Employment Agreements

On December 30, 2010, the Surviving Company entered into employment agreements with each of Richard Wayne, Claire Bean and Heather Campion (collectively, the Executive Employment Agreements). Mr. Wayne and Mses. Bean and Campion are sometimes referred to herein individually as an Executive and collectively as the Executives. Pursuant to the Executive Employment Agreements, each of the Executives will receive an annual base salary equal to $250,000. In addition, each of the Executives will be entitled to participate in the Surviving Company's non-equity incentive compensation plan as determined by the Compensation Committee, and will receive options to purchase shares of the Surviving Company's voting common stock, as described below under Equity Awards in more detail. The Executive Employment Agreements also provide that the Executives are eligible to participate in any benefit programs that the Surviving Company establishes and makes available to its employees from time to time.

The Executive Employment Agreements contain restrictive covenants, including non-competition and non-solicitation covenants that will survive, for Mr. Wayne, 24 months, and for each of Mses. Bean and Campion, 12 months, following the termination of employment. In connection with the Executive Employment Agreements, each of the Executives entered into a waiver agreement acknowledging and agreeing to the restrictions and limitations on executive compensation applicable to the Surviving Company pursuant to the United States Department of Treasury's Troubled Asset Relief Program (TARP) and any TARP restrictions that may be applicable to the Executives.

The Executive Employment Agreements describe the payments and benefits to which the Executives would be entitled upon termination of their employment under certain circumstances. Specifically, if (i) an Executive's employment is terminated either by the Surviving Company without cause or by such Executive for good reason or if the Surviving Company makes a non-renewal election (each as defined in the applicable Executive Employment Agreements) and (ii) such Executive executes a release of claims prepared by the Surviving Company, the non-competition restrictions in the applicable Executive Employment Agreement will terminate unless the Surviving Company (in the sole discretion of the Board) pays such Executive an amount equal to the base salary such Executive would have received for the duration of the restricted period.

The foregoing description of the Executive Employment Agreements is not complete and is subject to and qualified in its entirety by reference to the Executive Employment Agreements entered into by Mr. Wayne and Mses. Bean and Campion, copies of which are attached hereto as Exhibit 10.2, 10.3 and 10.4, respectively, the terms of which are incorporated herein by reference.
