Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On July 17, 2007, Plains Exploration & Production Company ( PXP ) and Pogo Producing Company ( Pogo ) announced that PXP has entered into a definitive agreement to acquire Pogo in a stock and cash transaction valued at approximately $3.6 billion, based on PXP s closing price on July 16, 2007. Under the terms of the agreement, Pogo stockholders will receive 0.68201 shares of PXP common stock and $24.88 of cash for each share of Pogo common stock which represents total consideration of approximately $60 per Pogo share. Total consideration for outstanding Pogo shares is 40 million PXP shares and approximately $1.5 billion in cash. The companies anticipate completing the transaction in the fourth quarter of 2007. Post closing, it is anticipated that the PXP stockholders will own approximately 66% of the combined company and Pogo stockholders will own approximately 34% of the combined company.

Merger Agreement

The Agreement and Plan of Merger dated July 17, 2007 (the Merger Agreement ) by and among Pogo, PXP and PXP Acquisition LLC ( PXP Acquisition ), a wholly owned subsidiary of PXP, contemplates a merger (the Merger ) whereby Pogo will be merged with and into PXP Acquisition, with PXP Acquisition surviving the Merger. Upon effectiveness of the Merger, each share of common stock of Pogo then issued and outstanding will be converted automatically into the right to receive $24.88 in cash and 0.68201 shares of common stock of PXP, subject to election, adjustment and proration procedures as provided for in the Merger Agreement.

The Merger Agreement has been approved by the boards of directors of both PXP and Pogo. The Merger is subject to Pogo s stockholders approving the Merger and to PXP s stockholders approving the issuance of shares of PXP stock to be used as merger consideration, as well as other customary closing conditions. In addition, PXP has entered into support agreements whereby Paul G. Van Wagenen, Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer of Pogo and Third Point LLC have agreed to vote their shares in Pogo in favor of the proposed transaction.

Pogo and PXP have each agreed to certain covenants in the Merger Agreement. Among other covenants, Pogo has agreed, subject to certain exceptions to permit Pogo s board of directors to comply with its fiduciary duties, not to initiate, solicit, negotiate, provide information in furtherance of, approve, recommend or enter into an Acquisition Proposal (as defined in the Merger Agreement).

The Merger Agreement also contains representations and warranties that the parties have made to each other as of specific dates. Except for its status as a contractual document that establishes and governs the legal relations among the parties with respect to the merger described therein, the Merger Agreement is not intended to be a source of factual, business or operational information about the parties. The representations and warranties contained in the Merger Agreement were made only for purposes of that agreement and as of specific dates, were solely for the benefit of the parties to that agreement, and may be subject to limitations agreed between those parties, including being qualified by disclosures between those parties. Those representations and warranties may have been made to allocate risks among the parties to the Merger Agreement, including where the parties do not have complete knowledge of all facts, instead of establishing matters as facts. Furthermore, those representations and warranties may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors. The assertions embodied in such representations and warranties are qualified by information contained in disclosure letters that the parties exchanged in connection with signing the Merger Agreement. Accordingly, investors and security holders should not rely on such representations and warranties as characterizations of the actual state of facts or circumstances, since they were only made as of the dates specified in the Merger Agreement and are modified in important part by the underlying disclosure letters. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of such representations and warranties may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in PXP s or Pogo s public disclosures.

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Merger Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 hereto and is incorporated by reference herein.
