PROSPECTUS SUMMARY

This summary highlights some of the information contained elsewhere in this prospectus. Because this is only a summary, it does not contain all information that may be important to you or that you should consider before participating in this exchange offer. For a more complete understanding of the exchange offer and the exchange notes, we encourage you to read this entire prospectus, including the information under the caption Risk Factors, and the documents incorporated by reference. Kilroy Realty, L.P., or the operating partnership, is a Delaware limited partnership. Kilroy Realty Corporation, or the Company or guarantor, is the sole general partner of the operating partnership. Unless otherwise expressly stated or the context otherwise requires, in this prospectus, we, us and our refer collectively to the Company, the operating partnership and the Company's other subsidiaries, references to Company common stock or similar references refer to the common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of the Company and references to common units or similar references refer to the common units of the operating partnership.

Explanatory Note

This prospectus includes combined disclosure for Kilroy Realty Corporation and Kilroy Realty, L.P.

Kilroy Realty Corporation is a real estate investment trust, or REIT, and the general partner of Kilroy Realty, L.P. As of June 30, 2010, Kilroy Realty Corporation owned an approximate 96.7% common general partnership interest in Kilroy Realty, L.P. The remaining approximate 3.3% common limited partnership interests are owned by non-affiliated investors and certain directors and officers of Kilroy Realty Corporation. As the sole general partner of Kilroy Realty, L.P., Kilroy Realty Corporation exercises exclusive and complete discretion over Kilroy Realty, L.P.'s day-to-day management and control and can cause it to enter into certain major transactions including acquisitions, dispositions, and refinancings and cause changes in its line of business, capital structure, and distribution policies.

There are a few differences between Kilroy Realty Corporation and Kilroy Realty, L.P. which are reflected in the disclosure in this prospectus. We believe it is important to understand the differences between Kilroy Realty Corporation and Kilroy Realty, L.P. in the context of how Kilroy Realty Corporation and Kilroy Realty, L.P. operate as an interrelated, consolidated company. Kilroy Realty Corporation is a real estate investment trust, whose only material asset is its ownership of partnership interests of Kilroy Realty, L.P. As a result, Kilroy Realty Corporation does not conduct business itself, other than acting as the sole general partner of Kilroy Realty, L.P., issuing public equity from time to time and guaranteeing certain debt of Kilroy Realty, L.P. Kilroy Realty Corporation itself is not directly obligated under any indebtedness, but guarantees some of the debt of Kilroy Realty, L.P., as disclosed in this prospectus. Kilroy Realty, L.P. owns substantially all the assets of the Company either directly or through its subsidiaries, conducts the operations of the business and is structured as a limited partnership with no publicly traded equity. Except for net proceeds from public equity issuances by Kilroy Realty Corporation, which are contributed to Kilroy Realty, L.P. in exchange for partnership units, Kilroy Realty, L.P. generates the capital required by the Company's business through Kilroy Realty, L.P.'s operations, by Kilroy Realty, L.P.'s direct or indirect incurrence of indebtedness or through the issuance of partnership units.

Noncontrolling interests and stockholders' equity and partners' capital are the main areas of difference between the consolidated financial statements of Kilroy Realty Corporation and those of Kilroy Realty, L.P. The common limited partnership interests in Kilroy Realty, L.P. are accounted for as partners' capital in Kilroy Realty, L.P.'s financial statements and as noncontrolling interests in Kilroy Realty Corporation's financial statements. Kilroy Realty, L.P.'s financial statements also reflect the noncontrolling interest in Kilroy Realty Finance Partnership, L.P. This noncontrolling interest represents Kilroy Realty Corporation's 1% general partnership interest in Kilroy Realty Finance Partnership, L.P. through Kilroy Realty Finance, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Kilroy Realty Corporation. The differences between stockholders' equity, partners' capital and noncontrolling interests result from the differences in the equity issued at Kilroy Realty Corporation and the Kilroy Realty, L.P. levels and in Kilroy Realty Corporation's noncontrolling interest in Kilroy Realty Finance Partnership, L.P.

Our Company

Overview

We own, operate, develop and acquire primarily Class A suburban office and industrial real estate in key submarkets in California, particularly Southern California, which we believe have strategic advantages and strong barriers to entry. Class A real estate encompasses attractive and efficient buildings of high quality that are attractive to tenants, are well-designed and constructed with above-average material, workmanship and finishes and are well-maintained and managed.

As of June 30, 2010, our stabilized portfolio of operating properties was comprised of 100 office buildings and 41 industrial buildings, which encompassed an aggregate of approximately 10.1 million and 3.7 million rentable square feet, respectively. As of June 30, 2010, the office properties were approximately 85.7% leased to 354 tenants and the industrial properties were approximately 83.3% leased to 56 tenants. All of our properties are located in California and the majority are located in Southern California. Our stabilized portfolio excludes undeveloped land, development and redevelopment properties under construction, lease-up properties and one industrial property that we are in the process of reentitling for residential use. We define lease-up properties as properties we have recently developed or redeveloped that have not yet reached 95% occupancy and are within one year following cessation of major construction activities. During the six months ended June 30, 2010, we acquired five new operating properties, which encompass approximately 1.4 million rentable square feet.

The Company is a Maryland corporation organized to qualify as a REIT under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or the Code, which owns its interests in all of its properties through the operating partnership, the issuer of the outstanding 6.625% Senior Notes due 2020, and the exchange notes offered hereby, and Kilroy Realty Finance Partnership, L.P., or the finance partnership, both of which are Delaware limited partnerships. We conduct substantially all of our activities through the operating partnership in which, as of June 30, 2010, the Company owned an approximate 96.7% general partnership interest. The remaining 3.3% common limited partnership interests in the operating partnership as of June 30, 2010 were owned by certain of our executive officers and directors, certain of their affiliates and other outside investors. Kilroy Realty Finance, Inc., one of the Company's wholly-owned subsidiaries, is the sole general partner of the finance partnership and owns a 1.0% general partnership interest. The operating partnership owns the remaining 99.0% limited partnership interest in the finance partnership. We conduct substantially all of our development activities through Kilroy Services, LLC, a wholly-owned subsidiary of the operating partnership. With the exception of the operating partnership, all of our subsidiaries are wholly owned.

Our principal executive offices are located at 12200 West Olympic Boulevard, Suite 200, Los Angeles, California 90064. Our telephone number is (310) 481-8400. Our website is located at www.kilroyrealty.com. Information on or accessible through our website is not a part of or incorporated by reference in this prospectus.

We are offering to exchange the 6.625% Senior Notes due 2020 offered by this prospectus, referred to as the exchange notes, for the outstanding 6.625% Senior Notes due 2020, referred to as the private notes, that are properly tendered and accepted. You may tender outstanding private notes only in denominations of $1,000 and integral multiples thereof. We will issue the exchange notes on or promptly after the exchange offer expires. Expiration date

The exchange offer will expire at 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on November 3, 2010 (the 21st business day following commencement of the exchange offer), unless extended, in which case the expiration date will mean the latest date and time to which we extend the exchange offer.

Conditions to the exchange offer

The exchange offer is not subject to any condition other than that it not violate applicable law or any applicable interpretation of the staff of the SEC. The exchange offer is not conditioned upon any minimum principal amount of private notes being tendered for exchange.

We intend to conduct the exchange offer in accordance with the provisions of the registration rights agreement with respect to the private notes and the applicable requirements of the Securities Act, the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or the Exchange Act, and the rules and regulations of the SEC.

Procedures for tendering private notes

If you wish to tender your private notes for the exchange notes pursuant to the exchange offer, you must complete and sign a letter of transmittal in accordance with the instructions contained in the letter and forward it by mail, facsimile or hand delivery, together with any other documents required by the letter of transmittal, to the exchange agent (as defined below), either with the private notes to be tendered or in compliance with the specified procedures for guaranteed delivery of notes. Certain brokers, dealers, commercial banks, trust companies and other nominees may also effect tenders by book-entry transfer. Holders of private notes registered in the name of a broker, dealer, commercial bank, trust company or other nominee are urged to contact such person promptly if they wish to tender private notes pursuant to the exchange offer. See The Exchange Offer Procedures for Tendering.

Letters of transmittal and certificates representing private notes should not be sent to us. Such documents should only be sent to the exchange agent. Questions regarding how to tender private notes and requests for information should be directed to the exchange agent. See The Exchange Offer Exchange Agent. You do not have any appraisal or dissenters rights under the indenture in connection with the exchange offer.

Acceptance of the private notes and delivery of the exchange notes

Subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the conditions to the exchange offer, we will accept for exchange any and all private notes which are validly tendered in the exchange offer and not withdrawn before 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the expiration date.

Table of Contents

You may withdraw the tender of your private notes at any time before 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the expiration date, by complying with the procedures for withdrawal described in this prospectus under the heading "The Exchange Offer - Withdrawal of Tenders."

U.S. federal tax consequences

The exchange of notes will not be a taxable event for U.S. federal income tax purposes. For a discussion of material federal tax considerations relating to the exchange of notes, see "Certain U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences."

Exchange agent

U.S. Bank National Association, the registrar and paying agent for the notes under the indenture governing the notes, is serving as the exchange agent for the notes.

Consequences of failure to exchange

If you do not exchange your private notes for the exchange notes, you will continue to be subject to the restrictions on transfer provided in the private notes and in the indenture governing the private notes. In general, the private notes may not be offered or sold, unless registered under the Securities Act, except pursuant to an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws. We do not currently plan to register the resale of the private notes under the Securities Act.

Registration rights agreement

You are entitled to exchange your private notes for the exchange notes with substantially identical terms. This exchange offer satisfies this right. After the exchange offer is completed, you will no longer be entitled to any exchange or registration rights with respect to your private notes.

We explain the exchange offer in greater detail beginning on page 32.

RISK FACTORS

You should carefully consider the risks described below as well as other information and data included in this prospectus before making a decision to exchange your private notes for the exchange notes in the exchange offer. If any of the events described in the risk factors below occur, our business, financial condition, operating results and prospects could be materially adversely affected, which in turn could adversely affect our ability to repay the notes. The risk factors set forth below are generally applicable to the private notes as well as the exchange notes.

Risks Related to our Business and Operations

Global market and economic conditions may adversely affect our liquidity and financial condition and those of our tenants.

In the U.S., market and economic conditions continue to be challenging with tighter credit conditions and modest growth. While recent economic data reflects a stabilization of the economy and credit markets, the cost and availability of credit may continue to be adversely affected. Concern about continued stability of the economy and credit markets generally, and the strength of counterparties specifically, has led many lenders and institutional investors to reduce, and in some cases, cease to provide funding to borrowers. Volatility in the U.S. and international capital markets and continued recessionary conditions in global economies, and in the California economy in particular, may adversely affect our liquidity and financial condition and the liquidity and financial condition of our tenants. If these market conditions continue, they may limit our ability and the ability of our tenants to timely refinance maturing liabilities and access the capital markets to meet liquidity needs.

Our operations and those of our tenants may be adversely affected by the impact of California economic conditions and California's budget deficit.

All but one of our properties and all of our undeveloped land are located in Southern California. The continuing economic crisis has particularly affected the economy of California. The State of California began its fiscal year on July 1 with a significant reported deficit, which continues to impact and aggravate current recessionary conditions within the State. Given the budgetary situation in California, there is also the possibility that the California State Legislature could enact new tax legislation, increasing tax rates in California. The economic and legislative environment within the State could have an adverse impact on businesses operating in California, including us and our tenants.

As of June 30, 2010, all of our undeveloped land and properties representing 5.4 million rentable square feet, or 56.4% of our Net Operating Income for the six months ended June 30, 2010, were located in San Diego County. As a result, our operations are significantly affected by conditions in San Diego County (see additional information on San Diego County under Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations - Current Regional Information).

As a result of these factors, continued economic weakness in California and San Diego County could impact our ability to generate revenues sufficient to meet our operating expenses or other obligations, which would adversely impact our financial condition, results of operations, cash flows, the quoted trading price of our securities, and our ability to satisfy our debt service obligations.

Our performance and value are subject to risks associated with our investments in real estate assets and with trends in the real estate industry.

Our economic performance and the value of our real estate assets, and consequently the value of our securities, are subject to the risk that our properties may not generate revenues sufficient to meet our operating expenses or other obligations. A deficiency of this nature would adversely impact our financial condition, results of operations, cash flows, the quoted trading price of our securities, and our ability to satisfy our debt service obligations.

Events and conditions applicable to owners and operators of real estate that are beyond our control and could impact our economic performance and the value of our real estate assets may include:

Table of Contents

local oversupply or reduction in demand for office, industrial, or other commercial space, which may result in decreasing rental rates and greater concessions to tenants;

inability to collect rent from tenants; vacancies or inability to rent spaces on favorable terms or at all;

inability to finance property development and acquisitions on favorable terms or at all;

increased operating costs, including insurance premiums, utilities, and real estate taxes;

costs of complying with changes in governmental regulations;

the relative liquidity of real estate investments;

changing submarket demographics; and property damage resulting from seismic activity or other natural disasters.

We depend upon significant tenants and the loss of a significant tenant could adversely affect our financial condition, revenues and results of operations.

As of the date of this prospectus, our fifteen largest tenants represented approximately 40.0% of total annualized base rental revenues. Of this amount, our largest tenant, Intuit, leased an aggregate of approximately 536,800 rentable square feet of office space under two separate leases, representing 5.5% of our total annualized base rental revenues as of June 30, 2010. See further discussion on the composition of our tenants by industry and our largest tenants under Business and Properties Significant Tenants.

Although we have been able to mitigate the impact of past significant tenant defaults on our financial condition, revenues, and results of operations, our financial condition, results of operations, ability to borrow funds, and cash flows would be adversely affected if any of our significant tenants fails to renew its lease(s), renews its lease(s) on terms less favorable to us, or becomes bankrupt or insolvent or otherwise unable to satisfy its lease obligations.

Downturn in tenants' businesses may reduce our cash flows.

For the year ended December 31, 2009 and the six months ended June 30, 2010, we derived approximately 98.7% and 99.0%, respectively, of our revenues from continuing operations from rental income and tenant reimbursements. A tenant may experience a downturn in its business, which may weaken its financial condition and result in its failure to make timely rental payments or result in defaults under our leases. In the event of default by a tenant, we may experience delays in enforcing our rights as landlord and may incur substantial costs in protecting our investment.

The bankruptcy or insolvency of a major tenant also may adversely affect the income produced by our properties. If any tenant becomes a debtor in a case under the Bankruptcy Code, we cannot evict the tenant solely because of the bankruptcy. In addition, the bankruptcy court might permit the tenant to reject and terminate its lease with us. Our claim against the tenant for unpaid and future rent could be subject to a statutory cap that might be substantially less than the remaining rent actually owed under the lease. Therefore, our claim for unpaid rent would likely not be paid in full. Any losses resulting from the bankruptcy of any of our existing tenants could adversely impact our financial condition, results of operations, cash flows, the quoted trading prices of our securities, and our ability to satisfy our debt service obligations.

We may be unable to renew leases or re-lease available space.

As of June 30, 2010, we had office and industrial space available for lease representing approximately 14.9% of the total square footage of our properties. In addition, leases representing approximately 7.1% and 9.0% of the leased rentable square footage of our properties are scheduled to expire during the remainder of 2010 and in 2011, respectively. Above market rental rates on some of our properties may force us to renew or re-lease expiring leases at rates below current lease rates. As of June 30, 2010, we believe that the weighted average cash rental rates for our overall portfolio, including recently acquired properties, are approximately 10% above the current average quoted market rental rates, and weighted average cash rental rates for leases scheduled to expire during the remainder of 2010 are up to 5% above the current average quoted market rental rates, and leases scheduled to expire during 2011 are approximately 15% above the current average quoted market rental rate, although individual properties within any particular submarket presently may be leased at, above, or below the current market rental rates within that submarket. We cannot give any assurance that leases will be renewed or that available space will be re-leased at rental rates equal to or above the current rental rates. If the average rental rates for our properties decrease or existing tenants do not renew their leases, our financial condition, results of operations, cash flows, the quoted trading prices of our securities, and our ability to satisfy our debt service obligations could be adversely affected.

Table of Contents

We are subject to governmental regulations that may affect the development, redevelopment, and use of our properties.

We are subject to governmental regulations that may have a material adverse effect on our financial condition, results of operations, cash flow, the quoted trading prices of our securities, and our ability to satisfy our debt service obligations.

Our properties are subject to regulation under federal laws, such as the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (the ADA) and updates thereof under which all public accommodations must meet federal requirements related to access and use by disabled persons, and state and local laws addressing earthquake, fire, and life safety requirements. Although we believe that our properties substantially comply with requirements under applicable governmental regulations, none of our properties have been audited or investigated for compliance by any regulatory agency. If we were not in compliance with material provisions of the ADA or other regulations affecting our properties, we might be required to take remedial action, which could include making modifications or renovations to properties. Federal, state, or local governments may also enact future laws and regulations that could require us to make significant modifications or renovations to our properties. If we were to incur substantial costs to comply with the ADA or any other regulations, our financial condition, results of operations, cash flows, the quoted trading prices of our securities, and our ability to satisfy our debt service obligations could be adversely affected.

Our properties are subject to land use rules and regulations that govern our development, redevelopment, and use of our properties. Restrictions on our ability to develop, redevelop, or use our properties resulting from changes in the existing land use rules and regulations could have an adverse effect on our financial position, results of operations, cash flows, quoted trading prices of our securities, our ability to satisfy our debt service obligations. For example, the Airport Land Use Commission is currently evaluating updates to the existing airport compatibility plans for all public and military airports in San Diego County, which if adopted could adversely impact our business in this region.

Increasing utility costs in California may have an adverse effect on our operating results and occupancy levels.

The State of California continues to address issues related to the supply of electricity, water, and natural gas. In recent years, shortages of electricity have resulted in increased costs for consumers and certain interruptions in service. Increased consumer costs and consumer perception that the State is not able to effectively manage its utility needs may reduce demand for leased space in California office and industrial properties.

Our debt level reduces cash available for distribution and may expose us to the risk of default under our debt obligations.

Payments of principal and interest on borrowings may leave us with insufficient cash resources to operate our properties or to pay in cash distributions necessary to maintain the Company's REIT qualification. Our level of debt and the limitations imposed by our debt agreements may have substantial consequences to us, including the following:

we may be unable to refinance our indebtedness at maturity, or the refinancing terms may be less favorable than the terms of our original indebtedness;

cash flows may be insufficient to meet required principal and interest payments;

we may be forced to dispose of one or more of our properties, possibly on disadvantageous terms;

we may default on our obligations, and the lenders or mortgagees may foreclose on our properties that secure the loans and receive an assignment of rents and leases; and our default under one mortgage loan could result in a default on other indebtedness with cross default provisions.

If one or more of these events were to occur, our financial condition, results of operations, cash flow, the quoted trading prices of our securities, and our ability to satisfy our debt service obligations could be adversely affected. In addition, foreclosures could create taxable income without accompanying cash proceeds, which could require the Company to pay income or excise tax notwithstanding its tax status as a REIT under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or the Code or require the operating partnership's unitholders to pay income tax. As of June 30, 2010, we had approximately $1.2 billion aggregate principal amount of indebtedness, $64.1 million of which is contractually due prior to December 31, 2010. Our total debt and preferred equity represented 46.3% of our total market capitalization (which we define as the aggregate of our long-term debt, liquidation value of our preferred equity, and the market value of the Company's common stock and equity) at June 30, 2010. For the calculation of our market capitalization and additional information on debt maturities see Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations—Liquidity and Capital Resources.

We face significant competition, which may decrease the occupancy and rental rates of our properties.

We compete with several developers, owners, and operators of office, industrial, and other commercial real estate, many of which own properties similar to ours in the same submarkets in which our properties are located but which have lower occupancy rates than our properties. Therefore, our competitors have an incentive to decrease rental rates until their available space is leased. If our competitors offer space at rental rates below the rates currently charged by us for comparable space, we may be pressured to reduce our rental rates below those currently charged in order to retain tenants when our tenant leases expire. As a result, our financial condition, results of operations, cash flow, the quoted trading prices of our securities, and our ability to satisfy our debt service obligations may be adversely affected.

Potential casualty losses, such as earthquake losses, may not be covered by insurance and payment of such losses may adversely affect our financial condition and results of operations.

We carry comprehensive liability, fire, extended coverage, rental loss, and terrorism insurance covering all of our properties. Management believes the policy specifications and insured limits are appropriate given the relative risk of loss, the cost of the coverage, and industry practice. We do not carry insurance for generally uninsurable losses such as loss from riots or acts of God. Some of our policies, like those covering losses due to floods, are subject to limitations involving large deductibles or co-payments.

We are subject to environmental and health and safety laws and regulations and any costs to comply with, or liabilities arising under, such laws and regulations could be material.

As an owner, operator, manager, and developer of real properties, we are subject to environmental and health and safety laws and regulations. Certain of these laws and regulations impose joint and several liability, without regard to fault, for investigation and clean-up costs on current and former owners and operators of real property and persons who have disposed of or released hazardous substances into the environment. At some of the properties, there are asbestos-containing materials, or tenants routinely handle hazardous substances as part of their operations. In addition, historical operations, including the presence of underground storage tanks, have caused soil or groundwater contamination at or near some of the properties. Although we believe that the prior owners of the affected properties conducted remediation of known soil contamination at these properties, we cannot assure you that all such contamination has been remediated. The discovery of previously unknown contamination or the compliance with existing or new environmental or health and safety laws and regulations could require us to incur costs or liabilities that could be material.

Table of Contents

Earthquake damage to our properties could have an adverse effect on our financial condition and operating results.

All of our properties are located in California. We carry earthquake insurance on our properties in an amount and with deductibles that management believes are commercially reasonable. However, the amount of our earthquake insurance coverage may not be sufficient to cover losses from earthquakes. In addition, our earthquake insurance policies include substantial self-insurance portions, and we may discontinue earthquake insurance on some or all of our properties in the future if the cost of premiums for earthquake insurance exceeds the value of the coverage discounted for the risk of loss. If we experience a loss that is uninsured or which exceeds policy limits, we could lose the capital invested in the damaged properties as well as the anticipated future cash flows from those properties. In addition, if the damaged properties are subject to recourse indebtedness, we would continue to be liable for the indebtedness, even if the properties were irreparable.

We may be unable to complete acquisitions and successfully operate acquired properties.

We continually evaluate the market of available properties and may acquire office and industrial properties and undeveloped land when strategic opportunities exist. Our ability to acquire properties on favorable terms and successfully operate them is subject to the following risks:

we may potentially be unable to acquire a desired property because of competition from other real estate investors with significant capital, including both publicly traded REITs and institutional investment funds;

the possibility that, even if we enter into agreements for the acquisition of office and industrial properties, we may be unable to complete such acquisitions since they remain subject to customary conditions to closing including the completion of due diligence investigations to management's satisfaction;

we may be unable to finance acquisitions on favorable terms;

we may spend more than budgeted amounts to make necessary improvements or renovations to acquired properties;

we may lease acquired properties at below expected rental rates;

we may acquire properties that are subject to liabilities for which we may have limited or no recourse; and we may be unable to complete an acquisition after making a nonrefundable deposit and incurring certain other acquisition related costs.

If we cannot finance property acquisitions on favorable terms or operate acquired properties to meet financial expectations, our financial condition, results of operations, cash flows, the quoted trading prices of our securities, and our ability to satisfy our debt service could be adversely affected.

We may be unable to successfully complete and operate acquired, developed, and redeveloped properties.

There are significant risks associated with property acquisition, development, and redevelopment including the possibility that:

we may be unable to lease acquired, developed, or redeveloped properties at expected rental rates or within budgeted timeframes;

Table of Contents

we may not complete development or redevelopment properties on schedule or within budgeted amounts;

we may expend funds on and devote management's time to acquisition, development, or redevelopment properties that we may not complete;

we may encounter delays or refusals in obtaining all necessary zoning, land use, and other required entitlements, and building, occupancy, and other required governmental permits and authorizations;

we may encounter delays, refusals, unforeseen cost increases, and other impairments due to third-party litigation; and we may fail to obtain the financial results expected from properties we acquire, develop, or redevelop.

If one or more of these events were to occur in connection with our acquired properties, undeveloped land, or development or redevelopment properties under construction, we could be required to recognize an impairment loss. These events could also have an adverse impact on our financial condition, results of operations, cash flow, the quoted trading prices of our securities, and our ability to satisfy our debt service obligations.

While we historically have acquired, developed, and redeveloped office properties in California markets, we may in the future acquire, develop, or redevelop properties for other uses and expand our business to other geographic regions where we expect the development or acquisition of property to result in favorable risk-adjusted returns on our investment. Presently, we do not possess the same level of familiarity with development of property types other than office and industrial, or with outside markets, which could adversely affect our ability to acquire or develop properties or to achieve expected performance.

We could default on leases for land on which some of our properties are located.

As of June 30, 2010, we owned one office complex, Kilroy Airport Center in Long Beach, California, located on various land parcels, which we lease individually on a long-term basis. As of June 30, 2010, we had approximately 949,100 aggregate rentable square feet, or 6.9% of our total stabilized portfolio, of rental space located on these leased parcels. If we default under the terms of any particular lease, we may lose the ownership rights to the property subject to the lease. Upon expiration of a lease, we may not be able to renegotiate a new lease on favorable terms, if at all. The loss of the ownership rights to these properties or an increase of rental expense could have an adverse effect on our financial condition, results of operations, cash flow, the quoted trading prices of our securities, and our ability to satisfy our debt service obligations.

Real estate assets are illiquid, and we may not be able to sell our properties when we desire.

Our investments in our properties are relatively illiquid, limiting our ability to sell our properties quickly in response to changes in economic or other conditions. In addition, the Code generally imposes a 100% prohibited transaction tax on the Company on profits derived from sales of properties held primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of business, which effectively limits our ability to sell properties other than on a selected basis. These restrictions on our ability to sell our properties could have an adverse effect on our financial condition, results of operations, cash flow, the quoted trading prices of our securities, and our ability to satisfy our debt service obligations.

We may invest in securities related to real estate which could adversely affect our ability to satisfy our debt obligations.

We may purchase securities issued by entities which own real estate and may, in the future, also invest in mortgages. In general, investments in mortgages are subject to several risks, including:

borrowers may fail to make debt service payments or pay the principal when due;

the value of the mortgaged property may be less than the principal amount of the mortgage note securing the property; and interest rates payable on the mortgages may be lower than our cost for the funds used to acquire these mortgages. Owning these securities may not entitle us to control the ownership, operation, and management of the underlying real estate. In addition, we may have no control over the distributions with respect to these securities, which could adversely affect our ability to satisfy our debt obligations.

Future terrorist activity or engagement in war by the U.S. may have an adverse effect on our financial condition and operating results.

Terrorist attacks in the U.S. and other acts of terrorism or war, may result in declining economic activity, which could harm the demand for and the value of our properties. In addition, the public perception that certain locations are at greater risk for attack, such as major airports, ports, and rail facilities, may decrease the demand for and the value of our properties near these sites. A decrease in demand could make it difficult for us to renew or re-lease our properties at these sites at lease rates equal to or above historical rates. Terrorist activities also could directly impact the value of our properties through damage, destruction, or loss, and the availability of insurance for these acts may be less, and cost more, which could adversely affect our financial condition. To the extent that our tenants are impacted by future attacks, their businesses similarly could be adversely affected, including their ability to continue to honor their existing leases.

Terrorist acts and engagement in war by the U.S. also may adversely affect the markets in which our securities trade and may cause further erosion of business and consumer confidence and spending and may result in increased volatility in national and international financial markets and economies. Any one of these events may cause a decline in the demand for our office and industrial leased space, delay the time in which our new or renovated properties reach stabilized occupancy, increase our operating expenses, such as those attributable to increased physical security for our properties, and limit our access to capital or increase our cost of raising capital.

Risks Related to our Organizational Structure

Our growth depends on external sources of capital that are outside of our control and the inability to obtain capital on terms that are acceptable to us, or at all, could adversely affect our financial condition and results of operations.

The Company is required under the Code to distribute at least 90% of its taxable income, determined without regard to the dividends-paid deduction and excluding any net capital gain, and the operating partnership is required to make distributions to the Company to allow it to satisfy these REIT distribution requirements. For distributions with respect to taxable years ending on or before December 31, 2011, recent IRS guidance allows the Company to satisfy up to 90% of this requirement through the distribution of shares of its common stock, if certain conditions are met. Because of these distribution requirements, the operating partnership is required to make distributions to the Company, and we may not be able to fund future capital needs, including any necessary acquisition financing, from operating cash flow. Consequently, management relies on third-party sources of capital to fund our capital needs. We may not be able to obtain financing on favorable terms or at all. Any additional debt we incur will increase our leverage. Access to third-party sources of capital depends, in part, on general market conditions and the availability of credit, the market's perception of our growth potential, our current and expected future earnings, our cash flows and cash distributions, and the quoted market prices of our securities. If we cannot obtain capital from third-party sources, our financial condition, results of operations, cash flows, the quoted trading prices of our securities, and our ability to satisfy our debt service obligations may be adversely affected.

The Chairman of our board of directors and our President and Chief Executive Officer each have substantial influence over our affairs.

John B. Kilroy, Sr. is the Chairman of our board of directors and the father of John B. Kilroy, Jr., our President and Chief Executive Officer. Each is a member of our board of directors, and together, as of June 30, 2010, they beneficially owned approximately 3.3% of the total outstanding shares of common stock of the Company. The percentage of outstanding shares of common stock beneficially owned includes 239,477 shares of common stock, 172,607 restricted stock units that were vested and held by John B. Kilroy, Jr. at June 30, 2010, and assumes the exchange into shares of the Company's common stock of the 1,335,135 common units of the operating partnership held by Messrs. Kilroy (which are redeemable in exchange for, at the option of the Company, an equal number of shares of the Company's common stock). The beneficial ownership percentage excludes 214,880 nonvested restricted stock units held by John B. Kilroy, Jr. at June 30, 2010.

Pursuant to the charter of the Company, no other stockholder may own, actually or constructively, more than 7.0% of the outstanding common stock of the Company without obtaining a waiver from the board of directors. The board of directors has waived the ownership limits with respect to John B. Kilroy, Sr., John B. Kilroy, Jr., members of their families, and some of their affiliated entities. These named individuals and entities may own either actually or constructively, in the aggregate, up to 19.6% of the Company's outstanding common stock, excluding units that are exchangeable into shares of common stock. Consequently, Messrs. Kilroy have substantial influence on us and could exercise their influence in a manner that is not in the best interest of the operating partnership's noteholders or unitholders or the Company's noteholders or stockholders. Also, they may, in the future, have a substantial influence on the outcome of any matters submitted to the operating partnership's unitholders or the Company's stockholders for approval.

We are not limited in our ability to incur debt, which may increase our risk of default under our debt obligations.

Our financing policies and objectives are determined by the board of directors. Our goal is to limit our dependence on leverage and maintain a conservative ratio of debt to total market capitalization. However, our organizational documents do not limit the amount or percentage of indebtedness, funded or otherwise, that we may incur. As of June 30, 2010, we had approximately $1.2 billion aggregate principal amount of indebtedness outstanding, which represented 39.6% of our total market capitalization. Our total debt and the liquidation value of our preferred equity as a percentage of total market capitalization was approximately 46.3% as of June 30, 2010. See Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations—Liquidity and Capital Resources for a calculation of our market capitalization. These ratios may be increased or decreased without the consent of unitholders of the operating partnership or stockholders of the Company. Increases in the amount of debt outstanding would result in an increase in our debt service, which could adversely affect cash flow. Higher leverage also increases the risk of default on our obligations and limits our ability to obtain additional financing in the future.

Risks Related to this Offering and the Exchange Notes

The effective subordination of the exchange notes may limit our ability to satisfy our obligations under the exchange notes.

The exchange notes will be the operating partnership's senior unsecured obligations and will rank equally in right of payment with all of its other existing and future senior unsecured indebtedness. The exchange notes will be effectively subordinated in right of payment to:

all of the operating partnership's existing and future mortgage indebtedness and other secured indebtedness (to the extent of the value of the collateral securing such indebtedness); and all existing and future equity not owned by the operating partnership, if any, and indebtedness and other liabilities, whether secured or unsecured, of the operating partnership's subsidiaries.

Similarly, the Company's guarantee of the exchange notes will be its senior unsecured obligation and will rank equally in right of payment with all of its other existing and future senior unsecured indebtedness, guarantees and other obligations. The Company's guarantee will be effectively subordinated in right of payment to:

all existing and future secured indebtedness of the Company's (to the extent of the value of the collateral securing such indebtedness);

Table of Contents

all existing and future equity not owned by the Company of its consolidated subsidiaries (including the operating partnership) and of any subsidiary or other entity the Company accounts for using the equity method of accounting; and all existing and future unsecured and secured indebtedness and other liabilities of the Company's consolidated subsidiaries (including the operating partnership) and of any subsidiary or other entity the Company accounts for using the equity method of accounting.

The indenture that will govern the exchange notes will not prohibit us or any of our subsidiaries from issuing equity in the future and, although the indenture will contain covenants that limit the ability of the operating partnership and its subsidiaries to incur secured and unsecured indebtedness, those covenants are subject to significant exceptions and, in addition, the operating partnership and its subsidiaries may be able to incur substantial amounts of additional secured and unsecured indebtedness without violating those covenants.

In the event of the bankruptcy, liquidation, reorganization or other winding up of the operating partnership or the Company, assets that secure any of our respective secured obligations will be available to pay our respective obligations under the exchange notes or the guarantees, as applicable, and any of our other respective unsecured obligations, only after all of our respective indebtedness secured by those assets has been repaid in full, and we caution you that there may not be sufficient assets remaining to pay amounts due on any or all the exchange notes or the guarantees, as the case may be, then outstanding. In the event of the bankruptcy, liquidation, reorganization or other winding up of any of subsidiaries of the operating partnership or the Company, the rights of holders of indebtedness and other obligations of the operating partnership (including the exchange notes) or the Company (including the guarantees), as the case may be, will be subject to the prior claims of that subsidiary's creditors and of the holders of any indebtedness or other obligations guaranteed by that subsidiary, except to the extent that the operating partnership or the Company is itself a creditor with recognized claims against that subsidiary, in which case those claims would still be effectively subordinated to all security interests in, and debt secured by mortgages or other liens on, the assets of that subsidiary (to the extent of the value of those assets) and would be subordinate to all indebtedness of that subsidiary senior to that held by the operating partnership or the Company.

As of June 30, 2010, the operating partnership had approximately $1,182.0 million aggregate principal amount of outstanding indebtedness (before the impact of $26.9 million of unamortized discounts attributable to the operating partnership's 3.250% Exchangeable Notes due 2012, referred to as the 3.25% Exchangeable Notes, and the 4.250% Exchangeable Notes due 2014, referred to as the 4.25% Exchangeable Notes, and collectively, the Exchangeable Notes and other indebtedness), of which $317.5 million was its senior secured indebtedness and $864.5 million was its senior unsecured indebtedness. As of June 30, 2010, the Company had no outstanding indebtedness and had guaranteed borrowings and other amounts due under the operating partnership's $550 million unsecured revolving credit facility and approximately $1,032.0 million aggregate principal amount (before the impact of the unamortized debt discounts referred to above) of other outstanding indebtedness of the operating partnership. As of June 30, 2010, the subsidiaries of the operating partnership and the subsidiaries of the Company (excluding the operating partnership) had no outstanding indebtedness, exclusive of trade payables and other liabilities.

We may not be able to meet our debt service obligations.

Our ability to make payments on and to refinance our indebtedness, including the exchange notes, and to fund our operations, working capital and capital expenditures, depends on our ability to generate cash in the future. Our cash flow is subject to general economic, industry, financial, competitive, operating, legislative, regulatory and other factors, many of which are beyond our control.

The instruments and agreements governing some of our outstanding debt securities contain provisions that require us to repurchase those debt securities for cash or to pay cash in exchange for those debt securities under specified circumstances or upon the occurrence of specified events and our future debt agreements and debt securities may contain similar provisions. We may not have sufficient funds to pay our indebtedness when due (including upon any such required repurchase or exchange), and we may not be able to arrange for the financing necessary to make those payments on favorable terms or at all. In addition, our ability to make required payments on our indebtedness when due (including upon any such repurchase or exchange) may be limited by the terms of other debt instruments or agreements. Our failure to pay amounts due in respect of any of our indebtedness when due may constitute an event of default under the instrument governing that indebtedness, which could permit the holders of that indebtedness to require the immediate repayment of that indebtedness in full and, in the case of secured indebtedness, could allow them to sell the collateral securing that indebtedness and use the proceeds to repay that indebtedness. Moreover, any acceleration of or default in respect of any of our indebtedness could, in turn, constitute an event of default under other debt instruments or agreements, thereby resulting in the acceleration and required repayment of that other indebtedness. Any of these events could materially adversely affect our ability to make payments of principal and interest on the notes when due and could prevent us from making those payments altogether.

We cannot assure you that our business will generate sufficient cash flow from operations or that future sources of cash will be available to us in an amount sufficient to enable us to pay amounts due on our indebtedness, including the exchange notes, or to fund our other liquidity needs. Additionally, if we incur additional indebtedness in connection with future acquisitions or for any other purpose, our debt service obligations could increase.

We may need to refinance all or a portion of our indebtedness, including the exchange notes, on or before maturity. Our ability to refinance our indebtedness or obtain additional financing will depend on, among other things:

our financial condition and market conditions at the time; and restrictions in the agreements governing our indebtedness.

As a result, we may not be able to refinance our indebtedness, including the exchange notes, on commercially reasonable terms, or at all. If we do not generate sufficient cash flow from operations, and additional borrowings or refinancings or proceeds of assets sales or other sources of cash are not available to us, we may not have sufficient cash to enable us meet all of our obligations, including payments on the exchange notes. Accordingly, if we cannot service our indebtedness, we may have to take actions such as seeking additional equity financing, delaying capital expenditures, or strategic acquisitions and alliances. Any of these events or circumstances could have a material adverse effect on our financial condition, results of operations, cash flows, the quoted trading price of our securities and our ability to satisfy our debt service obligations.

Despite our substantial indebtedness, we may still incur significantly more debt, which could exacerbate the risks related to our indebtedness, including our inability to pay the principal of or interest on the exchange notes.

We may be able to incur substantial additional indebtedness in the future. Although the agreements governing our secured and unsecured indebtedness and the indenture governing the exchange notes limit our ability to incur additional indebtedness, these restrictions are subject to a number of significant exceptions and, in addition, we will have the ability to incur additional indebtedness, which could be substantial, without violating the limitations imposed by these debt instruments. To the extent we incur additional indebtedness, we may face additional risks associated with our indebtedness, including our possible inability to pay the principal of and interest on the exchange notes.

The Company has no significant operations, other than as the operating partnership's general partner, and no material assets, other than its investment in the operating partnership.

The exchange notes will be fully and unconditionally guaranteed by the Company. However, the Company has no significant operations, other than as general partner of the operating partnership, and no material assets, other than its investment in the operating partnership. Furthermore, the Company's guarantee will be effectively subordinated in right of payment to:

all existing and future secured indebtedness of the Company (to the extent of the value of the collateral securing such indebtedness);

all existing and future equity not owned by the Company or the Company's consolidated subsidiaries (including the operating partnership) and of any subsidiary or other entity the Company accounts for using the equity method of accounting; and all existing and future unsecured and secured indebtedness and other liabilities of the Company's consolidated subsidiaries (including the operating partnership) and of any subsidiary or other entity the Company accounts for using the equity method of accounting.

There is currently no trading market for the exchange notes, and an active public trading market for the exchange notes may not develop or, if it develops, be maintained or be liquid. The failure of an active public trading market for the exchange notes to develop or be maintained is likely to adversely affect the market price and liquidity of the exchange notes.

The exchange notes are a new issue of securities, and there is currently no existing trading market for the exchange notes. We do not intend to apply for listing of the exchange notes on any securities exchange. Accordingly, an active public trading market may not develop for the exchange notes and, even if one develops, may not be maintained or be liquid. If an active public trading market for the exchange notes does not develop or is not maintained, the market price and liquidity of the exchange notes are likely to be adversely affected and holders may not be able to sell their exchange notes at desired times and prices or at all. If any of the exchange notes are traded after their purchase, they may trade at a discount from their purchase price.

The liquidity of the trading market, if any, and future trading prices of the exchange notes will depend on many factors, including, among other things, prevailing interest rates, the financial condition, results of operations, business, prospects and credit quality of the operating partnership and its subsidiaries and the Company and its subsidiaries and other comparable entities, the market for similar securities and the overall securities market, and may be adversely affected by unfavorable changes in any of these factors, some of which are beyond our control. In addition, market volatility or events or developments in the credit markets could materially and adversely affect the market value of the exchange notes, regardless of our financial condition, results of operations, business, prospects or credit quality.

The market price of the exchange notes may fluctuate significantly.

The market price of the exchange notes may fluctuate significantly in response to many factors, including:

actual or anticipated variations in our operating results, funds from operations, cash flows, liquidity or distributions; changes in our earnings estimates or those of analysts; publication of research reports about us or the real estate industry or the office and industrial sectors in which we operate;

the failure to maintain our current credit ratings or comply with our debt covenants; increases in market interest rates;

changes in market valuations of similar companies;

adverse market reaction to any securities we may issue or additional debt we incur in the future;

additions or departures of key management personnel; actions by institutional investors;

speculation in the press or investment community;

Table of Contents

continuing high levels of volatility in the credit markets;

the realization of any of the other risk factors included in or incorporated by reference in this prospectus; and general market and economic conditions.

In addition, many of the factors listed above are beyond our control. These factors may cause the market price of the exchange notes to decline, regardless of our financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects. It is impossible to assure investors that the market price of the exchange notes will not fall in the future, and it may be difficult for investors to resell the exchange notes at prices they find attractive, or at all.

Holders of the exchange notes will not be entitled to require us to redeem or repurchase the exchange notes upon the occurrence of change of control or highly levered transactions or other designated events.

As of June 30, 2010, we had $464.5 million aggregate principal amount of outstanding debt securities (excluding a total of $23.9 million of unamortized debt discount) that permitted the holders of those securities to require us to repurchase those debt securities upon the occurrence of specified events, including, for example, the acquisition by any person or group of more than 50% of the total voting power of all of the Company's outstanding capital stock entitled to vote generally in the election of directors or if the Company ceases to be the general partner of the operating partnership or ceases to control the operating partnership. However, the exchange notes offered hereby do not have any similar rights to require us to repurchase the exchange notes, whether upon the occurrence of a change of control or highly leveraged transaction or otherwise, even though these transactions could increase the amount of our indebtedness or otherwise adversely affect our capital structure or credit ratings, thereby adversely affecting the market value of the exchange notes. These provisions may also allow holders of these other debt securities to be repaid upon the occurrence of specified transactions or events, which may deplete our available cash and sources of financing and make it difficult or impossible for us to make payments on the exchange notes when due.

An increase in interest rates could result in a decrease in the market value of the exchange notes.

In general, as market interest rates rise, notes bearing interest at a fixed rate generally decline in value. Consequently, if you purchase these exchange notes and market interest rates increase, the market value of your exchange notes may decline. We cannot predict the future level of market interest rates.

A downgrade in our credit ratings could materially adversely affect our business and financial condition and the market value of the exchange notes.

In April 2010, we received confirmation that the operating partnership had been assigned initial investment grade credit ratings by two major credit ratings. The credit ratings assigned to the operating partnership and the Company could change based upon, among other things, our results of operations and financial condition. These ratings are subject to ongoing evaluation by credit rating agencies, and we cannot assure you that any rating will not be changed or withdrawn by a rating agency in the future if, in its judgment, circumstances warrant. Moreover, these credit ratings are not recommendations to buy, sell or hold the notes or any other securities. If either of the credit rating agencies that have rated the operating partnership or the Company downgrades or lowers its credit rating, or if either credit rating agency indicates that it has placed any such rating on a so-called "watch list" for a possible downgrading or lowering or otherwise indicates that its outlook for that rating is negative, it could have a material adverse effect on the market value of the exchange notes and our costs and availability of capital, which could in turn have a material adverse effect on our financial condition, results of operations, cash flows and our ability to satisfy our debt service obligations.

If the procedures for tendering your private notes in this exchange offer are not followed, you may not receive exchange notes in exchange for your private notes.

We will issue the exchange notes in exchange for your private notes only if you tender the private notes and deliver a properly completed and duly executed letter of transmittal and other required documents before expiration of the exchange offer. You should allow sufficient time to ensure timely delivery of the necessary documents. Neither the exchange agent nor we are under any duty to give notification of defects or irregularities with respect to the tenders of private notes for exchange. THE EXCHANGE OFFER

Purpose of the Exchange Offer

On May 24, 2010, the operating partnership issued $250.0 million of the private notes to J.P. Morgan Securities Inc., Banc of America Securities LLC, Barclays Capital Inc., Comerica Securities, Inc., KeyBanc Capital Markets Inc., Mitsubishi UFJ Securities (USA), Inc., Nikko Bank (Luxembourg) S.A., PNC Capital Markets LLC, RBS Securities Inc., Scotia Capital (USA) Inc. and U.S. Bancorp Investments, Inc., the initial purchasers, pursuant to a purchase agreement. The initial purchasers subsequently sold the private notes to qualified institutional buyers, as defined in Rule 144A under the Securities Act, in reliance on Rule 144A. As a condition to the sale of the private notes, we entered into a registration rights agreement with the initial purchasers on May 24, 2010. The registration rights agreement provides that:

(1) the operating partnership and the Company will file an exchange offer registration statement with the SEC on or prior to 180 days after the closing date of the offering of the private notes;

(2) the operating partnership and the Company will use all commercially reasonable efforts to have the exchange offer registration statement declared effective by the SEC on or prior to 270 days after the closing date of the offering of private notes; and

(3) unless the exchange offer would not be permitted by applicable law or SEC policy or applicable interpretation of the staff of the SEC, the operating partnership and the Company will:

(a) commence the exchange offer promptly after the exchange offer registration statement is declared effective by the SEC and keep the exchange offer open for at least 20 business days (or longer, if required by applicable securities laws) after the date notice is sent to holders of entitled securities (as defined below); and

(b) use all commercially reasonable efforts to issue, on or prior to 30 business days (or longer, if required by applicable securities laws) after the date on which the exchange offer registration statement is declared effective by the SEC, exchange notes in exchange for all private notes tendered and not withdrawn prior thereto in the exchange offer; and

(4) if obligated to file the shelf registration statement, the operating partnership and the Company will use all commercially reasonable efforts to file a shelf registration statement with the SEC on or prior to 60 days after such filing obligation arises, to cause the shelf registration statement to be declared effective by the SEC on or prior to 120 days after such filing obligation arises and to keep the shelf registration statement continuously effective and the related prospectus current (subject to the right of the operating partnership to suspend sales of notes pursuant to the shelf registration statement from time to time) for a period of one year after the last date on which any notes are originally issued.

Upon the effectiveness of the exchange offer registration statement, we will offer the exchange notes in exchange for the private notes. The registration rights agreement is listed as an exhibit to the registration statement of which this prospectus is part.

Resale of the Exchange Notes

Under existing interpretations by the staff of the SEC contained in no-action letters to third parties, the exchange notes will generally be freely transferable by holders (other than by any holder that is an affiliate (as defined in Rule 405 of the Securities Act) of the operating partnership or the Company) after the exchange offer without further registration under the Securities Act, except that participating broker-dealers (as defined below) will be required to deliver a prospectus in connection with any resale or other transfer of the exchange notes as described below.

If you wish to exchange your private notes for exchange notes in the exchange offer, you will be required to make certain representations. If you are not able to make these representations, you will not be entitled to participate in the exchange offer or to exchange your private notes for exchange notes.

Table of Contents

Any broker-dealer who holds private notes acquired for its own account as a result of market-making activities or other trading activities (a participating broker-dealer) who exchanges those private notes for exchange notes in the exchange offer must deliver a prospectus meeting the requirements of the Securities Act in connection with any resale of those exchange notes. We understand that the staff of the SEC has taken the position that participating broker-dealers may fulfill their prospectus delivery requirements with respect to exchange notes, other than a resale of an unsold allotment from the initial offering of the private notes, with the prospectus contained in the exchange offer registration statement. Under the registration rights agreement, for a period of 180 days following the expiration date of the exchange offer, participating broker-dealers who notify us within 30 days after consummation of the exchange offer will be entitled to use the prospectus contained in the exchange offer registration statement in connection with the resale of the exchange notes (and we will agree to keep the exchange offer registration statement continuously effective and the related prospectus current during such period), subject to exceptions, including the operating partnership's right to suspend the use of that prospectus as described below. If we effect the exchange offer, we will be permitted to require any participating broker-dealer to discontinue disposition of exchange notes pursuant to this prospectus, as described below under the caption "Shelf Registration." Each such participating-broker will be subject to certain of the civil liability provisions under the Securities Act in connection with resales made pursuant to such prospectus.

Terms of the Exchange Offer

Upon the terms and subject to the conditions described in this prospectus and in the accompanying letter of transmittal, which together constitute the exchange offer, we will accept any and all private notes validly tendered and not withdrawn before the expiration date. We will issue $1,000 principal amount of exchange notes in exchange for each $1,000 principal amount of outstanding private notes surrendered pursuant to the exchange offer. You may tender private notes only in integral multiples of $1,000.

The form and terms of the exchange notes are the same as the form and terms of the private notes except that:

the exchange notes will be registered with the SEC and thus will not be subject to restrictions on transfer or bear legends restricting their transfer; and the exchange notes will not provide for the payment of additional interest as described below or be entitled to registration rights under the registration rights agreement.

The exchange notes will evidence the same debt as the private notes and will be issued under the same indenture, so the exchange notes and the private notes will be treated as a single class of debt securities under the indenture.

As of the date of this prospectus, $250.0 million in aggregate principal amount of the private notes are outstanding and registered in the name of Cede & Co., as nominee for DTC. Only registered holders of the private notes, or their legal representative or attorney-in-fact, as reflected on the records of the trustee under the indenture, may participate in the exchange offer. We will not set a fixed record date for determining registered holders of the private notes entitled to participate in the exchange offer.

You do not have any appraisal or dissenters' rights under the indenture in connection with the exchange offer. We intend to conduct the exchange offer in accordance with the provisions of the registration rights agreement and the applicable requirements of the Securities Act, the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations of the SEC.

We will be deemed to have accepted validly tendered private notes when, as and if we have given written notice of acceptance to the exchange agent. The exchange agent will act as your agent for the purposes of receiving the exchange notes from us.

If you tender private notes in the exchange offer you will not be required to pay brokerage commissions or fees with respect to the exchange of private notes pursuant to the exchange offer. We will pay all charges and expenses, other than the applicable taxes described below, in connection with the exchange offer.

Table of Contents

Expiration Date; Extensions; Amendments

The term expiration date will mean 5:00 p.m., New York City time on November 3, 2010 (the 21st business day following commencement of the exchange offer), unless we, in our sole discretion, extend the exchange offer, in which case the term expiration date will mean the latest date and time to which we extend the exchange offer.

To extend the exchange offer, we will notify the exchange agent and each registered holder of any extension in writing by a press release or other public announcement before 9:00 a.m., New York City time, on the next business day after the previously scheduled expiration date. The notice of extension will disclose the aggregate principal amount of the private notes that have been tendered as of the date of such notice.

We reserve the right, in our reasonable discretion:

to delay accepting any private notes due to an extension of the exchange offer; or if any conditions listed below under Conditions are not satisfied, to terminate the exchange offer, in each case by written notice of the delay, extension or termination to the exchange agent and by press release or other public announcement.

We will follow any delay in acceptance, extension or termination as promptly as practicable by written notice to the registered holders by a press release or other public announcement. If we amend the exchange offer in a manner we determine constitutes a material change, we will promptly disclose the amendment in a prospectus supplement that we will distribute to the registered holders. We will also extend the exchange offer for a period of five to ten business days, depending upon the significance of the amendment and the manner of disclosure, if the exchange offer would otherwise expire during the five to ten business day period.

Interest on the Exchange Notes

The exchange notes will bear interest at the same rate and on the same terms as the private notes. Consequently, the exchange notes will bear interest at a rate equal to 6.625% per year (calculated using a 360-day year). Interest will be payable on the exchange notes semi-annually on each June 1 and December 1.

Interest on the exchange notes will accrue from the last interest payment date on which interest was paid on the private notes or, if no interest has been paid on the private notes, from the date of initial issuance of the private notes. We will deem the right to receive any interest accrued but unpaid on the private notes waived by you if we accept your private notes for exchange.

Procedures for Tendering

Valid Tender

Except as described below, a tendering holder must, prior to the expiration date, transmit to the exchange agent, at the address listed under the heading Exchange Agent :

a properly completed and duly executed letter of transmittal, including all other documents required by the letter of transmittal; or if the private notes are tendered in accordance with the book-entry procedures listed below, an agent's message.

In addition, a tendering holder must:

deliver certificates, if any, for the private notes to the exchange agent at or before the expiration date; or

deliver a timely confirmation of book-entry transfer of the private notes into the exchange agent's account at DTC, the book-entry transfer facility, along with the letter of transmittal or an agent's message; or comply with the guaranteed delivery procedures described below.

The term "agent's message" means a message, transmitted by DTC to and received by the exchange agent and forming a part of a book-entry confirmation, that states that DTC has received an express acknowledgment that the tendering holder agrees to be bound by the letter of transmittal and that we may enforce the letter of transmittal against this holder.

If the letter of transmittal is signed by a person other than the registered holder of private notes, the letter of transmittal must be accompanied by a written instrument of transfer or exchange in satisfactory form duly executed by the registered holder with the signature guaranteed by an eligible institution. The private notes must be endorsed or accompanied by appropriate powers of attorney. In either case, the private notes must be signed exactly as the name of any registered holder appears on the private notes.

If the letter of transmittal or any private notes or powers of attorney are signed by trustees, executors, administrators, guardians, attorneys-in-fact, officers of corporations or others acting in a fiduciary or representative capacity, these persons should so indicate when signing. Unless waived by us, proper evidence satisfactory to us of their authority to so act must be submitted.

By tendering private notes pursuant to the exchange offer, each holder will represent to us that, among other things, the exchange notes are being acquired in the ordinary course of business of the person receiving the exchange notes, whether or not that person is the holder, and neither the holder nor the other person has any arrangement or understanding with any person to participate in the distribution of the exchange notes. In the case of a holder that is not a broker-dealer, that holder, by tendering private notes pursuant to the exchange offer, will also represent to us that the holder is not engaged in and does not intend to engage in a distribution of the exchange notes.

The method of delivery of private notes, letters of transmittal and all other required documents is at your election and risk. If the delivery is by mail, we recommend that you use registered mail, properly insured, with return receipt requested. In all cases, you should allow sufficient time to assure timely delivery. You should not send letters of transmittal or private notes to us.

If you are a beneficial owner whose private notes are registered in the name of a broker, dealer, commercial bank, trust company or other nominee, and wish to tender, you should promptly instruct the registered holder to tender on your behalf. Any registered holder that is a participant in DTC's book-entry transfer facility system may make book-entry delivery of the private notes by causing DTC to transfer the private notes into the exchange agent's account, including by means of DTC's Automated Tender Offer Program.

Signature Guarantees

Signatures on a letter of transmittal or a notice of withdrawal must be guaranteed, unless the private notes surrendered for exchange are tendered:

by a registered holder of the private notes who has not completed the box entitled "Special Issuance Instructions" or "Special Delivery Instructions" on the letter of transmittal; or for the account of an eligible institution.

If signatures on a letter of transmittal or a notice of withdrawal are required to be guaranteed, the guarantees must be by an eligible institution. An eligible institution is an eligible guarantor institution meeting the requirements of the registrar for the notes, which requirements include membership or participation in the Security Transfer Agent Medallion Program, or STAMP, or such other signature guarantee program as may be determined by the registrar for the notes in addition to, or in substitution for, STAMP, all in accordance with the Exchange Act.

Book-Entry Transfer

The exchange agent will make a request to establish an account for the private notes at DTC for purposes of the exchange offer within two business days after the date of this prospectus. Any financial institution that is a participant in DTC's systems must make book-entry delivery of private notes by causing DTC to transfer those private notes into the exchange agent's account at DTC in accordance with DTC's procedure for transfer. The participant should transmit its acceptance to DTC at or prior to the expiration date or comply with the guaranteed delivery procedures described below. DTC will verify this acceptance, execute a book-entry transfer of the tendered private notes into the exchange agent's account at DTC and then send to the exchange agent confirmation of this book-entry transfer. The confirmation of this book-entry transfer will include an agent's message confirming that DTC has received an express acknowledgment from this participant that this participant has received and agrees to be bound by the letter of transmittal and that we may enforce the letter of transmittal against this participant.

Delivery of exchange notes issued in the exchange offer may be effected through book-entry transfer at DTC. However, the letter of transmittal or facsimile of it or an agent's message, with any required signature guarantees and any other required documents, must:

be transmitted to and received by the exchange agent at the address listed under "Exchange Agent" at or prior to the expiration date; or

comply with the guaranteed delivery procedures described below.

Guaranteed Delivery

If a registered holder of private notes desires to tender the private notes, and the private notes are not immediately available, or time will not permit the holder's private notes or other required documents to reach the exchange agent before the expiration date, or the procedure for book-entry transfer described above cannot be completed on a timely basis, a tender may nonetheless be made if:

the tender is made through an eligible institution;

prior to the expiration date, the exchange agent received from an eligible institution a properly completed and duly executed notice of guaranteed delivery, substantially in the form provided by us, by facsimile transmission, mail or hand delivery:

1. stating the name and address of the holder of private notes and the amount of private notes tendered;
2. stating that the tender is being made; and
3. guaranteeing that within three New York Stock Exchange trading days after the expiration date, the certificates for all physically tendered private notes, in proper form for transfer, or a book-entry confirmation, as the case may be, and a properly completed and duly executed letter of transmittal, or an agent's message, and any other documents required by the letter of transmittal will be deposited by the eligible institution with the exchange agent; and the certificates for all physically tendered private notes, in proper form for transfer, or a book-entry confirmation, as the case may be, and a properly completed and duly executed letter of transmittal, or any agent's message, and all other documents required by the letter of transmittal, are received by the exchange agent within three New York Stock Exchange trading days after the expiration date.

Determination of Validity

We will determine in our sole discretion all questions as to the validity, form and eligibility of private notes tendered for exchange. This discretion extends to the determination of all questions concerning the time of receipt, acceptance and withdrawal of tendered private notes. These determinations will be final and binding. We reserve the absolute right to reject any and all private notes not properly tendered or any private notes our acceptance of which would, in the opinion of our counsel, be unlawful. We also reserve the right to waive any defects, irregularities or conditions of tender as to any particular private note either before or after the expiration date, including the right to waive the ineligibility of any tendering holder. Our interpretation of the terms and conditions of the exchange offer as to any particular private note either before or after the expiration date, including the letter of transmittal and the instructions to the letter of transmittal, shall be final and binding on all parties. Unless waived, you must cure any defects or irregularities with respect to tenders of private notes within the time we determine. Although we intend to notify you of defects or irregularities with respect to tenders of private notes, neither we, the exchange agent nor any other person will incur any liability for failure to give you that notification. Unless waived, we will not deem tenders of private notes to have been made until you cure the defects or irregularities.

Other Rights

While we have no present plan to acquire any private notes that are not tendered in the exchange offer or to file a registration statement to permit resales of any private notes that are not tendered in the exchange offer, we reserve the right in our sole discretion to purchase or make offers for any private notes that remain outstanding after the expiration date. We also reserve the right to terminate the exchange offer, as described below under Conditions, and, to the extent permitted by applicable law, purchase private notes in the open market, in privately negotiated transactions or otherwise. The terms of any of those purchases or offers could differ from the terms of the exchange offer.

Acceptance of Private Notes for Exchange; Issuance of Exchange Notes

Upon the terms and subject to the conditions of the exchange offer, we will accept, promptly after the expiration date, all private notes properly tendered. We will issue the exchange notes promptly after acceptance of the private notes. For purposes of the exchange offer, we will be deemed to have accepted properly tendered private notes for exchange when, as and if we have given oral or written notice to the exchange agent, with prompt written confirmation of any oral notice.

In all cases, issuance of exchange notes for private notes will be made only after timely receipt by the exchange agent of:

certificates for the private notes, or a timely book-entry confirmation of the private notes, into the exchange agent's account at the book-entry transfer facility; a properly completed and duly executed letter of transmittal or an agent's message; and all other required documents.

For each private note accepted for exchange, the holder of the private note will receive an exchange note having a principal amount equal to that of the surrendered private note.

Return of Notes

Unaccepted or non-exchanged private notes will be returned without expense to the tendering holder of the private notes. In the case of private notes tendered by book-entry transfer in accordance with the book-entry procedures described above, the non-exchanged private notes will be credited to an account maintained with DTC as promptly as practicable after the expiration or termination of the exchange offer.

Table of Contents

Withdrawal of Tenders

Except as otherwise provided in this prospectus, you may withdraw tenders of private notes at any time before 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the expiration date.

For a withdrawal to be effective, the exchange agent must receive a written notice of withdrawal at the address or, in the case of eligible institutions, at the facsimile number, indicated under Exchange Agent before the expiration date. Any notice of withdrawal must:

specify the name of the person, referred to as the depositor, having tendered the private notes to be withdrawn; identify the private notes to be withdrawn, including the certificate number or numbers and principal amount of the private notes; contain a statement that the holder is withdrawing its election to have the private notes exchanged; be signed by the holder in the same manner as the original signature on the letter of transmittal by which the private notes were tendered, including any required signature guarantees, or be accompanied by documents of transfer to have the trustee with respect to the private notes register the transfer of the private notes in the name of the person withdrawing the tender; and specify the name in which the private notes are registered, if different from that of the depositor.

If certificates for private notes have been delivered or otherwise identified to the exchange agent, then, prior to the release of these certificates the withdrawing holder must also submit the serial numbers of the particular certificates to be withdrawn and signed notice of withdrawal with signatures guaranteed by an eligible institution, unless this holder is an eligible institution. If private notes have been tendered in accordance with the procedure for book-entry transfer described above, any notice of withdrawal must specify the name and number of the account at the book-entry transfer facility to be credited with the withdrawn private notes.

We will determine in our sole discretion all questions as to the validity, form and eligibility of the notices, and our determination will be final and binding on all parties. We will not deem any properly withdrawn private notes to have been validly tendered for purposes of the exchange offer, and we will not issue exchange notes with respect to those private notes, unless you validly retender the withdrawn private notes. You may retender properly withdrawn private notes by following the procedures described above under Procedures for Tendering at any time before 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the expiration date.

Conditions

Notwithstanding any other term of the exchange offer, we will not be required to accept for exchange, or exchange the exchange notes for, any private notes, and may terminate the exchange offer as provided in this prospectus before the expiration of the exchange offer, if, in our reasonable judgment, the exchange offer violates applicable law, rules or regulations or an applicable interpretation of the staff of the SEC.

If we determine in our reasonable discretion that any of these conditions are not satisfied, we may:

refuse to accept any private notes and return all tendered private notes to you;

extend the exchange offer and retain all private notes tendered before the exchange offer expires, subject, however, to your rights to withdraw the private notes; or waive the unsatisfied conditions with respect to the exchange offer and accept all properly tendered private notes that have not been withdrawn.

If the waiver constitutes a material change to the exchange offer, we will promptly disclose the waiver by means of a prospectus supplement that we will distribute to the registered holders of the private notes, and we will extend the exchange offer for a period of five to ten business days, depending upon the significance of the waiver and the manner of disclosure to the registered holders, if the exchange offer would otherwise expire during the five to ten business day period.

Termination of Rights

All of your rights under the registration rights agreement will terminate upon consummation of the exchange offer, except with respect to our continuing obligations:

to indemnify you and parties related to you against liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act; and to provide, upon your request, the information required by Rule 144A(d)(4) under the Securities Act to permit resales of the notes pursuant to Rule 144A.

Shelf Registration

If:

- (1) the operating partnership and the Company:
 - (a) do not cause the exchange offer registrations statement to become effective on or prior to 270 days after the closing of the offering of private notes or do not consummate the exchange offer within 30 business days after the exchange offer registration statement is declared effective; or
 - (b) are not permitted to consummate the exchange offer because the exchange offer is not permitted by applicable law or SEC policy or applicable interpretations of the staff of the SEC; or
- (2) any holder of entitled securities notifies us prior to the 30th business day following consummation of the exchange offer that:
 - (a) it is prohibited by law or SEC policy or applicable interpretation of the staff of the SEC, or because of its inability to make certain required representations, from participating in the exchange offer;
 - (b) it may not resell the exchange notes acquired by it in the exchange offer to the public without delivering a prospectus and this prospectus is not appropriate or available for such resales;
 - (c) it is not an affiliate (as defined in Rule 144 of the Securities Act) of us and the exchange notes acquired by it in the exchange offer are not otherwise freely tradable by it under the Securities Act; or
 - (d) it is a broker-dealer and owns private notes acquired directly from the operating partnership or one of the operating partnership's affiliates, the operating partnership and the Company will file with the SEC a shelf registration statement on the appropriate form to permit holders of entitled securities who provide certain information in connection with the shelf registration statement to resell those entitled securities to the public market.

Edgar Filing: KILROY REALTY CORP - Form 424B3

For purposes of the foregoing, "entitled securities" means each note until the earliest to occur of:

- (1) the date on which such private note has been exchanged by a person other than a broker-dealer for an exchange note in the exchange offer (unless the owner of such private note notifies us prior to the 30th day following consummation of the exchange offer that it is not an "affiliate" (as defined in Rule 144) of us and such exchange note is not freely tradable by it under the Securities Act);

Table of Contents

- (2) following the exchange by a broker-dealer in the exchange offer of a private note for an exchange note, the date on which such exchange note is sold or otherwise transferred to a person (other than a broker-dealer) who receives from such broker-dealer on or prior to the date of such sale a copy of this prospectus;
- (3) the date on which such private note has been registered under the Securities Act and disposed of in accordance with the shelf registration statement; or
- (4) the date on which such private note is actually sold or otherwise transferred pursuant to Rule 144 (if available) under the Securities Act.

If:

- (1) the operating partnership and the Company fail to file any of the registration statements required by the registration rights agreement on or before to the date specified for such filing;
- (2) any of such registration statements is not declared effective by the SEC on or prior to the date specified for such effectiveness;
- (3) the operating partnership and the Company fail to consummate the exchange offer within 30 business days after the date on which the exchange offer registration statement is declared effective by the SEC; or
- (4) the shelf registration statement or the exchange offer registration statement is declared effective but thereafter ceases to be effective or usable in connection with resales of entitled securities (other than as a result of our right to suspend the use of such registration for certain periods of time and under circumstances described below) during the periods specified in the registration rights agreement (each such event referred to in clauses (1) through (4) above, a registration default), then the operating partnership will pay additional interest to each holder of entitled securities from and including the date on which any such registration default shall occur to but excluding the date on which all registration defaults have been cured or cease to exist.

With respect to the first 90-day period during which a registration default is continuing, additional interest will be paid at a rate equal to 0.25% per annum of the principal amount of entitled securities outstanding. If all registration defaults are not cured or cease to exist prior to the end of such 90-day period, then, from and including the first day after such 90-day period, the rate at which additional interest is payable will increase by an additional 0.25% per annum. However, the maximum rate of additional interest will in no event exceed 0.50% per annum. Additional interest will accrue and be payable to but excluding the date on which all registration defaults have been cured or cease to exist.

Additional interest will be computed on the basis of a 360-day year comprised of twelve 30-day months and will be paid to the holders of the entitled securities in the same manner and times as interest is otherwise payable on the entitled securities. From and including the date on which all registration defaults have been cured or otherwise ceased to exist, additional interest will cease to accrue unless and until a subsequent registration default occurs. Additional interest will not be payable on any private notes or exchange notes other than entitled securities.

Holders of the notes will be required to make certain representations to the operating partnership (as described in the registration rights agreement) in order to participate in the exchange offer. In order to include entitled securities in the shelf registration statement, if filed, and receive additional interest relating to a registration default with respect to the shelf registration statement, a holder will be required to provide certain information to the operating partnership and to be named as a selling security holder in the shelf registration statement and the related prospectus, and will be subject to certain civil liability provisions under the Securities Act in connection with sales under the shelf registration statement. By including entitled securities in the shelf registration statement, if any, a holder will be deemed to have agreed to indemnify us against certain losses arising out of information furnished by such holder in writing for inclusion in any shelf registration statement.

Table of Contents

If a shelf registration statement becomes effective under the Securities Act then, during any 365-day period thereafter the operating partnership may, by notice to holders of entitled securities registered pursuant to the shelf registration statement, suspend the availability of the shelf registration statement and the use of the related prospectus for up to two periods of up to 30 consecutive days each during any such 365-day period if:

such action is required by applicable law;

such action is taken by us in good faith and for valid business reasons, including avoiding premature public disclosure of an acquisition or divestiture of assets or a material corporate transaction or event; or the happening of any event or the discovery of any fact makes any statement made in the shelf registration statement or the related prospectus untrue in any material respect or constitutes an omission to state a material fact in the shelf registration statement or related prospectus.

Each holder of entitled securities will be required to discontinue disposition of those entitled securities pursuant to the shelf registration statement upon receipt from us of notice of any events described in the preceding sentence but will not be entitled to receive additional interest unless such suspension exceeds the number of days or periods specified above. If we effect the exchange offer, we will also be permitted to require any broker-dealers to discontinue disposition of exchange notes pursuant to this prospectus on the same terms and conditions described in this paragraph. If we suspend the use of the shelf registration statement or this prospectus during the period we are otherwise required to keep such registration statement effective, then the period that the operating partnership and the Company are required to keep the shelf registration statement effective or during which the exchange offer registration statement must remain effective and participating broker-dealers are entitled to use such prospectus, as the case may be, will be extended by a number of days equal to the period of any such suspension.

Fees and Expenses

We will bear the expenses of soliciting tenders. We have not retained any dealer manager in connection with the exchange offer and will not make any payments to brokers, dealers or others soliciting acceptances of the exchange offer. We will, however, pay the exchange agent reasonable and customary fees for its services and will reimburse it for its reasonable out-of-pocket expenses.

We will pay the cash expenses incurred in connection with the exchange offer. These expenses include registration fees, fees and expenses of the exchange agent and the trustee, accounting and legal fees and printing costs, among others.

Edgar Filing: KILROY REALTY CORP - Form 424B3

We will pay all transfer taxes, if any, applicable to the exchange of notes pursuant to the exchange offer. If, however, a transfer tax is imposed for any reason other than the exchange of the private notes pursuant to the exchange offer, then you must pay the amount of the transfer taxes. If satisfactory evidence of payment of such taxes or exemption therefrom is not submitted with the letter of transmittal, the amount of such transfer taxes will be billed directly to you.

Consequence of Failures to Exchange

Participation in the exchange offer is voluntary. We urge you to consult your financial and tax advisors in making your decisions on what action to take. Private notes that are not exchanged for exchange notes pursuant to the exchange offer will remain restricted securities. Accordingly, those private notes may be resold only:

to a person whom the seller reasonably believes is a qualified institutional buyer in a transaction meeting the requirements of Rule 144A;

in a transaction meeting the requirements of Rule 144 under the Securities Act; outside the United States to a foreign person in a transaction meeting the requirements of Rule 903 or 904 of Regulation S under the Securities Act;

in accordance with another exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act and based upon an opinion of counsel if we so request; to us; or pursuant to an effective registration statement.

In each case, the private notes may be resold only in accordance with any applicable securities laws of any state of the United States or any other applicable jurisdiction.

Accounting Treatment

The exchange notes will be recorded at the same carrying value as the original notes, as reflected in our accounting records on the date of the exchange. Accordingly, no gain or loss for accounting purposes will be recognized.

Table of Contents

USE OF PROCEEDS

The exchange offer satisfies an obligation under the registration rights agreement. We will not receive any cash proceeds from the exchange offer.

The net proceeds from the sale of the private notes after deducting discounts, commissions and offering expenses, were approximately $245.0 million. We used a portion of the net proceeds from the sale of the private notes to repurchase $150.0 million in aggregate principal balance of our 3.25% Exchangeable Notes and the remainder to acquire additional properties and for general corporate purposes.

Such statements are subject to certain risks and uncertainties, which could cause actual results to differ materially from those projected. Some of the information presented is forward-looking in nature, including information concerning projected future occupancy rates, rental rate increases, property development timing, and investment amounts. Although the information is based on our current expectations, actual results could vary from expectations stated in this prospectus. Numerous factors could affect our actual results, some of which are beyond our control. These include the breadth and duration of the current economic recession and its impact on our tenants, the strength of commercial and industrial real estate markets, market conditions affecting tenants, our ability to complete and successfully integrate pending and recent acquisitions, competitive market conditions and interest rate levels, and capital market conditions. You are cautioned not to place undue reliance on this information, which speaks only as of the date this prospectus was prepared. We assume no obligation to update publicly any forward-looking information, whether as a result of new information, future events, or otherwise, except to the extent we are required to do so in connection with our ongoing requirements under federal securities laws to disclose material information. For a discussion of important risks related to our business, and related to investing in our securities, including risks that could cause actual results and events to differ materially from results and events referred to in the forward-looking information, see Risk Factors and the discussion under the captions Factors That May Influence Future Results of Operations and Liquidity and Capital Resources below. Overview and Background

The Company is a REIT and the sole general partner of the operating partnership, through which substantially all of the Company's operations are conducted and assets are owned. The Company owned a 96.7% general partnership interest in the operating partnership as of June 30, 2010, and a 96.2% interest in the operating partnership as of both December 31, 2009, and June 30, 2009. We own, operate, develop, and acquire primarily Class A suburban office and industrial real estate in key submarkets in California. We own our interests in all of our properties through the operating partnership or the finance partnership or wholly-owned subsidiaries. All our properties are held in fee except for the seven office buildings located at Kilroy Airport Center in Long Beach, California, which are held subject to leases for the land that expire in 2084.

Critical Accounting Policies

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, or GAAP, requires management to make estimates, assumptions, and judgments that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses for the reporting periods.

Certain accounting policies are considered to be critical accounting policies. Critical accounting policies are those policies that require management to make significant estimates and/or assumptions about matters that are uncertain at the time the estimates and/or assumptions are made or where management is required to make significant judgments and assumptions with respect to the practical application of accounting principles in its business operations. Critical accounting policies are by definition those policies that are material to our financial statements and for which the impact of changes in estimates, assumptions, and judgments could have a material impact to our financial statements.

The following critical accounting policies discussion reflects what we believe are the most significant estimates, assumptions, and judgments used in the preparation of our consolidated financial statements. This discussion of our critical accounting policies is intended to supplement the description of our accounting policies in the footnotes to our consolidated financial statements and to provide additional insight into the information used by management when evaluating significant estimates, assumptions, and judgments. For further discussion of our significant accounting policies, see Note 2 to the operating partnership's consolidated annual financial statements included in this prospectus.

Rental Revenue Recognition

Rental revenue is our principal source of revenue. The timing of when we commence rental revenue recognition depends largely on our conclusion as to whether we are or the tenant is the owner for accounting purposes of the tenant improvements at the leased property. When we conclude that we are the owner of tenant improvements for accounting purposes, we record the cost to construct the tenant improvements as an asset, and we commence rental revenue recognition when the tenant takes possession of the finished space, which is typically when such tenant improvements are substantially complete.

The determination of whether we are or the tenant is the owner of the tenant improvements for accounting purposes is subject to significant judgment. In making that determination, we consider numerous factors and perform a detailed evaluation of each individual lease. No one factor is determinative in reaching a conclusion. The factors we evaluate include but are not limited to the following:

whether the lease agreement requires landlord approval of how the tenant improvement allowance is spent prior to installation of the tenant improvements;

whether the lease agreement requires the tenant to provide evidence to the landlord supporting the cost and what the tenant improvement allowance was spent on prior to payment by the landlord for such tenant improvements;

whether the tenant improvements are unique to the tenant or reusable by other tenants;

whether the tenant is permitted to alter or remove the tenant improvements without the consent of the landlord or without compensating the landlord for any lost utility or diminution in fair value; and whether the ownership of the tenant improvements remains with the landlord or remains with the tenant at the end of the lease term.

In addition, we also record the cost of certain tenant improvements paid for or reimbursed by tenants when we conclude that we are the owner of such tenant improvements using the factors discussed above. For these tenant-funded tenant improvements, we record the amount funded or reimbursed by tenants as deferred revenue, which is amortized and recognized as rental revenue over the term of the related lease beginning upon substantial completion of the leased premises. During the years ended December 31, 2009, 2008, and 2007, we recorded $2.0 million, $28.1 million, and $41.1 million, respectively, of tenant-funded tenant improvements. The decreasing trend corresponds to the decrease in our development and redevelopment activities since leases at our development and redevelopment properties generally have higher tenant-funded tenant improvements. For those periods, we also recognized $9.8 million, $11.3 million, and $4.3 million, respectively, of noncash rental revenue related to the amortization of deferred revenue recorded in connection with tenant-funded tenant improvements.

When we conclude that we are not the owner and the tenant is the owner of tenant improvements for accounting purposes, we record our contribution towards those improvements as a lease incentive, which is amortized as a reduction to rental revenue on a straight-line basis over the term of the related lease, and rental revenue recognition begins when the tenant takes possession of or controls the space.

Our judgment as to whether we are or the tenant is the owner of tenant improvements for accounting purposes is made on a lease-by-lease basis and has a significant impact on the amount of noncash rental revenue that we record related to the amortization of deferred revenue for tenant-funded tenant improvements and, therefore, on our results of operations. Our judgment as to whether we are or the tenant is the owner of the tenant improvements for accounting purposes can also have a significant effect on the timing of our overall revenue recognition and therefore on our results of operations.

Tenant Reimbursement Revenue

Reimbursements from tenants consist of amounts due from tenants for common area maintenance, real estate taxes, and other recoverable costs. Calculating tenant reimbursement revenue requires an in-depth analysis of the complex terms of each applicable underlying lease. Examples of judgments and estimates used when determining the amounts recoverable include:

estimating the final expenses, net of accruals, that are recoverable;

estimating the fixed and variable components of operating expenses for each building;

conforming recoverable expense pools to those used in establishing the base year or base allowance for the applicable underlying lease; and concluding whether an expense or capital expenditure is recoverable pursuant to the terms of the underlying lease.

During the year, we accrue estimated tenant reimbursement revenue in the period in which the reimbursable expenses are incurred and thus recoverable from the tenant based on our best estimate of the amounts to be recovered. Throughout the year, we perform analyses to properly match tenant reimbursement revenue with reimbursable costs incurred to date. Additionally, during the fourth quarter of each year, we perform preliminary reconciliations and accrue additional tenant reimbursement revenue or refunds. Subsequent to year end, we perform final detailed reconciliations and analyses on a lease-by-lease basis and bill or refund each tenant for any cumulative annual adjustments in the first and second quarters of each year for the previous year's activity.

Our historical experience for the years ended December 31, 2009, 2008, and 2007 has been that our final reconciliation and billing process resulted in final amounts that approximated the total annual tenant reimbursement revenues recognized.

Allowances for Uncollectible Current Tenant Receivables and Deferred Rent Receivables

Tenant receivables and deferred rent receivables are carried net of the allowances for uncollectible current tenant receivables and deferred rent receivables. Current tenant receivables consist primarily of amounts due for contractual lease payments and reimbursements of common area maintenance expenses, property taxes, and other expenses recoverable from tenants. Deferred rent receivables represent the amount by which the cumulative straight-line rental revenue recorded to date exceeds cash rents billed to date under the lease agreement. As of June 30, 2010, December 31, 2009, and December 31, 2008, current receivables were carried net of an allowance for uncollectible amount of $3.0 million, $3.1 million, and $4.0 million, respectively, and deferred rent receivables were carried net of an allowance for uncollectible accounts of $6.2 million, $6.4 million, and $7.3 million, respectively.

Management's determination of the adequacy of the allowance for uncollectible current tenant receivables and the allowance for deferred rent receivables is performed using a methodology that incorporates a specific identification analysis and an aging analysis and includes an overall evaluation of our historical loss trends and the current economic and business environment. This determination requires significant judgment and estimates about matters that are uncertain at the time the estimates are made, including the creditworthiness of specific tenants, specific industry trends and conditions, and general economic trends and conditions. Since these factors are beyond our control, actual results can differ from our estimates, and such differences could be material.

With respect to the allowance for uncollectible tenant receivables, the specific identification methodology analysis relies on factors such as the age and nature of the receivables, the payment history and financial condition of the tenant, our assessment of the tenant's ability to meet its lease obligations, and the status of negotiations of any disputes with the tenant. With respect to the allowance for deferred rent receivables, given the longer-term nature of these receivables, the specific identification methodology analysis evaluates each of our significant tenants and any tenants on our internal watchlist and relies on factors such as each tenant's financial condition and its ability to meet its lease obligations. We evaluate our reserve levels quarterly based on changes in the financial condition of tenants and our assessment of the tenant's ability to meet its lease obligations, overall economic conditions, and the current business environment.

Table of Contents

For the years ended December 31, 2009, 2008, and 2007, we recorded a total provision for bad debts for both current tenant receivables and deferred rent receivables of approximately 0.2%, 1.4%, and 0.2%, respectively, of recurring rental revenue. Included in the provision amount for 2008 is approximately $3.1 million for the unrecoverable portion of the deferred rent receivable balance related to an early termination at one of our properties in San Diego (see Note 13 to the operating partnership's consolidated annual financial statements included in this prospectus). Excluding the impact of the early termination on the provision for bad debts, for the year ended December 31, 2008, we recorded a provision for bad debts of approximately 0.3% of recurring revenue. Our historical experience has been that actual write-offs of current tenant receivables and deferred rent receivables has approximated the provision for bad debts recorded for the years ended December 31, 2009, 2008, and 2007. In the event our estimates were not accurate and we had to change our allowances by 1% of recurring revenue, the potential impact to our net income available to common unitholders would be approximately $2.8 million, $2.8 million, and $2.6 million for the years ended December 31, 2009, 2008, and 2007, respectively.

Evaluation of Asset Impairment

We evaluate our real estate assets for potential impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of a given asset may not be recoverable. We evaluate our real estate assets for impairment on a property-by-property basis. Indicators we use to determine whether an impairment evaluation is necessary include:

low occupancy levels or forecasted low occupancy levels at a specific property;

current period operating or cash flow losses combined with a historical pattern or future projection of potential continued operating or cash flow losses at a specific property; deterioration in rental rates for a specific property as evidenced by sudden significant rental rate decreases or continuous rental rate decreases over numerous quarters, which could signal a decrease in future cash flow for that property; deterioration of a given rental submarket as evidenced by significant increases in market vacancy and/or negative absorption rates or continuous increases in market vacancy and/or negative absorption rates over numerous quarters, which could signal a decrease in future cash flow for properties within that submarket; significant increases in market capitalization rates, continuous increases in market capitalization rates over several quarters, or recent property sales at a loss within a given submarket, each of which could signal a decrease in the market value of properties; significant change in strategy or use of a specific property or any other event that could result in a decreased holding period or significant development delay; instances of physical damage to the property; and default by a significant tenant when other indicators are present.

When evaluating real estate assets to be held and used for potential impairment, we first evaluate whether there are any indicators of impairment. If any impairment indicators are present for a specific real estate asset, we then perform an undiscounted cash flow analysis and compare the net carrying amount of the real estate asset to the real estate asset's estimated undiscounted future cash flow over the anticipated holding period. If the estimated undiscounted future cash flow is less than the net carrying amount of the real estate asset, we perform an impairment loss calculation to determine if the fair value of the real estate asset is less than the net carrying value of the real estate asset. Our impairment loss calculation compares the net carrying amount of the real estate asset to the real estate asset's estimated fair value, which may be based on estimated discounted future cash flow calculations or third-party valuations or appraisals. We recognize an impairment loss if the amount of the asset's net carrying amount exceeds the asset's estimated fair value. If we recognize an impairment loss, the estimated fair value of the asset becomes its new cost basis. For a depreciable long-lived asset, the new cost basis will be depreciated (amortized) over the remaining useful life of that asset.

Our undiscounted cash flow and fair value calculations contain uncertainties because they require management to make assumptions and to apply judgment to estimate future cash flow and property fair values, including selecting the discount or capitalization rate that reflects the risk inherent in future cash flow. Estimating projected cash flow is highly subjective as it requires assumptions related to future rental rates, tenant allowances, operating expenditures, property taxes, capital improvements, and occupancy levels. We are also required to make a number of assumptions relating to future economic and market events and prospective operating trends. Determining the appropriate capitalization rate also requires significant judgment and is typically based on many factors including the prevailing rate for the market or submarket, as well as the quality and location of the properties. Further, capitalization rates can fluctuate due to a variety of factors in the overall economy or within regional markets. If the actual net cash flow or actual market capitalization rates significantly differ from our estimates, the impairment evaluation for an individual asset could be materially affected.

In recent periods, circumstances occurred that indicated that an analysis for potential impairment of certain of our properties was necessary. As a result, for each property where such an indicator occurred and/or for properties within a given submarket where such an indicator occurred, we completed an impairment evaluation. After completing this process, we determined that for each of the properties evaluated, undiscounted cash flows over the holding period were in excess of carrying value and, therefore, we did not record any impairment losses for the six months ended June 30, 2010 or 2009 or the years ended December 31, 2009, 2008, and 2007.

Cost Capitalization and Depreciation

We capitalize costs associated with development and redevelopment activities, capital improvements, tenant improvements, and leasing activities. Amounts capitalized are depreciated or amortized over estimated useful lives determined by management. We depreciate buildings and improvements based on the estimated useful life of the asset, and we amortize tenant improvements and leasing costs over the shorter of the estimated useful life or estimated remaining life of the related lease. All capitalized costs are depreciated or amortized using the straight-line method.

Determining whether expenditures meet the criteria for capitalization and the assignment of depreciable lives requires management to exercise significant judgment. Expenditures that meet one or more of the following criteria generally qualify for capitalization:

provide benefit in future periods;

extend the useful life of the asset beyond our original estimates; and increase the quality of the asset beyond our original estimates.

Our historical experience has demonstrated that we have not had material write-offs of assets and that our depreciation and amortization estimates have been reasonable and appropriate.

Factors That May Influence Future Results of Operations

Acquisitions. As a key component of our growth strategy, we continually evaluate selected property acquisition opportunities. We consider potential acquisitions on an ongoing basis and may have one or more potential acquisitions under consideration at any point in time, which may be at varying stages of the negotiation and due diligence review process. We generally finance our acquisitions through debt and equity offerings and borrowings on our line of credit. As of the date of this prospectus, we have completed five acquisitions for seven buildings in 2010 (see Note 2 to the operating partnership's consolidated financial statements for the period ended June 30, 2010 included elsewhere in this prospectus). Costs associated with acquisitions are expensed as incurred and we may be unable to complete an acquisition after making a nonrefundable deposit or incurring acquisition-related costs.

Real Estate Asset Valuation. General economic conditions and the resulting impact on market conditions such as the downturn in tenants businesses, declining demand for office or industrial properties, or decreases in market rental rates or market values of real estate assets may adversely affect the value of our assets, including the value of our properties and related tenant improvements and the value of our undeveloped land. Although our strategy is to hold our properties and our undeveloped land for long-term use, if our strategy and/or market conditions change or we decide to dispose of an asset, we may be required to recognize an impairment loss to reduce the property or undeveloped land to the lower of the carrying amount or fair value, and such a loss could potentially be material and could adversely affect our results of operations. Likewise, if as a result of an early lease termination we were required to remove and write off material amounts of tenant improvements that were not reusable to another tenant, our results of operations could be adversely affected.

Leasing Activity and Rental Rates. The amount of net rental income generated by our properties depends principally on our ability to maintain the occupancy rates of currently leased space and to lease currently available space, newly developed or redeveloped properties, and space available from unscheduled lease terminations. The amount of rental income we generate also depends on our ability to maintain or increase rental rates in our submarkets. Negative trends in one or more of these factors could adversely affect our rental income in future periods. The following tables set forth certain information regarding leases that commenced during the year ended December 31, 2009 and the six months ended June 30, 2010.

The increase in rental rates for office leases that commenced during the year ended December 31, 2009 was largely due to two lease renewals totaling approximately 268,600 rentable square feet. The increase in rental rates for industrial leases that commenced during the year ended December 31, 2009 was largely due to two lease renewals totaling approximately 298,800 rentable square feet.

The changes in rents and changes in cash rents reported above exclude leases of 291,012 rentable square feet for the six months ended June 30, 2010 for which the space was vacant longer than one year or the Company is leasing the space for the first time. The Company excludes space vacant for more than one year in its change in rents calculations in order to provide a meaningful market comparison.

In general, we have been experiencing decreases in rental rates in many of our submarkets due to continuing recessionary conditions and other related factors. During the second quarter of 2010, we executed 33 leases for an aggregate of 0.3 million rentable square feet. The weighted average change in rents as compared to the expiring rents for the same space for these new leases was a 24.8% decrease in cash rents and a 22.0% decrease in GAAP rents, excluding leases for which the space was vacant longer than one year. As of June 30, 2010, we believe that the weighted average cash rental rates for our overall portfolio, including recently acquired properties, are approximately 10% above the current average market rental rates, although individual properties within any particular submarket presently may be leased either above, below, or at the current market rates within that submarket, and the average rental rates for individual submarkets may be above, below, or at the average cash rental rate of our portfolio. As previously discussed, our rental rates and occupancy are impacted by general economic conditions, including the pace of regional economic growth and access to capital. Therefore, given the impact of the current economy on our submarkets, we cannot give any assurance that leases will be renewed or that available space will be re-leased at rental rates equal to or above the current market rates. Additionally, decreased demand and other negative trends or unforeseeable events that impair our ability to timely renew or re-lease space could have further negative effects on our future financial condition, results of operations, and cash flows.

Scheduled Lease Expirations. In addition to the 2.1 million rentable square feet, or 14.9%, of vacant space in our stabilized portfolio at June 30, 2010, leases representing approximately 7.1% and 9.0% of the occupied square footage of our stabilized portfolio are scheduled to expire during the remainder of 2010 and in 2011, respectively. The leases scheduled to expire during the remainder of 2010 and in 2011 represent approximately 1.4 million rentable square feet of office space, or 11.4% of our total annualized base rental revenue, and 0.5 million rentable square feet of industrial space, or 1.5% of our total annualized base rental revenue. As of June 30, 2010, we believe that the weighted average cash rental rates for leases scheduled to expire during the remainder of 2010 are up to 5% above the current average market rental rates and leases scheduled to expire during 2011 are approximately 15% above current average market rental rates, although individual properties within any particular submarket presently may be leased either above, below, or at the current market rates within that submarket, and the average rental rates for individual submarkets may be above, below, or at the average cash rental rate of our portfolio. Our ability to re-lease available space depends upon the market conditions in the specific regions in which our properties are located and general market conditions.

Sublease Activity. Of our leased space as of June 30, 2010, approximately 309,800 rentable square feet, or 2.3% of the square footage in our stabilized portfolio, was available for sublease compared to 297,100 rentable square feet, or 2.4% of the square footage in our stabilized portfolio, as of December 31, 2009. Of the 2.3% of available sublease space in our stabilized portfolio as of June 30, 2010, approximately 1.8% was vacant space, and the remaining 0.5% was occupied. Approximately 59.7%, 22.6%, and 3.9% of the available sublease space as of June 30, 2010 is located in the San Diego, Los Angeles, and Orange County regions, respectively. Of the approximately 309,800 rentable square feet available for sublease as of June 30, 2010, approximately 18,000 rentable square feet representing two leases are scheduled to expire in 2010, and approximately 45,300 rentable square feet representing two leases are scheduled to expire in 2011.

Development and Redevelopment Programs. We believe that a portion of our future potential growth will continue to come from our development pipeline and redevelopment opportunities within our existing portfolio and/or targeted acquisitions. However, while we continue to evaluate development opportunities throughout California and specifically in our core markets, we have currently delayed the timing and reduced the scope of our development program as a result of the present economic conditions in our submarkets. As of June 30, 2010, we had no development or redevelopment projects under, or committed for, construction. We are focusing on enhancing the entitlements for our existing development land pipeline, identifying redevelopment opportunities within our existing portfolio, and performing other activities to prepare for the time when development will again be economically attractive. Over the next two years we are planning to redevelop certain properties, which have been occupied by long-term tenants and require significant capital expenditures to upgrade and modernize the buildings (see additional information under the caption "Current Regional Information").

Incentive Compensation. The Executive Compensation Committee, referred to as the Compensation Committee, of our board of directors determines compensation, including equity and cash incentive programs, for our executive officers. The programs approved by the Compensation Committee have historically provided for equity and cash compensation to be earned by our executive officers based on certain performance measures, including financial, operating, and development targets.

In the first quarter of 2010, the Compensation Committee approved the 2010 Annual Bonus Program for executive management that will allow executive management to receive bonus compensation for achieving certain specified corporate performance measures for the year ending December 31, 2010. See additional information on the provisions of the 2010 Annual Bonus Program under the caption "Executive Compensation" below. As a result of the structure of this program and other performance-based and market-based programs that the Compensation Committee may adopt in the future, accrued incentive compensation and compensation expense for such programs will be affected by our operating and development performance, financial results, the performance of the trading price of the Company's common stock, and market conditions. Consequently, we cannot predict the amounts that will be recorded in future periods related to these compensation programs.

Share-Based Compensation. As of June 30, 2010, there was $8.1 million of total unrecognized compensation cost related to outstanding nonvested shares and nonvested restricted stock units issued under share-based compensation arrangements. That cost is expected to be recognized over a weighted-average period of 1.4 years. The $8.1 million of unrecognized compensation cost does not reflect the potential future compensation cost for the 2010 Annual Bonus Program or the leasing component of the 2007 Development Performance Plan, or DPP, since share-based awards have not been granted under these programs as of June 30, 2010. See Note 7 to the operating partnership's consolidated financial statements for the period ended June 30, 2010 included elsewhere in this prospectus.

As of June 30, 2010, we were still in the performance period for the leasing component of the DPP. The incentive award that may be earned under the leasing component of the DPP is based on whether certain future leasing targets are achieved by the fourth quarter of 2010 for development and redevelopment properties on which we commenced construction during 2007. If the performance measures are not ultimately achieved, we would reverse the cumulative compensation expense recorded to date for this program, which was $1.0 million as of June 30, 2010.

As of December 31, 2009, the office properties and industrial properties represented approximately 88.6% and 11.4%, respectively, of our total annualized base rental revenue.

Current Regional Information

Real estate fundamentals continue to be challenging in many of our regional submarkets. We have generally seen an increase in vacancy rates across many of our regional submarkets, a decrease in occupancy, as well as a downward trend in rental rates. Generally, we believe that there may continue to be pressure on landlords for concession packages throughout 2010. See additional information regarding rental rates under the captions Leasing Activity and Rental Rates and Scheduled Lease Expirations.

Los Angeles and Ventura Counties. Our Los Angeles and Ventura Counties stabilized office portfolio of 3.4 million rentable square feet was 93.0% occupied with approximately 236,100 vacant rentable square feet as of June 30, 2010 compared to 88.8% occupied with approximately 376,400 vacant rentable square feet as of December 31, 2009. The increase in Los Angeles and Ventura Counties stabilized office portfolio occupancy is primarily due to two leases encompassing approximately 146,100 rentable square feet that commenced in the second quarter of 2010.

As of June 30, 2010, an aggregate of approximately 561,200 and 476,000 rentable square feet are scheduled to expire in this region during the remainder of 2010 and 2011, respectively. The aggregate rentable square feet scheduled to expire in this region during the remainder of 2010 and 2011 represents approximately 32.0% of the total occupied rentable square feet in this region and 7.9% of our annualized base rental revenues for our total stabilized portfolio. Of the 1,037,200 rentable square feet scheduled to expire during the remainder of 2010 and 2011, approximately 399,300 rentable square feet is located in the El Segundo submarket. Based on third party broker reports, total vacancy in the El Segundo Class A office market is forecasted to increase over the next six months from its current level of 13.2% to slightly above 20% due to approximately 800,000 rentable square feet of lease expirations that are expected to vacate in this submarket. Of the approximately 399,300 rentable square feet scheduled to expire in the El Segundo submarket, approximately 286,200 rentable square feet was occupied by The Boeing Company through July 31, 2010. As of the date of this prospectus, the Boeing Company has vacated our building and consolidated into space it currently owns. Since The Boeing Company and its predecessors occupied the building for more than 25 years, we will be redeveloping this property to upgrade and modernize the asset and to ensure it is well-positioned as the El Segundo tenant base is currently diversifying from an aerospace industry concentration.

San Diego. Our San Diego stabilized office portfolio of 5.4 million rentable square feet was 81.5% occupied with approximately 991,700 vacant rentable square feet as of June 30, 2010 compared to 76.8% occupied with approximately 1.2 million vacant rentable square feet as of December 31, 2009. The increase in San Diego stabilized office portfolio occupancy is primarily due to six leases comprising approximately 241,800 rentable square feet that have commenced during the first and second quarters of 2010. In addition, we have leased approximately 257,400 rentable square feet in this region that was vacant at June 30, 2010. The new leases are scheduled to commence at various dates during the remainder of 2010. During the six months ended June 30, 2010, we acquired four San Diego office buildings encompassing approximately 279,400 rentable square feet. These four buildings were 78.0% occupied as of June 30, 2010 (see Note 2 to the operating partnership's consolidated financial statements for the period ended June 30, 2010 included elsewhere in this prospectus).

As of June 30, 2010, leases representing an aggregate of approximately 138,300 and 145,600 rentable square feet are scheduled to expire during the remainder of 2010 and 2011, respectively, in this region. The aggregate rentable square feet scheduled to expire in this region during the remainder of 2010 and 2011 represents approximately 6.5% of the total occupied rentable square feet in this region and 2.8% of our annualized base rental revenues for our total stabilized portfolio.

Orange County. As of June 30, 2010, our Orange County stabilized industrial portfolio was 82.4% occupied with approximately 609,800 vacant rentable square feet compared to 87.6% occupied with approximately 429,900 vacant rentable square feet as of December 31, 2009. The decrease in Orange County stabilized industrial portfolio occupancy is primarily attributable to two leases encompassing approximately 74,300 and 58,300 rentable square feet that expired during the first and second quarters, respectively, of 2010. Approximately 264,900 rentable square feet of the 609,800 rentable square feet that was vacant as of June 30, 2010 has been re-leased to new tenants. The new leases are expected to commence during the remainder of 2010.

Our Orange County stabilized office portfolio of approximately 647,400 rentable square feet was 78.2% occupied with approximately 141,500 vacant rentable square feet as of June 30, 2010 compared to 49.8% occupied with approximately 139,100 vacant rentable square feet as of December 31, 2009. During the quarter ended June 30, 2010, we acquired two Orange County office buildings encompassing approximately 370,100 rentable square feet. These two buildings were 97.0% occupied as of June 30, 2010 (see Note 2 to the operating partnership's consolidated financial statements for the period ended June 30, 2010 included elsewhere in this prospectus).

As of June 30, 2010, leases representing an aggregate of approximately 107,000 and 401,000 rentable square feet are scheduled to expire during the remainder of 2010 and 2011, respectively, in this region. The aggregate rentable square feet scheduled to expire during the remainder of 2010 and 2011 represents approximately 15.2% of the total occupied rentable square feet in this region and 1.8% of the annualized base rental revenues for our total stabilized portfolio. Of the 508,000 rentable square feet scheduled to expire during the remainder of 2010 and 2011, approximately 473,100 rentable square feet is industrial space. Within the overall Orange County market, total vacancy for industrial space is currently 6.0%. Over the last year, the Orange County industrial market has experienced a significant decrease in rental rates. As of June 30, 2010, we believe that the weighted average cash rental rates for our Orange County industrial portfolio are approximately 15% above the current average market rental rates, although individual properties may be leased either above, below, or at the current average market rental rates.

San Francisco. During the quarter ended June 30, 2010, we acquired one office building in San Francisco encompassing approximately 732,000 rentable square feet. The building was 89.7% occupied as of June 30, 2010 (see Note 2 to the operating partnership's consolidated financial statements for the period ended June 30, 2010 included elsewhere in this prospectus). As of June 30, 2010, leases representing an aggregate of approximately 12,600 and 22,600 rentable square feet are scheduled to expire during the remainder of 2010 and 2011, respectively, in this region. The aggregate rentable square feet scheduled to expire in this region during the remainder of 2010 and 2011 represents approximately 5.4% of the total occupied rentable square feet in this region and less than 0.5% of our annualized base rental revenues for our total stabilized portfolio. Total vacancy in the San Francisco South Financial District Class A office market is currently 21.9%.

Management internally evaluates the operating performance and financial results of our portfolio based on Net Operating Income for the following segments of commercial real estate property: office properties and industrial properties. We define Net Operating Income as operating revenues (rental income, tenant reimbursements, and other property income) less operating expenses (property expenses, real estate taxes, provision for bad debts, and ground leases). The Net Operating Income segment information presented within this Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations consists of the same Net Operating Income segment information disclosed in Note 11 to the operating partnership's consolidated financial statements for the period ended June 30, 2010 and Note 14 to the operating partnership's consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2009 included elsewhere in this prospectus.

(1) Office properties owned and stabilized as of January 1, 2009 and still owned and stabilized as of June 30, 2010.

Rental Income

Rental income from office properties increased $1.4 million, or 1.3%, for the six months ended June 30, 2010 compared to the six months ended June 30, 2009 due to:

An increase of $3.3 million attributable to the seven office buildings we acquired in 2010; and

An offsetting decrease of $1.9 million generated by office properties owned and stabilized as of January 1, 2009 and still owned and stabilized as of June 30, 2010, which we refer to as our Core Office Portfolio, primarily attributable to a 1.6% decrease in average occupancy from 84.7% for the six months ended June 30, 2009 to 83.1% for the six months ended June 30, 2010.

Tenant Reimbursements

Tenant reimbursements from office properties decreased $2.5 million, or 19.5%, for the six months ended June 30, 2010 compared to the six months ended June 30, 2009 primarily due to:

Edgar Filing: KILROY REALTY CORP - Form 424B3

A decrease of $2.6 million generated by the Core Office Portfolio primarily due to:

A decrease in the average occupancy, as discussed above under the caption Rental Income ; and

A decrease due to the renewal of several leases which resulted in the reset of the base year expense level for these leases.

Other Property Income

Other property income from office properties decreased $0.8 million, or 46.8%, for the six months ended June 30, 2010 compared to the six months ended June 30, 2009 primarily due to a $1.3 million net lease termination fee related to a settlement with a former tenant during the six months ended June 30, 2009.

Property Expenses

Property expenses from office properties increased $1.3 million, or 5.4%, for the six months ended June 30, 2010 compared to the six months ended June 30, 2009 primarily due to:

An increase of $0.8 million generated by the seven office buildings we acquired in 2010; and

Table of Contents

An increase of $0.4 million generated by the Core Office Portfolio due to:

An increase of $0.9 million primarily attributable to nonreimbursable legal fees and consulting costs; and

An offsetting decrease of $0.6 million primarily related to nonrecurring repairs in 2009.

Ground Leases

Ground lease expense from office properties decreased $0.5 million, or 62.4%, for the six months ended June 30, 2010 compared to the six months ended June 30, 2009 primarily due to a ground rent expense adjustment for our Kilroy Airport Center, Long Beach Project. During the first quarter of 2010, we were successful in negotiating a lower rental rate under the terms of the ground lease retroactive to January 1, 2006.

Net Operating Income

Net Operating Income from office properties decreased $3.0 million, or 3.3%, for the six months ended June 30, 2010 compared to the six months ended June 30, 2009 primarily due to:

A decrease of $5.0 million attributable to the Core Office Portfolio primarily due to:

A decrease of $4.5 million due to a decrease in rental income and tenant reimbursements primarily attributable to a decrease in average occupancy period over period; and

An offsetting increase of $2.2 million attributable to the seven office buildings we acquired in 2010.

Rental Income

Rental income from industrial properties decreased $1.4 million, or 9.8%, for the six months ended June 30, 2010 compared to the six months ended June 30, 2009 primarily due to a decrease in average occupancy for the industrial properties owned and stabilized as of January 1, 2009 and still owned and stabilized as of June 30, 2010, which we refer to as our Core Industrial Portfolio. Average occupancy for the Core Industrial Portfolio decreased 7.3%, from 92.4% for the six months ended June 30, 2009, to 85.1% for the six months ended June 30, 2010.

Table of Contents

Tenant Reimbursements

Tenant reimbursements from industrial properties decreased $0.3 million, or 15.6%, for the six months ended June 30, 2010 compared to the six months ended June 30, 2009 due to a decrease in the Core Industrial Portfolio's average occupancy, as discussed above under the caption Rental Income.

Other Property Income

Other property income from industrial properties decreased $0.7 million, or 62.5%, for the six months ended June 30, 2010 compared to the six months ended June 30, 2009 due to:

A decrease of $0.7 million attributable to the Core Industrial Portfolio primarily due to:

A decrease related to a $1.1 million restoration fee included in the results for 2009 from a tenant that vacated one of our industrial properties in Orange County; and

An offsetting increase related to the recognition of $0.2 million of a $1.0 million surrender fee during the second quarter of 2010 that is being amortized over the remaining term of a lease with one tenant that will be vacating one of our industrial properties in Orange County during the fourth quarter of 2010.

Property Expenses

Property expenses from industrial properties increased $0.4 million, or 22.7%, for the six months ended June 30, 2010 compared to the six months ended June 30, 2009 primarily due to an increase in nonreimbursable legal fees mainly due to tenant defaults that occurred during 2009.

Net Operating Income

Net Operating Income from industrial properties decreased $2.6 million, or 18.5%, for the six months ended June 30, 2010 compared to the six months ended June 30, 2009 primarily due to:

A decrease of $2.5 million attributable to the Core Industrial Portfolio primarily due to:

A $1.1 million restoration fee included in the results for the first quarter of 2009 from a tenant that vacated one of our industrial properties in Orange County; and

A decrease in average occupancy year over year.

Other Income and Expenses

Acquisition-Related Expenses

During the six months ended June 30, 2010, we incurred acquisition costs in connection with acquisitions completed in 2010 and other potential acquisitions. See additional information under the caption Factors That May Influence Future Results of Operations Acquisitions. In accordance with accounting provisions, all acquisition costs related to operating properties are expensed as incurred. We anticipate that we could incur additional third-party acquisition costs throughout 2010 as we pursue other potential acquisition opportunities.

Table of ContentsInterest Expense

The following table sets forth our gross interest expense, including debt discounts and loan cost amortization, net of capitalized interest for the six months ended June 30, 2010 and 2009:

	2010	2009	Dollar Change	Percentage Change
	($ in thousands)
Gross interest expense	$ 30,437	$ 28,451	$ 1,986	7.0%
Capitalized interest	(5,393)	(4,336)	(1,057)	24.4%
Interest expense	$ 25,044	$ 24,115	$ 929	3.9%

Gross interest expense, before the effect of capitalized interest, increased $2.0 million, or 7.0%, for the six months ended June 30, 2010 compared to the six months ended June 30, 2009 primarily due to an increase in our weighted-average effective interest rate from approximately 5.0% during the six months ended June 30, 2009 to approximately 6.1% during the six months ended June 30, 2010, offset by a decrease in our average debt balance during the six months ended June 30, 2010 compared to the six months ended June 30, 2009.

Capitalized interest increased $1.1 million, or 24.4%, for the six months ended June 30, 2010 compared to the six months ended June 30, 2009 primarily due to an increase in our weighted-average effective interest rate, which caused a corresponding increase in the capitalization rate applied to our development and redevelopment asset balances qualifying for interest capitalization. Delays and scope reductions in our development program impact the average development and redevelopment asset balances qualifying for interest and other carry cost capitalization. As of June 30, 2010, our development pipeline included 116.7 gross acres of land with an aggregate cost basis of approximately $261.0 million. During both the six months ended June 30, 2010 and 2009, we did not capitalize interest on five of our seven development pipeline properties with an aggregate cost basis of approximately $82 million as of June 30, 2010, as we determined these projects did not qualify for interest capitalization under GAAP. We have suspended substantially all development activities related to these projects as a result of economic conditions in our submarkets. We expect that average development asset balances qualifying for interest capitalization may decrease over the next year as a result of a decrease in the level of our development activities.

Interest Income and Other Net Investment Gains

Total interest income and other net investment gains decreased $0.2 million, or 36.1%, for the six months ended June 30, 2010 compared to the six months ended June 30, 2009 primarily due to a decrease in the fair value of the marketable securities held in connection with the Kilroy Realty Corporation 2007 Deferred Compensation Plan, or the Deferred Compensation Plan.

Loss on Early Extinguishment of Debt

Loss on early extinguishment of debt was approximately $4.6 million during the six months ended June 30, 2010 and represents the net loss from the repurchase of 3.25% Exchangeable Notes with an aggregate stated principal amount of $150.0 million.

Rental income from industrial properties decreased $1.0 million, or 3.6%, for the year ended December 31, 2009 compared to the year ended December 31, 2008 primarily due to a decrease in average occupancy for the industrial properties owned and stabilized at January 1, 2008 and still owned and stabilized as of December 31, 2009, which we refer to as our 2009 Core Industrial Portfolio. Average occupancy for the 2009 Core Industrial Portfolio decreased 6.7% from 96.5% for the year ended December 31, 2008 to 89.8% for the year ended December 31, 2009.

Tenant Reimbursements

Tenant reimbursements from industrial properties decreased $0.4 million, or 8.9%, for the year ended December 31, 2009 compared to the year ended December 31, 2008 due to the 2009 Core Industrial Portfolio primarily due to a decrease in average occupancy as discussed above under the caption Rental Income.

Other Property Income

Other property income from industrial properties increased $0.5 million, or 49.2%, for the year ended December 31, 2009 compared to the year ended December 31, 2008 primarily due to a $0.7 million net restoration fee received during the first quarter of 2009 from a tenant that vacated one of our industrial properties in Orange County. Other property income for both periods consisted primarily of lease termination fees and other miscellaneous income within the 2009 Core Industrial Portfolio.

Property Expenses

Property expenses from industrial properties increased $0.3 million, or 9.2%, for the year ended December 31, 2009 compared to the year ended December 31, 2008. The results for the year ended December 31, 2008 included a $0.6 million credit recorded in June 2008 for insurance proceeds received in connection with a casualty loss at one property, which is in the process of being reentitled for residential use and which we refer to as the Industrial Reentitlement Property. Excluding the insurance proceeds credit, property expenses from industrial properties decreased approximately $0.3 million for the year ended December 31, 2009 compared to December 31, 2008.

Real Estate Taxes

Real estate taxes from industrial properties increased $0.3 million, or 8.8%, for the year ended December 31, 2009 compared to the year ended December 31, 2008 primarily due to one building that was moved from our stabilized portfolio to the redevelopment portfolio.

Provision for Bad Debts

The provision for bad debts from industrial properties increased $0.3 million, or 181.7%, for the year ended December 31, 2009 compared to the year ended December 31, 2008 due to changes in our estimates of collectability of receivables from certain watchlist tenants.

Net Operating Income

Net Operating Income from industrial properties decreased $1.8 million, or 6.8%, for the year ended December 31, 2009 compared to the year ended December 31, 2008 due to:

A decrease of $1.3 million attributable to the 2009 Core Industrial Portfolio primarily due to a decrease in average occupancy year over year; and

A decrease of $0.5 million attributable to our Industrial Reentitlement Property and one building that was moved from our stabilized portfolio to the redevelopment portfolio.

Table of ContentsOther Income and ExpensesGeneral and Administrative Expense

General and administrative expenses increased $1.7 million, or 4.4%, for the year ended December 31, 2009 compared to the year ended December 31, 2008 primarily due to a $7.0 million charge for separation payments (see Note 13 to the operating partnership's consolidated annual financial statements included in this prospectus for additional information), partially offset by a decrease in incentive compensation expense year over year and severance costs paid in 2008.

Interest Expense

	2009	2008	Dollar Change	Percentage Change
	($ in thousands)
Gross interest expense	$ 55,802	$ 63,478	$ (7,676)	(12.1)%
Capitalized interest	(9,683)	(18,132)	8,449	(46.6)%
Interest expense	$ 46,119	$ 45,346	$ 773	1.7%

Gross interest expense, before the effect of capitalized interest, decreased $7.7 million, or 12.1%, for the year ended December 31, 2009 compared to the year ended December 31, 2008 primarily due to a decrease in our average debt balance during the year ended December 31, 2009 compared to the year ended December 31, 2008 and, to a lesser extent, a decrease in our weighted-average effective interest rate from approximately 5.4% during the year ended December 31, 2008 to approximately 5.2% during the year ended December 31, 2009.

Capitalized interest decreased $8.4 million, or 46.6%, for the year ended December 31, 2009 compared to the year ended December 31, 2008 primarily due to a decrease in our average development and redevelopment asset balances qualifying for interest capitalization during the year ended December 31, 2009 compared to the year ended December 31, 2008 and, to a lesser extent, a decrease in our weighted-average effective interest rate which caused a corresponding decrease in the capitalization rate applied to our development and redevelopment asset balances qualifying for interest capitalization. During the year ended December 31, 2009, we did not capitalize interest for certain development properties because we suspended substantially all development activities related to these projects as a result of economic conditions in our submarkets.

Depreciation and Amortization Expense

Depreciation and amortization expense increased $4.4 million, or 5.3%, for the year ended December 31, 2009 compared to the year ended December 31, 2008 primarily due to the 2008 Office Development Properties and the Office Redevelopment Properties.

Interest Income and Other Investment Gains (Losses)

Total interest income and other investment gains (losses) increased approximately $1.4 million, or 1,497.8%, for the year ended December 31, 2009 compared to the year ended December 31, 2008 primarily due to an increase in the fair value of the marketable securities held in connection with the Deferred Compensation Plan during the year ended December 31, 2009.

Gain on Early Extinguishment of Debt

Gain on early extinguishment of debt was approximately $4.9 million for the year ended December 31, 2009 and represents the net gain from the repurchase of the 3.25% Exchangeable Notes with an aggregate stated principal amount of $162.0 million (see Note 4 to the operating partnership's consolidated annual financial statements included in this prospectus for additional information).

Table of Contents

Rental Income

Rental income from office properties increased $20.6 million, or 10.2%, for the year ended December 31, 2008 compared to the year ended December 31, 2007 due to:

An increase of $18.4 million generated by the five office development properties that were added to the stabilized portfolio in the third quarter of 2007, which we refer to as our 2007 Office Development Properties, and our 2008 Office Development Properties;

An increase of $1.8 million generated by the Office Redevelopment Properties; and

An increase of $0.4 million generated by the office properties owned and stabilized at January 1, 2007 and still owned and stabilized as of December 31, 2009, which we refer to as our 2008 Core Office Portfolio, which was primarily due to:

An increase of $2.7 million of noncash revenue primarily attributable to the acceleration of the amortization of the deferred revenue balance during the year ended December 31, 2008 related to tenant-funded tenant improvements associated with an early lease termination at one of our properties in San Diego (see Note 13 to the operating partnership's consolidated annual financial statements included in this prospectus for additional information); and

An offsetting net decrease of $2.1 million attributable to the following changes in occupancy:

A decrease of $4.0 million in rental income from our San Diego office portfolio primarily due to a decrease in average occupancy of 4.3% in the San Diego office portfolio to 89.0% for the year ended December 31, 2008 from 93.3% for the year ended December 31, 2007. The decrease in average occupancy is primarily attributable to six vacant buildings representing approximately 475,400 rentable square feet;

A decrease of $0.8 million in rental income from our Orange County office portfolio primarily due to a decrease in average occupancy of 21.2% in the Orange County office portfolio to 77.5% for the year ended December 31, 2008 from 98.7% for the year ended December 31, 2007. The decrease in average occupancy is primarily attributable to one vacant building representing approximately 60,900 rentable square feet; and Rental income from industrial properties increased $1.8 million, or 6.6%, for the year ended December 31, 2008 compared to the year ended December 31, 2007. This increase was primarily attributable to an increase in rental rates in connection with new leases at two of our Orange County industrial properties and an increase in occupancy. Average occupancy in the Industrial Portfolio increased 0.7% to 93.0% for the year ended December 31, 2008 compared to 92.3% for the year ended December 31, 2007.

Tenant Reimbursements

Tenant reimbursements from industrial properties increased $0.6 million, or 17.9%, for the year ended December 31, 2008 compared to the year ended December 31, 2007. The increase in tenant reimbursements was primarily attributable to three leases where our operating expense agreements were either new or restructured at two of our Orange County industrial properties and a slight increase in reimbursable operating expenses.

Other Property Income

Other property income from industrial properties increased $0.9 million, or 1,186.1%, for the year ended December 31, 2008 compared to the year ended December 31, 2007 due to an increase in lease termination fees and other miscellaneous income within the industrial portfolio.

Property Expenses

Property expenses from industrial properties increased by $0.8 million, or 31.6%, for the year ended December 31, 2008 compared to the year ended December 31, 2007 due to:

An increase of $1.0 million generated by the industrial properties owned and stabilized at January 1, 2007 and still owned and stabilized as of December 31, 2009, which we refer to as our 2008 Core Industrial Portfolio, primarily due to:

A one-time credit of $0.7 million during the year ended December 31, 2007 relating to a gain recognized for insurance proceeds received in excess of expenses incurred for one of our industrial properties that sustained damage due to a fire sprinkler rupture; and

An increase of $0.2 million in repairs and maintenance, other service-related costs, and legal fees primarily related to tenant defaults; and

An increase of $0.5 million generated by one industrial building that was moved from our stabilized portfolio to the redevelopment portfolio; and

Table of Contents

An offsetting decrease of $0.7 million attributable to the Industrial Reentitlement Property primarily due to a one-time credit in 2008 for insurance proceeds received in connection with a theft, which was previously recognized as a reduction of property expenses when the loss occurred.

Provision for Bad Debts

The provision for bad debts from industrial properties decreased by $0.1 million, or 45.1%, for the year ended December 31, 2008 compared to the year ended December 31, 2007 primarily due to changes in our estimates of the collectability of receivables from certain watchlist tenants.

Net Operating Income

Net Operating Income from industrial properties increased $2.3 million, or 9.5%, for the year ended December 31, 2008 compared to the year ended December 31, 2007 primarily due to an increase in occupancy in the 2008 Core Industrial Portfolio as discussed above.

*Other Income and ExpensesGeneral and Administrative Expense

General and administrative expenses increased $1.7 million, or 4.6%, for the year ended December 31, 2008 compared to the year ended December 31, 2007 primarily due to an increase in compensation-related expenses, including approximately $1.0 million of severance costs for the year ended December 31, 2008.

Interest Expense

	2008	2007	Dollar Change	Percentage Change
	($ in thousands)
Gross interest expense	$ 63,478	$ 60,278	$ 3,200	5.3%
Capitalized interest	(18,132)	(19,516)	1,384	(7.1)%
Interest expense	$ 45,346	$ 40,762	$ 4,584	11.2%

Gross interest expense, before the effect of capitalized interest, increased $3.2 million, or 5.3%, for the year ended December 31, 2008 compared to the year ended December 31, 2007 primarily due to an increase in our average debt balance due to our development activities during the period, offset by a decrease in our weighted-average interest rate from approximately 6.0% for the year ended December 31, 2007 to approximately 5.4% for the year ended December 31, 2008.

Capitalized interest decreased $1.4 million, or 7.1%, for the year ended December 31, 2008 compared to the year ended December 31, 2007 due to a decrease in our weighted average interest rate, which caused a corresponding decrease in the capitalization rate applied to our development and redevelopment asset balances qualifying for interest capitalization. In addition, our average development and redevelopment asset balances qualifying for interest capitalization decreased since, in the third and fourth quarters of 2008, we determined that certain development properties did not continue to qualify for interest capitalization under GAAP.

Depreciation and Amortization Expense

Edgar Filing: KILROY REALTY CORP - Form 424B3

An increase of $6.3 million from the 2007 Office Development Properties and the 2008 Office Development Properties;

Table of Contents

An increase of $2.8 million from the 2008 Core Office Portfolio and 2008 Core Industrial Portfolio, which was due primarily to changes in the estimated useful lives for certain unamortized leasing commissions; and

An increase of $0.8 million from the Office Redevelopment Properties.

Interest Income and Other Investment Gains (Losses)

Total interest income and other investment gains (losses) decreased approximately $1.7 million, or 105.8%, for the year ended December 31, 2008 compared to the year ended December 31, 2007 primarily due to:

A decrease of $1.0 million in the fair value of the marketable securities held in connection with our Deferred Compensation Plan during the year ended December 31, 2008; and

A decrease of $0.5 million due to lower average cash balances and lower interest rates ended December 31, 2008 compared to the year ended December 31, 2007.

Proceeds from additional secured or unsecured debt financings;

Proceeds from public or private issuance of debt or equity securities; and

Proceeds from the disposition of nonstrategic assets.

Liquidity Uses

Property or developed land acquisitions;

Operating and corporate expenses;

Capital expenditures, tenant improvement and leasing costs;

Development and redevelopment costs;

Debt service and principal payments, including debt maturities;

Distributions to common and preferred unitholders; and Purchasing outstanding debt.

General Strategy

Our general strategy is to maintain a conservative balance sheet with a top credit profile and to maintain a capital structure that allows for financial flexibility and diversification of capital resources. We manage our capital structure to reflect a long-term investment approach and utilize multiple sources of capital to meet our long-term capital requirements. We believe that our current projected liquidity requirements for 2010, as noted above under the caption "Liquidity Uses," will be satisfied using potentially all liquidity sources listed above. We believe our conservative leverage provides us with financial flexibility and enhances our ability to obtain additional sources of liquidity if necessary, and, therefore, we are well positioned to refinance or repay maturing debt and to pursue attractive acquisition opportunities, which we may finance, as necessary, with future public and private issuances of debt and equity securities.

2010 Financing Activities

During the first six months of 2010, we completed a variety of capital raising activities which significantly extended our debt maturities and enabled us to fund five property acquisitions. This financing and acquisition activity increased our consolidated total assets by approximately 20% as compared to December 31, 2009, without increasing our total debt as a percentage of total market capitalization. The following activities occurred during the period:

In August 2010, we entered into a $500 million unsecured revolving credit facility (the New Credit Facility) with a term of three years plus a one year extension option. We used borrowings under the New Credit Facility to repay, and then terminate, our $550 million unsecured line of credit (the Credit Facility).

A portion of our unsecured senior notes, with a principal balance of $61.0 million matured in August 2010. We used borrowings under our Credit Facility to repay the remaining principal amounts of the maturing loan.

In June 2010, we completed a tender offer for the repurchase of $150.0 million in aggregate stated principal value of our 3.25% Exchangeable Notes for approximately $151.1 million in cash, including transaction costs.

In June 2010, we assumed secured debt with a principal balance of $52.0 million in conjunction with the acquisition of Mission City Corporate Center in San Diego, CA.

In May 2010, we issued $250.0 million in aggregate principal amount of private notes due 2020.

In April 2010, we completed an underwritten public offering of 9,200,000 shares of its common stock. The net offering proceeds, after deducting underwriting discounts and commissions and offering expenses, were approximately $299.8 million and were contributed to us in exchange for common units, as required by our partnership agreement.

In April 2010, we were assigned initial investment grade credit ratings by two major rating agencies, which management believes enhances our access to the capital markets by allowing us to raise long-term unsecured debt financing in the bond market.

In April 2010, we extended the maturity date of the Credit Facility from April 2010 to April 2011 for a one-time extension fee equal to 0.15% of the total $550 million borrowing capacity of the Credit Facility.

In March 2010, we used borrowings under the Credit Facility to pay off a secured line of credit with an outstanding principal balance of $33.5 million that was scheduled to mature in April 2010.

In January 2010, we used the proceeds from the issuance of a new $71.0 million mortgage loan to pay off an outstanding mortgage loan with a principal balance of $63.2 million that was scheduled to mature in April 2010. The new mortgage loan is secured by five properties, bears interest at an annual rate of 6.51%, requires monthly interest and principal payments based on a 30-year amortization period, and is scheduled to mature on February 1, 2017.

2009 Financing Activities

In April 2009, we extended the term of one of our fixed-rate mortgage notes payable that was scheduled to mature in April 2009 by one year. In connection with the extension, we repaid $10.0 million of the $74.8 million principal balance outstanding at March 31, 2009.

In the second quarter of 2009, our board of directors decreased our quarterly cash distribution to $0.35 per common unit. This represented an approximately 40% reduction from our quarterly cash distribution of $0.58 per common unit for unitholders of record for the prior quarter and is equivalent to an annual rate of $1.40 per unit.

In June 2009, we completed an underwritten public offering of 10,062,500 shares of its common stock. The net offering proceeds, after deducting underwriting discounts and commissions and offering expenses, were approximately $191.7 million and were contributed to us in exchange for common units, as required by our partnership agreement.

In November 2009, we issued $172.5 million in aggregate stated principal amount of 4.25% Exchangeable Notes.

During the second half of 2009, we repurchased 3.25% Exchangeable Notes with an aggregate stated principal amount of $162.0 million for approximately $150.4 million in cash.

See Notes to the operating partnership's consolidated financial statements for year ended December 31, 2009 and for the period ended June 30, 2010 included elsewhere in this prospectus.

Credit Facilities

The following table summarizes the balance and significant terms of the Credit Facility as of June 30, 2010 and December 31, 2009.

	June 30, 2010	December 31, 2009
	(in thousands)
Outstanding borrowings	$ 150,000	$ 97,000

- (1) In April 2010, we exercised an option to extend the maturity date of the Credit Facility from by one year.
- (2) At June 30, 2010, the Credit Facility bore interest at an annual rate plus 0.80%. At December 31, 2009, the Credit Facility bore interest at an annual rate of LIBOR plus 0.85% to 1.35% depending upon the Company's leverage ratio.
- (3) At June 30, 2010, the fee for unused funds was at an annual rate of 0.20%. At December 31, 2009, the fee for unused funds was an annual rate of 0.15% to 0.20% depending on our remaining borrowing capacity.

In August 2010, we entered into the New Credit Facility and we used borrowings to repay, and then terminate, the Credit Facility. The New Credit Facility is a $500 million unsecured revolving facility and includes a $200 million accordion option and has a term of three years plus a one year extension option. The New Credit Facility bears interest at an annual rate of LIBOR plus 2.675%. We expect to borrow amounts under the New Credit Facility from time to time for general corporate purposes, to fund potential acquisitions, to finance development and redevelopment expenditures, and potentially to repay long-term debt.

	$ 317,470	$ 320,500	$ 394,000	$ 150,000	$ 1,181,970

- (1) In August 2010, we entered into the New Credit Facility and we used borrowings to repay, and then terminate, the Credit Facility. See additional information under the caption Credit Facilities above.
- (2) Includes the $52.0 million gross aggregate principal amount of the loan due in April 2012 before the effect of the unamortized discount of approximately $0.9 million as of June 30, 2010.
- (3) Represents gross aggregate principal amount before the effect of the unamortized discount of approximately $5.5 million as of June 30, 2010.
- (4) Represents gross aggregate principal amount before the effect of the unamortized discount of approximately $18.4 million as of June 30, 2010.
- (5) Represents gross aggregate principal amount before the effect of the unamortized discount of approximately $2.1 million as of June 30, 2010.

A portion of our unsecured senior notes, with a principal balance of $61.0 million matured in August 2010. We used borrowings under the Credit Facility to repay the remaining principal amounts of the maturing loan. In addition, in April 2010, we were assigned investment grade debt ratings, which enhance our ability to raise long-term unsecured debt to refinance near-term debt maturities.

Factors That May Influence Future Sources of Capital and Liquidity

We continue to evaluate sources of financing for our business activities, including borrowings under the New Credit Facility, fixed-rate secured mortgage financing, common stock offerings of the Company, and public and private unsecured debt. However, our ability to obtain new financing or refinance existing borrowings on favorable terms could be impacted by various factors including the continuing recessionary conditions, significant tenant defaults, a further decline in the demand for office or industrial properties, a decrease in market rental rates or market values of real estate assets in our submarkets, and the amount of future borrowings. These events could result in the following:

further decreases in our cash flows from operations, which could create further dependence on our New Credit Facility an increase in the proportion of variable-rate debt, which could increase our sensitivity to interest rate fluctuations in the future; and a decrease in the value of our properties, which could have an adverse effect on our ability to incur additional debt or refinance existing debt at competitive rates.

In addition to the factors noted above, our initial credit ratings are subject to ongoing evaluation by credit rating agencies and may be changed or withdrawn by a rating agency in the future if, in its judgment, circumstances warrant. In the event that our credit ratings are downgraded, we may incur higher borrowing costs and may experience difficulty in obtaining additional financing or refinancing.

Table of ContentsDebt Covenants

As of June 30, 2010, our Credit Facility, unsecured senior notes, and certain other secured debt arrangements contained covenants and restrictions requiring us to meet certain financial ratios and reporting requirements. Our New Credit Facility also contains covenants and restrictions requiring us to meet certain financial ratios and reporting requirements. As of June 30, 2010, key financial covenants and their covenant levels included:

Credit Facility (as defined per Credit Agreement):	Covenant Level	Actual Performance at June 30, 2010
Total debt to total asset value ⁽¹⁾	< 60%	39%
Fixed charge coverage ratio	> 1.5X	2.7X
Minimum consolidated tangible net worth	> $700 million + 75% of all Net Offering Proceeds ⁽²⁾	$1.9 billion
Dividend coverage ratio	< 95% of FFO	66% of FFO
Unsecured debt ratio ⁽¹⁾⁽³⁾	> 1.67X	2.89X
Unencumbered asset pool debt service coverage ⁽⁴⁾	³ 2.0X	6.2X
Unsecured Senior Notes due 2020 (as defined per Indenture):
Total debt/total asset value	< 60%	38%
Interest coverage	> 1.5X	3.9X
Secured debt/total asset value	< 40%	10%
Unencumbered asset pool value to unsecured debt	³ 150%	298%

- (1) In the event of an acquisition of one or more properties for $150 million or more, the total debt to total asset value may exceed 60% for up to two consecutive quarters, but in no event exceed 65%, and the unsecured debt ratio may be less than 1.67x for up to two consecutive quarters but, in no event be less than 1.54x.
- (2) This covenant level was calculated at $1.2 billion as of June 30, 2010.
- (3) The unsecured debt ratio is calculated by dividing the total unsecured asset pool value by the amount of unsecured senior debt.
- (4) The unencumbered asset pool debt service coverage is calculated by dividing the unencumbered asset pool net operating cash flows by the unsecured debt service.

We were in compliance with all our debt covenants as of June 30, 2010. Our current expectation is that we will continue to meet the requirements of our debt covenants in both the short and long term. However, in the event of a continued economic slow down and a crisis in the credit markets, there is no certainty that we will be able to continue to satisfy all the covenant requirements.

Liquidity UsesContractual Obligations

The following table provides information with respect to our contractual obligations as of June 30, 2010. The financing activities completed during the six months ended June 30, 2010, including the issuance of $250 million of unsecured senior notes and the repurchase of $150 million of aggregate principal value of our 3.25% Exchangeable Notes, significantly extended our debt maturities as compared to December 31, 2009. The table: (i) indicates the maturities and scheduled principal repayments of our secured debt, Exchangeable Notes, unsecured senior notes, and Credit Facility; (ii) indicates the scheduled interest payments of our fixed-rate and variable-rate debt as of June 30, 2010; and (iii) provides information about the minimum commitments due in connection with our ground lease obligations and other lease and contractual commitments as of June 30, 2010.

- (2) Represents gross aggregate principal amount before the effect of the unamortized discount of approximately $23.9 million as of June 30, 2010.
- (3) Represents unsecured senior notes before the effect of a $2.1 million unamortized discount as of June 30, 2010.
- (4) In April 2010, we exercised an option to extend the maturity date of the Credit Facility by one year. In August 2010, we entered into the New Credit Facility as noted above under the caption 2010 Financing Activities.
- (5) As of June 30, 2010, 87.3% of our debt was contractually fixed. The information in the table above reflects our projected interest rate obligations for these fixed-rate payments based on the contractual interest rates, interest payment dates, and scheduled maturity dates.
- (6) As of June 30, 2010, 12.7% of our debt bore interest at variable rates. The variable interest rate payments are based on LIBOR plus a spread of 0.80% as of June 30, 2010. The information in the table above reflects our projected interest rate obligations for these variable-rate payments based on outstanding principal balances as of June 30, 2010, the scheduled interest payment dates, and the contractual maturity dates.
- (7) We have noncancelable ground lease obligations for the Kilroy Airport Center in Long Beach, California with a lease period for Phases I, II, and III expiring in July 2084.
- (8) Amounts represent commitments under signed leases and contracts for operating properties, excluding tenant-funded tenant improvements.
- (9) Represents a separation payment that was paid in July 2010.

Potential Future Capital Requirements

Given the current economic conditions, the amounts we are required to spend on tenant improvements and leasing costs are expected to continue to increase in the near future from historical levels for us to be able to execute leases at current market terms, as evidenced in the table below. The amounts we ultimately incur for tenant improvements and leasing costs will depend on actual leasing activity. Tenant improvements and leasing costs generally fluctuate in any given period depending on factors such as the type of property, the term of the lease, the type of the lease, the involvement of external leasing agents, and overall market conditions. Capital expenditures may fluctuate in any given period subject to the nature, extent, and timing of improvements required to maintain our properties.

(1) Includes only tenants with lease terms of 12 months or longer. Excludes leases for month-to-month and first generation expenditures. First generation expenditures are those expenditures that ultimately result in additional revenue generated when the space is re-leased.

We currently project we could spend up to $25 million in capital improvements, tenant improvements, and leasing costs for properties within our stabilized portfolio in 2010, depending on leasing activity, in addition to the $34 million of commitments discussed under capital commitments.

As of June 30, 2010, we did not have any development or redevelopment projects under construction and have not committed to start construction on any development projects in 2010. Over the next two years, we are planning to redevelop certain properties that have been occupied by long-term tenants and require significant capital expenditures to upgrade and modernize the buildings. We currently project we could spend up to $10 million in 2010 on redevelopment activities. We are also focusing on enhancing the entitlements for our existing development land pipeline and the one property we are in the process of reentitling for residential use. We currently estimate we could spend approximately $4 million related to the entitlement processes and other development activities in 2010. Depending upon market conditions, we may have additional spending for our future development pipeline during 2010 and beyond.

We continually evaluate the size, timing, costs, and scope of our development and redevelopment programs and, as necessary, scale activity to reflect the market conditions and the real estate fundamentals that exist in our strategic submarkets. See additional information under the caption

Table of ContentsDistribution Requirements

The Company is required to distribute 90% of its REIT taxable income (excluding capital gains) on an annual basis to maintain its qualification as a REIT for federal income tax purposes. For distributions with respect to taxable years ending on or before December 31, 2011, IRS guidance allows REITs to satisfy up to 90% of this requirement through the distribution of shares of their common stock, if certain conditions are met. We intend to continue to make, but have not committed ourselves to make, regular quarterly cash distributions to common stockholders and common unitholders from cash flow from operating activities. All such distributions are at the discretion of our board of directors. We may be required to use borrowings under the New Credit Facility, if necessary, to meet REIT distribution requirements and maintain the Company's REIT status. We have historically distributed amounts in excess of our taxable income resulting in a return of capital to our unitholders and stockholders of the Company and currently believe we have the ability to maintain our distributions to meet the Company's REIT requirements for 2010. We consider market factors and our performance in addition to REIT requirements in determining our distribution levels. Amounts accumulated for distribution to unitholders are invested primarily in interest-bearing accounts and short-term interest-bearing securities, which is consistent with our intention to maintain the Company's qualification as a REIT. Such investments may include, for example, obligations of the Government National Mortgage Association, other governmental agency securities, certificates of deposit, and interest-bearing bank deposits. On July 16, 2010, we paid a regular quarterly cash distribution of $0.350 per common unit to unitholders of record on June 30, 2010. This distribution is equivalent to an annual rate of $1.40 per unit and we believe that for the foreseeable future we have the ability to maintain our distribution at this level or as otherwise required to meet the Company's REIT requirements.

In addition, we are required to make quarterly distributions to our Series A, Series E and Series F Preferred unitholders, which in aggregate total approximately $15 million of annualized preferred distributions.

Other Potential Liquidity Uses

We continue to position ourselves to take advantage of attractive acquisition opportunities to expand our property portfolio and, under the right conditions, may act on such opportunities. See additional information under the caption "Factors That May Influence Future Results of Operations - Acquisitions."

We have the ability to repurchase our Exchangeable Notes, and the Company has the ability to repurchase shares of its preferred stock, in open market transactions. In addition, an aggregate of 988,025 shares of the Company's common stock currently remains eligible for repurchase under a share-repurchase program approved by our board of directors. The Company did not repurchase shares of common stock under this program during the year ended December 31, 2009 or the six months ended June 30, 2010. Our Company may seek to repurchase our Exchangeable Notes or shares of the Company's common stock or preferred stock in the future depending upon prevailing market conditions and our liquidity and financial position.

Our historical cash flow activity for the six months ended June 30, 2010 as compared to the six months ended June 30, 2009 and for the year ended December 31, 2009 as compared to the year ended December 31, 2008 is as follows:

Operating Activities

Our cash flows from operations depend on the occupancy level of our portfolio, the rental rates achieved on our leases, the collectability of rent and recoveries from our tenants and the level of operating expenses, and other general and administrative costs. Our cash flows from operations in the future will be impacted by these factors as well as the operating results of any acquired properties. While our portfolio of stabilized operating properties has historically generated positive cash flows, in recent periods we have been experiencing a decrease in Net Operating Income primarily due to a decline in occupancy in our Core Office Portfolio.

Comparison of the Six Months Ended June 30, 2010 to the Six Months Ended June 30, 2009

Our net cash provided by operating activities decreased by $3.5 million, or 5.8%, for the six months ended June 30, 2010 compared to the six months ended June 30, 2009 primarily due to:

A decline in cash from Net Operating Income in the six months ended 2010 as compared to the six months ended 2009 (see additional information under the caption Rental Operations) ;

An increase in expenditures of approximately $1.3 million for acquisition-related costs for the six months ended June 30, 2010 compared to the six months ended June 30, 2009; and

A partially offsetting decrease of approximately $3.0 million in cash paid during the first quarter of 2010 compared to 2009 for incentive compensation related to prior year performance.

In the event that the current market conditions persist or worsen in our submarkets, our occupancy rates or rental rates may decline, which could result in a further decrease in net cash flows from our operating properties.

Our net cash provided by operating activities decreased by $19.5 million, or 13.5%, for the year ended December 31, 2009 compared to the year ended December 31, 2008 primarily attributable to decreases in average occupancy and cash received for lease termination fees. In addition, we received less cash for tenant-funded tenant improvements during the period due to a decrease in our development activity.

Investing Activities

Our net cash used in investing activities is generally used to fund recurring and nonrecurring capital expenditures for our operating properties, property acquisitions, and development and redevelopment projects.

Comparison of the Six Months Ended June 30, 2010 to the Six Months Ended June 30, 2009

Our net cash used in investing activities increased $391.1 million for the six months ended June 30, 2010 compared to the six months ended June 30, 2009. This net increase was primarily comprised of the following:

Approximately $373.6 million in cash paid to acquire five operating properties during 2010 (see Note 2 to the operating partnership's consolidated financial statements for the period ended June 30, 2010 included elsewhere in this prospectus); and

An increase of $15.9 million in expenditures for our operating properties in 2010 primarily for tenant improvement projects and leasing commissions related to increased leasing activity at the end of 2009.

Our net cash used in investing activities decreased $43.4 million, or 46.2%, for the year ended December 31, 2009 compared to the year ended December 31, 2008. This net decrease was primarily comprised of the following:

A decrease of $51.1 million in development expenditures. Given the current economic environment and market conditions, we currently expect that our development spending will continue to be lower in 2010 as compared to our historical development spending levels. See additional information under the caption Development and Redevelopment Programs;

Table of Contents

An increase of $4.9 million in net proceeds from the disposition of operating properties related to the sale of 12400 Industry Street in 2009; and

An offsetting increase of $10.6 million in capital expenditures for operating properties primarily due to capital expenditure projects at our office properties (see additional information under the caption "Potential Future Capital Requirements").

Financing Activities

Our net cash for financing activities is generally impacted by our debt and equity capital raising activities net of distributions paid to common and preferred unitholders.

Comparison of the Six Months Ended June 30, 2010 to the Six Months Ended June 30, 2009

Net cash provided by financing activities fluctuated by $409.8 million for the six months ended June 30, 2010 compared to the six months ended June 30, 2009. The net change in financing activities was primarily due to the following:

An increase in capital raising activities, including the issuance of secured debt, unsecured debt, and 9.2 million shares of the Company's common stock, primarily to fund property acquisitions (see Notes 2, 5, and 6 to the operating partnership's consolidated financial statements for the period ended June 30, 2010 included elsewhere in this prospectus);

An offsetting decrease related to the repurchase of $150.0 million in aggregate stated principal of 3.25% Exchangeable Notes (see Note 5 to the operating partnership's consolidated financial statements for the period ended June 30, 2010 included elsewhere in this prospectus); and

An offsetting decrease related to the 40% decrease in our cash dividend rate enacted by our board of directors in the second quarter of 2009. This resulted in a $9.0 million decrease in our dividends and distributions paid to common unitholders during the six months ended June 30, 2010 as compared to the six months ended June 30, 2009.

Net cash used in financing activities increased by $21.3 million, or 40.4%, for the year ended December 31, 2009 compared to the year ended December 31, 2008. This overall net change in financing activities was primarily due to a decrease in development expenditures, which required us to borrow less from our Credit Facility during 2009. See additional information under the caption "Liquidity and Capital Resources 2009 Financing Activities."

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

As of December 31, 2009 and as of the date this prospectus was filed, we did not have any off-balance sheet transactions, arrangements, or obligations, including contingent obligations.

Inflation

Since the majority of our leases require tenants to pay most operating expenses, including real estate taxes, utilities, insurance, and increases in common area maintenance expenses, we do not believe our exposure to increases in costs and operating expenses resulting from inflation is material.

New Accounting Pronouncements

There are currently no recently issued accounting pronouncements that are expected to have a material effect on our financial condition and results of operations in future periods.

QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

The primary market risk we face is interest rate risk. We mitigate this risk by following established risk management policies and procedures. These policies include maintaining prudent amounts of debt, including a greater amount of fixed-rate debt as compared to variable-rate debt in our portfolio, and may include the periodic use of derivative instruments. As of June 30, 2010 and December 31, 2009, we did not have any interest rate-sensitive derivative assets or liabilities.

Information about our changes in interest rate risk exposures from December 31, 2009 to June 30, 2010 is incorporated herein by reference from Liquidity and Capital Resources.

Market Risk

As of June 30, 2010, approximately 12.7% of our total outstanding debt of $1.2 billion was subject to variable interest rates. The remaining 87.3% bore interest at fixed rates. All of our interest rate sensitive financial instruments are held for purposes other than trading purposes.

In general, interest rate fluctuations applied to our variable-rate debt will impact our future earnings and cash flows. Conversely, interest rate fluctuations applied to our fixed-rate debt will generally not impact our future earnings and cash flows, unless such instruments mature or are otherwise terminated and need to be refinanced. However, interest rate fluctuations will impact the fair value of the fixed-rate debt instruments.

With the exception of the Exchangeable Notes, we generally determine the fair value of our fixed-rate debt by performing discounted cash flow analyses using an appropriate market rate. We calculate the market rate by obtaining period-end treasury rates for maturities that correspond to the maturities of our fixed-rate debt and then adding an appropriate credit spread based on information obtained from third-party financial institutions. These credit spreads take into account factors, including but not limited to, our credit standing, the maturity of the debt, whether the debt is secured or unsecured, and the loan-to-value ratio of the debt. We determine the fair value of the liability component of our Exchangeable Notes by performing discounted cash flow analysis using an appropriate market interest rate for similar nonconvertible conventional debt instruments. See Note 8 to the operating partnership's consolidated financial statements for the period ended June 30, 2010 included elsewhere in this prospectus.

As of June 30, 2010, the total outstanding balance of our variable-rate debt included borrowings on our Credit Facility of $150 million and was indexed to LIBOR plus a spread of 0.80% (weighted average interest rate was 1.17%). As of December 31, 2009, the total outstanding balance of our variable-rate debt included borrowings of $97 million on our Credit Facility, which was indexed to LIBOR plus a spread of 0.85%, and borrowings of $33.5 million on our secured line of credit, which was indexed to LIBOR plus a spread of 0.75% (weighted average interest rate was 1.1%). Assuming no changes in the outstanding balance of our existing variable-rate debt as of June 30, 2010, a 100 basis point increase in the LIBOR rate would increase our projected annual interest expense, before the effect of capitalization, by approximately $1.5 million. Comparatively, if interest rates were 100 basis points higher as of December 31, 2009, our projected annual interest expense, before the effect of capitalization, would have been $1.3 million higher.

The total carrying value of our fixed-rate debt, including our Exchangeable Notes, was approximately $1.0 billion and $841.5 million as of June 30, 2010 and December 31, 2009, respectively. The total estimated fair value of our fixed-rate debt was approximately $1.0 billion and $842.1 million as of June 30, 2010 and December 31, 2009, respectively. For sensitivity purposes, a 100 basis point increase in the discount rate equates to a decrease in the total fair value of our fixed-rate debt of approximately $38.2 million, or 3.7%, as of June 30, 2010. Comparatively, a 100 basis point increase in the discount rate equates to a decrease in the total fair value of our fixed-rate debt of approximately $20.2 million, or 2.4%, as of December 31, 2009.

The above sensitivity analyses do not consider interrelationships between different market movements, which could result in additional changes in the fair value of our debt and Exchangeable Notes beyond the amounts calculated.

BUSINESS AND PROPERTIES

Business

General

We own, operate, develop, and acquire primarily Class A suburban office and industrial real estate in key submarkets in California, which we believe have strategic advantages and strong barriers to entry. Class A real estate encompasses attractive and efficient buildings of high quality that are attractive to tenants, are well-designed and constructed with above-average material, workmanship and finishes and are well-maintained and managed. All but one of our properties are located in Southern California. Kilroy Realty, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership, is the entity through which Kilroy Realty Corporation, a Maryland corporation, conducts its business and owns its assets. Kilroy Realty Corporation operates as a real estate investment trust, or REIT, for federal income tax purposes.

As of June 30, 2010, our stabilized portfolio of operating properties was comprised of 100 office buildings and 41 industrial buildings, which encompassed an aggregate of approximately 10.1 million and 3.7 million rentable square feet, respectively. As of June 30, 2010, the office properties were approximately 85.7% leased to 354 tenants, and the industrial properties were approximately 83.3% leased to 56 tenants. Our stabilized portfolio excludes undeveloped land and one industrial property that we are in the process of reentitling for residential use.

The Company owns its interests in all of its properties through Kilroy Realty, L.P., the finance partnership or wholly-owned subsidiaries. As of June 30, 2010, the Company owned an approximate 96.7% common general partnership interest in the operating partnership. The remaining approximate 3.3% common limited partnership interests were owned by non-affiliated investors and certain directors and officers of the Company. Kilroy Realty Finance, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, is the sole general partner of the finance partnership and owns a 1.0% general partnership interest. The operating partnership owns the remaining 99.0% limited partnership interest of the Finance Partnership. We conduct substantially all of our development activities through Kilroy Services, LLC, or KSLLC, a wholly-owned subsidiary.

Business and Growth Strategies

Growth Strategies. We believe that a number of factors and strategies will enable us to continue to achieve our objectives of long-term sustainable growth in Net Operating Income (defined below) and FFO (defined below) as well as maximization of long-term stockholder value. These factors and strategies include:

the quality and location of our properties;

our ability to efficiently manage our assets as a low cost provider of commercial real estate through our seasoned management team possessing core capabilities in all aspects of real estate ownership, including property management, leasing, marketing, financing, accounting, legal, construction management, and new development;

the development of our existing development pipeline land holdings;

our access to development, redevelopment, and leasing opportunities as a result of our extensive experience and significant working relationships with major Southern California corporate tenants, municipalities, and landowners given our over 60-year presence in the Southern California market; and our strong financial position that will allow us to pursue attractive acquisition opportunities.

Net Operating Income is defined as operating revenues (rental income, tenant reimbursements, and other property income) less property and related expenses (property expenses, real estate taxes, provision for bad debts, and ground leases) before depreciation. FFO is funds from operations as defined by the National Association of Real Estate Investment Trusts (NAREIT). See Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations Results of Operations included in this prospectus for a reconciliation of Net Operating Income to GAAP net income available to the operating partnership's common unitholders, and Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial

Condition and Results of Operations in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2009 and Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2010, incorporated by reference in this prospectus, for a reconciliation of Net Operating Income and FFO to GAAP net income available to the Company's common stockholders.

Operating Strategies. We focus on enhancing long-term growth in Net Operating Income and FFO from our properties by:

maximizing cash flow from our properties through active leasing, early renewals, and effective property management;

structuring leases to maximize returns and internal growth;

Table of Contents

managing portfolio credit risk through effective underwriting, including the use of credit enhancements and interests in collateral to mitigate portfolio credit risk;

managing operating expenses through the efficient use of internal management, leasing, marketing, financing, accounting, legal, and construction management functions;

maintaining and developing long-term relationships with a diverse tenant base; managing our properties to offer the maximum degree of utility and operational efficiency to tenants;

continuing to effectively manage capital improvements to enhance our properties' competitive advantages in their respective markets and improve the efficiency of building systems; and attracting and retaining motivated employees by providing financial and other incentives to meet our operating and financial goals.

Acquisition Strategies. We believe we are well positioned to acquire properties when strategic opportunities exist because of the combination of our extensive experience, strong financial position, and our Company's ability to access capital. We seek to acquire additional high quality office and industrial properties that:

provide attractive initial yields and significant potential for growth in cash flow from property operations; present growth opportunities in our existing or other strategic markets; and demonstrate the potential for improved performance through intensive management and leasing that will result in increased occupancy and rental revenues.

Development Strategies. We and our predecessors have developed office and industrial properties primarily located in Southern California since 1947. As of June 30, 2010, our development pipeline included 116.7 gross acres of undeveloped land, with which we believe we will have the potential to develop over two million rentable square feet of office space in the future, depending upon economic conditions. Our strategy with respect to development is to:

maintain a disciplined approach by emphasizing pre-leasing, commencing development in stages, or phasing, and cost control; continue to execute our build-to-suit philosophy in which we develop properties to be leased by specific committed tenants providing for lower-risk development;

be the premier provider of two- to six-story campus style office buildings in Southern California;

reinvest capital from dispositions of nonstrategic assets into new state-of-the-market development assets with higher cash flow and rates of return; and evaluate redevelopment opportunities in supply-constrained markets since such efforts generally achieve similar returns to new development with reduced entitlement risk and shorter construction periods.

Redevelopment opportunities are those projects in which we spend significant development and construction costs on existing buildings pursuant to a formal plan, the result of which is a higher economic return on the property. We may engage in the additional development or redevelopment of office and/or industrial properties, primarily in Southern California, when market conditions support a favorable risk-adjusted return on such development or redevelopment. We expect that our significant working relationships with tenants, municipalities, and landowners in Southern California will give us further access to development opportunities. We cannot assure you that we will be able to successfully develop or redevelop any of our properties or that we will have access to additional development or redevelopment opportunities.

Table of Contents

Financing Strategies. Our financing policies and objectives are determined by our board of directors. Our goal is to limit our dependence on leverage and maintain a conservative ratio of debt-to-total market capitalization. As of June 30, 2010, our total debt as a percentage of total market capitalization was 39.6%, and our total debt and liquidation value of our preferred equity as a percentage of total market capitalization was 46.3%, both of which were calculated based on the closing price per share of the Company's common stock of $29.73 on June 30, 2010. Our funding strategies are to:

maintain financial flexibility, including a low secured to unsecured debt ratio, to maximize our ability to access a variety of capital sources; maintain a staggered debt maturity schedule in which the maturity dates of our debt are spread out over several years, to limit risk exposure at any particular point in the capital and credit market cycles;

complete financing in advance of the need for capital; and manage interest rate exposure by generally maintaining a greater amount of fixed-rate debt as compared to variable-rate debt. We utilize multiple sources of capital, including borrowings under the Credit Facility proceeds from the issuance of debt or equity securities and other bank and/or institutional borrowings, and dispositions of nonstrategic assets. There can be no assurance that we will be able to obtain capital as needed on terms favorable to us or at all. See Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations Liquidity and Capital Resources and Risk Factors

Significant Tenants

As of the date of this prospectus, our fifteen largest tenants in terms of annualized base rental revenues represented approximately 40% of total annualized base rental revenues, defined as annualized monthly contractual rents from existing tenants as of June 30, 2010 determined on a straight-line basis over the term of the related lease in accordance with GAAP. Of this amount, our largest tenant, Intuit Inc., leased an aggregate of approximately 536,800 rentable square feet of office space under two separate leases, representing 5.5% of our total annualized base rental revenues as of June 30, 2010.

For further information on the composition of our tenant base, see Properties Significant Tenants.

Competition

We compete with several developers, owners, and operators of office, industrial, and other commercial real estate, many of which own properties similar to ours in the same submarkets in which our properties are located. For further discussion of the potential impact of competitive conditions on our business, see Risk Factors.

Segment and Geographic Financial Information

For financial information about our two reportable segments, office properties and industrial properties, see Note 14 to the operating partnership's consolidated annual financial statements and Note 11 to the operating partnership's consolidated financial statements for the period ended June 30, 2010.

All of our business is conducted in California. Government Regulations Relating to the Environment

Many laws and governmental regulations relating to the environment are applicable to our properties, and changes in these laws and regulations, or their interpretation by agencies and the courts, occur frequently and may adversely affect us.

Existing conditions at some of our properties. Independent environmental consultants have conducted Phase I or similar environmental site assessments on all of our properties. We generally obtain these assessments prior to the acquisition of a property and may later update them as required for subsequent financing of the property or as requested by a tenant. Site assessments are generally performed to American Society for Testing and Materials standards then-existing for Phase I site assessments and typically include a historical review, a public records review, a visual inspection of the surveyed site, and the issuance of a written report. These assessments do not generally include any soil samplings or subsurface investigations. Depending on the age of the property, the Phase I may have included an assessment of asbestos-containing materials. For properties where asbestos-containing materials were identified or suspected, an operations and maintenance plan was generally prepared and implemented.

Historical operations at or near some of our properties, including the presence of underground storage tanks, may have caused soil or groundwater contamination. The prior owners of the affected properties conducted remediation of known contamination in the soils on our properties, and we do not believe that further clean-up of the soils is required. We are not aware of any such condition, liability, or concern by any other means that would give rise to material environmental liability. However, the assessments may have failed to reveal all environmental conditions, liabilities, or compliance concerns; there may be material environmental conditions, liabilities, or compliance concerns that arose at a property after the review was completed; future laws, ordinances, or regulations may impose material additional environmental liability; and current environmental conditions at our properties may be affected in the future by tenants, third parties, or the condition of land or operations near our properties, such as the presence of underground storage tanks. We cannot be certain that costs of future environmental compliance will not have an adverse effect on our financial condition, results of operations, cash flow, the quoted trading price of our securities, and our ability to satisfy our debt service obligations and to pay distributions to stockholders and unitholders.

Use of hazardous materials by some of our tenants. Some of our tenants handle hazardous substances and wastes on our properties as part of their routine operations. Environmental laws and regulations may subject these tenants, and potentially us, to liability resulting from such activities. We generally require our tenants in their leases to comply with these environmental laws and regulations and to indemnify us for any related liabilities. As of June 30, 2010, approximately 5% of our tenants handled hazardous substances and/or wastes on less than 5% of the aggregate square footage of our properties as part of their routine operations. These tenants are primarily involved in the life sciences and the light industrial and warehouse business. The hazardous substances and wastes are primarily comprised of diesel fuel for emergency generators and small quantities of lab and light manufacturing chemicals including, but not limited to, alcohol, ammonia, carbon dioxide, cryogenic gases, dichlorophenol, methane, naturalyte acid, nitrogen, nitrous oxide, and oxygen which are routinely used by life science and light manufacturing companies. We are not aware of any material noncompliance, liability, or claim relating to hazardous or toxic substances or petroleum products in connection with any of our properties, and management does not believe that on-going activities by our tenants will have a material adverse effect on our operations.

Costs related to government regulation and private litigation over environmental matters. Under applicable environmental laws and regulations, we may be liable for the costs of removal, remediation, or disposal of certain hazardous or toxic substances present or released on our properties. These laws could impose liability without regard to whether we are responsible for, or even knew of, the presence or release of the hazardous materials. Government investigations and remediation actions may have substantial costs, and the presence or release of hazardous substances on a property could result in governmental clean-up actions, personal injury actions, or similar claims by private plaintiffs.

Potential environmental liabilities may exceed our environmental insurance coverage limits. We carry what our management believes to be sufficient environmental insurance to cover any potential liability for soil and groundwater contamination and the presence of asbestos-containing materials at the affected sites identified in the environmental site assessments. The policy is subject to various terms, conditions, qualifications, and limitations of coverage. Therefore, we cannot provide any assurance that our insurance coverage will be sufficient or that our liability, if any, will not have a material adverse effect on our financial condition, results of operations, cash flows, quoted trading price of our securities, and our ability to satisfy our debt service obligations and to pay distributions to stockholders and unitholders.

PropertiesGeneral

As of June 30, 2010, our stabilized portfolio of operating properties was comprised of 100 office properties and 41 industrial properties, which encompassed an aggregate of approximately 10.1 million and 3.7 million rentable square feet, respectively. As of June 30, 2010, the office properties were approximately 85.7% leased to 354 tenants, and the industrial properties were approximately 83.3% leased to 56 tenants. Our stabilized portfolio excludes undeveloped land and one industrial property that we are in the process of reentitling for residential use.

All but one of our properties are located in Southern California. We own all of our properties directly or through the Finance Partnership or wholly-owned subsidiaries. All our properties are held in fee except for the seven office buildings located at Kilroy Airport Center in Long Beach, California, which are all held subject to leases for the land that expire in 2084.

In general, the office properties are leased to tenants on a full service gross or modified gross basis, and the industrial properties are leased to tenants on a triple net basis. Under a full service lease, the landlord is obligated to pay the tenant's proportionate share of real estate taxes, insurance, and operating expenses up to the amount incurred during the tenant's first year of occupancy (Base Year) or a negotiated amount approximating the tenant's pro rata share of real estate taxes, insurance, and operating expenses (Expense Stop). The tenant pays its pro rata share of increases in expenses above the Base Year or Expense Stop. A modified gross lease is similar to a full service gross lease, except tenants are obligated to pay their proportionate share of certain operating expenses, usually electricity, directly to the service provider. Under a triple net lease and a modified net lease, tenants pay their proportionate share of real estate taxes, operating costs, and utility costs.

We believe that all of our properties are well-maintained and do not require significant capital improvements. As of June 30, 2010, we managed all of our properties through internal property managers.

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

This section reflects information with respect to the directors and executive officers of Kilroy Realty Corporation. Because Kilroy Realty, L.P. is managed by Kilroy Realty Corporation, and Kilroy Realty Corporation conducts substantially all of its operations through Kilroy Realty, L.P., Kilroy Realty, L.P. refers to Kilroy Realty Corporation's executive officers and other management personnel as its executive officers and management, and although as a partnership Kilroy Realty, L.P. does not have a board of directors, it refers to Kilroy Realty Corporation's board of directors as its board of directors.

Compensation Discussion and Analysis

This Compensation Discussion and Analysis section discusses the compensation practices for our Named Executive Officers, or NEOs. Our NEOs consist of the President and Chief Executive Officer, the Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer, the Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer (which comprise our three mostly highly paid executive officers) and the next two most highly paid executive officers. We refer to the (i) President and Chief Executive Officer, Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer and Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer collectively as the Executive Management Team, (ii) two next most highly paid executive officers as the Senior Managers, and (iii) Executive Management Team and Senior Managers, together with the other executive officers, as the executive officers.

On December 16, 2009, Mr. Moran resigned as the Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer and Mr. Rose was appointed Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer. Accordingly, it should be noted that any reference to the Executive Management Team regarding compensation for 2009 will generally include the former Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, Mr. Moran, and references to the Executive Management Team regarding compensation for 2010 will generally include the current Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, Mr. Rose, unless specifically stated otherwise.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

Compensation paid to the NEOs is determined at the sole discretion of the Compensation Committee, of our board of directors. The Compensation Committee currently consists of four independent directors: Dr. Brennan, who serves as its Chairman, and Messrs. Dickey, Ingraham and Kinsella. There are no Compensation Committee interlocks, and none of our employees participates on the Compensation Committee.

Role of the Compensation Committee

The Compensation Committee is responsible for:

Establishing, reviewing and approving our compensation philosophy;

Reviewing and approving corporate goals and objectives relating to the compensation of the Chief Executive Officer, evaluating the performance of the Chief Executive Officer in light of those goals and objectives and reviewing and approving the compensation of the Chief Executive Officer based on such evaluation;

Reviewing and approving all compensation for our other executive officers, including salary, cash and equity incentive compensation awards (including all annual bonus, long-term incentive compensation, stock option, and other equity-based awards), perquisites and all executive officers' employment, change of control and severance arrangements;

Administering, reviewing and approving all employee pension and welfare benefit plans;

Reviewing and approving our policy with respect to severance and change of control payments; and Preparing the Compensation Committee Report.

The Compensation Committee's charter, posted on our website at <http://www.kilroyrealty.com>, describes in greater detail these various responsibilities, and the Compensation Committee and board of directors periodically review and revise the charter as needed to keep the charter current and consistent with our compensation philosophies. The Compensation Committee's membership is determined by the board of directors and is composed entirely of independent directors. There were 11 meetings of the Compensation Committee in 2009, nine of which were executive sessions at which no Company employees were present. The Compensation Committee has the authority to engage the services of outside advisors, experts and others to assist the Compensation Committee. In accordance with the Compensation Committee's charter, the Compensation Committee may retain independent compensation and other management consultants to assist with, among other things, evaluating our various compensation programs, both individually and in the aggregate, including levels of salary, cash and equity incentives, benefits and other perquisites and awards payable to our key personnel, as well as to advise the Compensation Committee with respect to the development of performance objectives that will contribute to our short-term and long-term profitability.

Role of Management

Our Chief Executive Officer participates in the compensation process as follows:

Presents overall results of the Company's performance based upon management's perception of the Company's achievement of the predetermined goals set by the Compensation Committee and the Company's historical and go-forward business objectives and goals;

Provides evaluation for other executive officers;

Reviews peer group information and compensation recommendations and provides feedback regarding the potential impact to the Company; and Participates in Compensation Committee meetings at the invitation of the Compensation Committee, subject to exclusion from certain meetings or portions thereof intended to be exclusive of Company management.

Our Chief Financial Officer evaluates the financial implications and affordability of compensation programs and also the Company's achievement of the predetermined goals set by the Compensation Committee. Other executive officers may periodically participate in the compensation process and Compensation Committee meetings at the invitation of the Compensation Committee to advise on performance and/or activity in areas with respect to which these executive officers have particular knowledge or expertise.

Compensation Objectives

We believe that the compensation programs for our executive officers should be closely aligned with the performance of the Company on both a short-term and long-term basis in terms of the Company's total return performance (stock appreciation and dividends) and fundamental performance (for example, leasing results and balance sheet management). During 2009, we focused on these core fundamentals, and attained strong leasing results and maintained a strong balance sheet. We believe that attainment of these fundamental goals exemplifies solid short-term performance that will lead to sustainable long-term stockholder return. Accordingly, the compensation paid to our executive officers for fiscal year 2009 is consistent with our performance in meeting and exceeding certain of these predetermined fundamental operating goals and with strategically positioning the Company for future total stockholder return growth.

Our compensation philosophy for our executive officers is based on the following principles:

Our compensation programs should help the Company to attract and retain individuals of superior ability and managerial talent;

Our compensation programs should be competitive relative to the compensation paid to similarly situated executives of our Peer Group (as defined in Compensation Benchmarking and Peer Group below);

Table of Contents

Our compensation programs should ensure that executive officer compensation is aligned with the Company's corporate strategies and business objectives and the long-term interests of the Company's stockholders;

Our compensation programs should serve to increase the incentive to achieve key strategic and financial performance measures by linking incentive award opportunities to the achievement of performance goals in these areas; and

Our compensation programs should include the use of stock-based compensation to reinforce the link between executive compensation and the interests of the Company's stockholders.

The total compensation program for our executive officers for 2009 consisted of the following components:

Base salary;

Annual incentive cash bonus;

Annual and other discretionary equity grants that are subject to vesting based on continued employment;

Company contribution to nonqualified deferred compensation plan;

Retirement and deferred compensation plan eligibility;

Severance and change in control benefits; and

Other benefits and perquisites.

All of our executive officers earn a base salary commensurate with their respective levels to provide them with the stability of a consistent income so they can focus on day-to-day responsibilities. Our philosophy is to also provide our executive officers with significant incentive-based compensation opportunities with goals designed to link each NEO's compensation to the Company's performance on both a relative and absolute basis, in terms of both total return to stockholders and fundamental performance, consistent with our strategic and operational goals, which we believe is the best way to ultimately increase stockholders value. Our relative incentive compensation goals compare total return to stockholders and fundamental performance to the performance of our Peer Group and to our past performance, while our absolute goals are defined by specified performance targets. For our Executive Management Team, we reserve the largest potential compensation awards for performance- and incentive-based programs. Those programs include annual cash and annual and long-term equity awards that are determined based on the financial performance of the Company. Both compensation levels and the allocation of total compensation between cash and equity and between long- and short-term components are reviewed annually in comparison to the Peer Group and to our historic performance. A significant component of the Executive Management Team's annual bonuses are payable in restricted stock that vests over a two-year continued service period following the bonus year, as the ultimate value of these awards is closely tied to our ability to maximize stockholder value.

One of the largest individual components of our Executive Management Team's compensation is equity compensation. We believe that a significant portion of our Executive Management Team's compensation should be in the form of equity for several reasons:

Along with our minimum stock ownership policy, equity grants help ensure that a significant portion of our Executive Management Team's net worth is tied to the value of the Company's stock, aligning the interest of our Executive Management Team with those of the Company's stockholders. Our view is that if we have superior long-term operating performance, our Executive Management Team, through their significant equity compensation, will eventually receive above market compensation from dividends and capital appreciation in the Company's common stock. Conversely, if we do not perform as well as our peers, our Executive Management Team's compensation will appropriately prove to be below market over the long-term;

Table of Contents

We design our equity awards to be total stockholder return vehicles that provide for dividend equivalent rights, rewarding our Executive Management Team for both share appreciation as well as dividends paid. We believe a focus on total stockholder return will encourage our Executive Management Team to increase earnings to maintain our dividend; and

Our Executive Management Team's stock awards generally vest over a two-year period, thus providing an additional retention tool.

Stock Ownership Guidelines

We believe our Executive Management Team should hold a material amount of the Company's stock to link their long-term economic interest directly to that of the Company's stockholders. Accordingly, we have established requirements that members of our Executive Management Team own stock valued at three to five times their respective annual base salaries, as detailed in the following table. We believe that these multiples constitute material amounts for our Executive Management Team and provide a substantial link between the interests of our Executive Management Team and those of the Company's stockholders.

John B. Kilroy, Jr.	500%	Yes
Jeffrey C. Hawken	300%	Yes

Determination of Compensation Awards/Role of Compensation Consultant

The Compensation Committee retained FTI Schonbraun McCann Group, a real estate advisory practice of FTI Consulting, Inc., to assist it in the review of our compensation programs. The compensation consultants engaged by the Compensation Committee are consultants specializing in compensation matters in the REIT and real estate industries. The compensation consultants provide data on the compensation and relative performance of our Peer Group, make presentations on matters affecting compensation, provide assessments of the degree to which our compensation arrangements are consistent with market practices and our objectives, provide assistance with the design and metrics associated with our annual and long-term incentive programs, and consult on other compensation matters as needed. The compensation consultants also meet privately in executive session with our Compensation Committee. The compensation consultants evaluated the following in recommending the amount of executive compensation relative to the market, as well as the desired mix of base salary, annual incentives and long-term compensation opportunities:

Our performance as compared to other REITs, with an emphasis on office REITs, and as compared to other publicly traded real estate companies engaged in activities similar to those engaged in by us, and

The current economic environment of the real estate industry and the markets specific to our properties.

The compensation consultants provided advice to the Compensation Committee with respect to competitive practices, the amounts and nature of compensation paid to executive officers, structuring our various compensation programs and recommending the appropriate levels of salary, bonus, equity and cash incentive and other awards and perquisites payable to our executive officers. Based upon the compensation consultant's recommendations, our executive compensation package for our Executive Management Team consists of a fixed base salary and performance-based cash and equity incentive awards, with a significant portion weighted toward the performance-based component to ensure that total compensation reflects the overall success or failure of the Company and to motivate our Executive Management Team to meet appropriate performance measures, thereby maximizing total return to the Company's stockholders. Consistent with our compensation philosophy, annual cash bonuses are paid shortly after the performance year as short-term incentives, while an additional significant component of incentive compensation is paid in restricted stock that vests over a continued service period of two years following the performance year to incentivize over a longer-term and further link compensation to stockholder value. Our incentive awards tend to include equity awards to help align the interests of our executive officers with those of the Company's stockholders. We also provide various perquisites (described below) to our executive officers to ensure that their overall compensation package is competitive within our Peer Group.

The Compensation Committee has retained the compensation consultant to assist the Compensation Committee with the evaluation of specified projects. Other than compensation consulting services with respect to executive officers and directors, the compensation consultant does not provide any additional services to the Company. The Compensation Committee directs the nature of the communications and interchange of data between the compensation consultant and management and has sole authority to hire, retain and terminate the compensation consultant.

To aid the Compensation Committee in reviewing our compensation programs, our President and Chief Executive Officer and our Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer provided recommendations to the Compensation Committee regarding the compensation of all executive officers. The Compensation Committee also reviewed the performance of each member of our Executive Management Team.

Tax and Accounting Considerations

Limitation on Deductibility of Executive Compensation. Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code limits the deductibility of compensation paid to certain of our executive officers. To qualify for deductibility under Section 162(m), compensation in excess of $1,000,000 paid to our NEOs during any fiscal year generally must be performance-based compensation as determined under Section 162(m). Compensation generally qualifies as performance-based, if among other requirements, it is payable only upon the attainment of pre-established, objective performance criteria based on performance goals that have been approved by the Company's stockholders, and the committee of our board of directors that establishes and certifies the attainment of such goals consists only of outside directors. All members of our Compensation Committee qualify as outside directors for purposes of Section 162(m).

The Compensation Committee's policy is to take into account Section 162(m) in establishing compensation of our executive officers to preserve deductibility to the greatest extent possible. The deductibility of some types of compensation payments can depend upon the timing of the vesting or an executive's exercise of previously granted awards. Interpretations of and changes in applicable tax laws and regulations as well as other factors beyond our control can also affect deductibility of compensation. While the tax impact of any compensation arrangement is one factor to be considered, such impact is evaluated in light of the Compensation Committee's overall compensation philosophy and objectives. The Compensation Committee will consider ways to maximize the deductibility of executive compensation, while retaining the discretion it deems necessary to compensate officers competitively and in a manner commensurate with performance. From time to time, the Compensation Committee may therefore award compensation to our executive officers that is not fully deductible if it determines that such award is consistent with its philosophy and is in our and the Company's stockholders' best interests. In addition, we believe that the Company qualifies as a REIT under the Code and is not subject to federal income taxes, meaning that the payment of compensation that does not satisfy the requirements of Section 162(m) should not have a material adverse consequence to us, provided the Company continues to distribute 90% of its taxable income. The Compensation Committee reserves the right to design programs that recognize a full range of performance criteria important to our success, even where the compensation paid under such programs may not be deductible.

Internal Revenue Code Section 409A. The Compensation Committee also endeavors to structure executive officers' compensation in a manner that is either compliant with, or exempt from the application of, Code Section 409A, which provisions may impose significant additional taxes on non-conforming, nonqualified deferred compensation (including certain equity awards, severance, incentive compensation, traditional deferred compensation and other payments).

Internal Revenue Code Section 280G. Section 280G of the Code disallows a tax deduction with respect to excess parachute payments to certain executives of companies which undergo a change in control. In addition, Section 4999 of the Code imposes a 20 percent penalty on the individual receiving the excess payment. Parachute payments are compensation that is linked to or triggered by a change in control and may include, but are not limited to, bonus payments, severance payments, certain fringe benefits, and payments and acceleration of vesting from long-term incentive plans including stock options and other equity-based compensation. Excess parachute payments are parachute payments that exceed a threshold determined under Section 280G based on the executive's prior compensation. In approving the compensation arrangements for our NEOs, our Compensation Committee considers all elements of the cost to our Company of providing such compensation, including the potential impact of Section 280G. However, our Compensation Committee may, in its judgment, authorize compensation arrangements that could give rise to loss of deductibility under Section 280G and the imposition of excise taxes under Section 4999 when it believes that such arrangements are appropriate to attract and retain executive talent.

Accounting. The Compensation Committee regularly considers the accounting implications of significant compensation decisions, especially in connection with decisions that relate to equity compensation awards. In particular, ASC Topic 718 (formerly known as FASB 123R), requires us to recognize an expense for the fair value of equity-based compensation awards. As accounting standards change, we may revise certain programs to appropriately align accounting expenses of our awards with our overall executive compensation philosophy and objectives.

Compensation Benchmarking and Peer Group

A comprehensive review of our executive compensation programs was conducted for 2009 to ensure that (1) pay opportunities are competitive with the current market, (2) there is an appropriate link between performance and pay, and (3) our compensation programs support our stated compensation philosophy. In connection with the 2009 review, the compensation consultant surveyed the compensation practices of our Peer Group and utilized other well-established executive compensation surveys to assess our competitiveness and advise the Compensation Committee.

The Peer Group for 2009 was expanded from 15 companies to 27 companies, which were analyzed in the aggregate and separately as subsets based on the respective companies' equity market capitalization as a percentage of the Company's equity market capitalization as of December 31, 2009, which was approximately $1.38 billion. The change to the size of our 2009 Peer Group from the 2008 Peer Group was made to allow the Compensation Committee to better understand compensation trends relative to company size in light of the industry-wide fluctuations in equity market capitalizations during 2009. The 2009 Peer Group consisted of the following 27 leading REITs with a median market capitalization of approximately $2.5 billion and an equity market capitalization range of approximately $1 billion to $4 billion:

Alexandria Real Estate Equities, Inc.	LaSalle Hotel Properties
AMB Property Corporation	Liberty Property Trust
BioMed Realty Trust	Mack-Cali Realty Corporation
Brandywine Realty Trust	MFA Financial, Inc.
Camden Property Trust	Nationwide Health Properties, Inc.
CBL and Associates Properties, Inc.	Rayonier, Inc.
Corporate Office Properties, Inc.	Realty Income Corporation
Digital Realty Trust, Inc.	Redwood Trust, Inc.
Douglas Emmett, Inc.	SL Green Realty Corp.
Duke Realty Corporation	The Macerich Company
Entertainment Properties Trust	UDR, Inc.
Essex Properties Trust, Inc.	W.P. Carey & Co. LLC
Federal Realty Investment Trust	Weingarten Realty Investors
Highwoods Properties, Inc.

Table of Contents

The Peer Group and the compensation surveys are periodically reviewed and updated by the Compensation Committee based on advice from the compensation consultant. We generally set base salary structures and annual incentive targets between the 50th and 75th percentile of the compensation levels of the Peer Group for all our NEOs. We believe that the 50th percentile reflects the threshold target compensation level at which we can provide competitive remuneration to our executive officers, and the 75th percentile provides sufficient motivation for our executive officers to achieve superior performance and additional retention incentive for our top executives.

Policies with Respect to Equity Compensation Awards

The Compensation Committee, based upon the recommendations of the compensation consultant, evaluates the allocation of equity awards among stock option grants, restricted stock grants, stock appreciation rights, restricted stock units and the various other equity instruments available under the Kilroy Realty 2006 Incentive Award Plan, as amended, or the 2006 Plan, by reference to the Peer Group discussed above. Based on this evaluation, we currently make annual grants of restricted stock awards upon the attainment of annual performance targets and based on the fair market value of the Company's common stock as of the date of grant.

Annual restricted stock awards are generally made during the first quarter of the fiscal year based on performance during the preceding fiscal year. We may also make grants of equity incentive awards at other times at the discretion of the Compensation Committee or the board of directors, including but not limited to, in connection with the hiring of new executive officers.

Executive officers are permitted to defer receipt of annual restricted stock grants by electing to receive restricted stock units (RSUs) payable at a later date or upon a subsequent event, subject to the same vesting conditions that would have applied to the underlying restricted shares (as further discussed in "Stock Award Deferral Program" below). We believe that grants of restricted stock are consistent with our goal of aligning the interests of our executive officers with those of the Company's stockholders, and that permitting the deferral of these awards into RSUs provides a valuable tax-planning tool that makes our compensation program more competitive.

2009 Executive Compensation Elements

The principal elements of 2009 compensation for our NEOs were base salary, cash incentive awards and equity incentive awards. The allocation of compensation across our compensation elements for 2009 reflects our philosophy of maintaining a strong relationship between performance and pay by delivering the majority of each executive's compensation in the form of incentive compensation consistent with the practices of our Peer Group.

The allocation of compensation for our Executive Management Team for 2009 was as follows:

Compensation Element

compensation amounts)	John B. Kilroy, Jr.	Jeffrey C. Hawken	Richard E. Moran Jr.
Salary	19%	22%	27%
Cash Incentive	45%	43%	73%
Equity Incentive	36%	35%	N/A ⁽¹⁾

(1) As approved by the Compensation Committee, under the terms of the Separation Agreement executed between Mr. Moran and the Company, Mr. Moran's 2009 annual bonus was paid 100% in cash.

The allocation across compensation elements as between base salary and incentive compensation has remained fairly consistent historically, although due to a significant reduction in the maximum formulaic incentive opportunities available to the Executive Management Team in 2009, the relative portion of total compensation delivered through base salary increased in 2009 compared to the prior year for each of our executive officers.

Table of Contents

The allocation of compensation across our compensation elements for 2009 for our Senior Managers based on actual 2009 compensation was as follows: (i) 32% salary, 28% cash incentive, and 40% equity incentive for Mr. Rose; and (ii) 52% salary, 21% cash incentive, and 27% equity incentive for Mr. Scott. The grant of incentive compensation awards to our Senior Managers is discretionary.

Base Compensation

For 2009, we provided our NEOs with base salaries that are designed to be between the 50th and 75th percentile of the Peer Group. In approving 2009 base salaries for our executive officers, the Compensation Committee reviewed the market data from our Peer Group and relevant compensation surveys. The Compensation Committee also considered the performance of the Company, the performance of each executive, the contribution of each executive to our overall results, input from our Chief Executive Officer (with respect to our other executive officers), and the relative need to retain the executive. No formulaic base salary increases are provided to the NEOs. Upon review of the independently prepared comparison of base salary levels among the Peer Group, the Compensation Committee determined that each of the executive officers was properly situated within the Peer Group and that maintaining base salary levels consistent with 2008 base salary levels was appropriate.

For 2009, base salaries were as follows:

Named Executive	2009 Base Salary
John B. Kilroy, Jr.	$ 1,050,000
Jeffrey C. Hawken	$ 575,000
Richard E. Moran Jr.	$ 525,000
Tyler H. Rose	$ 365,000
Steven R. Scott	$ 365,000

Performance-Based CompensationPerformance Goals

We structure our compensation programs to reward our executive officers based on our corporate performance. This allows our executive officers to receive incentive compensation if certain specified corporate performance measures are achieved. Corporate performance measures are established at the beginning of each year based on the Company's annual business plan and input from both our compensation consultant and Compensation Committee.

2009 Annual Bonus Program

We maintained one performance-based incentive program in 2009 for the Executive Management Team, the 2009 annual bonus program, which consisted of a cash and equity opportunity based upon the achievement of four performance measures: 2009 EBITDA targets, 2009 revenue targets, 2009 operating margin targets, and 2009 operating portfolio leasing targets (each as defined in the 2009 annual bonus program, a Performance Criterion and, collectively, the Performance Criteria). The actual total award payout under this program relative to these performance measures was determined as follows: 40% for achievement of 2009 EBITDA targets, 20% for the achievement of 2009 revenue targets, 20% for achievement of operating margin targets, and 20% for achievement of operating portfolio leasing targets. The relative weighting of each Performance Criterion was established in accordance with the Company's goals as they relate to the Company's business plan. For 2009 EBITDA served as a primary focus and goal of the Company as it is most directly correlated to creating stockholder value, hence it received a 40% relative weighting, while each of the other Performance Criterion were deemed to be equally as important as each other, hence, each received a 20% relative weighting. The Compensation Committee chose to replace the funds from operations (FFO) criterion with EBITDA due to significant uncertainty in the debt markets, which is reflected in the Company's income statement through interest expenses, which is the primary difference between EBITDA and FFO.

Table of Contents

The amounts paid under this program for 2009 were determined based upon our actual performance measured against the Performance Criteria. In the event certain threshold performance levels were exceeded but applicable target levels were not achieved, the Executive Management Team was entitled to earn proportionate awards. The following threshold, target, and actual performance levels achieved for each Performance Criterion were as follows:

Performance Criterion	Threshold	Target	2009 Actual Results
2009 EBITDA	$ 176.9 million	$ 180.5 million	$ 171.4 million
2009 Revenues	$ 288.0 million	$ 292.4 million	$ 279.4 million
2009 Operating Margins	72%	73%	72.7%
2009 Operating Portfolio Leasing	900,000 rentable square feet	1,050,000 rentable square feet	1,963,047 rentable square feet

Awards earned under the 2009 annual bonus program were paid during the first quarter of 2010 with any amounts earned up to the first 50% of the applicable target award paid in cash and any portion of the remaining 50% of the applicable target award paid in RSUs, as applicable. Restricted stock or RSU awards earned under the 2009 annual bonus program will vest in equal annual installments over a two-year service period as follows: 50% on December 31, 2010 and 50% on December 31, 2011 based on continued employment through the applicable vesting date. We believe that these strategic and financial goals are key drivers in ultimately creating stockholder value and, accordingly, these goals help to align the interests of our Executive Management Team and the Company's stockholders. At the time the financial objectives were established, we believed that the targets would be challenging and difficult, but achievable with significant effort and management skill.

Named Executive	2009 Annual Bonus Program
	Threshold Level	Target Level	Maximum Bonus Award
John B. Kilroy, Jr.	257%	476%	$ 5,000,000
Jeffrey C. Hawken	245%	391%	$ 2,250,000
Richard E. Moran Jr.	174%	305%	$ 1,600,000

Based on its assessment of corporate performance, the Compensation Committee approved the following incentive awards under the 2009 annual bonus program (paid in early 2010):

Named Executive	2009 Annual Bonus Program
	Cash Component	Equity Component	Total Bonus Award
John B. Kilroy, Jr.	$ 2,500,000	$ 2,004,000	$ 4,504,000
Richard E. Moran Jr.	$ 1,441,280	N/A	$ 1,441,280 ⁽¹⁾

(1) As approved by the Compensation Committee, under the terms of the Separation Agreement executed between Mr. Moran and the Company, Mr. Moran's 2009 annual bonus was paid 100% in cash.

2010 Executive Compensation Program

In January 2010, the Compensation Committee approved the 2010 annual bonus program for the Executive Management Team that will allow for the Executive Management Team to receive bonus compensation in the event certain specified corporate performance measures are achieved. The purpose of the 2010 annual bonus program is to provide incentive to the Executive Management Team to attain established performance measures and to increase stockholder value in a pay for performance structure that is aligned with the interests of the general partner's stockholders. For the Executive Management Team, the treatment of their awards under this program upon a change in control or termination of employment (including due to death or disability) will be governed by the applicable terms contained within each executive officer's employment agreement.

Table of Contents2010 Annual Bonus Program

The specific performance measures for the 2010 annual bonus program are based upon: 2010 EBITDA targets, 2010 revenue targets, 2010 operating margin targets, and 2010 leasing targets (each as defined in the 2010 annual bonus program, a Performance Criterion and, collectively, the Performance Criteria). The actual total award payout under this program relative to these performance measures will be determined as follows: 40% for achievement of 2010 EBITDA targets, 20% for achievement of 2010 revenue targets, 20% for achievement of 2010 operating margin targets, and 20% for achievement of 2010 leasing targets.

Under the 2010 annual bonus program, the executive officers are eligible to earn different amounts of incentive compensation depending on the level of performance achieved for each of the Performance Criteria. The executive officers must exceed a minimum threshold performance level for each Performance Criterion to earn incentive compensation with respect to that individual Performance Criterion under this program. If the executive officers exceed the applicable minimum thresholds, they are eligible to earn additional incentive compensation upon achieving certain target levels of performance. In the event the executive officers exceed the applicable thresholds but do not achieve the applicable target performance levels, they are entitled to proportional awards. The threshold and target levels for each Performance Criterion are as follows:

Performance Criterion	Threshold	Target
2010 EBITDA	$ 163.0 million	$ 168.6 million
2010 Revenues	$ 269.0 million	$ 275.3 million
2010 Operating Margins	70.3%	71.3%
2010 Leasing	900,000 rentable square feet	1,050,000 rentable square feet

When calculating the total payout under this program, the payout under each Performance Criterion is calculated independently. In the event that the target performance level for any individual Performance Criterion is exceeded, over-attainment of such Performance Criterion can be used to supplement the payout for other measures where performance under those measures falls below target levels as follows (subject to the maximum individual bonus payouts discussed below): up to 50% of the target payout for the 2010 EBITDA target (up to a maximum of 60%) and up to 75% of the target payout for the 2010 revenue target, 2010 operating margin target, and 2010 leasing target (up to a maximum of 35% each).

Under the 2010 annual bonus program, the Chief Executive Officer is eligible to earn $2,500,000 in the event threshold performance levels are achieved for all of the Performance Criteria and $5,000,000 in the event target performance levels are achieved for all of the Performance Criteria. The Chief Operating Officer is eligible to earn $1,125,000 in the event threshold performance levels are achieved for all of the Performance Criteria and $2,250,000 in the event target performance levels are achieved for all of the Performance Criteria. The Chief Financial Officer is eligible to earn $500,000 in the event threshold performance levels are achieved for all of the Performance Criteria and $1,000,000 in the event target performance levels are achieved for all of the Performance Criteria. The Compensation Committee has the discretion, but not the obligation, to make additional awards to the executive officers based on its assessment of the performance of the Company and each individual separately. Discretionary awards, if any, can be awarded in cash or equity, or a combination of cash and equity at the Compensation Committee's discretion.

The Company anticipates that any amounts earned under the 2010 annual bonus program will be paid during the first quarter of 2011 with any amounts earned up to the first 50% of the applicable target award to be paid in cash and any portion of the remaining 50% of the applicable target award to be paid in restricted stock or restricted stock units, based on the executive officers' individual elections. Restricted stock or RSU awards earned under the 2010 annual bonus program will vest in equal annual installments over a two-year service period as follows: 50% on January 5, 2012 and 50% on January 5, 2013 based on continued employment through the applicable vesting date.

Table of ContentsDiscretionary Long-Term Vesting Equity Incentive Awards

Our Senior Managers, along with other selected Company employees, are also eligible to participate in our annual restricted stock grants, which are an important component of the compensation necessary to attract and retain talented executive officers. Historically, the Compensation Committee has made annual discretionary awards to our Senior Vice Presidents. The awards are not formulaic, but rather are based upon the input and recommendations received from our Executive Management Team from its subjective assessment of both the executive's individual efforts and contributions to the Company during the period, and the impact of these contributions on the Company. For awards made in 2009, the restricted stock awards granted to each executive officer were determined based upon several factors, including the executive officer's salary grade, performance, changes in job responsibility or in recognition of a significant achievement or as otherwise determined by the Compensation Committee. In determining the discretionary award for Mr. Rose in 2009, our Executive Management Team and Compensation Committee considered his performance in 2009 as our Senior Vice President and Treasurer, including his leadership in the Company's capital raising and financing efforts, and his promotion in December 2009 to the position of Executive Vice President, CFO and Secretary. In determining the discretionary award for Mr. Scott in 2009, our Executive Management Team and Compensation Committee considered his performance in 2009 as our Senior Vice President, San Diego, including his leadership of leasing, property development and redevelopment, and in the management of our operations in the San Diego region. As explained under Policies with Respect to Equity Compensation Awards above and under Stock Award Deferral Program below, our Senior Managers may defer receipt of their annual restricted stock grants by electing to receive instead RSUs that are payable at a later date or upon a subsequent event. The discretionary equity awards for 2009 performance were made under the 2006 Plan.

Deferred Compensation Plan

We maintain a Deferred Compensation Plan under which our directors and certain of our management employees (the Participants), including our NEOs, may defer receipt of their compensation, including up to 70% of their salaries and up to 100% of their director fees and cash bonuses, each as applicable. In addition, eligible management employees, including the NEOs, will generally receive monthly contributions from us to their Deferred Compensation Plan accounts equal to 10% of their respective gross monthly base salaries, without regard to whether such employees elect to defer salary or bonus compensation under the Deferred Compensation Plan. The Deferred Compensation Plan provides that we may also make additional discretionary contributions to participant accounts. To date, we have not made any discretionary contributions. The Deferred Compensation Plan fits into our compensation philosophy by providing our NEOs with the ability to accrue compensation and generate savings in a tax-efficient manner in excess of limits imposed under tax-qualified 401(k) plans, thereby providing additional financial security that enables our executives to focus on their work-related obligations.

Participant elections with respect to deferrals of compensation and distributions must generally be made in the year preceding that in which the compensation is earned, except that elections with respect to certain performance-based bonuses may be made as late as six months prior to the end of the applicable performance period (June 30th in the case of calendar-year performance period). In addition, newly eligible Participants may be able to make deferral elections up to thirty days after they first become eligible to participate in the Deferred Compensation Plan, if later than the end of the year preceding that in which such deferred amounts will be earned. Participants may only change existing elections with respect to distributions if they satisfy certain requirements set forth in the Deferred Compensation Plan, including that they do so no later than twelve months prior to the first scheduled distribution and that they extend their deferral elections by at least five years.

Participants will be permitted to allocate (and reallocate) their deferrals, as well as Company contributions and any notional earnings on either of the foregoing, amongst the following investment alternatives made available by the Deferred Compensation Plan administrator for purposes of determining any notional gains or losses on Participant account balances:

Wells Fargo Advantage Heritage Money Market - Instl Class	Money Market

These allocations will be hypothetical only and will not give Participants ownership interests in any actual assets of the Company or any trust funding obligations under the Deferred Compensation Plan; however, the Company may set aside assets to fund its obligations under the Deferred Compensation Plan in a limited (rabbi) trust, subject to the claims of the Company s creditors in the event of the Company s bankruptcy or insolvency.

Participants may elect to receive distributions of their accounts (other than distributions of Company contributions) (i) while still in the service of the Company, in either a lump sum or in two to five annual installments occurring (or beginning) no earlier than two years after such amounts were earned, (ii) upon retirement from service, in a lump sum or up to fifteen annual installments (beginning no earlier than six months after retirement), or (iii) upon a change in control, in full. Participant elections may also provide for payment upon the earliest to occur of any two or more of the foregoing events (subject to the distribution limitations applicable to Company contributions). If a Participant separates from service with the Company and its affiliates for any reason other than due to the Participant s death, disability or retirement, the remaining balance of the Participant s account will generally be distributed in full six months after the occurrence of such separation from service. In addition, a Participant s account balance will be distributed as soon as possible following the Participant s death or disability. All such separation, death and disability distributions will be made without regard to any Participant election(s).

Stock Award Deferral Program

We also maintain a Stock Award Deferral Program, referred to as the Deferral Program, under which our directors and certain of our management employees, including our NEOs, may defer receipt of restricted stock awards granted under the 2006 Plan (Stock Awards) by electing to receive an equivalent number of restricted stock units (RSUs) in lieu of such Stock Awards. Each RSU issued under the Deferral Program represents the right to receive one share of the Company s common stock in the future and will be subject to the same vesting conditions as would have applied to the Stock Award in lieu of which such RSU is issued. In addition, RSUs carry with them the right to receive dividend equivalents that credit participants, upon our payment of dividends in respect of the shares underlying the participant s RSUs, with additional, fully-vested RSUs equal to the value of the dividend paid in respect of such shares. Shares of stock underlying RSUs will be paid to the executive holding RSUs on the earliest to occur of a change in control, the executive s separation from service with us, the executive s death or disability or a pre-determined date specified by the executive. By electing to receive RSUs instead of restricted shares, executives may be able to defer taxes on these awards, which makes our compensation program more desirable and helps us to attract and retain top talent.

Defined Contribution Plans

We maintain a Section 401(k) Savings/Retirement Plan (the 401(k) Plan) to cover our eligible employees, including the NEOs, and those of certain designated affiliates. The 401(k) Plan permits our eligible employees to defer up to 60% of their annual compensation, subject to certain limitations imposed by the Code. The employees elective deferrals are immediately vested and nonforfeitable upon contribution to the 401(k) Plan. We currently make matching contributions to the 401(k) Plan in an amount equal to fifty cents for each dollar of participant contributions, up to a maximum of ten percent of the participant s annual salary (thus, the maximum match is five percent of the participant s base salary) and subject to certain other limits. Participants vest immediately in the amounts contributed by us on their behalves. Our employees are eligible to participate in the 401(k) Plan after three months of credited service with us. The 401(k) Plan is intended to qualify under Section 401 of the Code so that contributions by employees to the 401(k) Plan, and income earned on plan contributions, are not taxable to employees until withdrawn from the 401(k) Plan. This tax-preferential savings option fits our compensation philosophy by helping us to attract and retain top talent.

Severance and Change in Control Arrangements

Each of Mr. Kilroy, Jr., Mr. Hawken, Mr. Moran, Mr. Rose and Mr. Scott has entered into a three-year employment agreement with us, effective January 1, 2007. All of these agreements are subject to automatic one-year renewals if not terminated by either party and provide for severance benefits under certain events, described below.

Table of Contents

The agreements were amended in December 2008 to add technical amendments to comply with Code Section 409A. We believe that the protections granted by these employment agreements help to ensure the day-to-day stability necessary to our executives to enable them to properly focus their attention on their duties and responsibilities with us. We have selected the payment triggers described below in an effort to address, and provide security with regard to, some of the most uncertain events relating to continued employment, thereby limiting concern and uncertainty and promoting productivity.

In December 2009, Mr. Moran resigned his position as Executive Vice President, Chief Financial Officer and Secretary of the Company. In connection with his resignation, the Company entered into a Separation Agreement and Release with Mr. Moran (the Separation Agreement) on December 16, 2009. In the Separation Agreement, the parties agreed that Mr. Moran is entitled to the separation payments and benefits set forth in Section 6(c) of his employment agreement, as amended, based on a termination due to disability.

Under the terms of the Separation Agreement, Mr. Moran also became entitled to receive (i) financial assistance with unreimbursed medical expenses and medical premiums incurred by Mr. Moran and his spouse from 2010 to 2014, up to a maximum of $250,000, (ii) reimbursement for expenses incurred in 2010 that are related to tax and financial planning services, up to a maximum of $39,145 and (iii) $240,000 as an additional past service, loyalty and cooperation bonus. The Compensation Committee determined that these separation benefits were appropriate in light of Mr. Moran's many years of exceptional service to our Company.

The employment agreements of Mr. Kilroy, Mr. Hawken and Mr. Moran provide that in the event that the employment of the executive is terminated without Cause or for Good Reason (as defined in the applicable employment agreement), the terminated executive is entitled to receive the following payments and benefits (together with the Severance Payment (as defined below), the Termination Benefits): (i) accrued but unpaid compensation through the date of termination; (ii) annual incentive compensation, based on actual performance prior to the date of termination and reasonably anticipated performance through the remainder of the year; (iii) full vesting of time-based equity awards; (iv) vesting of performance-based cash or equity awards (excluding outperformance incentive awards) as governed by the applicable plans, programs, and agreements, but with the objectives of such awards deemed to be met at the greater of (a) target on the date of termination or (b) actual performance as of the date of termination and reasonably anticipated performance through the remainder of the year; (v) all payments due under any other compensatory or benefit plan; (vi) the settlement of any deferral arrangements in accordance with the plans and programs governing the deferral; and (vii) continuation health coverage for the terminated executive, his spouse and his dependents, as applicable, for three years after the date of termination, at our expense, except that if we cannot continue fully-insured health coverage for Mr. Moran during the entire three-year coverage period, then we shall pay Mr. Moran, in lieu of such health coverage, $4,166.67 for each month during the three-year period that he does not have coverage (the Moran Health Benefits). In addition, each executive is entitled to receive a severance payment (the Severance Payment) equal to the sum of (i) three times annual base salary, and (ii) three times the average of the two highest target annual incentives (e.g., the sum of the annual cash award target and the annual stock target as detailed for each executive above, which sum may be increased for the determination of the Severance Payment only if the board of directors or the Compensation Committee specifically approves such increase) during the three preceding full performance years, except that the actual annual incentive earned by the executive in 2006 shall be used instead of the 2006 target annual incentive when making such determination and the target annual incentives shall never be less than the annual cash award target and the annual stock target set forth in the applicable employment agreement. As noted above, Mr. Moran's employment terminated during 2009 due to disability and he became entitled to the benefits described in the preceding paragraphs. Accordingly, he has no further rights under his employment agreement.

As defined in the employment agreements, Good Reason includes, among other things, the right of the executives to terminate employment with us in the twelfth month following a Change in Control of the Company (as defined in the employment agreements). Also, a nonextension by us of the term of the employment agreements will be deemed a termination of the relevant executive's employment without Cause.

In the event that the employment of an executive is terminated due to his retirement or death, such terminated executive is entitled to receive the Termination Benefits, except that (i) his Severance Payment shall equal the sum of (a) his annual base salary and (b) the average of his two highest target annual incentives (e.g., the sum of the annual cash award target and the annual stock target as detailed for each executive above, which sum may be increased for the determination of the Severance Payment only if the board of directors or the Compensation Committee specifically approves such increase) during the three preceding full performance years, except that the actual annual incentive earned by the executive in 2006 shall be used instead of the 2006 target annual incentive when making such determination and the target annual incentives shall never be less than the annual cash award target and the annual stock target set forth in the applicable employment agreement, and (ii) if the executive is Mr. Moran, he will have the opportunity to receive the Moran Health Benefits only upon retirement and not upon death.

In the event that the employment of an executive is terminated due to his disability, such terminated executive is entitled to receive the Termination Benefits, except that his Severance Payment shall equal the sum of (i) two times his annual base salary and (ii) two times the average of his two highest target annual incentives (i.e., the sum of the annual cash award target and the annual stock target as detailed for each executive above, which sum may be increased for the determination of the Severance Payment only if the board of directors or the Compensation Committee specifically approves such increase) during the three preceding full performance years, except that the actual annual incentive earned by the executive in 2006 shall be used instead of the 2006 target annual incentive when making such determination and the target annual incentives shall never be less than the annual cash award target and the annual stock target set forth in the applicable employment agreement.

In the event of a Change in Control of the Company (as defined in the employment agreements), Messrs. Kilroy, Jr., Hawken and Moran are generally entitled to receive gross-up payments from us for any excise taxes imposed, pursuant to Section 4999 of the Code (and any taxes imposed as a result of the gross-up payment), on the payments and benefits that the executives will receive upon such Change in Control under the employment agreements or under any other arrangement with us. We agree to place such gross-ups, payments and benefits in separate rabbi trusts on behalf of each executive within thirty days after the Change in Control.

The employment agreements require each of the executives to sign a general release in order to receive the Termination Benefits (including the Severance Payments) described above, other than accrued but unpaid compensation through the date of termination. The executives are also subject to (i) restrictions on solicitation during the term of the employment agreements and for one year after termination of employment due to retirement, two years after termination of employment due to disability, or three years after termination of employment without Cause or for Good Reason, (ii) restrictions on disclosure of confidential information during the term of the employments and in perpetuity thereafter, and (iii) restrictions on disparaging the Company, its affiliates and agents during the term of the employment agreements and in perpetuity thereafter. The executives further agree to cooperate with the Company, during the term of the employment agreements and thereafter, regarding any litigation to which the Company is party. If an executive fails to comply with the restrictions on solicitation and disclosure of confidential information described above, then the executive may forfeit all unvested equity awards, unexercised options and unpaid RSUs granted at or after January 1, 2007 and held by the executive or his transferee at the time of such noncompliance.

Tyler H. Rose and Steven R. Scott

The employment agreements of Mr. Rose and Mr. Scott provide that in the event that the employment of the executive is terminated without Cause or for Good Reason (as defined in the applicable employment agreements), such terminated executive is entitled to receive the Termination Benefits except that (i) his Severance Payment is equal to the sum of (a) two times his annual base salary and (b) two times the average of his two highest annual incentives (i.e., the sum of the annual cash award and the annual stock incentive target, as defined in the applicable employment agreement) during the three preceding full performance years and (ii) the continuation of health coverage for the terminated executive, his spouse and his dependents, as applicable, shall be for a period of two years after the date of termination, at our expense.

In the event that the employment of Mr. Rose or Mr. Scott is terminated due to retirement, such terminated Executive is entitled to receive all Termination Benefits, except that (i) his Severance Payment shall be equal to zero and (ii) the continuation of health coverage for the terminated Executive, his spouse and his dependents, as applicable, shall be for one year after the date of termination, at our expense.

Table of Contents

In the event that the employment of Mr. Rose or Mr. Scott is terminated due to his death, the terminated executive is entitled to receive the Termination Benefits, except that (i) his Severance Payment shall equal the sum of (a) one times his annual base salary and (b) one times the average of his two highest annual incentives (i.e., the sum of the annual cash award and the annual stock incentive target, as defined in the applicable employment agreement) during the three preceding full performance years, and (ii) the continuation of health coverage for the terminated executive, his spouse and his dependents, as applicable, shall be for one year after the date of termination, at our expense.

In the event that the employment of Mr. Rose or Mr. Scott is terminated due to disability, such terminated executive is entitled to receive the Termination Benefits, except that the continuation of health coverage for the terminated executive, his spouse and his dependents, as applicable, shall be for one year after the date of termination, at our expense.

If Mr. Rose or Mr. Scott becomes entitled to the Termination Benefits (or other compensation or benefits) in connection with a Change in Control (the Change in Control Benefits), then certain excise taxes may apply under Section 4999 of the Code. To avoid the imposition of such excise taxes, we will reduce the Change in Control Benefits payable to an executive only if the executive retains a greater portion of the Change in Control Benefits after such reduction than the portion of the Change in Control Benefits that the Executive would have retained without such reduction and after the payment of applicable excise taxes. We will place the Change in Control Benefits due to the executives in separate rabbi trusts on behalf of each executive within thirty (30) days after a Change in Control.

The employment agreements require each of the executives to sign a general release in order to receive the Termination Benefits (including the Severance Payments) described above, other than accrued but unpaid compensation through the date of termination. The executives are also subject to (i) restrictions on solicitation during the term of the employment agreements and for one year after termination of employment due to retirement, two years after termination of employment due to disability, or three years after termination of employment without Cause or for Good Reason, (ii) restrictions on disclosure of confidential information during the term of the employments and in perpetuity thereafter, and (iii) restrictions on disparaging the Company, its affiliates and agents during the term of the employment agreements and in perpetuity thereafter. The executives further agree to cooperate with the Company, during the term of the employment agreements and thereafter, regarding any litigation to which the Company is party. If an executive fails to comply with the restrictions on solicitation and disclosure of confidential information described above, then the executive may forfeit all unvested equity awards, unexercised options and unpaid RSUs granted at or after January 1, 2007 and held by the executive or his transferee at the time of such non-compliance.

- (1) Reflects the aggregate grant date fair value computed in accordance with FASB ASC Topic 718, Compensation-Stock Compensation. The fair value is based on the quoted closing share price of the Company's common stock on the NYSE on the grant date. The stock awards reported for Mr. Kilroy, Jr., Mr. Hawken, and Mr. Moran are reported in the year in which the service inception period began for these awards, which precedes the year in which the grant date occurred. For awards that have a performance period that extends beyond the fiscal year in which they are reported (i.e., the 2007 development performance program), the fair value of the award is based upon the then-probable outcome of the performance conditions in the year the service inception period began. We report stock awards made to Mr. Rose and Mr. Scott in the year of grant because these awards are made on a discretionary basis and, accordingly, the service inception period for these awards does not begin prior to the grant date.

- (4) All equity awards held by executive at termination which vest based on time shall become vested and all other terms of such awards shall be governed by the plans and programs and the agreements and other documents pursuant to which such options were granted. Currently all unvested equity awards are time-based.
- (5) Qualifying terminations following a Change in Control are Termination Without Cause and Termination for Good Reason.
- (6) Executive's employment agreement provides that the Company will reduce the change in control payment if, as a result of the reduction, executive will receive a net after tax benefit which is greater than the amount he would receive if the excise tax was paid. Change in control payments may be subject to a 20% Federal excise tax if they exceed a threshold amount. Based on the available data, the Company would not have reduced the total change in control payments under the employment agreements.

Board Oversight of Risk

Our board of directors is actively involved, through our compensation committee, in our approach to compensation practices and policies applicable to employees throughout our organization, which is consistent with that followed by the Compensation Committee for our executive officers. We have evaluated our 2010 compensation policies and programs and believe that our compensation policies and practices are not reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect on the Company. Our assessment is based upon a review of the Company's 2010 annual bonus program, which includes, among other things, (i) performance metrics that are aligned with the Company's financial goals, (ii) multiple performance metrics, (iii) possible payouts based upon a range of performance levels; and (iv) a maximum payout level with caps on the individual performance metrics. To assist us in evaluating these programs and making this assessment, we also reviewed and discussed this program and any risks associated with the program with the Company's compensation consultant.

Director Compensation

Under the 2009 compensation program, we paid each of our nonemployee directors annual cash compensation of $35,000 for services rendered and $2,000 for each board of directors meeting attended by such director. Each nonemployee director also received annual compensation of $1,000 for each committee of which he is a member. The Chairman of each committee received additional annual cash compensation of $10,000, with the exception of the Chairman of the Audit Committee and the Chairman of the Compensation Committee who received additional annual cash compensation of $20,000. Directors are reimbursed for reasonable expenses incurred to attend director and committee meetings and incident to their service as a director. Our officers who are directors are not paid any director fees. Our directors may defer receipt of their compensation pursuant to the terms of our Deferred Compensation Plan. For further discussion of the Deferred Compensation Plan, see Compensation Discussion and Analysis Deferred Compensation Plans.

Edgar Filing: KILROY REALTY CORP - Form 424B3

In addition, in June 2009, each nonemployee director received an annual grant authorized under the 2006 Plan of RSUs or shares of restricted stock valued at $100,000 that vested on the date of the 2010 Annual Meeting, and were subject to continued service. Each nonemployee director grant provides that the restricted stock or RSUs will vest in full in the event of a change in control of the Company (as defined in the 2006 Plan) or a termination of the nonemployee director's directorship for any reason other than the director's voluntary resignation or retirement. Further, nonemployee directors are encouraged to hold significant equity interests in the Company. The board of directors expects each nonemployee director to own or to acquire, within five years of first becoming a director, shares of our common stock having a market value of at least $100,000. Our directors may defer receipt of their stock awards pursuant to our Deferral Program. For further discussion of the Deferral Program, see Compensation Discussion and Analysis - Deferred Compensation Plans.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS, AND DIRECTOR INDEPENDENCE

In 2009, no directors or executive officers of the Company, including Mr. Kilroy, Sr. and Mr. Kilroy, Jr., the Chairman of the board of directors and the President and Chief Executive Officer, respectively, or security holder of more than five percent of the Company's outstanding common stock, or members of any of their immediate families, had direct or indirect interests in transactions or potential transactions with the Company, KSLLC or any other subsidiary of the Company. Any transactions between or among related persons are referred to our Independent Committee for review. The Independent Committee, consists of three independent directors, has the authority to approve transactions between the Company and its affiliates, including its officers and directors, and any of their respective affiliates. In determining whether to approve a related person transaction, our Independent Committee will consider such matters as it deems appropriate under the circumstances. After considering these factors, our Independent Committee will decide whether the related person transaction is in our best interests and will approve or reject the transaction accordingly.

Indemnification Agreements

The Company has entered into indemnification agreements with certain of its executive officers and directors. The indemnification agreements provide that:

the Company must indemnify its executive officers and directors to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law and advance to its executive officers and directors all expenses related to the defense of indemnifiable claims against them, subject to reimbursement if it is subsequently determined that indemnification is not permitted;

the Company must indemnify and advance all expenses incurred by executive officers and directors seeking to enforce their rights under the indemnification agreements; and

To the extent to which the Company maintains directors' and officers' liability insurance, it must provide coverage under such insurance to its executive officers and directors.

The Company's indemnification agreements with its executive officers and directors offer substantially the same scope of coverage afforded by applicable law. In addition, as contracts, these indemnification agreements provide greater assurance to its directors and executive officers that indemnification will be available because they cannot be modified unilaterally in the future by the board of directors or the stockholders to eliminate the rights that they provide.

Independent Directors

Each of Messrs. Dickey, Ingraham, Kinsella and Dr. Brennan are considered by the board of directors to be Independent Directors. An Independent Director is a director who (i) is not an employee, officer or affiliate of the Company or any of its subsidiaries or divisions, or a relative of a principal executive officer, and who is not an individual member of an organization acting as an advisor, consultant or legal counsel receiving compensation from the Company in addition to director's fees and (ii) satisfies the independence standards set forth in the current listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange. In addition, in accordance with the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines, no Independent Director may be a director, officer or affiliate of another entity with which the Company has entered into a transaction or transactions during the preceding fiscal year valued in the aggregate at greater than $100,000.

DESCRIPTION OF NOTES

We issued the private notes and will issue the exchange notes pursuant to an indenture, dated as of May 24, 2010, among Kilroy Realty, L.P., Kilroy Realty Corporation, as guarantor, and U.S. Bank National Association, as trustee. The terms of the exchange notes include those stated in the indenture and those made part of the indenture by reference to the Trust Indenture Act of 1939, as amended.

The following description is a summary of some of the provisions of the exchange notes and the indenture and does not purport to be complete. This description is subject to and is qualified by reference to all the provisions of the exchange notes and the indenture, including the definitions of certain terms used in the indenture. We urge you to read those documents because they, and not this description, define your rights as a holder of the exchange notes. You may request a copy of the indenture from us as described in Where You Can Find More Information.

As used in this Description of Notes, references to the operating partnership, we, our or us refer solely to Kilroy Realty, L.P. and not to our subsidiaries, and references to the Company or guarantor refer to Kilroy Realty Corporation and not to any of its subsidiaries. Unless the context requires otherwise, references to notes in this section means the exchange notes and references to dollars means U.S. dollars. Capitalized terms used in this section have the meaning set forth below in Definitions.

General

will be our general unsecured, senior obligations;

will mature on June 1, 2020 unless earlier redeemed;

will be issued in minimum denominations of $1,000 and multiples of $1,000 thereof;

will be represented by one or more registered notes in global form, but in certain limited circumstances may be represented by notes in certificated form. See Book-entry System ; will not be entitled to the benefits of, or be subject to, any sinking fund; will not be convertible into or exchangeable for any capital stock of us or the Company; and will be unconditionally guaranteed on a senior basis by the Company.

The notes will initially be limited to an aggregate principal amount of $250 million. We may, without the consent of the holders of the notes, increase the principal amount of the notes by issuing additional notes from time to time in the future; provided that such additional notes must be treated as part of the same issue for U.S. federal income tax purposes as the notes. Any such additional notes will have the same terms, provisions and CUSIP number as the notes, except for any difference in issue price and interest accrued prior to the issue date of those additional notes, as the case may be. The notes and any additional notes we may issue in the future will vote and act together as a single class under the indenture, which means that, in circumstances where the indenture provides for holders of the notes to vote or take any action, the notes and any additional notes that we may issue in the future will vote or take that action as a single class.

The terms of the notes provide that we are permitted to reduce interest payments and payments upon a redemption of notes otherwise payable to a holder for any amounts we are required to withhold by law. For example, non-United States holders of notes may, under some circumstances, be subject to U.S. federal withholding tax with respect to payments of interest on the notes. See Certain U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences Non-U.S. Holders. We intend to set-off any such withholding tax that we are required to pay against payments of interest payable on the notes and payments upon any redemption of notes.

Table of Contents

Except as described in Certain Covenants and Merger, Consolidation or Sale of Assets, the indenture governing the notes does not prohibit us or the Company or any of our or the Company's subsidiaries from incurring additional indebtedness or issuing preferred equity in the future, nor does the indenture afford holders of the notes protection in the event of (1) a recapitalization or other highly leveraged or similar transaction involving us or the Company, (2) a change of control of us or the Company or (3) a merger, consolidation, reorganization, restructuring or transfer or lease of substantially all of our or the Company's assets or similar transactions that may adversely affect the holders of the notes. We or the Company may, in the future, enter into certain transactions, such as the sale of all or substantially all of our or its assets or a merger or consolidation, that may increase the amount of our or its indebtedness or substantially change our or its assets, which may have a material adverse effect on our ability to service our indebtedness, including the notes. See Risk Factors Risks Related to this Offering and the Notes. The effective subordination of the exchange notes may limit our ability to satisfy our obligations under the exchange notes. Furthermore, the notes and the indenture do not include any provisions that would allow holders of the notes to require us or the Company to repurchase or redeem the notes in the event of a transaction of the nature described above.

We do not intend to list the notes on a national securities exchange or interdealer quotation system.

Interest

Interest on the notes will accrue at the rate of 6.625% per year from and including May 24, 2010 or the most recent interest payment date to which interest has been paid or provided for, and will be payable semi-annually in arrears on June 1 and December 1 of each year, beginning December 1, 2010. The interest so payable will be paid to each holder in whose name a note is registered at the close of business on the May 15 or November 15 (whether or not a business day) immediately preceding the applicable interest payment date. Interest on the notes will be computed on the basis of a 360-day year consisting of twelve 30-day months.

If we redeem the notes, we will pay accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the holder that surrenders the note for redemption. However, if a redemption date falls after a record date and on or prior to the corresponding interest payment date, we will pay the full amount of accrued and unpaid interest due on such interest payment date to the holder of record at the close of business on the corresponding record date.

Ranking

The notes will be our senior unsecured obligations and will rank equally in right of payment with all our other existing and future senior unsecured indebtedness. The notes will be effectively subordinated in right of payment to all of our existing and future mortgage indebtedness and other secured indebtedness (to the extent of the value of the collateral securing such indebtedness); and all existing and future equity not owned by us, if any, and indebtedness and other liabilities, whether secured or unsecured, of our subsidiaries.

In the event of our bankruptcy, liquidation, reorganization or other winding up, our assets that secure our secured debt will be available to pay obligations on the notes and our other unsecured obligations only after all of our indebtedness secured by those assets has been repaid in full, and we caution you that there may not be sufficient assets remaining to pay amounts due on any or all the notes then outstanding. Although the indenture will contain covenants that will limit our ability and the ability of our subsidiaries to incur secured and unsecured indebtedness, those covenants are subject to significant limitations and, in addition, we and our subsidiaries may be able to incur substantial amounts of additional secured and unsecured indebtedness without violating these covenants. See Risk Factors Risks Related to this Offering and the Notes. The effective subordination of the exchange notes may limit our ability to satisfy our obligations under the exchange notes.

As of June 30, 2010, we had $1,182.0 million aggregate principal amount of outstanding indebtedness (before the impact of $26.9 million of unamortized discounts, of which $5.5 million is attributable to our 3.25% Exchangeable Notes, $18.4 million attributable to our 4.25% Exchangeable Notes and $3.0 million is attributable to other indebtedness), of which $317.5 million was our senior secured indebtedness, and $864.5 million was our senior unsecured indebtedness. As of June 30, 2010, our subsidiaries had no outstanding indebtedness or preferred equity, exclusive of trade payables and other liabilities.

Company Guarantee

The Company will fully and unconditionally guarantee our obligations under the notes, including the due and punctual payment of principal of and premium, if any, and interest on the notes, whether at stated maturity, by declaration of acceleration, call for redemption or otherwise. The guarantee will be a senior unsecured obligation of the Company and will rank equally in right of payment with all other existing and future senior unsecured indebtedness, guarantees and other obligations of the Company. The Company's guarantee will be effectively subordinated in right of payment to

all existing and future equity not owned by the Company of the Company's consolidated subsidiaries (including the operating partnership) and of any subsidiary or other entity the Company accounts for using the equity method of accounting; and all existing and future unsecured and secured indebtedness and other liabilities of the Company's consolidated subsidiaries (including the operating partnership and of any subsidiary or other entity the Company accounts for using the equity method of accounting.

Under the terms of the full and unconditional guarantee, holders of the notes will not be required to exercise their remedies against us before they proceed directly against the Company. The Company has no significant operations, other than as general partner of the operating partnership, and no material assets, other than its investment in us. See Risk Factors Risks Related to this Offering and the Notes The Company has no significant operations, other than as the operating partnership's general partner, and no material assets, other than its investment in the operating partnership. As of June 30, 2010, the Company did not have any outstanding debt.

Redemption of the Notes at the Option of the Operating Partnership

The notes will be redeemable, at any time in whole or from time to time in part, at the option of the operating partnership, at a redemption price equal to the greater of (i) 100% of the principal amount of the notes to be redeemed and (ii) the sum of the present values of the remaining scheduled payments of principal and interest on the notes to be redeemed (exclusive of interest accrued to the applicable redemption date) discounted to such redemption date on a semiannual basis (assuming a 360-day year consisting of twelve 30-day months) at the Treasury Rate plus 50 basis points, plus in each case accrued and unpaid interest on the principal amount of the notes being redeemed to such redemption date; provided, however, that if the redemption date falls after a record date for the payment of interest and on or prior to the corresponding interest payment date, we will pay the full amount of accrued and unpaid interest due on such interest payment date to the holders of record at the close of business on the corresponding record date according to the terms and the provisions of the indenture. Written notice of redemption must be delivered to holders of the notes not less than 30 nor more than 60 days prior to the redemption date.

If we redeem the notes in part, the trustee will select the notes to be redeemed (in principal amounts of $1,000 and integral multiples thereof) on a pro rata basis or by such other method it deems fair and appropriate or is required by the depository for notes in global form.

In the event of any redemption of notes in part, we will not be required to:

register the transfer or exchange of any note during a period beginning at the opening of business 15 days before any selection of notes for redemption and ending at the close of business on the earliest date on which the relevant notice of redemption is deemed to have been given to all holders of notes to be so redeemed; or register the transfer or exchange of any note so selected for redemption, in whole or in part, except the unredeemed portion of any note being redeemed in part.

If the paying agent holds funds sufficient to pay the redemption price of the notes called for redemption on the redemption date, then on and after the redemption date:

the notes will cease to be outstanding; interest on the notes will cease to accrue; and all rights of holders of the notes will terminate except the right to receive the redemption price plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any.

We will not redeem the notes on any date if the principal amount of the notes has been accelerated, and the acceleration has not been rescinded or cured on or prior to the redemption date.

Treasury Rate means, with respect to any redemption date, the rate per annum equal to the semi-annual equivalent yield to maturity of the Comparable Treasury Issue, calculated by the operating partnership using a price for the Comparable Treasury Issue (expressed as a percentage of its principal amount) equal to the Comparable Treasury Price for such redemption date. The Comparable Treasury Rate shall be calculated on the third business day preceding the applicable redemption date.

Comparable Treasury Issue means the United States Treasury security selected by the Independent Investment Banker as having a maturity comparable to the remaining term of the notes to be redeemed that would be utilized, at the time of selection and in accordance with customary financial practice, in pricing new issues of corporate debt securities of comparable maturity to the remaining term of the notes.

Independent Investment Banker means J.P. Morgan Securities Inc. and its successors, Banc of America Securities LLC and its successors, or Barclays Capital Inc. and its successors (whichever shall be appointed by the operating partnership in respect of the applicable redemption date) or, if all such firms or the respective successors, if any, to such firms, as the case may be, are unwilling or unable to select the Comparable Treasury Issue, an independent investment banking institution of national standing appointed by the operating partnership.

Comparable Treasury Price means, with respect to any redemption date, (i) the average (as calculated by the operating partnership) of the remaining Reference Treasury Dealer Quotations for such redemption date after excluding the highest and lowest such Reference Treasury Dealer Quotations from the four selected, (ii) if fewer than four but more than one such Reference Treasury Dealer Quotations are obtained, the average (as calculated by the operating partnership) of all such quotations, or (iii) if only one such Reference Treasury Dealer Quotation is obtained, such Reference Treasury Dealer Quotation.

Reference Treasury Dealer means J.P. Morgan Securities Inc., Banc of America Securities LLC and Barclays Capital Inc. (or their respective affiliates which are Primary Treasury Dealers (as defined below)) and their respective successors; provided, however, that if any such firm (or, if applicable, any such affiliate) or any such successor, as the case may be, shall cease to be a primary U.S. Government securities dealer in New York City (a Primary Treasury Dealer), the operating partnership will substitute therefor another Primary Treasury Dealer, and one other Primary Treasury Dealer selected by the operating partnership.

Reference Treasury Dealer Quotations means, with respect to each Reference Treasury Dealer and any redemption date, the average (as calculated by the operating partnership) of the bid and asked prices for the Comparable Treasury Issue (expressed in each case as a percentage of its principal amount) quoted in writing to the operating partnership by such Reference Treasury Dealer at 5:00 p.m., New York time, on the third business day preceding such redemption date.

Certain Covenants

The indenture will contain the following covenants for the benefit of holders of the notes:

Table of Contents

Aggregate Debt Test. The operating partnership will not, and will not permit any of its Subsidiaries to, incur any Debt (including without limitation Acquired Debt) if, immediately after giving effect to the incurrence of such Debt and the application of the proceeds from such Debt on a pro forma basis, the aggregate principal amount of all outstanding Debt of the operating partnership and its Subsidiaries (determined on a consolidated basis in accordance with United States generally accepted accounting principles) is greater than 60% of the sum of the following (without duplication):

the Total Assets of the operating partnership and its Subsidiaries as of the last day of the then most recently ended fiscal quarter; and the aggregate purchase price of any real estate assets or mortgages receivable acquired, and the aggregate amount of any securities offering proceeds received (to the extent such proceeds were not used to acquire real estate assets or mortgages receivable or used to reduce Debt), by the operating partnership or any of its Subsidiaries since the end of such fiscal quarter, including the proceeds obtained from the incurrence of such additional Debt.

For purposes of the foregoing, Debt will be deemed to be incurred by the operating partnership or any of its Subsidiaries whenever the operating partnership or such Subsidiary shall create, assume, guarantee or otherwise become liable in respect thereof.

Debt Service Test. The operating partnership will not, and will not permit any of its Subsidiaries to, incur any Debt (including without limitation Acquired Debt) if the ratio of Consolidated Income Available for Debt Service to Annual Debt Service Charge for the period consisting of the four consecutive fiscal quarters most recently ended prior to the date on which such additional Debt is to be incurred shall have been less than 1.5:1 on a pro forma basis after giving effect to the incurrence of such Debt and the application of the proceeds from such Debt (determined on a consolidated basis in accordance with United States generally accepted accounting principles), and calculated on the following assumptions:

such Debt and any other Debt (including without limitation Acquired Debt) incurred by the operating partnership or any of its Subsidiaries since the first day of such four-quarter period had been incurred, and the application of the proceeds from such Debt (including to repay or retire other Debt) had occurred, on the first day of such period;

the repayment or retirement of any other Debt of the operating partnership or any of its Subsidiaries since the first day of such four-quarter period had occurred on the first day of such period (except that, in making this computation, the amount of Debt under any revolving credit facility, line of credit or similar facility will be computed based upon the average daily balance of such Debt during such period); and in the case of any acquisition or disposition by the operating partnership or any of its Subsidiaries of any asset or group of assets with a fair market value in excess of $1.0 million since the first day of such four-quarter period, whether by merger, stock purchase or sale or asset purchase or sale or otherwise, such acquisition or disposition had occurred as of the first day of such period with the appropriate adjustments with respect to such acquisition or disposition being included in such pro forma calculation.

If the Debt giving rise to the need to make the calculation described above or any other Debt incurred after the first day of the relevant four-quarter period bears interest at a floating rate, then, for purposes of calculating the Annual Debt Service Charge, the interest rate on such Debt will be computed on a pro forma basis by applying the average daily rate which would have been in effect during the entire four-quarter period to the greater of the amount of such Debt outstanding at the end of such period or the average amount of such Debt outstanding during such period. For purposes of the foregoing, Debt will be deemed to be incurred by the operating partnership or any of its Subsidiaries whenever the operating partnership or such Subsidiary shall create, assume, guarantee or otherwise become liable in respect thereof.

Table of Contents

Secured Debt Test. The operating partnership will not, and will not permit any of its Subsidiaries to, incur any Debt (including without limitation Acquired Debt) secured by any Lien on any property or assets of the operating partnership or any of its Subsidiaries, whether owned on the date of the indenture or subsequently acquired, if, immediately after giving effect to the incurrence of such Debt and the application of the proceeds from such Debt on a pro forma basis, the aggregate principal amount (determined on a consolidated basis in accordance with United States generally accepted accounting principles) of all outstanding Debt of the operating partnership and its Subsidiaries which is secured by a Lien on any property or assets of the operating partnership or any of its Subsidiaries is greater than 40% of the sum of (without duplication):

the Total Assets of the operating partnership and its Subsidiaries as of the last day of the then most recently ended fiscal quarter; and

the aggregate purchase price of any real estate assets or mortgages receivable acquired, and the aggregate amount of any securities offering proceeds received (to the extent such proceeds were not used to acquire real estate assets or mortgages receivable or used to reduce Debt), by the operating partnership or any of its Subsidiaries since the end of such fiscal quarter, including the proceeds obtained from the incurrence of such additional Debt.

For purposes of the foregoing, Debt will be deemed to be incurred by the operating partnership or any of its Subsidiaries whenever the operating partnership or such Subsidiary shall create, assume, guarantee or otherwise become liable in respect thereof.

Maintenance of Total Unencumbered Assets. The operating partnership will not have at any time Total Unencumbered Assets of less than 150% of the aggregate principal amount of all outstanding Unsecured Debt of the operating partnership and its Subsidiaries determined on a consolidated basis in accordance with United States generally accepted accounting principles.

Existence. Except as permitted in Merger, Consolidation or Sale of Assets, the operating partnership will do or cause to be done all things necessary to preserve and keep in full force and effect its existence, rights (charter and statutory) and franchises, and the Company will do or cause to be done all things necessary to preserve and keep in full force and effect its existence, rights (charter and statutory) and franchises. However, neither the operating partnership nor the Company will be required to preserve any right or franchise if the board of directors of the Company (or any duly authorized committee of that board of directors) determines that the preservation of the right or franchise is no longer desirable in the conduct of the business of the operating partnership or the Company, as the case may be.

Maintenance of Properties. The operating partnership will cause all of its properties used or useful in the conduct of its business or the business of any Subsidiary of the operating partnership to be maintained and kept in good condition, repair and working order and supplied with all necessary equipment and cause all necessary repairs, renewals, replacements, betterments and improvements to be made, all as in the judgment of the operating partnership may be necessary in order for the operating partnership to at all times properly and advantageously conduct its business carried on in connection with such properties.

Insurance. The operating partnership will, and will cause each of its Subsidiaries to, keep in force upon all of its properties and operations insurance policies carried with responsible companies in such amounts and covering all such risks as is customary in the industry in which the operating partnership and its Subsidiaries do business in accordance with prevailing market conditions and availability.

Payment of Taxes and Other Claims. Each of the Company and the operating partnership will pay or discharge or cause to be paid or discharged before it becomes delinquent:

all taxes, assessments and governmental charges levied or imposed on it or any of its Subsidiaries or on its or any such Subsidiary's income, profits or property; and all lawful claims for labor, materials and supplies that, if unpaid, might by law become a Lien upon its property or the property of any of its Subsidiaries.

Table of Contents

However, neither the Company nor the operating partnership will be required to pay or discharge or cause to be paid or discharged any tax, assessment, charge or claim the amount, applicability or validity of which is being contested in good faith by appropriate proceedings.

Provision of Financial Information. The operating partnership will:

file with the trustee, within 15 days after the operating partnership or the Company is required to file them with the SEC, copies of the annual reports and information, documents and other reports which the operating partnership or the Company may be required to file with the SEC pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act; or, if the operating partnership or the Company is not required to file information, documents or reports pursuant to those Sections, then the operating partnership will file with the trustee and the SEC, in accordance with rules and regulations prescribed from time to time by the SEC, such of the supplementary and periodic information, documents and reports which Section 13 of the Exchange Act may require with respect to a security listed and registered on a national securities exchange;

file with the trustee and the SEC, in accordance with the rules and regulations prescribed from time to time by the SEC, any additional information, documents and reports with respect to compliance by the operating partnership and the Company with the conditions and covenants of the indenture as such rules and regulations may require from time to time; and transmit to the holders of the notes, within 30 days after filing with the trustee, in the manner and to the extent provided in the Trust Indenture Act of 1939, as amended, such summaries of any information, documents and reports required to be filed by the operating partnership or the Company pursuant to the bullet points above as the rules and regulations prescribed from time to time by the SEC may require.

Merger, Consolidation or Sale of Assets

We and the Company may consolidate with, or sell, lease or convey all or substantially all of our or their, as the case may be, respective assets to, or merge with or into, any other entity, provided that the following conditions are met:

we or the Company, as the case may be, shall be the continuing entity, or the successor entity (if other than us or the Company, as the case may be) formed by or resulting from any consolidation or merger or which shall have received the transfer of assets shall be organized and existing under the laws of the United States, any state thereof or the District of Columbia and shall expressly assume payment of the principal of and premium, if any, and interest on all of the notes and the due and punctual performance and observance of all of the covenants and conditions in the indenture and in the notes or the guarantees endorsed on the notes, as the case may be;

immediately after giving effect to the transaction, no Event of Default under the indenture, and no event which, after notice or the lapse of time, or both, would become an Event of Default, shall have occurred and be continuing; and an officer's certificate and legal opinion covering these conditions shall be delivered to the trustee.

Upon any such merger, consolidation or conveyance, the resulting, surviving or transferee person shall succeed to, and may exercise every right and power of, us or the Company, as the case may be, under the indenture.

Rule 144A Information

If so required by Rule 144A under the Securities Act, we and the Company will promptly furnish to the holders, beneficial owners and prospective purchasers of the notes, upon their request, the information required to be delivered pursuant to Rule 144A(d)(4) under the Securities Act.

Table of Contents

Events of Default

The indenture provides that the following events are Events of Default under the notes:

default in the payment of any interest (including, without limitation, additional interest, if any, as described in The Exchange Offer Shelf Registration) on the notes when such interest becomes due and payable that continues for a period of 30 days;

default in the payment of any principal of or premium, if any, on the notes, or any redemption price due with respect to the notes, when due and payable;

failure by us or the Company to comply with our obligations in Merger, Consolidation or Sale of Assets ; default in the performance, or breach, of any of our or the Company's other covenants or warranties in the indenture and continuance of such default or breach for a period of 60 days after written notice as provided in the indenture;

default under any bond, debenture, note, mortgage, indenture or instrument under which there may be issued or by which there may be secured or evidenced any indebtedness for money borrowed by the Company or us or by any Subsidiary of us or the Company, the repayment of which the Company or we have guaranteed or for which the Company or we are directly responsible or liable as obligor or guarantor, having an aggregate principal amount outstanding of at least $35 million, whether such indebtedness exists as of the date of the indenture or shall thereafter be created, which default shall have resulted in such indebtedness becoming or being declared due and payable prior to the date on which it would otherwise have become due and payable, without such indebtedness having been discharged, or such acceleration having been rescinded or annulled, within the period specified in such instrument;

a final judgment for the payment of $35 million or more (excluding any amounts covered by insurance) rendered against us, the Company or any of our or the Company's respective Subsidiaries, which judgment is not discharged or stayed within 60 days after (1) the date on which the right to appeal thereof has expired if no such appeal has commenced, or (2) the date on which all rights to appeal have been extinguished; or certain events of bankruptcy, insolvency or reorganization involving, or court appointment of a receiver, liquidator or trustee for, us, the Company or any Significant Subsidiary of ours or the Company.

If an Event of Default occurs and is continuing (other than an Event of Default specified in the last bullet above, which shall result in an automatic acceleration), then in every case the trustee or the holders of not less than 25% in principal amount of the outstanding notes may declare the principal amount of, and accrued and unpaid interest on, all of the notes to be due and payable immediately by written notice thereof to us and the Company (and to the trustee if given by the holders). However, at any time after the declaration of acceleration with respect to the notes has been made, but before a judgment or decree for payment of the money due has been obtained by the trustee, the holders of not less than a majority in principal amount of the notes outstanding may rescind and annul the declaration and its consequences if:

we or the Company shall have deposited with the trustee all required payments of the principal of and premium, if any, and interest on the notes, plus certain fees, expenses, disbursements and advances of the trustee; and all Events of Default, other than the non-payment of accelerated principal of or interest on the notes, have been cured or waived as provided in the indenture.

Edgar Filing: KILROY REALTY CORP - Form 424B3

The indenture also will provide that the holders of not less than a majority in principal amount of the outstanding notes may waive any past default with respect to the notes and its consequences, except a default:

in the payment of the principal of or premium, if any, or interest on the notes; or in respect of a covenant or provision contained in the indenture that cannot be modified or amended without the consent of the holder of each outstanding note affected thereby.

The trustee will be required to give notice to the holders of the notes within 90 days of a default under the indenture unless the default has been cured or waived; provided, however, that the trustee may withhold notice to the holders of the notes of any default with respect to the notes (except a default in the payment of the principal of or premium, if any or interest on the notes) if specified responsible officers of the trustee consider the withholding to be in the interest of the holders.

The indenture will provide that no holders of the notes may institute any proceedings, judicial or otherwise, with respect to the indenture or for any remedy thereunder, except in the case of failure of the trustee, for 60 days, to act after it has received a written request to institute proceedings in respect of an Event of Default from the holders of not less than 25% in principal amount of the outstanding notes, as well as an offer of reasonable indemnity and no direction inconsistent with that request has been given to the trustee by holders of the majority in aggregate principal amount of the outstanding notes. This provision will not prevent, however, any holder of the notes from instituting suit for the enforcement of payment of the principal of or premium if any, or interest on the notes on or after the respective due dates thereof.

Subject to provisions in the indenture relating to its duties in case of default, the trustee will be under no obligation to exercise any of its rights or powers under the indenture at the request or direction of any holders of the notes then outstanding under the indenture, unless the holders shall have offered to the trustee reasonable security or indemnity. The holders of not less than a majority in principal amount of the outstanding private notes shall have the right to direct the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the trustee, or of exercising any trust or power conferred upon the trustee. However, the trustee may refuse to follow any direction which is in conflict with any law or the indenture or which may involve the trustee in personal liability or be unduly prejudicial to the holders of the notes not joining therein.

Within 120 days after the close of each fiscal year, we and the Company must deliver a certificate of an officer certifying to the trustee whether or not the officer has knowledge of any default under the indenture and, if so, specifying each default and the nature and status thereof.

Modification, Waiver and Meetings

Modifications and amendments of the indenture will be permitted to be made pursuant to a supplemental indenture entered into by us, the Company and the trustee with the consent of the holders of not less than a majority in principal amount of all outstanding notes; provided, however, that no modification or amendment may, without the consent of the holder of each note affected thereby:

change the stated maturity of the principal of or premium, if any, or any installment of interest on the notes or reduce the principal amount of or premium, if any, or the rate or amount of interest on the notes;

change the place of payment, or the coin or currency, for payment of principal of or premium, if any, or interest on any note or impair the right to institute suit for the enforcement of any payment on or with respect to the notes;

reduce the above-stated percentage of outstanding notes necessary to modify or amend the indenture, to waive compliance with certain provisions thereof or certain defaults and consequences thereunder or to reduce the quorum or change voting requirements set forth in the indenture;

modify or affect in any manner adverse to the holders of the notes the terms and conditions of the obligations of the Company in respect of the payment of principal, premium and interest; or modify any of the foregoing provisions or any of the provisions relating to the waiver of certain past defaults or certain covenants, except to increase the required percentage to effect the action or to provide that certain other provisions may not be modified or waived without the consent of the holders of the notes.

Table of Contents

Notwithstanding the foregoing, modifications and amendments of the indenture will be permitted to be made by supplemental indenture executed by us, the Company and the trustee without the consent of any holder of the notes for, among other things, any of the following purposes:

to evidence a successor to us as obligor or the Company as guarantor under the indenture;

to add to the covenants of us or the Company for the benefit of the holders of the notes or to surrender any right or power conferred upon us or the Company in the indenture;

to add Events of Default for the benefit of the holders of the notes; to amend or supplement any provisions of the indenture, provided that no amendment or supplement shall adversely affect the interests of the holders of any notes in any respect;

to secure the notes;

to add guarantors for the benefit of the notes;

to provide for the acceptance of appointment by a successor trustee or facilitate the administration of the trusts under the indenture by more than one trustee;

to cure any ambiguity, defect or inconsistency in the indenture; provided that this action shall not adversely affect the interests of holders of the notes in any respect; to comply with any applicable provisions of the Trust Indenture Act of 1939;

to supplement any of the provisions of the indenture to the extent necessary to permit or facilitate satisfaction and discharge, legal defeasance or covenant defeasance of the notes as described below in Discharge, Defeasance and Covenant Defeasance ; provided that the action shall not adversely affect the interests of the holders of the notes in any respect; or to conform the provisions of the indenture, the notes, the guarantee or the registration rights agreement to this Description of Notes. In determining whether the holders of the requisite principal amount of outstanding notes have given any request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent or waiver thereunder or whether a quorum is present at a meeting of holders of notes, the indenture will provide that notes owned by us, the Company or any other obligor upon the notes or any affiliate of us, the Company, or of the other obligor shall be disregarded.

The indenture will contain provisions for convening meetings of the holders of notes. A meeting will be permitted to be called at any time by the trustee, and also, upon request, by us, the Company or the holders of at least 25% in principal amount of the outstanding notes, in any case upon notice given as provided in the indenture. Except for any consent that must be given by the holder of each note affected by certain modifications and amendments of the indenture, any resolution presented at a meeting or adjourned meeting duly reconvened at which a quorum is present will be permitted to be adopted by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority in principal amount of the outstanding notes; provided, however, that, except as referred to above, any resolution with respect to any request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver or other action that may be made, given or taken by the holders of a specified percentage, which is less than a majority, in principal amount of the outstanding notes may be adopted at a meeting or adjourned meeting duly reconvened at which a quorum is present by the affirmative vote of the holders of the specified percentage in principal amount of the outstanding notes. Any resolution passed or decision taken at any meeting of holders of notes duly held in accordance with the indenture will be binding on all holders of the notes. The quorum at any meeting called to adopt a resolution, and at any reconvened meeting, will be holders holding or representing a majority in principal amount of the outstanding notes; provided, however, that if any action is to be taken at the meeting with respect to a request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver or other action which may be given by the holders of not less than a specified percentage, which is less than a majority, in principal amount of the outstanding notes, holders holding or representing the specified percentage in principal amount of the outstanding notes will constitute a quorum with respect to that matter.

Table of Contents

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, if any action is to be taken at a meeting of holders of notes with respect to any request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver or other action that the indenture expressly provides may be taken by holders of a specified percentage in principal amount of all outstanding notes affected thereby, there shall be no minimum quorum requirement for that meeting and the principal amount of outstanding notes that vote in favor of that request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver or other action shall be taken into account in determining whether it has been made, given or taken under the indenture.

Discharge, Defeasance and Covenant Defeasance

Upon the direction of the operating partnership, the indenture shall cease to be of further effect and the Company shall be released from its guarantee of the notes (subject to the survival of specified provisions) when:

- (1) either (A) all outstanding notes have been delivered to the trustee for cancellation (subject to specified exceptions) or (B) all outstanding notes have become due and payable or will become due and payable at their maturity date within one year or are to be called for redemption on a redemption date within one year and the operating partnership has deposited with the trustee, in trust, funds in an amount sufficient to pay the entire indebtedness on the notes in respect of principal, premium, if any, and interest, to the date of such deposit (if the notes have become due and payable) or to the maturity date or redemption date, as the case may be;
- (2) the operating partnership has paid all other sums payable under the indenture with respect to the notes; and
- (3) certain other conditions are met.

The indenture provides that the operating partnership may elect:

to be discharged from any and all obligations in respect of the notes (subject to the survival of specified provisions) (legal defeasance); or to be released from compliance with the covenants described in Certain Covenants (other than the covenant of the operating partnership and the Company to do or cause to be done all things necessary to preserve and keep in full force and effect their respective existence (except as permitted in Merger, Consolidation or Sale of Assets) and the provisions described in Certain Covenants Provision of Financial Information) (covenant defeasance).

To effect legal defeasance or covenant defeasance, the operating partnership will be required to make an irrevocable deposit with the trustee, in trust for such purpose, of money and/or Government Obligations (as defined below) that, through the scheduled payment of interest and principal in accordance with their terms, will provide money in an amount sufficient to pay and discharge the principal, premium, if any, and interest on the notes on the scheduled due dates or the applicable redemption date, as the case may be, in accordance with the terms of the indenture and the notes. Upon any legal defeasance (but not covenant defeasance) the Company will be released from its guarantee of the notes.

The trust described in the preceding paragraph may only be established if, among other things:

the operating partnership has delivered to the trustee a legal opinion of outside counsel reasonably acceptable to the trustee to the effect that the holders of the notes will not recognize income, gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a result of such legal defeasance or covenant defeasance and will be subject to U.S. federal income tax on the same amounts, in the same manner and at the same times as would have been the case if such legal defeasance or covenant defeasance had not occurred, and such legal opinion, in the case of legal defeasance, must refer to and be based upon a ruling of the Internal Revenue Service or a change in applicable U.S federal income tax law occurring after the date of the indenture;

if the cash and Government Obligations deposited are sufficient to pay the principal of, and premium, if any, and interest on the notes, provided such notes are redeemed on a particular redemption date, the operating partnership shall have given the trustee irrevocable instructions to redeem the notes on the date and to provide notice of the redemption to the holders of the notes;

such legal defeasance or covenant defeasance will not result in a breach or violation of, or constitute a default under, the indenture or any other material agreement or instrument to which the operating partnership or the Company is a party or by which either of them is bound; and no Event of Default or event which with notice or lapse of time or both would become an Event of Default with respect to the notes shall have occurred and shall be continuing on the date of, or, solely in the case of events of default due to certain events of bankruptcy, insolvency, or reorganization, during the period ending on the 91st day after the date of, such deposit into trust.

In the event we effect covenant defeasance with respect to the notes, then any failure by us or the Company to comply with any covenant as to which there has been covenant defeasance will not constitute an Event of Default. However, if the notes are declared due and payable because of the occurrence of any other Event of Default, the amount of monies and/or Government Obligations deposited with the trustee to effect such covenant defeasance may not be sufficient to pay amounts due on the notes at the time of any acceleration resulting from such Event of Default. However, we and the Company would remain liable to make payment of such amounts due at the time of acceleration.

Trustee

U.S. Bank National Association will initially act as the trustee, registrar and paying agent for the notes, subject to replacement at our option.

If the trustee becomes one of our creditors, it will be subject to limitations on its rights to obtain payment of claims or to realize on some property received for any such claim, as security or otherwise. The trustee is permitted to engage in other transactions with us. If, however, it acquires any conflicting interest, it must eliminate that conflict or resign.

Payments on the Notes; Paying Agent and Registrar; Transfer

We will pay principal of and premium, if any, on certificated notes, if issued, at the office or agency designated by us for that purpose. We have initially designated the trustee as our paying agent and registrar and its agency in New York, New York as a place where notes may be presented for payment or for registration of transfer. We may, however, change the paying agent or registrar without prior notice to the holders of the notes, and we or the Company may act as paying agent or registrar. Interest on certificated notes, if issued, will be payable (1) to holders having an aggregate principal amount of $5.0 million or less, by check mailed to the holders of these notes and (2) to holders having an aggregate principal amount of more than $5.0 million, either by check mailed to each holder or, upon application by a holder to the registrar not later than the relevant record date, by wire transfer in immediately available funds to that holder's account within the United States, which application shall remain in effect until the holder notifies, in writing, the registrar to the contrary.

We will pay principal of and premium, if any, and interest on notes in global form registered in the name of or held by DTC or its nominee in immediately available funds to DTC or its nominee, as the case may be, as the registered holder of such global notes.

If any interest payment date, stated maturity date or redemption date is not a business day, the payment otherwise required to be made on such date will be made on the next business day without any additional payment as a result of such delay. All payments will be made in United States dollars.

Table of Contents

A holder of notes may transfer or exchange notes at the office of the registrar in accordance with the indenture. The registrar and the trustee may require a holder, among other things, to furnish appropriate endorsements and transfer documents, including opinions of counsel. No service charge will be imposed by us, the Company, the trustee or the registrar for any registration of transfer or exchange of notes, but we may require a holder to pay a sum sufficient to cover any transfer tax or other similar governmental charge required by law or permitted by the indenture.

The registered holder of a note will be treated as the owner of the note for all purposes.

No Personal Liability of Directors, Officers, Employees and Stockholders

No director, officer, employee, incorporator, stockholder or partner of us or the Company, as such, will have any liability for any obligations of us or the Company under the notes, the indenture, any guarantees, the registration rights agreement or for any claim based on, in respect of, or by reason of, such obligations or their creation. Each holder of notes by accepting a note waives and releases all such liability. The waiver and release are part of the consideration for issuance of the notes. The waiver may not be effective to waive liabilities under the federal securities laws.

Notices

Except as otherwise provided in the indenture, notices to holders of the notes will be given by mail to the addresses of holders of the notes as they appear in the note register; provided that notices given to holders holding notes in book entry form may be given through the facilities of DTC or any successor depository.

Governing Law

Book-entry System

The Global Notes

The notes will be initially issued in the form of one or more registered notes in global form, without interest coupons, or the global notes. Upon issuance, each of the global notes will be deposited with the trustee as custodian for DTC, and registered in the name of Cede & Co., as nominee of DTC.

Ownership of beneficial interests in a global note will be limited to persons who have accounts with DTC, or DTC participants, or persons who hold interests through DTC participants. We expect that under procedures established by DTC:

upon deposit of a global note with DTC's custodian, DTC will credit portions of the principal amount of the global note to the accounts of the DTC participants; and ownership of beneficial interests in a global note will be shown on, and transfer of ownership of those interests will be effected only through, records maintained by DTC (with respect to interests of DTC participants) and the records of DTC participants (with respect to other owners of beneficial interests in the global note).

Beneficial interests in global notes may not be exchanged for notes in physical, certificated form except in the limited circumstances described below.

Book-entry Procedures for the Global Notes

All interests in the global notes will be subject to the operations and procedures of DTC. We provide the following summary of those operations and procedures solely for the convenience of investors. The operations and procedures of DTC are controlled by that settlement system and may be changed at any time. None of us or the Company are responsible for those operations or procedures.

DTC has advised us that it is a limited purpose trust company organized under the laws of the State of New York;

a banking organization within the meaning of the New York State Banking Law;

a member of the Federal Reserve System;

a clearing corporation within the meaning of the Uniform Commercial Code; and a clearing agency registered under Section 17A of the Exchange Act.

DTC was created to hold securities for its participants and to facilitate the clearance and settlement of securities transactions between its participants through electronic book-entry changes to the accounts of its participants. DTC's participants include securities brokers and dealers; banks and trust companies; clearing corporations and other organizations. Indirect access to DTC's system is also available to others such as banks, brokers, dealers and trust companies; these indirect participants clear through or maintain a custodial relationship with a DTC participant, either directly or indirectly. Investors who are not DTC participants may beneficially own securities held by or on behalf of DTC only through DTC participants or indirect participants in DTC.

So long as DTC's nominee is the registered owner of a global note, that nominee will be considered the sole owner or holder of the notes represented by that global note for all purposes under the indenture. Except as provided below, owners of beneficial interests in a global note:

will not be entitled to have notes represented by the global note registered in their names;

will not receive or be entitled to receive physical, certificated notes; and will not be considered the owners or holders of the notes under the indenture for any purpose, including with respect to the giving of any direction, instruction or approval to the trustee under the indenture.

As a result, each investor who owns a beneficial interest in a global note must rely on the procedures of DTC to exercise any rights of a holder of notes under the indenture (and, if the investor is not a participant or an indirect participant in DTC, on the procedures of the DTC participant through which the investor owns its interest).

Payments of principal, premium, if any, and interest (including additional interest, if any) with respect to the notes represented by a global note will be made by the trustee to DTC or DTC's nominee as the registered holder of the global note. Neither we, the Company nor the trustee will have any responsibility or liability for the payment of amounts to owners of beneficial interests in a global note, for any aspect of the records relating to or payments made on account of those interests by DTC, or for maintaining, supervising or reviewing any records of DTC relating to those interests.

Payments by participants and indirect participants in DTC to the owners of beneficial interests in a global note will be governed by standing instructions and customary industry practice and will be the responsibility of those participants or indirect participants and DTC.

Transfers between participants in DTC will be effected under DTC's procedures and will be settled in same-day funds.

Certificated Notes

Notes in physical, certificated form will be issued and delivered to each person that DTC identifies as a beneficial owner of the related notes only if:

DTC notifies us at any time that it is unwilling or unable to continue as depository for the global notes and a successor depository is not appointed within 90 days;

DTC ceases to be registered as a clearing agency under the Exchange Act and a successor depository is not appointed within 90 days;

an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing under the indenture with respect to the notes; or we, at our option, notify the trustee that we elect to cause the issuance of certificated notes, subject to DTC's procedures.

DESCRIPTION OF THE PARTNERSHIP AGREEMENT OF KILROY REALTY, L.P.

We have summarized certain terms and provisions of the Fifth Amended and Restated Agreement of Limited Partnership of the operating partnership, as amended, which we refer to as the partnership agreement. This summary is not complete. For more detail, you should refer to the partnership agreement itself, which we have previously filed with the SEC and which is incorporated herein by reference.

Management of the Partnership

The operating partnership is a Delaware limited partnership. The Company is the sole general partner of the operating partnership and conducts substantially all of its business through it.

As the sole general partner of the operating partnership, the Company exercises exclusive and complete discretion in its day-to-day management and control. The Company can cause the operating partnership to enter into certain major transactions including acquisitions, dispositions and refinancings and cause changes in its line of business, capital structure and distribution policies. The operating partnership has both preferred limited partnership interests and common limited partnership interests. As of June 30, 2010, the operating partnership had issued and outstanding 1,500,000 Series A Preferred Units, 1,610,000 Series E Preferred Units, 3,450,000 Series F Preferred Units and 1,723,131 common units.

We refer collectively to the Series A Preferred Units, Series E Preferred Units, Series F Preferred Units and the common units as the units. Limited partners may not transact business for, or participate in the management activities or decisions of, the operating partnership, except as provided in the partnership agreement and as required by applicable law.

Indemnification of Our Officers and Directors

To the extent permitted by applicable law, the partnership agreement provides indemnity to the Company, as general partner, and its officers and directors and any other persons the Company may designate. Similarly, the partnership agreement limits the Company's liability, as well as that of its officers and directors, to the operating partnership.

Transferability of Partnership Interests

Generally, the Company may not voluntarily withdraw from or transfer or assign its interest in the operating partnership without the consent of the holders of at least 60% of the common partnership interests including the Company's interests. The limited partners may, without the consent of the general partner, transfer, assign, sell, encumber or otherwise dispose of their interest in the operating partnership to family members, affiliates (as defined under federal securities laws) and charitable organizations and as collateral in connection with certain lending transactions, and, with the consent of the general partner, may also transfer, assign or sell their partnership interest to accredited investors. In each case, the transferee must agree to assume the transferor's obligations under the partnership agreement. This transfer is also subject to the Company's right of first refusal to purchase the limited partner's units for our benefit.

In addition, without the Company's consent, limited partners may not transfer their units:

to any person who lacks the legal capacity to own the units;

in violation of applicable law;

where the transfer is for only a portion of the rights represented by the units, such as the partner's capital account or right to distributions;

if we believe the transfer would cause the termination of the operating partnership or would cause it to no longer be classified as a partnership for federal or state income tax purposes;

Table of Contents

if the transfer would cause the operating partnership to become a party-in-interest within the meaning of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended, or ERISA, or would cause its assets to constitute assets of an employee benefit plan under applicable regulations;

if the transfer would require registration under applicable federal or state securities laws;

if the transfer could cause the operating partnership to become a publicly traded partnership under applicable Treasury regulations;

if the transfer could cause the operating partnership to be regulated under the Investment Company Act of 1940 or ERISA; or if the transfer would adversely affect the Company's ability to maintain its qualification as a REIT.

The Company may not engage in any termination transaction without the approval of at least 60% of the common units in the operating partnership, including the Company's general partnership interest in the operating partnership. Examples of termination transactions include:

a merger;

a consolidation or other combination with or into another entity;

a sale of all or substantially all of our assets; or a reclassification, recapitalization or change of our outstanding equity interests.

In connection with a termination transaction, all common limited partners must either receive, or have the right to elect to receive, for each common unit an amount of cash, securities or other property equal to the product of:

the number of shares of Company common stock into which each common unit is then exchangeable; and the greatest amount of cash, securities or other property paid to the holder of one share of Company common stock in consideration for one share of common stock pursuant to the termination transaction.

If, in connection with a termination transaction, a purchase, tender or exchange offer is made to holders of Company common stock, and the common stockholders accept this purchase, tender or exchange offer, each holder of common units must either receive, or must have the right to elect to receive, the greatest amount of cash, securities or other property which that holder would have received if immediately prior to the purchase, tender or exchange offer it had exercised its right to redemption, received shares of Company common stock in exchange for its common units, and accepted the purchase, tender or exchange offer.

The operating partnership also may merge or otherwise combine our assets with another entity with the approval of at least 60% of the common units if:

substantially all of the assets directly or indirectly owned by the surviving entity are held directly or indirectly by the operating partnership as the surviving partnership or another limited partnership or limited liability company is the surviving partnership of a merger, consolidation or combination of assets with the operating partnership;

the common limited partners own a percentage interest of the surviving partnership based on the relative fair market value of the net assets of the operating partnership and the other net assets of the surviving partnership immediately prior to the consummation of this transaction;

the rights, preferences and privileges of the common limited partners in the surviving partnership are at least as favorable as those in effect immediately prior to the consummation of the transaction and as those applicable to any other limited partners or non-managing members of the surviving partnership; and the common limited partners may exchange their interests in the surviving partnership for either:

the consideration available to the common limited partner pursuant to the preceding paragraph, or if the ultimate controlling person of the surviving partnership has publicly traded common equity securities, shares of those common equity securities, at an exchange ratio based on the relative fair market value of those securities and Company common stock.

The board of directors of the Company, in the Company's capacity as general partner, will reasonably determine relative fair market values and rights, preferences and privileges of the limited partners as of the time of the termination transaction. These values may not be less favorable to the limited partners than the relative values reflected in the terms of the termination transaction.

The Company must use commercially reasonable efforts to structure transactions like those described above to avoid causing the common limited partners to recognize gain for federal income tax purposes by virtue of the occurrence of or their participation in the transaction. In addition, the operating partnership must use commercially reasonable efforts to cooperate with the common limited partners to minimize any taxes payable in connection with any repayment, refinancing, replacement or restructuring of indebtedness, or any sale, exchange or other disposition of its assets.

Issuance of Additional Units Representing Partnership Interests

As sole general partner of the operating partnership, the Company has the ability to cause it to issue additional units representing general and limited partnership interests. These units may include units representing preferred limited partnership interests, subject to the approval rights of holders of the Series A Preferred Units with respect to the issuance of preferred units ranking senior to the Series A Preferred Units, holders of the Series E Preferred Units with respect to the issuance of preferred units ranking senior to the Series E Preferred Units and holders of Series F Preferred Units with respect to the issuance of preferred units ranking senior to the Series F Preferred Units as described in 7.45% Series A Cumulative Redeemable Preferred Units, 7.80% Series E Cumulative Redeemable Preferred Units and 7.50% Series F Cumulative Redeemable Preferred Units.

Capital Contributions by the Company to the Operating Partnership

The Company may borrow additional funds in excess of the funds available from borrowings or capital contributions from a financial institution or other lender or through public or private debt offerings. The Company may then lend these funds to the operating partnership on the same terms and conditions that applied to the Company. In some cases, the Company may instead contribute these funds as an additional capital contribution to the operating partnership and increase its interest in it and decrease the interests of the limited partners.

The Effect of Awards Granted Under Our Stock Incentive Plans

If options to purchase shares of Company common stock granted in connection with the Company's 1997 Stock Option and Incentive Plan or the Company's 2006 Incentive Award Plan, or any successor equity incentive award plan, are exercised at any time, or restricted shares of common stock are issued under the plans, the Company must contribute to the operating partnership the exercise price that the Company receives in connection with the issuance of the shares of common stock to the exercising participant or the proceeds that the Company receives when it issues the shares. In exchange, the Company will be issued units in the operating partnership equal to the number of shares of common stock issued to the exercising participant in the plans.

Tax Matters that Affect the Operating Partnership

The Company has the authority under the partnership agreement to make tax elections under the Code on the operating partnership's behalf.

Allocations of Net Income and Net Losses to Partners

The net income of the operating partnership will generally be allocated:

first, to the extent holders of units have been allocated net losses, net income shall be allocated to such holders to offset these losses, in an order of priority which is the reverse of the priority of the allocation of these losses;

next, pro rata among the holders of Series A Preferred Units in an amount equal to a 7.45% per annum cumulative return on the stated value of $50.00 per Series A Preferred Unit, holders of Series E Preferred Units in an amount equal to a 7.80% per annum cumulative return on the stated value of $25.00 per Series E Preferred Unit, and holders of Series F Preferred Units in an amount equal to 7.50% per annum cumulative return on the stated value of $25.00 per Series F Preferred Unit, which are referred to as the preferred returns ; and the remaining net income, if any, will be allocated to the Company and to the common limited partners in accordance with their respective percentage interests.

Net losses of the operating partnership will generally be allocated:

first, to the Company and the common limited partners in accordance with their respective percentage interests, but only to the extent the allocation does not cause a partner to have a negative adjusted capital account (ignoring any limited partner capital contribution obligations);

next, pro rata among the holders of the Series A Preferred Units, Series E Preferred Units and Series F Preferred Units, but only to the extent that the allocation does not cause a partner to have a negative adjusted capital account (ignoring any limited partner capital contribution obligations);

next, to partners pro rata in proportion to their positive adjusted capital accounts, until such capital accounts are reduced to zero; and the remainder, if any, will be allocated to the Company.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the partnership agreement generally provides that the operating partnership's adjusted net income (as defined in the partnership agreement) will first be allocated to the holders of the operating partnership's Series A Preferred Units, the Series E Preferred Units and the Series F Preferred Units to the extent of their preferred returns, with the remaining items of net income or net loss allocated according to the provisions described above. The allocations described above are subject to compliance with the provisions of Sections 704(b) and 704(c) of the Code and the associated Treasury regulations.

Operations and Management of the Operating Partnership

The operating partnership must be operated in a manner that will enable the Company to maintain its qualification as a REIT and avoid any federal income tax liability. The partnership agreement provides that the Company will determine from time to time, but not less frequently than quarterly, the net operating cash revenues of the operating partnership, as well as net sales and refinancing proceeds, pro rata in accordance with the partners' respective percentage interests, subject to the distribution preferences with respect to the Series A Preferred Units, Series E Preferred Units and Series F Preferred Units. The partnership agreement further provides that the operating partnership will assume and pay when due, or reimburse us for payment of, all expenses that the Company incurs relating to the ownership and operation of, or for the benefit of, the operating partnership and all costs and expenses relating to the Company's operations.

Term of the Partnership Agreement

The operating partnership will continue in full force and effect until December 31, 2095, or until sooner dissolved in accordance with the terms of the partnership agreement.

Table of Contents

7.45% Series A Cumulative Redeemable Preferred Units, 7.80% Series E Cumulative Redeemable Preferred Units and 7.50% Series F Cumulative Redeemable Preferred Units

General

The operating partnership has designated classes of preferred limited partnership units as the 7.45% Series A Cumulative Redeemable Preferred Units, the 7.80% Series E Cumulative Redeemable Preferred Units and the 7.50% Series F Cumulative Redeemable Preferred Units, representing preferred limited partnership interests. As of June 30, 2010, 1,500,000 Series A Preferred Units, 1,610,000 Series E Preferred Units and 3,450,000 Series F Preferred Units are issued and outstanding.

Distributions

Each Series A Preferred Unit, Series E Preferred Unit and Series F Preferred Unit is entitled to receive cumulative preferential distributions payable on or before the 15th day of February, May, August and November of each year. Series A Preferred Units will be entitled to distributions at a rate of 7.45% per annum, Series E Preferred Units will be entitled to distributions at a rate of 7.80% per annum and Series F Preferred Units will be entitled to distributions at a rate of 7.50% per annum. The cumulative preferential distributions will be paid in preference to any payment made on any other class or series of partnership interest of the operating partnership, other than any other class or series of partnership interest expressly designated as ranking on parity with or senior to the Series A Preferred Units, the Series E Preferred Units and the Series F Preferred Units.

Ranking

The Series A Preferred Units, the Series E Preferred Units and the Series F Preferred Units rank:

senior to the operating partnership's common units and to all classes or series of preferred partnership units designated as ranking junior to the Series A Preferred Units, the Series E Preferred Units and the Series F Preferred Units with respect to distributions and rights upon liquidation, dissolution or winding-up; on parity with each other and with all other classes or series of preferred partnership units designated as ranking on a parity with the Series A Preferred Units, the Series E Preferred Units and the Series F Preferred Units with respect to distributions and rights upon liquidation, dissolution or winding-up; and junior to all other classes or series of preferred partnership units designated as ranking senior to the Series A Preferred Units, the Series E Preferred Units and the Series F Preferred Units.

Limited Approval Rights

For as long as any Series A Preferred Units remain outstanding, the operating partnership will not, without the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the units of such class, as applicable:

authorize, create or increase the authorized or issued amount of any class or series of partnership interests ranking senior to the Series A Preferred Units, or reclassify any partnership interests of the operating partnership into any class or series of partnership interest ranking senior to the Series A Preferred Units, or create, authorize or issue any obligations or security convertible into or evidencing the right to purchase any class or series of partnership interests ranking senior to the Series A Preferred Units, authorize or create, or increase the authorized or issued amount of any preferred partnership units on parity with the Series A Preferred Units, or reclassify any partnership interest into any preferred partnership units on parity with the Series A Preferred Units, or create, authorize or issue any obligations or security convertible into or evidencing the right to purchase any preferred partnership units on parity with the Series A Preferred Units, but only to the extent that these preferred partnership units on parity with the Series A Preferred Units are issued to an affiliate of the operating partnership, other than to the Company to the extent the issuance of these interests was to allow the Company to issue corresponding preferred stock to persons who are not affiliates of the operating partnership, or either consolidate, merge into or with, or convey, transfer or lease its assets substantially as an entirety to, any corporation or other entity or amend, alter or repeal the provisions of the partnership agreement, whether by merger, consolidation or otherwise, in each case in a manner that would materially and adversely affect the powers, special rights, preferences, privileges or voting power of the Series A Preferred Units or the holders of the Series A Preferred Units.

Redemption

The operating partnership may redeem the Series A Preferred Units at any time, the Series E Preferred Units at any time, and the Series F Preferred Units at any time. The Series A Preferred Units will be payable solely out of the sale proceeds from the issuance of the Company's capital stock or out of the sale of limited partner interests in the operating partnership, at a redemption price, payable in cash, equal to the capital account balance of the holder of the Series A Preferred Units; provided, however, that no redemption will be permitted if the redemption price does not equal or exceed the original capital contribution of such holder plus accumulated and unpaid distributions to the date of redemption. If fewer than all of the outstanding Series A Preferred Units are to be redeemed, the Series A Preferred Units to be redeemed shall be selected pro rata (as nearly as practicable without creating fractional units). The operating partnership may not redeem fewer than all of the outstanding Series A Preferred Units unless all accumulated and unpaid distributions have been paid on all Series A Preferred Units for all quarterly distribution periods terminating on or prior to the date of redemption. The Series E Preferred Units may be redeemed at a redemption price, payable in cash, equal to the sum of $25.00 plus accumulated and unpaid distributions to the date of redemption per Series E Preferred Unit, if any. The Series F Preferred Units may be redeemed at a redemption price, payable in cash, equal to the sum of $25.00 plus accumulated and unpaid distributions to the date of redemption per Series F Preferred Unit, if any.

Exchange

The Series A Preferred Units may be exchanged on and after September 30, 2015, in whole but not in part, into shares of the Company's Series A Preferred Stock, at the option of 51 % of the holders of all outstanding Series A Preferred Units. In addition, the Series A Preferred Units may be exchanged, in whole but not in part, into shares of Series A Preferred Stock at any time at the option of 51 % of the holders if:

distributions on the Series A Preferred Units have not been timely made for six prior quarterly distribution periods, whether or not consecutive, or the operating partnership or a subsidiary of the operating partnership is or is likely to become a publicly traded partnership. In addition, the Series A Preferred Units may be exchanged prior to September 30, 2015, in whole but not in part, at the option of the holders of 51 % of the Series A Preferred Units if the Series A Preferred Units would not be considered stock and securities for United States federal income tax purposes.

The Series A Preferred Units also are exchangeable, in whole but not in part, if the operating partnership believes, or the initial holder believes, based upon the opinion of counsel, that the character of the operating partnership's assets and income would not allow the Company to qualify as a REIT. We may, in lieu of exchanging the Series A Preferred Units for shares of Series A Preferred Stock, elect to redeem all or a portion of the Series A Preferred Units for cash in an amount equal to the original capital contribution per Series A Preferred Unit and all accrued and unpaid distributions thereon to the date of redemption. If we elect to redeem fewer than all of the outstanding Series A Preferred Units, the number of Series A Preferred Units held by each holder to be redeemed shall equal such holder's pro rata share of the aggregate number of Series A Preferred Units being redeemed.

The right of the holders of Series A Preferred Units to exchange their units for shares of Series A Preferred Stock will be subject to the ownership limitations in the Company's charter in order for it to maintain its qualification as a REIT for United States federal income tax purposes.

Table of Contents

Liquidation Preference

The distribution and income allocation provisions of the partnership agreement have the effect of providing each Series A Preferred Unit, Series E Preferred Unit and Series F Preferred Unit with a liquidation preference to each holder equal to $50.00, $25.00 and $25.00 per share, respectively, plus any accumulated but unpaid distributions, in preference to any other class or series of partnership interest.

Common Limited Partnership Units

General

The partnership agreement provides that, subject to the distribution preferences of the Series A, Series E and Series F Preferred Units, common units are entitled to receive quarterly distributions of available cash on a pro rata basis in accordance with their respective percentage interests. As of June 30, 2010, 1,723,131 common limited partnership units were issued and outstanding.

Redemption/Exchange Rights

Common limited partners have the right to require the operating partnership to redeem part or all of their common units for cash based upon the fair market value of an equivalent number of shares of Company common stock at the time of the redemption. Alternatively, the Company may elect to acquire those units tendered for redemption in exchange for shares of Company common stock. The Company's acquisition will be on a one-for-one basis, subject to adjustment in the event of stock splits, stock dividends, issuance of some rights, some extraordinary distributions and similar events. However, even if the Company elects not to acquire tendered units in exchange for shares of common stock, holders of common units that are corporations or limited liability companies may require that the Company issue common stock in exchange for their common units, subject to applicable ownership limits or any other limit as provided in the Company's charter or as otherwise determined by the Company's board of directors, as applicable. The Company presently anticipates that the Company will elect to issue shares of common stock in exchange for common units in connection with each redemption request, rather than having the operating partnership redeem the common units for cash. With each redemption or exchange, the Company increases its percentage ownership interest in the operating partnership. Common limited partners may exercise this redemption right from time to time, in whole or in part, except when, as a consequence of shares of common stock being issued, any person's actual or constructive stock ownership would exceed the ownership limits, or any other limit as provided in our charter or as otherwise determined by our board of directors.

Common Limited Partner Approval Rights

The partnership agreement provides that if the limited partners own at least 5% of the common units representing common partnership interests in the operating partnership, including those common units held by the Company as general partner, the Company will not, on behalf of the operating partnership and without the prior consent of the holders of more than 50% of the common units representing limited partnership interests in the operating partnership dissolve the operating partnership, unless the dissolution or sale is incident to a merger or a sale of substantially all of the Company's assets.

CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF MARYLAND LAW AND THE COMPANY'S CHARTER AND BYLAWS

The following is a description of certain provisions of Maryland law and the Company's charter and bylaws. This description is not complete and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by reference to, Maryland law and the Company's charter and bylaws. You should read the Company's charter and bylaws, which are incorporated by reference to the Company's SEC filings. See Where You Can Find More Information.

The Board of Directors

The Company's charter provides that the number of its directors shall be established by its bylaws, but cannot be less than the minimum number required by the Maryland General Corporation Law, or MGCL, which is one. The Company's bylaws allow its board of directors to fix or change the number to not fewer than three and not more than 13 members. The number of directors is currently fixed at six. A majority of the Company's remaining board of directors may fill any vacancy, other than a vacancy caused by removal. A majority of the Company's board of directors may fill a vacancy resulting from an increase in the number of directors. The stockholders entitled to vote for the election of directors at an annual or special meeting of the Company's stockholders may fill a vacancy resulting from the removal of a director.

The Company's charter and bylaws provide that a majority of the board of directors must be independent directors. An independent director is a director who is not:

an employee, officer or affiliate of the Company or one of its subsidiaries or divisions;

a relative of a principal executive officer; or an individual member of an organization acting as advisor, consultant or legal counsel, who receives compensation on a continuing basis from the Company in addition to director's fees.

No Cumulative Voting

Holders of shares of Company common stock have no right to cumulative voting for the election of directors. Consequently, at each annual meeting of the Company's stockholders, the holders of a majority of the shares of Company common stock entitled to vote will be able to elect all of the successors of the directors at that meeting.

Removal of Directors

The Company's charter provides that its stockholders may remove a director only for cause and only by the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the shares entitled to vote in the election of directors. The MGCL does not define the term cause. As a result, removal for cause is subject to Maryland common law and to judicial interpretation and review in the context of the unique facts and circumstances of any particular situation.

The Company is not Subject to the Maryland Business Combination Statute

The Company has elected not to be subject to the business combination provisions of the MGCL (sections 3-601 through 3-604) and it cannot rescind such election and become subject to these business combination provisions without the approval of holders of a majority of its shares entitled to vote.

In the event that the Company decides to be subject to the business combinations provision, business combinations between a Maryland corporation and an interested stockholder or an affiliate of an interested stockholder are generally prohibited for five years after the most recent date on which the interested stockholder becomes an interested stockholder. A business combination includes a merger, consolidation or share exchange. A business combination may also include an asset transfer or issuance or reclassification of equity securities. An interested stockholder is defined in the MGCL as:

any person who beneficially owns, directly or indirectly, ten percent or more of the voting power of the corporation's shares; or an affiliate of the corporation who, at any time within the two-year period prior to the date in question, was the beneficial owner of ten percent or more of the voting power of the then outstanding voting stock of the corporation.

A person is not an interested stockholder under the business combinations provisions of the MGCL if the board of directors approved in advance the transaction by which such person would otherwise have become an interested stockholder.

At the conclusion of the five-year prohibition, any business combination between the Maryland corporation and an interested stockholder generally must be recommended by the board of directors of the corporation and approved by the affirmative vote of at least:

80% of the votes entitled to be cast by holders of outstanding shares of voting stock of the corporation; and two-thirds of the votes entitled to be cast by holders of voting stock of the corporation other than shares held by the interested stockholder with whom or with whose affiliate the business combination is to be effected.

These super-majority vote requirements do not apply if the corporation's common stockholders receive a minimum price, as defined under Maryland law, for their shares in the form of cash or other consideration in the same form as previously paid by the interested stockholder for its shares. None of these provisions of Maryland law will apply, however, to business combinations that are approved or exempted by the board of directors of the corporation prior to the time that the interested stockholder becomes an interested stockholder.

As a result of the Company's decision not to be subject to the business combinations statute, an interested stockholder would be able to effect a business combination without complying with the requirements discussed above, which may make it easier for stockholders who become interested stockholders to consummate a business combination involving the Company. However, the Company cannot assure you that any business combinations will be consummated or, if consummated, will result in a purchase of shares of capital stock from its stockholders at a premium.

The Company is not Subject to the Maryland Control Share Acquisition Statute

The Company has elected in its bylaws not to be subject to the control share acquisition provisions of the MGCL (sections 3-701 through 3-710). If it wants to be subject to these provisions, its bylaws would need to be amended. Such amendments would require the approval of the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote.

Maryland law provides that control shares of a company acquired in a control share acquisition have no voting rights except to the extent approved by a vote of two-thirds of the votes entitled to vote, excluding shares owned by the acquiror or by officers or directors who are employees of the company. Control shares are voting shares of stock which, if aggregated with all other voting shares of stock previously acquired by the acquiror, or over which the acquiror is able to directly or indirectly exercise voting power, except solely by revocable proxy, would entitle the acquiror to exercise voting power in electing directors within one of the following ranges of voting power:

one-tenth or more but less than one-third;

one-third or more but less than a majority; or a majority or more of all voting power.

Control shares do not include shares of stock the acquiring person is entitled to vote having obtained prior stockholder approval. Generally, control share acquisition means the acquisition of control shares.

A person who has made or proposes to make a control share acquisition may compel the board of directors to call a special meeting of stockholders to consider voting rights for the shares. The meeting must be held within 50 days of demand. If no request for a meeting is made, the company may present the question at any stockholders' meeting.

Table of Contents

If voting rights are not approved at the meeting or if the acquiring person does not deliver an acquiring person statement as required by the statute, then, subject to conditions and limitations, the corporation may redeem any or all of the control shares, except those for which voting rights previously have been approved, for fair value. Fair value is determined without regard to the absence of voting rights for control shares, as of the date of the last control share acquisition or of any meeting of stockholders at which the voting rights of control shares are considered and not approved. If voting rights for control shares are approved at a stockholders meeting and the acquiror becomes entitled to vote a majority of the shares entitled to vote, all other stockholders may exercise appraisal rights. The fair value of the shares as determined for purposes of these appraisal rights may not be less than the highest price per share paid in the control share acquisition. Limitations and restrictions otherwise applicable to the exercise of dissenters' rights do not apply in the context of a control share acquisition.

The control share acquisition statute does not apply to shares acquired in a merger, consolidation or share exchange if the company is a party to the transaction, or to acquisitions approved or exempted by its charter or bylaws. Because the Company is not subject to these provisions, stockholders who acquire a substantial block of Company common stock do not need approval of the other stockholders before exercising full voting rights with respect to their shares on all matters. This may make it easier for any of these control share stockholders to effect a business combination with the Company. However, the Company cannot assure you that any business combinations will be consummated or, if consummated, will result in a purchase of shares of Company common stock from any stockholder at a premium.

Unsolicited Takeovers

Under certain provisions of the MGCL relating to unsolicited takeovers, a Maryland corporation with a class of equity securities registered under the Exchange Act and at least three independent directors may elect to be subject to certain statutory provisions relating to unsolicited takeovers which, among other things, would automatically classify its board of directors into three classes with staggered terms of three years each and vest in its board of directors the exclusive right to determine the number of directors and the exclusive right, by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors, to fill vacancies on the board of directors, even if the remaining directors do not constitute a quorum. These statutory provisions also provide that any director elected to fill a vacancy shall hold office for the remainder of the full term of the class of directors in which the vacancy occurred, rather than the next annual meeting of directors as would otherwise be the case, and until his successor is elected and qualified.

An election to be subject to any or all of the foregoing statutory provisions may be made in the Company's charter or bylaws, or by resolution of its board of directors. Any such statutory provision to which the Company elects to be subject will apply even if other provisions of Maryland law or the Company's charter or bylaws provide to the contrary.

If the Company made an election to be subject to the statutory provisions described above, its board of directors would automatically be classified into three classes with staggered terms of office of three years each, and would have the exclusive right to determine the number of directors and the exclusive right to fill vacancies on the board of directors. Moreover, any director elected to fill a vacancy would hold office for the remainder of the full term of the class of directors in which the vacancy occurred.

In such instance, the classification and staggered terms of office of the Company's directors would make it more difficult for a third party to gain control of the Company's board of directors since at least two annual meetings of stockholders, instead of one, generally would be required to effect a change in the majority of the Company's board of directors.

The Company has not elected to become subject to the foregoing statutory provisions relating to unsolicited takeovers. However, the Company could by resolutions adopted by its board of directors and without stockholder approval, elect to become subject to some or all of these statutory provisions.

Table of Contents

Amendment of the Company's Charter and Bylaws

The Company's charter may generally be amended only if the amendment is declared advisable by its board of directors and approved by its stockholders by the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the shares entitled to vote on the amendment. The Company's bylaws generally may be amended by the affirmative vote of a majority of the board of directors or of a majority of the Company's shares entitled to vote. However, the following bylaw provisions may be amended only by the approval of a majority of the Company's shares of capital stock entitled to vote:

provisions opting out of the control share acquisition statute;

provisions requiring approval by the independent directors for selection of operators of our properties or of transactions involving John B. Kilroy, Sr. and John B. Kilroy, Jr. and their affiliates; and provisions governing amendment of the Company's bylaws.

Meetings of Stockholders

The Company's bylaws provide for annual meetings of its stockholders to elect directors and to transact other business properly brought before the meeting. In addition, a special meeting of stockholders may be called by:

the president;

the board of directors;

holders of at least a majority of the Company's outstanding common stock entitled to vote by making a written request;

holders of 10% of the Company's Series A Preferred Stock for the stockholders of Series A Preferred Stock and all other classes or series of preferred stock ranking on parity with the Series A Preferred Stock to elect two additional directors to the Company's board of directors if dividends on any shares of Series A Preferred Stock remain unpaid for six or more quarterly periods, whether or not consecutive; holders of 10% of the Company's Series E Preferred Stock for the stockholders of Series E Preferred Stock and all other classes or series of preferred stock ranking on parity with the Series E Preferred Stock to elect two additional directors to the Company's board of directors if dividends on any shares of Series E Preferred Stock remain unpaid for six or more quarterly periods, whether or not consecutive; and holders of 10% of the Company's Series F Preferred Stock for the stockholders of Series F Preferred Stock and all other classes or series of preferred stock ranking on parity with the Series F Preferred Stock to elect two additional directors to the Company's board of directors if dividends on any shares of Series F Preferred Stock remain unpaid for six or more quarterly periods, whether or not consecutive.

Edgar Filing: KILROY REALTY CORP - Form 424B3

The MGCL provides that the Company's stockholders also may act by unanimous written consent without a meeting with respect to any action that they are required or permitted to take at a meeting. To do so, each stockholder entitled to vote on the matter must sign the consent setting forth the action.

Advance Notice of Director Nominations and New Business

The Company's bylaws provide that with respect to an annual meeting of stockholders, nominations of persons for election to the Company's board of directors and the proposal of other business to be considered by stockholders at the meeting may be made only:

Table of Contents

pursuant to the Company's notice of the meeting;

by or at the direction of the Company's board of directors; or by a stockholder who is entitled to vote at the meeting and has complied with the advance notice procedures of the Company's bylaws.

The Company's bylaws also provide that with respect to special meetings of stockholders, only the business specified in the notice of meeting may be brought before the meeting.

The advance notice provisions of the Company's bylaws could have the effect of discouraging a takeover or other transaction in which holders of some, or a majority, of the shares of common stock might receive a premium for their shares over the then prevailing market price or which holders of its common stock believe is in their best interests.

Dissolution of the Company

Under the MGCL, the Company may be dissolved if a majority of its entire board of directors determines by resolution that dissolution is advisable and submits a proposal for dissolution for consideration at any annual or special meeting of stockholders, and this proposal is approved, by the vote of the holders of two-thirds of the shares of the Company's capital stock entitled to vote on the dissolution.

Indemnification and Limitation of Liability of Directors and Officers

The Company's charter and bylaws, and the partnership agreement, provide for indemnification of its officers and directors against liabilities to the fullest extent permitted by the MGCL, as amended from time to time.

The MGCL permits the Company to indemnify its directors and officers and other parties against judgments, penalties, fines, settlements, and reasonable expenses actually incurred by them in connection with any proceeding to which they may be made a party by reason of their service in those or other capacities unless it is established that:

the act or omission of the director or officer was material to the matter giving rise to the proceeding and was committed in bad faith or was the result of active and deliberate dishonesty;

the director or officer actually received an improper personal benefit in money, property or services; or in the case of any criminal proceeding, the director or officer had reasonable cause to believe that the act or omission was unlawful. Under the MGCL, the Company may indemnify its directors or officers against judgments, penalties, fines, settlements and reasonable expenses that they actually incur in connection with the proceeding unless the proceeding is one by the Company or in its right and the director or officer has been found to be liable to the Company. In addition, the Company may not indemnify a director or officer in any proceeding charging improper personal benefit to them if they were found to be liable on the basis that personal benefit was received. The termination of any proceeding by judgment, order or settlement does not create a presumption that the director or officer did not meet the requisite standard of conduct required for indemnification to be permitted. The termination of any proceeding by conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, or an entry of any order of probation prior to judgment, creates a rebuttable presumption that the director or officer did not meet the requisite standard of conduct required for indemnification to be permitted.

In addition, the MGCL provides that, unless limited by its charter, a corporation shall indemnify any director or officer who is made a party to any proceeding by reason of service in that capacity against reasonable expenses incurred by the director or officer in connection with the proceeding, in the event that the director or officer is successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of the proceeding. The Company's charter contains no such limitation.

Table of Contents

As permitted by the MGCL, the Company's charter limits the liability of its directors and officers to the Company and its stockholders for money damages, subject to specified restrictions. However, the liability of the Company's directors and officers to it and its stockholders for money damages is not limited if:

it is proved that the director or officer actually received an improper benefit or profit in money, property or services; or a judgment or other final adjudication adverse to the director or officer is entered in a proceeding based on a finding that the director's or officer's action, or failure to act, was the result of active and deliberate dishonesty and was material to the cause of action adjudicated in the proceeding.

This provision does not limit the Company's ability or its stockholders' ability to obtain other relief, such as an injunction or rescission.

The partnership agreement provides that the Company, as general partner, and its officers and directors are indemnified to the same extent its officers and directors are indemnified in its charter. The partnership agreement limits the Company's liability and the liability of its officers and directors to the operating partnership and its partners to the same extent that its charter limits the liability of its officers and directors to it and its stockholders. See Description of the Partnership Agreement of Kilroy Realty, L.P. Indemnification of Our Officers and Directors.

Insofar as the foregoing provisions permit indemnification of directors, officers or persons controlling the Company for liability arising under the Securities Act, the Company has been informed that in the opinion of the SEC, this indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is therefore unenforceable.

Indemnification Agreements

The Company has entered into indemnification agreements with certain of its executive officers and directors. The indemnification agreements provide that:

the Company must indemnify its executive officers and directors to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law and advance to its executive officers and directors all expenses related to the defense of indemnifiable claims against them, subject to reimbursement if it is subsequently determined that indemnification is not permitted;

the Company must indemnify and advance all expenses incurred by executive officers and directors seeking to enforce their rights under the indemnification agreements; and to the extent to which the Company maintains directors' and officers' liability insurance, the Company must provide coverage under such insurance to its executive officers and directors.

The Company's indemnification agreements with its executive officers and directors offer substantially the same scope of coverage afforded by applicable law. In addition, as contracts, these indemnification agreements provide greater assurance to its directors and executive officers that indemnification will be available because they cannot be modified unilaterally in the future by the board of directors or the stockholders to eliminate the rights that they provide.

Anti-takeover Effect of Certain Provisions of Maryland Law and of the Company's Charter and Bylaws

If the resolution of the Company's board of directors exempting the Company from the business combination provisions of the MGCL and the applicable provision in its bylaws exempting it from the control share acquisition provisions of the MGCL are rescinded or revoked (which in each case would require stockholder approval) or it elects to be subject to the unsolicited takeover provisions of the MGCL, the business combination, control share acquisition and unsolicited takeover provisions of the MGCL, the provisions of its charter on removal of directors, the advance notice provisions of its bylaws and certain other provisions of its charter and bylaws and Maryland law could delay, deter or prevent a change in control of the Company or other transactions that might involve a premium price for holders of its capital stock or otherwise be in their best interest.

CERTAIN U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES

The following discussion is a summary of certain U.S. federal income tax consequences relating to the exchange of the private notes for exchange notes in the exchange offer and the purchase, ownership and disposition of the exchange notes but does not purport to be a complete analysis of all potential tax considerations that might be relevant to the acquisition, ownership, exchange or disposition of the notes. As used in this summary, the term notes means the private notes and the exchange notes. This discussion is based upon the Code, current, temporary and proposed U.S. Treasury Regulations issued thereunder (the Treasury Regulations), the legislative history of the Code, Internal Revenue Service (IRS) rulings, pronouncements, interpretations and practices, and judicial decisions now in effect, all of which are subject to change at any time. Any such change may be applied retroactively in a manner that could adversely affect a holder of the notes. This discussion does not address all of the U.S. federal income tax consequences that may be relevant to a holder in light of such holder's particular circumstances. For example, except to the extent discussed in Non-U.S. Holders, special rules not discussed here may apply to you if you are:

a broker-dealer or a dealer in securities or currencies;

an S corporation;

a bank, thrift or other financial institution;

a regulated investment company or a REIT;

subject to the alternative minimum tax provisions of the Code;

holding notes as part of a hedge, straddle, conversion, integrated or other risk reduction or constructive sale transaction;

holding notes through a partnership or other pass-through entity;

a non-U.S. corporation or partnership, or person that is not a resident or citizen of the United States;

a U.S. person whose functional currency is not the U.S. dollar; or a U.S. expatriate or former long-term resident.

In addition, this discussion is limited to persons that hold the notes as capital assets within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code (generally, property held for investment). This discussion does not address the effect of any applicable state, local, non-U.S. or federal tax laws other than the income tax, including gift and estate tax laws.

Edgar Filing: KILROY REALTY CORP - Form 424B3

As used herein, U.S. Holder means a beneficial owner of the notes that is, for U.S. federal income tax purposes:

an individual who is a citizen or resident of the United States;

a corporation (or other entity treated as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes) created or organized in or under the laws of the United States, any state thereof or the District of Columbia;

an estate, the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income tax regardless of its source; or a trust that (i) is subject to the primary supervision of a U.S. court and the control of one or more U.S. persons that have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust, or (ii) has a valid election in effect under applicable Treasury Regulations to be treated as a U.S. person.

Table of Contents

If any entity treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes holds notes, the tax treatment of a partner in such partnership generally will depend upon the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. If you are a partner of a partnership holding the notes, you should consult your tax advisor regarding the tax consequences of the purchase, ownership and disposition of the notes.

We have not sought and do not presently intend to seek any rulings from the IRS with respect to the matters discussed below. There can be no assurance that the IRS will not take a different position concerning the tax consequences of the exchange offer or the purchase, ownership or disposition of the notes or that any such position would not be sustained.

THIS SUMMARY OF CERTAIN U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES IS FOR GENERAL INFORMATION ONLY AND IS NOT TAX ADVICE. HOLDERS OF NOTES SHOULD CONSULT THEIR TAX ADVISORS REGARDING THE APPLICATION OF THE TAX CONSEQUENCES DISCUSSED BELOW TO THEIR PARTICULAR SITUATIONS, POTENTIAL CHANGES IN APPLICABLE TAX LAWS AND THE APPLICATION OF ANY STATE, LOCAL, FOREIGN OR OTHER TAX LAWS, INCLUDING GIFT AND ESTATE TAX LAWS, AND ANY TAX TREATIES.

Exchange Pursuant to the Exchange Offer

The exchange of the private notes for the exchange notes in the exchange offer will not be treated as an exchange for U.S. federal income tax purposes, because the exchange notes will not be considered to differ materially in kind or extent from the private notes. Accordingly, the exchange of private notes for exchange notes will not be a taxable event to holders for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Moreover, the exchange notes will have the same tax attributes as the private notes exchanged therefor and the same tax consequences as the private notes have to holders, including without limitation, the same issue price, adjusted tax basis and holding period.

U.S. Holders

Interest

A U.S. Holder generally will be required to recognize and include in gross income any stated interest on the notes as ordinary income at the time it is paid or accrued, in accordance with such holder's method of accounting for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

Market Discount

If a U.S. Holder acquires a note at a cost that is less than its stated redemption price at maturity (i.e., its stated principal amount), the amount of such difference is treated as market discount for U.S. federal income tax purposes, unless such difference is less than .0025 multiplied by the stated redemption price at maturity multiplied by the number of complete years to maturity (from the date of acquisition).

Under the market discount rules of the Code, a U.S. Holder is required to treat any partial payment of principal on a note, and any gain on the sale, exchange, retirement or other disposition of a note, as ordinary income to the extent of the accrued market discount that has not previously been included in income. If a U.S. Holder disposes of a note with market discount in certain otherwise nontaxable transactions, such holder must include accrued market discount as ordinary income as if the holder had sold the note at its then fair market value.

In general, the amount of market discount that has accrued is determined on a ratable basis. A U.S. Holder may, however, elect to determine the amount of accrued market discount on a constant yield to maturity basis. This election is made on a note-by-note basis and is generally irrevocable.

With respect to notes with market discount, a U.S. Holder may not be allowed to deduct immediately a portion of the interest expense on any indebtedness incurred or continued to purchase or to carry the notes. A U.S. Holder may elect to include market discount in income currently as it accrues, in which case the interest deferral rule set forth in the preceding sentence will not apply. This election will apply to all debt instruments acquired by the U.S. Holder on or after the first day of the first taxable year to which the election applies and is irrevocable without the consent of the IRS. A U.S. Holder's tax basis in a note will be increased by the amount of market discount included in the holder's income under the election.

Table of Contents

Amortizable Bond Premium

If a U.S. Holder purchases a note for an amount in excess of the stated redemption price at maturity, the holder will be considered to have purchased the note with amortizable bond premium equal in amount to the excess. Generally, a U.S. Holder may elect to amortize the premium as an offset to interest income otherwise required to be included in income in respect of the note during the taxable year, using a constant yield method similar to that described above, over the remaining term of the note. Under Treasury Regulations, the amount of amortizable bond premium that a U.S. Holder may deduct in any accrual period is limited to the amount by which the holder's total interest inclusions on the note in prior accrual periods exceed the total amount treated by the holder as a bond premium deduction in prior accrual periods. If any of the excess bond premium is not deductible, that amount is carried forward to the next accrual period. A U.S. Holder that elects to amortize bond premium must reduce the holder's tax basis in the note by the amount of the premium used to offset interest income as set forth above. An election to amortize bond premium applies to all taxable debt obligations then owned and thereafter acquired by the U.S. Holder and may be revoked only with the consent of the IRS.

Election of Constant Yield Method

U.S. Holders may elect to include in gross income all interest that accrues on a note, including any stated interest, market discount, and de minimis market discount and unstated interest, as adjusted by amortizable bond premium, by using a constant yield prescribed in the Code and applicable Treasury Regulations. This election for a note with amortizable bond premium will result in a deemed election to amortize bond premium for all taxable debt obligations held or subsequently acquired by the U.S. Holder on or after the first day of the first taxable year to which the election applies and may be revoked only with the consent of the IRS. Similarly, this election for a note with market discount will result in a deemed election to accrue market discount in income currently for the note and for all other debt instruments acquired by the U.S. Holder with market discount on or after the first day of the taxable year to which the election first applies, and may be revoked only with the consent of the IRS. A U.S. Holder's tax basis in a note will be increased by each accrual of income under the constant yield election described in this paragraph.

Sale or Other Taxable Disposition of the Notes

A U.S. Holder will recognize gain or loss on the sale, exchange (other than for exchange notes pursuant to the exchange offer, as described herein), redemption (including a partial redemption), retirement or other taxable disposition of a note equal to the difference between the sum of the cash and the fair market value of any property received in exchange therefor (less a portion allocable to any accrued and unpaid stated interest, which generally will be taxable as ordinary income if not previously included in such holder's income) and the U.S. Holder's adjusted tax basis in the note. A U.S. Holder's adjusted tax basis in a note (or a portion thereof) generally will be the

Table of Contents

U.S. Holder's cost therefor, decreased by any amortizable bond premium in respect of the note which has been taken into account and payment on the note other than a payment of interest, and increased by any market discount previously included in income in respect of the note. This gain or loss will generally constitute capital gain or loss except as described above under Market Discount. In the case of a non-corporate U.S. Holder, including an individual, if the note has been held for more than one year, such capital gain will be subject to tax at a maximum tax rate of 15%, although this maximum tax rate is currently scheduled to increase to 20% for dispositions occurring during taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2011. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to certain limitations.

New Legislation

Newly enacted legislation requires certain U.S. Holders who are individuals, estates or trusts to pay an additional 3.8% tax on, among other things, interest on and capital gains from the sale or other disposition of notes for taxable years beginning after December 31, 2012. U.S. Holders are urged to consult their tax advisors regarding the effect, if any, of new U.S. federal income tax legislation on their ownership and disposition of the notes.

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding

A U.S. Holder may be subject to information reporting and backup withholding when such holder receives interest and principal payments on the notes or proceeds upon the sale or other disposition of the notes (including a redemption or retirement of the notes). Certain holders (including, among others, certain tax-exempt organizations) generally are not subject to information reporting or backup withholding. A U.S. Holder will be subject to backup withholding if such holder is not otherwise exempt and:

such holder fails to furnish its taxpayer identification number, or TIN, which, for an individual is ordinarily his or her social security number;

the IRS notifies the payor that such holder furnished an incorrect TIN;

in the case of interest payments, such holder is notified by the IRS of a failure to properly report payments of interest or dividends; or in the case of interest payments, such holder fails to certify, under penalties of perjury, that such holder has furnished a correct TIN and has not been notified by the IRS that such holder is subject to backup withholding.

A U.S. Holder should consult its tax advisor regarding its qualification for an exemption from backup withholding and the procedures for obtaining such an exemption, if applicable. Backup withholding is not an additional tax. Any amounts withheld from a payment to a U.S. Holder under the backup withholding rules will be allowed as a credit against the holder's U.S. federal income tax liability or may be refunded, provided the required information is furnished in a timely manner to the IRS.

Non-U.S. Holders

For purposes of this discussion, Non-U.S. Holder means a beneficial owner of the notes that is not a U.S. Holder. Special rules may apply to holders that are partnerships or entities treated as partnerships for U.S. federal income tax purposes and to Non-U.S. Holders that are subject to special treatment under the Code, including controlled foreign corporations, passive foreign investment companies, certain U.S. expatriates, and foreign persons eligible for benefits under an applicable income tax treaty with the United States. Such Non-U.S. Holders should consult their tax advisors to determine the U.S. federal, state, local and other tax consequences that may be relevant to them.

Table of Contents

Interest

Interest paid on the notes to a Non-U.S. Holder will not be subject to U.S. federal withholding tax provided that:

such holder does not actually or constructively own a 10% or greater interest in the operating partnership's capital or profits;

such holder is not a controlled foreign corporation with respect to which the operating partnership is a related person within the meaning of Section 864(d)(4) of the Code;

such holder is not a bank that received such interest on an extension of credit made pursuant to a loan agreement entered into in the ordinary course of its trade or business; and

(i) the Non-U.S. Holder certifies in a statement provided to us or our paying agent, under penalties of perjury, that it is not a U.S. person within the meaning of the Code and provides its name and address, (ii) a securities clearing organization, bank or other financial institution that holds customers' securities in the ordinary course of its trade or business and holds the notes on behalf of the Non-U.S. Holder certifies to us or our paying agent under penalties of perjury that it, or the financial institution between it and the Non-U.S. Holder, has received from the Non-U.S. Holder a statement, under penalties of perjury, that such holder is not a U.S. person and provides us or our paying agent with a copy of such statement or (iii) the Non-U.S. Holder holds its notes directly through a qualified intermediary and certain conditions are satisfied.

A Non-U.S. Holder generally will also be exempt from withholding tax on interest if such amount is effectively connected with such holder's conduct of a U.S. trade or business (and, if an income tax treaty applies, is attributable to a U.S. permanent establishment) (as discussed in Non-U.S. Holders' U.S. Trade or Business) and the holder provides us or our paying agent with a properly executed IRS Form W-8ECI (or applicable successor form).

If a Non-U.S. Holder does not satisfy the requirements above, interest paid to such Non-U.S. Holder generally will be subject to a 30% U.S. federal withholding tax. Such rate may be reduced or eliminated under a tax treaty between the United States and the Non-U.S. Holder's country of residence. To claim a reduction or exemption under a tax treaty, a Non-U.S. Holder must generally complete an IRS Form W-8BEN (or applicable successor form) and claim the reduction or exemption on the form.

Sale or Other Taxable Disposition of the Notes

A Non-U.S. Holder generally will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax or withholding tax on gain recognized on the sale, exchange, redemption, retirement or other disposition of a note so long as (i) the gain is not effectively connected with the conduct by the Non-U.S. Holder of a trade or business within the United States (or, if a tax treaty applies, the gain is not attributable to a U.S. permanent establishment maintained by such Non-U.S. Holder) and (ii) in the case of a Non-U.S. Holder who is an individual, such Non-U.S. Holder is not present in the United States for 183 days or more in the taxable year of disposition or certain other requirements are not met. Any amounts received in respect of accrued and unpaid interest will generally be treated as described in Non-U.S. Holders' Interest. A Non-U.S. Holder who is an individual and does not meet an exemption should consult his or her tax advisor regarding the potential liability for U.S. federal income tax on any gain realized on the disposition of a note.

Table of Contents

U.S. Trade or Business

If interest paid on a note or gain from a disposition of a note is effectively connected with a Non-U.S. Holder's conduct of a U.S. trade or business (and, if an income tax treaty applies, the Non-U.S. Holder maintains a U.S. permanent establishment to which such amounts are generally attributable), the Non-U.S. Holder generally will be subject to U.S. federal income tax on the interest or gain on a net basis in the same manner as if such holder were a U.S. Holder. A Non-U.S. Holder that is a non-U.S. corporation may be subject to a branch profits tax equal to 30% of its effectively connected earnings and profits for the taxable year, subject to certain adjustments, unless it qualifies for a lower rate under an applicable income tax treaty. For this purpose, interest on a note or gain from a disposition of a note will be included in effectively connected earnings and profits if the interest or gain is effectively connected with the conduct by the foreign corporation of a trade or business in the United States.

Backup Withholding and Information Reporting

Backup withholding generally will not apply to payments of principal or interest made by us or our paying agents, in their capacities as such, to a Non-U.S. Holder of a note if the holder certifies as to its non-U.S. status in the manner described in Non-U.S. Holders' Interest. However, information reporting generally will still apply with respect to payments of interest.

Payments of the proceeds from a disposition by a Non-U.S. Holder of a note made to or through a foreign office of a broker will not be subject to information reporting or backup withholding, except that information reporting (but generally not backup withholding) may apply to those payments, if the broker has certain enumerated connections with the U.S., provided, however, that such information reporting will not apply if the broker has documentary evidence in its records that the Non-U.S. Holder is a non-U.S. person and certain other conditions are met, or the Non-U.S. Holder otherwise establishes an exemption from information reporting.

Payment of the proceeds from a disposition by a Non-U.S. Holder of a note made to or through the U.S. office of a broker generally is subject to information reporting and backup withholding unless the holder or beneficial owner certifies as to its non-U.S. status in the manner described in Non-U.S. Holders' Interest or otherwise establishes an exemption from information reporting and backup withholding.

A Non-U.S. Holder should consult its tax advisor regarding application of withholding and backup withholding in its particular circumstance and the availability of and procedure for obtaining an exemption from withholding and backup withholding under current Treasury Regulations. In this regard, the current Treasury Regulations provide that a certification may not be relied on if we or our agent (or other party) knows or has reason to know that the certification may be false. Any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules from a payment to a Non-U.S. Holder will be allowed as a credit against the holder's U.S. federal income tax liability or may be refunded, provided the required information is furnished in a timely manner to the IRS.

By acknowledging that it will deliver and by delivering a prospectus, a broker-dealer will not be deemed to admit that it is an underwriter within the meaning of the Securities Act.

We have agreed to pay all expenses incident to our performance of, or compliance with, the registration rights agreement and will indemnify the holders of the notes (including any broker-dealers) against liabilities under the Securities Act.

By its acceptance of the exchange offer, any broker-dealer that receives exchange notes pursuant to the exchange offer agrees to notify us before using the prospectus in connection with the sale or transfer of exchange notes. The broker-dealer further acknowledges and agrees that, upon receipt of notice from us of the happening of any event which makes any statement in the prospectus untrue in any material respect or which requires the making of any changes in the prospectus to make the statements in the prospectus not misleading or which may impose upon us disclosure obligations that may have a material adverse effect on us, which notice we agree to deliver promptly to the broker-dealer, the broker-dealer will suspend use of the prospectus until we have notified the broker-dealer that delivery of the prospectus may resume and have furnished copies of any amendment or supplement to the prospectus to the broker-dealer.

Kilroy Realty, L.P. (the Company), a Delaware limited partnership, is the entity through which Kilroy Realty Corporation, a self-administered real estate investment trust (REIT) under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code), conducts substantially all of its operations and owns (either directly or through subsidiaries) substantially all of its assets. Kilroy Realty Corporation is the Company's sole general partner and owned a 96.7% general partnership interest as of June 30, 2010. The remaining 3.3% common limited partnership interest as of June 30, 2010, was owned by certain of Kilroy Realty Corporation's executive officers and directors, certain of the Company's affiliates, and other outside investors. The common limited partners have certain redemption rights as provided in the Company's Fifth Amended and Restated Agreement of Limited Partnership (as amended, the Partnership Agreement) (see Note 6). Both the general and common limited partnership interests are denominated in common units. The number of common units held by Kilroy Realty Corporation at all times is equivalent to the number of outstanding shares of Kilroy Realty Corporation's common stock and the entitlements of all the common units to quarterly distributions and payments in liquidation mirror those of the Kilroy Realty Corporation common stockholders. Kilroy Realty Corporation's common stock is publicly traded on the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) under the ticker symbol KRC.

The Company owns, operates, develops, and acquires office and industrial real estate located in California. As of June 30, 2010, all but one of the Company's properties are located in Southern California.

The following table of office buildings (the Office Properties) and industrial buildings (the Industrial Properties) summarizes the Company's stabilized portfolio of operating properties as of June 30, 2010:

	Number of Buildings	Rentable Square Feet	Number of Tenants	Percentage Occupied
Office Properties ⁽¹⁾	100	10,088,803	354	85.7%
Industrial Properties	41	3,654,463	56	83.3%
Total Stabilized Portfolio	141	13,743,266	410	85.1%

(1) Includes one office property acquired in March 2010, one office property acquired in May 2010, and five office properties acquired in June 2010 (see Note 2 for additional information).

The Company's stabilized portfolio excludes undeveloped land, development and redevelopment properties currently under construction, lease-up properties, and one industrial property that the Company is in the process of reentitling for residential use. The Company defines lease-up properties as properties recently developed or redeveloped by the Company that have not yet reached 95% occupancy and are within one year following cessation of major construction activities. As of June 30, 2010, there were no lease-up properties held by the Company.

As of June 30, 2010, the Company owns its interests in all of its Office Properties and Industrial Properties either directly or through Kilroy Realty Finance Partnership, L.P. The Company owns the remaining 99.0% limited partnership interest. The Company conducts substantially all of its development activities through Kilroy Services, LLC (KSLLC), a wholly-owned subsidiary. Unless otherwise indicated, all references to the Company include the Finance Partnership, KSLLC, and all wholly-owned subsidiaries of the Company. With the exception of the Finance Partnership, all of the Company's subsidiaries are wholly-owned as of June 30, 2010.

Basis of Presentation

The consolidated financial statements of the Company include the consolidated financial position and results of operations of the Company, the Finance Partnership, KSLLC, Kilroy Realty Partners, L.P., and all wholly-owned subsidiaries. All intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in the consolidated financial statements. The Company also consolidates all variable interest entities (VIE) in which it is deemed to be the primary beneficiary. During the period ended June 30, 2010, the Company was required to establish a VIE, Kilroy Realty Northside Drive, LLC, to hold the $52.6 million of assets and liabilities purchased and $51.1 million of secured debt, net assumed in connection with the acquisition of three office buildings in San Diego, California (see Notes 2 and 5). Kilroy Realty Northside Drive, LLC is a bankruptcy-remote VIE, and the assets held by this entity are not available to satisfy the debts and other obligations of the Company.

The accompanying interim financial statements have been prepared by the Company's management in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP) and in conjunction with the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). Certain information and footnote disclosures required for annual financial statements have been condensed or excluded pursuant to SEC rules and regulations. Accordingly, the interim financial statements do not include all of the information and footnotes required by GAAP for complete financial statements. In the opinion of management, the accompanying interim financial statements reflect all adjustments of a normal and recurring nature that are considered necessary for a fair presentation of the results for the interim periods presented. However, the results of operations for the interim periods are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the year ending December 31, 2010. These financial statements should be read in conjunction with the audited consolidated financial statements and notes thereto included herein.

Change in Income Statement Presentation

The Company reclassified interest expense to be presented under Other (Expenses) Income in the consolidated statements of operations for all periods presented. Interest expense had previously been presented under Expenses.

Significant Accounting Policies

Acquisitions

The Company records the acquired tangible and intangible assets and assumed liabilities of operating property acquisitions at fair value at the acquisition date. The acquired assets and assumed liabilities for an operating property acquisition generally include but are not limited to: land, buildings and improvements, and identified tangible and intangible assets and liabilities associated with in-place leases, including tenant improvements, leasing costs, value of above-market and below-market leases, acquired in-place lease values, and tenant relationships, if any.

The fair value of land is derived from comparable sales of land within the same submarket and/or region. The fair value of buildings and improvements, tenant improvements, and leasing costs are based upon current market replacement costs and other relevant market rate information.

The fair value of the above-market or below-market component of an acquired in-place lease is based upon the present value (calculated using a market discount rate) of the difference between (i) the contractual rents to be paid pursuant to the lease over its remaining term and (ii) management's estimate of the rents that would be paid using fair market rental rates and rent escalations at the date of acquisition over the remaining term of the lease. The amounts recorded for above-market leases are included in deferred leasing costs and acquisition-related intangibles, net on the balance sheet and are amortized on a straight-line basis as a reduction of rental income over the remaining term of the applicable leases. The amounts recorded for below-market leases are included in deferred revenue and acquisition-related liabilities, net on the balance sheet and are amortized on a straight-line basis as an increase to rental income over the remaining term of the applicable leases.

Table of Contents

The fair value of acquired in-place leases is derived based on management's assessment of lost revenue and costs incurred for the period required to lease the assumed vacant property to the occupancy level when purchased. The amount recorded for acquired in-place leases is included in deferred leasing costs and acquisition-related intangibles, net on the balance sheet and amortized as an increase to depreciation and amortization expense over the remaining term of the applicable leases.

Operating Properties

Operating properties are generally carried at historical cost less accumulated depreciation. Properties held for sale are reported at the lower of the carrying value or the fair value less estimated cost to sell. The cost of operating properties includes the purchase price or development costs of the properties. Costs incurred for the renovation and betterment of the operating properties are capitalized to the Company's investment in that property. Maintenance and repairs are charged to expense as incurred.

When evaluating properties to be held and used for potential impairment, the Company first evaluates whether there are any indicators of impairment for any of the Company's properties. If any impairment indicators are present for a specific property, the Company then performs an undiscounted cash flow analysis and compares the net carrying amount of the property to the property's estimated undiscounted future cash flow over the anticipated holding period. If the estimated undiscounted future cash flow is less than the net carrying amount of the property, the Company then performs an impairment loss calculation to determine if the fair value of the property is less than the net carrying value of the property. The Company's impairment loss calculation compares the net carrying amount of the property to the property's estimated fair value, which may be based on estimated discounted future cash flow calculations or third-party valuations or appraisals. The Company would recognize an impairment loss if the asset's net carrying amount exceeds the asset's estimated fair value. If the Company were to recognize an impairment loss, the estimated fair value of the asset would become its new cost basis. For a depreciable long-lived asset, the new cost basis would be depreciated (amortized) over the remaining useful life of that asset. The Company did not record any impairment losses for the periods presented.

Development and Redevelopment Properties

All costs clearly associated with the acquisition, development, and construction of a development or redevelopment property are capitalized as project costs. In addition, the following costs are capitalized as project costs during periods in which activities necessary to get the property ready for its intended use are in progress: pre-construction costs essential to the development of the property, interest, real estate taxes, insurance, and internal compensation and administrative costs that are clearly related to the Company's development or redevelopment activities.

For development and redevelopment properties that are pre-leased, the Company ceases capitalization when revenue recognition commences, which is upon substantial completion of tenant improvements.

For development and redevelopment properties that are not pre-leased, the Company may not immediately build out the tenant improvements. Therefore the Company ceases capitalization when revenue recognition commences upon substantial completion of the tenant improvements, but in any event not later than one year after the cessation of major construction activities. The Company also ceases capitalization on a development or redevelopment property when activities necessary to get the property ready for its intended use have been suspended.

For development or redevelopment properties with multiple tenants and staged leasing, the Company ceases capitalization and begins depreciation on the portion of the development or redevelopment property for which revenue recognition has commenced.

Edgar Filing: KILROY REALTY CORP - Form 424B3

Once major construction activity has ceased and the development or redevelopment property is in the lease-up phase, the costs capitalized to construction in progress are transferred to land and improvements, buildings and improvements, and deferred leasing costs on the Company's consolidated balance sheets as the historical cost of the property.

In January 2010, the Company borrowed $71.0 million under a mortgage loan that is scheduled to mature on February 1, 2017. The mortgage loan is secured by five properties, bears interest at an annual rate of 6.51%, and requires monthly principal and interest payments based on a 30-year amortization period. The Company used a portion of the proceeds to pay off a mortgage loan with an outstanding principal balance of $63.2 million that was scheduled to mature in April 2010. In connection with the closing of this loan, the Company was refunded the $1.4 million earnest loan deposit it paid to the lender in the fourth quarter of 2009.

In March 2010, the Company used borrowings under the Credit Facility to pay off a secured line of credit with an outstanding principal balance of $33.5 million that was scheduled to mature in April 2010.

In connection with the acquisition of three office buildings at Mission City Corporate Center in June 2010, the Company assumed secured debt with a principal balance of $52.0 million that is scheduled to mature on April 1, 2012. This secured debt was recorded at fair value on the date of the acquisition and is shown net of the initial discount at assumption of $0.9 million on the Company's consolidated balance sheets. This discount will be accreted on a straight-line basis, which approximates the effective interest method, as additional interest expense from the date of issuance through the maturity date of the secured debt. The secured debt and the three properties that secure the debt are held in a bankruptcy remote special purpose entity and are not available to satisfy the debts and other obligations of the Company (see Notes 1 and 2). The debt bears contractual interest at a weighted average annual rate of 5.1%, and requires monthly interest only payments.

Unsecured Senior Notes

In May 2010, the Company issued unsecured senior notes with an aggregate principal balance of $250.0 million that are scheduled to mature in June 2020. The unsecured senior notes require semi-annual interest payments each June and December based on a contractual annual interest rate of 6.625%. The unsecured senior notes are shown net of the initial issuance discount of $2.1 million on the Company's consolidated balance sheets. This discount is accreted on a straight-line basis, which approximates the effective interest method, as additional interest expense from the date of issuance through the maturity date of the unsecured senior notes. The Company used a portion of the net proceeds to repurchase $150.0 million in aggregate principal balance of the 3.25% Exchangeable Senior Notes due in 2012 (the 3.25% Exchangeable Notes). A portion of the net proceeds was used to fund acquisitions during the six months ended June 30, 2010 (See Note 2).

Unsecured Line of Credit

In April 2010, the Company exercised the option to extend the maturity date of the Credit Facility from April 2010 to April 2011 for a one-time extension fee of 0.15% of the total $550 million borrowing capacity of the Credit Facility. The following table summarizes the balance and significant terms of the Credit Facility as of June 30, 2010 and December 31, 2009:

In August 2010, the Company entered into a $500 million unsecured revolving credit facility (the New Credit Facility) and used borrowings under the New Credit Facility to repay, and then terminate, the Credit Facility. The New Credit Facility includes a $200 million accordion option and has a term of three years plus a one year extension option. The New Credit Facility bears interest at an annual rate of LIBOR plus 2.675%.

The unamortized discount on the Exchangeable Notes is accreted as additional interest expense from the date of issuance through the maturity date of the applicable Exchangeable Notes. The following table summarizes the total interest expense attributable to the Exchangeable Notes based on the effective interest rates set forth above, before the effect of capitalized interest, for the six months ended June 30, 2010 and 2009:

- (2) The capped calls mitigate the dilutive impact on the Company of the potential exchange of all of the 4.25% Exchangeable Notes into shares of Kilroy Realty Corporation's common stock.
- (3) In connection with the Company's June 2010 repurchase of $150.0 million of aggregate stated principal of the 3.25% Exchangeable Notes, in July 2010 the Company terminated capped calls in proportion to the debt repurchased. Debt Covenants and Restrictions

As of June 30, 2010 the Credit Facility, the unsecured senior notes, and certain other secured debt arrangements contained covenants and restrictions requiring the Company to meet certain financial ratios and reporting requirements. Some of the more restrictive existing financial covenants include a maximum ratio of total debt to total asset value, a fixed charge coverage ratio, an interest coverage ratio, a minimum consolidated tangible net worth, a minimum unencumbered asset pool value to unsecured debt ratio and a minimum unsecured debt ratio. The New Credit Facility also contains covenants and restrictions requiring the Company to meet certain financial ratios and reporting requirements. In addition, one of the Company's loan covenants prohibits Kilroy Realty Corporation from paying dividends in excess of 95% of funds from operations (FFO). Noncompliance with one or more of the covenants and restrictions could result in the full or partial principal balance of the associated debt becoming immediately due and payable. The Company was in compliance with all of its debt covenants as of June 30, 2010.

Kilroy Realty Corporation owned 52,296,219 and 43,148,762 common units representing a 96.7% and 96.2% common general partnership interest in the Company as of June 30, 2010, and both December 31, 2009 and June 30, 2009, respectively. The remaining 1,723,131 common units outstanding representing a 3.3% and 3.8% common limited partnership interest as of June 30, 2010, and both December 31, 2009 and June 30, 2009, respectively, was owned by certain of Kilroy Realty Corporation's executive officers and directors, certain of the Company's affiliates, and other outside investors.

The common units owned by the common limited partners may be redeemed for cash. The Company, at its option, may satisfy the cash redemption obligation with shares of the Kilroy Realty Corporation's common stock on a one-for-one basis. Whether satisfied in cash or shares of Kilroy Realty Corporation's common stock, the value for each common unit upon redemption is the amount equal to the average of the closing quoted price per share of Kilroy Realty Corporation's common stock, par value $.01 per share, as reported on the NYSE for the ten trading days immediately preceding the applicable balance sheet date. The aggregate value upon redemption of the then-outstanding common units held by common limited partners was $55.0 million and $53.6 million as of June 30, 2010 and December 31, 2009, respectively. This redemption value does not necessarily represent the amount that would be distributed with respect to each common unit in the event of a termination or liquidation of the Company and Kilroy Realty Corporation. In the event of a termination or liquidation of the Company and Kilroy Realty Corporation, it is expected in most cases that each common unit would be entitled to a liquidating distribution equal to the amount payable with respect to each share of Kilroy Realty Corporation's common stock.

(2) The Company accepts the return of RSUs, at the current quoted market price of Kilroy Realty Corporation's common stock, to satisfy minimum statutory tax-withholding requirements related to either RSUs that have vested or RSU dividend equivalents in accordance with the terms of the 2006 Plan.

During the six months ended June 30, 2010 and 2009, 159,606 and 589,805 nonvested RSUs were issued, respectively. The weighted-average grant-date fair value per share for nonvested RSUs granted during the six months ended June 30, 2010 and 2009 was $30.24 and $26.71, respectively.

The total fair value of the RSUs that vested during the six months ended June 30, 2010 and 2009, excluding the vested RSUs issued as dividend equivalents, was $0.7 million and $0.1 million, respectively, which was calculated based on the quoted closing share price of Kilroy Realty Corporation's common stock on the NYSE on the day of vesting.

Compensation Cost Recorded During the Period

The total compensation cost for all share-based compensation programs was $4.3 million and $6.1 million for the six months ended June 30, 2010 and 2009, respectively. Of the total share-based compensation cost, $0.7 million and $0.5 million was capitalized as part of real estate assets for the six months ended June 30, 2010 and 2009, respectively. As of June 30, 2010, there was approximately $8.1 million of total unrecognized compensation cost related to nonvested incentive awards granted under share-based compensation arrangements that is expected to be recognized over a weighted-average period of 1.4 years. The remaining compensation cost related to these nonvested incentive awards had been recognized in periods prior to June 30, 2010.

The $8.1 million of unrecognized compensation cost does not reflect the potential future compensation cost for the approved executive officer share-based compensation programs under which share-based awards have not yet been granted as of June 30, 2010. These programs have a performance period that precedes the grant date. The Company recorded approximately $0.9 million related to these programs for the six months ended June 30, 2010, which is included in the total $4.3 million compensation cost discussed above.

10. Commitments and Contingencies

In March 2008, Newgen Results Corporation (Newgen) attempted to surrender the leased premises at one of the Company's Office Properties and ceased paying rent prior to the end of the lease term. Newgen signed the original lease for the property in 2000 and was subsequently acquired by Teletech Holdings, Inc. (Teletech). The Company refused to accept a surrender of the premises and has initiated legal action against Teletech and Newgen for past due rent and future rent as it becomes due and owing. The Company is actively pursuing this matter and is in discovery, with a trial currently scheduled for the third quarter of 2010. In the event there is ultimately an unfavorable result to the Company, the Company believes that there could potentially be a negative noncash impact to the Company's results of operations ranging between $0 and approximately $3.5 million, primarily related to the deferred rent receivable balance for this tenant as of June 30, 2010. The Company stopped recognizing revenue associated with this lease as of April 1, 2008.

11. Segment Disclosure

The Company's reportable segments consist of the two types of commercial real estate properties for which the Company's chief operating decision-makers internally evaluate operating performance and financial results: Office Properties and Industrial Properties. The Company also has certain corporate level activities including legal administration, accounting, finance, and management information systems, which are not considered separate operating segments.

The Company evaluates the performance of its segments based upon net operating income. Net Operating Income is defined as operating revenues (rental income, tenant reimbursements, and other property income) less property and related expenses (property expenses, real estate taxes, ground leases, and provisions for bad debts) and excludes other nonproperty income and expenses, interest expense, depreciation and amortization, and corporate general and administrative expenses. There is no intersegment activity.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

Kilroy Realty, L.P.

Los Angeles, California

We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheets of Kilroy Realty, L.P. (the Company) as of December 31, 2009 and 2008, and the related consolidated statements of operations, capital, and cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 2009. Our audits also included the financial statement schedules listed in the Index to the Financial Statements. These financial statements and financial statement schedules are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. The Company is not required to have, nor were we engaged to perform, an audit of its internal control over financial reporting. Our audits included consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, such consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2009 and 2008, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 2009, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Also, in our opinion, such financial statement schedules, when considered in relation to the basic consolidated financial statements taken as a whole, present fairly, in all material respects, the information set forth therein.

As discussed in Note 2 to the consolidated financial statements, on January 1, 2009, the Company adopted new accounting provisions with respect to exchangeable debt instruments and noncontrolling interests and retrospectively adjusted all periods presented in the financial statements.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Three Years Ended December 31, 2009

1. Organization and Ownership

Organization

Kilroy Realty, L.P. (the Company), a Delaware limited partnership, is the entity through which Kilroy Realty Corporation, a self-administered real estate investment trust (REIT) under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code), conducts substantially all of its operations and owns (either directly or through subsidiaries) substantially all of its assets. Kilroy Realty Corporation is the sole general partner of the Company and owned a 96.2% and 95.0% general partnership interest as of December 31, 2009 and 2008, respectively. The remaining 3.8% and 5.0% common limited partnership interest in the Company as of December 31, 2009 and 2008, respectively, was owned by certain of Kilroy Realty Corporation's executive officers and directors, certain of the Company's affiliates, and other outside investors. The common limited partners have certain redemption rights as provided in the Fifth Amended and Restated Agreement of Limited Partnership (as amended, the Partnership Agreement) (see Note 7.) Both the general and common limited partnership interests are denominated in common units. The number of common units held by Kilroy Realty Corporation at all times is equivalent to the number of outstanding shares of Kilroy Realty Corporation's common stock and the entitlements of all the common units to quarterly distributions and payments in liquidation mirror those of Kilroy Realty Corporation common stockholders. Kilroy Realty Corporation's common stock is publicly traded on the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) under the ticker symbol KRC .

The Company owns, operates, develops, and acquires office and industrial real estate located in California. As of December 31, 2009, the Company's stabilized portfolio of operating properties was comprised of 93 office buildings (the Office Properties) and 41 industrial buildings (the Industrial Properties), which encompassed an aggregate of approximately 8.7 million and 3.7 million rentable square feet, respectively. As of December 31, 2009, the Office Properties were approximately 80.6% leased to 286 tenants, and the Industrial Properties were approximately 88.2% leased to 58 tenants. All of these properties are located in Southern California.

The Company's stabilized portfolio excludes undeveloped land, development and redevelopment properties under construction, lease-up properties, and one industrial property that the Company is in the process of reentitling for residential use. The Company defines lease-up properties as properties recently developed or redeveloped by the Company that have not yet reached 95% occupancy and are within one year following cessation of major construction activities. During the year ended December 31, 2009, the Company added one development property, which encompasses approximately 51,000 rentable square feet of new medical office space, to the Company's stabilized portfolio since one year had passed since cessation of major construction activities. During the year ended December 31, 2008, the Company added three development properties and two redevelopment properties, which in aggregate encompass approximately 560,000 rentable square feet of new office space, to the Company's stabilized portfolio.

The Company owns its interests in all of its Office Properties and Industrial Properties either directly or through its subsidiaries, including Kilroy Realty Finance Partnership, L.P. (the Finance Partnership) and Kilroy Realty Partners, L.P. Kilroy Realty Finance, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Kilroy Realty Corporation, is the sole general partner of the Finance Partnership and owns a 1.0% general partnership interest. The Company owns the remaining 99.0% limited partnership interest. Kilroy Realty Corporation owned a 1.0% general partnership interest in Kilroy Realty Partners, L.P., which was dissolved in 2009. The Company owned the remaining 99.0% limited partnership interest. The Company conducts substantially all of its development activities through Kilroy Services, LLC (KSLLC), a wholly-owned subsidiary. Unless otherwise indicated, all references to the Company include the Finance Partnership, KSLLC, and all wholly-owned subsidiaries of the Company. With the exception of the Finance Partnership, all of the Company's subsidiaries are wholly-owned as of December 31, 2009.

2. Basis of Presentation and Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation:

The consolidated financial statements of the Company include the consolidated financial position and results of operations of the Company, the Finance Partnership, Kilroy Realty Partners, L.P., KSLLC, and all wholly-owned subsidiaries. All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in the consolidated financial statements.

Edgar Filing: KILROY REALTY CORP - Form 424B3

Effective July 1, 2009, the Financial Accounting Standards Board Accounting Standards Codification (the FASB Codification) became the single source of authoritative generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP) in the United States of America. The FASB Codification reorganized the previous GAAP pronouncements into accounting topics, which are displayed using a single numerical structure. Certain SEC guidance is also included in the FASB Codification and follows a similar topical structure in separate SEC sections. Any technical references contained in the accompanying notes to consolidated financial statements correspond to the new FASB Codification references.

Operating properties are generally carried at historical cost less accumulated depreciation. Properties held for sale are reported at the lower of the carrying value or the fair value less estimated cost to sell. The cost of operating properties includes the purchase price or development costs of the properties. Costs incurred for the renovation and betterment of the operating properties are capitalized to the Company's investment in that property. Maintenance and repairs are charged to expense as incurred.

When evaluating properties to be held and used for potential impairment, the Company first evaluates whether there are any indicators of impairment for any of the Company's properties. If any impairment indicators are present for a specific property, the Company then performs an undiscounted cash flow analysis and compares the net carrying amount of the property to the property's estimated undiscounted future cash flow over the anticipated holding period. If the estimated undiscounted future cash flow is less than the net carrying amount of the property, the Company then performs an impairment loss calculation to determine if the fair value of the property is less than the net carrying value of the property. The Company's impairment loss calculation compares the net carrying amount of the property to the property's estimated fair value, which may be based on estimated discounted future cash flow calculations or third-party valuations or appraisals. The Company would recognize an impairment loss if the asset's net carrying amount exceeds the asset's estimated fair value. If the Company were to recognize an impairment loss, the estimated fair value of the asset would become its new cost basis. For a depreciable long-lived asset, the new cost basis would be depreciated (amortized) over the remaining useful life of that asset. The Company did not record any impairment losses during the years ended December 31, 2009, 2008, and 2007.

Development and Redevelopment Properties

All costs clearly associated with the acquisition, development, and construction of a development or redevelopment property are capitalized as project costs. In addition, the following costs are capitalized as project costs during periods in which activities necessary to get the property ready for its intended use are in progress: pre-construction costs essential to the development of the property, interest, real estate taxes, insurance, and internal compensation and administrative costs that are clearly related to the Company's development or redevelopment activities.

The Company ceases capitalization on a development or redevelopment property either when the property has reached 95% occupancy, one year after cessation of major construction activities, or if activities necessary to get the property ready for its intended use have been suspended. For development or redevelopment properties with extended lease-up periods, the Company ceases capitalization and begins depreciation on the portion of the development or redevelopment property for which the Company has commenced revenue recognition.

Once major construction activity has ceased and the development or redevelopment property is in the lease-up phase, the costs capitalized to construction in progress are transferred to land and improvements, buildings and improvements, and deferred leasing costs on the Company's consolidated balance sheets as the historical cost of the property.

Depreciation and Amortization of Buildings and Improvements

The cost of buildings and improvements and tenant improvements are depreciated using the straight-line method of accounting over the estimated useful lives set forth in the table below. Depreciation expense for buildings and improvements, including discontinued operations, for the three years ended December 31, 2009, 2008, and 2007 was $74.0 million, $68.8 million, and $61.1 million, respectively.

Asset Description	Depreciable Lives
Buildings and improvements	25 40 years

1 20 years⁽¹⁾

(1) Tenant improvements are amortized over the shorter of the lease term or the estimated useful life.

Acquisitions

Three Years Ended December 31, 2009

Effective January 1, 2009, the Company adopted new accounting provisions pertaining to operating property acquisitions. These new provisions, which the Company adopted on a prospective basis, did not impact the Company's consolidated financial statements for the periods presented since the Company did not acquire any operating properties during the year ended December 31, 2009. The impact of the new provisions on future periods will ultimately depend on acquisition activity, but could be material in periods of increasing acquisition activity due to the new requirements to expense acquisition costs as incurred.

In accordance with the new provisions, the Company records the acquired assets and assumed liabilities of operating property acquisitions completed after January 1, 2009 at fair value at the acquisition date. The acquired assets and assumed liabilities for an operating property acquisition generally include but are not limited to: land, buildings and improvements, and identified tangible and intangible assets and liabilities associated with in-place leases, including tenant improvements, unamortized leasing commissions, value of above-market and below-market leases, acquired in-place lease values, and tenant relationships, if any.

The fair value of buildings and improvements, tenant improvements, and unamortized leasing commissions are based on current market replacement costs and other relevant market rate information. The fair value of land is derived from comparable sales of land within the same region.

The fair value of acquired in-place leases is derived based on management's assessment of lost revenue and costs incurred for the period required to lease the assumed vacant property to the occupancy level when purchased. The amount recorded for acquired in-place leases is included in deferred leasing costs and acquisition-related intangible assets in the balance sheet and amortized as an increase to depreciation and amortization expense over the remaining noncancelable term of the applicable leases.

The fair value of the above-market or below-market component of an acquired in-place lease is based upon the present value (calculated using a market discount rate) of the difference between (i) the contractual rents to be paid pursuant to the lease over its remaining term and (ii) management's estimate of the rents that would be paid using fair market rental rates over the remaining term of the lease. The amounts recorded for above-market or below-market leases are included in other assets or acquisition-related liabilities in the balance sheet and are amortized on a straight-line basis as an increase or reduction of rental income over the remaining noncancelable term of the applicable leases.

Discontinued Operations and Properties Held for Sale

The revenues, expenses, and net gain on dispositions of operating properties and the revenues and expenses on properties classified as held for sale are reported in the consolidated statements of operations as discontinued operations for all periods presented through the date of the applicable disposition. The net gain (loss) on disposition is included in the period the property is sold. In determining whether the income (loss) and net gain (loss) on dispositions of operating properties is reported as discontinued operations, the Company evaluates whether it has any significant continuing involvement in the operations, leasing, or management of the sold property. If the Company were to determine that there was any significant continuing involvement, the income (loss) and net gain (loss) on dispositions of the operating property would not be recorded in discontinued operations.

A property is classified as held for sale when certain criteria are met, including but not limited to the availability of the asset for immediate sale, the existence of an active program to locate a buyer, and the probable sale or transfer of the asset within one year. At such time, the Company presents the applicable assets and liabilities related to the property held for sale, if material, separately on the balance sheet and ceases to record depreciation and amortization expense. Properties held for sale are reported at the lower of their carrying value or their estimated fair value less the estimated costs to sell. The Company did not have any properties classified as held for sale as of December 31, 2009 or 2008.

Revenue Recognition

The Company recognizes revenue from rent, tenant reimbursements, parking, and other revenue sources once all of the following criteria are met:

the agreement has been fully executed and delivered;

services have been rendered;

the amount is fixed or determinable; and the collectability of the amount is reasonably assured.

Three Years Ended December 31, 2009

Minimum annual rental revenues are recognized in rental revenues on a straight-line basis over the term of the related lease. Rental revenue recognition commences when the tenant takes possession or controls the physical use of the leased space. In order for the tenant to take possession, the leased space must be substantially ready for its intended use. To determine whether the leased space is substantially ready for its intended use, management evaluates whether the Company or the tenant is the owner of tenant improvements for accounting purposes. When management concludes that the Company is the owner of tenant improvements, rental revenue recognition begins when the tenant takes possession of the finished space, which is when such tenant improvements are substantially complete. In certain instances, when management concludes that the Company is not the owner (the tenant is the owner) of tenant improvements, rental revenue recognition begins when the tenant takes possession of or controls the space.

When management concludes that the Company is the owner of tenant improvements for accounting purposes, management records the cost to construct the tenant improvements as a capital asset. In addition, management records the cost of certain tenant improvements paid for or reimbursed by tenants as capital assets when management concludes that the Company is the owner of such tenant improvements. For these tenant improvements, management records the amount funded or reimbursed by tenants as deferred revenue, which is amortized as additional rental income over the term of the related lease.

When management concludes that the tenant is the owner of tenant improvements for accounting purposes, management records the Company's contribution towards those improvements as a lease incentive, which is amortized as a reduction to rental revenue on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease.

Tenant Reimbursements

Reimbursements from tenants, consisting of amounts due from tenants for common area maintenance, real estate taxes, and other recoverable costs, are recognized as revenue in the period the expenses are incurred. Tenant reimbursements are recognized and recorded on a gross basis, as the Company is generally the primary obligor with respect to purchasing goods and services from third-party suppliers, has discretion in selecting the supplier, and has credit risk.

Other Property Income

Other property income primarily includes amounts recorded in connection with lease terminations. Lease termination fees are amortized over the remaining lease term, if applicable. If there is no remaining lease term, they are recognized when received and realized. Other property income also includes miscellaneous income from tenants, such as fees related to the restoration of leased premises to their original condition and fees for late rental payments.

Allowances for Uncollectible Tenant and Deferred Rent Receivables

As of December 31, 2009 and 2008, current receivables were carried net of an allowance for uncollectible amounts of $3.1 million and $4.0 million, respectively, and deferred rent receivables were carried net of an allowance for uncollectible accounts of $6.4 million and $7.3 million, respectively. Management's determination of the adequacy of these allowances is based primarily upon evaluations of individual receivables, current economic conditions, historical loss experience, and other relevant factors. The allowances are increased or decreased through the provision for bad debts.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly-liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Restricted Cash

Edgar Filing: KILROY REALTY CORP - Form 424B3

Restricted cash consists of cash held as collateral to provide credit enhancement for the Company's mortgage debt, including cash reserves for capital expenditures, tenant improvements, and property taxes.

Marketable Securities

Marketable securities reported in the Company's consolidated balance sheets represent the assets held in connection with the Kilroy Realty Corporation 2007 Deferred Compensation Plan (the Deferred Compensation Plan) (see Note 9). The marketable securities are treated as trading securities for financial reporting purposes and are adjusted to fair value at the end of each accounting period, with the corresponding gains and losses recorded in interest income and other investment gains (losses).

Deferred Leasing Costs

Costs incurred in connection with successful property leasing are capitalized as deferred leasing costs. Deferred leasing costs consist primarily of leasing commissions and also include certain internal payroll costs, which are amortized using the straight-line method of accounting over the lives of the leases which generally range from one to 20 years. Management reevaluates the remaining useful lives of leasing costs as the creditworthiness of the Company's tenants and economic and market conditions change. If management determines that the estimated remaining life of a lease has changed, the Company adjusts the amortization period.

Deferred Financing Costs

Costs incurred in connection with debt financings are recorded as deferred financing costs. Deferred financing costs are generally amortized using the straight-line method of accounting, which approximates the effective interest method, over the contractual terms of the applicable financings. As of December 31, 2009 and 2008, deferred financing costs were reported net of accumulated amortization of $9.7 million and $7.7 million, respectively.

Exchangeable Debt Instruments

Effective January 1, 2009, the Company adopted new accounting provisions with respect to exchangeable debt instruments. This new guidance requires the initial proceeds from exchangeable debt that may be settled in cash, including partial cash settlements, to be bifurcated between a liability component and an equity component associated with the embedded conversion option. The objective of the guidance is to require the liability and equity components of exchangeable debt to be separately accounted for in a manner such that the interest expense on the exchangeable debt is not recorded at the stated rate of interest but rather at an effective rate that reflects the issuer's conventional debt borrowing rate at the date of issuance. These new provisions were applied retrospectively to the Company's financial statements to the April 2007 issuance date of the 3.25% Exchangeable Senior Notes (the 3.25% Exchangeable Notes). The Company recorded the liability component of the 3.25% Exchangeable Notes at an initial fair value of $416.2 million and the equity component, net of issuance costs, at $38.7 million. The effect of the new guidance on the Company's consolidated financial statements for all periods presented is shown in Note 17.

The Company calculates the liability component of exchangeable debt based on the present value of the contractual cash flows discounted at a comparable market conventional debt borrowing rate at the date of issuance. The difference between the principal amount and the fair value of the liability component is reported as a discount on the exchangeable debt that is accreted as additional interest expense from the issuance date through the contractual maturity date using the effective interest method. A portion of this additional interest expense is capitalized to the development and redevelopment balances qualifying for interest capitalization each period. The liability component of the exchangeable debt is reported net of discounts on the Company's consolidated balance sheets.

The Company calculates the equity component of exchangeable debt based on the difference between the initial proceeds received from the issuance of the exchangeable debt and the fair value of the liability component at the issuance date. The equity component is included in partners' capital, net of issuance costs, in the Company's consolidated balance sheets. The Company allocates issuance costs for exchangeable debt between the liability and the equity components based on their relative values.

Effective January 1, 2009, the Company also adopted new accounting provisions, which provide additional guidance when evaluating whether a financial instrument or embedded feature is indexed to an entity's own stock. The Company applied this new guidance to the 3.25% Exchangeable Notes and 4.25% Exchangeable Senior Notes (the 4.25% Exchangeable Notes and, together with the 3.25% Exchangeable Notes, the Exchangeable Notes) and the related capped call option transactions and determined there was no impact to the Company's consolidated financial statements.

Preferred Partnership Interests

Edgar Filing: KILROY REALTY CORP - Form 424B3

The Company's outstanding 1,500,000 7.45% Series A Preferred Units (Series A Preferred Units) are presented in the temporary equity section of the consolidated balance sheets after total liabilities and before capital and reported at redemption value, less issuance costs, given that the Series A Preferred Units contain a right of redemption at the option of the holders in the event of certain corporate events (see Note 6).

F-36

Table of Contents

KILROY REALTY, L.P.

Three Years Ended December 31, 2009

The Company's outstanding 1,610,000 7.80% Series E Cumulative Redeemable Preferred Units (Series E Preferred Units) and outstanding 3,450,000 7.50% Series F Cumulative Redeemable Preferred Units (Series F Preferred Units) are presented in the permanent equity section of the consolidated balance sheets in partners' capital, given that the Series E Preferred Units and Series F Preferred Units may be redeemed only at the option of the Company (see Note 6).

Common Partnership Interests

The common units held by the common limited partners are presented in the permanent equity section of the consolidated balance sheets in partners' capital. The redemption rights of the common limited partners permit the Company to settle the redemption obligation in either cash or shares of Kilroy Realty Corporation's common stock at the option of the Company (see Note 7).

Equity Offering

The net proceeds from any equity offerings of Kilroy Realty Corporation are contributed to the Company in exchange for a number of common units equivalent to the number of shares of common stock issued and are reflected as an increase in partner's capital.

Noncontrolling Interests

The noncontrolling interests in consolidated subsidiaries represent Kilroy Realty Corporation's 1.0% general partnership interest in the Finance Partnership and Kilroy Realty Partners, L.P. These noncontrolling interests are presented in the permanent equity section of the consolidated balance sheets given that these interests are not convertible or redeemable into any other ownership interests of the Company or Kilroy Realty Corporation.

Gain on Early Extinguishment of Debt

Gain on early extinguishment of debt represents the gain recorded in connection with the repurchase of a portion of the outstanding 3.25% Exchangeable Notes (see Note 4). The Company calculates the gain on early extinguishment of debt as the difference on the repurchase date between the estimated fair value of the liability component and the net carrying amount of the repurchased exchangeable debt. Deferred financing costs are written off against the gain on early extinguishment of debt in proportion to the exchangeable debt repurchased.

Share-based Incentive Compensation Accounting

In connection with awards granted by Kilroy Realty Corporation under the Company's share-based incentive compensation programs in respect of services provided to the Company, the Company issues to Kilroy Realty Corporation a number of common units equal to the number of shares of common stock ultimately paid by Kilroy Realty Corporation in respect of such awards. Any dividends and other distributions made by Kilroy Realty Corporation to holders of outstanding awards are reimbursed to Kilroy Realty Corporation by the Company.

For share-based awards in which the performance period precedes the grant date, the Company recognizes compensation cost over the requisite service period, which includes both the performance and service vesting periods, using the accelerated attribution expense method. The requisite service period begins on the date Kilroy Realty Corporation's Executive Compensation Committee authorizes the award and adopts any relevant performance measures. During the performance period for a share-based award program, the Company estimates the total compensation cost of the potential future awards. The Company then records compensation cost equal to the portion of the requisite service period that has elapsed through the end of the reporting period. For programs with performance-based measures, the total estimated compensation cost is based on management's most recent estimate of the probable achievement of the pre-established specific corporate performance measures. These estimates are based on management's latest internal forecasts for each performance measure. For programs with market measures, the total estimated compensation cost is based on the fair value of the award at the applicable reporting date.

For share-based awards for which there is no pre-established performance period, the Company recognizes compensation cost over the service vesting period, which represents the requisite service period, using the straight-line attribution expense method.

The Company records the dividends paid to holders of nonvested awards issued under share-based compensation programs as a decrease to partners' capital. The Company would expense an estimate of the dividends on nonvested awards that were not expected to vest as additional compensation cost, if material.

In accordance with the provisions of the share-based incentive compensation programs, the Company accepts the return of shares of Kilroy Realty Corporation's common stock, at the current quoted market price, from certain key employee to satisfy minimum statutory tax-withholding requirements related to shares that vested during the period.

Basic and Diluted Net Income Available to Common Unitholders per Unit

Basic net income (loss) available to common unitholders per unit is computed by dividing net income (loss) available to common unitholders, after the allocation of income to participating securities, by the weighted-average number of common units outstanding for the period. Diluted net income (loss) available to common unitholders per unit is computed by dividing net income (loss) available to common unitholders, after the allocation of income to participating securities, by the sum of the weighted-average number of common units outstanding for the period plus the assumed exercise of all dilutive securities.

The dilutive effect of the outstanding nonvested shares of Kilroy Realty Corporation's common stock (nonvested shares) and restricted stock units (RSUs) that have not yet been granted but are contingently issuable under the Kilroy Realty Corporation's share-based compensation programs is reflected in the Company's calculation of weighted average diluted outstanding units by application of the treasury stock method at the beginning of the quarterly period in which all necessary conditions have been satisfied. The dilutive effect of stock options and Exchangeable Notes are reflected in the Company's calculation of weighted average diluted outstanding units by application of the treasury stock method.

Effective January 1, 2009, the Company adopted new accounting provisions which require that nonvested share-based payment awards containing nonforfeitable rights to dividends or dividend equivalents, such as nonvested shares and RSUs, be included in the computation of basic and diluted net income available to common unitholders per unit pursuant to the two-class method. Prior to the adoption of this guidance, the impact of nonvested shares and RSUs were included only in the computation of diluted net income available to common unitholders per unit by reflecting them in the Company's calculation of weighted average units outstanding by application of the treasury stock method. The new accounting provisions were applied retrospectively to the Company's calculation of net income available to common unitholders per unit for all periods presented, and the effect of the new provisions on the Company's consolidated financial statements is shown in Note 17. The Company believes that the adoption of the new provisions will not have a material impact to the Company's computations for net income available to common unitholders per unit in the future based upon the share-based compensation programs currently in place.

Fair Value Measurements

The Company adopted the following new accounting provisions with respect to fair value during 2009 and 2008:

Effective January 1, 2008: new framework for fair value measurements and disclosure for its financial instruments;

Effective January 1, 2008: new provisions that permit entities to choose to measure many financial instruments and certain other items at fair value;

Edgar Filing: KILROY REALTY CORP - Form 424B3

Effective January 1, 2009: new framework for fair value measurements and disclosure for all its nonfinancial assets and nonfinancial liabilities, including those reported at fair value on a nonrecurring basis;

Effective April 1, 2009: new provisions providing additional guidance in determining fair values when there is no active market or where the price inputs being used represent distressed sales; and Effective January 1, 2009: new provisions pertaining to the fair value for assets or liabilities arising from contingencies in business combinations and property acquisitions.

Three Years Ended December 31, 2009

The adoption of these provisions, each of which were applied on a prospective basis, did not have a material effect to the Company's financial statements. With respect to the fair value option for financial instruments, the Company elected not to apply the fair value option for any of its eligible financial instruments or other items.

The Company determines the estimated fair value of financial assets and liabilities utilizing a hierarchy of valuation techniques based on whether the inputs to a fair value measurement are considered to be observable or unobservable in a marketplace. Observable inputs reflect market data obtained from independent sources, while unobservable inputs reflect the Company's market assumptions. This hierarchy requires the use of observable market data when available. The following is the fair value hierarchy:

Level 1 quoted prices for identical instruments in active markets;

Level 2 quoted prices for similar instruments in active markets; quoted prices for identical or similar instruments in markets that are not active; and model-derived valuations in which significant inputs and significant value drivers are observable in active markets; and

Level 3 fair value measurements derived from valuation techniques in which one or more significant inputs or significant value drivers are unobservable.

The fair value of the Company's financial assets and liabilities are disclosed in Note 12 to the Company's consolidated financial statements. The only financial instruments recorded at fair value on a recurring basis in the Company's consolidated financial statements are the marketable securities. The Company determines the fair value for the marketable securities using quoted prices in active markets for identical assets. The remaining financial instruments, which are only disclosed at fair value, are comprised of secured debt, unsecured senior notes, $550 million unsecured line of credit (the Credit Facility), Exchangeable Notes, and the note receivable.

The Company determines the fair value of its secured debt, unsecured senior notes, and Credit Facility by performing discounted cash flow analyses using an appropriate market discount rate for similar types of instruments. The Company determines the fair value of the liability component of its Exchangeable Notes by performing discounted cash flow analyses using an appropriate market interest rate for similar non-convertible conventional debt instruments. The Company determines the market rates by obtaining period-end treasury rates for fixed-rate debt, or period-end LIBOR rates for variable-rate debt, for maturities that correspond to the maturities of its debt and then adding an appropriate credit spread derived from information obtained from third-party financial institutions. These market credit spreads take into account factors including, but not limited to, the Company's credit standing, the maturity of the debt, whether the debt is secured or unsecured, and the loan-to-value ratio of the debt. These calculations are significantly affected by the assumptions used, including the discount rate, credit spreads, and estimates of future cash flow.

The Company estimates the fair value of the note receivable by using discounted cash flow analyses based on an appropriate market rate for a similar type of instrument. Carrying amounts of the Company's cash and cash equivalents, restricted cash, and accounts payable approximate fair value due to their short-term maturities.

Income Taxes

Because the Company is a limited partnership, the Company's partners are required to report their respective share of the Company's taxable income on their respective tax returns. Accordingly, the only provision for federal income taxes in the accompanying consolidated financial statements relates to the taxable income from the Company's taxable REIT subsidiary, which was formed in August 2002, and is subject to federal, state, and local income taxes. For each of the years ended December 31, 2009, 2008, and 2007, the taxable REIT subsidiary had less than $30,000 of taxable income.

Uncertain Tax Positions

The Company includes favorable tax positions in the calculation of tax liabilities if it is more likely than not that the Company's adopted tax position will prevail if challenged by tax authorities. The Company evaluates the potential impact of identified uncertain tax positions for all tax years still subject to potential audit under state and federal income tax law. The Company concluded that it did not have any unrecognized tax benefits or any additional tax liabilities as of December 31, 2009 and 2008.

In 2009, the Company adopted new accounting provisions, which establish principles and requirements for evaluating and reporting subsequent events and distinguish which subsequent events should be recognized in the financial statements versus which subsequent events should be disclosed in the financial statements. These provisions did not have an impact to the Company's financial statements since the Company's existing accounting policies were consistent with the requirements of the new provisions.

Concentration of Credit Risk

All but one of the Company's operating and development properties are located in Southern California. The ability of the tenants to honor the terms of their leases is dependent upon the economic, regulatory, and social factors affecting the communities in which the tenants operate.

As of December 31, 2009, the Company's 15 largest tenants represented approximately 48.6% of total annualized base rental revenues. As of December 31, 2009, Intuit Inc. (Intuit) was the Company's largest tenant and accounted for approximately 6.7% of the Company's total annualized base rental revenue.

The Company has cash in financial institutions that is insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) up to $0.25 million per institution. As of December 31, 2009 and 2008, the Company had cash accounts in excess of FDIC insured limits.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reported periods. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

- (2) The variable interest rate stated as of December 31, 2009 is based on LIBOR at the last repricing date in 2009. This repricing rate may not be equal to LIBOR as of December 31, 2009.

The Bonds have annual maturities from September 1, 2010 through September 1, 2038, with interest rates ranging from 4.00% to 6.20%. Principal and interest payments for the Bonds will be charged to the Company through the assessment of special property taxes.
- (4) Under the terms of the loan agreement, the Company has made early principal payments on this loan without penalty. Based on the scheduled contractual monthly payments as of December 31, 2009, the Company will repay the entire principal balance in 2010. The Company's secured debt was collateralized by 47 operating properties as of December 31, 2009 with a combined net book value of $397 million and 47 operating properties at December 31, 2008 with a combined net book value of $403 million.

As of December 31, 2009, seven of the Company's eight secured loans contained restrictions that would require the payment of prepayment penalties for the acceleration of outstanding debt. The mortgage notes payable and the secured line of credit are secured by deeds of trust on certain of the Company's properties and the assignment of certain rents and leases associated with those properties. The Bonds are secured by property tax payments.

The Exchangeable Notes are exchangeable for shares of Kilroy Realty Corporation's common stock prior to maturity only upon the occurrence of certain events as follows: (i) during any calendar quarter, if the closing sale price per share of the common stock of Kilroy Realty Corporation is more than 130% of the exchange price per share of Kilroy Realty Corporation's common stock for at least 20 trading days in a specified period, (ii) during the five consecutive trading-day period following any five consecutive trading days in which the trading price per $1,000 principal amount of the Exchangeable Notes was less than 98% of the product of the closing sale price per share of Kilroy Realty Corporation's common stock multiplied by the applicable exchange rate, (iii) if the Exchangeable Notes have been called for redemption, (iv) upon the occurrence of specified corporate transactions, (v) if Kilroy Realty Corporation's common stock ceases to be listed or approved for quotation for 30 consecutive trading days, or (vi) on or after November 15, 2011 or on or after August 15, 2014 for the 3.25% Exchangeable Notes and 4.25% Exchangeable Notes, respectively.

At any time prior to November 15, 2011 or August 15, 2014 for the 3.25% Exchangeable Notes and 4.25% Exchangeable Notes, respectively, the Company may irrevocably elect, in its sole discretion without the consent of the holders of the Exchangeable Notes, to settle all of the future exchange obligations of the Exchangeable Notes in shares of Kilroy Realty Corporation's common stock. Any shares of Kilroy Realty Corporation's common stock delivered for settlement will be based on a daily exchange value calculated on a proportionate basis for each day of a 50 trading-day observation period or a 30 trading-day observation period for the 3.25% Exchangeable Notes and 4.25% Exchangeable Notes, respectively. The trading price of the Kilroy Realty Corporation's common stock on the NYSE was below the exchange price of the then outstanding Exchangeable Notes as of both December 31, 2009 and 2008 and, thus, the exchange option was out-of-the-money at these dates.

Exchangeable Note Repurchases

During the year ended December 31, 2009, the Company repurchased 3.25% Exchangeable Notes with an aggregate stated principal amount of $162.0 million for approximately $150.4 million in cash using borrowings from the Credit Facility and proceeds from the issuance of the 4.25% Exchangeable Notes. The Company recorded a net gain on early extinguishment of debt of approximately $4.9 million and charged approximately $2.3 million, which represented the amount of the cash repurchase proceeds allocated to the equity component, to partners' capital.

Capped Call Transactions

In connection with the offerings of the Exchangeable Notes, the Company entered into capped call option transactions to mitigate the dilutive impact on the Company of the potential conversion of the Exchangeable Notes. The capped calls, as amended, are separate transactions entered into by the Company with the relevant financial institutions, are not part of the terms of the Exchangeable Notes, and do not affect the holders' rights under the Exchangeable Notes. The strike prices of the capped calls, which are subject to customary anti-dilution adjustments, correspond to the exchange prices of the applicable Exchangeable Notes.

As of December 31, 2009, the Company had outstanding capped calls that referenced a total of 2,257,569 of Kilroy Realty Corporation's common stock related to the 3.25% Exchangeable Notes, which mitigate the dilutive impact on the Company of the potential conversion of two-thirds of the 3.25% Exchangeable Notes into shares of Kilroy Realty Corporation's common stock as if the exchange price were increased from $88.00 to $102.72. The Company's two-thirds position is due to the bankruptcy of Lehman Brothers OTC Derivatives Inc. (Lehman) in October 2008. In connection with the bankruptcy filing, Lehman defaulted on its one-third of the capped calls related to the 3.25% Exchangeable Notes. In the fourth quarter of 2008, the Company early terminated its capped calls with Lehman in accordance with the capped call agreement and sent a demand letter requesting payment of the required termination fee. It is unknown what amount of funds, if any, will be available to satisfy claims with respect to the Lehman bankruptcy, including the termination payment owed to the Company. In addition, in connection with the Company's repurchase of $162.0 million of aggregate stated principal of the 3.25% Exchangeable Notes in 2009, the Company terminated capped calls in proportion to the debt repurchased.

As of December 31, 2009, the Company also had outstanding capped calls that referenced a total of 4,800,796 shares of Kilroy Realty Corporation's common stock related to the 4.25% Exchangeable Notes, which mitigate the dilutive impact on the Company of the potential conversion of all of the 4.25% Exchangeable Notes into shares as if the exchange price were increased from $35.93 to $42.81.

The capped calls are expected to terminate upon the earlier of the maturity date of the related Exchangeable Notes or upon the date upon which the Exchangeable Notes are no longer outstanding due to exchange or to repurchase by the Company. The cost of the capped calls for the 3.25% Exchangeable Notes and 4.25% Exchangeable Notes of approximately $29.1 million and $12.1 million, respectively, was recorded as a reduction to partners' capital on the Company's consolidated balance sheet.

As of December 31, 2009 and 2008, the Company had two series of unsecured senior notes with an aggregate principal balance of $144.0 million. The Series A notes have an aggregate principal balance of $61.0 million and mature in August 2010. The Series B notes have an aggregate principal balance of $83.0 million and mature in August 2014. The Series A and Series B notes require semi-annual interest payments each February and August based on a fixed annual interest rate of 5.72% and 6.45%, respectively.

Unsecured Line of Credit

The Company has a $550 million Credit Facility under which the Company may elect to borrow, subject to bank approval, up to an additional $100 million under an accordion feature. As of December 31, 2009, the Company had borrowings of $97 million outstanding under the Credit Facility and borrowing capacity of approximately $453 million. In April 2010, the Company exercised the option to extend the maturity date of the Credit Facility from April 2010 to April 2011 for a one time extension fee of 0.15% of the total $550 million borrowing capacity of the Credit Facility. The Credit Facility bears interest at an annual rate between LIBOR plus 0.85% and LIBOR plus 1.35% depending upon the Company's leverage ratio (1.11% and 2.12% as of December 31, 2009 and 2008, respectively). The fee for unused funds under the Credit Facility ranges from an annual rate of 0.15% to 0.20% depending on the Company's remaining borrowing capacity. The Company intends to borrow amounts under the Credit Facility from time to time for general corporate purposes, to fund potential acquisitions, to finance development and redevelopment expenditures, and to potentially repay long-term debt.

Debt Covenants and Restrictions

The Credit Facility, the unsecured senior notes, and certain other secured debt arrangements contain covenants and restrictions requiring the Company to meet certain financial ratios and reporting requirements. Some of the more restrictive financial covenants include a maximum ratio of total debt to total asset value, a fixed charge coverage ratio, a minimum consolidated tangible net worth, and a minimum unsecured debt ratio. In addition, one of the Company's loan covenants prohibits Kilroy Realty Corporation from paying dividends in excess of 95% of funds from operations (FFO). Noncompliance with one or more of the covenants and restrictions could result in the full or partial principal balance of the associated debt becoming immediately due and payable. The Company was in compliance with all of its debt covenants as of December 31, 2009 and 2008.

There were no changes in this interest during the years ended December 31, 2009, 2008, and 2007. The Series A Preferred Units have a right of redemption at the option of the holders in the event of certain change of control events, certain repurchases of the Kilroy Realty Corporation's publicly registered equity securities, an involuntary delisting of the Kilroy Realty Corporation's common stock from the NYSE, or a loss of the Kilroy Realty Corporation's REIT status.

Distributions on the Series A Preferred Units accrue at an annual rate of 7.45%. The Series A Preferred Units, which may be called by the Company at a price equal to the liquidation value, have no stated maturity or mandatory redemption and are not convertible into any other securities of the Company. The Series A Preferred Units are exchangeable at the option of the majority of the holders for shares of the Kilroy Realty Corporation's 7.45% Series A Cumulative Redeemable Preferred stock (Series A Preferred Stock) under certain circumstances:

- (i) if distributions on the series have not been timely made for any six prior quarters, or the Company is likely to become a publicly traded partnership for federal income tax purposes;
- (ii) if the Series A Preferred Units would not be considered stock and securities for federal income tax purposes; and
- (iii) at any time following September 30, 2015.

In addition, the Series A Preferred Units may also be exchanged for shares of Series A Preferred Stock if either the Company or the initial holder of the Series A Preferred Units believe, based upon the opinion of counsel, that the character of Company's assets and income would not allow Kilroy Realty Corporation to qualify as a REIT if it were a corporation. In lieu of exchanging Series A Preferred Units for Series A Preferred Stock, the Company may elect to redeem all or a portion of the Series A Preferred Units for cash in an amount equal to $50.00 per unit plus accrued and unpaid distributions. The Series A Preferred Units may only be exchanged in whole, but not in part, and each exchange is subject to the REIT ownership limits contained in the Kilroy Realty Corporation's charter.

Distributions on the Series A Preferred Units are cumulative and are payable quarterly in arrears on the 15th day of each February, May, August, and November. As of December 31, 2009 and 2008, the accrued distribution payable to holders of Series A Preferred Units, which is included in Series A Preferred Units interest on the balance sheet, was $0.7 million.

As of both December 31, 2009 and 2008, the Company had issued and outstanding 1,610,000 Series E Preferred Units and 3,450,000 Series F Preferred Units representing preferred limited partnership interests in the Company. Kilroy Realty Corporation, the holder of both the Series E Preferred Units and Series F Preferred Units, has an equivalent number of shares of 7.80% Series E Cumulative Redeemable Preferred stock and shares of 7.50% Series F Cumulative Redeemable Preferred Stock issued and outstanding. The Series E Preferred Units and the Series F Preferred Units each have a liquidation preference of $25.00 per unit and may be redeemed at the option of the Company. Distributions on the Series E Preferred Units and Series F Preferred Units accrue at an annual rate of 7.80% and 7.50%, respectively. Distributions on both the Series E Preferred Units and Series F Preferred Units are cumulative and are payable quarterly in arrears on the 15th day of each February, May, August, and November. 7. Common UnitsCommon Units Outstanding

Kilroy Realty Corporation owned 43,148,762 and 33,086,148 common units representing a 96.2% and 95.0% common general partnership interest in the Company as of December 31, 2009 and 2008, respectively. The remaining 1,723,131 and 1,753,729 common units outstanding, representing a 3.8% and 5.0% common limited partnership interest as of December 31, 2009 and 2008, respectively, was owned by certain of Kilroy Realty Corporation's executive officers and directors, certain of the Company's affiliates, and other outside investors.

The common units owned by the common limited partners may be redeemed for cash. The Company, at its option, may satisfy the cash redemption obligation with shares of Kilroy Realty Corporation's common stock on a one-for-one basis. Whether satisfied in cash or shares of the Kilroy Realty Corporation's common stock, the value for each common unit upon redemption is the amount equal to the average of the closing quoted price per share of the Kilroy Realty Corporation's common stock, par value $.01 per share, as reported on the NYSE for the ten trading days immediately preceding the applicable balance sheet date. The aggregate value upon redemption of the then-outstanding common units held by the common limited partners was $53.6 million and $56.9 million as of December 31, 2009 and 2008, respectively. This redemption value does not necessarily represent the amount that would be distributed with respect to each common unit in the event of a termination or liquidation of the Company and Kilroy Realty Corporation. In the event of a termination or liquidation of the Company and Kilroy Realty Corporation, it is expected in most cases that each common unit would be entitled to a liquidating distribution equal to the amount payable with respect to each share of Kilroy Realty Corporation's common stock.

Issuance of Common Units

In June 2009, Kilroy Realty Corporation completed an underwritten public offering of 10,062,500 shares of its common stock. The Company used the net proceeds from the offering to repay a portion of the borrowings under the Credit Facility and for other general corporate purposes.

8. Share-Based Compensation

Stockholder Approved Equity Compensation Plans

The Company and Kilroy Realty Corporation establish share-based incentive compensation plans for the purpose of attracting and retaining officers, key employees, and non-employee board members of Kilroy Realty Corporation. As of December 31, 2009, the Company and Kilroy Realty Corporation had one share-based incentive compensation plan, the Kilroy Realty 2006 Incentive Award Plan (the 2006 Plan), which was adopted by the Kilroy Realty Corporation's board of directors and approved by Kilroy Realty Corporation's stockholders. The Executive Compensation Committee of Kilroy Realty Corporation, which is comprised of four independent directors, may grant the following share-based awards as provided under the 2006 Plan: incentive stock options, nonqualified stock options, restricted stock (nonvested shares), stock appreciation rights, performance shares, performance stock units, dividend equivalents, stock payments, deferred stock, RSUs, profits interest units, performance bonus awards, performance-based awards, and other incentive awards to eligible individuals. In connection with awards granted by Kilroy Realty Corporation under the Company's share-based incentive compensation programs in respect of services provided to the Company, the Company issues to Kilroy Realty Corporation a number of common units equal to the number of shares of common stock ultimately paid by Kilroy Realty Corporation in respect of such awards.

In May 2009, Kilroy Realty Corporation's stockholders approved the third amendment to the 2006 Plan. The amendment increased the number of shares of common stock authorized under the 2006 Plan by 1,595,000 shares. It also made certain changes regarding how awards are counted against the number of shares available for issuance under the 2006 Plan. As of December 31, 2009, 2,020,020 shares remained available for grant under the 2006 Plan. Under the weighted share counting provisions contained in the 2006 Plan, the maximum number of shares available for grant subject to full value awards (which generally include equity awards other than options and stock appreciation rights) was 602,991.

In May 2010, Kilroy Realty Corporation's stockholders approved the fourth amendment to the 2006 Plan. The amendment increased the number of shares of common stock authorized under the 2006 Plan by 2,990,000 shares. It also made certain changes regarding how awards are counted prospectively against the number of shares available for issuance under the 2006 Plan.

All of the outstanding share-based awards issued prior to 2007 were issued under the 1997 Stock Option and Incentive Plan (the 1997 Plan), which was terminated by the Kilroy Realty Corporation's board of directors in September 2006. Any awards outstanding upon the termination of the 1997 Plan remain outstanding and in effect in accordance with the terms of such plan and the applicable award agreement.

Stock Award Deferral Program

The Company has a Stock Award Deferral Program (the RSU Program) under the 2006 Plan, which has been effective since the fourth quarter of 2007. Under the RSU Program, participants may defer receipt of awards of nonvested shares that may be granted by electing to receive an equivalent number of RSUs in lieu of nonvested shares. Each RSU represents the right to receive one share of Kilroy Realty Corporation's common stock in the future and is subject to the same vesting conditions that would have applied if the award had been issued in nonvested shares. RSUs carry with them the right to receive dividend equivalents such that participants receive additional, fully-vested RSUs equal to the value of the dividend paid on the shares underlying participant's RSUs. Shares issued in settlement of vested RSUs will be distributed in a single lump sum distribution upon the earlier of the date specified by the participant when the election is made, which must be at least two years after the start of the year in which the underlying award was earned, or upon other certain events as defined under the RSU program.

Share-Based Compensation Programs

The Executive Compensation Committee of Kilroy Realty Corporation has historically awarded nonvested shares and RSUs under the following share-based compensation programs. These share-based awards were valued based on the quoted closing share price of Kilroy Realty Corporation's common stock on the NYSE on the grant date. Dividends are paid on all outstanding shares whether vested or nonvested and are not returnable to the Kilroy Realty Corporation if the underlying shares ultimately do not vest.

In 2007, the Company adopted the Deferred Compensation Plan, under which directors of Kilroy Realty Corporation and certain management employees of the Company may defer receipt of their compensation, including up to 70% of their salaries and up to 100% of their director fees and bonuses, as applicable. Eligible management employees (Participants) will receive mandatory Company contributions to their Deferred Compensation Plan accounts equal to 10% of their gross monthly salaries, without regard to whether such employees elect to defer salary or bonus compensation under the Deferred Compensation Plan. The Kilroy Realty Corporation's board of directors may, but has no obligation to, approve additional discretionary contributions by the Company to Participant accounts.

At the time Participants defer compensation or earn mandatory Company contributions, or at the time the Company obligates itself to make a discretionary contribution to the Deferred Compensation Plan, the Company records compensation cost and a corresponding liability, which is included in accounts payable, accrued expenses, and other liabilities on the Company's consolidated balance sheets. This liability is adjusted to fair value at the end of each accounting period based on the performance of the benchmark funds selected by each Participant, and the impact of adjusting the liability to fair value is recorded as an increase or decrease to compensation cost. For each of the years ended December 31, 2009 and 2007, the Company recorded approximately $0.4 million of total compensation cost in connection with the Deferred Compensation Plan due to the increase in fair value of the benchmark funds. For the year ended December 31, 2008, the Company recorded a net reduction in total compensation cost of approximately $1.0 million in connection with the Deferred Compensation Plan due to the decline in fair value of the benchmark funds.

As of December 31, 2009 and 2008, the Company's liability under the Deferred Compensation Plan of $3.4 million and $1.8 million, respectively, was fully funded. The Company holds the Deferred Compensation Plan assets in a limited rabbi trust, which is subject to the claims of the Company's creditors in the event of the Company's bankruptcy or insolvency. Assets held by the rabbi trust are reported on the Company's consolidated balance sheets in marketable securities and were reported as of December 31, 2009 and 2008 at their fair value of $3.5 million and $1.9 million, respectively (see Note 12).

10. Future Minimum Rent

The Company has operating leases with tenants that expire at various dates through 2027 and are either subject to scheduled fixed increases or adjustments based on the Consumer Price Index. During the third quarter of 2009, the Company exercised its option to terminate a ground lease at Kilroy Airport Center Phase IV in Long Beach. Litigation

To the Company's knowledge, neither the Company nor any of the Company's properties are presently subject to any litigation or threat of litigation which, if determined unfavorably to the Company, would have a material adverse effect on the Company's cash flow, financial condition, or results of operations. The Company is party to litigation arising in the ordinary course of business, none of which if determined unfavorably to the Company, individually or in the aggregate, is expected to have a material adverse effect on the Company's cash flow, financial condition, or results of operations.

In March 2008, Newgen Results Corporation (Newgen) attempted to surrender the leased premises at one of the Company's Office Properties and ceased paying rent prior to the end of the lease term. Newgen signed the original lease for the property in 2000 and was subsequently acquired by Teletech Holdings, Inc. (Teletech). The Company refused to accept a surrender of the premises and has initiated legal action against Teletech and Newgen for past due rent and future rent as it becomes due and owing. The Company is actively pursuing this matter and is in discovery, with a trial currently scheduled for the third quarter of 2010. In the event there is ultimately an unfavorable result to the Company, the Company believes that there could potentially be a negative noncash impact to the Company's results of operations ranging between $0 and approximately $3.5 million, primarily related to the deferred rent receivable balance for this tenant as of December 31, 2009. The Company stopped recognizing revenue associated with this lease as of April 2008.

Insurance

The Company carries comprehensive liability, fire, extended coverage, earthquake, environmental, rental loss, and terrorism insurance covering all of the Company's properties. Management believes the policy specifications and insured limits are appropriate given the relative risk of loss, the cost of the coverage, and industry practice. The Company does not carry insurance for generally uninsurable losses such as loss from riots or acts of God. Some of the Company's policies are subject to limitations of coverage, qualifications, terms, conditions, and involve large deductibles or co-payments. In addition, the Company's earthquake insurance policies include substantial self-insurance portions.

The Company follows the policy of monitoring its properties for the presence of hazardous or toxic substances. While there can be no assurance that a material environmental liability does not exist, the Company is not currently aware of any environmental liability with respect to the properties that would have a material effect on the Company's financial condition, results of operations, and cash flow. Further, the Company is not aware of any environmental liability or any unasserted claim or assessment with respect to an environmental liability that the Company believes would require additional disclosure or the recording of a loss contingency.

12. Fair Value of Financial InstrumentsFinancial Instruments Reported at Fair Value

2008 Lease Terminations

In the second quarter of 2008, Favrilite, Inc. (Favrilite), the Company's seventh largest tenant at June 30, 2008 based on annualized base rental revenues, notified the Company of its intent to cease its business operations and to not pay any future rental payments under its lease beyond June 2008. The Company held a $3.6 million letter of credit and a $0.3 million security deposit as credit support under the terms of the lease. At June 30, 2008, the Company increased its provision for bad debts by approximately $3.1 million to reserve for the portion of the deferred rent receivable balance related to the Favrilite lease that it estimated would not be recoverable after the application of the letter of credit proceeds and security deposit. In July 2008, the Company and Favrilite entered into an agreement to terminate the lease as of August 31, 2008. During the third quarter of 2008, the Company drew down the letter of credit and applied the $3.9 million letter of credit proceeds and security deposit to July and August rent and the outstanding deferred rent receivable and accounts receivable balances.

During the year ended December 31, 2008, the Company also recognized approximately $2.7 million of noncash rental revenue, which was primarily due to the acceleration of the amortization of the deferred revenue balance related to tenant-funded tenant improvements associated with the Favrilite lease. As of December 31, 2009, there was a $14.4 million unamortized balance included in buildings and improvements on the Company's consolidated balance sheet related to the tenant improvements that remain in the two buildings previously leased to Favrilite. The Company believes that these tenant improvements will have value to future tenants.

In July 2008, the Company entered into an agreement with Intuit, the Company's largest tenant as of December 31, 2009 based on annual base rental revenues, to early terminate one of its leases in 2008. The lease that was terminated encompassed approximately 90,000 rentable square feet of office space and was scheduled to expire in July 2014. Intuit had the option to early terminate this lease in 2010. Intuit vacated approximately 95% of the premises in the third quarter of 2008 and the remaining premises during the first quarter of 2009. The Company recognized a net lease termination fee, which is included in other property income, of approximately $0.1 million and $5.0 million during the years ended December 31, 2009 and 2008, respectively.

14. Segment Disclosure

The Company's reportable segments consist of the two types of commercial real estate properties for which the Company's chief operating decision-makers internally evaluate operating performance and financial results: Office Properties and Industrial Properties. The Company also has certain corporate level activities including legal administration, accounting, finance, and management information systems, which are not considered separate operating segments.

The Company evaluates the performance of its segments based upon net operating income. Net Operating Income is defined as operating revenues (rental income, tenant reimbursements, and other property income) less property and related expenses (property expenses, real estate taxes, ground leases, and provisions for bad debts) and excludes other nonproperty income and expenses, interest expense, depreciation and amortization, and corporate general and administrative expenses. There is no intersegment activity.

In January 2010, the Company borrowed $71.0 million under a new mortgage loan that is scheduled to mature February 1, 2017. The new mortgage loan is secured by five properties, bears interest at an annual rate of 6.51%, and requires monthly payments based on a 30-year amortization period. The Company used a portion of the proceeds to repay an outstanding mortgage loan with a principal balance of $63.2 million that was scheduled to mature in April 2010.
