Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On November 14, 2011 (the Effective Date), Computer Programs and Systems, Inc. (the Company) entered into a Real Estate Sales Agreement (the Agreement) with C.P. Investments, Inc. (the Seller), whereby, subject to certain conditions, the Seller has agreed to sell to the Company, and the Company has agreed to purchase from the Seller, the Company's corporate headquarters campus in Mobile, Alabama (the Property) for an aggregate purchase price of $9,500,000, subject to certain prorations and adjustments at the closing (the Purchase Price). The Property consists of approximately 16.5 acres and 135,500 square feet of office space, which includes the Company's main headquarter building (consisting of approximately 66,000 square feet of office and warehouse space), eleven additional smaller buildings (consisting of approximately 6,000 square feet of office space each) and an additional building (consisting of approximately 3,500 square feet of office space). The Company currently leases the Property from the Seller under eight separate lease agreements, each of which will be terminated as of the closing of the sale pursuant to the terms of the Agreement.

The Agreement contains customary representations, warranties and covenants, including a covenant by the Seller to permit the Company to conduct a due diligence review of the Property for a period of 60 days following the Effective Date (the Due Diligence Period). Closing under the Agreement shall occur on or before 30 days after the expiration of the Due Diligence Period, and is subject to certain conditions, including, among other things, delivery by the Seller of a title commitment for an owner's title insurance policy. Accordingly, as of the date of this report, and until the closing of the transaction, there can be no assurance that the Company will acquire the Property.

Pursuant to the Agreement, the Company is required to pay the Purchase Price by making a $100,000 deposit (the Earnest Money) into an escrow account within three (3) business days of the Effective Date of the Agreement, with the balance of the Purchase Price payable at the closing.

The Agreement provides for certain termination rights for the Company and the Seller. The Company may terminate the Agreement (i) in its sole discretion at any time prior to the expiration of the Due Diligence Period; (ii) upon the Seller's failure to satisfy any of the Company's conditions to close prior to the closing; (iii) upon a breach of any representation or warranty of Seller prior to the closing; or (iv) if the sale and purchase of the Property is not consummated due to a breach or default of the Seller. If the Company terminates the Agreement on the occurrence of any of these events, the Earnest Money will be refunded to the Company. The Seller may terminate the Agreement if the sale and purchase of the Property is not consummated due to a breach or default of the Company. Upon such termination by the Seller, the Seller will retain the Earnest Money.

The Seller is a related party of the Company, as the stockholders of the Seller include an executive officer of the Company, Michael K. Muscat, Jr., and two of his siblings, each of whom owns a 10% equity interest in the Seller. Accordingly, pursuant to Nasdaq Stock Market Rules and the Company's policy for the review and approval of related party transactions, the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company reviewed and approved the terms and conditions of the Agreement. The Audit Committee evaluated and considered a number of factors, including the financial benefit to the Company of owning instead of leasing the Property and whether the transaction is on terms no less favorable than terms generally available to an unaffiliated third party under the same or similar circumstances. After consideration and discussion of these factors, the Audit Committee concluded that the Agreement was fair to, and in the best interests of, the Company and its stockholders.

The Company anticipates paying the Purchase Price from cash on hand. As of October 31, 2011, the Company had approximately $35.3 million available in cash and investments (approximately $19 million of which was in cash). The Company anticipates an increase in annual earnings per share of approximately $0.06 as a result of the Company owning instead of leasing the Property.

The foregoing is only a summary of the Agreement and is qualified in its entirety by the text of the Agreement. You are urged to read the Agreement in its entirety for a more complete description of the terms and conditions of the Agreement. A copy of the Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.
