offer the common shares. The prospectus supplement also may add, update or change information contained in this prospectus. You should read carefully both this prospectus and any prospectus supplement together with additional information described below under Incorporation of Certain Information By Reference.

You should rely only on the information contained or incorporated by reference in this prospectus or a prospectus supplement. We have not authorized any other person to provide you with different information. If anyone provides you with different or inconsistent information, you should not rely on it. This prospectus is not an offer to sell these securities and it is not soliciting an offer to buy these securities in any jurisdiction where the offer or sale is not permitted. You should assume that the information appearing in this prospectus or any prospectus supplement, as well as information we have previously filed with the SEC and incorporated by reference, is accurate only as of the date on the front of those documents. Our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects may have changed since those dates.

SUMMARY

UCN offers a wide range of hosted contact handling and performance management software services, in addition to a variety of connectivity options for carrying an inbound call into its inContact suite of services or linking agents to inContact, including dedicated T1s, IP connectivity, toll free and local inbound numbers. We sell telecom services unbundled from our inContact service offering, including, dedicated, switched, toll free, and data lines at competitive prices with superior service levels.

UCN is a Network Applications Provider that provides on-demand, hosted, contact handling software (through our inContact applications suite of services) and business telecommunication services delivered over our own, proprietary national Voice over Internet Protocol Network (VoIP Network). The inContact application suite includes an integrated package of advanced contact handling, reporting and administration applications and performance monitoring and management tools, along with inControl, a unique, rapid application development tool.

We offer a set of traditional connectivity products, which include the dedicated voice T1 product, the Intelligent-T , VoIP connectivity services and our switched 1+ services, that enable our customer sites to connect to UCN s VoIP Network and gain access to our inContact services. Our customers publish toll free and local inbound numbers to their customer base, enabling inbound callers to be handled through the inContact applications embedded in the VoIP Network. Our distribution channels pursue multiple marketing avenues, including using independent agents, value-added resellers and direct and inside sales forces.

Table of Contents

Our strategy is to develop and deploy a call management solution that is affordable, scalable to the business's call traffic, enables a distributed workforce and offers features that can substantially improve worker productivity in both small and large call centers. UCN's objective is to compete with the best feature-set currently available from other traditional on-premises systems.

Our products: 1) eliminate the need for traditional call management hardware/software on premises by replacing this premise-based hardware/software with software over our VoIP Network, and 2) deliver robust contact management functions to the business via our transport services. Using this strategy, UCN has evolved from being a long distance provider to a Network Application Provider, which we believe will be the next generation of service providers in the telecommunication industry. Early in 2007, we closed two strategic acquisitions, which significantly augmented our suite of services. Through these acquisitions, UCN can now offer companies the ability to monitor customer satisfaction and agent effectiveness through its ECHO product as well as efficiently staff their call center using our work force management solution.

During the last few years of packaging and refining our network applications, we have developed a marketing capacity and a customer base to create immediate opportunities for sales of our products and services to both existing and new customers. We have a network of experienced sales agents through which we market our inContact and connectivity products and services.

RISK FACTORS

Before deciding to invest in our securities, you should consider carefully the discussion of risks and uncertainties affecting us and our securities incorporated in this prospectus by reference to our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006 and Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the period ended March 31, 2007, the other information contained or incorporated by reference in this prospectus, and the information contained in any applicable prospectus supplement. As a result of these risks and uncertainties, our business, financial condition and results of operations could be materially and adversely affected, and the value of our securities could decline. The risks and uncertainties we discuss in the documents incorporated by reference in this prospectus are those that we currently believe may materially affect our company. Additional risks and uncertainties not presently known to us or that we currently deem immaterial also may materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

NOTE REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This prospectus, information incorporated by reference into this prospectus, and prospectus supplements contain forward-looking statements that involve substantial risks and uncertainties. Forward-looking statements are those that predict or describe future events or trends and that do not relate solely to historical matters. Further, when we use the words may, expect, anticipate, plan, believe, seek, estimate, internal, and other words, we intend to identify statements and expressions that may be forward-looking statements. We believe it is important to communicate certain of our expectations to our investors. Forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance. They involve risks, uncertainties and assumptions that could cause our future results to differ materially from those expressed in any forward-looking statements. Risks, uncertainties and other factors that might cause such differences include the risks identified in the section entitled Item 1A. Risk Factors in our most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K and in other reports we file with the SEC or in other documents that we publicly disseminate from time to time. Many factors are beyond our ability to control or predict. You are accordingly cautioned not to place undue reliance on such forward-looking statements. We have no obligation or intent to update publicly any forward-looking statements whether in response to new information, future events or otherwise, except as required by applicable law.

USE OF PROCEEDS

Unless we specify otherwise in a prospectus supplement, we intend to use the net proceeds from sales of securities by us for general corporate purposes. If net proceeds from a specific offering will be used to repay indebtedness, the applicable prospectus supplement will describe the relevant terms of the indebtedness to be repaid.

Table of Contents

DILUTION

We will set forth in a prospectus supplement the following information regarding any material dilution of the equity interests of investors purchasing common stock in an offering under this prospectus:

the net tangible book value per share of our equity securities before and after the offering;

the amount of the increase in such net tangible book value per share attributable to the cash payments made by the purchasers in the offering; and the amount of the immediate dilution from the public offering price that will be absorbed by such purchasers.

DESCRIPTION OF CAPITAL STOCK

UCN's charter authorizes it to issue up to: (i) 100,000,000 shares of common stock, $0.0001 par value per share; and (ii) 15,000,000 shares of preferred stock, $0.0001 par value per share. As of the date of this prospectus, there are 28,418,589 shares of common stock outstanding and no shares of preferred stock outstanding. In addition, there are outstanding options, warrants, and rights to acquire up to an additional 5,343,534 shares of common stock.

Common stock

Holders of the common stock are entitled to one vote per share on all matters submitted to the stockholders for a vote. There are no cumulative voting rights in the election of directors. The shares of common stock are entitled to receive such dividends as may be declared and paid by the board of directors out of funds legally available there for and to share, ratably, in the net assets, if any, of UCN upon liquidation. The stockholders have no preemptive rights to purchase any shares of our capital stock.

Preferred stock

The board of directors, without further action by the holders of the common stock, is authorized to classify any shares of our authorized but unissued preferred stock as preferred stock in one or more series. With respect to each series, the board of directors may determine:

The number of shares which shall constitute such series;

The rate of dividend, if any, payable on shares of such series;

Whether the shares of such series shall be cumulative, non-cumulative or partially cumulative as to dividends, and the dates from which any cumulative dividends are to accumulate;

Whether the shares of such series may be redeemed, and, if so, the price or prices at which and the terms and conditions on which shares of such series may be redeemed;

The amount payable upon shares of such series in the event of the voluntary or involuntary dissolution, liquidation or winding up of the affairs of UCN;

Edgar Filing: UCN INC - Form S-3

The sinking fund provisions, if any, for the redemption of shares of such series;

The voting rights, if any, of the shares of such series;

The terms and conditions, if any, on which shares of such series may be converted into shares of capital stock of UCN of any other class or series;

Whether the shares of such series are to be preferred over shares of capital stock of UCN of any other class or series as to dividends, or upon the voluntary or involuntary dissolution, liquidation, or winding up of the affairs of UCN, or otherwise; and

Any other characteristics, preferences, limitations, rights, privileges, immunities or terms not inconsistent with the provisions of the Charter.

The availability of preferred stock, while providing desirable flexibility in connection with possible acquisitions and other corporate purposes, could have the effect of discouraging takeover proposals, and the issuance of preferred stock could have the effect of delaying or preventing a change in control of UCN not approved by the board of directors.

Statutory business combinations provision

UCN is subject to the provisions of Section 203 of the Delaware General Corporation Law. Section 203 provides, with certain exceptions, that a Delaware corporation may not engage in any of a broad range of business combinations with a person or an affiliate, or associate of such person, who is an interested stockholder for a period of three years from the date that such person becomes an interested stockholder unless: (i) the transaction resulting in a person becoming an interested stockholder, or the business combination, is approved by the board of directors of the corporation before the person becomes an interested stockholder; (ii) the interested stockholder acquired 85 percent or more of the outstanding voting stock of the corporation in the same transaction that makes such person an interested stockholder (excluding shares owned by persons who are both officers and directors of the corporation, and shares held by certain employee stock ownership plans); or (iii) on or after the date the person becomes an interested stockholder, the business combination is approved at an annual or special meeting by the corporation's board of directors and by the holders of at least 66 2/3 percent of the corporation's outstanding voting stock, excluding shares owned by the interested stockholder. Under Section 203, an interested stockholder is defined as any person who is: (i) the owner of 15 percent or more of the outstanding voting stock of the corporation; or (ii) an affiliate or associate of the corporation and who was the owner of 15 percent or more of the outstanding voting stock of the corporation at any time within the three-year period immediately prior to the date on which it is sought to be determined whether such person is an interested stockholder.

A corporation may, at its option, exclude itself from the coverage of Section 203 by amending its certificate of incorporation or bylaws, through action of its stockholders, to exempt itself from coverage, provided that such bylaw or certificate of incorporation amendment shall not become effective until 12 months after the date it is adopted. UCN has not adopted such an amendment to its certificate of incorporation or bylaws.

Limitation on directors' liabilities

Pursuant to the certificate of incorporation and under Delaware law, directors and executive officers are not liable to UCN or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty, except liability in connection with a breach of duty of loyalty, acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, dividend payments or stock repurchases illegal under Delaware law, or any transaction in which a director has derived an improper personal benefit.

Our certificate of incorporation and bylaws provide that we will indemnify our directors and officers to the fullest extent permitted by law against liabilities and expenses incurred in connection with litigation in which these persons may be involved because of their offices with us if they acted in good faith or in a manner reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to our best interests. However, nothing in the certificate of incorporation and bylaws protects or indemnifies a director, officer, employee, or agent against any liability to which he would otherwise be subject by reason of willful misfeasance, bad faith, gross negligence, or reckless disregard of the duties involved in the conduct of his office. To the extent that a director or officer has been successful in defense of any proceeding, our bylaws provide that he shall be indemnified against reasonable expenses incurred in connection therewith.

Transfer agent

The transfer agent for the common stock is Interwest Transfer Co., Inc., Salt Lake City, Utah.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

We may sell our common stock offered pursuant to this prospectus and any accompanying prospectus supplements:

to or through one or more underwriters or dealers;

to investors directly;

through agents; or through any combination of these methods of sale.

Our common stock may be offered and sold:

at a fixed price or prices, which may be changed;

at market prices prevailing at the time of sale;

at prices related to the prevailing market prices; or at negotiated prices.

Any of the prices at which we sell common stock may be at a discount to market prices. Broker-dealers may also receive from purchasers of the common stock compensation that is not expected to exceed that customary in the types of transactions involved.

Each prospectus supplement, to the extent applicable, will describe the number of shares and terms of the offering to which such prospectus supplement relates, including:

any over-allotment options under which underwriters, if any, may purchase additional common stock;

the name or names of any underwriters or agents with whom we have entered into an arrangement with respect to the sale of such common stock;

the public offering or purchase price of such common stock;

any underwriting discounts or commissions or agency fees or other items constituting underwriter or agent compensation;

Edgar Filing: UCN INC - Form S-3

any discounts, commissions or concessions allowed or reallocated or paid to dealers;

any securities exchanges or markets on which the securities may be listed;

the net proceeds we will receive from such sale; and any underwriter or agent involved in the offer and sale of the common stock will be named in the applicable prospectus supplement.

Underwritten Offerings

If underwriters are used in the sale of any common stock, the common stock will be acquired by the underwriters for their own account and may be resold from time to time in one or more transactions described above. The common stock may be either offered to the public through underwriting syndicates represented by managing underwriters, or directly by underwriters. Underwriters may sell the common stock to or through dealers, and such dealers may receive compensation in the form of discounts. Generally, the underwriters' obligations to purchase the common stock will be subject to conditions precedent and the underwriters will be obligated to purchase all of the common stock if they purchase any of the common stock. We may use underwriters with whom we have a material relationship. We will describe any such underwriters in the applicable prospectus supplement, naming the underwriter and the nature of any such relationship.

Direct Sales and Sales Through Agents

We may sell common stock directly to institutional investors or others who may be deemed to be underwriters within the meaning of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Securities Act, with respect to any sale of the common stock. We also may, from time to time, authorize dealers or agents to offer and sell the common stock upon such terms and conditions as may be set forth in the applicable prospectus supplement. In order to comply with the securities laws of certain states, if applicable, the common stock offered will be sold in such jurisdictions only through registered or licensed brokers or dealers. In addition, in certain states, securities may not be sold unless they have been registered or qualified for sale in the applicable state or an exemption from the registration or qualification requirement is available and is complied with. This prospectus, one or more prospectus supplements, and the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part may be used in conjunction with one or more other registration statements to the extent permitted by the Securities Act and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder.

Rights Offerings

We also may sell directly to investors through subscription rights distributed to our stockholders on a pro rata basis. In connection with any distribution of subscription rights to stockholders, if all of the underlying securities are not subscribed for, we may sell the unsubscribed shares of common stock directly to third parties or may engage the services of one or more underwriters, dealers or agents, including standby underwriters, to sell the unsubscribed common stock to third parties.

Other Offerings

Our common stock may also be sold in one or more of the following transactions:

block transactions (which may involve crosses) in which a broker-dealer may sell all or a portion of the shares as agent, but may position and resell all or a portion of the block as principal to facilitate the transaction;

purchases by a broker-dealer as principal and resale by the broker-dealer for its own account pursuant to a prospectus supplement; ordinary brokerage transactions and transactions in which a broker-dealer solicits purchasers; sales at the market to or through a market maker or into an existing trading market, on an exchange or otherwise, for securities; and sales in other ways not involving a market maker or established trading markets, including direct sales to purchasers.

We may also enter into derivative transactions with third parties, or sell securities not covered by this prospectus to third parties in privately negotiated transactions. If the applicable prospectus supplement indicates, in connection with those derivatives, the third parties may sell common stock covered by this prospectus and the applicable prospectus supplement, including in short sale transactions. If so, the third party may use securities pledged by us or borrowed from us or others to settle those sales or to close out any related open borrowings of stock, and may use securities received from us in settlement of those derivatives to close out any related open borrowings of stock. The third party in such sale transactions will be an underwriter and will be identified in the applicable prospectus supplement or in a post-effective amendment.

Table of Contents

Dealers and agents that participate in the distribution of securities may be deemed to be underwriters under the Securities Act, and any discounts or commissions received by them and any profit realized by them on the resale of securities they realize may be deemed to be underwriting discounts and commissions under the Securities Act.

Indemnification

Underwriters, dealers and agents and remarketing firms may be entitled, under agreements entered into with us, to indemnification against and contribution toward certain civil liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act, or to contribute with respect to payments that the agents, dealers, underwriters or remarketing firms may be required to make. Unless otherwise set forth in an accompanying prospectus supplement, the obligations of any underwriters to purchase any of our common stock will be subject to certain conditions precedent.

Stabilization

In connection with the offering of common stock under this prospectus, certain underwriters, and selling group members and their respective affiliates, may engage in transactions that stabilize, maintain or otherwise affect the market price of our common stock. These transactions may include stabilization transactions pursuant to which these persons may bid for or purchase common stock for the purpose of stabilizing the market price.

The underwriters in an offering of common stock may also create a short position for their account by selling more common stock in connection with the offering than they are committed to purchase from us. In that case, the underwriters could cover all or a portion of the short position by either purchasing common stock in the open market following completion of the offering of common stock hereby or by exercising any over-allotment option granted to them by us. In addition, the managing underwriter may impose penalty bids under contractual arrangements with other underwriters, which means that it can reclaim from an underwriter (or any selling group member participating in the offering) for the account of the other underwriters, the selling concession for the common stock that is distributed in the offering but subsequently purchased for the account of the underwriters in the open market. Any of the transactions described in this paragraph or comparable transactions that are described in any accompanying prospectus supplement may result in the maintenance of the price of our common stock at a level above that which might otherwise prevail in the open market. None of the transactions described in this paragraph or in an accompanying prospectus supplement are required to be taken by an underwriter and, if they are undertaken, may be discontinued at any time.

Under applicable rules and regulations under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or Exchange Act, under certain circumstances a person engaged in the distribution of the common stock offered under this prospectus and an accompanying prospectus supplement may not simultaneously engage in market making activities with respect to our securities for a specified period prior to the commencement of such distribution.

LEGAL MATTERS

Certain legal matters relating to the validity of the securities offered by this prospectus will be passed upon for UCN by Parsons Behle & Latimer, Salt Lake City, Utah.

We currently file periodic reports pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. All of our reports, such as annual and quarterly reports, and other information, such as proxy statements, are filed electronically with the SEC. The SEC maintains a web site at (<http://www.sec.gov>) that contains reports, proxy and information statements and other information regarding registrants that file electronically with the SEC. Copies of the reports, proxy statements, and other information may be read and copied at the SEC's Public Reference Room.

INDEMNIFICATION

Under the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of UCN the board of directors has the authority to indemnify officers and directors to the fullest extent permitted by Delaware law. Further, UCN has separate indemnification agreements with certain of its officers and directors. Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to our directors, officers, and controlling persons, or to the extent any of the selling security holders are entitled to indemnification under their agreements with us, we have been advised that in the opinion of the SEC such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and is, therefore, unenforceable.

ITEM 15. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

UCN's Charter provides that, to the fullest extent that limitations on the liability of directors and officers are permitted by the Delaware General Corporation Law (the "DGCL"), no director or officer of UCN shall have any liability to UCN or its stockholders for monetary damages. The DGCL provides that a corporation's charter may include a provision which restricts or limits the liability of its directors or officers to the corporation or its stockholders for money damages except: (1) to the extent that it is provided that the person actually received an improper benefit or profit in money, property or services, for the amount of the benefit or profit in money, property or services actually received, or (2) to the extent that a judgment or other final adjudication adverse to the person is entered in a proceeding based on a finding in the proceeding that the person's action, or failure to act, was the result of active and deliberate dishonesty and was material to the cause of action adjudicated in the proceeding. UCN's Charter and Bylaws provide that UCN shall indemnify and advance expenses to its currently acting and its former directors to the fullest extent permitted by the DGCL and that UCN shall indemnify and advance expenses to its officers to the same extent as its directors and to such further extent as is consistent with law.

The Charter and Bylaws provide that UCN will indemnify its directors and officers and may indemnify employees or agents of UCN to the fullest extent permitted by law against liabilities and expenses incurred in connection with litigation in which they may be involved because of their offices with UCN. However, nothing in the Charter or Bylaws of UCN protects or indemnifies a director, officer, employee or agent against any liability to which he would otherwise be subject by reason of willful misfeasance, bad faith, gross negligence or reckless disregard of the duties involved in the conduct of his office. To the extent that a director or officer has been successful in defense of any proceeding, our Bylaws provide that he shall be indemnified against reasonable expenses incurred in connection therewith.

UCN maintains an officer's and director's liability insurance policy insuring its officers and directors against certain liabilities and expenses incurred by them in their capacities as such, and insuring the UCN under certain circumstances, in the event that indemnification payments are made to such officers and directors.

UCN has also entered into indemnification agreements (the "Indemnification Agreements") with certain of its directors and officers (individually, the "Indemnitee"). The Indemnification Agreements, among other things, provide for indemnification to the fullest extent permitted by law against any and all expenses, judgments, fines, penalties and amounts paid in settlement of any claim. The Indemnification Agreements provide for the prompt advancement of all expenses to the Indemnitee and for reimbursement to UCN if it is found that such Indemnitee is not entitled to such indemnification under applicable law. The Indemnification Agreements also provide that after a change in control (as defined in the Indemnification Agreements) of UCN, all determinations regarding a right to indemnity and the right to advancement of expenses shall be made by independent legal counsel selected by the Indemnitee.

ITEM 17. UNDERTAKINGS

A. The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

1. To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events after the effective date of the Registration Statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the Registration Statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of a prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in the volume and price represent no more than a 20 percent change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the Calculation of Registration Fee table in the effective registration statement; and

Table of Contents

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the Registration Statement or any material change to such information in the Registration Statement; provided, however, that paragraphs (1)(i), (1)(ii) and (1)(iii) do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the Registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement, or is contained in a form of prospectus filed pursuant to Rule 424(b) that is part of the registration statement.

2. That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

3. To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

4. That, for the purpose of determining liability of the registrant under the Securities Act of 1933 to any purchaser:

(i) Each prospectus filed by the Registrant pursuant to Rule 424(b)(3) shall be deemed to be part of the registration statement as of the date the filed prospectus was deemed part of and included in the registration statement; and

(ii) Each prospectus required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424(b)(2), (b)(5) or (b)(7) as part of a registration statement in reliance on Rule 430B relating to an offering made pursuant to Rule 415(a)(1)(i), (vii), or (x), for the purpose of providing the information required by Section 10(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 shall be deemed to be part of and included in the registration statement as of the earlier of the date such form of prospectus is first used after effectiveness or the date of the first contract of sale of securities in the offering described in the prospectus. As provided in Rule 430B, for liability purposes of the issuer and any person that is at that date an underwriter, such date shall be deemed to be a new effective date of the registration statement relating to the securities in the registration statement to which that prospectus relates, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof. Provided, however, that no statement made in a registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement or made in a document incorporated or deemed incorporated by reference in to the registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement will, as to a purchaser with a time contract of sale prior to such effective date, supersede or modify any statement that was made in the registration statement or prospectus that was part of the registration statement or made in any such document immediately prior to such effective date; or

That, for the purpose of determining liability of the Registrant under the Securities Act of 1933 to any purchaser in the initial distribution of the securities, the undersigned Registrant undertakes that in a primary offering of securities of the undersigned Registrant pursuant to this registration statement, regardless of the underwriting method used to sell the securities to the purchaser, if the securities are offered or sold to such purchaser by means of any of the following communications, the undersigned Registrant will be a seller to the purchaser and will be considered to offer or sell such securities to such purchaser:

(i) Any preliminary prospectus or prospectus of the undersigned Registrant relating to the offering required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424;

(ii) Any free writing prospectus relating to the offering prepared by or on behalf of the undersigned Registrant or used or referred to by the undersigned Registrant;

Table of Contents

(iii) The portion of any other free writing prospectus relating to the offering containing material information about the undersigned Registrant or its securities provided by or on behalf of the undersigned Registrant; and

(iv) Any other communication that is an offer in the offering made by the undersigned Registrant to the purchaser.

The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the Registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities being offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

B. Insofar as indemnification for liabilities under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in a successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by a director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issuer.
