Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On March 27, 2013, MoneyGram International, Inc. (the Company) and Pamela H. Patsley entered into a new employment agreement (the Employment Agreement), which supersedes the existing employment agreement between the Company and Ms. Patsley, which was set to expire on August 31, 2013.

Pursuant to the Employment Agreement, Ms. Patsley will continue to serve as the Company's CEO under the terms and conditions of the Employment Agreement for the period commencing on March 27, 2013 and ending on September 1, 2015. Ms. Patsley will also continue in her capacity as Executive Chairman of the Board of Directors. Under the terms of the Employment Agreement, Ms. Patsley will receive an annual base salary of $925,000, which is subject to annual review and may be increased, but not decreased without Ms. Patsley's consent. Ms. Patsley is also eligible to participate in the Company's Performance Bonus Plan (PBP), with a target annual bonus equal to 120 percent of her base salary and a maximum annual bonus equal to two times her target bonus if Company performance exceeds targeted levels. Also pursuant to the Employment Agreement, Ms. Patsley shall participate in the Company's 2005 Omnibus Incentive Plan, and be eligible to receive annual equity grants with a grant date fair market value at least equal to four times her base salary in effect at the time of grant.

The Employment Agreement provides that if Ms. Patsley were terminated without cause or if she resigns for good reason in the absence of a change of control (each as defined in the Employment Agreement), she would receive a payment of two times the sum of her base salary plus her target bonus under the PBP. In addition, Ms. Patsley would receive a pro rata portion of her bonus under the PBP for the year in which the termination occurs, provided the Company actually achieves its performance goals for the applicable performance period, and her health and life insurance would continue for a period of 24 months from the date of termination. Also, certain of Ms. Patsley's equity awards and her cash performance award would remain outstanding and eligible to vest, or would remain exercisable, for various periods of time following termination of employment.

If Ms. Patsley's employment were terminated by the Company without cause or by Ms. Patsley for good reason within 12 months following a change of control, she would receive a payment of two times the sum of her base salary plus her target bonus under the PBP. In addition, Ms. Patsley would receive a pro rata portion of her bonus under the PBP for the year in which the termination occurs, provided the Company actually achieves its performance goals for the applicable performance period, and her health and life insurance would continue for a period of 24 months from the date of termination. In addition, all stock options or any other long term incentive awards subject to time-based vesting would immediately vest, and a pro rata portion of all performance-based equity would immediately vest assuming the performance goals applicable to such award have been achieved at target level.

If Ms. Patsley's employment were terminated for any reason other than cause at or following the expiration of the term on September 1, 2015, Ms. Patsley would be entitled to receive a pro rata portion of her bonus under the PBP for the year in which the termination occurs, provided the Company actually achieves its performance goals for the applicable performance period. Also, certain of Ms. Patsley's equity awards and her cash performance award would remain outstanding and eligible to vest, or would remain exercisable, for various periods of time following termination of employment.

The foregoing description of the Employment Agreement is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by the Employment Agreement, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 and incorporated by reference to this Current Report on Form 8-K.
