This Amendment No. 2 to the Tender Offer Statement on Schedule TO (as amended, the Schedule TO) amends and supplements the Schedule TO relating to the tender offer by (i) Inta Acquisition Corporation, a Delaware corporation (Purchaser) and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Bristol-Myers Squibb Company, a Delaware corporation (Parent) and (ii) Parent, for all of the outstanding common stock, par value $0.001 per share (the Shares), of Inhibitex, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the Company), at a price of $26.00 per share net to the seller in cash without interest and less applicable withholding taxes, if any, upon the terms and conditions set forth in the offer to purchase dated January 13, 2012 (the Offer to Purchase), a copy of which is attached as Exhibit (a)(1)(A), and in the related letter of transmittal (the Letter of Transmittal), a copy of which is attached as Exhibit (a)(1)(B), which, together with any amendments or supplements, collectively constitute the Offer.

All information set forth in the Offer to Purchase is incorporated by reference herein in response to Items 1 through 9 and Item 11 in this Schedule TO, and is supplemented by the information specifically provided in this Schedule TO.

This Amendment No. 2 is being filed to amend and supplement Items 11 and 12 as reflected below.

Item 11

(a) Agreements, Regulatory Requirements and Legal Proceedings. Item 11(a) of the Schedule TO is hereby amended and supplemented by adding the following paragraphs immediately after the paragraph of the sub-section captioned Stockholder Litigation.

On January 19, 2012, the purported stockholder class action complaint filed in the Superior Court of Fulton County in the State of Georgia, captioned, Jeremy Alber v. Inhibitex, Inc., et al., Civil Action No. 2012CV210222, was amended, adding allegations that the Schedule 14D-9 in the form filed by the Company on January 17, 2012, failed to fully and fairly disclose certain material information concerning the proposed transaction. The amended complaint, however, does not allege any additional causes of action. The Company, Purchaser and Parent believe the plaintiff's new allegations, like the previous ones, lack merit and intend to vigorously contest the claims raised in the lawsuit. The foregoing description is qualified in its entirety by reference to the amended complaint which is filed as Exhibit (a)(9).

On January 18, 2012, a purported stockholder class action complaint was filed in the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware, captioned Fernando Galo v. Inhibitex, Inc., et al., Case No. 7178. On January 19, 2012, a separate purported stockholder class action complaint was filed in the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware, captioned Victor Vickers v. Inhibitex, Inc., et al., Case No. 7185. Each complaint names as defendants, the Company, the Individual Defendants, Parent and Purchaser, and each complaint was subsequently consolidated as described below.

On January 20, 2012, the attorneys for the plaintiffs in two of the purported stockholder class action complaints filed an amended complaint (the Consolidated Delaware Complaint) in the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware, captioned, Charles C. Osborne, Jr. and Hortensia D. Osborne v. Inhibitex, Inc., et al., Case No. 7169 and John P. Hegarty v. Inhibitex, Inc., et al., Case No. 7175, consolidating the claims made in their respective complaints and adding allegations that the Individual Defendants caused materially misleading and incomplete information to be distributed to the Company's stockholders. The Company, Purchaser and Parent believe the plaintiffs' new allegations, like the previous ones, lack merit and intend to vigorously contest the claims raised in the lawsuit.

On January 25, 2012, the court entered an order consolidating the four purported stockholder class action complaints filed in the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware, captioned, Charles C. Osborne, Jr. and Hortensia D. Osborne v. Inhibitex, Inc., et al., Case No. 7169, John P. Hegarty v. Inhibitex, Inc., et al., Case No. 7175, Fernando Galo v. Inhibitex, Inc., et al., Case No. 7178 and Victor Vickers v. Inhibitex, Inc., et al., Case No. 7185. The consolidated case is captioned In re Inhibitex, Inc. Shareholders Litigation, Case No. 7169-VCN (the Consolidated Delaware Action), and the Consolidated Delaware Complaint is designated as the operative complaint. The parties to this action have agreed to expedited discovery, and a preliminary injunction hearing has been scheduled for February 6, 2012. The description in this and the foregoing two paragraphs is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Consolidated Delaware Complaint which is filed as Exhibit (a)(10).

On January 25, 2012, a purported stockholder class action complaint was filed in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Georgia, captioned Ferdinand Alvarez v. Inhibitex, Inc., et al., Case No. 1:12-mi-99999. The complaint names as defendants, the Company, the Individual Defendants, Parent and Purchaser. The complaint alleges that the Individual Defendants violated Sections 14(d)(4) and 14(e) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 by issuing the Schedule 14D-9 that allegedly misrepresented certain material information and omitted certain material information concerning the proposed transaction. The complaint also alleges that the allegedly misleading Schedule 14D-9 will deprive the stockholders of their entitlement to make a fully informed decision about whether to tender their shares in support of the tender offer. The complaint generally alleges the Individual Defendants breached their fiduciary duties by failing to take steps to maximize the value of the Company, failing to properly value the Company, ignoring their conflicts of interest and failing to make adequate disclosures. The complaint also alleges that the Company, Parent and Purchaser aided and abetted these purported breaches of fiduciary duties. The relief sought includes, among other things, an injunction declaring that the Schedule 14D-9 is materially misleading and contains omissions of material fact, an injunction prohibiting the consummation of the proposed transaction, the award of damages and the payment of attorneys' fees and costs. The Company, Parent and Purchaser believe the plaintiff's allegations lack merit and intend to vigorously contest the claims raised in the lawsuit. The foregoing description is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complaint which is filed as Exhibit (a)(11).

Edgar Filing: INHIBITEX, INC. - Form SC TO-T/A

On January 26, 2012, the court entered an order staying the purported stockholder class action in the Superior Court of Fulton County in the State of Georgia, captioned, Jeremy Alber v. Inhibitex, Inc., et al., Civil Action No. 2012CV210222, in deference to the Consolidated Delaware Action filed in the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware. The plaintiff in the Alber action agreed to dismiss the action upon the final resolution of the Consolidated Delaware Action.
