Item 3.02. Unregistered Sale of Equity Securities.

On October 6, 2011, at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders (the Annual Meeting) of The Mosaic Company, a Delaware corporation (Mosaic), the Mosaic stockholders approved, among other things, the conversion (the conversion) of each issued and outstanding share of each series of Mosaic s Class B Common Stock (class B common stock), par value $0.01 per share (which shares were entitled to ten votes per share for the election of Mosaic s directors and one vote per share for all other matters, and all of which were held by current and/or former stockholders of Cargill, Incorporated (Cargill) who participated in the recapitalization and split-off transaction that was completed on May 25, 2011), on a one-for-one basis, into shares of the corresponding series of Mosaic s Class A Common Stock, par value $0.01 per share (class A common stock) (which shares are entitled to one vote per share for all matters, including the election of directors).

Pursuant to the conversion, all of the 112,991,398 shares of class B common stock outstanding were converted into class A common stock on a one-for-one basis in an offering to existing security holders exempt from registration pursuant to Section 3(a)(9) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

Item 3.03. Material Modification to Rights of Securities Holders.

Pursuant to Mosaic s certificate of incorporation, as a result of the stockholder approval of the conversion, the conversion became effective immediately prior to the close of business on October 6, 2011. As a result of the conversion, each issued and outstanding share of each series of class B common stock was automatically converted into shares of the corresponding series of class A common stock as follows:

each outstanding share of class B common stock, series B-1 was converted into one fully paid and non-assessable share of class A common stock, series A-1;

each outstanding share of class B common stock, series B-2 was converted into one fully paid and non-assessable share of class A common stock, series A-2; and

each outstanding share of class B common stock, series B-3 was converted into one fully paid and non-assessable share of class A common stock, series A-3.

In addition, the conversion had the following effects, among others, on the holders of Mosaic s capital stock:

Voting Power Election of Directors and All Other Matters. As a result of the conversion, former holders of class B common stock no longer have superior rights with respect to the election of Mosaic s directors. All holders of Mosaic s outstanding shares of capital stock now have identical voting rights for the election of directors and the conversion otherwise had no impact on the voting power of holders of class A common stock or Common Stock, par value $0.01 per share (common stock).

Economic Equity Interests. The conversion had no impact on the economic equity interests of holders of Mosaic s capital stock, including with regard to dividends, liquidation rights or redemption.

Capitalization. The conversion had no impact on the total issued and outstanding shares of Mosaic s capital stock. As a result of the conversion, 150,059,772 shares of class A common stock are outstanding and no shares of class B common stock are outstanding. The conversion had no impact on the amount of issued and outstanding shares of common stock.

Transfer Restrictions. Shares of class A common stock into which class B common stock were converted are subject to the same transfer restrictions contained in Mosaic s certificate of incorporation as applicable to other shares of class A common stock.

Item 5.07. Submission of Matters to a Vote of Security Holders.

At the Annual Meeting, the stockholders elected four directors (Nancy E. Cooper, James L. Popowich, James T. Prokopanko and Steven M. Seibert), each for a term of three years expiring in 2014 or until their respective successors have been duly elected and qualified; (ii) approved the conversion of each issued and outstanding share of each series of Mosaic's class B common stock on a one-for-one basis into shares of the corresponding series of Mosaic's class A common stock; (iii) ratified the appointment of KPMG LLP as the independent registered public accounting firm to audit Mosaic's financial statements for the fiscal year ending May 31, 2012; (iv) approved, on an advisory basis, the compensation of Mosaic's Named Executive Officers, as described in the Compensation Discussion and Analysis section, the compensation tables and the related narrative disclosures set forth in Mosaic's proxy statement for the Annual Meeting (the "Say-on-Pay Advisory Proposal"); and (v) approved, on an advisory basis, submission of a Say-on-Pay Advisory Proposal (the "Say-on-Frequency Advisory Proposal") every year.
