Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On August 14, 2009, Robert L. Long notified Transocean Ltd. (the Company) of his intention to retire as Chief Executive Officer in the first quarter of 2010. The board of directors of the Company has named Steven L. Newman, currently President and Chief Operating Officer, to succeed Mr. Long upon his retirement as Chief Executive Officer.

Before being named President and Chief Operating Officer of the Company in May 2008, Mr. Newman served from November 2007 as Executive Vice President, Performance, leading the Company's three business units and focusing on client service delivery and performance improvement across the company's worldwide fleet. He previously served in senior management roles, including Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer (from October 2006 to November 2007), Senior Vice President of Human Resources and Information Process Solutions (from May 2006 to October 2006), Senior Vice President of Human Resources, Information Process Solutions and Treasury (from March 2005 until May 2006), and Vice President of Performance and Technology (from August 2003 until March 2005). He also has served as Regional Manager for the Asia and Australia Region and in international field and operations management positions, including Project Engineer, Rig Manager, Division Manager, Region Marketing Manager, Region Operations Manager and Region Manager. Mr. Newman joined the Company in 1994 in the Corporate Planning Department.

A press release announcing the succession is included as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.
