ITEM 8.01 OTHER EVENTS.

Change of Domicile from Delaware to California

At the Annual Meeting of Stockholders of La Jolla Pharmaceutical Company, a Delaware corporation (LJPC Delaware) on May 22, 2012, LJPC Delaware's stockholders, upon the recommendation of its Board of Directors, approved a proposal to merge LJPC Delaware with and into its wholly-owned subsidiary, LJPC Merger Sub, Inc., a California corporation (LJPC California), for the purpose of changing the domicile of LJPC Delaware from Delaware to California (the Merger). Following stockholder approval, the Merger was effected on June 7, 2012. As a result, LJPC Delaware is now a California corporation. Pursuant to an Agreement and Plan of Merger between LJPC Delaware and LJPC California to effect the Merger, LJPC Merger Sub, Inc. changed its name to La Jolla Pharmaceutical Company. LJPC California is deemed to be the successor issuer of LJPC Delaware under Rule 12g-3 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

The Board of Directors recommended the Merger primarily because it will result in significant cost savings with respect to the payment of annual franchise tax fees that are currently paid to the State of Delaware. For the fiscal year ended December 31, 2011, LJPC Delaware paid $122,850 in Delaware franchise taxes and, for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2012, LJPC Delaware paid a pro-rated amount of $90,095 in Delaware franchise taxes. LJPC Delaware anticipated that if it were to remain incorporated in Delaware, it could continue to pay up to $180,000 in Delaware franchise taxes each year for the foreseeable future. During the current fiscal year, some of the savings anticipated by the reincorporation from Delaware to California will initially be offset by expenses associated with the reincorporation, such as filing, legal, printing and similar expenses.

Additional information about the Merger and a comparison of the rights of stockholders of LJPC Delaware and LJPC California can be found in LJPC Delaware's proxy statement, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on April 23, 2012.

In connection with the Merger, the Articles of Incorporation of LJPC California (the Charter) and the Bylaws of LJPC California (the Bylaws) have become the governing documents for LJPC Delaware's stockholders. The Charter and the Bylaws are attached as exhibits hereto.
