(PepsiCo) announced an offering of $625,000,000 aggregate principal amount of its Floating Rate Notes due 2016 (the 2016 Floating Rate Notes), $625,000,000 aggregate principal amount of its 0.700% Senior Notes due 2016 (the 2016 Fixed Rate Notes) and $1,250,000,000 aggregate principal amount of its 2.750% Senior Notes due 2023 (the 2023 Fixed Rate Notes and, together with the 2016 Floating Rate Notes and the 2016 Fixed Rate Notes, the Notes). BNP Paribas Securities Corp., J.P. Morgan Securities LLC and Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated were joint bookrunners for the offering of the Notes.

The public offering price of the 2016 Floating Rate Notes was 100.000% of the principal amount, the public offering price of the 2016 Fixed Rate Notes was 99.965% of the principal amount and the public offering price of the 2023 Fixed Rate Notes was 99.904% of the principal amount. PepsiCo received net proceeds of approximately $2,489.8 million, after deducting underwriting discounts and estimated offering expenses payable by PepsiCo. PepsiCo intends to use the net proceeds for general corporate purposes, including the repayment of commercial paper. The Notes were offered and sold pursuant to a Terms Agreement (the Terms Agreement) dated February 25, 2013 (incorporating the Underwriting Agreement Standard Provisions dated February 25, 2013) among PepsiCo and the representatives of the several underwriters, under PepsiCo's automatic shelf registration statement (the Registration Statement) on Form S-3 (Registration No. 333-177307), filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) on October 13, 2011. PepsiCo has filed with the SEC a prospectus supplement, dated February 25, 2013, together with the accompanying prospectus, dated October 13, 2011, relating to the offer and sale of the Notes.

The Notes were issued on February 28, 2013 pursuant to an Indenture (the Indenture) dated as of May 21, 2007 between PepsiCo and The Bank of New York Mellon, as Trustee. The 2016 Floating Rate Notes will bear interest at the rate of LIBOR plus 21 basis points, with interest payable on February 26, May 26, August 26 and November 26 of each year, beginning on May 26, 2013, and will mature on February 26, 2016. The 2016 Floating Rate Notes are not redeemable. The 2016 Fixed Rate Notes will bear interest at the rate of 0.700% per year, with interest payable on February 26 and August 26 of each year, beginning on August 26, 2013, and will mature on February 26, 2016. PepsiCo will be able to redeem some or all of the 2016 Fixed Rate Notes at any time and from time to time at the greater of 100% of the principal amount of the 2016 Fixed Rate Notes being redeemed and the discounted present value of such Notes, discounted at the corresponding U.S. Treasury rate plus 5 basis points. The 2023 Fixed Rate Notes will bear interest at the rate of 2.750% per year, with interest payable on March 1 and September 1 of each year, beginning on September 1, 2013, and will mature on March 1, 2023. PepsiCo will be able to redeem some or all of the 2023 Fixed Rate Notes at any time and from time to time at the greater of 100% of the principal amount of the 2023 Fixed Rate Notes being redeemed and the discounted present value of such Notes, discounted at the corresponding U.S. Treasury rate plus 15 basis points. The Notes are unsecured obligations of PepsiCo and rank equally with all of PepsiCo's other unsecured senior indebtedness. The Indenture also contains customary event of default provisions.

The above description of the Terms Agreement, the Indenture and the Notes is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Terms Agreement, the Indenture and the forms of Notes.
