This Amendment No. 2 (this Amendment No. 2) amends and supplements the Tender Offer Statement on Schedule TO initially filed on November 18, 2011 by (i) Falcon Acquisition Corp., a Nevada corporation (Purchaser) and a wholly-owned subsidiary of General Dynamics Corporation, a Delaware corporation (Parent), and (ii) Parent (as previously amended and supplemented, the Initial Schedule TO and which, together with this Amendment No. 2, collectively constitute this Schedule TO). This Schedule TO relates to the offer by Purchaser to purchase all of the shares of common stock, par value $0.001 per share (Shares), of Force Protection, Inc., a Nevada corporation (the Company), that are issued and outstanding, at a price per Share of $5.52, in cash, without interest and less any applicable withholding taxes, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the offer to purchase, dated November 18, 2011 (as it may be amended or supplemented from time to time, the Offer to Purchase), and the related letter of transmittal (as it may be amended or supplemented from time to time, the Letter of Transmittal, and together with the Offer to Purchase, the Offer), copies of which are attached to this Schedule TO as Exhibits (a)(1)(A) and (a)(1)(B), respectively.

Except as otherwise set forth below, the information set forth in the Initial Schedule TO remains unchanged and is incorporated herein by reference as relevant to items in this Amendment No. 2. Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the Initial Schedule TO and the related exhibits incorporated therein by reference.

This Amendment No. 2 is being filed to amend and supplement Items 1-11 as reflected below.

Items 1-11.

- A. Adding the following paragraph to the end of Section 8 Certain Information Concerning the Company Certain Unaudited Prospective Financial Information of the Company :

Following the commencement of the Offer, Parent and Purchaser have become aware of other financial information about the Company that Parent and Purchaser did not receive prior to the execution of the Merger Agreement and that Parent and Purchaser did not rely on in determining the Offer Price. Parent and Purchaser understand that the information was computed without review by the Company's senior management and believe it to be immaterial for purposes of the Offer.

The Offer to Purchase is hereby amended and supplemented as follows:

- B. Adding the following information to the end of the second paragraph of Section 11 Background of the Offer (on page 29 of the Offer to Purchase filed on November 18, 2011):

Although management of the Company and General Dynamics Land Systems may have discussed strategic and commercial relationships from time to time between 2006 and July 2010, any such discussions among management of the Company and General Dynamics during that period with respect to a transaction in which General Dynamics would acquire the Company would have been only preliminary in nature.

- C. Amending and restating the second sentence of the third paragraph of Section 11 Background of the Offer in its entirety as follows (on page 29 of the Offer to Purchase filed on November 18, 2011):

Following periodic informal discussions, including a meeting in late September 2010 between various representatives of the parties, on October 13, 2010, Force Protection and General Dynamics Land Systems entered into a confidentiality agreement to facilitate the exchange of information in connection with a possible strategic transaction.

- D. Adding the following information to the end of the fourth paragraph of Section 11 Background of the Offer in its entirety as follows (on page 29 of the Offer to Purchase filed on November 18, 2011):

General Dynamics met with the Company twice in November 2010 to discuss in general their respective businesses, their commercial relationship, and a potential strategic relationship.

- E. Adding the following information to the end of the paragraph that begins On March 16, 2011 of Section 11 Background of the Offer in its entirety as follows (on page 30 of the Offer to Purchase filed on November 18, 2011):

The March 16, 2011 indication of interest did not express the $425 million cash price as a per share amount. The Company later informed Parent and Purchaser that, for purposes of the Company's review of the indication of interest, the Company equated the $425 million aggregate price to a per Share price of approximately $6.07 per Share.

- F. Amending and restating the paragraph that begins Immediately following the April 19, 2011 meeting in Section 11 Background of the Offer in its entirety as follows (on page 30 of the Offer to Purchase filed on November 18, 2011):

Immediately following the April 19, 2011 meeting, General Dynamics instructed its outside counsel, Jenner & Block LLP (Jenner & Block), to review certain diligence materials made available to General Dynamics by Force Protection by means of an electronic data room. General Dynamics and Jenner & Block then conducted due diligence on the Company, including review of documents and preliminary discussions regarding the Company and its businesses.

- G. Amending and restating the first sentence of the paragraph that begins On May 20, 2011 in Section 11 Background of the Offer in its entirety as follows (on page 30 of the Offer to Purchase filed on November 18, 2011):

Several weeks later, on May 20, 2011, after conducting additional detailed due diligence, Mr. Heebner contacted Mr. Moody to discuss certain diligence concerns raised during the preliminary diligence process, including litigation matters involving the Company, the claims against Force Protection pending with the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, and the fact that, because of potential competitive sensitivities, Force Protection had provided little information concerning the Company's third party joint venture arrangements such that General Dynamics could not adequately assess those business arrangements.

- H. Amending and restating the paragraph that begins On October 13, 2011 in Section 11 Background of the Offer in its entirety as follows (on page 31 of the Offer to Purchase filed on November 18, 2011):

On October 13, 2011, General Dynamics and Force Protection entered into an amendment to their confidentiality agreement that extended the agreement for an additional year, and shortly thereafter General Dynamics was granted access to an updated electronic data room to update the due diligence investigation that General Dynamics had conducted in April and May 2011.

- I. Amending and restating the paragraph that begins On October 14, 2011 in Section 11 Background of the Offer in its entirety as follows (on page 31 of the Offer to Purchase filed on November 18, 2011):

On October 14, 2011, General Dynamics submitted a written revised preliminary, non-binding indication of interest letter to Force Protection offering to enter negotiations to acquire the Company for an aggregate cash purchase price of $350 million. The October 14, 2011 indication of interest did not express the $350 million cash price as a per Share amount. The Company later informed Parent and Purchaser that, for purposes of the Company's review of the indication of interest, the Company equated the $350 million aggregate price to a per share price of approximately $5.37 per Share.

J. Amending and restating the paragraph that begins On October 17, 2011 in Section 11 Background of the Offer in its entirety as follows (on page 31 of the Offer to Purchase filed on November 18, 2011):

On October 17, 2011, representatives of General Dynamics and representatives of Force Protection convened a meeting near Force Protection's corporate offices in South Carolina to provide an update on Force Protection's business and outlook and to discuss certain diligence items that had been highlighted in General Dynamics' spring 2011 review of the Company. Representatives for General Dynamics included Mr. Rayha, Mr. Wheeler, Mr. Whited, Mr. Kampani and James Murphy, Assistant General Counsel. Representatives of Force Protection included Mr. Moody, Mr. Mathis, John Wall, Senior Vice President and Assistant General Counsel, and Gregory T. Troy, Chief Human Resources Officer. Also present at the meeting were representatives of Jenner & Block and representatives of Force Protection's financial and legal advisors. At this meeting, the representatives of Force Protection provided an update on the business of the Company, and Mr. Mathis shared with General Dynamics certain non-public unaudited financial information in connection with General Dynamics' due diligence of the Company. The parties also discussed various due diligence items, including the stipulation of settlement entered into by Force Protection in connection with federal shareholder derivative litigation against Force Protection, the process for court approval of such settlement, the insurance proceeds available for any settlement payment, the structure of Force Protection's various third party joint venture arrangements and the status of various other items raised by General Dynamics during its due diligence review of the Company in the spring of 2011. At the conclusion of the meeting, the parties agreed they would move forward with due diligence and that General Dynamics would prepare an initial draft merger agreement for consideration by Force Protection.

K. Amending and restating the paragraph that begins On October 19, 2011 in Section 11 Background of the Offer in its entirety as follows (on pages 31-32 of the Offer to Purchase filed on November 18, 2011):

On October 19, 2011, Mr. Moody contacted Mr. Wheeler regarding the General Dynamics proposal, and Mr. Heebner then contacted Mr. Moody. During that discussion, Mr. Moody indicated to Mr. Heebner that the Company Board was supportive of the idea of a potential transaction with General Dynamics, but felt that a higher price would be necessary in order for the Company Board to approve the transaction. Following a further discussion of the business prospects of Force Protection (including its recent success with its Buffalo vehicle program), concerns about the defense market environment and the benefits a combination of the two companies would provide, Mr. Heebner indicated that General Dynamics would be willing to increase its offer price to a $360 million aggregate cash purchase price, but that he could not consider any higher price without finding a basis to support such higher price (which could only be found, if at all, after significant additional due diligence) and without presenting such higher price to the General Dynamics board of directors, all of which would likely significantly delay entering into an agreement. Mr. Moody indicated that he believed the revised offer may be acceptable to the Company Board, but that he would need to discuss the offer with the Company Board.

L. Amending and restating the paragraph that begins On October 26, 2011 in Section 11 Background of the Offer in its entirety as follows (on page 32 of the Offer to Purchase filed on November 18, 2011):

On October 26, 2011, Mr. Wheeler contacted Mr. Mathis to indicate that he believed there were substantial issues with the draft Merger Agreement provided by Force Protection, including Force Protection's request for a reduced, two-tiered termination fee that would only be either $2.25 million or $4.5 million, and that he believed reaching an agreement prior to the Company's previously established deadline, which was in 11 days and which the Company stated was established to precede the deadline for filing the Company's quarterly report for the third quarter of 2011 (which the Company stated it believed may have required disclosure of any pending discussions with General Dynamics) and to coincide with the Company's previously-scheduled quarterly earnings announcement, would be very difficult if Force Protection insisted upon the terms in Force Protection's most recent draft of the Merger Agreement. Mr. Mathis suggested that the parties and their representatives discuss the Merger Agreement the next day.

M. Amending and restating the first sentence of the paragraph that begins On November 4, 2011 in Section 11 Background of the Offer in its entirety as follows (on page 33 of the Offer to Purchase filed on November 18, 2011):

On November 4, 2011, Mr. Mathis called Mr. Wheeler and discussed with him the significant open matters, including the mechanics of the minimum tender condition, the extent of General Dynamics' obligation to take certain actions with respect to obtaining required regulatory approvals, the definition of Material Adverse Effect, the parties' rights to terminate the Merger Agreement and the size of, and triggers to, the termination fee.

N. Adding the following paragraph to the end of Section 13 The Transaction Documents The Merger Agreement The Top-Up Option :
Based upon the number of Shares issued and outstanding, provided by the Company, on November 16, 2011, we believe that the Company would have approximately 237 million Shares available to issue to us as Top-Up Shares upon our exercise of the Top-Up Option.

O. Amending and restating the information set forth in the fourth bullet of the first paragraph of Section 16 Certain Legal Matters; Regulatory Approvals Certain Litigation in its entirety as follows:

A complaint in the First Judicial District Court in Carson City, Nevada, dated November 9, 2011, which was amended on November 29, 2011, captioned Bhavdip Bhayani, et al. v. Michael Moody, et al.;

On December 1, 2011, the Ninth Judicial District in Charleston County, South Carolina permitted the South Carolina plaintiffs to participate in discovery taking place in Wiener I.
